¹⁴Thick clouds are a covering to Him, so that He does not see; and He walks in the circuit of Heaven.

¹⁵Do you keep to the old way which wicked men have walked?

¹⁶who are cut down before their time; whose foundation was overflowed with a flood;

¹⁷who said to God, Depart from us; and, What can the Almighty do to them?

¹⁸Yet He filled their houses with good things;
 but the wisdom of the wicked is far from me.
¹⁹The righteous see it, and are glad;
 and the innocent laugh them to scorn.
²⁰Truly our foe is cut down,
 and fire has burned up their wealth.
²¹Now become one with Him, and be at peace.
 Thereby good shall come to you.
²²Receive, I pray you, the law from His mouth,
 and lay up His words in your heart.
²³If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up;
 you shall put away iniquity far from your tents.
²⁴Then you shall lay up gold like dust,
 and the gold of Ō'-phir like the stones of the brooks.
²⁵Yea, the Almighty shall be your defense,
 and you shall have plenty of silver.
²⁶For then you shall have your delight in the Almighty,
 and shall lift up your face unto God.
²⁷You shall make your prayer unto Him,
 and He shall hear you,
 and you shall pay your vows.
²⁸You shall also order a thing, and it shall be fulfilled to you;
 and the light shall shine upon your ways.
²⁹When men are cast down, then you shall say, There is lifting up;
 and He shall save the humble person.
³⁰He shall deliver the island of the innocent;
 and it is delivered by the pureness of your hands.

CHAPTER 23

¹Then Job answered and said, ²Even today is my complaint bitter;
 my stroke is heavier than my groaning.
³Oh that I knew where I might find Him!
 that I might come even to His seat!
⁴I would order my cause before Him,

and fill my mouth with arguments.
⁵I would know the words which He would answer me,
 and understand what He would say to me.
⁶Will He plead against me with His great power?
 No, but He would put strength in me.
⁷There the righteous might reason with Him;
 so should I be delivered forever from my Judge.
⁸Behold, I go forward, but He is not there;
 and backward, but I cannot see Him;
⁹on the left hand, where He works, but I cannot behold Him.
 He hides Himself on the right hand,
 so that I cannot see Him.
¹⁰But He knows the way that I take;
 when He has tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
¹¹My foot has held fast to His steps;
 I have kept His way, and have not fallen away.
¹²Neither have I gone back from the commandment of His lips;
 I have counted the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.
¹³But He is in one mind, and who can turn Him?
 And what His soul desires, even that He does.
¹⁴For He does what is appointed for me,
 and many such things are with Him.
¹⁵Therefore I am troubled at His presence;
 when I look, I am afraid of Him.
¹⁶For God makes my heart soft,
 and the Almighty troubles me;
¹⁷because I was not cut off before the darkness,
 neither has He covered the darkness from my face.

CHAPTER 24

¹Why, since times are not hidden from the Almighty, do those who know Him not see His days?

- ²Some remove the landmarks;
they violently take away flocks and feed them.
- ³They drive away the ass of the fatherless,
they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
- ⁴They turn the needy out of the way;
the poor of the earth hide themselves
together.
- ⁵Behold, like wild asses in the desert,
they go forth to their work, rising early for a prey.
- The wilderness yields food for them
and for their children.
- ⁶They reap each one his grain in the field;
and they gather the grapes of the
wicked.
- ⁷They cause the naked to spend the night without clothing,
so that they have no covering in the cold.
- ⁸They are wet with the showers of the mountains,
and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter.
- ⁹They pluck the fatherless from the
breast,
and take a pledge from the poor.
- ¹⁰They cause him to go naked without
clothing,
and they take away the sheaf from
the hungry;
- ¹¹who make oil within their walls,
and tread their wine-presses, and still suffer thirst.
- ¹²Men groan from out of the city,
and the soul of the wounded cries
out;
yet God does not attend to them.
- ¹³They are of those who rebel against
the light;
they know not the ways of it,
nor stay in the paths of it.
- ¹⁴The murderer rising with the light
kills the poor and needy,
and in the night is like a thief.
- ¹⁵The eye also of the adulterer waits for
the twilight,
saying, No eye will see me;
and sets his face in secret.
- ¹⁶In the dark they dig through houses which they had marked for themselves in the daytime;
they do not know the light.
- ¹⁷For the morning is to them like the shadow of death;
for they know the terrors of the
shadow of death.
- ¹⁸He is swift as the waters;
their portion is cursed in the earth;
he does not behold the way of the vineyards.
- ¹⁹Drought and heat eat up the snow
waters;
so does the grave those who have sinned.
- ²⁰The womb shall forget him;
the worm shall feed sweetly upon
him;
he shall be remembered no more;
and wickedness shall be broken like a tree.
- ²¹He ill-treats the women who bear no
children;
and does no good to the widow.
- ²²He also draws the mighty with his power;
he rises up, and no man is sure of life.
- ²³Though he is blessed with safety, on which he rests;
yet his eyes are upon their ways.
- ²⁴They are lifted up for a little while,
but are gone and brought low;
they are taken out of the way like all others,
and are cut off like the tops of the ears of grain.
- ²⁵And if it is not so now, who will make me a liar,
and make my speech worth nothing?

¹Then Bîl'-dād the Shû'-hite answered and said,

²Rule and fear are with Him;
He makes peace in His high places.

³Is there any number of His armies?
And upon whom does not His light arise?

⁴How then can man be justified with
God?

Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean?

⁵Look even to the moon, and it shines not;
yea, the stars are not pure in His sight.

⁶How much less man, who is a maggot, and the son of man, who is a worm?

CHAPTER 26

¹But Job answered and said,

²How have you helped him who is without power?

How have you saved the arm that has no strength?

³How have you advised him who has no wisdom?

And how have you plentifully declared the thing as it is?

⁴To whom have you spoken words?

And whose spirit came from you?

⁵The souls of the dead tremble under the waters,
and those who dwell in them.

⁶Hell is naked before Him,
and the place of ruin has no covering.

⁷He stretches out the north over the empty place,
and hangs the earth upon nothing.

⁸He binds up the waters in His thick clouds;
and the cloud is not torn under them.

⁹He holds back the face of His throne,
and spreads His cloud upon it.

¹⁰He has hemmed in the waters with bounds,
until the day and night come to an end.

¹¹The pillars of Heaven tremble
and wonder at His rebuke.

¹²He divides the sea with His power,
and by His understanding He strikes through the proud.

¹³By His Spirit He has made the heavens beautiful;
His hand formed the crooked serpent.

¹⁴Lo, these are parts of His ways;
but how little a portion is heard of Him!

But the thunder of His power who can understand?

CHAPTER 27

¹Moreover Job continued his parable and said,

²As God lives, who has taken away my judgment;
and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter;

³as long as my breath is in me,
and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

⁴my lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

⁵God forbid that I should justify you;
until I die I will not remove my purity from me.

⁶I hold fast my righteousness, and will not let it go;
my heart shall not shame me as long as I live.

⁷Let my enemy be like the wicked,
and he who rises up against me as the unrighteous.

⁸For what is the hope of the ungodly, though he has increased,
when God takes away his soul?

⁹Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?

¹⁰Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
Will he always call upon God?

¹¹I will teach you by the hand of God;
that which is with the Almighty I will not hide.

¹²Behold, all you have seen it yourselves;
why then are you so completely vain?

¹³This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the inheritance of cruel men which they shall receive from the Almighty.

¹⁴If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword;
and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

¹⁵Those who remain of him shall be buried in death;
and his widows shall not weep.

¹⁶Though he heap up silver like the dust,
and provide clothing like the clay,

- ¹⁷He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,
and the innocent shall divide the silver.
- ¹⁸He builds his house like a moth,
and like a booth that the watchman makes.
- ¹⁹The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered.
He opens his eyes, and he is not.
- ²⁰Fears shall take hold of him like waters;
a storm steals him away in the night.
- ²¹The east wind carries him away, and he goes;
and a stormy wind sweeps him out of his place.
- ²²For God shall cast upon him, and not spare;
in fleeing he would flee out of his hand.
- ²³Men shall clap their hands at him,
and shall hiss him out of his place.
- ⁹He puts forth His hand upon the flinty rock;
He overturns the mountains by the roots.
- ¹⁰He cuts out rivers among the rocks;
and His eye sees every precious thing.
- ¹¹He holds back the floods from overflowing;
and the hidden things He brings to light.
- ¹²But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
- ¹³Man does not know the price of it;
neither is it found in the land of the living.
- ¹⁴The depth says, It is not in me;
and the sea says, It is not with me.
- ¹⁵It cannot be gotten for gold,
neither shall silver be weighed for the price of it.
- ¹⁶It cannot be valued with the gold of Ō'-phīr,
with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
- ¹⁷The gold and the crystal cannot equal it,
and the exchange of it shall not be for vessels of fine gold.
- ¹⁸No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls;
for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
- ¹⁹The topaz of Ê-thī-ō'-pī-ā shall not equal it,
neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
- ²⁰Where then does wisdom come from,
and where is the place of understanding?
- ²¹It is hid from the eyes of all living,
and hidden from the birds of the air.
- ²²The place of ruin and death say,
We have heard the fame of it with our ears.

CHAPTER 28

- ¹Surely there is a vein for the silver,
and a place for gold where they refine it.
- ²Iron is taken out of the earth,
and brass is melted out of the stone.
- ³He sets an end to darkness,
and perfectly searches out the stones of darkness and the shadow of death.
- ⁴He breaks open a shaft at the side of the stranger;
they are forgotten by the foot that passes by;
they hang far away from men, they swing to and fro.
- ⁵As for the earth, out of it comes bread;
and under it is turned up as it were fire.
- ⁶The stones of it are the place of sapphires;
and it has dust of gold.
- ⁷There is a path which no bird knows,
and which the vulture's eye has not seen;
- ⁸the lion's whelps have not walked on it,
nor has the fierce lion passed by it.
- ²³God understands the way of it,
and He knows the place of it.
- ²⁴For He looks to the end of the earth,
and sees under all the heavens;
- ²⁵making a weight for the winds,
and measuring out the waters by measure.

²⁶When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning to
thunder;
²⁷then did He see it, and declare it;
He prepared it, yea, and searched it
out.
²⁸And to man He said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is
wisdom!
And to depart from evil is understanding!

¹Moreover Job continued his parable
and said,

²Oh that I were as in months past,
as in the days when God used to watch over me;

³when His candle shone upon my head,
when I walked through darkness by His light;

⁴as I was in the days of my youth,
when the secret of God was upon my tent;

⁵when the Almighty was yet with me,
when my children were around me;

⁶when I washed my steps with butter,
and the rock poured out rivers of oil
for me;

⁷when I went out to the gate through
the city,
when I prepared my seat in the street!

⁸The young men saw me and hid themselves;

and the aged arose and stood up.

⁹The princes held back from talking,
and laid their hand upon their mouth.

¹⁰The nobles held their peace,
and their tongue did cling to the roof
of their mouth.

¹¹When the ear heard me, then it blessed
me;
and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me;

¹²because I delivered the poor who cried,
and the fatherless, and him who had none to help him.

¹³The blessing of him who was ready to perish came upon me;
and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

¹⁴I put on righteousness, and it clothed
me;
my judgment was like a robe and a diadem.

¹⁵I was eyes to the blind,
and I was feet to the lame.

¹⁶I was a father to the poor;
and the cause which I did not know
I searched out.

¹⁷And I broke the jaws of the wicked,
and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

¹⁸Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days like the sand.

¹⁹My root was spread out by the waters,
and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

²⁰My glory was fresh in me,
and my bow was renewed in my
hand.

²¹*Men* gave ear unto me, and waited,
and kept silent at my counsel.

²²After my words they never spoke
again;
and my speech dropped upon them.

²³And they waited for me like the rain;
and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

²⁴I smiled kindly upon those who did not believe it;
and they could not cast down the light of my face.

²⁵I chose out their way, and sat chief,
and lived like a king in the army,
as one who comforts the mourners.

CHAPTER 30

¹But now those that are younger than I make fun of me,
whose fathers I would have refused to set with the dogs of my flock.

²Yea, the strength of their hands, in what way should it profit me,
men in whom ripe age must perish?

³They are dried up with want and famine;
they gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and ruin.

⁴They pluck mallows by the bushes,
and juniper roots for their food.

⁵They were driven forth from among men

- (they cried after them as after a thief).
- ⁶They must dwell in the gloom of the valley,
in holes of the earth, and in the rocks.
- ⁷They bray among the bushes;
they are gathered together under the nettles.
- ⁸They are children of fools, yea, sons of nameless men;
they have been whipped out of the land.
- ⁹And now I am their song;
yea, I am their byword.
- ¹⁰They despise me, and they flee far from me,
and do not wait to spit in my face.
- ¹¹Because He has untied my cord and afflicted me,
they have also let loose the bridle before me.
- ¹²Upon my right hand rise the youths;
they push away my feet,
and they raise up against me the ways of their ruin.
- ¹³They have broken down my path,
they gain by my trouble;
they have no helper.
- ¹⁴As through a wide break they came on;
with a crash they rolled themselves upon me.
- ¹⁵Fears have turned upon me;
they pursue my soul like the wind;
and my good passes away like a cloud.
- ¹⁶And now my soul is poured out upon me;
the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
- ¹⁷My bones are pierced in me in the night;
and the gnawing pain takes no rest.
- ¹⁸By the great force of my disease my clothing is changed;
it binds me about like the collar of my coat.
- ¹⁹He has cast me into the mire,
and I have become like dust and ashes.
- ²⁰I cry before Thee, and Thou didst not hear me;
I stand up, and Thou dost not look upon me.
- ²¹Thou hast become cruel to me;
with Thy strong hand Thou dost oppose Thyself to me.
- ²²Thou liftest me up to the wind; Thou dost cause me to ride upon it;
and Thou dost melt me.
- ²³For I know that Thou wilt bring me to death,
and to the house appointed for all living.
- ²⁴However, He will not stretch out His hand to the grave,
though they cry in his ruin.
- ²⁵Did I not weep for him who was in trouble?
Was not my soul grieved for the poor?
- ²⁶When I looked for good, then evil came;
and when I waited for light, darkness came.
- ²⁷My bowels boiled, and did not rest;
the days of trouble came upon me.
- ²⁸I went blackened without the sun;
I stood up;
I cried in the congregation.
- ²⁹I am a brother to jackals,
and a companion of ostriches.
- ³⁰My skin is black upon me,
and my bones are burned with heat.
- ³¹Therefore my harp has turned to mourning,
and my organ into the voice of those who weep.

CHAPTER 31

- ¹I made a covenant with my eyes;
why then should I think upon a virgin?
- ²For what part from God is from above?
and what is the inheritance of the Almighty from on high?
- ³Is not trouble to the wicked?
And a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?
- ⁴Does He not see my ways,
and count all my steps?
- ⁵If I have walked with vanity,
or if my foot has hurried to deceit,
- ⁶let me be weighed in an even balance
so that God may know my uprightness.

- 7 If my step has turned out of the way,
 and if my heart has walked after my
 eyes,
 and if any blot has held fast to my hands;
 8 then let me sow, and let another eat;
 and let my harvests be rooted out.
 9 If my heart has been deceived by a woman,
 or if I have laid wait at my neighbor's door,
 10 then let my wife grind to another,
 and let others bow down upon her.
 11 For that would be a shameful crime;
 yea, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges.
 12 For it is a fire that burns to ruin,
 and would root out all my gain.
 13 If I despised the cause of my man-servant or of my maidservant,
 when they argued with me;
 14 what then shall I do when God rises
 up?
 And when He visits, what shall I answer Him?
 15 Did not He who made me in the womb make him?
 And did not One shape us in the
 womb?
 16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire,
 or have caused the eyes of the widow
 to fail,
 or have eaten my bit by myself alone,
 and the fatherless has not eaten of it 18 (for from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have been led from my mother's womb);
 19 If I have seen any perish for lack of
 clothing,
 or any poor without covering;
 20 if his loins have not blessed me,
 and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
 21 if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,
 when I saw my help in the gate;
 22 then let my arm fall from my shoulderblade,
 and let my arm be broken from the bone.
 23 For trouble from God was a terror to
 me,
 and because of His highness I could not do anything.
 24 If I have made gold my hope,
 or have said to the fine gold, My trust!
 25 if I rejoiced because my wealth was great,
 and because my hand had gotten much;
 26 if I looked unto the sun when it shone,
 or the moon walking in brightness, 27 and my heart has been secretly tempted, or my mouth has kissed
 my hand;
 28 this also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge;
 for I would have denied the God who is above.
 29 If I rejoiced at the ruin of him who hated me,
 or lifted up myself when evil found
 him
 30 (also I have not allowed my mouth to sin
 by asking his life with a curse);
 31 if the men of my camp did not say,
 Who can find one who has not been satisfied with his meat?
 32 (The stranger did not sleep in the street,
 but I opened my doors to the traveler);
 33 if I covered my transgressions like Adam,
 by hiding my iniquity in my bosom, 34 then let me tremble before a great multitude,
 and be terrified by the scorn of families,
 so that keeping silence I shall not go out of the door.
 35 Oh that I had one to hear me!
 (lo, here is my mark, let the Almighty answer me);
 and that my Foe had written a book.
 36 Surely I would carry it upon my shoulder,
 and bind it like a crown to me.
 37 I would declare to Him the number of my steps;
 like a prince I would go near Him.

³⁸If my lands cry against me,
 or the furrows likewise complain of it; ³⁹if I have eaten the fruits of it without money,
 or have caused the owners of it to lose their life, ⁴⁰let thistles grow instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

CHAPTER 32

¹So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ²Then the wrath of Ē-lī'-hū the son of Bā-rā'-chēl the Bū'-zite, of the family of Ram, was kindled. His wrath was kindled against Job, because he had justified himself rather than God. ³Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer and had condemned Job. ⁴Now Ē-lī'-hū had waited beside Job with words, because they were older than he was. ⁵When Ē-lī'-hū saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

⁶And Ē-lī'-hū the son of Bā-rā'-chēl the Bū'-zite answered and said,

I am young,
 and you are very old;
 therefore I was afraid,
 and dared not show you my opinion.
 I said, Days should speak,
 and the multitude of years should teach wisdom.

But there is a spirit in man;
 and the inspiration of the Almighty gives them understanding.
 Great men are not always wise;
 neither do the aged understand judgment.

⁰Therefore I say, Listen to me.
 I also will declare my opinion.

¹Behold, I waited for your words;
 I listened to your reasons,
 while you searched out what to say.

²Yes, I listened to you,
 and, behold, there was none of you who proved Job wrong,

or who answered his words.

¹³Beware that you do not say, We have found out wisdom;
 God has pushed him down, not man.
¹⁴Now he has not directed his words
 against me;
 and I will not answer him with your speeches.

¹⁵They were amazed, they answered no
 more;
 they quit speaking.

¹⁶Shall I wait, because they answer no
 more;
 because they stand still and answer
 no more?

¹⁷I also will answer my part;
 I also will declare my opinion.

¹⁸For I am full of words;
 the spirit within me presses upon
 me.

¹⁹Behold, my belly is as wine which has no vent;
 it is ready to burst like new wine-skins.

²⁰I will speak so that I may be refreshed;
 I will open my lips and answer.

²¹Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person,
 neither let me give flattering titles to
 men.

²²For I do not know how to give flattering titles;
 else my Maker would soon take me
 away.

CHAPTER 33

¹Therefore, Job, I pray you, hear my
 speeches,
 and listen to all my words.

²Behold, now I have opened my mouth,
 my tongue has spoken in my mouth, ³my words shall be of the uprightness
 of my heart,
 and what I know my lips have clearly spoken.

⁴The Spirit of God has made me,
 and the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

⁵If you can answer me,
 set your words in order before me,
 stand up.

6Behold, I am toward God even as you
 are;
 I also am formed out of the clay.
 7Behold, my terror shall not make you
 afraid,
 neither shall my hand be heavy upon
 you.
 8Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
 and I have heard the voice of your words, saying,
 9I am clean, without transgression;
 I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.
 10Behold, He finds reasons to be against
 me,
 He counts me for His enemy;
 11He puts my feet in the stocks;
 He marks all my paths.
 12Behold, in this you are not right;
 I will answer you that God is greater than man.
 13Why do you fight against Him?
 For He does not give account of any of His matters.
 14For God speaks once, yea, twice,
 though man does not understand it.
 15In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men
 in slumberings upon the bed; 16then He opens the ears of men, and seals their teaching, 17so that He may withdraw man from his purpose,
 and hide pride from man.
 18He keeps back his soul from the grave,
 and his life from perishing by the sword.

19He is also chastened with pain upon his bed,
 and the multitude of his bones with strife;
 20so that his life is sick of bread,
 and his soul of dainty food.
 21His flesh is eaten away so that it cannot be seen;
 and his bones which were not seen stick out.
 22Yea, his soul draws near to the grave,
 and his life to the destroyers.
 23If there has been a messenger for him,

a mediator, one among a thousand,
 to show man what is right toward
 God;
 24then He is gracious to him and says, Deliver him from going down to the pit;
 for I have found a ransom.
 25His flesh shall be fresher than a child's;
 he shall return to the days of his youth;
 26he shall pray unto God, and He will be gracious unto Him;
 and he shall see His face with joy,
 for He will give unto man his righteousness.
 27He looks upon men, and if any say,
 I have sinned and twisted that which
was right,
 and it did not profit me, 28He will deliver his soul from going
 into the pit,
 and his life shall see the light.

29Lo, all these things God oftentimes works two and three times with a man, 30to bring back his soul from the pit,
 to be lighted with the light of the living.
 31Hear this, O Job, listen to me;
 hold your peace, and I will speak.
 32If you have anything to say, answer
 me;
 speak, for I desire to justify you.
 33If not, listen to me;
 hold your peace, and I will teach you
 wisdom.

CHAPTER 34

1Then E-li'-hū answered and said,
 2 Hear my words, O wise men;
 and give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
 3For the ear tries words
 as the mouth tastes meat.
 4Let us choose for ourselves what is right;
 let us know among ourselves what is
 good.
 5For Job has said, I am righteous;
 and God has taken away my right;

- ⁶do I lie against my right? — my wound cannot be cured; it is without transgression.
- ⁷What man is like Job, who drinks up
scorning like water;
- ⁸who goes in company with the workers
of iniquity,
and walks with wicked men?
- ⁹For he has said, It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself in
God.
- ¹⁰Therefore listen to me, you men of
understanding;
far be it from God that He should do
wickedness;
and from the Almighty, that He should do wrong.
- ¹¹For the work of a man He shall give back to him,
and cause every man to find according to his ways.
- ¹²Yes, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty twist judgment.
- ¹³Who has given Him a charge over the
earth?
Or who has set the whole world in order?
- ¹⁴If He sets His heart upon man,
if He gathers to Himself his spirit
and his breath,
- ¹⁵all flesh shall perish together, and
man shall turn again to dust.
- ¹⁶If now you have understanding, hear
this;
listen to the voice of my words.
- ¹⁷Shall one who hates right govern?
And will you condemn Him who is just and mighty?
- ¹⁸Is it fit to say to a king, You are
wicked?
And to princes, You are ungodly?
- ¹⁹How much less to Him who does not accept the persons of princes, nor look upon the rich more than the poor?
For they are the work of His hands.
- ²⁰In a moment they shall die,
and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away;
and the mighty shall be taken away without hands.
- ²¹For His eyes are upon the ways of
man,
and He sees all his steps.
- ²²There is no darkness, nor shadow of
death,
where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
- ²³For He does not need to set a time to
man
to go before God in judgment;
- ²⁴He shall break in pieces mighty men without number,
and set others in their place.
- ²⁵Therefore He knows their works,
and He overturns them in the night,
so that they are destroyed.
- ²⁶He strikes them as wicked men
in the open sight of others;
- ²⁷because they turned back from Him,
and would not act wisely in any of His ways;
- ²⁸so that they caused the cry of the poor
to come unto Him,
and He hears the cry of the afflicted.
- ²⁹When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble?
And when He hides His face, who can behold Him?
Whether it be done unto a nation, or against a man only;
- ³⁰that ungodly men may not reign,
that the people may not be trapped.
- ³¹Surely it is right to be said to God,
I have borne chastisement, I will not be wicked;
- ³²that which I see not, teach Thou me;
if I have done iniquity, I will do it
no more.
- ³³Must He repay you according to your mind,
because you refuse it?
So you must choose, and not I;
therefore speak what you know.
- ³⁴Let men of understanding tell me,
and let a wise man listen to me.
- ³⁵Job has spoken without knowledge,
and his words were without wisdom.
- ³⁶My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end
because of his answers for wicked
men.
- ³⁷For he adds rebellion to his sins;

he claps his hands among us,
and multiplies his words against God.

CHAPTER 35

¹Moreover Ē-li'-hū answered and said,

²Do you think this to be right, that you said, My righteousness is more than God's?

³For you said, What good will it be unto Thee?

And, What good shall I have, more than if I had sinned?

⁴I will answer you,
and your friends with you.

Look to the heavens, and see;

⁵and behold the clouds which are higher than you.

⁶If you sin, what do you do against
Him?

Or if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do unto Him?

⁷If you are righteous, what do you give
Him?

Or what does He receive from your
hand?

⁸Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are;

and your righteousness may profit the son of man.

⁹Because of the multitude of cruel burdens they cry out;

they cry out because of the arm of
the mighty.

¹⁰But none says, Where is God my Maker,

who gives songs in the night;

¹¹who teaches us more than the animals
of the earth,

and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?

¹²There they cry, but He gives no
answer,

because of the pride of evil men.

¹³Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty look upon
it.

¹⁴Although you say you do not see Him, judgment is before Him; therefore trust in Him.

¹⁵And now, is it for nothing that He has punished in His anger?

Yet he has taken full knowledge of sins.

¹⁶Therefore Job opens his mouth in vanity;

he multiplies words without knowledge.

CHAPTER 36

¹Ē-li'-hū went on and said,

²Bear with me a little, and I will show
you

what I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

³I will bring my knowledge from afar,
and will credit righteousness to my Maker.

⁴For truly my words shall not be false;
He who is perfect in knowledge is
with you.

⁵Behold, God is mighty, and does not despise;

He is mighty in strength and wisdom.

⁶He will not keep alive one who is
wicked,

but gives right to the poor.

⁷He withdraws not His eyes from the righteous,

but they are on the throne with kings;
yes, He causes them to sit forever,
and they are very high.

⁸And if they are bound in chains,
and are held in cords of affliction,

⁹then He shows them their work, and
their sins,

that they have behaved themselves
proudly.

¹⁰He also opens their ears to teaching,
and commands that they return
from iniquity.

¹¹If they obey and serve Him,

they shall spend their days in blessed-
ness

and their years in pleasures.

¹²But if they do not obey, they shall perish by the sword,

and they shall die without knowledge.

¹³But the ungodly in heart heap up
wrath;

they cry not when He binds them.

¹⁴They die in youth,

and their life is among the defiled.

¹⁵He delivers the poor in his affliction,
 and opens their ears in trouble.
¹⁶Even so He would have removed you out of trouble
 into a broad place where there is no
 trouble;
 and that which should be set on your
 table would be full of fatness.
¹⁷But you have fulfilled the judgment of
 the wicked;
 judgment and justice take hold of
 you.
¹⁸Because there is wrath, beware lest
 He take you away with His stroke;
 then a great ransom cannot deliver
 you.
¹⁹Will He esteem your riches?
 No, not gold, nor all the forces of
 strength.
²⁰Desire not the night,
 when people are cut off in their place.
²¹Beware, do not turn to iniquity;
 for this you have chosen rather than affliction.
²²Behold, God lifts Himself up by His power;
 who teaches like Him?
²³Who has appointed Him His way;
 or who can say, Thou hast done
 wrong?
²⁴Remember that you magnify His work which men behold.
²⁵Every man has seen it;
 man may see it afar off.
²⁶Behold, God is great, and we do not know Him, neither can the number of His years
 be searched out.
²⁷For He draws up the drops of water;
 they pour down rain according to its mist, ²⁸which the clouds pour down
 and drop down upon man plentifully.
²⁹Also can any understand the spreading of the clouds,
 or the noise of His tabernacle?
³⁰Behold, He spreads His light upon it,
 and covers the bottom of the sea.
³¹For by them He judges the people;
 He gives plenty of food.
³²He covers His hands with the lightning,

and commands it to strike the mark;
³³the thunder reveals Him to His friend,
 and the cattle concerning the storm
 that is coming.

CHAPTER 37

¹My heart trembles at this also,
 and it moves out of its place.
²Listen carefully to the noise of His voice,
 and the sound that goes out of His
 mouth.
³He directs it under the whole heaven,
 and His lightning to the ends of the
 earth.
⁴After it a voice roars;
 He thunders with the voice of His majesty,
 and He will not hold them when His voice is heard.
⁵God thunders marvelously with His
 voice;
 He does great things which we can-
 not understand.
⁶For he says to the snow, Be upon the
 earth;
 likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain in its strength.
⁷He seals up the hand of every man,
 so that all men may know His work.
⁸Then the beasts go into dens
 and remain in their places.
⁹Out of the south comes the whirlwind;
 and cold out of the north.
¹⁰By the breath of God ice is given;
 and the breadth of the waters is frozen tight.
¹¹Also by filling them with water He loads the thick clouds;
 He scatters His bright cloud, ¹²and it is turned around by His steer-
 ing,
 so that they may do whatever He commands them
 upon the face of the land.
¹³Whether as a whip, or for His land,
 or for mercy,
 He causes it to come.
¹⁴Listen to this, O Job;
 stand still, and consider the wonderful works of God.
¹⁵Do you know when God placed them,

- and caused the light of His cloud to shine?
- ¹⁶Do you know the balancing of the clouds,
the wonderful works of Him who is perfect in knowledge?
- ¹⁷How your clothes are warm
when He quiets the earth by the south wind?
- ¹⁸Have you spread out the sky with Him, which is strong as a molded mirror?
- ¹⁹Teach us what we shall say unto Him;
for because of darkness we cannot frame our speech.
- ²⁰Shall it be told Him that I speak?
If a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.
- ²¹And now men do not see the sun;
it is in the clouds;
but the wind passes and clears them.
- ²²Fair weather comes out of the north;
with God is fearful majesty.
- ²³The Almighty, whom we cannot find
out,
is excellent in power;
yet to judgment and overflowing righteousness He does no violence.
- ²⁴Men therefore fear Him;
He does not respect any who are proud in heart.

CHAPTER 38

- ¹Then the LORD answered Job out
of the whirlwind, and said,
- ²Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
- ³Now gird up your loins like a man;
for I will ask of you, and you shall
answer me.
- ⁴Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell if you have understanding!
- ⁵Who has laid the measures of it, if you know?
Or who has stretched the line upon
it?
- ⁶Upon what are foundations of it
fastened,
or who laid its corner stone, ⁷when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
- ⁸Or who shut up the sea with doors,
when it broke forth as if it had come out of the womb?
- ⁹When I made the cloud its robe,
and the thick darkness a swaddling
band for it, ¹⁰and set My limit to it,
and set bars and doors, ¹¹and said, You shall come this far, but no further;
and here the pride of your waves
shall stop?
- ¹²Have you commanded the morning
since your days,
and caused the dawn to know its
place,
¹³that it might take hold of the ends of
the earth,
that the wicked might be shaken out
of it?
- ¹⁴It is turned like clay to the seal;
and they stand forth like a garment.
- ¹⁵And from the wicked their light is withheld,
and the high arm shall be broken.
- ¹⁶Have you entered into the springs of
the sea?
Or have you walked in search of the depths?
- ¹⁷Have the gates of death been opened
to you?
Or have you seen the doors of the
shadow of death?
- ¹⁸Have you understood the breadth of
the earth?
Tell, if you know it all!
- ¹⁹Where is the way where light dwells?
And as for darkness, where is its
place,
²⁰that you should take it to the bounds
of it,
and that you should know the paths
to its house?
- ²¹Do you know it, because you were born then?
Or because the number of your days
is great?
- ²²Have you entered into the storehouses
of the snow?

Or have you seen the storehouses of the hail, ²³which I have kept for the time of trouble,
 against the day of battle and war?
²⁴By what way is the light parted,
 and by what way does the east wind spread itself upon the earth?
²⁵Who has cut a channel for the overflowing of waters,
 or a way for the lightning of thunder;
²⁶to cause it to rain on the earth where no man is;
 on the wilderness in which there is no man; ²⁷to satisfy the deserted and waste ground,
 and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?
²⁸Has the rain a father?
 Or who has brought forth the drops of dew?
²⁹Out of whose womb came the ice?
 And the hoary-frost of heaven, who brought it forth?
³⁰The waters are hidden as under stone,
 and the face of the deep is frozen.
³¹Can you bind the chains of the Plei'- ā-dēs,
 or loose the bands of Ō-ri'-on?
³²Can you bring the Māzz'-ā-rōth in their season?
 Or can you guide the Bear with its sons?
³³Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?
 Can you set up the rulership of it in the earth?
³⁴Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
 so that floods of waters may cover you?
³⁵Can you send lightnings, that they may go,
 and say to you, Here we are?
³⁶Who has put wisdom in the inward parts?
 Or who has given understanding to the mind?

³⁷Who can number the clouds in wisdom?
 Or who can empty out the bottles of the sky, ³⁸when the dust grows into hardness,
 and the clods cling fast together?
³⁹Will you hunt the prey for the lion,
 or fill the appetite of the young lions, ⁴⁰when they crouch in their dens,
 and sit in a hiding place to lie in wait?
⁴¹Who provides food for the raven?
 When its young ones cry to God,
 they wander for lack of food.

CHAPTER 39

¹Do you know the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth?
 Or can you tell when the hinds calve?
²Can you number the months that they fulfill?
 Or do you know the time when they bring forth?
³They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones,
 they cast out their sorrows.
⁴Their young ones are strong, they grow up in the open fields;
 they go forth and do not return again.
⁵Who has sent out the wild ass free?
 Or who has untied the bands of the wild ass?
⁶I have made the wilderness its house,
 and the salt land its dwellings.
⁷It scorns the multitude of the city,
 neither does it listen to the shouting of the driver.
⁸The range of mountains is its pasture,
 and it searches after every green thing.
⁹Will the wild ox be willing to serve you,
 or stay by your crib?
¹⁰Can you tie the wild ox with his band in the furrow?
 Or will he harrow the valleys after you?
¹¹Will you trust him because his strength is great?
 Or will you leave labor to him?

¹²Will you trust him, that he will bring home your seed
and gather it into your barn?

¹³The wing of the ostrich beats joyously;
but are her pinions and feathers the loving stork's?

¹⁴For she leaves her eggs in the earth,
and warms them in the dust,

¹⁵and forgets that the foot may crush
them,
or that the wild beast may break
them.

¹⁶She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers;
her labor is in vain without fear;

¹⁷because God has caused her to forget
wisdom,
neither has He given her understand-
ing.

¹⁸When the time comes she lifts herself
up on high;
she scorns the horse and its rider.

¹⁹Have you given the horse strength?
Have you clothed his neck with
strength?

²⁰Can you make him afraid like a grasshopper?
The glory of his nostrils is fearful.

²¹He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength;
he goes on to meet the armed men.

²²He mocks at fear, and is not frightened;
neither does he turn back from the
sword.

²³The quiver rattles against him,
the glittering spear and the shield.

²⁴He swallows the ground with fierce-ness and rage;
neither does he stand still at the sound of the trumpet.

²⁵He says among the trumpets, ha, ha!
And he smells the battle afar off,
the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

²⁶Does the hawk fly by your wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

²⁷Does the eagle mount up at your command

and make her nest on high?

²⁸She lives and stays on the rock, upon the crag of the rock and the strong place.

²⁹From there she seeks the prey,
and her eyes see afar off.

³⁰Her young ones also suck up blood;
and where the dead are, there she is.

CHAPTER 40

¹Moreover the LORD answered Job
and said,

²Shall he who contends with the Almighty teach Him?
He who reproves God, let him answer
it.

³Then Job answered the LORD and
said,

⁴Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer
Thee?

I will lay my hand upon my mouth.

⁵Once I have spoken; but I will not
answer;
yea, twice, but I will go no further.

⁶Then the LORD answered Job out
of the whirlwind, and said,

⁷Gird up your loins now like a man;
and I will ask of you, and you shall tell Me.

⁸Will you also set aside My judgment?
Will you condemn Me so that you may be righteous?

⁹Have you an arm like God?
Or can you thunder with a voice like
Him?

¹⁰Adorn yourself now with majesty and honor;
and dress yourself with glory and beauty.

¹¹Cast abroad the rage of your wrath;
and behold everyone who is proud,
and humble him.

¹²Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low;
and tread down the wicked in their
place.

¹³Hide them in the dust together;
and bind their faces in secret.

- ¹⁴Then I also will confess unto you that your own right hand can save
you.
- ¹⁵Behold now the bē'-hě-mōth,
which I made along with you;
he eats grass like an ox.
- ¹⁶Lo, now, his strength is in his loins,
and his force is in the navel of his belly.
- ¹⁷He moves his tail like a cedar;
the sinews of his thighs are knit together.
- ¹⁸His bones are like strong pieces of brass;
his bones are like bars of iron.
- ¹⁹He is the first of the ways of God;
He who made him has given him his
sword.
- ²⁰Surely the mountains bring forth food
for him,
where all the beasts of the field play.
- ²¹He lies under the shady trees,
in the hiding place of the reed and mire.
- ²²The shady trees cover him with their
shadow;
the willows of the brooks are around
him.
- ²³Behold, though a river floods over, he does not tremble;
he feels safe even if Jordan swells up
to his mouth.
- ²⁴Shall any take him before his eyes,
or pierce through his nose with cords?
- ⁶Shall the companions make a banquet
of him?
Shall they divide him among the merchants?
- ⁷Can you fill his skin with barbed irons,
or his head with fish spears?
- ⁸Lay your hand upon him,
think of the battle, you will never do it again.
- ⁹Behold, the hope of him is in vain;
shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
- ¹⁰None is so fierce as to dare to stir him
up;
who then is able to stand before
Me?
- ¹¹Who has gone before Me, that I should repay him?
Whatever is under the whole heaven
is Mine.
- ¹²I will not keep silent concerning his limbs,
or his mighty strength, or his goodly frame.
- ¹³Who can uncover the face of his
clothing,
or who can come to him with his double bridle?
- ¹⁴Who can open the doors to his face?
His teeth are fearful all around.
- ¹⁵His scales are his pride,
shut up together with a close seal.
- ¹⁶One is so near to another
that no air can come between them.
- ¹⁷They are joined one to another,
they stick together so that they cannot be separated.
- ¹⁸By his sneezings a light shines,
and his eyes are like the eyelids of
the morning.
- ¹⁹Out of his mouth go burning lamps,
and sparks of fire leap out.
- ²⁰Out of his nostrils goes smoke,
as out of a boiling pot and burning reeds.
- ²¹His breast kindles coals,
and a flame goes out of his mouth.
- ²²In his neck remains strength,
and sorrow dances before him.
- ²³The flakes of his flesh are joined together;
they are firm upon him; they cannot be moved.

CHAPTER 41

- ¹Can you draw out the lē-vī'ā-thān
with a hook?
or his tongue with a cord which you let down?
- ²Can you put a hook into his nose,
or bore his jaw through with a thorn?
- ³Will he make many cries unto you?
Will he speak soft words to you?
- ⁴Will he make a covenant with you?
Will you take him for a servant for-
ever?
- ⁵Will you play with him as with a bird?
Or will you bind him for your maidens?

- ²⁴His heart is as firm as a stone,
yes, as hard as a piece of the lower millstone.
- ²⁵When he raises himself up, the mighty
are afraid;
because of terrors they are beside themselves.
- ²⁶If one lay at him with the sword, it will not hold;
the spear, the dart, nor the javelin.
- ²⁷He counts iron as straw,
and brass as rotten wood.
- ²⁸The arrow cannot make him flee;
slingstones are turned by him into stubble.
- ²⁹Darts are counted as stubble;
he laughs at the shaking of a spear.
- ³⁰Sharp stones are under him;
he spreads sharp-pointed things upon
the mire.
- ³¹He makes the deep boil like a pot;
he makes the sea like a pot of oint-
ment.
- ³²He makes a path to shine after him;
one would think the deep to be gray-headed.
- ³³Upon earth there is nothing like him,
who is made to be fearless.
- ³⁴He beholds all high things;

He is a king over all the children of pride.

CHAPTER 42

- ¹Then Job answered the LORD and
said,
- ²I know that Thou canst do everything,
and that no thought can be withheld from Thee.
- ³Who is he who hides counsel without
knowledge?
Therefore I have spoken what I did
not understand;
things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
- ⁴Hear, I beseech Thee, and I will
speak;
I will ask of Thee, and declare Thou
unto me.
- ⁵I have heard of Thee by the hearing of
the ear;
but now my eye sees Thee.
- ⁶Therefore I despise myself,
and repent in dust and ashes.
- ⁷And after the LORD had spoken
these words unto Job, the LORD said to Ē-lī'-phāz the Tē'-mān-ite,

My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends. For you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has. ⁸Therefore now take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. And My servant Job will pray for you — for I will accept him — so that I may not deal with you according to your foolishness, in that you have not spoken of Me what is right, like My servant Job. ⁹So Ē-lī'-phāz the Tē'-mān-ite, and Bil'-dād the Shū'-hīte, and Zō'-phār the Nā-ām'-ā-thīte, went. And they did according as the LORD commanded them. The LORD also accepted the face of Job. ¹⁰And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. Also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. ¹¹Then there came unto him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had known him before. And they ate bread with him in his house. And they sympathized with him and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him. Every man also gave him a piece of money, and everyone an earring of gold. ¹²So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. For he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. ¹³He also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴And he called the name of the first Jē-mī'-mā; and the name of the second Kě-zī'-ă; and the name of the third Kěr-ěn-hăp'-pŭch. ¹⁵And in all the land there were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. And their father gave them inheritance among their brothers. ¹⁶After this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. ¹⁷So Job died, being old and full of days.

The Book of PSALMS

PSALM 1

- ¹Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful.
²But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in His law he meditates day and night.
³And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that brings forth its fruit in its season; his leaf also shall not wither, and whatever he does shall be blessed.

- ⁴The wicked are not so, but are like chaff which the wind drives away.
⁵Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
⁶For the LORD knows the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM 2

- ¹Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?
²The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers plot together, against the LORD and against His anointed, saying, ³Let us break their bands in two and cast away their cords from us.
⁴He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the LORD shall laugh at them.
⁵Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, and trouble them in His great wrath.
⁶Yet have I set My king upon My holy hill of Zion.
⁷I will declare the decree; the LORD has said unto Me, Thou art My Son; this day I have begotten Thee.
⁸Ask of Me, and I shall give the heathen for Thy inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for Thy possession.

- ⁹Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
¹⁰Therefore be now wise, O you kings; be instructed, you judges of the earth.
¹¹Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
¹²Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish in the way, when His wrath is kindled in but a little time.

Blessed are all who put their trust in Him.

PSALM 3

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

- ¹LORD, O how those who trouble me have increased!
Many are the ones who rise up against me.
²Many there are who say of my soul, There is no help for him in God.
Sē'-lāh.
³But Thou, O LORD, art a shield for me;
my glory, the One who lifts up my head.
⁴I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and He heard me out of His holy hill.
Sē'-lāh.
⁵I have lain down and slept;
I have awakened; for the LORD kept me.
⁶I am not afraid of ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me round about.
⁷Arise, O LORD;
save me, O my God;
for Thou hast stricken all my enemies on the cheek.

Thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

⁸Salvation belongs to the LORD;
Thy blessing is upon Thy people.
Sē'-lāh.

PSALM 4

To the chief musician upon Neginoth, A Psalm
of David.

¹Hear me when I call, O God of my
righteousness;
Thou hast enlarged me when I was
in trouble;
have mercy upon me, and hear my
prayer.

²O sons of men, how long will you turn
my glory into shame?
How long will you love vanity and
seek after a lie?
Sē'-lāh.

³But know that the LORD has set apart
him who is godly for Himself.
The LORD hears when I call unto
Him.

⁴Tremble, and sin not;
speak within your own heart upon your bed and be still.
Sē'-lāh.

⁵Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
and put your trust in the LORD.

⁶There are many who say, Who will show us any good?
LORD, lift Thou up the light of Thy face upon us.

⁷Thou hast put gladness in my heart,
more than in the time that their grain
and their wine increased.

⁸I will lie down, both in peace and in sleep.
For Thou, LORD, alone dost make me dwell in safety.

PSALM 5

To the chief musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm
of David.

¹Give ear to my words, O LORD;
hear my groanings.

²Listen to the voice of my cry,
my King and my God;
for unto Thee I will pray.

³My voice Thou shalt hear in the morning, O LORD;
in the morning I will direct my prayer unto Thee, and will look up.

⁴For Thou art not a God that hast pleasure in wickedness;
neither shall evil dwell with Thee.

⁵The foolish shall not stand in Thy sight;
Thou dost hate all doers of evil.

⁶Thou shalt destroy those who speak lies;
the LORD will despise the bloody and deceitful man.

⁷But as for me, I will come into Thy house
in the multitude of Thy mercy;
and in Thy fear I will worship
toward Thy holy temple.

⁸Lead me, O LORD, in Thy righteous-
ness
because of my enemies;
make Thy way straight before my face.

⁹For there is no faithfulness in their
mouth;
their inward part is very wickedness;
their throat is an open grave;
they flatter with their tongue.

¹⁰Hold them guilty, O God;
let them fall by their own counsels;
cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions,
for they have rebelled against Thee.

¹¹But let all who put their trust in Thee
rejoice;
let them always shout for joy,
because Thou dost defend them.
And let those who love Thy name be joyful in Thee.

¹²For Thou, LORD, wilt bless the
righteous;
with favor Thou wilt circle him as
with a shield.

PSALM 6

To the chief musician on Neginoth upon Sheminih, A Psalm of David.

- ¹O LORD, rebuke me not in Thy anger, nor chasten me in the heat of Thy fury.
²Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am weak;
O LORD, heal me, for my bones are
troubled.
³My soul also is exceedingly troubled;
but Thou, O LORD, how long?
⁴Return, O LORD, deliver my soul;
O save me for Thy mercies' sake.
⁵For in death there is no memory of
Thee;
in the grave who shall give Thee
thanks?
⁶I am weary with my groaning;
all the night I make my bed swim;
I water my bed with my tears.
⁷My eye is aging because of grief;
it becomes old because of all my
enemies.
⁸Depart from me, all you workers of
iniquity;
for the LORD has heard the voice of
my weeping.
⁹The LORD has heard my cry;
the LORD will receive my prayer.
¹⁰Let all my enemies be ashamed and exceedingly troubled;
let them turn back and be ashamed
in a moment.

PSALM 7

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

- ¹O LORD my God, in Thee do I put my trust;
save me from all who pursue me, and
deliver me,
²lest he tear my soul like a lion, tearing it in pieces while there is no
one to deliver.
³O LORD my God, if I have done this;
if there is iniquity in my hands;

⁴if I have rewarded evil unto him who was at peace with me (yea, I have delivered him who is my enemy without cause) — ⁵let the enemy persecute my soul and take it;
yea, let him trample down my life
upon the earth
and lay my honor in the dust.
Sē'-lāh.

- ⁶Arise, O LORD, in Thy anger;
lift up Thyself because of the rage
of my enemies,
and awake for me to the judgment
which Thou hast commanded.
⁷So shall the congregation of the people gather about Thee;
for their sakes therefore return Thou
on high.
⁸The LORD shall judge the people;
judge me, O LORD, according to my
righteousness,
and according to my purity that is in me.
⁹O let the wickedness of the wicked
come to an end,
but establish the just.
For the righteous God tries the minds and hearts.
¹⁰My defense is from God,
who saves the upright in heart.
¹¹God judges the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked
every day.

- ¹²If he does not turn,
He will whet His sword;
He has bent His bow
and made it ready.
¹³Yes, He has prepared for him the instruments of death;
He has made His arrows against the hot pursuers.
¹⁴Behold, he labors in pain with iniquity,
and has conceived mischief,
and has brought forth falsehood.
¹⁵He dug a pit,
and has fallen into the ditch which
he made.

- ¹⁶His mischief shall return upon his own head,
and his violent dealings shall come upon his own head.
- ¹⁷I will praise the LORD according to His righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

PSALM 8

To the chief musician upon Gittith. A Psalm of David.

- ¹O LORD our Lord,
how excellent is Thy name in all the earth! —
who has set Thy glory above the heavens.
- ²Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings
Thou hast ordained strength because of Thy enemies, that Thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
- ³When I look at Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers,
the moon and the stars which Thou hast ordained —
- ⁴what is man that Thou art mindful of him?
and the son of man, that Thou dost visit him?
- ⁵For Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels,
and hast crowned him with glory and honor.
- ⁶Thou didst make him rule over the works of Thy hands;
Thou hast put all things under his feet —
- ⁷all sheep and oxen,
yes, and the beasts of the field;
- ⁸the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
and whatever passes through the paths of the seas.
- ⁹O LORD, our Lord,
how excellent is Thy name in all the earth!

PSALM 9

To the chief musician upon Muth-labben, A Psalm of David.

- ¹I will praise Thee, O LORD,
with my whole heart;
I will show forth all Thy marvelous works.
- ²I will be glad and rejoice in Thee,
I will sing praise to Thy name, O Thou most high.
- ³When my enemies have turned back,
they shall fall and perish at Thy presence.
- ⁴For Thou hast maintained my right and my cause;
Thou didst sit in the throne judging right.
- ⁵Thou hast rebuked the heathen, Thou hast destroyed the wicked,
Thou hast put out their name forever and ever.
- ⁶O enemy, wastes have come to an end forever,
and as to the cities you have destroyed,
their memorial has perished with them.
- ⁷But the LORD shall endure forever;
He has prepared His throne for judgment.
- ⁸And He shall judge the world in righteousness;
He shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.
- ⁹The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed,
a refuge in times of trouble.
- ¹⁰And those who know Thy name will put their trust in Thee;
for Thou, LORD, hast not forsaken those who seek Thee.
- ¹¹Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion;
declare among the people His doings.
- ¹²When he who seeks for blood remembers them,
He forgets not the cry of the humble.

¹³Have mercy upon me, O LORD;
see my trouble from those who hate
me,
Thou who dost lift me up from the gates of death —
¹⁴so that I may show forth all Thy praise
in the gates of the daughter of Zion;
I will rejoice in Thy salvation.

¹⁵The heathen have sunk down in the pit that they made;
in the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.

¹⁶The LORD is known by the judgment which He executes;
the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.

Hīg-gai'-'ōn. Sē'-lāh.

¹⁷The wicked shall be turned into hell,
and all the nations that forget God.

¹⁸For the needy shall not always be forgotten;
the hope of the poor shall not perish
forever.

¹⁹Arise, O LORD; let not man be strong.
Let the nations be judged in Thy sight.

²⁰Put them in fear, O LORD,
so that the nations may know themselves to be but men.

Sē'-lāh.

PSALM 10

¹Why dost Thou stand afar off, O
LORD?

Why dost Thou hide in times of
trouble?

²The wicked in his pride persecutes the
poor;
let them be taken in the plans that they have imagined.

³For the wicked boasts of his heart's
desire,
and blesses the covetous whom the LORD despises.

⁴The wicked, through the pride of his face, will not seek Him;
all his thoughts are, There is no God!

⁵His ways are always grievous;
Thy judgments are far above, out of his sight.

As for all his enemies, he puffs at
them.

⁶He has said in his heart, I shall not be moved!

From generation to generation, I shall not be in evil.

⁷His mouth is full of cursing and deceit
and fraud;
under his tongue are mischief and
vanity.

⁸He sits in the hiding-places of the villages;
in the secret places he murders the
innocent.

His eyes are secretly set against the
poor.

⁹He lies in wait secretly, like a lion in his den.

He lies in wait to catch the poor;
he catches the poor when he draws him into his net.

¹⁰He crouches and humbles himself so that the poor may fall by his might.

¹¹He has said in his heart, God has forgotten;
He hides His face; He will never see!

¹²Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up Thy
hand;
forget not the humble.

¹³Why does the wicked condemn God?
He has said in his heart, Thou wilt not judge.

¹⁴Thou hast seen it; for Thou beholdest mischief and spite,
to repay it with Thy hand.
The poor commits himself to Thee;
Thou art the Helper of the fatherless.

¹⁵Break Thou the arm of the wicked and the evil one;
seek out his wickedness, until Thou
dost find none.

¹⁶The LORD is King forever and ever;
the heathen have perished out of His land.

¹⁷LORD, Thou hast heard the desire of the humble;
 Thou wilt prepare their heart,
 Thou wilt cause Thy ear to hear, ¹⁸to judge the fatherless and the oppressed,
 so that the man of the earth may no more terrify.

PSALM 11

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹I put my trust in the LORD;
 how can you say to me,
 Flee like a bird to the mountains;
²for lo, the wicked bend their bow,
 they make ready their arrow upon the string,
 so that they may secretly shoot at the upright in heart.
³If the foundations are destroyed,
 what can the righteous do?
⁴The LORD is in His holy temple;
 the LORD's throne is in Heaven;
 His eyes behold, His eyelids try the children of men.
⁵The LORD tries the righteous;
 but His soul hates the wicked
 and the one who loves violence, ⁶Upon the wicked He shall rain snares,
 fire and brimstone;
 and a horrible tempest shall be the portion of their cup.
⁷For the righteous LORD loves righteousness;
 His face looks upon the upright.

PSALM 12

To the chief musician upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

¹Help, LORD, for the godly man ceases;
 for the faithful fail from among the children of men.
²They speak vanity each one with his neighbor;
 with flattering lips and with a double heart they speak.
³The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips

and the tongue that speaks proud things, ⁴that has said, With our tongue we shall do much;
 our lips are our own; who is lord over us?

⁵For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy,
 I will now arise, says the LORD.
 I will set in safety him at whom they puff.
⁶The words of the LORD are pure words,
 like silver tried in a furnace of earth,
 purified seven times.
⁷Thou shalt keep them, O LORD,
 Thou shalt preserve them from this generation forever.
⁸The wicked walk on every side,
 when evil is praised by the sons of men.

PSALM 13

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹How long wilt Thou forget me, O LORD? Forever?
 How long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me?
²How long shall I take counsel in my heart,
 having sorrow in my heart daily?
 How long shall my enemy be lifted up over me?
³Look upon me and hear, O LORD my God;
 enlighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death, ⁴lest my enemy say, I have overcome him,
and lest those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

⁵But I have trusted in Thy mercy;
 my heart shall rejoice in Thy salvation.
⁶I will sing unto the LORD,
 because He has dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM 14

To the chief musician, A Psalms of David.

¹The fool has said in his heart, There is no God!

They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none who does good.

²The LORD looked down from Heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any who understood and sought God.

³They have all gone aside, they have all together become filthy; there is none who does good, no, not one.

⁴Do all the workers of iniquity have no knowledge?
Those who are eating up my people act as if they have eaten bread, and do not call upon the LORD.

⁵There they were in great fear; for God is in the generation of the righteous.

⁶You have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

⁷O that the salvation of Israel had come out of Zion!
When the LORD brings back the captivity of His people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 15

A Psalms of David.

¹LORD, who shall dwell in Thy tabernacle?

Who shall dwell on Thy holy hill?

²He who walks uprightly, and works righteousness, and speaks the truth in his heart;

³who does not backbite with his tongue, nor do evil to his neighbor, nor take up a reproach against his neighbor;

⁴in whose eyes the reprobate is despised,

but he honors those who fear the LORD;

he has sworn to suffer loss, and does not change;

⁵he has not put out his money at interest,

nor has he taken a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things shall not be moved forever.

PSALM 16

A secret treasure of David.

¹Watch over me, O God; for in Thee do I put my trust.

²I have said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord;

I have no goodness but in Thee.

³As to the saints who are in the earth, they are the excellent in whom is all my delight.

⁴The sorrows of those who hasten after another god shall be multiplied; their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

⁵The LORD is the portion of my inheritance, and of my cup; Thou dost uphold my lot.

⁶The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yea, I have a beautiful inheritance.

⁷I will bless the LORD, who has given me wisdom; my heart also instructs me in the night seasons.

⁸I have set the LORD always before Me; because He is at My right hand, I shall not be moved.

⁹Therefore My heart is glad, and My soul rejoices; My flesh also shall rest in hope;

¹⁰For Thou wilt not leave My soul in hell;
neither wilt Thou allow Thy Holy One to see corruption.

¹¹Thou wilt show me the ways of life; in Thy presence is fullness of joy.
At Thy right hand are pleasures forevermore.

PSALM 17

A Prayer of David.

¹Hear the right, O LORD;
listen to my cry;
Give ear unto my prayer from lips without deceit.

²Let my sentence come forth from Thy presence;
let Thy eyes behold the things that are right.

³Thou hast proved my heart; Thou hast visited me in the night;
Thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing,
my mouth does not go beyond my thoughts.

⁴Concerning the works of men, by the words of Thy lips,
I am kept from the paths of the destroyer.

⁵Hold up my steps in Thy paths,
so that my footsteps do not slip.

⁶I have called upon Thee, for Thou wilt hear me, O God;
bow down Thy ear unto me; hear my speech.

⁷Show Thy marvelous loving-kindness, O Thou who dost save those who put their trust in Thee, by Thy right hand from those who rise up against them.

⁸Keep me as the apple of the eye;
hide me under the shadow of Thy wings

⁹from the wicked who stripped me.
My deadly enemies go all around me.

¹⁰They are enclosed in their own fat;
with their mouth they speak proudly,

¹¹Our steps have now hemmed him in.

They have set their eyes bowing down to the earth,

¹²like a lion who is greedy for his prey,
and like a young lion lurking in secret places.

¹³Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down;
deliver my soul from the wicked by Thy sword —

¹⁴from men by Thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world whose portion is in this life,
and whose belly Thou dost fill with Thy treasure.

They are full of children,
and leave the rest of their riches to their babes.

¹⁵As for me, I will behold Thy face in righteousness;
when I awake, I shall be satisfied with Thy image.

PSALM 18

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul; and he said, ¹I love Thee, O LORD, my strength.

²The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my strength, in whom I will trust;
my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

³I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
so shall I be saved from my enemies.

⁴The sorrows of death hemmed me in,
and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

⁵The sorrows of hell were all around me;
the snares of death were in front of me.

⁶In my distress I called upon the LORD,
and cried unto my God;

- He heard my voice out of His temple,
and my cry came before Him, into His ears.
- ⁷Then the earth shook and trembled;
and the foundations of the hills
moved
and were shaken, because He was angry.
- ⁸There went up a smoke out of His
nostrils,
and fire out of His mouth devoured;
coals were kindled by it.
- ⁹He also bowed the heavens, and came
down;
and darkness was under His feet.
- ¹⁰And He rode upon a cherub, and did fly;
yea, He did fly upon the wings of the wind.
- ¹¹He made darkness His secret place;
His tabernacle around Him was of the dark waters
and thick clouds of the skies.
- ¹²At the brightness before Him,
hailstones and coals of fire
passed through His thick clouds.
- ¹³The LORD also thundered in the
heavens,
and the Highest gave forth His voice;
hailstones and coals of fire.
- ¹⁴Yea, He sent out His arrows and scattered them;
and He shot out lightnings and crushed them.
- ¹⁵Then the channels of waters were seen,
and the foundations of the world
were uncovered,
at Thy rebuke, O LORD,
at the blast of the breath of Thy
nostrils.
- ¹⁶He sent from above, He took me,
He drew me out of many waters.
- ¹⁷He delivered me from my strong
enemy,
and from those who hated me;
for they were too strong for me.
- ¹⁸They went before me in the day of my calamity;
but the LORD was my stay.
- ¹⁹He brought me forth also into a large
place;
He delivered me because He delighted in me.
- ²⁰The LORD rewarded me according
to my righteousness;
according to the cleanness of my hands He has repaid me.
- ²¹For I have kept the ways of the
LORD,
and have not wickedly departed
from my God.
- ²²For all His judgments were before
me,
and I did not put away His statutes
from me.
- ²³I was also upright before Him,
and I kept myself from my iniquity.
- ²⁴Therefore the LORD has returned to me according to my righteousness,
according to the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.
- ²⁵With the merciful Thou wilt show
Thyself merciful;
with an upright man Thou wilt show
Thyself upright;
- ²⁶with the pure Thou wilt show Thyself
pure;
and with the perverse Thou wilt show Thyself perverse.
- ²⁷For Thou wilt save the afflicted
people,
but wilt bring down high looks.
- ²⁸For Thou wilt light my candle;
the LORD my God will make my darkness light.
- ²⁹For by Thee I have run through a troop;
and by my God I have leaped over a wall.
- ³⁰As for God, His way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is tried;
He is a shield to all those who trust
in Him.
- ³¹For who is God besides Jehovah?
Or, who is a Rock except our God?
- ³²the God who girds me with strength,
and makes my way perfect.
- ³³He makes my feet like hinds' feet,
and sets me upon my high places.
- ³⁴He teaches my hands to war,

so that a bow of steel is bent by my arms.
³⁵Thou hast also given me the shield of Thy salvation;
 and Thy right hand has held me up,
 and Thy gentleness has made me great.
³⁶Thou hast given a wide place for my steps under me,
 so that my feet did not slip.
³⁷I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them;
 neither did I turn again until they were destroyed.
³⁸I have wounded them so that they were not able to rise;
 they have fallen under my feet.
³⁹For Thou hast girded me with strength for the battle;
 Thou hast humbled under me those who rose up against me.
⁴⁰Thou hast also given me the neck of my enemies;
 so that I might destroy those who hate me.
⁴¹They cried, but there was none to save;
even unto the LORD, but He did not answer them.
⁴²Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind;
 I cast them out like the dirt in the streets.
⁴³Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people;
 Thou hast made me the head of the heathen;
 a people whom I have not known shall serve me.
⁴⁴As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me;
 the strangers shall bow down to me.
⁴⁵The strangers shall fade away,
 and be afraid out of their strongholds.
⁴⁶The LORD lives; and blessed be my rock,
 and let the God of my salvation be praised.
⁴⁷*It is* God who avenges me,
 and humbles the people under me.
⁴⁸He delivers me from my enemies;

yea, Thou dost lift me up above those who rise up against me;
 Thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

⁴⁹Therefore I will give thanks to Thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto Thy name.

⁵⁰He gives great deliverance unto His king,
 and shows mercy to His anointed,
 to David, and to his seed forevermore.

PSALM 19

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹The heavens declare the glory of God;
 and the expanse shows His handiwork.

²Day to day pours forth speech,
 and night to night reveals knowledge.

³*There is* no speech nor language when their voice is not heard.

⁴Their line has gone out through all the earth,
 and their words to the end of the world.

In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,

⁵which comes forth like a bridegroom leaving his chamber,
 and which rejoices as a strong man to run a race.

⁶Its going forth is from the end of the heavens,
 and its course is to their ends.
 And there is nothing hid from its heat.

⁷The law of the LORD is perfect,
 converting the soul;
 the testimony of the LORD is sure,
 making the simple wise.

⁸The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart;
 the commandment of the LORD is pure,
 giving light to the eyes.

⁹The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever;
 the judgments of the LORD are true
 and righteous altogether.

¹⁰*They are* more to be desired than gold,
even much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey
and the honeycomb.

¹¹Moreover Thy servant is warned by them;
in keeping them there is great reward.

¹²Who can understand his errors?
O make me pure from secret faults;

¹³and keep Thy servant back from willful sins;
do not let them rule over me;
then I shall be upright,
and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

¹⁴Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be pleasing in Thy sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

PSALM 20

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹*May* the LORD hear you in the day of
trouble;
may the name of the God of Jacob defend you;

²send you help from the sanctuary,
and uphold you out of Zion;

³remember all your offerings,
and accept your burnt sacrifice.
Sē'-lāh.

⁴*May the LORD* grant you according to your own heart,
and fulfill all your plans.

⁵We will rejoice in Thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up banners;
may the LORD fulfill all your prayers.

⁶Now I know that the LORD saves His
anointed;
He will hear him from His holy Heaven
with the saving strength of His right
hand.

⁷Some trust in chariots, and some in horses;

but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

⁸They have bowed down and fallen;
but we have risen and stand upright.

⁹Save, LORD;
let the King hear us when we call.

PSALM 21

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹The king shall rejoice in Thy strength,
O LORD;
and in Thy salvation how greatly
shall he rejoice!

²Thou hast given him his heart's desire,
and hast not withheld the prayer of his lips.

Sē'-lāh.

³For Thou dost go before him with the blessings of goodness;
Thou dost set a crown of pure gold
on his head.

⁴He asked life from Thee; Thou didst
give it to him,
length of days forever and ever.

⁵His glory is great in Thy salvation;
honor and majesty Thou hast laid upon him.

⁶For Thou hast made him most blessed
forever;
Thou hast made him exceeding glad with Thy holy face.

⁷For the king trusts in the LORD,
and through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved.

⁸Thy hand shall find out all Thy enemies;
Thy right hand shall find out those who hate Thee.

⁹Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven
in the time of Thy anger;
The LORD will swallow them up in His wrath,
and the fire shall devour them.

¹⁰Their fruit shalt Thou destroy from
the earth,
and their seed from among the children of men.

¹¹For they intended evil against Thee;

they imagined a wicked thing, which they are not able to do.

¹²For Thou shalt make them turn their back;

Thou shalt make ready Thy arrows upon Thy strings against their face.

¹³Be Thou exalted, LORD, in Thy own strength;

so we will sing and praise Thy power.

PSALM 22

To the chief musician upon Aijeleth Shahar, A Psalm of David.

¹My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me, and art far from my help at the words of my cry?

²O my God, I cry in the daytime, but Thou hearest not;

and in the night time, and am not silent.

³But Thou art holy, O Thou who art enthroned on the praises of Israel.

⁴Our fathers trusted in Thee; they trusted, and Thou didst deliver them.

⁵They cried unto Thee, and were delivered;

they trusted in Thee, and were not ashamed.

⁶But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised by all the people.

⁷All who see me laugh me to scorn; they shoot out the lip; they shake the head, saying,

⁸He trusted in the LORD that He would deliver him;

let Him deliver him, since He delighted in him!

⁹For Thou art He who took me out of the womb;

Thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

¹⁰I was cast upon Thee from the womb; Thou art my God from my mother's belly.

¹¹Be not far from me;

for trouble is near, for there is none to help.

¹²Many bulls have circled around me; strong bulls of Bā'-shān have hemmed me in all around.

¹³They opened wide their mouths upon me, like a ripping and a roaring lion.

¹⁴I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint;

my heart is like wax;

it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

¹⁵My strength is dried up like a piece of pottery,

and my tongue clings to my jaws;

and Thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

¹⁶For dogs have circled around me; the gathering of the wicked have hemmed me in;

they pierced my hands and my feet.

¹⁷I can count all my bones;

they look and stare at me.

¹⁸They divide my garments among them

and cast lots for my clothing.

¹⁹But do not be far from me, O LORD; O my strength, hurry to help me!

²⁰Deliver my soul from the sword my darling from the power of the dog.

²¹Save me from the lion's mouth; for Thou hast heard me from the horns of the wild oxen.

²²I will declare Thy name to my brothers;

in the midst of the congregation I will praise Thee.

²³You who fear the LORD, praise Him; all of you, the seed of Jacob, glorify Him;

and fear Him, all of you, the seed of Israel.

²⁴For He has not despised nor hated the affliction of the afflicted;

neither has He hidden His face from him;

but when he cried unto Him, He heard.

²⁵My praise shall be of Thee in the great congregation;

I will pay my vows before them who fear Him.

²⁶The meek shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek the LORD shall praise Him; your heart shall live forever.

²⁷All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD; and all the families of the nations shall worship before Thee.

²⁸For the kingdom is the LORD's; and He is the ruler among the nations.

²⁹All those who are fat upon the earth shall eat and worship; all those who go down to the dust shall bow before Him; and none can keep alive his own soul.

³⁰A seed shall serve him; it shall be spoken of the LORD to the coming generation.

³¹They shall come, and shall declare His righteousness to a people that shall be born, that He has done this.

PSALM 23

A Psalm of David.

¹The LORD is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

²He makes me to lie down in green pastures;

He leads me beside the still waters.

³He restores my soul; He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

⁵Thou preparest a table for me in the presence of my enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runs over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

PSALM 24

A Psalm of David.

¹The earth is the LORD's, and the fullness of it; the world, and those who dwell in it.

²For He has founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

³Who shall go up into the hill of the LORD?

Or who shall stand in His holy place?

⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart;

who has not lifted up his soul unto vanity, and has not sworn deceitfully.

⁵He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

⁶This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Thy face, O God of Jacob. Sē'-lāh.

⁷Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, you everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

⁸Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

⁹Lift up your heads, O gates; even lift up, you everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

¹⁰Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory. Sē'-lāh.

PSALM 25

A Psalm of David.

¹Unto Thee, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

²O my God, I trust in Thee; do not let me be ashamed,

let not my enemies triumph over me.
 3Yea, let none who wait upon Thee be ashamed;
 let them be ashamed who sin without
 cause.

4Show me Thy ways, O LORD;
 teach me Thy paths.

5Lead me in Thy truth, and teach me;
 for Thou art the God of my salvation;
 on Thee I wait all the day long.

6Remember, O LORD, Thy tender mercies
 and Thy loving-kindnesses;
 for they have been forever and ever.

7Do not remember the sins of my youth,
 or my rebellings;
 according to Thy mercy remember
 me
 for Thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

8Good and upright is the LORD;
 therefore He will teach sinners in the way.

9The meek He will guide in judgment;
 and the meek He will teach His way.

10All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth
 unto those who keep His covenant
 and His testimonies.

11For Thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon my iniquity; for it is great.

12What man is he who fears the LORD?
 He shall teach him in the way that he shall choose.

13His soul shall dwell at ease;
 and his seed shall inherit the earth.

14The secret of the LORD is with those who fear Him;
 and He will show them His covenant.

15My eyes are ever toward the LORD;
 for He shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16Turn unto me, and have mercy upon
 me,
 for I am wasted and afflicted.

17The troubles of my heart are enlarged;
 O bring me out of my distresses.

18Look upon my affliction and my pain,
 and forgive all my sins.

19Look upon my enemies; for they are many;
 and they hate me with cruel hatred.

20O keep my soul, and deliver me;
 let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in Thee.

21Let purity and uprightness keep me;
 for I wait upon Thee.

22Redeem Israel, O God,
 out of all his troubles.

PSALM 26

A Psalm of David.

1Judge me, O LORD;
 for I have walked in my truthfulness.
 I have trusted also in the LORD;
 I shall not slide.

2Examine me, O LORD, and prove me;
 try my heart and my mind.

3For Thy loving-kindness is before my
 eyes;
 and I have walked in Thy truth.

4I have not sat with lying men,
 neither will I go in with hypocrites.

5I have hated the congregation of evil-
 doers,
 and will not sit with the wicked.

6I will wash my hands in innocency;
 so I will go around Thy altar, O
 LORD,

7so that I may cry out with the voice of
 thanksgiving,
 and tell of all Thy wonderful works.

8LORD, I have loved the dwelling place of Thy house,
 and the place where Thy honor
 dwells.

9Do not take away my soul with sinners,

nor my life with bloody men 10in whose hands is mischief,
 and their right hand is full of bribes.

11But as for me, I will walk in my truthfulness;
 redeem me and be merciful unto me.

12My foot stands in an even place;
 in the congregations I will bless the LORD.

PSALM 27

A Psalm of David.

¹The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the strength of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

²When the wicked,
my enemies and my foes,
came upon me to eat my flesh,
they stumbled and fell.

³Though an army should camp against me,
my heart shall not fear;
though war should rise against me,
I still will have faith.

⁴One thing I have desired from the LORD;
that I will seek after—that I may dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the LORD,
and to pray in His temple.

⁵For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His tabernacle;
in the secret of His tabernacle He shall hide me;
He shall set me up upon a rock.

⁶And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies round about me;
therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy
in His tabernacle.
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto
the LORD.

⁷Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice;
and have mercy upon me, and answer me.

⁸My heart says unto Thee, Seek my face;
Thy face, O LORD, I will seek;

⁹Hide not Thy face from me.
Turn not Thy servant away in anger;
Thou hast been my help;
leave me not, neither forsake me,
O God of my salvation.

¹⁰When my father and my mother forsake me,
then the LORD will take me up.

¹¹Teach me Thy way, O LORD,
and lead me in a plain path,
because of my enemies.

¹²Deliver me not over to the will of my enemies;
for false witnesses have risen up
against me,
and he that breathes out cruelty.

¹³*I would have fainted unless* I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD
in the land of the living.

¹⁴Wait on the LORD;
be of good courage, and He shall make your heart strong;
wait, I say, upon the LORD.

PSALM 28

A Psalm of David.

¹I will cry unto Thee, O LORD;
my Rock, do not be deaf unto me,
lest, if Thou be silent unto me,
I become like those who go down
into the pit.

²Hear the voice of my prayers,
when I cry unto Thee,
when I lift up my hands
toward Thy Holy Place.

³Draw me not away with the wicked,
and with the workers of iniquity,
who speak peace to their neighbors,
yet evil is in their hearts.

⁴Give them according to their deeds,
and according to the wickedness of their practices,
give them according to the work of their hands;
give them what they deserve.

⁵Because they do not pay attention to the works of the LORD,
nor the work of His hands,
He shall destroy them and never build them up.

⁶Blessed be the LORD,
because He has heard the voice of
my prayers.
⁷The LORD is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusted in Him,
and I am helped; therefore my heart
greatly rejoices;
and with my song I will praise Him.

⁸The LORD is a strength unto them, and He is the saving strength of His
anointed.

⁹Save Thy people, and bless Thy inheritance;
feed them also, and lift them up forever.

PSALM 29

A Psalm of David.

¹Give unto the LORD, O you mighty, give unto the LORD glory and
strength.

²Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His name;
worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

³The voice of the LORD is upon the
waters;
the God of glory thunders;
the LORD is upon many waters.

⁴The voice of the LORD is powerful,
the voice of the LORD is full of
majesty.

⁵The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars,
the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

He also makes them to skip like a calf, Lēb'-ā-nōn and Sir'-i-ōn like a young wild ox.

The voice of the LORD goes through flames of fire.

The voice of the LORD shakes the
wilderness;
the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kā'-dēsh.

⁶The voice of the LORD makes the hinds calve,
and uncovers the forests;
and in His temple everyone speaks of His glory.

¹⁰The LORD sits upon the flood;
yea, the LORD sits as King forever.

¹¹The LORD will give strength to His
people;
the LORD will bless His people with peace.

PSALM 30

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David.

¹I will praise Thee, O LORD; for Thou hast lifted me up,
and hast not made my foes to rejoice
over me.

²O LORD my God, I cried unto Thee,
and Thou hast healed me.

³O LORD, Thou hast brought up my soul from the grave;
Thou hast kept me alive, so that I should not go down to the pit.

⁴Sing unto the LORD, O you saints of His,
and give thanks at the memory of His holiness.

⁵For His anger is only a moment;
in His favor is life;
weeping may endure for a night,
but joy comes in the morning.

⁶And in my blessedness I said,
I shall never be moved.

⁷LORD, by Thy favor
Thou hast made my mountain to stand strong;
Thou didst hide Thy face, and I was troubled.

⁸I cried unto Thee, O LORD;
and unto the LORD I sought with
prayer.

⁹What profit is in my blood,
when I go down to the pit?
Shall the dust praise Thee?
Shall it tell of Thy truth?

¹⁰Hear, O LORD, and have mercy
upon me;
LORD; be Thou my helper.

¹¹Thou hast turned my mourning into dancing for me;
Thou hast torn off my sackcloth,
and hast clothed me with gladness, ¹²so that my glory may sing praise unto Thee, and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to Thee forever.

PSALM 31

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹In Thee, O LORD, I put my trust;
let me never be ashamed;
deliver me in Thy righteousness.
²Bow down Thy ear to me;
deliver me quickly;
be Thou my strong rock,
a fortress to save me.
³For Thou art my rock and my fortress;
therefore for Thy name's sake lead
me and guide me.
⁴Pull me out of the net that they have laid for me,
for Thou art my strength.
⁵Into Thy hand I commit my spirit;
Thou hast redeemed me, O LORD
God of truth.
⁶I have hated those who take heed to lying vanities;
but I trust in the LORD.
⁷I will be glad and rejoice in Thy
mercy;
for Thou hast looked on my affliction;
Thou hast known my soul in troubles;
⁸and hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy;
Thou hast set my feet in a broad
place.
⁹Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble;
my eye has become old with grief,
my soul and my belly.
¹⁰For my life is ending with grief,
and my years with sighing;

my strength fails because of my
iniquity,
and my bones have wasted away.

¹¹I was a reproach among all my foes,
but especially among my neighbors,
and a fear to my friends;
those who saw me outside fled from
me.
¹²I am forgotten as a dead man out of
mind;
I am like a broken vessel.
¹³For I have heard the slander of many;
fear was on every side;
while they met together against me,
they planned to take away my life.

¹⁴But I trusted in Thee, O LORD;
I said, Thou art my God.
¹⁵My times are in Thy hand;
deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.
¹⁶Make Thy face to shine upon Thy
servant;
save me for Thy mercies' sake.
¹⁷Let me not be ashamed, O LORD;
for I have called upon Thee;
Let the wicked be ashamed;
let them be silent in the grave.
¹⁸Let the lying lips be put to silence;
the lips which speak proudly against
the righteous,
with pride and scorn.
¹⁹How great is Thy goodness, which Thou hast laid up for those who fear Thee;
Thou hast worked for those who trust
in Thee
before the sons of men!
²⁰Thou shalt hide them in the secret of Thy presence
from the pride of man;
Thou shalt keep them secretly in a hiding place
away from the strife of tongues.

²¹Blessed be the LORD;
for He has shown me His marvelous kindness
in a strong city.
²²For I said in my haste,
I am cut off from before Thy eyes;

but Thou didst hear the voice of my cries,
when I cried unto Thee.

- ²³O love the LORD, all you saints of
His;
for the LORD preserves the faithful,
and plentifully rewards the proud doer.
²⁴Be of good courage, and He shall make your heart strong,
all you who hope in the LORD.

PSALM 32

A Psalm of David, Maschil.

- ¹Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
whose sin is covered.
²Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD does not charge iniquity,
and in whose spirit there is no guile.
³When I kept silence, my bones became old
through my roaring all the day long.
⁴For day and night Thy hand was heavy
upon me;
my sap is turned into the drouth of summer.

Sē'-lāh.

- ⁵I confessed my sin unto Thee,
and my iniquity I have not hidden.
I said, I will confess my sins unto the
LORD;
and Thou didst forgive the iniquity
of my sin.

Sē'-lāh.

- ¹For this shall everyone who is godly pray unto Thee,
in a time when Thou mayest be found;
surely in the floods of great waters
they shall not come near him.
Thou art my hiding place;
Thou shalt preserve me from trouble;
Thou shalt circle me with songs of deliverance.

Sē'-lāh.

⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go;
I will guide you with my eye.

⁹Be not like the horse, or like the mule,
who have no understanding,
whose mouth must be held in with
bit and bridle,
so that they do not come near you.

¹⁰Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
but mercy goes all around him who trusts in the LORD.

¹¹Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice,
you righteous;
and shout for joy, all you upright in
heart.

PSALM 33

¹Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous;
for praise is becoming for the up-
right.

²Praise the LORD with harp;
sing unto Him with the psaltery and
an instrument of ten strings.

³Sing to Him a new song;
play skillfully with a loud noise.

⁴For the word of the LORD is right;
and all His works are in truth.

⁵He loves righteousness and judgment;
the earth is full of the goodness of
the LORD.

⁶By the word of the LORD were the heavens made;
and all the host of them by the breath of His mouth.

⁷He gathers the waters of the sea together like a heap;
He puts the deeps in storehouses.

⁸Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the people of the world stand in fear of Him.

⁹For He spoke, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood forth.

¹⁰The LORD brings the counsel of the heathen to nothing;
He breaks the plots of the people.

¹¹The counsel of the LORD stands for-
ever,

- the thoughts of His heart to all generations.
- ¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD;
the people whom He has chosen for his own inheritance.
- ¹³The LORD looks down from Heaven; He beholds all the sons of men.
- ¹⁴From His dwelling place He looks upon all the people of the earth.
- ¹⁵He makes their hearts alike; He thinks upon all their works.
- ¹⁶There is no king saved by the multitude of an army;
a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.
- ¹⁷A horse is a vain thing for safety; neither shall he deliver by his great strength.
- ¹⁸Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear Him, upon those who hope in His mercy;
- ¹⁹to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
- ²⁰Our soul waits upon the LORD; He is our help and our shield.
- ²¹For our heart shall rejoice in Him, because we have trusted in His holy name.
- ²²Let Thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in Thee.
- ⁶This poor man cried, and the LORD heard,
and saved him out of all his troubles.
- ⁷The angel of the LORD camps round about those who fear Him, and delivers them.
- ⁸O taste and see that the LORD is good;
blessed is the man who trusts in Him.
- ⁹O fear the LORD, you His saints; for there is nothing lacking to those who fear Him.
- ¹⁰The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger;
but those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.
- ¹¹Come, listen to me, you children; I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- ¹²Who is the man that desires life, and loves days, that he may see good in them?
- ¹³Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking falsely.
- ¹⁴Depart from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.
- ¹⁵The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous,
and His ears are open to their cry.
- ¹⁶The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
to cut off the memory of them from the earth.
- ¹⁷*The righteous* cry, and the LORD hears,
and delivers them out of all their troubles.
- ¹⁸The LORD is near to the broken-hearted;
and saves those who are of an humble spirit.
- ¹⁹Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
but the LORD delivers him out of them all.
- ²⁰He keeps all his bones;
not one of them is broken.
- ²¹Evil shall slay the wicked;
and those who hate the righteous shall be held guilty.
- ²²The LORD redeems the soul of His servants;

PSALM 34

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

- ¹I will bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall always be in my mouth.
- ²My soul shall make its boast in the LORD;
the humble shall hear and be glad.
- ³O magnify the LORD with me,
and let us exalt His name together.
- ⁴I sought the LORD, and He heard me,
and delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵They looked unto Him, and were filled with light;
and their faces were not ashamed.

and none of them who trust in Him shall be deserted.

PSALM 35

A Psalm of David.

- ¹Strive, O LORD, with those who strive
with me;
fight against those who fight against
me.
- ²Take hold of shield and buckler,
and stand up for my help.
- ³Also draw out the spear and the lance against those who pursue me;
say unto my soul,
I am your salvation.
- ⁴Let them be humbled and put to shame,
those who seek after my soul;
let them be turned back and be brought to blushing,
those who purpose to hurt me.
- ⁵Let them be as chaff before the wind;
and let the angel of the LORD drive them on.
- ⁶Let their way be dark and slippery;
and let the angel of the LORD chase
them.
- ⁷For without cause they have spread their net for me in a pit;
without cause they have dug for my
soul.
- ⁸Let ruin come suddenly upon him;
and let his net which he has hidden catch himself;
into that very ruin let him fall.
- ⁹And my soul shall be joyful in the
LORD;
it shall rejoice in His salvation.
- ¹⁰All my bones shall say,
LORD, who is like Thee,
who dost deliver the poor from him
who is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him who plunders him?
- ¹¹False witnesses rose up;
they laid things to my charge which I never knew.
- ¹²They rewarded me evil for good;
loneliness has come to my soul.
- ¹³But as for me, when they were sick,
my clothing was sackcloth;
I humbled my soul with fasting;
and my prayer returned into my own
bosom.
- ¹⁴I behaved myself as though he were
my friend or brother;
I bowed down to the dirt,
as one who mourns for his mother.
- ¹⁵But in my overthrow they rejoiced,
and gathered themselves together;
the fallen gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it
not;
they have torn in pieces without
ceasing.
- ¹⁶They evilly mocked me more and
more,
they gnashed upon me with their teeth.
- ¹⁷LORD, how long wilt Thou look on?
Rescue my soul from their lies,
my darling from the lions.
- ¹⁸I will give Thee thanks in the great
congregation;
I will praise Thee among many
people.
- ¹⁹Let not those who are my enemies
wrongfully rejoice over me;
neither let them wink with the eye,
those who hate me without a cause.
- ²⁰For they do not speak peace;
but they think deceitful things against those who are quiet in the land.
- ²¹Yea, they opened their mouth wide
against me;
and said, Aha, aha!
Our eye has seen it.
- ²²Thou hast seen, O LORD; do not keep silence, O LORD;
O LORD, do not be far from me.
- ²³Stir up Thyself, and awake to my judgment,
to my cause, my God and my Lord.
- ²⁴Judge me, O LORD my God, according to Thy righteousness;
and do not let them rejoice over me.

- ²⁵Let them not say in their hearts,
Aha, we have our desire;
let them not say, We have swallowed him up.
- ²⁶Let them be ashamed and brought to shame together,
those who rejoice at my hurt;
let them be clothed with shame and dishonor,
those who magnify themselves against
me.
- ²⁷Let them shout for joy and be glad,
those who favor my righteous cause;
yea, let them forever say,
Let the LORD be magnified, who has pleasure in the good of His
servant.
- ²⁸And my tongue shall speak of Thy
righteousness,
of Thy praise all the day long.

PSALM 36

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

- ¹The rebelling of the wicked says
within my heart,
There is no fear of God
before his eyes.
- ²For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
so that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated.
- ³The words of his mouth are iniquity
and deceit;
he has stopped being wise and doing
good.
- ⁴He plots evil upon his bed;
he sets himself in a way that is not
good;
he does not hate evil.
- ⁵Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens;
Thy faithfulness reaches to the
clouds.
- ⁶Thy righteousness is like the great
mountains;
Thy judgments are a great deep;
O LORD, Thou dost keep man and beast.
- ⁷How precious is Thy loving-kindness,
O God!

- Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Thy wing.
- ⁸They shall be richly satisfied with the fatness of Thy house;
and Thou shalt make them drink of the river of Thy pleasures.
- ⁹For with Thee is the fountain of life;
in Thy light we shall see light.
- ¹⁰O continue Thy loving-kindness to those who know Thee,
and Thy righteousness to the upright
in heart.
- ¹¹Do not let the foot of pride come
against me,
and do not let the hand of the wicked
move me.
- ¹²There the workers of iniquity have fallen;
they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM 37

A Psalm of David.

- ¹Do not fret yourself because of evil
doers;
neither be envious against the workers of iniquity.
- ²For they shall soon be cut down like
the grass;
and wither as the green herb.
- ³Trust in the LORD, and do good;
you shall dwell in the land, and you shall be fed on truth.
- ⁴Delight yourself also in the LORD,
and He shall give you the desires of your heart.
- ⁵Commit your way unto the LORD;
trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass.
- ⁶And He shall bring forth your righteousness like the light,
and your judgment like the noonday.
- ⁷Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently
for Him;
do not fret yourself because of him
who prospers in his way,
because of him who brings evil things to pass.

- ⁸Cease from anger, and forsake wrath;
do not fret yourself in any way to do
evil.
- ⁹For evildoers shall be cut off;
but those who wait upon the LORD,
they shall inherit the earth.
- ¹⁰For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be;
yea, you shall carefully look at his place, and it shall not be.
- ¹¹But the meek shall inherit the earth, and shall delight themselves in the overflowings of peace.
- ¹²The wicked plots against the just,
and gnashes on him with his teeth.
- ¹³The LORD shall laugh at him;
for He sees that his day is coming.
- ¹⁴The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow,
to cast down the poor and needy,
to kill those who walk uprightly.
- ¹⁵Their sword shall enter into their own
heart,
and their bows shall be broken.
- ¹⁶A little that a righteous man has is better than the riches of many wicked.
- ¹⁷For the arms of the wicked shall be broken;
But the LORD upholds the righteous.
- ¹⁸The LORD knows the days of the up-
right;
and their inheritance shall be forever.
- ¹⁹They shall not be ashamed in the evil
time;
and in the days of famine they shall
be satisfied.
- ²⁰But the wicked shall perish,
And the enemies of the LORD shall be like the fat of lambs;
they shall pass away into the smoke, they shall pass away.
- ²¹The wicked borrows, and never pays
again;
but the righteous shows mercy, and gives.
- ²²For those who are blessed by Him
shall inherit the earth;
- and those cursed by Him shall be cut off.
- ²³The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD;
and He delights in his way.
- ²⁴Though he fall, he shall not be completely cast down;
for the LORD upholds his hand.
- ²⁵I have been young, and now am old;
yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
or his seed begging bread.
- ²⁶All the day long he deals graciously,
and lends;
and his seed is blessed.
- ²⁷Depart from evil and do good;
and live forevermore.
- ²⁸For the LORD loves judgment
and does not forsake His saints;
they are kept forever;
but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
- ²⁹The righteous shall inherit the land,
and dwell in it forever.
- ³⁰The mouth of the righteous speaks
wisdom,
and his tongue talks of judgment.
- ³¹The law of his God is in his heart;
none of his steps shall slide.
- ³²The wicked watches the righteous,
and seeks to kill him.
- ³³The LORD will not leave him in his
hand,
nor allow him to be found guilty
when he is judged.
- ³⁴Wait on the LORD, and keep His
way,
and He shall lift you up to inherit
the land;
when the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.
- ³⁵I have seen the wicked in great
power,
and spreading himself like a green bay tree.
- ³⁶Yet he passed away, and, lo, he is not;
and I looked for him, but he could not be found.

- ³⁷Watch the perfect man, and behold
the upright;
for the end of that man is peace.
- ³⁸But the sinners shall be destroyed
together;
the end of the wicked shall be cut
off.
- ³⁹But the salvation of the righteous is
from the LORD;
He is their strength in the time of
trouble.
- ⁴⁰And the LORD shall help them, and
deliver them;
He shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them,
because they trust in Him.

PSALM 38

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

- ¹O LORD, do not rebuke me in Thy
wrath;
neither chasten me in Thy fury.
- ²For Thy arrows stick fast in me,
and Thy hand presses heavily upon
me.
- ³*There is* no soundness in my flesh
because of Thy anger;
nor is there any rest in my bones
because of my sin.
- ⁴For my iniquities have gone over my
head;
like a heavy burden they are too
heavy for me.
- ⁵My wounds stink and are rotten
because of my foolishness.
- ⁶I am troubled; I am bowed down
greatly;
I go mourning all the day long.
- ⁷For my loins are filled with a burning;
and there is no soundness in my flesh.
- ⁸I am feeble and painfully broken;
I have roared because of the groaning of my heart.
- ⁹Lord, all my desire is before Thee;
and my groaning is not hidden from
Thee.
- ¹⁰My heart pants; my strength fails me;
as for the light of my eyes, it also is gone from me.

- ¹¹My lovers and my friends stand apart
from my plague;
and my kinsmen stand far off.
- ¹²Also those who seek my life lay
snares for me;
and those who seek my hurt speak
sly things,
and imagine deceits all the day long.
- ¹³But I like a deaf man, hear not;
and I am like a dumb man who opens not his mouth.
- ¹⁴Thus I was as a man who hears not,
and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
- ¹⁵For in Thee, O LORD, do I hope;
Thou wilt hear, O LORD my God.
- ¹⁶For I said, Hear me, lest they rejoice
over me;
when my foot slips, they magnify themselves against me.
- ¹⁷For I am ready to fall,
and my pain is always before me.
- ¹⁸For I will declare my iniquity;
I will be sorry for my sin.
- ¹⁹But my enemies are lively;
they are strong;
and those who hate me without a cause are multiplied.
- ²⁰Those also who give evil for good are
my enemies,
because I follow good.
- ²¹Forsake me not, O LORD;
O my God, be not far from me.
- ²²Make haste to help me,
O LORD my salvation.

PSALM 39

To the chief musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm
of David.

- ¹I said, I will take heed to my ways
so that I do not sin with my tongue;
I will keep my mouth with a bridle
while the wicked is before me.
- ²I was dumb with silence;
I held my peace, even from good;
and my sorrow was stirred.
- ³My heart was hot within me;
while I was musing, the fire burned;
I spoke with my tongue:

- ¹LORD, make me to know my end,
and the measure of my days,
what it is;
I know how frail I am.
- ⁵Behold, Thou hast made my days as a hand-breadth,
and my age is as nothing before
Thee.
Verily, every man at his best state is altogether vanity.
- Sē'-läh.
- ⁶Surely every man walks about like a
shadow!
Surely they are in an uproar for nothing.
He heaps up, and does not know who shall gather them.
- ⁷And now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in Thee.
- ⁸Deliver me from all my transgressions;
make me not the reproach of the foolish.
- ⁹I was dumb, I did not open my mouth;
because Thou hast done it.
- ¹⁰Remove Thy stroke away from me;
I am destroyed by the blow of Thy
hand.
- ¹¹When Thou dost correct man
for iniquity with rebukes, Thou dost make his beauty to vanish away like a moth.
Surely every man is vanity.
- Sē'-läh.
- ¹²Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and give ear unto my cry.
Hold not Thy peace at my tears;
for I am a stranger with Thee,
a pilgrim, as all my fathers were.
- ¹³O spare me so that I may recover
strength
before I go away from here and be
no more.

PSALM 40

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

- ¹I waited patiently for the LORD;
and He bowed down to me, and heard
my cry.
- ²He brought me up also out of a horrible pit,
out of the miry clay,
and set my feet upon a rock,
and gave sureness to my steps.
- ³And He has put a new song in my
mouth,
praise unto our God;
many shall see it and fear,
and shall trust in the LORD.
- ⁴Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust,
and does not turn to the proud,
nor to those who turn aside to lies.
- ⁵O LORD my God, many are Thy wonderful works which Thou hast done, and Thy thoughts which are toward
us;
they cannot be set in order unto
Thee;
if I would declare and speak of them,
they are more than can be numbered.
- ⁶Sacrifice and offering Thou didst not
desire;
My ears Thou hast opened;
burnt offering and sin offering Thou hast not asked.
- ⁷Then I said, Lo, I come,
in the volume of the book it is written
of Me,
- ⁸I delight to do Thy will, O My God;
and Thy law is within My heart.
- ⁹I have preached righteousness
in the great congregation;
lo, I have not kept back my lips,
O LORD, Thou knowest.
- ¹⁰I have not hidden Thy righteousness
within my heart;
I have declared Thy faithfulness and Thy salvation;
I have not hidden Thy loving-kindness and Thy truth
from the great congregation.
- ¹¹Do not withhold Thy tender mercies
from me, O LORD;
let Thy loving-kindness and Thy truth
always watch over me.
- ¹²For evils without number
have hemmed me in;
my sins have taken hold upon me,
so that I am not able to look up;

they are more than the hairs of my head;
therefore my heart fails me.

¹³Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
O LORD, make haste to help me.

¹⁴Let them be ashamed and humbled together,
those who seek after my soul to destroy it;
let them be driven backward and put to shame,
those who wish me evil.

¹⁵Let them be deserted as a reward for their shame,
those who say unto me, Aha, aha!

¹⁶Let all those who seek Thee rejoice and be glad in Thee;
let those who love Thy salvation say forever, May the LORD be magnified.

¹⁷But I am poor and needy;
yet the LORD thinks upon me;
Thou art my help and my deliverer;
O my God, do not wait.

PSALM 41

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹Blessed is he who looks upon the poor;
the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

²The LORD will watch over him and keep him alive;
and he shall be blessed upon the earth;
and Thou wilt not deliver him to the will of his enemies.

³The LORD will give him strength upon the bed of sickness;
Thou wilt make all his bed in his illness.

⁴I said, LORD, be merciful to me;
heal my soul; for I have sinned against Thee.

⁵My enemies speak evil of me, saying,
When will he die, and his name perish?

⁶And if he comes to see, he speaks vanity;
his heart gathers iniquity to itself;
he goes abroad and he speaks of it.

⁷All who hate me whisper together against me;
they plot against me to hurt me.

⁸An evil disease, they say, clings fast to him;
and now that he is lying, he shall rise up no more.

⁹Even my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, who ate of my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.

¹⁰But Thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me,
and raise me up, so that I may repay them.

¹¹By this I know that Thou dost favor me,
because my enemies do not triumph over me.

¹²And as for me, Thou dost uphold me in my truthfulness, and dost set me before Thy face forever.

¹³Blessed be the LORD God of Israel,
from everlasting, and to everlasting.
Amen and Amen!

PSALM 42

To the chief musician, Maschil, for the sons of Korah.

¹As the hart pants after the water brooks,
so my soul pants after Thee, O God.

²My soul thirsts for God,
for the living God;
when shall I come and appear before God?

³My tears have been my food
day and night,
while they say unto me all the day,
Where is your God?

⁴When I remember these things,
I pour out my soul in me;
for I had gone with the multitude;
I went with them to the house of God,
with the voice of joy and praise,
with a multitude who kept the feast.

⁵Why are you cast down, O my soul?
 Why do you moan within me?
 Hope in God;
 for I shall yet praise Him
 for the help of His face.

⁶O my God, my soul is cast down within
 me;
 therefore I will remember Thee
 from the land of Jordan,
 and of the Hēr'-mōns,
 from Mount Mī'-zār.

⁷Deep calls unto deep
 at the noise of Thy water-spouts;
 all Thy waves and Thy billows
 have gone over me.

⁸Y^et the LORD will command His loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be
 with me
 and my prayer to the God of my life.

⁹I will say unto God my rock,
 Why hast Thou forgotten me?
 Why do I go mourning
 because of the cruelty of the enemy?

¹⁰As with a sword in my bones,
 my enemies shame me;
 while they say daily to me,
 Where is your God?

¹¹Why are you cast down, O my soul?
 And why do you moan within me?
 Hope in God; for I still praise Him,
 the salvation of my face, and my God.

PSALM 43

¹Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.
 O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

²For Thou art the God of my strength;
 why dost Thou cast me off?
 Why do I go mourning
 under the affliction of the enemy?

³O send out Thy light and Thy truth;
 let them lead me;
 let them bring me unto Thy holy hill,
 and to Thy tabernacles.

⁴Then I will go unto the altar of God,
 unto God my exceeding joy;
 yea, upon the harp I will praise Thee,
 O God, my God.

⁵Why are you cast down, O my soul?
 And why do you moan within me?
 Hope in God; for I still praise Him,
 the salvation of my face, and my God.

PSALM 44

To the chief musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

¹We have heard with our ears, O God;
 our fathers have told us
 the work which Thou didst do in their days,
 in the days of old.

²Thou didst drive out the nations with Thy hand,
 and didst plant them;
 Thou didst afflict the people
 and cast them out.

³For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword,
 neither did their own arm save them;
 but it was Thy right hand, and Thy arm,
 and the light of Thy face,
 because Thou didst favor them.

⁴Thou art my king, O God;
 command victories for Jacob.

⁵Through Thee we will push down our
 enemies;
 through Thy name we will trample
 those who rise up against us.

⁶For I will not trust in my bow,
 neither shall my sword save me.

⁷But Thou hast saved us from our
 enemies,
 and hast put them to shame, those
 who hated us.

⁸In God we boast all the day long,
 and praise Thy name forever.
 Sē'-lāh.

⁹But Thou hast cast us off, and put us
 to shame,
 and dost not go forth with our armies.

¹⁰Thou dost make us to turn back from
 the enemy;
 and those who hate us take our gods
 for themselves.

¹¹Thou hast given us like sheep to be eaten,
 and hast scattered us among the nations.

- ¹²Thou hast sold Thy people for nothing,
and their price is not increased.
- ¹³Thou dost make us a curse to our neighbors,
a scorn and a mockery to those who are round about us.
- ¹⁴Thou makest us a byword among the heathen,
a shaking of the head among the people.
- ¹⁵My shame is always before me,
and the shame of my face has covered me;
- ¹⁶for the voice of him who curses and blasphemes;
because of the enemy and avenger.
- ¹⁷All this has come upon us;
yet we have not forgotten Thee,
neither have we dealt falsely in Thy covenant.
- ¹⁸Our heart is not turned back,
neither have our steps turned aside from Thy way,
- ¹⁹though Thou hast crushed us in the place of jackals
and covered us with the shadow of death.
- ²⁰If we have forgotten the name of our God,
or stretched out our hands to a strange god;
- ²¹shall not God search this out?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.
- ²²Yea, for Thy sake we are put to death
all the day long,
we are counted as sheep to be killed.
- ²³Awake! Why dost Thou sleep, O LORD?
Arise! Do not cast us off forever.
- ²⁴Why dost Thou hide Thy face,
and forget our affliction and our distress?
- ²⁵For our soul is bowed down to the dust;
our belly holds fast to the earth.
- ²⁶Arise for our help,
and redeem us for Thy mercies' sake.

PSALM 45

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, Maschil, A Song of loves.

- ¹My heart is overflowing with a good matter;
I speak of the things which I have made regarding the King;
my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
- ²Thou art fairer than the children of men;
grace is poured into Thy lips;
therefore God has blessed Thee forever.
- ³Gird Thy sword on Thy thigh, O mighty one,
with Thy glory and Thy majesty.
- ⁴And be blessed in Thy majesty, ride on,
because of truth and meekness and righteousness;
and Thy right hand shall teach Thee fearful things.
- ⁵Thy arrows are sharp
in the heart of the King's enemies;
the people fall under Thee.
- ⁶Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever;
the staff of Thy kingdom is a staff of righteousness.
- ⁷Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness;
therefore God, Thy God, hath anointed Thee with the oil of gladness above Thy fellows.
- ⁸All Thy garments smell of myrrh,
and aloes, and cassia,
out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made Thee glad.
- ⁹Kings' daughters were among Thy honorable women;
upon Thy right hand stood the queen in gold of Ō'-phîr.
- ¹⁰Listen, O daughter, and look; and bow down your ear;
forget also your own people, and your father's house;
- ¹¹so shall the king greatly desire your beauty.

- For he is your Lord; and you worship Him; ¹²and the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift;
even the rich among the people shall beg your favor.
- ¹³The king's daughter is all glorious within;
 her clothing is trimmed with gold.
¹⁴She shall be brought unto the king in clothing of needlework;
 the virgins who follow her, her companions,
 shall be brought unto Thee.
¹⁵With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought;
 they shall enter into the king's palace.

- ¹⁶Instead of your fathers shall be your children,
 whom Thou shalt make princes in all the land.
¹⁷I will make Thy name to be remembered in all generations;
 therefore the people shall praise Thee forever and ever.

PSALM 46

To the chief musician for the sons of Korah,
 A Song upon Alamoth.

- ¹God is our refuge and strength,
 a very present help in trouble.
²Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be changed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
³*though* the waters of it roar and are troubled,
though the mountains shake with the swelling of it.

Sē'-lāh.

- ⁴*There is* a river, the streams of which shall make the city of God glad,
 the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.
⁵God is in the midst of her;
 she shall not be moved;
 God shall look upon her to help.
⁷The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved;

- He uttered His voice, the earth melted.
⁷The LORD of hosts is with us;
 the God of Jacob is our refuge.
 Sē'-lāh.

- ⁸Come, behold the works of the LORD,
 what ruins He has made in the earth.
⁹He makes wars to cease to the ends of the earth;
 He breaks the bow, and cuts the spear in two;
 He burns the chariot in the fire.
¹⁰Be still, and know that I am God!
 I will be praised among the nations,
 I will be praised in the earth.
¹¹The LORD of hosts is with us;
 the God of Jacob is our refuge.
 Sē'-lāh.

PSALM 47

To the chief musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¹O clap your hands, all you people;
 shout unto God with the voice of triumph.
²For the LORD most high is terrible;
He is a great king over all the earth.
³He shall humble the people under us,
 and nations under our feet.
⁴He shall choose our inheritance for us,
 the majesty of Jacob whom He loved.
 Sē'-lāh.
- ⁵God has gone up with a shout,
 the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
⁶Sing praises to God, sing praises;
 sing praises unto our King,
 sing praises.
⁷For God is the king of all the earth;
 sing praises with understanding.
- ⁸God reigns over the nations,
 God sits upon the throne of His holiness.
⁹The princes of the people are gathered together,
 the people of the God of Abraham;
¹⁰for the shields of the earth belong unto God;
 He is lifted up on high.

PSALM 48

A Song and Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¹Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised
in the city of our God,
in the mountain of His holiness.
²Beautiful on high, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion,
on the sides of the north,
the city of the great King.
³God is known in her palaces
for a refuge.
⁴For, lo, the kings were gathered;
they passed by together.
⁵They saw, so they marvelled;
they were troubled, and hurried away.
⁶Fear took hold upon them there,
and pain, like a woman in labor.
⁷Thou didst break the ships of Tār'- shīsh with an east wind; ⁸as we have heard, so we have seen in the city of the LORD of hosts,
in the city of our God.
God will establish it forever.

Sē'lāh.

- ⁹We have thought of Thy loving-kindness, O God,
in the midst of Thy temple.
¹⁰According to Thy name, O God,
so is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth.
Thy right hand is full of righteousness;
let Mount Zion rejoice!
¹¹let the daughters of Judah be glad because of Thy judgments!
¹²Walk around Zion, and go all around it;
count the towers of it, ¹³Set your heart on its ramparts,
pass between its palaces;
so that you may tell it to the coming generation.
¹⁴For this God is our God forever and ever;
He will be our guide even to death.

PSALM 49

To the chief musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

- ¹Hear this, all you people;
give ear, all you people of the world; ²both low and high,
rich and poor together!
³My mouth shall speak of wisdom;
and the thoughts of my heart shall be of understanding.
⁴I will bow down my ear to a parable;
I will open my dark saying upon the harp.
⁵Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of those who lie in wait for me shall hem me in?
⁶Those who trust in their wealth,
and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches, ⁷none of them can by any means redeem his brother,
nor give to God a ransom for him, ⁸(for the redemption of their soul is precious,
and it ceases forever.)
⁹so that he should live forever and never see the Pit.

- ¹⁰For he sees wise men die;
likewise the fool and the animal-like ones perish,
and leave their wealth to others.
¹¹Their inward thought is that their houses shall go on forever,
and their dwelling-places to all generations;
they call their lands after their own names.
¹²But man, though high in honor, does not remain;
he is like the animals that perish.

- ¹³This way of theirs is their foolishness;
yet their followers delight in their sayings.

Sē'lāh.

- ¹⁴Like sheep they are laid in the grave;
death shall feed upon them;
and the upright shall have the rule over them in the morning;
and their beauty shall rot away,
the grave is their dwelling.
¹⁵But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave;
for He will receive me.

Sē'lāh.

- ¹⁶Be not afraid when one has been made rich,
when the glory of his house has increased;
¹⁷for when he dies he shall carry nothing away;
his glory shall not go down after him, ¹⁸though while he lived he blessed his soul;
and men will praise you when you do well unto yourself.
¹⁹He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
they shall never see light.
²⁰Man, though high in honor, and without understanding,
is like the animals that perish.

PSALM 50

A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹The mighty God, the LORD,
has spoken, and called the earth
from the rising of the sun until its going down.
²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God has shined.
³Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence;
a fire shall devour before Him,
and it shall be very stormy all around Him.
⁴He shall call to the heavens from above,
and to the earth, so that He may judge His people.
⁵Gather My saints together unto Me;
and those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.
⁶And the heavens shall declare His righteousness;
for God himself is judge.

Sē'lāh.

- ⁷Hear, O My people, and I will speak;
O Israel, and I will testify against you;
I am God, your God.
⁸I will not reprove you for your sacrifices nor your burnt offerings which are continually before Me.

- ⁹I will take no bull out of your house,
nor he-goats out of your folds.
¹⁰For every beast of the forest is Mine,
and the cattle upon a thousand hills.
¹¹I know all the birds of the mountains;
and the wild beasts of the field are Mine.
¹²If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for the world is Mine, and the fullness of it.
¹³Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
or drink the blood of goats?
¹⁴Offer unto God thanksgiving;
and pay your vows to the Most High; ¹⁵and call upon Me in the day of trouble;
and I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me.
¹⁶But to the wicked, God says,
What have you to do, to declare My statutes, or that you should take My covenant
in your mouth? — ¹⁷since you hate to be taught,
and you toss My words behind you.
¹⁸When you saw a thief, then you were pleased to be with him,
and you have taken part with adulterers.
¹⁹You give your mouth to evil,
and your tongue frames deceit.
²⁰You sit and speak against your brother;
you slander your own mother's son.
²¹These things you have done, and I kept silence;
you thought that I was one like yourself;
but I will reprove you, and set them
in order before your eyes.
²²Now think of this, you who forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.
²³Whoever offers praise glorifies Me;
and will make a way by which I will show him the salvation of God.

PSALM 51

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in unto Bethsheba.

¹Have mercy upon me, O God,
according to Thy loving-kindness;
according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies,
blot out my transgressions.

²Wash me completely from my iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin.

³For I confess my transgressions;
and my sin is ever before me.

⁴Against Thee, Thee only, have I
sinned,
and done this evil in Thy sight;
that Thou mightest be justified when Thou speakest,
and be clear when Thou judgest.

⁵Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity
and in sin did my mother conceive
me.

⁶Behold, Thou dost desire truth in the inward parts;
and in the hidden part Thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

⁷Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

⁸Make me to hear joy and gladness;
that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

⁹Hide Thy face from my sins,
and blot out all my iniquities.

¹⁰Create in me a clean heart, O God;
and renew a right spirit within me.

¹¹Cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy holy Spirit from
me.

¹²Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation,
and uphold me with a willing spirit.

¹³Then I will teach transgressors Thy
way;
and sinners shall be converted unto
Thee.

¹⁴Deliver me from the guilt of shedding
blood, O God,
Thou God of my salvation,
and my tongue shall sing aloud of Thy righteousness.

¹⁵O LORD, open Thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

¹⁶For Thou dost not desire sacrifice;
or else I would give it;
Thou dost not delight in burnt offering.

¹⁷The sacrifices of God are a broken
spirit;
a broken and an humble heart, O
God, Thou wilt not despise.

¹⁸Do good in Thy good pleasure unto Zion;
build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness,
with burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
then they shall offer bulls upon Thy altar.

PSALM 52

To the chief musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David has come to the house of Ahimelech.

¹Why do you boast yourself in evil, O mighty man?
The mercy of God endures forever.

²Your tongue thinks of evil, like a sharp razor,
working deceitfully.

³You love evil more than good,
and lying more than to speak righteousness.

Sē'lāh.

⁴You love all devouring words,
O deceitful tongue.

⁵God will likewise destroy you for-
ever;
He shall take you away, and pluck
you out of your dwelling-place, and root you out of the land of the living.

Sē'lāh.

⁶The righteous shall see, and fear,
and shall laugh at him, saying, ⁷Lo, this is the man who did not make God his strength,
but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
and made himself strong in his wicked-
ness.

⁸But I am like a green olive tree
in the house of God;
I trust in the mercy of God
forever and ever.
⁹I will praise Thee forever,
because Thou hast done it;
and I will wait on Thy name;
for it is good before Thy saints.

PSALM 53

To the chief musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

¹The fool has said in his heart,
There is no God.
They are rotten, and have worked out
hateful wickedness;
there is none who does good.

²God looked down from Heaven
upon the children of men,
to see if there were any who understood,
who looked unto God.

³Every one of them has gone back;
they have altogether become filthy;
there is none who does good, no, not
one.

⁴Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge?
They eat up my people as they eat bread;
they have not called upon God.

⁵There they were in great fear,
where no fear was;
for God has scattered the bones of him who camps against you;
you have put them to shame because God has despised them.

⁶O that the salvation of Israel had come out of Zion!

When God brings back the captivity
of His people,
Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM 54

To the chief musician on Neginoth, A Maschil,
A Psalm of David, when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Does not David hide himself among us?

¹Save me, O God, by Thy name,
and judge me by Thy strength.
²Hear my prayer, O God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.

³For strangers have risen up against me,
and cruel men seek after my soul;
they have not set God before them.
Sê'-läh.

⁴Behold, God is my helper;
the LORD is with those who uphold
my soul.

⁵He shall reward evil to my enemies;
cut them off in Thy truth.

⁶I will freely sacrifice unto Thee;
I will praise Thy name, O LORD, for
it is good.

⁷For He has delivered me out of all
trouble;
and my eye has seen its desire upon
my enemies.

PSALM 55

To the chief musician on Neginoth, A Maschil,
A Psalm of David.

¹Give ear to my prayer, O God;
and hide not Thyself from my cry.

²Attend unto me, and hear me;
I mourn in my complaining, and
make a noise;

³because of the voice of the enemy,
because of the harshness of the
wicked;
for they move sorrow upon me,
and in wrath they hate me.

⁴My heart is pained within me;
and the terrors of death have fallen
upon me.

⁵Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me,
and horror has covered me.

⁶And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove!

I would fly away and be at rest.

⁷Lo, I would wander far off
and remain in the wilderness.

Sē'-lāh.

⁸I would hasten my escape
from the windy storm and tempest.

⁹Destroy, O LORD, and divide their tongues;
for I have seen violence and fighting
in the city.

¹⁰Day and night they go around it,
upon the walls of it;
also evil and sorrow are in the midst
of it.

¹¹Wickedness is in the midst of it;
deceit and guile never depart from its streets.

¹²For it was not an enemy who reviled
me;

then I could have borne it;
neither was it he who hated me who magnified himself against me;
then I would have hidden myself
from him;

¹³but it was you, a man my equal,
my guide and my friend.

¹⁴We took sweet counsel together,
and walked to the house of God in company.

¹⁵Let death take hold upon them,
and let them go down alive into hell;

for wickedness is in their dwellings,
and among them.

¹⁶As for me, I will call upon God;
and the LORD will save me.

¹⁷Evening and morning, and at noon,
I will pray and cry aloud;
and He shall hear my voice.

¹⁸He has delivered my soul in peace
from the battle that was against me;
for there were many with me.

¹⁹God shall hear, and afflict them,
even He who abides of old.

Sē'-lāh.

Because they have no changes,
therefore they do not fear God.

²⁰He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him;
he has broken his covenant.

²¹*The words* of his mouth were smoother
than butter,

but war was in his heart;
his words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

²²Cast your burden upon the LORD,
and He will keep you;
He will never allow
the righteous to be moved.

²³But Thou, O God, wilt bring them
down
into the pit of ruin;
bloody and deceitful men
shall not live half their days;
but I will trust in Thee.

PSALM 56

To the chief musician concerning the silent dove among strangers, A secret treasure of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

¹Be merciful unto me, O God, for man would swallow me up;
fighting daily he presses me down.

²My enemies would daily swallow me
up;
for they who fight against me are many, O Thou Most High.

³When I am afraid,
I will trust in Thee.

⁴In God I will praise His word;
in God I have put my trust;
I will not fear what flesh can do to
me.

⁵All day long they twist my words;
all their thoughts are against me for
evil.

⁶They gather themselves together;
they hide themselves,
when they watch my steps,
when they wait for my soul.

⁷Shall they escape by iniquity?
In Thy anger cast down the peoples,
O God.

- ⁸Thou dost number my wanderings;
 put Thou my tears into Thy bottle;
are they not in Thy book?
- ⁹When I cry,
 then my enemies will be turned back.
 This I know, for God is with me.
- ¹⁰In God I will praise His word;
 in the LORD will I praise His word.
- ¹¹In God I have put my trust;
 I will not be afraid of what man can do to me.
- ¹²Thy vows are upon me, O God;
 I will give praises unto Thee.
- ¹³For thou hast delivered my soul from
 death;
hast Thou not delivered my feet from falling,
 so that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

PSALM 57

To the chief musician, Do not destroy, A secret treasure of David, when he fled from Saul in
 the cave.

- ¹Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful
 to me;
 for my soul trusts in Thee;
 yea, in the shadow of Thy wings I will make my hiding-place,
 until these great troubles pass by.
- ²I will cry unto God most high,
 unto God who does all things for me.
- ³He shall send from Heaven,
 and save me from the scorn of him
 who would swallow me up.
 Sē'-lāh.
 God shall send forth His mercy and
 His truth.
- ⁴My soul is among lions;
 I lie among those who are set on fire,
 the sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows,
 and their tongue a sharp sword.
- ⁵Be praised above the heavens, O God;
let Thy glory be above all the earth.
- ⁶They have prepared a net for my steps;
 my soul is bowed down;
 they have dug a pit before me,
 in the middle of which they have fallen.

Sē'-lāh.

- ⁷My heart is fixed, O God,
 my heart is fixed;
 I will sing and give praise.
- ⁸Wake up, my soul!
 Wake up, psaltery and harp!
 I will awake early.
- ⁹I will praise Thee, O LORD, among
 the people;
 I will sing unto Thee among the nations.
- ¹⁰For Thy mercy is great unto the
 heavens,
 and Thy truth to the clouds.
- ¹¹Be exalted above the heavens, O God;
let Thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM 58

To the chief musician, Do not destroy, A secret treasure of David.

- ¹Do you indeed speak righteousness, O
 congregation?
 Do you judge uprightly, O you sons
 of men?
- ²Yes, in heart you work wickedness;
 you weigh the violence of your hands
 in the earth.
- ³The wicked are strangers to God from
 the womb;
 they go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
- ⁴Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
they are like the deaf adder which stops its ear, ⁵which will not listen to the voice of charmers,
 charming ever so wisely.
- ⁶O God, break their teeth in their
 mouth;
 break out the great teeth of the young
 lions, O LORD.
- ⁷Let them melt away like waters running on and on;
when he bends his arrows, let them
 be as though they were cut off.
- ⁸As a snail melts, let them pass away;
like the untimely birth of a woman,
that they may not see the sun.
- ⁹Before your pots can feel the thorns,
 whether green or glowing,
 He shall take them away as with a whirlwind.

- ¹⁰The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance;
he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked — ¹¹so that a man shall say, Truly there is a reward for the righteous;
truly He is a God who judges in the earth.

PSALM 59

To the chief musician, Do not destroy, A secret treasure of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

- ¹Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
defend me from those who rise up against me.
²Deliver me from the workers of evil and save me from bloody men.
³For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul;
the mighty are gathered against me;
not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.
⁴Without my fault they run and prepare themselves;
awaken to help me, and look upon me.
⁵Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts,
the God of Israel,
awake to visit all the heathen;
do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors.

Sē'-läh.

- ⁶They return at evening;
they make a noise like a dog,
and go around the city.
⁷Behold, they bellow out with their mouth;
swords are in their lips;
for they say, Who hears?
⁸But Thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them;
Thou wilt mock at all the heathen.
⁹Because of his strength I will wait upon Thee;
for God is my strong tower.
¹⁰The God of my mercy shall go before me;

God shall let me see my desire upon my enemies.

- ¹¹Do not kill them, lest my people forget;
scatter them by Thy power; and bring them down,
O LORD our shield.
¹²For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips,
let them even be taken in their pride;
and for cursing and lying which they speak.
¹³Bring them to the end in wrath, bring them to the end, so that they may not be;
and let them know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth.
Sē'-läh.
¹⁴And at evening let them return;
and let them make a noise like a dog,
and go around the city.
¹⁵Let them wander up and down for food,
and growl if they are not satisfied.
¹⁶But I will sing of Thy power;
yes, I will sing aloud of Thy mercy in the morning;
for Thou hast been my strong tower and hiding-place in the day of my trouble.
¹⁷Unto Thee, O my strength, I will sing;
for God is my strong tower
and the God of my mercy.

PSALM 60

To the chief musician upon the Lily of Testimony, A secret treasure of David, to teach; when he struggled with Aram-naharaim and with Aram of Zobah, when Joab returned and struck twelve thousand of Edom in the valley of salt.

- ¹O God, Thou hast cast us off, Thou hast scattered us,
Thou hast been displeased;
O turn us to Thyself again.
²Thou hast made the earth to tremble;
Thou hast broken it;
heal the breaks of it, for it shakes.

³Thou hast showed Thy people hard things;
Thou hast made us to drink the wine of trembling.

⁴Thou hast given a banner to those who fear Thee,
so that it may be displayed because of the truth.

Sē'-lāh.

⁵So that Thy beloved may be delivered,
save with Thy right hand, and hear me.

⁶God has spoken in His holiness;
I will rejoice, I will divide Shē'-chēm and measure out the valley of Sūc'-cōth.

⁷Gilead is Mine, and Mā-nās'-sēh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the strength of My head,

Judah is My lawgiver;

⁸Moab is My washpot;
over Edom I will cast out My shoe;
over Phī-lis'-tiā I cry in triumph.

⁹Who will bring me into the strong city?

Who will lead me into Edom?

¹⁰Wilt not Thou, O God, who had cast us off?

And Thou, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

¹¹Give us help from trouble;
for vain is the help of man.

¹²Through God we shall do great things;
for it is He who shall trample our enemies.

PSALM 61

To the chief musician, on stringed instruments,
A Psalm of David.

¹Hear my cry, O God;
attend unto my prayer.

²From the end of the earth I will cry unto Thee,
when my heart is faint;
Lead me to the Rock
that is higher than I.

³For Thou hast been a shelter for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.

⁴I will dwell in Thy tabernacle forever;
I will trust in the secret place of Thy wings.

Sē'-lāh.

⁵For Thou, O God, hast heard my vows;
Thou hast given me the inheritance of those who fear Thy name.

⁶Thou wilt prolong the king's life;
and may his years be for many generations.

⁷He shall live before God forever;
O prepare mercy and truth, that they may keep him.

⁸So I will sing praise unto Thy name forever,
so that I may daily pay my vows.

PSALM 62

To the chief musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

¹Truly my soul waits upon God;
from Him comes my salvation.

²He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my tower; I shall not be greatly moved.

³How long will you imagine mischief against a man?
You shall be killed, all of you;
you shall be like a bowing wall and a tottering fence.

⁴They have plotted to cast him down from his great height;
they delight in lies;
they bless with their mouth,
but they curse inwardly.

Sē'-lāh.

⁵My soul, wait only upon God;
for my hope is from Him.

⁶He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my strong tower; I shall not be moved.

⁷In God is my salvation and my glory;
the rock of my strength, and my hiding-place is in God.

⁸Trust in Him at all times; you people,
pour out your heart before Him;
God is a hiding-place for us.

Sē'-lāh.

⁹Surely men of low degree are vanity,
and men of high degree are a lie;
they go up in the scales;
they are altogether lighter than
vanity.

¹⁰Trust not in meanness,
and become not vain in robbery;
if riches increase, do not set your heart upon them.

¹¹God has spoken once;
twice I have heard this,
that power belongs unto God.

¹²Also unto Thee, O LORD, belongs
mercy;
for Thou givest to every man
according to his work.

PSALM 63

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

¹O God, Thou art my God;
I will seek Thee early;
my soul thirsts for Thee;
my flesh longs for Thee, as in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

²so I have looked for Thee in the holy
place,
to see Thy power and Thy glory.

³Because Thy lovingkindness is better than life,
my lips shall praise Thee.

⁴So I will bless Thee while I live;
I will lift up my hands in Thy name.

⁵My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;
and my mouth shall praise Thee with joyful lips,

⁶when I remember Thee upon my bed and think of Thee in the night
watches.

⁷Because Thou hast been my help,
therefore in the shadow of Thy wings
I will rejoice.

⁸My soul follows hard after Thee;
Thy right hand upholds me.

⁹But those who seek my soul, to destroy
it,
shall go into the lower parts of the
earth.

¹⁰They shall fall by the sword;
they shall be a serving for jackals.

¹¹But the king shall rejoice in God;
everyone who swears by Him shall
glory;

but the mouth of those who speak
lies shall be stopped.

PSALM 64

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer;
guard my life from fear of the enemy.

²Hide me from the secret plans of the
wicked,
from the rebelling of the workers of
iniquity,

³who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
and aim their arrows, even poisoned
words,

⁴so that they may shoot in secret at the blameless one;
suddenly they shoot at him, and fear
not.

⁵They encourage themselves in an evil
matter;
they talk of laying snares secretly;
they say, Who shall see them?

⁶They search out iniquities;
they make a careful search;
both the inward thought and the heart of man are deep.

⁷But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
suddenly they shall be wounded.

⁸So they shall make their own tongue
to fall upon themselves;
all that see them shall flee away.

⁹And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God;
for they shall in wisdom think of His doing.

¹⁰The righteous shall be glad in the LORD,
and shall trust in Him;
and all the upright in heart shall
glory.

PSALM 65

To the chief musician, A Psalm and Song of David.

- ¹Praise waits for Thee, O God, in Zion;
and unto Thee shall the vow be paid.
- ²O Thou that hearest prayer,
unto Thee shall all flesh come.
- ³Iniquities overflow me;
as for our transgressions, Thou shalt purge them away.
- ⁴Blessed is the man whom Thou dost choose, and dost cause to come near unto Thee,
that he may dwell in Thy courts;
we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thy house,
of Thy holy temple.
- ⁵By terrible things in righteousness
Thou wilt answer us,
O God of our salvation;
who are the hope of all the ends of
the earth,
and of those who are far away upon
the sea;
- ⁶who by His strength sets fast the
mountains,
banded together with might;
- ⁷who stills the noise of the seas,
the roar of their waves,
and the uproar of the people.
- ⁸Those also who dwell in the furthermost places
are afraid at Thy signs;
and Thou makest the beginning of the morning and the evening
rejoice.
- ⁹Thou dost visit the earth and dost
water it;
Thou dost greatly enrich it with the river of God, which is full of water;
Thou dost prepare their grain,
when Thou hast so provided for it.
- ¹⁰Thou dost freely water the ridges of
it;
Thou dost set the furrows of it;
Thou dost make it soft with showers;
Thou dost bless the sprouting of it.
Thou dost crown the year with Thy goodness,
and Thy paths drop fatness.
- ¹²They drop upon the pastures of the
wilderness;
and the little hills rejoice on every side.
- ¹³The pastures are clothed with flocks;

the valleys also are covered over with grain;
they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM 66

To the chief musician, A Song, A Psalm.

- ¹Make a joyful noise unto God, all you lands.
- ²Sing forth the honor of His name;
make His praise glorious.
- ³Say to God, How fearful are Thy works!
Through the greatness of Thy power,
Thy enemies shall humble themselves unto Thee.
- ⁴All the earth shall worship Thee,
and shall sing unto Thee;
they shall sing unto Thy name.
Sé'-läh.
- ⁵Come and see the works of God;
He is fearful in His deeds toward the
children of men.
- ⁶He turned the sea into dry land;
they went through the flood on foot;
there we rejoiced in Him.
- ⁷He rules by His power forever;
His eyes behold the nations;
let not the rebels lift themselves up.
Sé'-läh.
- ⁸O bless our God, you people,
and make the voice of His praise to
be heard;
who holds our soul in life,
and does not allow our feet to be moved.
- ¹⁰For, O God, Thou hast proved us;
Thou hast tested us, as silver is refined.
- ¹¹Thou hast brought us into the net;
Thou hast laid affliction upon our loins.
- ¹²Thou hast caused men to ride over
our heads;
we went through fire and through
water;
but Thou didst bring us out unto
plenty.
- ¹³I will go into Thy house with burnt offerings;
I will pay Thee my vows,

¹⁴which my lips have uttered, and my mouth has spoken,
when I was in trouble.

¹⁵I will offer unto Thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings,
with the incense of rams;
I will offer bulls with goats.

Sē'-läh.

¹⁶Come and hear, all you who fear God,
and I will declare what He has done
for my soul.

¹⁷I cried unto Him with my mouth,
and He was praised with my tongue.

¹⁸If I regard iniquity in my heart, the LORD will not hear;

¹⁹truly God has heard;
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

²⁰Blessed be God,
who has not turned away my prayer,
nor His mercy from me.

PSALM 67

To the chief musician, on stringed instruments,
A Psalm, A Song.

¹May God be merciful to us, and bless
us,
and cause His face to shine upon us.
Sē'-läh.

²So that Thy way may be known upon
earth,
Thy salvation among all nations.

³Let the people praise Thee, O God;
let all the people praise Thee.

⁴O let the nations be glad and sing for
joy;
for Thou shalt judge the people righteously
and govern the nations upon earth.
Sē'-läh.

⁵Let the people praise Thee, O God;
let all the people praise Thee.

⁶Then shall the earth yield its increase;
and God, our own God, shall bless us.

⁷God shall bless us;
and all the ends of the earth shall fear
Him.

PSALM 68

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, A Song.

¹Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered;
also let those who hate Him flee before Him.

²As smoke is driven away,
drive them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
let the wicked perish at the presence
of God.

³But let the righteous be glad;
let them rejoice before God.
Yes, let them exceedingly rejoice.

⁴Sing unto God, sing praises to His
name;
praise Him who rides upon the
heavens
by His name JEHOVAH, and rejoice
before Him.

⁵A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
is God in His holy dwelling.

⁶God causes the lonely to live at home;
He brings out those who are bound with chains;
but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

⁷O God, when Thou didst go before
Thy people,
when Thou didst march through the
wilderness;
Sē'-läh.

⁸the earth shook, the heavens also dropped
at the presence of God;
Sinai itself was moved at the presence
of God,
the God of Israel.

⁹Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful
rain,
by which Thou didst uphold Thy inheritance when it was weary.

¹⁰Thy congregation has dwelt in it;
Thou, O God, hast prepared in Thy goodness for the poor.

¹¹The LORD gave the word;
great was the company of those who published it.

- ¹²Kings of armies fled away;
and she who stayed at home divided
the riches.
- ¹³When you lie among the sheepfolds,
the wings of a dove are covered with
silver,
and its pinions with the shimmer of
gold.
- ¹⁴When the Almighty scatters kings in
it,
it snows in Sāl'-mōn.
- ¹⁵A high mountain is the mountain of Bā'-shān;
a mountain of peaks is the Bā'-shān
range.
- ¹⁶Why do you gaze in envy, you mountain range
at the mountain God has chosen for His resting place?
Yes, the LORD will dwell in it for-
ever.
- ¹⁷The chariots of God cannot be numbered,
even thousands upon thousands of angels;
the LORD is among them,
as in Sinai, in the holy place.
- ¹⁸Thou hast gone up on high;
Thou hast led captivity captive;
Thou hast received gifts for men,
yes, for the rebellious also,
that the LORD God might dwell
among them.
- ¹⁹Blessed be the LORD,
who daily loads us with goodness,
the God of our salvation.
Sē'-lāh.
- ²⁰*He who* is our God is the God of
salvation;
and the escapes from death are due to the LORD God.
- ²¹But God shall wound the head of His
enemies,
and the hairy crown of those who go
on still in their sins.
- ²²The LORD said,
I will bring again from Bā'-shān,
I will bring My people again from
the depths of the sea;
- ²³so that your foot may be dipped in
the blood of your enemies,
and the tongue of your dogs in it.
- ²⁴They have seen Thy goings, O God;
the goings of my God, my king, in the holy place.
- ²⁵The singers went before, the players
on instruments went after;
among them were the virgins playing with timbrels.
- ²⁶O bless God in the congregation,
the LORD, from the fountain of Israel.
- ²⁷There is little Benjamin with their ruler,
the princes of Judah and their multitude,
the princes of Zē-bū'-lūn and the princes of Nāph'-tā-lī.
- ²⁸Your God has commanded your
strength;
O God, be strong in that which Thou hast worked out for us.
- ²⁹Because of Thy temple in Jerusalem,
kings shall bring presents unto Thee.
- ³⁰Rebuke the wild beasts of the reeds,
the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people,
till everyone humbles himself with
the pieces of silver;
scatter the people who delight in war.
- ³¹Princes shall come out of Egypt;
Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.
- ³²Sing unto God, you kingdoms of the
earth;
O sing praises unto the LORD;
Sē'-lāh.
- ³³To Him who rides upon the heaven of heavens, which were of old;
lo, He sends out His voice, a mighty
voice.
- ³⁴Give strength unto God;
His glory is over Israel,
and His strength is in the clouds.
- ³⁵O God, Thou art fearful out of Thy holy places;
the God of Israel is He who gives strength and power unto His
people.
Blessed be God.

PSALM 69

To the chief musician, concerning the lilies, A Psalm of David.

- ¹Save me, O God!
for the waters have come in upon my
soul.
- ²I sink in deep mire,
where there is no standing;
I have come into deep waters,
where the floods overflow me.
- ³I am weary from my crying;
my throat is dried;
my eyes fail
while I wait for my God.
- ⁴They who hate me without a cause
are more than the hairs of my head;
they who would destroy me,
who are my enemies wrongfully, are mighty;
then I restored
that which I did not take away.
- ⁵O God, Thou knowest my foolishness;
and my sins are not hidden from
Thee.
- ⁶Do not let those who wait upon Thee,
O LORD God of hosts,
be ashamed for my sake;
let not the ones who seek Thee be ashamed for my sake,
O God of Israel,
- ⁷because I have borne reproach for Thy
sake,
shame has covered my face.
- ⁸I have become a stranger to my brothers,
and a foreigner to my mother's children.
- ⁹For the zeal of Thy house has eaten
me up;
and the reproaches of those who reproached Thee have fallen upon
me.
- ¹⁰When I humbled my soul with fast-
ing,
it turned to my reproach.
- ¹¹I also made sackcloth my clothing,
and I became a proverb to them.
- ¹²They who sit in the gate speak against
me;
and I was the song of the drunkards.
- ¹³But as for me, my prayer is unto Thee,
O LORD,
in a pleasing time; O God,
in the multitude of Thy mercy hear me,
in the truth of Thy salvation.
- ¹⁴Deliver me out of the mire,
and let me not sink;
let me be delivered from those who hate me,
and out of the deep waters.
- ¹⁵Do not let the flood of waters overflow me,
neither let the deep swallow me up,
and let not the pit shut its mouth
upon me.
- ¹⁶Hear me, O LORD, for Thy loving-kindness is good;
turn unto me according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies.
- ¹⁷And hide not Thy face from Thy
servant;
for I am in trouble; hear me quickly.
- ¹⁸Draw near my soul, and redeem it;
deliver me because of my enemies.
- ¹⁹Thou hast known my reproach,
and my shame, and my dishonor;
my enemies are all before Thee.
- ²⁰Reproach has broken my heart,
and I am full of heaviness;
and I looked for some to mourn with me,
but there was none;
and for comforters, but I found none.
- ²¹They also gave me gall for my food;
and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
- ²²Let their table become a snare before
them;
and when they are in peace, let it
become a trap.
- ²³Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see;
and make their loins shake without
ceasing.
- ²⁴Pour out Thy wrath upon them,
and let the glow of Thy anger take hold of them.
- ²⁵Let their dwelling be wasted;
let none dwell in their tents.
- ²⁶For they persecute him whom Thou hast stricken,
and they talk to the grief of those whom Thou hast wounded.

²⁷Add iniquity unto their iniquity;
and let them not come into Thy
righteousness.

²⁸Let them be blotted out of the book of the living,
and not be written with the righteous.

²⁹But I am poor and sorrowful;
let Thy salvation, O God, set me up
on high.

³⁰I will praise the name of God with a
song,
and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.

³¹This also shall please the LORD
better than an ox,
or a bull that has horns and hoofs.

³²The humble shall see and be glad;
and your heart shall live, you who seek God.

³³For the LORD hears the needy,
and does not despise His prisoners.

³⁴Let the heavens and earth praise
Him,
the seas, and everything that moves
in them.

³⁵For God will save Zion,
and will build the cities of Judah;
so that they may dwell there, and possess it.

³⁶Also the seed of His servants shall inherit it,
and they who love His name shall dwell in it.

PSALM 70

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

¹*Make haste*, O God, to deliver me;
make haste to help me, O LORD.

²Let them be ashamed and turned pale,
those who seek after my soul;

²Let them be turned backward and blush,
those who desire my hurt.

³Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame,
those who say, Aha, aha!

⁴Let all those who seek Thee
rejoice and be glad in Thee;

and let those who love Thy salvation
say without ending,
Let God be magnified.

⁵But I am poor and needy;
make haste unto me, O God;
Thou art my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, wait no longer!

PSALM 71

¹In Thee, O LORD, I put my trust;
let me never be put to shame.

²Deliver me in Thy righteousness, and cause me to escape;
bow down Thy ear unto me, and save me.

³Be Thou a rock to dwell in, unto which I may always go;
Thou hast given commandment to
save me;
for Thou art my Rock and my Fortress.

⁴Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
out of the hand of the unrighteous
and cruel man.

⁵For Thou art my hope, O Lord GOD;
Thou art my trust from my youth.

⁶By Thee I have been held up from the
womb;

Thou art He who took me out of my mother's bowels;
my praise shall always be of Thee.

⁷I am like a wonder to many,
but Thou art my strong tower.

⁸Let my mouth be filled with Thy
praise,
and with Thy honor all the day.

⁹Cast me not off in the time of old age;
forsake me not when my strength
fails.

¹⁰For my enemies speak against me;
and those who watch for my soul
make plans together,

¹¹saying, God has forsaken him;
pursue and take him;
for there is none to deliver him.

¹²O God, be not far from me;
O my God, make haste for my help.

¹³Let them be ashamed and destroyed,
those who are enemies of my soul;

- let them be covered with reproach
and dishonor,
those who seek my hurt.
- ¹⁴But I will always hope,
and will yet praise Thee more and
more.
- ¹⁵My mouth shall show forth Thy righteousness
and Thy salvation all the day;
for I do not know how many they
are.
- ¹⁶I will go in the strength of the Lord
GOD;
I will speak of Thy righteousness,
of Thine alone.
- ¹⁷O God, Thou hast taught me from my youth;
and before now I have declared Thy wonderful works.
- ¹⁸Now also when I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not leave me;
until I have declared Thy strength
unto this generation, and Thy power to everyone who is to come.
- ¹⁹Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high,
who hast done great things;
O God, who is like Thee?
- ²⁰*Thou*, who hast shown me great and sore troubles,
shall make me live again,
and shall bring me up again
from the depths of the earth.
- ²¹Thou shalt increase my greatness
and comfort me on every side.
- ²²I will also praise Thee with the psaltery,
even Thy truth, O my God;
unto Thee I will sing with the harp,
O Holy One of Israel.
- ²³My lips shall greatly rejoice
when I sing unto Thee,
and my soul, which Thou hast redeemed.
- ²⁴My tongue also shall talk of Thy
righteousness
all the day long;
for those who seek my hurt have turned pale,
they are brought to shame.

PSALM 72

A Psalm of Solomon.

- ¹Give the king Thy judgments, O God,
and Thy righteousness unto the king's
son.
- ²He shall judge Thy people with right-
eousness,
and Thy poor with judgment.
- ³The mountains shall bring peace to
the people,
and the little hills by righteousness.
- ⁴He shall judge the poor of the people;
He shall save the children of the needy,
and shall crush in pieces the cruel
one.
- ⁵They shall fear Thee as long as the sun and moon endure,
throughout all generations.
- ⁶He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass,
like showers that water the earth.
- ⁷In His days the righteous shall flourish;
and abundance of peace as long as the moon endures.
- ⁸He shall also have the rule from sea to
sea,
and from the river unto the ends of
the earth.
- ⁹Those who dwell in the wilderness
shall bow before Him;
and His enemies shall lick the dust.
- ¹⁰The kings of Tār'-shīsh and of the isles
shall bring presents;
the kings of Shē'-bā and Sé'-bā
shall offer gifts.
- ¹¹Yes, all kings shall fall down before
Him;
all nations shall serve Him.
- ¹²For He shall deliver the needy when
he cries;
the poor also, and him who has no
helper.
- ¹³He shall have pity on the poor and
needy,
and shall save the souls of the needy.
- ¹⁴He shall redeem their soul from deceit
and violence;

and their blood shall be precious in
His sight.

¹⁵And he shall live,
and to Him shall be given the gold
of Shē'-bā;
prayer also shall always be made for
Him;

He shall be praised daily.

¹⁶There shall be a handful of grain in
the earth
upon the top of the mountains;
the fruit of it shall shake like Lēb'- ā-nōn;
and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

¹⁷His name shall endure forever;
His name shall be continued as long as the sun;
and men shall be blessed in Him;
all nations shall call Him blessed.

¹⁸Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel,
who alone does wonderful things.

¹⁹And blessed be His glorious name
forever;
and let the whole earth be filled with
His glory! Amen and amen.

²⁰The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

PSALM 73

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹Truly God is good to Israel,
to those who are of a clean heart.

²But as for me, my feet were almost gone;
my steps had nearly slipped.

³For I was jealous of the proud,
when I saw the peace of the wicked.

⁴For there are no bands in their death;
but their strength is firm.

⁵They are not in trouble like other men;
neither are they plagued like other
men.

⁶Therefore pride goes around them like
a chain;
violence covers them like a robe.

⁷Their eyes stand out with fatness;
they have more than heart could wish.

⁸They are rotten, and speak wickedly
as to cruel deeds;
from on high they speak.

⁹They set their mouth against the
heavens,
and their tongue walks through the
earth.

¹⁰Therefore His people return here,
and waters of a full cup are wrung
out to them.

¹¹And they say, How does God know?
And is there knowledge in the Most High?

¹²Behold, these are the ungodly, who are at ease in the world;
they increase in riches.

¹³Verily I have made my heart pure in vain,
and washed my hands in innocency.

¹⁴For all the day long I have been plagued,
and chastened every morning.

¹⁵If I say, I will speak thus;
behold, I would deceive a generation of Thy children.

¹⁶When I thought deeply in order to understand this,
it was too painful for me,

¹⁷until I went into the sanctuary of
God;
then I understood their end.

¹⁸Surely Thou didst set them in slippery places;
Thou didst cast them down into ruin.

¹⁹How have they been brought into grief, as in a moment!

They are fully eaten up with terrors, ²⁰like a dream when one awakens;
so, O LORD, when Thou awakest,
Thou shalt despise their image.

²¹So my heart was grieved and I was pricked in my heart.

²²So foolish was I, and ignorant;
I was like a beast before Thee.

²³But I am always with Thee;
Thou hast held me by my right hand.

²⁴Thou shalt lead me with Thy counsel,
and afterward receive me to glory.

²⁵Whom have I in Heaven besides Thee?
 And there is none upon earth that I desire besides Thee.
²⁶My flesh and my heart fail;
but God is the strength of my heart,
 and my part forever.

²⁷For lo, those who are far from Thee
 shall perish;
 Thou hast destroyed all who go lust-ing away from Thee.

²⁸But it is good for me to draw near to
 God;
 I have put my trust in the LORD
 God,
 so that I may declare all Thy works.

PSALM 74

Maschil of Asaph.

¹O GOD, why hast Thou cast us off
 forever?

Why dost Thy anger smoke against the sheep of Thy pasture?

²Remember Thy congregation, which Thou hast purchased of old,
 the rod of Thy inheritance which Thou hast redeemed;
 this Mount Zion in which Thou hast dwelt.

³Lift up Thy feet unto the never-ending ruins;
even all that the enemy has done
 wickedly in the sanctuary.

⁴Thy enemies roar in the midst of Thy congregations;
 they set up their own banners for signs.

⁵It was like a man using axes
 on the thick trees.

⁶And now all its carvings too
 they break down with axes and hammers.

⁷They have cast fire into Thy sanctuary;
 they have defiled the dwelling-place
 of Thy name to the ground.

⁸They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together;
 they have burned up all the meeting-
 places of God in the land.

⁹We did not see our signs;
there is no prophet any more;
 neither is there among us any who knows how long.

¹⁰O God, how long shall the enemy speak evil?
 Shall the enemy blaspheme Thy name
 forever?

¹¹Why dost Thou withdraw Thy hand,
 even Thy right hand?
 Draw it out of Thy bosom.

¹²For God is my king of old, working salvation in the midst of the
 earth,

¹³Thou didst divide the sea by Thy
 strength;
 Thou didst break the heads of the whales in the waters.

¹⁴Thou didst break the heads of lē-vī'-
ā-thān in pieces,
and gave him to be food to the people living in the wilderness.

¹⁵Thou didst divide the fountain and
 the flood;
 Thou didst dry up mighty rivers.

¹⁶The day is Thine, the night also is Thine;
 Thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

¹⁷Thou hast set all the borders of the
 earth;
 Thou hast made summer and winter.

¹⁸Remember this, that the enemy has cursed, O LORD,
and that the foolish people have blas-phemed Thy name.

¹⁹O do not deliver the soul of Thy turtle dove unto the multitude;
 forget not the congregation of Thy poor forever.

²⁰Have respect unto the covenant;
 for the dark places of the earth are full of the houses of evil.

²¹O let not the ill-treated ones return
 ashamed;
 let the poor and needy praise Thy
 name.

²²Arise, O God, plead Thy own cause;
 remember how the foolish man curses Thee daily.

²³Forget not the voice of Thy enemies;
the noise of those who rise up against Thee keeps on increasing.

PSALM 75

To the chief musician, Do not destroy, A Psalm of Asaph, A Song.

¹Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto Thee do we give thanks;
for that Thy name is near,
Thy wonderful works declare.

²Surely I will take an appointed time,
I will judge uprightly.

³The earth and all its people are melting away;
I hold up its pillars.

Sē'-lāh.

⁴I said to the proud, Do not boast;
and to the wicked, Do not lift up the horn;

⁵do not lift up your horn on high;
do not speak with a stiff neck.

⁶For lifting up comes neither from the east, nor from the west,
nor from the south.

⁷But God is the judge;
He puts down one and sets up another.

⁸For in the hand of the LORD there is
a cup,
and the wine is red; it is fully mixed;
and He pours out from it;
but the dregs of it,
all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out and drink.

⁹But I will declare forever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

¹⁰Also I will cut off all the horns of the
wicked;
but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

PSALM 76

To the chief musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of Asaph, A Song.

¹God is known in Judah,
His name is great in Israel.

²His tabernacle is also in Salem,
and His dwelling-place in Zion.

³There He broke the arrows of the bow,
the shield, and the sword, and the battle.

Sē'-lāh.

⁴Thou art more glorious and excellent
than the mountains of prey.

⁵The stout-hearted are spoiled,
they have slept their sleep;
and none of the men of might have found their hands.

⁶At Thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the rider and the horse are thrown into a deep sleep.

⁷Thou, even Thou, art to be feared;
and who may stand in Thy sight
when once Thou art angry?

⁸Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from Heaven;
the earth feared and was still,

⁹when God arose to judgment,
to save all the meek of the earth.
Sē'-lāh.

¹⁰Surely the wrath of man shall praise
Thee;
the wrath that is left, Thou shalt bind
up.

¹¹Vow, and pay unto the LORD your
God;
let all that are around Him bring presents
to Him who ought to be feared.

¹²He shall cut off the spirit in princes;
He is fearful to the kings of the earth.

PSALM 77

To the chief musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm
of Asaph.

¹I cried to God with my voice, unto God with my voice;
and He gave ear to me.

²In the day of my trouble I sought the
LORD;
my sore ran in the night, and ceased
not;
my soul refused to be comforted.

³I remembered God, and was troubled;
I complained, and my spirit fainted.
Sē'-lāh.

⁴Thou didst keep my eyes awake;
I am so troubled that I cannot
speak.

⁵I have thought upon the days of old,
the years of bygone ages.

⁶I remember my song in the night;
I speak with my own heart, and my spirit carefully searches.

⁷Will the Lord cast off forever?
And will He be favorable no more?

⁸Is His mercy gone forever?
Does His promise fail forevermore?

⁹Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies?

Sē'-lāh.

¹⁰And I said, This is my weakness, the changes of the right hand of the Most High.

¹¹I will remember the works of the
LORD;
surely I will remember Thy wonders
of old.

¹²I will also think upon all Thy work,
and talk of Thy doings.

¹³Thy way, O God, is in holiness;
who is so great a God as our God?

¹⁴Thou art the God who does wonders;
Thou hast declared Thy strength
among the people.

¹⁵Thou hast with Thy arm redeemed
Thy people,
the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Sē'-lāh.

¹⁶The waters saw Thee, O God,
the waters saw Thee; they were
afraid;

the depths also were troubled.

¹⁷The clouds poured out water;
the skies sent out a sound;
Thy arrows also flew here and there.

¹⁸The voice of Thy thunder was in the sky;
the lightnings lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.

¹⁹Thy way is in the sea,
and Thy path in the great waters,
and Thy footsteps are not known.

²⁰Thou didst lead Thy people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM 78

Maschil of Asaph.

¹Give ear, O my people, to my law;
bow down your ears to the words of
my mouth.

²I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will speak dark sayings of old,

³which we have heard and known,
and our fathers have told us.

⁴We will not hide them from their children,

showing to the generations to come the praises of the LORD, and His
strength,

and His wonderful works that He has done.

⁵For He set up a testimony in Jacob,
and ordered a law in Israel,
which He commanded our fathers,
that they should make them known
unto their children;

⁶so that the generation to come might know them,
even the children who should be born;

who should arise and tell them to their children;

⁷so that they might set their hope in
God,

and not forget the works of God,
but keep His commandments;

⁸and might not be like their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation that did not set their heart aright,
and whose spirit was not faithful with
God.

⁹The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
turned back in the day of battle.

¹⁰They did not keep the covenant of
God,

and refused to walk in His law;

¹¹and forgot His works and His wonders which He had shown them.

¹²He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers,
in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zō'-ān.

¹³He divided the sea and caused them
to pass through;

- and He made the waters to stand in a heap.
- ¹⁴Also in the daytime He led them with a cloud,
and all the night with a light of fire.
- ¹⁵He split the rocks in the wilderness,
and let them drink as out of the great deep.
- ¹⁶He brought streams also out of the rock,
and caused waters to run down like rivers.
- ¹⁷And they sinned still more against Him,
by provoking the Most High in the wilderness.
- ¹⁸And they tempted God in their heart
by asking food for their lust.
- ¹⁹And they spoke against God;
they said, Can God set a table in the wilderness?
- ²⁰Behold, He struck the rock so that the waters gushed out,
and the streams overflowed;
can He also give bread?
Can He provide flesh for His people?
- ²¹Therefore the LORD heard, and was angry;
so a fire was kindled against Jacob,
and anger also came up against Israel,
- ²²because they did not believe in God,
and did not trust in His salvation;
- ²³though He had commanded the clouds from above,
and had opened the doors of the heavens;
- ²⁴and had rained down manna upon them to eat,
and had given them of the grain of the heavens.
- ²⁵Man ate the food of the mighty;
He sent them meat to the full.
- ²⁶He caused an east wind to blow in the sky;
and by His power He brought in the south wind.
- ²⁷He also rained flesh upon them like dust,
and feathered birds like the sand of the sea;
- ²⁸and He let it fall in the middle of their camp,
all around their dwelling-places.
- ²⁹So they ate, and were filled to the full;
for He gave them their own desire.
- ³⁰They were not turned away from their lust,
but while their food was still in their mouths,
- ³¹the wrath of God came upon them
and killed the fattest of them,
and struck down the chosen of Israel.
- ³²For all this they still sinned,
and did not believe because of His wonderful works.
- ³³Therefore He ended their days in vanity
and their years in trouble.
- ³⁴When He killed them, then they looked for Him;
and they turned back and sought after God.
- ³⁵And they remembered that God was their rock,
and the Most High God was their redeemer.
- ³⁶But they flattered Him with their mouths,
and they lied to Him with their tongues.
- ³⁷For their heart was not right with Him,
neither were they faithful in His covenant.
- ³⁸But He, full of pity,
forgave their iniquity,
and did not destroy them;
yea, many times He turned His anger away,
and did not stir up all His wrath.
- ³⁹For He remembered that they were but flesh,
a wind that passes away and does not come again.
- ⁴⁰How often they provoked Him in the wilderness,
and grieved Him in the desert!
- ⁴¹Yea, they turned back and tempted God,
and set limits to the Holy one of Israel.

- ⁴²They did not remember His hand,
nor the day when He delivered them
 from the enemy;
- ⁴³how He had set His signs in Egypt,
 and His wonders in the fields of Zō'-ān.
- ⁴⁴He turned their rivers into blood,
 and their floods, so that they could not drink.
- ⁴⁵He sent different kinds of flies among them, which devoured them;
 and frogs, which destroyed them.
- ⁴⁶He also gave their crops to the caterpillar,
 and their labor to the locust.
- ⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail,
 and their sycamore trees with frost.
- ⁴⁸He gave up their cattle to the hail,
 and their flocks to bolts of fire.
- ⁴⁹He sent upon them the heat of His anger,
 wrath and fury and trouble,
 by sending evil angels among them.
- ⁵⁰He made a way to His anger;
 He did not save their soul from
 death,
 but gave their life over to the plague,
- ⁵¹and struck all the first-born in Egypt,
 the first of the strong in the tents of Ham;
- ⁵²but made His own people go forth
 like sheep,
 and guided them in the wilderness
 like a flock.
- ⁵³And He led them on safely, so that they did not fear;
 but the sea flooded over their enemies.
- ⁵⁴And He brought them within His own
 holy borders,
even to this mountain, which His right hand had bought.
- ⁵⁵He also cast out the nations before
 them,
 and divided them an inheritance by
 line,
 and made the tribes of Israel to dwell
 in their tents.
- ⁵⁶Yet they tempted and provoked the Most High God,
 and kept not His testimonies;
- ⁵⁷but they turned back, and acted un-faithfully like their fathers;
 they were turned aside like a deceiv-ing bow.
- ⁵⁸For they provoked Him to anger with their high places,
 and moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.
- ⁵⁹When God heard, He was angry,
 and turned away from Israel;
- ⁶⁰so that He left the tabernacle of Shī'-lōh,
 the tent which He placed among
 men,
- ⁶¹and delivered His strength into captivity,
 and His glory into the enemy's hands.
- ⁶²He also gave His people over to the
 sword,
 and was angry with His inheritance.
- ⁶³The fire burned up their young men;
 and their maidens were not given in marriage.
- ⁶⁴Their priests fell by the sword;
 and their widows were not able to weep.
- ⁶⁵Then the Lord awakened like one out
 of sleep,
and like a mighty man who cries
 aloud from wine.
- ⁶⁶And He struck His enemies in the back parts;
 He put them to a never-ending
 shame.
- ⁶⁷Besides, He refused the tabernacle of Joseph,
 and chose not the tribe of Ephraim;
- ⁶⁸but chose the tribe of Judah,
 the Mount Zion which He loved.
- ⁶⁹And He built His holy place like high palaces,
 like the earth which He has founded
 forever.
- ⁷⁰He also chose David His servant,
 and took him from the sheepfolds;
- ⁷¹from following the ewes great with young He brought him
 to feed Jacob His people,
 and Israel His inheritance.
- ⁷²So he fed them according to the pure-
 ness of his heart,
 and guided them by the skillfulness
 of his hands.

PSALM 79

A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹O God, the heathen have come into Thy inheritance;
they have defiled Thy holy temple;
they have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
²They have given the dead bodies of Thy servants
as food for the birds of the sky,
the flesh of Thy saints to the beasts of the earth.
³They have shed their blood like water round about Jerusalem;
and there was none to bury them.
⁴We have become a shame to our neighbors,
a scorn and mockery to those who are around us.
⁵How long, LORD? Wilt Thou be angry forever?
Shall Thy jealousy burn like fire?
⁶Pour out Thy wrath upon the nations who have not known Thee,
and upon the kingdoms
who have not called upon Thy name.
⁷For they have eaten up Jacob,
and laid his dwelling-place waste.
⁸O do not remember against us our former sins;
let Thy tender mercies go quickly before us;
for we are brought very low.
⁹Help us, O God of our salvation,
for the glory of Thy name;
and deliver us, and purge away our sins,
for Thy name's sake.
¹⁰Why should the nations say,
Where is their God?
Let Him be known among the nations
before our eyes
by the revenging of the blood of Thy servants which is shed.
¹¹Let the groaning of the prisoner come before Thee;
according to the greatness of Thy power, leave Thou a remnant of those who are to die,

- ¹²and give to our neighbors their curse sevenfold into their bosom,
the curse with which they have cursed Thee, O Lord.
¹³So we Thy people and sheep of Thy pasture,
will give Thee thanks forever;
we will show forth Thy praise to all generations.

PSALM 80

To the chief musician, concerning the Lilies,
A Psalm of Asaph.

- ¹Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
Thou who dost lead Joseph like a flock;
Thou who dwellest between the cherubims,
shine forth.
²Stir up Thy strength before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh,
and come, save us.
³Turn us again, O God, and cause Thy face to shine;
and we shall be saved!
⁴O LORD God of hosts,
how long wilt Thou be angry against the prayer of Thy people?
⁵Thou feedest them with the bread of tears;
and givest them tears to drink in great measure.
⁶Thou dost make us a target for our neighbors;
and our enemies laugh among themselves.
⁷Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause Thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.
⁸Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt;
Thou hast cast out the nations and planted it.
⁹Thou didst prepare before it, and didst cause it to take deep root;
and it filled the land.
¹⁰The hills were covered with the shadow of it,
and the boughs of it were as the beautiful cedars.

¹¹It sent out its boughs to the sea,
and its branches to the river.

¹²Why hast Thou broken down its hedges,
so that all those who pass by the way
do pluck it?

¹³The boar out of the wood wastes it,
and the wild beast of the field eats it.

¹⁴Return, we beg Thee, O God of hosts;
look down from Heaven, and behold,
and visit this vine,

¹⁵and the vineyard which Thy right hand has planted,
and the branch that Thou didst make strong for Thyself.

¹⁶*It is* burned with fire, it is cut down;
they perish at the rebuke of Thy holy
face.

¹⁷Let Thy hand be upon the Man of Thy right hand,
upon the Son of man whom Thou hast
made strong for Thyself.

¹⁸So we will not go back from Thee;
make us live, and we will call upon
Thy name.

¹⁹Turn us again, O LORD God of Hosts;
cause Thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

PSALM 81

To the chief musician upon Gittith, A Psalm
of Asaph.

¹Sing aloud unto God our strength;
make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

²Take a psalm, and bring the timbrel
here,
the pleasant harp and psaltery.

³Blow the trumpet in the new moon,
in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

⁴For this was a statute for Israel,
and a law of the God of Jacob.

⁵This He ordained in Joseph for a testimony,
when He went out throughout the land of Egypt;
I heard a language that I understood
not.

⁶I removed his shoulder from the burden;

his hands were delivered from the pots.

⁷You called in trouble, and I delivered
you;

I answered you in the secret place of
thunder;

I proved you at the waters of Mēr'-
i-bäh.

Sē'-läh.

⁸Hear, O My people, and I will testify
unto you;

O Israel, if you will listen to Me,

⁹there shall be no strange god in you;
neither shall you worship any strange
god.

¹⁰I am the LORD your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt;

open your mouth wide, and I will fill
it.

¹¹But My people would not listen to My voice;

and Israel would have none of Me.

¹²So I gave them up to their own hearts'
lust;

and they walked in their own purposes.

¹³Oh that My people had listened to
Me,

and Israel had walked in My ways!

¹⁴I would soon have humbled their
enemies,

and would have turned My hand
against their foes.

¹⁵The haters of the LORD would have come pretending before Him,

but their time would have lasted
forever.

¹⁶He would have fed them also with the finest of the wheat;

and with honey out of the rocks I would have satisfied you.

PSALM 82

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹God stands in the congregation of the mighty;

in the midst of the gods He judges.

²How long will you judge unjustly and favor the wicked?

Sē'-läh.

³Defend the poor and fatherless;
do justice to the afflicted and needy.
⁴Deliver the poor and needy;
save them out of the hand of the
wicked.

⁵They neither know nor will understand;
they walk on in darkness;
all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

⁶I have said, You are gods;
and all of you are children of the Most High.

⁷But you shall die like men,
and fall like one of the princes.

⁸Arise, O God, judge the earth;
for Thou shalt inherit all nations.

PSALM 83

A Song, A Psalm of Asaph.

¹Keep not silence, O God;
hold not Thy peace, and be not still,
O God.

²For lo, Thy enemies roar;
and those who hate Thee have lifted up the head.

³They have made a sly plot against Thy
people,
and have put their heads together
against Thy hidden ones.

⁴They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation,
so that the name Israel may be remembered no more.

⁵For with one heart they have plotted
together,
they have made a covenant against
Thee—

⁶the tents of Edom, and the Ish'-mā-ē-lites;
of Moab, and the Hāg'-ā-rēnes;

⁷Gē'-bāl, and Ammon, and Aṣṣ'-ā-lēk;
the Philistines with the people of Tyre;

⁸Assyria also has joined with them;
they have helped the children of Lot.
Sē'-lāh.

⁹Do unto them as to Mid'-i-ān;
as to Sis'-ē-rā, as to Jā'-bin, at the brook of Kī'-son;

¹⁰*who* perished at En'-dôr;
they became as dung for the earth.

¹¹Make their nobles like Or'-ēb, and like Zēeb;
yea, all their princes like Zē'-bāh, and
like Zāl-mūn'-nā;

¹²who said, Let us take possession for ourselves
of the houses of God.

¹³O my God, make them like a wheel;
like the stubble before the wind.

¹⁴As the fire burns a wood,
and as the flame sets the mountains
on fire;

¹⁵so pursue them with Thy tempest, and make them afraid with Thy storm.

¹⁶Fill their faces with shame,
that they may seek Thy name, O
LORD.

¹⁷Let them be ashamed and troubled
forever;
yea, let them be put to shame, and lost;

¹⁸so that men may know that Thou,
whose name alone is JEHOVAH,
art the Most High over all the earth.

PSALM 84

To the chief musician upon Gittith, A Psalm
for the sons of Korah.

¹How lovely are Thy tabernacles,
O LORD of hosts!

²My soul longs, yea, even faints
for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh cries out
for the living God.

³Even the sparrow has found a house,
and the swallow a nest for herself
where she may lay her young,
even Thy altars, O LORD of hosts,
my king and my God.

⁴Blessed are they who dwell in Thy
house;
they will be still praising Thee.
Sē'-lāh.

⁵Blessed is the man whose strength is
in Thee;
in whose heart are Thy ways,

⁶who passing through the valley of weeping make it a fountain; the rain also fills the pools.

⁷They go from strength to strength, appearing in Zion before God.

⁸O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob.

Sē'-lāh.

⁹Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of Thy anointed.

¹⁰For a day in Thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

¹¹For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD will give grace and glory; no good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly.

¹²O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in Thee.

PSALM 85

To the chief musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

¹LORD, Thou hast been gracious to Thy land; Thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

²Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of Thy people; Thou hast covered all their sins. Sē'-lāh.

³Thou hast taken away all Thy wrath; Thou hast turned Thyself from the heat of Thy anger.

⁴Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause Thy anger toward us to cease.

⁵Wilt Thou be angry with us forever? Wilt Thou draw out Thy anger to all generations?

⁶Wilt Thou not give us life again, so that Thy people may rejoice in Thee?

⁷Show us Thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us Thy salvation.

⁸I will hear what God the LORD will speak;

for He will speak peace to His people, and to His saints; but let them not turn again to folly.

⁹Surely His salvation is near those that fear Him, so that glory may dwell in our land.

¹⁰Mercy and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

¹¹Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from Heaven.

¹²Yea, the LORD shall give good; and our land shall yield its increase.

¹³Righteousness shall go before Him, and shall set us in the way of His steps.

PSALM 86

A Prayer of David.

¹Bow down Thy ear, O LORD, hear me; for I am poor and needy.

²Preserve my soul; for I am holy; O Thou my God, save Thy servant who trusts in Thee.

³Be merciful unto me, O Lord; for I cry unto Thee daily.

⁴Rejoice the soul of Thy servant; for unto Thee, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

⁵For Thou, Lord, art good and ready to forgive; and rich in mercy to all those who call upon Thee.

⁶Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my prayers.

⁷In the day of my trouble I will call upon Thee; for Thou wilt answer me.

⁸Among the gods there is none like Thee, O Lord; nor like Thy works.

⁹All nations whom Thou hast made shall come and worship before Thee, O Lord,

and shall glorify Thy name.

¹⁰For Thou art great, and doest wonderful things;

Thou art God alone.

¹¹Teach me Thy way, O LORD;

I will walk in Thy truth;

my heart rejoices to fear Thy name.

¹²I will praise Thee, O Lord my God,
with all my heart,

and I will glorify Thy name forevermore.

¹³For great is Thy mercy toward me;
and Thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

¹⁴O God, the proud have risen against
me;

and the company of violent men have sought after my life,
and have not set Thee before them.

¹⁵But Thou, O God, art a God full of pity, and gracious,
long-suffering, and rich in mercy and
truth.

¹⁶O turn unto me, and have mercy upon
me;

give Thy strength unto Thy servant,
and save the son of Thy handmaid.

¹⁷Show me a token for good,
so that they who hate me may see
and be ashamed;

because Thou, LORD, hast helped me and comforted me.

PSALM 87

A Psalm for the sons of Korah, A Song.

¹His foundation is in the holy mountains.

²The LORD loves the gates of Zion
more
than all the dwellings of Jacob.

³Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God.

Sē'-lāh.

⁴I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to those who know me;
behold, Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia;

this man was born there.

⁵And of Zion it shall be said,

This and that man was born in her;
and the Highest Himself shall establish her.

⁶The LORD shall count, when He writes up the people,
that this man was born there.

Sē'-lāh.

⁷The singers as well as the players on instruments shall be there.

All my springs are in Thee!

PSALM 88

A Song, A Psalm for the sons of Korah, to the chief musician, upon Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

¹O LORD God of my salvation,
I have cried day and night before
Thee.

²Let my prayer come before Thee,
bow down Thy ear unto my cry.

³For my soul is full of troubles;
and my life draws near the grave.

⁴I am counted with those who go down
into the pit;

I am as a man who has no strength;

⁵free among the dead,
like the slain that lie in the grave,
whom Thou dost remember no more;
Thy waves.

and they are cut off from Thy hand.

⁶Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit,
in darkness, in the deeps.

⁷Thy wrath lies hard upon me,
and Thou hast afflicted me with all Thy waves.

Sē'-lāh.

⁸Thou hast put my friends far away
from me;

Thou hast made me a hateful thing
to them;

I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

⁹My eye mourns because of affliction;
LORD, I have called daily upon
Thee,

I have stretched out my hands unto
Thee.

¹⁰Wilt Thou show wonders to the dead?
Shall the dead rise and praise Thee?

Sē'-lāh.

- ¹¹Shall Thy loving-kindness be declared
in the grave?
Or Thy faithfulness in ruin?
- ¹²Shall Thy wonders be known in the dark,
and Thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
- ¹³But unto Thee I have cried, O LORD;
and in the morning my prayer shall go before Thee.
- ¹⁴LORD, why dost Thou cast off my
soul?
*Why dost Thou hide Thy face from
me?*
- ¹⁵I am afflicted and ready to die from
my youth up;
*while I suffer Thy terrors, I pine
away.*
- ¹⁶Thy fierce wrath goes over me;
thy terrors have cut me off.
- ¹⁷They came round about me daily like
water;
they have come together around me.
- ¹⁸Thou hast put lover and friend far
from me,
*and those who know me into dark-
ness.*
- ⁶For who in the skies can be compared
to the LORD?
*Who among the sons of the mighty
can be compared to the LORD?*
- ⁷God is greatly to be feared in the congregation of the saints,
and to be adored by all around Him.
- ⁸O LORD God of hosts,
who is a strong LORD like Thee?
*Or to Thy faithfulness round about
Thee?*
- ⁹Thou rulest the raging of the sea;
when the waves of it arise, Thou dost still them.
- ¹⁰Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as
one that is slain;
Thou hast scattered Thy enemies
with Thy strong arm.
- ¹¹The heavens are Thine, the earth also is Thine;
as for the world and the fullness of it, Thou hast founded them.
- ¹²The north and the south, Thou hast
created them;
Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in Thy name.
- ¹³Thou hast a mighty arm;
Thy hand is strong, and Thy right hand is high.
- ¹⁴Justice and judgment are the foundation of Thy throne;
mercy and truth shall go before Thy
face.
- ¹⁵Blessed is the people that knows the joyful sound;
they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of Thy face.
- ¹⁶In Thy name they shall rejoice all the
day;
and in Thy righteousness they shall
be lifted up.
- ¹⁷For Thou art the glory of their
strength;
and in Thy favor our horn shall be
lifted up.
- ¹⁸For the LORD is our shield,
and our king is the Holy One of Israel.

PSALM 89

Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- ¹I will sing of the mercies of the LORD
forever;
with my mouth I will make known Thy faithfulness to all generations.
- ²For I have said, Mercy shall be built up forever;
Thy faithfulness shalt Thou establish in the very heavens.
- ³I have made a covenant with My chosen;
I have sworn to David My servant,
- ⁴Your seed will I establish forever,
and build up your throne to all generations.
- Sē'-lāh.
- ⁵And the heavens shall praise Thy wonders, O LORD,
Thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.
- ¹⁹Then Thou didst speak in vision
to Thy holy one, and didst say,
I have laid help upon a mighty one;
I have lifted up a chosen one out of
the people.

- 20I have found David, My servant;
with My holy oil I have anointed
him.
- 21My hand shall be always with him;
My arm also shall make him strong.
- 22The enemy shall not use force upon
him,
nor the son of wickedness afflict
him.
- 23And I will beat down his foes before his face,
and plague those who hate him.
- 24But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him;
and in My name his horn shall be
lifted up.
- 25I will set his hand also in the sea,
and his right hand in the rivers.
- 26He shall cry unto Me, Thou art my Father,
my God, and the rock of my salvation.
- 27Also I will make him My first-born, higher than the kings of the earth.
- 28I will keep My mercy for him forever-
more,
and My covenant shall stand fast
with him.
- 29Also I have set his seed forever,
and his throne as the days of the
heavens.
- 30If his children forsake My law,
and do not walk in My judgments; 31if they break My statutes,
and do not keep My commandments;
32then I will visit their wickedness with
the rod,
and their sin with stripes.
- 33Nevertheless I will not completely take My loving-kindness away from
him,
nor allow My faithfulness to fail.
- 34I will not break My covenant,
nor change the thing that has gone out of my lips.
- 35Once I have sworn by My holiness
that I will not lie to David.
- 36His seed shall endure forever,
and his throne as the sun before
Me.
- 37It shall be established forever like the moon,
and like a faithful witness in the
heavens.
- Sē'-lāh.
- 38But Thou hast cast us off and turned
away;
Thou hast been angry with Thy
anointed.
- 39Thou hast turned away from the covenant of Thy servant;
Thou hast defiled his crown by throwing it to the ground.
- 40Thou hast broken down all his hedges;
Thou hast brought his strongholds to ruin.
- 41All who pass by the way spoil him;
he is a curse to his neighbors.
- 42Thou hast set up the right hand of
his enemies;
Thou hast made all his enemies rejoice.
- 43Thou also hast turned the edge of his
sword,
and hast not made him stand in the battle.
- 44Thou hast made his glory to cease,
and hast thrown his throne down to the ground.
- 45The days of his youth Thou hast
shortened;
Thou hast covered him with shame.
Sē'-lāh.
- 46How long, LORD? Wilt Thou hide
Thyself forever?
Shall Thy wrath burn like fire?
47Remember how short my time is;
why hast Thou made all men in vain?
48What man lives and never sees death?
Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave?
Sē'-lāh.
- 49Lord, where are Thy former lovingkindnesses
which Thou didst swear unto David in Thy truth?
50Remember, Lord, the scorn of Thy servants;
how I bear in my bosom the insult of
all the mighty people, 51with which Thy enemies have cursed,
O LORD;
with which they have cursed the footsteps of Thy anointed.
- 52Blessed be the LORD forevermore.
Amen and Amen.

PSALM 90

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

- ¹LORD, Thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.
- ²Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever Thou hadst formed the earth
and the world,
even from everlasting to everlasting Thou art God.
- ³Thou didst turn man to lowliness,
and didst say, Return, you children
of men.
- ⁴For a thousand years in Thy sight
are as yesterday when it is past,
and as a watch in the night.
- ⁵Thou didst carry them away as with a flood;
they are as a sleep; in the morning
they are like grass which grows up.
- ⁶In the morning it sprouts and shoots
up;
in the evening it is cut down, and dries up.
- ⁷For we are burned up by Thy anger,
and by Thy wrath we are troubled.
- ⁸Thou hast set our iniquities before
Thee,
our secret sins in the light of Thy
face.
- ⁹For all our days pass away in Thy
wrath;
we finish our years as a tale that is told.
- ¹⁰The days of our years are threescore
years and ten;
and if because of strength they are
fourscore years,
yet their strength is labor and sorrow;
for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
- ¹¹Who knows the power of Thy anger?
Even according to Thy fear, so is Thy
wrath.
- ¹²So teach us to number our days,
so that we may apply our hearts unto
wisdom.

- ¹³Return, O LORD, how long?
And comfort Thyself concerning Thy
servants.
- ¹⁴O satisfy us early with Thy mercy,
so that we may rejoice and be glad
all our days.
- ¹⁵Make us glad according to the days
in which Thou hast afflicted us and the years in which we have seen
evil.
- ¹⁶Let Thy work appear unto Thy servants,
and Thy glory unto their children.
- ¹⁷And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us;
and establish the work of our hands
upon us;
yea, the work of our hands, establish Thou it.

PSALM 91

- ¹He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
shall rest under the shadow of the Almighty.
- ²I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress;
my God; in Him I will trust.
- ³Surely He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler.
and from the destroying plague.
- ⁴He shall cover you with His feathers,
and under His wings you shalt
trust.
His truth shall be your shield, and buckler.
- ⁵You shall not be afraid because of the terror by night;
nor because of the arrow that flies by
day;
- ⁶*nor* for the plague that walks in dark-
ness;
nor for the plague that lays waste at noonday.
- ⁷A thousand shall fall at your side,
and ten thousand at your right hand;
but it shall not come near you.
- ⁸Only with your eyes you shall look and see the reward of the wicked.
- ⁹Because Thou, O LORD, art my refuge,

You have made the Most High your dwelling-place;
¹⁰no evil shall befall you,
 neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
¹¹For He shall give His angels charge over you,
 to keep you in all your ways.
¹²They shall bear you up in their hands,
 lest you dash your foot against a stone.
¹³You shall tread upon the lion and adder;
 the young lion and the jackal you shall trample underfoot.
¹⁴Because he has set His love upon Me,
 therefore I will deliver him;
 I will set him on high, because he has known My name.
¹⁵He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
 I will be with him in trouble;
 I will deliver him, and honor him.
¹⁶With long life I will satisfy him,
 and show him My salvation.

PSALM 92

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.

¹*It is a good thing* to give thanks to the LORD,
 and to sing praises unto Thy name,
 O Most High;
²to show forth Thy loving-kindness in the morning,
 and Thy faithfulness every night;
³upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery,
 upon the harp with deep thought.
⁴For Thou, LORD, hast made Me glad with Thy work;
 I will triumph in the works of Thy hands.
⁵O LORD, how great are Thy works!
 Thy thoughts are very deep.
⁶A beastly man does not know;
 neither does a fool understand this.
⁷When the wicked spring as the grass,
 and when all the workers of iniquity blossom,

it is that they shall be destroyed forever;
⁸but Thou, LORD, art high forevermore.
⁹For, lo, Thy enemies, O LORD;
 for lo, Thy enemies shall perish;
 all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
¹⁰But my horn Thou shalt lift up like the horn of a wild ox;
 and I shall be anointed with fresh oil.
¹¹Also my eye shall see my desire on my enemies,
 and my ears shall hear the wicked who rise up against me.

¹²The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree;
 he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
¹³Those that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.
¹⁴They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;
 they shall be fat and flowering;
¹⁵to show that the LORD is upright;
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

PSALM 93

¹The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty;
 the LORD is clothed with strength with which He has clothed Himself;
 the world also is fixed, so that it cannot be moved.
²Thy throne is established of old;
 Thou art from everlasting.
³The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
 the floods have lifted up their voices;
 the floods lift up their waves.
⁴The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters,
yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.
⁵Thy promises are very sure;
 holiness becomes Thy house,
 O LORD, forever.

PSALM 94

- ¹O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongs;
O God, to whom vengeance belongs,
show Thyself.
- ²Lift up Thyself, Thou judge of the earth;
render a reward to the proud.
- ³LORD, how long shall the wicked,
how long shall the wicked triumph?
- ⁴*How long shall they say and speak hard things?
And all the workers of iniquity boast themselves.*
- ⁵They break Thy people in pieces, O LORD,
and afflict Thy inheritance.
- ⁶They kill the widow and the stranger,
and murder the fatherless.
- ⁷Yet they say, The LORD shall not see,
neither shall the God of Jacob think upon it.
- ⁸Understand, you beastly ones among the people;
and you fools, when will you be wise?
- ⁹He who planted the ear, shall He not hear?
He who formed the eye, shall He not see?
- ¹⁰He who chastises the heathen, shall He not correct?
He who teaches man knowledge, shall He not know?
- ¹¹The LORD knows the thoughts of man,
that they are vanity.
- ¹²Blessed is the man whom Thou dost chasten, O LORD,
to teach him out of Thy law;
- ¹³that Thou mayest give him rest from the days of trouble,
until the pit is dug for the wicked.
- ¹⁴For the LORD will not cast off His people,
neither will He forsake His inheritance.
- ¹⁵But judgment shall return unto righteousness;
and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

- ¹⁶Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers?
Or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
- ¹⁷Unless the LORD had been my help,
my soul had almost dwelt in silence.
- ¹⁸When I said, My foot slips;
Thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.
- ¹⁹In the multitude of my thoughts within me
Thy comforts delight my soul.
- ²⁰Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with Thee,
which frames mischief by a law?
- ²¹They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.
- ²²But the LORD is my defense;
and my God is the rock of my refuge.
- ²³And He shall bring upon them their own iniquity,
and shall cut them off in their own wickedness.
The LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM 95

- ¹O come, let us sing unto the LORD;
let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.
- ²Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving,
and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.
- ³For the LORD is a great God,
and a great King above all gods.
- ⁴In His hand are the deep places of the earth;
the strength of the hills is also His.
- ⁵The sea is His, and He made it;
and His hands formed the dry land.
- ⁶O come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD our maker.
- ⁷For He is our God,
and we are the people of His pasture,
and the sheep of His hand.
- Today if you will hear His voice, ⁸harden not your heart, as in the day they provoked Me,

and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness;
⁹when your fathers tempted Me, proved Me, and saw My work.
¹⁰Forty years long I was grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people who go astray in their hearts,
 and they have not known My ways;
¹¹unto whom I swore in My wrath that they should not enter into My rest.

PSALM 96

¹O sing unto the LORD a new song;
 sing unto the LORD, all the earth.
²Sing unto the LORD, bless His name;
 show forth His salvation from day to day.
³Declare His glory among the nations,
 His wonders among all people.
⁴For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised;
 He is to be feared above all gods.
⁵For all the gods of the nations are idols;
 but the LORD made the heavens.
⁶Honor and majesty are before Him;
 strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.
⁷Give unto the LORD, O families of the people;
 give unto the LORD glory and strength.
⁸Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His name;
 bring an offering, and come into His courts.
⁹O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness;
 fear before Him, all the earth.
¹⁰Say among the nations that the LORD reigns;
 the world also shall be fixed so that it shall not be moved;
 He shall judge the people righteously.
¹¹Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
 let the sea roar, and the fullness of it.

¹²Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it;
 then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice
 before the LORD; for He comes,
 for He comes to judge the earth;
 He shall judge the world with righteousness,
 and the people with His truth.

PSALM 97

¹The LORD reigns; let the earth rejoice;
 let the multitude of islands be glad.
²Clouds and darkness are round about Him;
 righteousness and judgment are the foundation of His throne.
³A fire goes before Him
 and burns up His enemies round about.
⁴His lightnings lit up the world;
 the earth saw and trembled.
⁵The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD,
 at the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.
⁶The heavens declare His righteousness,
 and all the people see His glory.
⁷All those who serve graven images are ashamed,
 those who boast themselves in idols;
 all gods bow down before Him.
⁸Zion heard and was glad;
 and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of Thy judgments, O LORD.
⁹For Thou, LORD, art high above all the earth;
 Thou art lifted on high far above all gods.
¹⁰You who love the LORD, hate evil;
 He keeps the souls of His saints;
 He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
¹¹Light is sown for the righteous,
 and gladness for the upright in heart.
¹²Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous;
 and give thanks at the memory of His holiness.

PSALM 98

A Psalm.

- ¹O sing unto the LORD a new song;
for He has done marvelous things;
His right hand and His holy arm
have gotten Him the victory.
- ²The LORD has made known His salvation;
His righteousness He has openly shown in the sight of the heathen.
- ³He has remembered His mercy and
His truth
toward the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our LORD.
- ⁴Make a joyful noise unto the LORD,
all the earth;
make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.
- ⁵Sing unto the LORD with the harp;
with the harp, and the voice of a
psalm.
- ⁶With trumpets and sound of cornet
make a joyful noise before the LORD,
the King.
- ⁷Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it;
the world, and those who live in it.
- ⁸Let the floods clap their hands;
let the hills be joyful together
- ⁹before the LORD; for He comes to judge the earth;
with righteousness He shall judge the world,
and the people with fairness.

PSALM 99

- ¹The LORD reigns; let the people
tremble;
He sits between the chër'-û-bîms;
let the earth be moved.
- ²The LORD is great in Zion;
and He is high above all the people.
- ³Let them praise Thy great and fearful
name;
for it is holy.
- ⁴The king's strength also loved judgment;
Thou dost establish uprightness,
Thou dost work judgment
and righteousness in Jacob.

⁵Praise the LORD our God,
and worship at His footstool;
He is holy.

- ⁶Moses and Aaron were among His priests,
and Samuel among those who called
upon His name;
they called upon the LORD, and He answered them.
- ⁷He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar;
they kept His testimonies
and the ordinance that He gave them.
- ⁸Thou didst answer them, O LORD our
God;
Thou wast a God who forgave them, though Thou didst take vengeance for their deeds.
- ⁹Praise the LORD our God,
and worship at His holy hill;
for the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM 100

A Psalm of praise.

- ¹Make a joyful noise unto the LORD,
all you lands.
- ²Serve the LORD with gladness;
come before His presence with singing.
- ³Know that the LORD, He is God;
it is He who has made us, and not we
ourselves;
we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.
- ⁴Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
and into His courts with praise;
be thankful unto Him, and bless His
name.
- ⁵For the LORD is good;
His mercy is everlasting;
and His truth endures to all generations.

PSALM 101

A Psalm of David.

- ¹I will sing of mercy and judgment;
unto Thee, O LORD, I will sing.

²I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way.

O when wilt Thou come to me?

I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

³I will set no wicked thing before my eyes.

I have hated the work of those who turn aside;
it shall not hold on to me.

⁴A wicked heart shall depart from me;
I will not know the wicked.

⁵Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor,

I will cut him off;
him who has a high look and a proud heart,
I will not allow.

⁶My eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land,
so that they may dwell with me;
he who walks in a perfect way,
he shall serve me.

⁷He who works falsely shall not dwell within my house;
he who tells lies shall not stay in my sight.

⁸I will early destroy all the wicked of the land,
so that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSALM 102

A prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

¹Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and let my cry come unto Thee.

²Hide not Thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble;
bow down Thy ear unto me;
in the day when I call, answer me quickly.

³For my days go up like smoke,
and my bones are burned like a hearth.

⁴My heart is stricken, and dried like grass,

so that I forget to eat my bread.

⁵Because of the voice of my groaning,
my bones hold fast to my skin.

⁶I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I am like an owl of the desert.

⁷I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.

⁸My enemies curse me all the day;
and they who are mad against me are sworn against me.

⁹For I have eaten ashes like bread,
and have mixed my drink with weeping,

¹⁰because of Thy anger and Thy wrath;
for Thou hast lifted me up and cast me down.

¹¹My days are like a shadow stretched out;
and I am dried like grass.

¹²But Thou, O LORD, shalt endure forever;
and Thy memory unto all generations.

¹³Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion;
for the time to pity her,
yea, the set time, has come.

¹⁴For Thy servants take pleasure in its stones,
and love the dust of it.

¹⁵So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD,
and all the kings of the earth Thy glory.

¹⁶When the LORD shall build up Zion,
He shall appear in His glory.

¹⁷He will turn to the prayer of the forsaken,
and not despise their prayer.

¹⁸This shall be written for the generation to come;
and the people who shall be created shall praise the LORD.

¹⁹For He has looked down from the height of His sanctuary;
from Heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

²⁰to hear the groaning of the prisoner,
to set free the children of death;

- ²¹to declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
and His praise in Jerusalem; ²²when the people and the kingdoms have gathered together
to serve the LORD.
- ²³He weakened my strength in the way;
He shortened my days.
- ²⁴I said, O my God, take me not away
in the midst of my days;
Thy years are throughout all generations.
- ²⁵Of old Thou hast laid the foundation
of the earth;
and the heavens are the work of Thy
hands.
- ²⁶They shall perish, but Thou shalt endure;
yea, all of them shall become old like
a garment;
like a robe Thou shalt change them,
and they shall be changed;
- ²⁷but Thou art the same, and Thy years
shall have no end.
- ²⁸The children of Thy servants shall continue,
and their seed shall be established
before Thee.
- ⁸The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger, and rich in mercy.
⁹He will not always chasten, neither will He keep His anger for-
ever.
- ¹⁰He has not dealt with us according to
our sins,
nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
- ¹¹For as the sky is high above the earth,
*so great is His mercy toward those
who fear Him.*
- ¹²As far as the east is from the west,
so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
- ¹³As a father pities his children, so the LORD pities those who fear Him.
- ¹⁴For He knows how we are made;
He remembers that we are dust.
- ¹⁵As for man, his days are as grass;
as a flower of the field, so he blossoms.
- ¹⁶For the wind passes over it, and it is
gone;
and its place shall know it no more.
- ¹⁷But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting
upon those who fear Him,
and His righteousness unto children's
children;
- ¹⁸to those who keep His covenant,
and to those who remember to do His commandments.

PSALM 103

A Psalm of David.

- ¹Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all that is within me, bless His holy name.
- ²Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all His benefits;
- ³who forgives all your iniquities;
who heals all your diseases;
- ⁴who redeems your life from ruin;
who crowns you with loving-kindness
and tender mercies;
- ⁵who satisfies your mouth with good
things;
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- ⁶The LORD works righteousness and
judgment
for all who are pressed down.
- ⁷He made known His ways unto Moses,
His acts unto the children of Israel.
- ¹⁹The LORD has prepared His throne
in the heavens;
and His kingdom rules over all.
- ²⁰Bless the LORD, you His angels, who excel in strength, who do His
commandments,
listening to the voice of His word.
- ²¹Bless the LORD, all His hosts;
ministers of His who do His pleasure.
- ²²Bless the LORD, all His works in all places of His rule;
bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM 104

- ¹Bless the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, Thou art very
great;

- Thou art clothed with honor and majesty, ²covering Thyself with light as with a robe;
 and stretching out the heavens like a curtain;
³He lays the beams of His upper rooms in the waters;
 He makes the clouds His chariots;
 He walks upon the wings of the wind;
⁴He makes His angels spirits,
 His ministers a flaming fire.
- ⁵He laid the earth on its foundations,
 so that it should not be moved forever.
- ⁶Thou didst cover it with the deep as with a robe;
 the waters stood above the mountains.
- ⁷At Thy rebuke they flee;
 at the voice of Thy thunder they hurry away.
- ⁸They go up by the mountains;
 they go down by the valleys to the place which Thou hast founded for them.
- ⁹Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over,
 so that they do not turn again to cover the earth.
- ¹⁰He sends the springs into the valleys,
which run among the hills.
- ¹¹They give drink to every beast of the field;
 the wild asses break their thirst.
- ¹²By them the birds of the sky will have their place of rest,
who sing among the branches.
- ¹³He waters the hills from His upper rooms;
 the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Thy works.
- ¹⁴He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
 and herb for the service of man,
 so that he may bring forth food out of the earth,
- ¹⁵and wine that makes the heart of man glad,
 and oil to make his face shine,
 and bread which makes man's heart strong.
- ¹⁶The trees of the LORD are full,
 the cedars of Lebanon which He has planted; ¹⁷where the birds make their nests;
as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.
- ¹⁸The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats,
 and the rocks for the conies.
- ¹⁹He appointed the moon for seasons;
 the sun knows its going down.
- ²⁰Thou makest darkness, and it is night,
 in which all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.
- ²¹The young lions roar after their prey,
 and seek their food from God.
- ²²The sun rises, they gather themselves together,
 and lie down together in their dens.
- ²³Man goes forth to his work
 and to his labor until the evening.
- ²⁴O LORD, how many are Thy works!
 In wisdom Thou hast made them all;
 the earth is full of Thy riches.
- ²⁵So is this great and wide sea,
 in which are creeping things without number,
 both small and great animals.
- ²⁶There go the ships;
there is that great sea animal which Thou hast made to play in it.
- ²⁷These all wait upon Thee,
 that Thou mayest give them their food in due season.
- ²⁸*What* Thou givest them, they gather;
 Thou dost open Thy hand;
 they are filled with good.
- ²⁹Thou dost hide Thy face, they are troubled;
 Thou dost take away their breath,
 they die and return to their dust.
- ³⁰Thou dost send forth Thy Spirit, they are created;
 and Thou dost renew the face of the earth.
- ³¹The glory of the LORD shall endure forever;
 the LORD shall rejoice in His works.

³²He looks on the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the hills, and they smoke.

³³I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live;

I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

³⁴My thoughts of Him shall be sweet;
I will be glad in the LORD.

³⁵Let the sinners be taken out of the
earth,
and let the wicked be no more.
Bless the LORD, O my soul.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 105

¹O give thanks unto the LORD; call
upon His name;
make known His deeds among the
people.

²Sing unto Him, sing psalms unto Him;
talk of all His wonderful works.

³Glory in His holy name;
let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

⁴Seek the LORD and His strength;
seek His face evermore.

⁵Remember His marvelous works which
He has done;
His wonders, and the judgments of
His mouth.

⁶O you seed of Jacob His servant,
you children of Jacob His chosen.

⁷He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.

⁸He has remembered His covenant for-
ever,
the word which He commanded to a thousand generations;

⁹*the covenant* which He made with Abraham,
and His oath unto Isaac;

¹⁰and confirmed the same unto Jacob
for a law,
and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

¹¹saying, Unto you I will give the land of Canaan,
the lot of your inheritance;

¹²when they were but a few men in number;
yea, very few, and strangers in it.

¹³When they went from one nation to another,

from a kingdom to another people,

¹⁴He allowed no man to do them
wrong;

yea, He reprov'd kings for their sakes,

¹⁵*saying*, Touch not my anointed,
and do My prophets no harm.

¹⁶Moreover He called for a famine upon
the land;

He broke the whole staff of bread.

¹⁷He sent a man before them, even Joseph,
who was sold for a servant;

¹⁸whose feet they hurt with chains;
he was laid in iron

¹⁹until the time that his word came true;

the word of the LORD tried him.

²⁰The king sent and set him free;
even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

²¹He made him lord of his house,
and ruler of all he owned;

²²to chain his princes at his pleasure,
and teach his elders wisdom.

²³Israel also came into Egypt,
and Jacob stayed in the land of Ham.

²⁴And He increased His people greatly,
and made them stronger than their
enemies.

²⁵He turned their heart to hate His
people,
to deal craftily with His servants.

²⁶He sent Moses His servant,
and Aaron whom He had chosen.

²⁷They showed His signs among them,
and wonders in the land of Ham.

²⁸He sent darkness, and made it dark;
and they did not rebel against His word.

²⁹He turned their waters into blood,
and killed their fish.

³⁰The land brought forth frogs plenti-
fully,
in the rooms of their kings.

³¹He spoke, and there came different kinds of flies,
and lice in all their borders.

- ³²He gave them hail for rain,
and flaming fire in their land.
- ³³He struck their vines also and their fig trees,
and broke the trees of their borders.
- ³⁴He spoke, and the locusts came,
and caterpillars, and that without number;
- ³⁵and they ate up all the herbs in their land,
and ate the fruit of their ground.
- ³⁶He also struck all the first-born in their land,
the chief of all their strength.
- ³⁷He also brought them forth with silver and gold;
and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
- ³⁸Egypt was glad when they departed;
for the fear of them had fallen upon them.
- ³⁹He spread a cloud for a covering,
and fire to give light in the night.
- ⁴⁰*They* asked, and He brought quails,
and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
- ⁴¹He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out;
they ran in the dry places like a river.
- ⁴²For He remembered His holy promise and Abraham His servant.
- ⁴³And He brought forth His people with joy,
and His chosen with gladness,
- ⁴⁴and gave them the lands of the heathen;
and they inherited the labor of the people,
- ⁴⁵so that they might take heed to His statutes
and keep His laws.
Praise the LORD.
- PSALM 106
- ¹Praise the LORD.
O give thanks unto the LORD; for He is good;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ²Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can show forth all His praise?
- ³Blessed are those who keep judgment,
and he who does righteousness at all times.
- ⁴Remember me, O LORD, with the favor which Thou hast unto Thy people;
O visit me with Thy salvation, ⁵so that I may see the good of Thy chosen,
that I may rejoice in the gladness of Thy nation,
that I may glory with Thy inheritance.
- ⁶We have sinned with our fathers,
we have committed iniquity,
we have done wickedly.
- ⁷Our fathers did not understand Thy wonders in Egypt;
they did not remember the multitude of Thy mercies,
but provoked Thee at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
- ⁸But He saved them for His name's sake,
that He might make His mighty power to be known.
- ⁹He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up;
so He led them through the depths,
as through the wilderness.
- ¹⁰And He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
- ¹¹And the waters covered their enemies;
there was not one of them left.
- ¹²Then they believed His words;
they sang His praise.
- ¹³They hurried to forget His works;
they did not wait for His counsel;
- ¹⁴but they lusted greedily in the wilderness,
and tempted God in the desert.
- ¹⁵And He gave them what they asked;
but sent leanness into their soul.
- ¹⁶They also were jealous of Moses in the camp,
and Aaron the saint of the LORD.
- ¹⁷The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,

- and covered the company of Ā-bī'-rām.
- 18And a fire was kindled in their company;
the flame burned up the wicked.
- 19They made a calf in Hôr'-ēb,
and worshipped the melted image.
- 20So they changed their Glory
into the likeness of an ox that eats grass.
- 21They forgot God their Deliverer,
who had done great things in Egypt;
- 22wonderful works in the land of Ham,
and fearful things by the Red Sea.
- 23Therefore He said that He would destroy them,
if Moses His chosen had not stood before Him in the break,
to turn away His wrath,
so that He should not destroy them.
- 24Yea, they despised the pleasant land;
they did not believe His word,
- 25but murmured in their tents,
and did not listen to the voice of the
LORD.
- 26Therefore He lifted up His hand
against them,
to overthrow them in the wilderness;
- 27to overthrow their seed also among
the nations,
and to scatter them in the lands.
- 28They also joined themselves unto Bā'- āl-pē'-ōr,
and ate the sacrifice of the dead.
- 29So they provoked Him to anger with their doings;
and the plague broke in upon them.
- 30Then Phīn'-ē-hās stood up and carried out judgment;
and the plague was stayed.
- 31And that was counted to him for
righteousness
unto all generations forevermore.
- 32They also angered Him at the waters
of strife,
so that it went ill with Moses for their
sakes;
- 33because they provoked his spirit
so that he spoke unwisely with his lips.
- 34They did not destroy the nations concerning whom the LORD commanded them;
- 35but were mixed among the heathen,
and learned their works.
- 36And they served their idols,
which were a snare unto them.
- 37Yea, they sacrificed their sons
and their daughters unto devils, 38and shed innocent blood,
even the blood of their sons and of
their daughters,
whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan;
and the land was defiled with blood.
- 39So they were defiled with their own
works,
and went lusting in their own doings.
- 40Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people,
so much so that He turned away from His own inheritance.
- 41And He gave them into the hand of
the nations;
and those who hated them ruled over
them.
- 42Their enemies also crushed them,
and they were humbled under their
hand.
- 43Many times He delivered them, but they provoked Him with their counsel
and were brought low for their sin.
- 44Nevertheless He looked upon their
affliction
when He heard their cry;
- 45and He remembered His covenant for
them,
and was moved to pity, according to the multitude of His mercies.
- 46He also made them to be pitied
by all those who had carried them away captives.
- 47Save us, O LORD our God,
and gather us from among the nations,
to give thanks unto Thy holy name
and to triumph in Thy praise.
- 48Blessed is the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting;
and let all the people say, Amen.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 107

¹O give thanks unto the LORD, for He is good;

for His mercy endures forever.

²Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy, ³and gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

⁴They wandered in the wilderness, in a desert by the way;

they found no city to dwell in.

⁵Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

⁶Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and He delivered them out of their troubles.

⁷And He led them forth by the right way, so that they might go to a city to live in.

⁸O that men would praise the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

⁹For He satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry soul with goodness.

¹⁰Those who sit in the darkness and in the shadow of death, being chained in affliction and iron;

¹¹because they rebelled against the words of God, and despised the advice of the Most High;

¹²therefore He brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help.

¹³Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and He saved them out of their troubles.

¹⁴He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their bands in two.

¹⁵O that men would praise the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

¹⁶For He has broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in two.

¹⁷Fools are afflicted because of their rebellion, and because of their sins.

¹⁸Their soul hates all kinds of food; and they draw near the gates of death.

¹⁹Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and He saves them out of their troubles.

²⁰He sends His word and heals them, and delivers them from their rotten deeds.

²¹O that men would praise the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

²²And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare His works with rejoicing!

²³They who go down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters;

²⁴these see the works of the LORD, and His wonders in the deep.

²⁵For He commands and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves of it.

²⁶They mount up to the sky, they go down again to the depths; their soul is melted because of trouble.

²⁷They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end.

²⁸Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and He brings them out of their troubles.

²⁹He makes the storm a calm, so that the waves of it are still.

³⁰Then they are glad because they are quiet; so He brings them unto their desired haven.

³¹O that men would praise the LORD for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

- ³²Let them also praise Him in the congregation of the people, and praise Him in the gathering of the elders.
- ³³He turns rivers into a wilderness,
and the water-springs into dry ground;
- ³⁴a fruitful land into a salty desert,
for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
- ³⁵He turns the wilderness into a standing water,
and dry ground into water-springs.
- ³⁶And He makes the hungry to dwell there,
so that they may prepare a city to live in;
- ³⁷and sow the fields, and plant vineyards,
which may yield fruits of increase.
- ³⁸He also blesses them, so that they are multiplied greatly;
and does not allow their cattle to become few.
- ³⁹Again, they have become few,
and have been brought low through harshness, affliction, and sorrow,
- ⁴⁰when He pours scorn upon princes,
and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.
- ⁴¹Yet He sets the poor on high from affliction,
and makes him families like a flock.
- ⁴²The righteous shall see and rejoice;
and all iniquity shall stop its mouth.
- ⁴³Whoever is wise, and will be careful to do these things,
they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.
- ⁴For Thy mercy is great above the heavens;
and Thy truth reaches unto the clouds.
- ⁵Be Thou lifted up, O God, above the heavens;
and Thy glory above all the earth;
- ⁶so that Thy beloved may be delivered;
save with Thy right hand, and answer me.
- ⁷God has spoken in His holiness;
I will rejoice, I will divide Shē'-chēm,
and I will measure out the valley of Sūc'-cōth.
- ⁸Gilead is Mine; Mā-nās'-sēh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the strength of My head;
Judah is My lawgiver;
- ⁹Moab is My washpot;
I will cast out My shoe over Edom;
I will triumph over Philistia.
- ¹⁰Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me into Edom?
- ¹¹Wilt not Thou, O God, who hast cut us off?
And wilt not Thou, O God, go forth with our armies?
- ¹²Give us help from trouble;
for vain is the help of man.
- ¹³Through God we shall do mighty things;
for He shall trample our enemies.

PSALM 109

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

PSALM 108

A Song or Psalm of David.

- ¹O God, my heart is fixed;
I will sing and give praise,
even with my soul.
- ²Awake, psaltery and harp;
I will awake early.
- ³I will praise Thee, O LORD, among the people;
and I will sing praises unto Thee among the nations.
- ¹Hold not Thy peace, O God of my praise;
- ²for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me;
they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
- ³They also hemmed me in with words of hatred;
and fought against me without a cause.
- ⁴For my love they are my enemies;
but I give myself to prayer.

- ⁵And they have rewarded me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
- ⁶Set Thou a wicked man over him;
and let Satan stand at his right hand.
- ⁷When he shall be judged, let him be condemned;
and let his prayer become sin.
- ⁸Let his days be few;
let another take his office.
- ⁹Let his children be fatherless,
and his wife a widow.
- ¹⁰Let his children always beg and be vagabonds;
let them seek out of their ruins.
- ¹¹Let the money-lender lay a snare for all that he has;
and let the strangers take the fruit of his labor.
- ¹²Let there be none to give mercy to him;
neither let there be any to favor his fatherless children.
- ¹³Let his children after him be cut off;
and in the generation following, let their name be blotted out.
- ¹⁴Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD;
and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
- ¹⁵Let them be always before the LORD,
so that He may cut off the memory of them from the earth,
- ¹⁶because he did not remember to show mercy,
but persecuted the poor and needy man,
so that he might even kill the broken-hearted.
- ¹⁷As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him;
as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.
- ¹⁸As he clothed himself with cursing, as with his robe,
so let it come into his bowels like water,
and like oil into his bones.
- ¹⁹Let it be unto him as the robe which covers him,
and for a girdle with which he is always clothed.
- ²⁰Let this be the reward of those who accuse me, from the LORD,
and of them who speak evil against my soul.
- ²¹But Thou, O GOD the Lord,
deal kindly with me for Thy name's sake;
because Thy mercy is good,
deliver me.
- ²²For I am poor and needy,
and my heart is wounded within me.
- ²³As a shadow when it is stretched out,
I am gone;
I am tossed up and down like the locust.
- ²⁴My knees are weak through fasting;
and my flesh is losing its fatness.
- ²⁵I also became a shame unto them;
when they looked on me, they shook their heads.
- ²⁶Help me, O LORD my God;
O save me according to Thy mercy;
- ²⁷so that they may know that this is Thy hand;
that Thou, LORD, hast done it.
- ²⁸Let them curse, but bless Thou;
when they arise, let them be ashamed;
but let Thy servant rejoice.
- ²⁹Let those who accuse me be clothed with shame,
and let them cover themselves with their own shame, as with a cloak.
- ³⁰I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth;
yea, I will praise Him among the multitude.
- ³¹For He shall stand at the right hand of the poor,
to save him from those who condemn his soul.

PSALM 110

A Psalm of David.

¹The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit Thou at My right hand until I make Thy enemies Thy footstool.

²The LORD shall send the rod of Thy strength out of Zion;

rule Thou in the midst of Thy enemies.

³Thy people shall be willing in the day of Thy power, in the beauty of holiness
from the womb of the morning;
Thou hast the dew of Thy youth.

⁴The LORD has sworn,
and will not repent,
Thou art a priest forever
after the order of Mēl-chīz'-ē-dēk.

⁵The Lord at Thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of His wrath.

⁶He shall judge among the nations,
He shall fill them with dead bodies;
He shall wound the heads
over many countries.

⁷He shall drink of the brook in the way;
therefore He shall lift up the head.

PSALM 111

¹Praise the LORD.

I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,
in the secret meeting of the upright,
and in the congregation.

²The works of the LORD are great, sought out by all those who have pleasure in them.

³His work is honorable and glorious;
and His righteousness endures forever.

⁴He has made His wonderful works to be remembered;
the LORD is gracious and full of pity.

⁵He has given food to those who fear Him;
He will always be mindful of His covenant.

⁶He has shown His people the power of His works,
that He may give them the inheritance of the nations.

⁷The works of His hands are truth and judgment;
all His commandments are sure.

⁸They stand fast forever and ever,
and are done in truth and upright-ness.

⁹He sent redemption unto His people;

He has commanded His covenant forever;

holy and fearful is His name.

¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who obey Him have understanding;

His praise endures forever.

PSALM 112

¹Praise the LORD.

Blessed is the man who fears the LORD,
who delights greatly in His commandments.

²His seed shall be mighty upon earth;
the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

³Wealth and riches shall be in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.

⁴Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness;
he is gracious and full of pity and righteousness.

⁵A good man shows favor, and lends;
he will guide his business with fairness.

⁶Surely he shall not be moved forever;
the righteous shall be remembered forever.

⁷He shall not be afraid of bad news;
his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

⁸His heart is sure, he shall not be afraid until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

⁹He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
his horn shall be lifted up with honor.

¹⁰The wicked shall see it and be grieved;
he shall gnash with his teeth and melt away;
the desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 113

¹Praise the LORD.

Praise, O servants of the LORD,
praise the name of the LORD.

²Blessed is the name of the LORD
from this time forth and forevermore.

- ³From the rising of the sun unto its going down,
the LORD's name is to be praised.
- ⁴The LORD is high above all nations,
and His glory above the heavens.
- ⁵Who is like the LORD our God,
who dwells on high, ⁶who humbles Himself to behold
the things in the heavens and in the earth!
- ⁷He raises up the poor out of the dust,
and lifts the needy out of the dung-hill, ⁸so that He may set him with princes,
even with the princes of His people.
- ⁹He causes the barren woman to keep house,
a joyful mother of children.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 114

- ¹When Israel went out of Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
²Judah was His sanctuary,
and Israel was His kingdom.
- ³The sea saw it and fled;
Jordan was driven back.
- ⁴The mountains skipped like rams,
and the little hills like lambs.
- ⁵What ailed you, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you were driven back?
- ⁶You mountains, that you skipped like rams;
and you little hills like lambs?
- ⁷Earth, tremble at the presence of the
LORD,
at the presence of the God of Jacob, ⁸who turned the rock into a standing
water,
the flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM 115

- ¹Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
but unto Thy name give glory,
for Thy mercy and for Thy truth's
sake.
- ²Why should the heathen say,
Where now is their God?
- ³But our God is in the heavens;
He has done whatever He has pleased.
- ⁴Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
- ⁵They have mouths, but they do not
speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;
⁶they have ears, but they do not hear;
they have noses, but they do not smell;
- ⁷they have hands, but they do not handle;
they have feet, but they do not walk;
neither do they mutter through their throat.
- ⁸The ones who make them are like
them;
so is everyone who trusts in them.
- ⁹O Israel, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.
- ¹⁰O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.
- ¹¹You who fear the LORD, trust in the
LORD;
He is their help and their shield.
- ¹²The LORD has been mindful of us;
He will bless us;
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.
- ¹³He will bless those who fear the
the LORD,
both small and great.
- ¹⁴The LORD shall increase you more
and more,
and your children.
- ¹⁵You are blessed of the LORD
who made the heavens and the earth.
- ¹⁶The heavens, even the heavens, are
the LORD's;
but the earth He has given to the
children of men.
- ¹⁷The dead do not praise the LORD,
nor do any who go down into silence.
- ¹⁸But we will bless the LORD
from this time forth and forevermore.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 116

¹I love the LORD, because He has heard
my voice and my prayers.

²Because He has bowed down His ear
unto me,
therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live.

³The sorrows of death hemmed me in,
and the pains of hell took hold upon
me;
I found trouble and sorrow.

⁴Then I called upon the name of the
LORD;
O LORD, I beseech Thee, deliver my
soul.

⁵Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
yea, our God is merciful.

⁶The LORD keeps the simple;
I was brought low, and He helped
me.

⁷Return unto your rest, O my soul;
for the LORD has dealt bountifully
with you.

⁸For Thou hast delivered my soul from
death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from falling.

⁹I will walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.

¹⁰I believed, therefore I have spoken;
I was greatly afflicted;

¹¹I said in my haste,
All men are liars.

¹²What shall I give unto the LORD
for all His benefits toward me?

¹³I will take the cup of salvation,
and call upon the name of the LORD.

¹⁴I will pay my vows unto the LORD
now
in the presence of all His people.

¹⁵Precious in the sight of the LORD
is the death of His saints.

¹⁶O LORD, truly I am Thy servant;
I am Thy servant, and the son of Thy handmaid;
Thou hast loosed my bonds.

¹⁷I will offer to Thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving.

and will call upon the name of the
LORD.

¹⁸I will pay my vows unto the LORD
now

in the presence of all His people,

¹⁹in the courts of the LORD's house,
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 117

¹O praise the LORD, all nations;
praise Him, all people.

²For His merciful kindness is great toward us;
and the truth of the LORD endures
forever.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 118

¹O give thanks unto the LORD; for
He is good;
because His mercy endures forever.

²Let Israel say
that His mercy endures forever.

³Let the house of Aaron say
that His mercy endures forever.

⁴Let those who fear the LORD say
that His mercy endures forever.

⁵I called upon the LORD in sorrow;
the LORD answered me, and set me
in a large place.

⁶The LORD is on my side; I will not fear;

what can man do to me?

⁷The LORD takes my part with those who help me;
therefore I shall see my desire upon those who hate me.

⁸*It is better* to trust in the LORD
than to trust in man.

⁹*It is better* to trust in the LORD
than to trust in princes.

¹⁰All nations hemmed me in,
but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹¹They hemmed me in; yea, they hemmed me in;
but in the name of the LORD I will
destroy them.

- 12They hemmed me in like bees;
they are put out like the fire of thorns;
for in the name of the LORD I will cut them off.
- 13You have thrust hard at me so that I might fall;
but the LORD helped me.
- 14The LORD is my strength and song,
and has become my salvation.
- 15The voice of rejoicing and salvation
is in the tabernacle of the righteous;
the right hand of the LORD does
mighty things.
- 16The right hand of the LORD is lifted
up;
the right hand of the LORD does
mighty things.
- 17I shall not die, but live
and declare the works of the LORD.
- 18The LORD has sorely chastened me;
but He has not given me over unto
death.
- 19Open to me the gates of righteous-
ness;
I will go into them,
and I will praise the LORD,
- 20this gate of the LORD
into which the righteous shall enter.
- 21I will praise Thee; for Thou hast heard me,
and hast become my salvation.
- 22The Stone which the builders refused has become the head of the corner.
- 23This is the LORD's doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24This is the day which the LORD has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.
- 25Save now, I beseech Thee, O LORD; O LORD, I beseech Thee, send blessings now.
- 26Blessed is he who comes in the name
of the LORD;
we have blessed you out of the house
of the LORD.
- 27God is the LORD,
who has shown us light;
tie the sacrifice with cords,
even to the horns of the altar.

- 28Thou art my God, and I will praise
Thee;
Thou art my God, I will praise Thee.
- 29O give thanks unto the LORD; for
He is good;
for His mercy endures forever.

PSALM 119

ALEPH

- 1Blessed are the upright in the way,
who walk in the law of the LORD.
- 2Blessed are they who keep His testimonies,
and who seek Him with the whole
heart.
- 3They also do no iniquity;
they walk in His ways.
- 4Thou hast commanded us
to keep Thy commandments carefully.
- 5O that my ways were directed to keep Thy statutes!
- 6Then I shall not be ashamed,
when I have respect unto all Thy
commandments.
- 7I will praise Thee with uprightness of
heart,
when I have learned Thy righteous judgments
- 8I will keep Thy statutes;
O do not forsake me completely.

BETH

- 9With what shall a young man cleanse
his way?
By taking heed according to Thy
word.
- 10With my whole heart I have sought
Thee;
O let me not wander from Thy commandments.
- 11I have hidden Thy word in my heart,
so that I might not sin against Thee.
- 12Blessed art Thou, O LORD;
teach me Thy statutes.
- 13With my lips I have declared
all the judgments of Thy mouth.
- 14I have rejoiced in the way of Thy testimonies,
as much as in all riches.
- 15I will think upon Thy command-
ments,
and have respect to Thy ways.

¹⁶I will delight myself in Thy statutes;
I will not forget Thy word.

GIMEL

¹⁷Deal bountifully with Thy servant,
that I may live and keep Thy word.

¹⁸Open Thou my eyes,
so that I may behold wonderful things out of Thy law.

¹⁹I am a stranger in the earth;
do not hide Thy commandments from
me.

²⁰My soul breaks for the longing that it has
unto Thy judgments at all times.

²¹Thou hast rebuked the proud who are cursed,
who go astray from Thy command-
ments.

²²Remove cursing and scorn from me;
for I have kept Thy testimonies.

²³Princes also sat and spoke against me;
but Thy servant thought upon Thy statutes.

²⁴Thy testimonies also are my delight and my advisers.

DALETH

²⁵My soul clings to the dust;
give me life according to Thy word.

²⁶I have declared my ways, and Thou didst hear me;
teach me Thy statutes.

²⁷Make me to understand the way of Thy commandments;
so I shall talk of Thy wonderful
works.

²⁸My soul weeps itself away for grief;
strengthen me according to Thy
word.

²⁹Remove from me the way of lying;
and grant me Thy law graciously.

³⁰I have chosen the way of truth;
I have laid Thy judgments before me.

³¹I have stuck to Thy testimonies;
O LORD, do not put me to shame.

³²I will run the way of Thy command-
ments,
when Thou shalt enlarge my heart.

HE

³³O LORD, teach me the way of Thy
statutes;
and I shall keep it unto the end.

³⁴Give me understanding, and I shall keep Thy law;
yea, I shall observe it with my whole
heart.

³⁵Cause me to walk in the path of Thy
commandments;
for I delight in them.

³⁶Bow my heart to Thy testimonies,
and not to unjust gain.

³⁷Turn away my eyes from seeing
vanity;
in Thy way give me life.

³⁸Make Thy word sure to Thy servant,
who is devoted to Thy fear.

³⁹Turn away my shame which I fear;
for Thy judgments are good.

⁴⁰Behold, I have longed after Thy
commandments;
in Thy righteousness give me life.

VAU

⁴¹Let Thy mercies come to me, O
LORD,
even according to Thy salvation,
according to Thy word.

⁴²So I shall have something to answer
him who mocks me;
for I trust in Thy word.

⁴³And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth;
for I have hoped in Thy judgments.

⁴⁴So I shall keep Thy law continually
forever and ever.

⁴⁵And I will always walk in a broad
place;
for I seek Thy commandments.

⁴⁶I will speak of Thy testimonies also before kings,
and will not be ashamed.

⁴⁷And I will delight myself in Thy commandments,
which I have loved.

⁴⁸Also I will lift up my hands to Thy commandments which I have loved;
and I will think upon Thy statutes.

ZAIN

⁴⁹Remember the word unto Thy servant,
upon which Thou hast caused me to hope.

⁵⁰This is my comfort in my affliction;
for Thy word has given me life.

⁵¹The proud have utterly scorned me;
yet I have not turned aside from Thy law.
⁵²I remembered Thy judgments of old,
 O LORD,
 and have comforted myself.
⁵³Horror has taken hold upon me because of the wicked who forsake Thy law.
⁵⁴Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.
⁵⁵I have remembered Thy name, O
 LORD, in the night,
 and have kept Thy law.
⁵⁶This I had,
 because I kept Thy commandments.

CHETH

⁵⁷*Thou art* my portion, O LORD;
 I have said that I would keep Thy
 words.
⁵⁸I looked for Thy favor with my whole
 heart;
 be merciful unto me according to Thy word.
⁵⁹I thought on my ways,
 and turned my feet unto Thy testi-
 monies.
⁶⁰I made haste and did not delay
 to keep Thy commandments.
⁶¹The bands of the wicked have robbed
 me;
but I have not forgotten Thy law.
⁶²At midnight I will rise to give thanks
 unto Thee
 because of Thy righteous judgments.
⁶³I am a companion of all who fear
 Thee,
 and of those who keep Thy commandments.
⁶⁴O LORD, the earth is full of Thy
 mercy;
 teach me Thy statutes.

TETH

⁶⁵Thou hast dealt well with Thy servant, O LORD,
 according to Thy word.
⁶⁶Teach me good judgment and knowledge;
 for I have believed Thy command-
 ments.
⁶⁷Before I was afflicted I went astray;
 but now I have kept Thy word.

⁶⁸Thou art good, and doest good;
 teach me Thy statutes.
⁶⁹The proud have forged a lie against
 me;
but I will keep Thy commandments
 with my whole heart.
⁷⁰Their heart is without feeling, like fat;
but I delight in Thy law.
⁷¹*It is* good for me that I have been afflicted,
 so that I might learn Thy statutes.
⁷²The law of Thy mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver.

JOD

⁷³Thy hands have made me and formed
 me;
 give me understanding so that I may learn Thy commandments.
⁷⁴They who fear Thee will be glad when they see me;
 because I have hoped in Thy word.
⁷⁵I know, O LORD, that Thy judgments
 are right,
 and that Thou hast afflicted me in faithfulness.
⁷⁶I pray Thee, let Thy merciful kindness be for my comfort,
 according to Thy word unto Thy
 servant.
⁷⁷Let Thy tender mercies come unto me
 so that I may live;
 for Thy law is my delight.
⁷⁸Let the proud be ashamed;
 for they twisted my cause with lying;
but I will think upon Thy command-
 ments.
⁷⁹Let those who fear Thee turn to me,
 and those who have known Thy testi-
 monies.
⁸⁰Let my heart be sound in Thy statutes,
 so that I may not be ashamed.

CAPH

⁸¹My soul faints for Thy salvation;
but I hope in Thy word.
⁸²My eyes fail for Thy word, saying,
 When wilt Thou comfort me?
⁸³For I have become like a bottle in the smoke;
yet I do not forget Thy statutes.

- ⁸⁴How many are the days of Thy servant?
When wilt Thou carry out judgment
on those who persecute me?
- ⁸⁵The proud have dug pits for me,
which are not according to Thy law.
- ⁸⁶All Thy commandments are faithful;
they persecute me with lying;
help Thou me.
- ⁸⁷They had almost finished me upon
earth;
but I did not forsake Thy command-
ments.
- ⁸⁸According to Thy loving-kindness
give me life;
so shall I keep the testimony of Thy
mouth.

LAMED

- ⁸⁹Forever, O LORD, Thy word is settled in Heaven.
- ⁹⁰Thy faithfulness is unto all generations;
Thou hast founded the earth, and it remains.
- ⁹¹They stand unto this day according to Thy ordinances;
for all are Thy servants.
- ⁹²Unless Thy law had been my delight,
I should then have perished in my
affliction.
- ⁹³I will never forget Thy command-
ments;
for with them Thou hast given me
life.
- ⁹⁴I am Thine, save me;
for I have sought Thy command-
ments.
- ⁹⁵The wicked have waited for me to destroy me;
but I will think upon Thy testi-
monies.
- ⁹⁶I have seen an end of all perfection;
but Thy commandment is exceeding broad.

MEM

- ⁹⁷O how I love Thy law!
It is my prayer all the day.
- ⁹⁸Through Thy commandments Thou hast made me wiser than my
enemies;
for they are ever with me.

- ⁹⁹I have more understanding than all
my teachers;
for Thy testimonies are my prayer.
- ¹⁰⁰I understand more than the old men,
because I keep Thy commandments.
- ¹⁰¹I have kept my feet from every evil
way,
so that I might keep Thy word.
- ¹⁰²I have not departed from Thy judg-
ments;
for Thou hast taught me.
- ¹⁰³How sweet are Thy words to my taste!
Yea, sweeter than honey to my
mouth!
- ¹⁰⁴Through Thy commandments I get
understanding;
therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

- ¹⁰⁵Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,
and a light unto my path.
- ¹⁰⁶I have sworn, and I will do it,
that I will keep Thy righteous judg-
ments.
- ¹⁰⁷I am afflicted very much;
O LORD, give me life according to Thy word.
- ¹⁰⁸I pray Thee, take the free-will offerings of my mouth, O LORD,
and teach me Thy judgments.
- ¹⁰⁹My life is in my hand daily;
yet I do not forget Thy law.
- ¹¹⁰The wicked have laid a snare for me;
yet I do not go astray from Thy
commandments.
- ¹¹¹I have taken Thy testimonies as an inheritance forever;
for they are the rejoicing of my heart.
- ¹¹²I have bowed down my heart to do Thy statutes always,
even unto the end.

SAMECH

- ¹¹³I hate doubting thoughts;
but Thy law do I love.
- ¹¹⁴Thou art my hiding-place and my
shield;
I hope in Thy word.
- ¹¹⁵Depart from me, you evil-doers;
for I will keep the commandments of my God.
- ¹¹⁶Uphold me according to Thy word,
that I may live;

and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

¹¹⁷Hold me up, and I shall be safe;
and I will always have respect unto Thy statutes.

¹¹⁸Thou hast trampled all those who go astray from Thy statutes;
for their deceit is falsehood.

¹¹⁹Thou dost put away all the wicked
of the earth like waste;
therefore I love Thy testimonies.

¹²⁰My flesh trembles in fear of Thee;
and I am afraid of Thy judgments.

AIN

¹²¹I have done judgments and justice;
leave me not to those who crush me.

¹²²Be surety for Thy servant;
let not the proud press me down.

¹²³My eyes fail for Thy salvation, and for the word of Thy righteous-
ness.

¹²⁴Deal with Thy servant according to Thy mercy,
and teach me Thy statutes.

¹²⁵I am Thy servant; give me understanding,
that I may know Thy testimonies.

¹²⁶*It is time for the LORD to work;*
for they have broken Thy law.

¹²⁷Therefore I love Thy commandments above gold;
yea, above fine gold.

¹²⁸Therefore I count all Thy commandments concerning all things to be right;
and I hate every false way.

PE

¹²⁹Thy testimonies are wonderful;
therefore my soul keeps them.

¹³⁰The entrance of Thy words gives light;
it gives understanding to the simple.

¹³¹I opened my mouth and panted;
for I longed for Thy commandments.

¹³²Look upon me, and be merciful unto
me,
as Thou dost usually do unto those who love Thy name.

¹³³Order my steps in Thy word;
and do not let any iniquity rule over
me.

¹³⁴Deliver me from the harshness of
man;

so I will keep Thy commandments.

¹³⁵Make Thy face to shine upon Thy
servant;

and teach me Thy statutes.

¹³⁶Rivers of water run down my eyes,
because they do not keep Thy law.

TZADDI

¹³⁷Thou art righteous, O LORD,
and Thy judgments are upright.

¹³⁸Thy testimonies that Thou hast commanded
are righteous and very faithful.

¹³⁹My zeal has eaten me up,
because my enemies have forgotten Thy words.

¹⁴⁰Thy word is very pure;
therefore Thy servant loves it.

¹⁴¹I am small and despised;
yet I do not forget Thy command-
ments.

¹⁴²Thy righteousness is an everlasting
righteousness,
and Thy law is the truth.

¹⁴³Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me;
yet Thy commandments are my delights.

¹⁴⁴The righteousness of Thy testimonies is everlasting;
give me understanding, and I shall live.

KOPH

¹⁴⁵I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD;

I will keep Thy statutes.

¹⁴⁶I cried unto Thee; save me,
and I shall keep Thy testimonies.

¹⁴⁷I went before the dawning of the morning and cried;
I hoped in Thy word.

¹⁴⁸My eyes go before the night watches,
so that I might think upon Thy word.

¹⁴⁹Hear my voice according to Thy loving-kindness;
O LORD, according to Thy judgment give me life.

¹⁵⁰They draw near, those who follow
after wickedness;
they are far from Thy law.

¹⁵¹Thou art near, O LORD,
and all Thy commandments are truth.
¹⁵²Concerning Thy testimonies,
I have known of old that Thou hast founded them forever.

RESH

¹⁵³Look upon my affliction, and deliver
me;
for I do not forget Thy law.
¹⁵⁴Plead my cause, and deliver me;
according to Thy word give me life.
¹⁵⁵Salvation is far from the wicked;
for they do not seek Thy statutes.
¹⁵⁶Great are Thy tender mercies, O
LORD;
according to Thy judgments give me
life.
¹⁵⁷Many are my persecutors and my
enemies;
yet I do not turn aside from Thy testi-
monies.
¹⁵⁸I saw the traitors, and was grieved
because they did not keep Thy word.
¹⁵⁹See how I love Thy commandments;
O LORD, according to Thy loving-kindness give me life.
¹⁶⁰Thy word is true from the beginning;
and every one of Thy righteous judgments endures forever.

SCHIN

¹⁶¹Princes have persecuted me without
a cause;
but my heart stands in fear of Thy
word.
¹⁶²I rejoice at Thy word,
as one who finds great spoil.
¹⁶³I hate and despise lying;
but I love Thy law.
¹⁶⁴I praise Thee seven times a day
because of Thy righteous judgments.
¹⁶⁵They have great peace, those who have Thy law;
and nothing shall offend them.
¹⁶⁶LORD, I have hoped for Thy salvation,
and have done Thy commandments.
¹⁶⁷My soul has kept Thy testimonies;
and I love them very much.
¹⁶⁸I have kept Thy commandments and Thy testimonies;
for all my ways are before Thee.

TAU

¹⁶⁹Let my cry come near before Thee,
O LORD;
give me understanding according to Thy word.
¹⁷⁰Let my prayer come before Thee;
deliver me according to Thy word.
¹⁷¹My lips shall utter praise, when Thou hast taught me Thy
statutes.
¹⁷²My tongue shall speak of Thy word;
for all Thy commandments are righteousness.
¹⁷³Let Thy hand help me;
for I have chosen Thy command-
ments.
¹⁷⁴I have longed for Thy salvation, O
LORD;
and Thy law is my delight.
¹⁷⁵Let my soul live, and it shall praise
Thee;
and let Thy judgments help me.
¹⁷⁶I have gone astray like a lost sheep;
seek Thy servant;
for I do not forget Thy command-
ments.

PSALM 120

A Song of degrees.

¹In my trouble I cried to the LORD,
and He heard me.
²Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying
lips
and from a deceitful tongue.
³What shall be given to you?
Or what shall be done to you,
you false tongue?
⁴Sharp arrows of the mighty,
with coals of juniper.
⁵Woe is me, that I live in Mē'-sēch,
that I dwell in the tents of Kē'-dār!
⁶My soul has long dwelt with him
who hates peace.
⁷I am for peace;
but when I speak,
they are for war.

PSALM 121

A Song of degrees.

¹I will lift up my eyes unto the hills.
Where shall my help come from?

²My help comes from the LORD,
who made Heaven and earth.

³He will not allow your foot to be moved;

He who keeps you will not slumber.

⁴Behold, He who keeps Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep.

⁵The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade
upon your right hand.

⁶The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

⁷The LORD shall keep you from all
evil;

He shall keep your soul.

⁸The LORD shall keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore.

PSALM 122

A Song of degrees; of David.

¹I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go into the house of the
LORD.

²Our feet shall stand within your gates,
O Jerusalem.

³Jerusalem is built like a city
that is all joined together as one;

⁴where the tribes go up,
the tribes of the LORD,
unto the testimony of Israel,
to give thanks unto the name of the
LORD.

⁵For there are thrones of judgment set,
the thrones of the house of David.

⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem;
those who love you shall be blessed.

⁷Peace be within your walls,
and blessings within your palaces.

⁸For my brothers and companions'
sakes,

I will now say, Peace be within you.

⁹Because of the house of the LORD our
God

I will seek your good.

PSALM 123

A Song of degrees.

¹Unto Thee I lift up my eyes,
O Thou who dwellest in the heavens.

²Behold, as the eyes of servants
look to the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden
to the hand of her mistress;
so our eyes wait upon the LORD our
God,
until He shall have mercy upon us.

³Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us;
for we are exceedingly filled with scorn.

⁴Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those who are at ease,
and with the scorn of the proud.

PSALM 124

A Song of degrees; of David.

¹If it had not been the LORD who was
on our side,
O may Israel say;

²If it had not been the LORD who was
on our side,
when men rose up against us, ³then they would have swallowed us up alive,
when their wrath was kindled against
us;

⁴then the waters would have flowed
over us,
the stream would have gone over our
soul;

⁵then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.

⁶Blessed be the LORD,
who has not given us
as a prey to their teeth.

⁷Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers;
the snare is broken,
and we have escaped.

⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD,
who made Heaven and earth.

PSALM 125

A Song of degrees.

- ¹They who trust in the LORD shall be like Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but remains forever.
- ²As the mountains are all around Jerusalem,
so the LORD is all around His people from this time even forever.
- ³For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous;
lest the righteous put forth
their hands to iniquity.
- ⁴Do good, O LORD, unto those who are good,
and to those who are upright in their hearts.
- ⁵As for those who turn aside unto their crooked ways,
the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity;
but peace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM 126

A Song of degrees.

- ¹When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion,
we were like those who dream.
- ²Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with singing;
then they said among the heathen,
The LORD has done great things for them,
- ³The LORD has done great things for us,
and we are glad.
- ⁴Turn again our captivity, O LORD,
as the streams in the south.
- ⁵Those who sow in tears
shall reap in joy.
- ⁶He who goes forth and weeps,
bearing precious seed,
shall doubtless come again with rejoicing,
bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALM 127

A Song of degrees for Solomon.

- ¹Unless the LORD builds the house,
they labor in vain who build it;
unless the LORD keeps the city,
the watchman stays awake in vain.
- ²*It is* vain for you to rise up early,
to sit up late,
to eat the bread of sorrows;
for so He gives His beloved sleep.
- ³Lo, children are by the will of the LORD,
and the fruit of the womb is His reward.
- ⁴As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
so are children of the young men.
- ⁵Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;
they shall not be ashamed,
but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

PSALM 128

A Song of degrees.

- ¹Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD,
who walks in His ways.
- ²For you shall eat the labor of your hands;
you shall be happy, and it shall be well with you.
- ³Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine by the sides of your house;
your children shall be like olive plants around your table.
- ⁴Behold, so shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD.
- ⁵The LORD shall bless you out of Zion;
and you shall see the good of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.
- ⁶Yea, you shall see your children's children
and peace upon Israel.

PSALM 129

A Song of degrees.

- ¹Many times they have afflicted me
from my youth,
Israel may now say;
²many times they have afflicted me
from my youth;
yet they have not won over me.
³The plowers plowed upon my back;
they made their furrows long.
⁴The LORD is righteous;
He has cut the cords of the wicked
in two.
⁵Let them all be ashamed and turned back,
those who hate Zion.
⁶Let them be like the grass upon the housetops,
which dries up before it grows up, ⁷with which the mower does not fill his
hand,
nor the binder of sheaves his bosom.
⁸Neither have those who pass by ever
said,
The blessing of the LORD be upon
you;
we bless you in the name of the
LORD.

PSALM 130

A Song of degrees.

- ¹Out of the depths I have cried unto
Thee, O LORD.
²Lord, hear my voice;
and let Thy ears listen
to the voice of My prayers.
³O LORD, if iniquities were marked by Thee,
O Lord, who could stand?
⁴But there is forgiveness with Thee,
that Thou mayest be feared.
⁵I wait for the LORD,
my soul waits, and in His word I
hope.
⁶My soul waits for the LORD
more than those who watch for the
morning;
more than those who watch for the
morning.

- ⁷Let Israel hope in the LORD;
for with the LORD there is mercy,
and with Him is plentiful redemption.
⁸And He shall redeem Israel
from all his iniquities.

PSALM 131

A Song of degrees of David.

- ¹LORD, my heart is not proud, nor my eyes lofty;
neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for
me.
²Surely I have behaved and have quieted my soul,
as a child that is weaned by its
mother;
my soul is even like a weaned child.
³Let Israel hope in the LORD
from this moment and forever.

PSALM 132

A Song of degrees.

- ¹LORD, remember David
and all his afflictions, ²how he swore unto the LORD and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob.
³Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house,
nor go up into my bed;
⁴I will not give sleep to my eyes,
or slumber to my eyelids, ⁵until I find out a place for the LORD,
a dwelling-place for the mighty God
of Jacob.
⁶Lo, we heard of it at Eph^{ra}-rā-tāh;
we found it in the fields of the wood.
⁷We will go into His tabernacles;
we will worship at His footstool.
⁸Arise, O LORD, into Thy rest;
Thou, and the ark of Thy strength.
⁹Let Thy priests be clothed with right-
eousness;
and let Thy saints shout for joy.

¹⁰For Thy servant David's sake, turn not away the face of Thy
anointed.

¹¹The LORD has sworn to David in
truth;
He will not turn from it;
Of the fruit of your body
I will set upon your throne.

¹²If your children will keep My covenant
and My testimony that I shall teach
them,
their children shall also sit upon your throne forevermore.

¹³The LORD has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for His dwelling-
place.

¹⁴This is My rest forever;
here I will dwell;
for I have desired it.

¹⁵I will greatly bless her hunting;
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

¹⁶I also will clothe her priests with
salvation;
and her saints shall shout aloud for
joy.

¹⁷There I will make the horn of David
to bud;
I have prepared a lamp for My
anointed.

¹⁸I will clothe his enemies with shame;
but his crown shall shine upon himself.

PSALM 133

A Song of degrees of David.

¹Behold, how good and how pleasant
it is for brothers to dwell together in unity!

²*It is* like the precious ointment upon
the head,
that ran down upon the beard,
even Aaron's beard;
that went down to the skirts of his garments;

³like the dew of Hermon
and like the dew that came down
upon the mountains of Zion;
for there the LORD commanded the blessing,
even life forevermore.

PSALM 134

A Song of degrees.

¹Behold, bless the LORD,
all you servants of the LORD, who stand by night in the house of
the LORD.

²Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
and bless the LORD.

³*May* the LORD, who made Heaven
and earth,
bless you out of Zion.

PSALM 135

¹Praise the LORD.
Praise the name of the LORD;
praise Him, O you servants of the
LORD.

²You who stand in the house of the
LORD,
in the courts of the house of our God, ³praise the LORD; for the LORD is
good;
sing praises unto His name, for it is full of delight.

⁴For the LORD has chosen Jacob unto Himself,
and Israel for His peculiar treasure.

⁵For I know that the LORD is great,
and that our LORD is above all gods.

⁶Whatever the LORD pleased, that He did in the heavens and in
earth,
and in the seas and all deep places.

⁷He causes the vapors to go up from the ends of the earth;
He makes lightnings for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His treasuries.

⁸*He* who struck the first-born of Egypt,
both of man and animal;

⁹*who* sent signs and wonders
into the midst of you, O Egypt,
upon Pharaoh and upon all his servants;

¹⁰who struck great nations
and killed mighty kings,

¹¹Si'-hön king of the Amorites,
and Og king of Bā'-shān,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan,

- ¹²and gave their land for an inheritance,
an inheritance to Israel His people.
- ¹³Thy name, O LORD, endures forever,
and Thy memorial, O LORD,
throughout all generations.
- ¹⁴For the LORD will judge His people,
and He will comfort Himself concerning His servants.
- ¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
- ¹⁶They have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;
¹⁷they have ears, but they do not hear;
neither is there any breath in their mouths.
- ¹⁸Those who make them are like them;
so is everyone who trusts in them.
- ¹⁹Bless the LORD, O house of Israel;
bless the LORD, O house of Aaron;
- ²⁰bless the LORD, O house of Levi;
you who fear the LORD, bless the LORD.
- ²¹Blessed be the LORD out of Zion,
who dwells at Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 136

- ¹O give thanks unto the LORD; for He
is good;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ²O give thanks unto the God of gods;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ³O give thanks to the Lord of lords;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ⁴To Him who alone does great wonders;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ⁵To Him who by wisdom made the heavens;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ⁶To Him who stretched out the earth
above the waters;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ⁷To Him who made great lights;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ⁸The sun to rule by day;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ⁹the moon and stars to rule by night;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ¹⁰To Him who struck Egypt in their first-born;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ¹¹and brought Israel out from among
them;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ¹²with a strong hand, and a stretched out arm;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ¹³To Him who divided the Red Sea into parts;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ¹⁴and made Israel to pass through the middle of it;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ¹⁵but threw Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ¹⁶To Him who led His people through the wilderness;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ¹⁷To Him who struck great kings;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ¹⁸and killed famous kings;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ¹⁹Sî'-hôn king of the Amorites;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ²⁰and Og, the king of Bâ'-shân;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ²¹and gave their land for an inheritance;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ²²*even* an inheritance to Israel His servant;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ²³Who remembered us in our low estate;
for His mercy endures forever;
- ²⁴and has redeemed us from our enemies;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ²⁵Who gives food to all flesh;
for His mercy endures forever.
- ²⁶O give thanks unto the God of Heaven;
for His mercy endures forever.

PSALM 137

- ¹By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat
down;
yea, we wept when we remembered
Zion.

²We hung our harps upon the willows
in the midst of it.

³For there those who carried us away captive

demand a song from us;
and those who laid us in heaps de- manded gladness, saying,
Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

⁴How shall we sing the LORD's song
in a strange land?

⁵If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
let my right hand forget its skill.

⁶If I do not remember you, let my tongue cling to the roof of my
mouth;
if I do not prefer Jerusalem
above my chief joy.

⁷Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom

in the day of Jerusalem;
who said, Make it bare!
Make it bare, even to the foundation
of it!

⁸O daughter of Babylon, who is to be destroyed;

he shall be happy to reward you
as you have done to us.

⁹*He* shall be happy who takes and dashes your little ones against the stones.

PSALM 138

A Psalm of David.

¹I will praise Thee with my whole
heart;
before the gods I will sing praise unto
Thee.

²I will worship toward Thy holy temple, and praise Thy name for Thy loving-kindness and for Thy truth's sake;
for Thou hast magnified Thy word
above all Thy name.

³In the day when I cried, Thou didst
answer me
and strengthen me with strength in
my soul.

⁴All the kings of the earth shall praise
Thee, O LORD,
when they hear the words of Thy
mouth.

⁵Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD;

for great is the glory of the LORD.

⁶Though the LORD is high, yet He has respect to the lowly;
but the proud He knows afar off.

⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
Thou wilt give me life;

Thou shalt stretch forth Thy hand
against the wrath of my enemies,
and Thy right hand shall save me.

⁸The LORD will perfect that which concerns me;

Thy mercy, O LORD, endures for-
ever;
do not forsake the work of Thy own
hands.

PSALM 139

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹O LORD, Thou hast searched me
and hast known me.

²Thou dost know my sitting down and
my rising up;
Thou dost understand my thought
afar off.

³Thou dost search my path and my lying down,
and art acquainted with all my ways.

⁴For there is not a word in my tongue,
but, lo, O LORD, Thou dost know it altogether.

⁵Thou hast closed me in behind and in front,
and laid Thy hand upon me.

⁶*Such* knowledge is too wonderful for
me;
it is high, I cannot go up to it.

⁷Where shall I go from Thy Spirit?
Or where shall I flee from Thy presence?

⁸If I go up into Heaven, Thou art
there;
if I make my bed in hell, behold,
Thou art there.

⁹If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the furthest parts of the
sea;

¹⁰even there shall Thy hand lead me,
and Thy right hand shall hold me.

¹¹If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me,
even the night shall be light around me.

¹²Yea, the darkness does not hide from Thee;
but the night shines as the day;
as is the darkness, so is the light unto Thee.

¹³For Thou hast possessed my inward parts;
Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

¹⁴I will praise Thee;
for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
Thy works are marvelous,
and my soul knows it very well.

¹⁵My bones were not hidden from Thee when I was made in secret and skillfully formed in the lowest parts of the earth.

¹⁶Thy eyes did see my unformed bones;
and in Thy book all my members were written,
even the days they were formed,
when as yet there was none of them.

¹⁷How precious also are Thy thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!

¹⁸If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand;
when I awake, I am still with Thee.

¹⁹Surely Thou wilt slay the wicked, O God;
depart from me therefore, you bloody men.

²⁰For they speak against Thee wickedly,
and Thy enemies take Thy name in vain..

²¹O LORD, do I not hate those who hate Thee?
And am I not grieved with those who rise up against Thee?

²²I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.

²³Search me, O God, and know my heart;

try me, and know my thoughts,

²⁴and see if any wicked way is in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM 140

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

¹Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man;

keep me from the violent man;

²who imagines mischiefs in his heart;
they are always gathered together for war.

³They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent;

adders' poison is under their lips.

Sē'-lāh.

⁴O LORD, keep me from the hands of the wicked;

keep me from the violent man;

these have purposed to overthrow my steps.

⁵The proud have hidden a snare for me, and cords;

they have spread a net by the way-side;

they have set snares for me.

Sē'-lāh.

⁶I said to the LORD, Thou art my God;
hear the voice of my prayers, O LORD.

⁷O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation,

Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

⁸O LORD, do not grant the desires of the wicked;

do not help his wicked plans, lest they praise themselves.

Sē'-lāh.

⁹As for the head of those who hem me in,

let the evil of their own lips cover them.

¹⁰Let burning coals fall upon them;

let them be cast into the fire;

into deep pits, so that they may not rise up again.

¹¹Do not let an evil speaker be established in the earth;

evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

- ¹²I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted and the right of the poor.
- ¹³Surely the righteous shall give thanks
unto Thy name;
the upright shall dwell in Thy presence.

PSALM 141

- ¹LORD, I cry unto Thee; make haste
unto me;
give ear unto my voice when I cry
unto Thee.
- ²Let my prayer be set forth before Thee
as incense,
and the lifting up of my hands as
the evening sacrifice.
- ³Set a watch, O LORD, before my
mouth;
keep the door of my lips.
- ⁴Let not my heart turn aside to any
evil thing,
to practice wicked works with men
who work iniquity;
and let me not eat of their delights.
- ⁵Let the righteous strike me; it shall be
a kindness;
and let him correct me; let not my head refuse such excellent oil;
for still my prayer also shall be because of their wickedness.
- ⁶When their judges are overthrown in stony places,
they shall hear my words;
for they are sweet.
- ⁷Our bones are scattered at the grave's
mouth,
as when one cuts and splits wood
upon the earth.
- ⁸But my eyes are upon Thee, O God
the Lord;
in Thee is my trust, do not leave my soul naked.
- ⁹Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me,
and the snares of the workers of evil.
- ¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own
nets,
while I escape.

PSALM 142

Maschil of David; A Prayer when he was in
the cave.

- ¹I cried unto the LORD with my voice;
with my voice I prayed unto the
LORD.
- ²I poured out my prayer before Him;
I declared my trouble before Him.
- ³When my spirit became weak within
me,
then Thou didst know my path.
- In the way in which I walked
they have secretly laid a snare for me.
- ⁴I looked on my right hand, and I watched,
but there was no man who would know me;
escape was lost to me;
no man cared for my soul.

- ⁵I cried unto Thee, O LORD;
I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
- ⁶Hear my cry;
for I am brought very low;
deliver me from those who pursue me;
for they are stronger than I.
- ⁷Bring my soul out of prison
so that I may praise Thy name;
the righteous shall gather around me;
for Thou shalt deal bountifully with
me.

PSALM 143

A Psalm of David.

- ¹Hear my prayer, O LORD; give ear to
my prayers;
in Thy faithfulness and in Thy righteousness answer me.
- ²And do not enter into judgment with Thy servant
for in Thy sight no man living shall be justified.
- ³For the enemy has pursued my soul;
he has beaten my life down to the ground;

- he has made me dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.
- ⁴Therefore my spirit has become weak within me;
my heart has become weary within me.
- ⁵I remember the days of old;
I think upon all Thy works;
I would speak on the work of Thy hands.
- ⁶I stretch forth my hands unto Thee;
my soul thirsts after Thee like a thirsty land.
- Sê'-läh.
- ⁷Hear me quickly, O LORD;
my spirit fails;
do not hide Thy face from me,
lest I be like those who go down into the pit.
- ⁸Cause me to hear Thy loving-kindness in the morning;
for I do trust in Thee;
cause me to know the way in which I should walk;
for I lift up my soul to Thee.
- ⁹Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies;
I flee unto Thee to hide me.
- ¹⁰Teach me to do Thy will;
for Thou art my God;
Thy Spirit is good;
lead me into the land of uprightness.
- ¹¹O LORD, for Thy name's sake make me live;
for Thy righteousness' sake, bring my soul out of trouble.
- ¹²And out of Thy mercy cut off my enemies,
and destroy all those who afflict my soul;
for I am Thy servant.
- PSALM 144
- A Psalm of David.
- ¹Blessed be the LORD my strength,
who teaches my hands to war and my fingers to fight.
- ²*He is* my goodness and my fortress;
my high tower and my deliverer;
my shield and he in whom I trust;
who humbles my people under me.
- ³LORD, what is man that Thou dost take knowledge of him!
Or the son of man, that Thou dost think anything of him!
- ⁴Man is like vanity;
his days are like a shadow that passes away.
- ⁵Bow down Thy heavens, O LORD, and come down;
touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
- ⁶Cast forth lightning and scatter them;
shoot out Thy arrows and destroy them.
- ⁷Send Thy hand from above;
rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
from the hand of strange children;
- ⁸because their mouth has spoken vanity,
and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
- ⁹I will sing a new song unto Thee, O God;
upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings I will sing praises unto Thee.
- ¹⁰*It is He* who gives salvation to kings;
who delivers David His servant from the hurtful sword.
- ¹¹Rescue me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, because their mouth has spoken vanity,
and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood;
- ¹²*so* that our sons may be like plants grown up in their youth;
so that our daughters may be like corner-stones, polished like a palace;
- ¹³*so that* our garners may be full,
pouring out one kind and another;
so that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets;

- ¹⁴so that our oxen may be strong to labor;
 so that there may be no breaking in nor going out;
 so that there may be no crying in our streets.
- ¹⁵Happy is that people who is in such a state;
 happy is that people whose God is the LORD.

PSALM 145

- ¹I will lift Thee up, my God, O King;
 and I will bless Thy name forever and ever.
- ²Every day I will bless Thee;
 and I will praise Thy name forever and ever.
- ³Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
 and there is no searching out His greatness.
- ⁴One generation shall praise Thy works to another,
 and shall declare Thy mighty acts.
- ⁵I will speak of the glorious honor of Thy majesty,
 and of Thy wonderful works.
- ⁶And men shall speak of the might of Thy fearful acts;
 and I will declare Thy greatness.
- ⁷They shall pour forth the memory of Thy great goodness,
 and shall sing of Thy righteousness.
- ⁸The LORD is gracious and full of pity;
 slow to anger, and of great mercy.
- ⁹The LORD is good to all;
 and His tender mercies are over all His works.
- ¹⁰All Thy works shall praise Thee, O LORD;
 and Thy saints shall bless Thee.
- ¹¹They shall speak of the glory of Thy kingdom
 and talk of Thy power, ¹²to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts,
 and the glorious majesty of His kingdom.
- ¹³Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

and Thy rule endures throughout all generations.

- ¹⁴The LORD upholds all who fall,
 and raises up all those who are bowed down.
- ¹⁵The eyes of all wait upon Thee;
 and Thou dost give them their food in due season.
- ¹⁶Thou dost open Thy hand
 and dost satisfy the desire of every living thing.
- ¹⁷The LORD is righteous in all His ways
 and holy in all His works.
- ¹⁸The LORD is near all those who call upon Him,
 all those who call upon Him in truth.
- ¹⁹He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him;
 he also will hear their cry, and will save them.
- ²⁰The LORD preserves all those who love Him;
 but all the wicked He will destroy.
- ²¹My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD;
 and let all flesh bless His holy name forever and ever.

PSALM 146

- ¹Praise the LORD.
 Praise the LORD, O my soul.
- ²While I live I will praise the LORD;
 I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.
- ³Do not put your trust in princes,
 nor in the son of man in whom there is no help.
- ⁴His breath goes forth; he returns to the earth;
 in that very day his thoughts perish.
- ⁵Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
 whose help is in the LORD his God, ⁶who made heaven and earth,
 the sea and all that is in it;
 who keeps truth forever;
⁷who carries out judgment for the mistreated;
 who gives food to the hungry.

The LORD lets the prisoners loose;
 8the Lord opens the eyes of the blind;
 the LORD raises those who are bowed
 down;

the LORD loves the righteous;
 9the LORD preserves the strangers;
 He relieves the orphan and widow;
 but the way of the wicked He turns upside down.

10The LORD shall reign forever,
even your God, O Zion, unto all generations.
 Praise the LORD.

PSALM 147

1Praise the LORD;
 for it is good to sing praises unto our
 God;
 for praise is delightful and becoming.

2The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
 He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.

3He heals the broken-hearted,
 and binds up their wounds.

4He adds up the number of the stars;
 He calls them all by their names.

5Great is our LORD, and of great
 power;
 His understanding cannot be told.

6The LORD lifts up the meek;
 He throws the wicked down to the
 ground.

7Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving;
 sing praise upon the harp unto our
 God,

8who covers the heavens with clouds,
 who prepares rain for the earth,
 who makes grass to grow upon the
 mountains.

9He gives the beast its food,
and to the young ravens which cry.

10He delights not in the strength of the horse;
 He takes no pleasure in the legs of a
 man.

11The LORD takes pleasure in those
 who fear Him,
 who hope in His mercy.

12Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem;
 praise your God, O Zion.

13For He has made the bars of your gates strong;
 He has blessed your children within
 you.

14He makes peace in your borders and fills you with the finest of the wheat.

15He sends forth His commandment
upon earth;

His word runs very swiftly.

16He gives snow like wool;
 He scatters the hoar-frost like ashes.

17He casts forth His ice like crumbs;
 who can stand before His cold?

18He sends out His word and melts
 them;

He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19He shows His word to Jacob,
 His statutes and His judgments to Israel.

20He has not done so with any nation;
 and they have not known His judg-
 ments.

Praise the LORD.

PSALM 148

1Praise the LORD.
 Praise the LORD from the heavens;
 praise Him in the heights.

2Praise Him, all His angels;
 praise Him, all His hosts.

3Praise Him, sun and moon;
 praise Him, all you stars of light.

4Praise Him, you heavens of heavens, and you waters that are above the
 heavens.

5Let them praise the name of the
 LORD;
 for He commanded, and they were created.

6He has also settled them forever and
 ever;
 He has made a decree which shall not pass away.

7Praise the LORD from the earth
 you sea-monsters,
 and all deeps;

⁸fire and hail, snow and vapor,
stormy wind fulfilling His word,

⁹mountains and all hills,
fruitful trees and all cedars,

¹⁰beasts and all cattle,
creeping things and birds of the wing,

¹¹kings of the earth and all people,
princes and all judges of the earth,

¹²both young men and maidens,
old men and children;

¹³let them praise the name of the
LORD;
for His name alone is excellent;
His glory is above the earth and
heavens.

¹⁴He also lifts up the horn of His people,
the praise of all His saints,
even of the children of Israel, a people near to Him.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 149

¹Praise the LORD.
Sing to the LORD a new song,
and His praise in the congregation of saints.

²Let Israel rejoice in Him who made
him;
let the children of Zion be joyful in
their king.

³Let them praise His name in the dance;
let them sing praises to Him with the timbrel and harp.

⁴For the LORD takes pleasure in His
people;

He will beautify the meek with salvation.

⁵Let the saints be joyful in glory;
let them sing aloud upon their beds.

⁶Let the high praises of God be in their
mouth,

⁷and a two-edged sword in their hand,
to carry out vengeance upon the heathen

and punishments upon the people, ⁸to bind their kings with chains
and their nobles with chains of iron,

⁹to carry out upon them the judgment
written;

this is an honor for all His saints.
Praise the LORD.

PSALM 150

¹Praise the LORD.
Praise God in His sanctuary;
praise Him in the expanse of His
power.

²Praise Him for His mighty acts;
praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

³Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet;
praise Him with the psaltery and harp.

⁴Praise Him with the timbrel and dance;
praise Him with stringed instruments
and organs.

⁵Praise Him upon the loud cymbals;
praise Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

⁶Let everything that has breath praise
the LORD.
Praise the LORD.

The Book of PROVERBS

CHAPTER 1

- ¹The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;
- ²to know wisdom and instruction;
to recognize the words of understanding;
- ³to receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and uprightness;
- ⁴to give sense to the simple, knowledge and judgment to the young man.
- ⁵A wise man shall hear, and will increase learning;
and a man of understanding shall get wisdom.
- ⁶to understand a proverb and the meaning of it;
the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.
- ⁷The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge;
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.
- ⁸My son, hear the instruction of your father,
and forsake not the law of your mother;
- ⁹for they shall be an ornament of grace to your head
and chains around your neck.
- ¹⁰My son, if sinners lure you,
do not be willing.
- ¹¹If they say, Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood,
we will watch secretly for the innocent without cause—
- ¹²let us swallow them up alive as the grave,
and whole, as those who go down into the pit;
- ¹³we shall find all precious goods;
we shall fill our houses with spoil;
- ¹⁴cast in your lot among us,
and let us have one purse—
- ¹⁵My son, do not walk in the way with them!
keep your foot back from their path,
- ¹⁶for their feet run to evil
and make haste to shed blood.
- ¹⁷Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.
- ¹⁸And they lie in wait for their own blood;
they watch secretly for their own lives.
- ¹⁹So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain;
who takes away the life of the owners of it.
- ²⁰Wisdom cries outside;
she utters her voice in the streets;
- ²¹she cries in the chief place of gathering, in the openings of the gates;
in the city she utters her words,
saying,
- ²²How long will you love simplicity,
you simple ones?
And how long will the scorners delight in their scorning,
and fools hate knowledge?
- ²³Turn at my warning;
behold, I will pour out my Spirit to you;
I will make my words known unto you.
- ²⁴Because I have called, and you have refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no man paid attention;
- ²⁵but you have despised all my advice,
and would have none of my warning—
- ²⁶I also will laugh at your trouble;
I will mock when your fear comes;
- ²⁷when your fear comes as a wasting away,
and your ruin comes like a whirlwind;
when trouble and pain come upon you.
- ²⁸Then they shall call upon me, and I will not answer;
they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me;
- ²⁹for they hated knowledge
and did not choose the fear of the LORD.
- ³⁰They would have none of my counsel;
they despised all my correction.

- ³¹Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way,
and be filled with their own desires.
³²For the turning away of the simple shall kill them,
and the riches of fools shall destroy
them.
³³But whoever listens to me shall dwell
safely,
and shall be quiet from fear of
evil.

CHAPTER 2

- ¹My son, if you will receive my words
and hide my commandments with
you,
²so that you bow down your ear to
wisdom
and apply your heart to understanding;
³yea, if you cry after knowledge and lift up your voice for understanding;
⁴if you seek her as silver,
and search for her as for hidden treasures — ⁵then you shall understand the fear of
the LORD
and find the knowledge of God.
⁶For the LORD gives wisdom;
out of His mouth come knowledge
and understanding.
⁷He lays up sound wisdom for the
righteous;
He is a shield to those who walk up-
rightly.
⁸He keeps the paths of judgment,
and guards the way of His saints.
⁹Then you shall understand righteousness and judgment and honesty;
yes, every good path.
¹⁰When wisdom enters into your heart, and knowledge is pleasant to your
soul;
¹¹judgment shall keep you,
understanding shall keep you, ¹²to deliver you from the way of the evil man,
from the man who speaks wicked
things;
¹³those who leave the paths of upright-
ness
to walk in the ways of darkness;

- ¹⁴who rejoice to do evil
and delight in the sinfulness of the
wicked;
¹⁵whose ways are crooked,
and who are crooked in their paths.

- ¹⁶*They will* deliver you from the strange
woman,
even the stranger who flatters with
her words,
¹⁷who forsakes the guide of her youth
and forgets the covenant of her God.
¹⁸For her house leads down to death,
and her paths unto the dead.
¹⁹None who go in unto her return again, neither do they take hold of the paths
of life.
²⁰So you may walk in the way of good and keep the paths of the righteous.
²¹For the upright shall dwell in the
land,
and the perfect shall remain in it.
²²But the wicked shall be cut off from
the earth,
and the transgressors shall be rooted
out of it .

CHAPTER 3

- ¹My son, forget not my law;
but let your heart keep my command-
ments;
²for they shall add length of days,
and long life, and peace, to you.
³Let not mercy and truth forsake you;
tie them around your neck;
write them upon the tablet of your
heart;
⁴so you shall find favor and good understanding
in the sight of God and man.
⁵Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not unto your own understanding.
⁶In all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He shall direct your paths.
⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear the LORD and depart from evil.
⁸It shall be health to your navel
and marrow to your bones.

- ⁹Honor the LORD with your substance, and with the first-fruits of all your increase;
- ¹⁰so your barns shall be filled with
plenty,
and your presses shall burst out with new wine.
- ¹¹My son, do not despise the chastening
of the LORD;
neither be weary with His correction;
- ¹²for whom the LORD loves He corrects,
even as a father corrects the son in whom he delights.
- ¹³Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
and the man who gets understanding.
- ¹⁴For the gain from it is better than the gain from silver,
and the gain from it more than fine
gold.
- ¹⁵She is more precious than rubies;
and all the things you can desire are not to be compared with her.
- ¹⁶Length of days is in her right hand;
and in her left hand, riches and honor.
- ¹⁷Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
and all her paths are peace.
- ¹⁸She is a tree of life to those who lay hold upon her;
and happy is everyone who keeps her.
- ¹⁹The LORD has founded the earth by
wisdom;
by understanding He has founded the heavens.
- ²⁰By His knowledge the depths are broken up,
and the clouds drop down the dew.
- ²¹My son, do not let them depart from your eyes;
keep sound wisdom and judgment;
- ²²so they shall be life unto your soul
and grace unto your neck.
- ²³Then you shall walk in your way
safely,
and your foot shall not stumble.
- ²⁴When you lie down, you shall not be afraid;
yea, you shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet.
- ²⁵Do not be afraid of sudden fear,
nor of the destroying of the wicked,
when it comes.
- ²⁶For the LORD shall be your hope,
and shall keep your foot from being taken.
- ²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in the power of your hand
to do it.
- ²⁸Do not say to your neighbor, Go and
come back again,
and tomorrow I will give; when you have it beside you:
- ²⁹Do not plan evil against your neighbor,
since he dwells trustingly by you.
- ³⁰Do not strive with a man without
cause,
if he has done you no harm.
- ³¹Do not envy the cruel man,
and choose none of his ways.
- ³²For the crooked man is hateful to the
LORD;
but His secret is with the righteous.
- ³³The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked;
but He blesses the home of the just.
- ³⁴Surely He scorns the scorners;
but He gives grace to the lowly.
- ³⁵The wise shall inherit glory;
but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER 4

- ¹Children, hear the instruction of a
father,
and listen in order to know understanding.
- ²For I give you good teaching;
do not forsake my law.
- ³For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight
of my mother.
- ⁴He also taught me, and said to me,
Let your heart hold fast my words,
keep my commandments and live.
- ⁵Get wisdom, get understanding; forget
it not;
neither turn away from the words of
my mouth.

- ⁶Do not forsake her, and she shall keep you;
love her, and she shall keep you.
- ⁷Wisdom is the main thing; therefore get wisdom;
and with all your getting get understanding.
- ⁸Prize her, and she shall lift you up;
she shall bring you to honor when you embrace her.
- ⁹She shall give to your hand an ornament of grace;
a crown of glory she shall deliver to you.
- ¹⁰Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings;
and the years of your life shall be many.
- ¹¹I have taught you in the way of wisdom;
I have led you in the right paths.
- ¹²When you go, your steps shall not be narrowed;
and when you run, you shall not stumble.
- ¹³Take fast hold of instruction; do not let go;
keep her; for she is your life.
- ¹⁴Enter not into the path of the wicked,
and go not into the way of evil men.
- ¹⁵Avoid it; do not pass by it;
turn from it, and pass away!
- ¹⁶For they do not sleep, except when they have done mischief;
and their sleep is taken away unless they cause some to fall.
- ¹⁷For they eat the bread of wickedness
and drink the wine of violence.
- ¹⁸But the path of the just is as the shining light,
that shines more and more unto the perfect day.
- ¹⁹The way of the wicked is as darkness;
they know not at what they stumble.
- ²⁰My son, listen to my words;
bow down your ear to my sayings.
- ²¹Let them not depart from your eyes;
keep them in the midst of your heart.
- ²²For they are life unto those who find them,
and health to all their flesh.
- ²³Keep your heart with all diligence;
for out of it are the issues of life.
- ²⁴Put away from you a wicked mouth,
and wicked lips put far from you.
- ²⁵Let your eyes look right on,
and let your eyelids look straight before you.
- ²⁶Ponder the path of your feet,
and all your ways will be established.
- ²⁷Do not turn to the right hand nor to the left;
remove your foot from evil.

CHAPTER 5

- ¹My son, listen to my wisdom,
and bow your ear to my understanding; ²so that you may keep judgment,
and that your lips may keep knowledge.
- ³For the lips of a strange woman drip honey,
and her mouth is sweeter than oil; ⁴but her end is bitter as wormwood,
sharp as a two-edged sword.
- ⁵Her feet go down to death;
her steps take hold on hell.
- ⁶Lest you should ponder the path of life,
her paths are movable so that you cannot know them.
- ⁷Therefore hear me now, O children,
and do not depart from the words of my mouth.
- ⁸Remove your ways far from her,
and do not come near the door of her house,
- ⁹lest you give your honor to others
and your years to the cruel;
- ¹⁰lest strangers be filled with your wealth,
and your labors be in the house of a stranger;
- ¹¹and you mourn at the last,
when your flesh and body are eaten away,
- ¹²and say, How I have hated instruction,
and my heart despised correction;
- ¹³and I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers nor bowed down my ears to those who taught me!

¹⁴I was almost in all evil
in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

¹⁵Drink waters out of your own cistern,
and running waters out of your own well.

¹⁶Let your overflowing spring be scattered abroad
as rivers of waters in the streets.

¹⁷Let them be only your own,
and not strangers' with you.

¹⁸Let your fountain be blessed,
and rejoice with the wife of your
youth.

¹⁹Like the loving hind and pleasant roe,
let her breasts satisfy you at all times,
and be ravished always with her love.

²⁰And why will you, my son, be ravished with a strange woman,
and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

²¹For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,
and He watches all his paths.

²²His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself,
and he shall be held with the cords
of his sins.

²³He shall die without instruction;
and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER 6

¹My son, if you are surety for your friend,
if you did strike your hand with a stranger,

²you are snared with the words of your
mouth,
you are taken with the words of your
mouth.

³My son, do this now, and deliver yourself
when you have come into the hand
of your friend;
go, humble yourself and make your friend sure.

⁴Do not give sleep to your eyes
nor slumber to your eyelids.

⁵Deliver yourself as a roe from the hand of the hunter,
and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

⁶Go to the ant, sluggard;
consider her ways and be wise;

⁷who, having no guide,
overseer, or ruler,

⁸provides her food in the summer
and gathers her food in the harvest.

⁹How long will you sleep, O sluggard?
When will you arise out of your
sleep?

¹⁰A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep —

¹¹so shall your poverty come as one who travels,
and your want like an armed man.

¹²A naughty person, a wicked man, walks with a crooked mouth.

¹³He winks with his eyes, he speaks with his feet,

he points with his fingers;

¹⁴crookedness is in his heart; he is always planning mischief;

he causes fighting.

¹⁵Therefore his trouble shall come suddenly;

suddenly he shall be broken without healing.

¹⁶These six things the LORD hates;
yea, seven are hateful to Him —

¹⁷a proud look, a lying tongue,
and hands that shed innocent blood,

¹⁸a heart that thinks of wicked plans,
feet that are swift in running to mischief,

¹⁹a false witness who speaks lies,
and he who causes fighting among
brothers.

²⁰My son, keep your father's command-
ments,

and do not forsake the law of your
mother;

²¹bind them upon your heart forever,
and tie them around your neck.

²²When you go, it shall lead you;
when you sleep, it shall keep you;
and when you awake, it shall talk
with you.

²³For the commandment is a lamp; and
the law is light;
and reproofs of instruction are the
way of life;

- ²⁴to keep you from the evil woman,
from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.
- ²⁵Do not lust after her beauty in your
heart;
neither let her take you with her eyelids.
- ²⁶For by means of a harlot a man is brought to a piece of bread;
and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.
- ²⁷Can a man take fire in his bosom,
and his clothes not be burned?
- ²⁸Can one go upon hot coals,
and his feet not be burned?
- ²⁹So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
whoever touches her shall not be
innocent.
- ³⁰*Men* do not despise a thief,
if he steals to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;
- ³¹but if he is found he shall restore
sevenfold;
he shall give all the goods of his
house.
- ³²But whoever commits adultery with
a woman lacks understanding;
he who does it destroys his own soul.
- ³³He shall get a wound and dishonor;
and his shame shall not be wiped
away.
- ³⁴For jealousy is the rage of a man;
therefore he will not spare in the day
of judgment.
- ³⁵He will not take any ransom;
nor will he be willing if you multiply
the gifts.
- CHAPTER 7
- ¹My son, keep my words
and store up my commandments
within you.
- ²Keep my commandments and live;
and keep my law as the apple of your eye.
- ³Bind them upon your fingers;
write them upon the tablets of your
heart.
- ⁴Say unto wisdom, You are my sister;
and call understanding your friend, ⁵so that they may keep you from the
strange woman,
- from the stranger who flatters with
her words.
- ⁶For at the window of my house
I looked through my lattice ⁷and saw among the simple ones,
I saw among the youths
a young man with no understanding, ⁸passing through the street near her corner.
And he went the way to her house, ⁹in the twilight, in the evening,
in the black and dark night;
- ¹⁰and, behold, there a woman met him,
with the dress of a harlot and a guarded heart.
- ¹¹(She is loud and stubborn;
her feet do not stay in her house;
¹²now she is outside, now in the streets,
and lies in wait at every corner.)
- ¹³So she caught him and kissed him,
and with a hard face she said to him, ¹⁴*I have* peace offerings with me;
today I have paid my vows.
- ¹⁵Therefore I came forth to meet you, earnestly to seek your face, and I have found you.
- ¹⁶I have decked my beds with coverings
of tapestry,
with carved work, with fine linen
from Egypt.
- ¹⁷I have perfumed my bed with myrrh,
aloes, and cinnamon.
- ¹⁸Come, let us take our fill of love until
the morning;
let us delight ourselves with caresses.
- ¹⁹For my husband is not at home,
he has gone on a long journey;
²⁰he has taken a bag of money with him and will come home at the day of the full moon.
- ²¹With her much fair speech she caused him to yield,
with the flattering of her lips she forced him.
- ²²He goes after her immediately,
like an ox goes to the slaughter,
or like a fool to the correction of the stocks;
- ²³until a dart strikes through his liver;
as a bird hastens to the snare and does not know that it is for his
life.

- ²⁴Now therefore listen to me, O children,
and attend to the words of my mouth.
²⁵Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways,
do not go astray in her paths.
²⁶For she has cast down many wounded;
yea, many strong men have been slain by her.
²⁷Her house is the way to hell,
going down to the rooms of death.

CHAPTER 8

- ¹Does not wisdom call?
And does not understanding put forth her voice?
²She stands in the top of high places,
by the way in the places of the path.
³She cries in the gates, in the entrance of the city,
at the coming in of the doors.
⁴Unto you, O men, I call;
and my voice is to the sons of man.
⁵O simple, understand wisdom;
and, fools, be of an understanding heart.
⁶Hear; for I will speak of excellent things;
and the opening of my lips shall be right things.
⁷For my mouth shall speak truth;
and wickedness is hateful to my lips.
⁸All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;
there is nothing twisted or perverse in them.
⁹They are all plain to him who understands,
and right to those who find knowledge.
¹⁰Receive my instruction and not silver;
and knowledge rather than choice gold.
¹¹For wisdom is better than rubies;
and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.
¹²I, wisdom, dwell with sense,
and find out knowledge of wise things.
¹³The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
I hate pride, and the love of self, and the evil way,
and the wicked mouth.

- ¹⁴Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom;
I am understanding; I have strength.
¹⁵By me kings reign
and princes decree justice.
¹⁶Princes rule by me, and nobles,
even all the judges of the earth.
¹⁷I love those who love me;
and those who seek me early shall find me.
¹⁸Riches and honor are with me;
yea, enduring riches and righteousness.
¹⁹My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold;
and what I give is better than choice silver.
²⁰I lead in the way of righteousness,
in the midst of the paths of judgment;
²¹so that I may cause those who love me to inherit riches;
and I will fill their treasuries.
²²The LORD possessed Me in the beginning of His way,
before His works of old.
²³I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
before the earth ever was.
²⁴When there were no depths, I was brought forth;
when there were no mountains filled with water.
²⁵Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I was brought forth;
²⁶before He had made the earth, or the fields,
or the highest part of the dust of the world.
²⁷When He prepared the heavens, I was there;
when He set a circle upon the face of the deep;
²⁸when He set the clouds above;
when He made the fountains of the deep strong;
²⁹when He gave to the sea its limit,
that the waters should not pass His commandment;
when He appointed the foundations of the earth;
³⁰then I was beside Him as one brought up with Him;
and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him;

³¹rejoicing in the part of His earth
where men live;
and My delights were with the sons
of men.

³²Now therefore listen to Me, O children;
for blessed are those who keep My ways.

³³Hear instruction, and be wise,
and do not refuse it.

³⁴Blessed is the man who hears Me,
watching daily at My gates,
waiting at the posts of My doors.

³⁵For whoever finds Me finds life,
and shall obtain favor from the
LORD.

³⁶But he who sins against Me wrongs
his own soul;
all who hate Me love death.

CHAPTER 9

¹Wisdom has built her house;
she has carved out her seven pillars;

²she has killed her beasts; she has mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.

³She has sent her maidens forth;
she cries upon the highest places of
the city,

⁴Whoever is simple, let him turn in
here;
as for him who lacks understanding,
she says to him,

⁵Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine which I have mixed.

⁶Forsake the foolish and live;
and go in the way of understanding.

⁷He who reproves a scorner gets shame
to himself;
and he who rebukes a wicked man
gets himself a blot.

⁸Do not reprove a scorner, lest he hate
you;
rebuke a wise man, and he will love
you.

⁹Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser;
teach a just man, and he will increase
in learning.

¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

¹¹For by me your days shall be multiplied,
and the years of your life shall be increased.

¹²If you are wise, you shall be wise for yourself;
but if you scorn, you alone shall bear it.

¹³A foolish woman is noisy;
she is simple and knows nothing.

¹⁴For she sits at the door of her house,
in a seat in the high places of the city,

¹⁵to call those who pass by,
who are going straight on their ways;

¹⁶Whoever is simple, let him turn in
here;
and as for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,

¹⁷Stolen waters are sweet,
and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

¹⁸But he does not know that the dead
are there;
and that her guests are in the depths
of hell.

CHAPTER 10

¹The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son makes a glad father;
but a foolish son is the sorrow of his mother.

²Treasures of wickedness profit nothing;
but righteousness delivers from death.

³The LORD will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry;
but He casts away the desire of the
wicked.

⁴He who deals with a lazy hand becomes poor;
but the hand of the hard worker
makes rich.

⁵He who gathers in summer is a wise
son;
but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

- ⁶Blessings are upon the head of the just;
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
- ⁷The memory of the just is blessed;
but the name of the wicked shall rot.
- ⁸The wise in heart will receive commandments;
but a babbling fool shall fall.
- ⁹He who walks uprightly walks surely;
but he who twists his way shall be known.
- ¹⁰He who winks with the eye causes sorrow;
but a babbling fool shall fall.
- ¹¹The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life;
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
- ¹²Hatred stirs up fights;
but love covers all sins.
- ¹³In the lips of him who has understanding, wisdom is found;
but a rod is for the back of him who is without understanding.
- ¹⁴Wise men store up knowledge;
but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.
- ¹⁵The rich man's wealth is his strong city;
the ruin of the poor is their poverty.
- ¹⁶The labor of the righteous tends to life;
the fruit of the wicked tends to sin.
- ¹⁷He who keeps instruction is in the way of life;
but he who refuses reproof is going astray.
- ¹⁸He who hides hatred with lying lips,
and he who speaks a slander, is a fool.
- ¹⁹In the multitude of words, sin is not lacking;
but he who holds back his lips is wise.
- ²⁰The tongue of the just is like choice silver;
the heart of the wicked is worth little.
- ²¹The lips of the righteous feed many;
but fools die for lack of wisdom.
- ²²The blessing of the LORD itself makes men rich,
and He adds no sorrow with it.
- ²³*It is* as sport to a fool to do mischief;
but a man of understanding has wisdom.
- ²⁴*Even* that which the wicked fears shall come upon him;
but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.
- ²⁵As the whirlwind passes, so the wicked is no more;
but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
- ²⁶Like vinegar to the teeth, and like smoke to the eyes,
so is the sluggard to those who send him.
- ²⁷The fear of the LORD prolongs days;
but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
- ²⁸The hope of the righteous shall be gladness;
but the hope of the wicked shall perish.
- ²⁹The way of the LORD is strength to the upright;
but ruin shall be to the workers of iniquity.
- ³⁰The righteous shall never be removed;
but the wicked shall not live in the earth.
- ³¹The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom;
but the perverse tongue shall be cut out.
- ³²The lips of the righteous know what is pleasing;
but the mouth of the wicked what is contrary.

CHAPTER 11

- ¹A false balance is hateful to the LORD;
but a just weight is His delight.
- ²*When* pride comes, then shame comes;
but with the lowly is wisdom.
- ³The purity of the upright shall guide them;
but the crookedness of transgressors shall destroy them.
- ⁴Riches do not profit in the day of wrath;
but righteousness delivers from death.

- ⁵The righteousness of the perfect shall make his way right;
but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
- ⁶The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them;
but deceivers shall be taken in their own mischief.
- ⁷When a wicked man dies, his hope shall perish;
and the hope of unjust men is lost.
- ⁸The righteous is delivered out of trouble,
and the wicked comes in his place.
- ⁹A hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbor;
but through knowledge the just shall be delivered.
- ¹⁰When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices;
and when the wicked are destroyed, there is singing.
- ¹¹By the blessing of the upright the city is lifted up;
but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
- ¹²He who is without wisdom despises his neighbor;
but a man of understanding holds his peace.
- ¹³A talebearer reveals secrets;
but he who is of a faithful spirit keeps the matter hidden.
- ¹⁴Where there is no wisdom, the people fall;
but in the multitude of wise men there is safety.
- ¹⁵He who is surety for a stranger shall be ruined;
and he who hates suretyship is safe.
- ¹⁶A gracious woman keeps honor;
and strong men keep riches.
- ¹⁷The merciful man does good to his own soul;
but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.
- ¹⁸The wicked work a deceitful work;
but to him who sows righteousness shall be a sure reward.
- ¹⁹As righteousness tends to life;
so he who pursues evil does so to his own death.
- ²⁰They who are of a crooked heart are hateful to the LORD;
but the upright in their way are His delight.
- ²¹*Though* hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished;
but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.
- ²²*Like* a jewel of gold in a swine's snout,
so is a beautiful woman who turns aside from good moral taste.
- ²³The desire of the righteous is only good;
but the hope of the wicked is wrath.
- ²⁴There is that which scatters and yet increases;
and there is that which withholds more than is right, but it tends to poverty.
- ²⁵The soul who gives freely shall be made fat;
and he who waters shall also be watered himself.
- ²⁶He who withholds grain, the people shall curse him;
but blessing shall be upon the head of him who sells it.
- ²⁷He who carefully seeks good gets favor;
but he who seeks mischief, it shall come to him.
- ²⁸He who trusts in his riches shall fall;
but the righteous shall blossom like a branch.
- ²⁹He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind;
and the fool shall be servant to the wise in heart.
- ³⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life;
and he who wins souls is wise.
- ³¹Behold, the righteous shall be rewarded in the earth;
much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAPTER 12

- ¹Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge;
but he who hates correction is like an animal.
- ²A good man gets grace from the LORD;

- but He will condemn a man of wicked thoughts.
- ³A man shall not be established by wickedness;
but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
- ⁴A woman of virtue is a crown to her husband;
but she who causes shame is like rottenness in his bones.
- ⁵The thoughts of the righteous are right;
but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.
- ⁶The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood;
but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.
- ⁷The wicked are overthrown, and are gone;
but the house of the righteous shall stand.
- ⁸A man shall be praised according to his wisdom;
but he who is of a crooked heart shall be despised.
- ⁹*He who is* despised, and has a servant, is better than he who honors himself and lacks bread.
- ¹⁰A righteous man understands the soul of his animal;
but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
- ¹¹He who tills his land shall be satisfied with bread;
but he who follows vain persons is without understanding.
- ¹²The wicked desires the net of evil men;
but the root of the righteous yields fruit.
- ¹³The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips;
but the just shall come out of trouble.
- ¹⁴A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth;
and the reward of a man's hands shall be given to him.
- ¹⁵The way of a fool is right in his own eyes;
but he who listens to advice is wise.
- ¹⁶A fool's wrath is soon known;
- but one with good sense covers shame.
- ¹⁷*He who* speaks truth shows forth righteousness;
but a false witness shows deceit.
- ¹⁸There are those who speak like the thrusts of a sword;
but the tongue of the wise heals.
- ¹⁹The lips of truth shall be established forever;
but a lying tongue is but for a moment.
- ²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who imagine evil;
but to the wise men of peace there is joy.
- ²¹No evil shall happen to the just;
but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.
- ²²Lying lips are hateful to the LORD;
but those who deal truly are His delight.
- ²³A wise man conceals knowledge;
but the heart of fools cries out foolishness.
- ²⁴The hand of the hard worker shall bear rule,
but the lazy shall be under service.
- ²⁵Heaviness in the heart of man makes it stoop;
but a good word makes it glad.
- ²⁶The righteous is more excellent than his neighbor;
but the way of the wicked seduces them.
- ²⁷The lazy man does not roast that which he took in hunting;
but the wealth of a hard worker is precious.
- ²⁸In the way of righteousness is life;
and in that pathway there is no death.

- ¹A wise son hears his father's instruction;
but a scorner does not hear rebuke.
- ²From the fruit of his mouth a man shall eat good;
but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.
- ³He who keeps his mouth keeps his life;

- but he who opens his lips wide shall be ruined.
- ⁴The soul of the sluggard desires and has nothing; but the soul of the hard worker shall be made fat.
- ⁵A righteous man hates lying; but a wicked man is hateful and comes to shame.
- ⁶Righteousness keeps him who is upright in the way; but wickedness overthrows the sinner.
- ⁷There are those who make themselves rich, yet have nothing; there are those who make themselves poor, yet have great riches.
- ⁸The ransom of a man's life is his riches; but the poor does not hear rebuke.
- ⁹The light of the righteous rejoices; but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
- ¹⁰Only by pride comes argument; but with those who take advice is wisdom.
- ¹¹Wealth gotten by vanity shall be taken away; but he who gathers by labor shall increase.
- ¹²Hope put off makes the heart sick; but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.
- ¹³Whoever despises the word shall be destroyed; but he who fears the commandment shall be rewarded.
- ¹⁴The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.
- ¹⁵Good understanding gives favor; but the way of transgressors is hard.
- ¹⁶Every wise man deals with knowledge; but a fool lays open his folly.
- ¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into mischief; but a faithful ambassador is health.
- ¹⁸Poverty and shame shall be to him who refuses instruction; but he who listens to correction shall be honored.
- ¹⁹The desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul;
- but it is hateful to fools to depart from evil.
- ²⁰He who walks with wise men shall be wise; but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.
- ²¹Evil pursues sinners; but to the righteous good shall be repaid.
- ²²A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children; and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.
- ²³Much food is in the plowed ground of the poor; but there are those who are destroyed for lack of judgment.
- ²⁴He who spares his rod hates his son; but he who loves him chastens him early.
- ²⁵The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul; but the belly of the wicked shall lack.

CHAPTER 14

- ¹Every wise woman builds her house; but the foolish plucks it down with her hands.
- ²He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD; but he who is perverse in his ways despises Him.
- ³In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride; but the lips of the wise shall keep them.
- ⁴Where no oxen are, the crib is empty; but much gain is by the strength of the ox.
- ⁵A faithful witness will not lie; but a false witness will speak lies.
- ⁶A scorner seeks wisdom, and does not find it; but knowledge is easy to him who understands.
- ⁷Go from the presence of a foolish man when you do not see in him the lips of knowledge.
- ⁸The wisdom of the wise is to understand his way; but the folly of fools is deceit.

- ⁹Fools laugh at sin;
but among the righteous there is
favor.
- ¹⁰The heart knows its own bitterness;
and a stranger does not share in its
joy.
- ¹¹The house of the wicked shall be overthrown;
but the tent of the upright shall be blessed.
- ¹²There is a way which seems right to a
man,
but the end of it are the ways of
death.
- ¹³Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful;
and the end of that joy is heavi-
ness.
- ¹⁴The backslider in heart shall be filled
with his own ways;
and a good man shall be satisfied from
himself.
- ¹⁵The simple believes every word;
but the wise man watches his step.
- ¹⁶A wise man fears and departs from
evil;
but the fool rages and is sure.
- ¹⁷*He who* is soon angry deals foolishly;
and a man of wicked thoughts is hated.
- ¹⁸The simple inherit folly;
but the wise are crowned with knowledge.
- ¹⁹The evil bow before the good,
and the wicked at the gates of the
righteous.
- ²⁰The poor is hated even by his own neighbor;
but the rich has many friends.
- ²¹He who despises his neighbor sins;
but he who has mercy on the poor,
happy is he.
- ²²Do not those who think evil go astray?
But mercy and truth shall be to those who think of good.
- ²³In all labor there is gain;
but the talk of the lips tends only to poverty.
- ²⁴The crown of the wise is their riches
of wisdom;
but the foolishness of fools is folly.
- ²⁵A true witness delivers souls;
but a deceitful witness speaks lies.
- ²⁶In the fear of the LORD is strong
hope;
and His children shall have a place
of refuge.
- ²⁷The fear of the LORD is a fountain
of life,
to turn aside from the snares of death.
- ²⁸In the multitude of people is the king's honor;
but in the lack of people is the ruin
of the prince.
- ²⁹He who is slow to wrath is of great
understanding;
but he who is hasty of spirit exalts
folly.
- ³⁰A sound heart is the life of the flesh;
but envy is the rottenness of the bones.
- ³¹He who presses the poor curses his Maker;
but he who honors Him has mercy
upon the poor.
- ³²The wicked is driven away in his
wickedness;
but the righteous has hope in his
death.
- ³³Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding;
but that which is in the midst of fools
is made known.
- ³⁴Righteousness lifts up a nation;
but sin is a shame to any people.
- ³⁵The king's favor is toward a wise
servant;
but his wrath is against him who causes shame.

CHAPTER 15

- ¹A soft answer turns away wrath;
but grievous words stir up anger.
- ²The tongue of the wise uses knowledge
rightly;
but the mouth of fools pours out
foolishness.
- ³The eyes of the LORD are in every
place,
beholding the evil and the good.
- ⁴A wholesome tongue is a tree of life;
but crookedness in it is a break in the
spirit.
- ⁵A fool despises his father's instruction;
but he who listens to correction is wise.

- ⁶In the house of the righteous is much treasure;
but in the gain of the wicked is trouble.
- ⁷The lips of the righteous send forth knowledge;
but the heart of the foolish does not do so.
- ⁸The sacrifice of the wicked is a hateful thing to the LORD;
but the prayer of the upright is His delight.
- ⁹The way of the wicked is hateful to the LORD;
but He loves him who follows after righteousness.
- ¹⁰Correction is grievous unto him who forsakes the way;
and he who hates reproof shall die.
- ¹¹Hell and destruction are before the LORD;
how much more than the hearts of the children of men?
- ¹²A scorner does not love one who corrects him;
neither will he go to the wise.
- ¹³A merry heart makes a cheerful face;
but by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken.
- ¹⁴The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge;
but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.
- ¹⁵All the days of the afflicted are evil;
but he who is of a merry heart has a feast every day.
- ¹⁶Better is a little with the fear of the LORD
than great treasure and trouble without it.
- ¹⁷Better is a dinner of vegetables where love is,
than a stalled ox and hatred with it.
- ¹⁸A wrathful man stirs up fighting;
but he who is slow to anger calms fighting.
- ¹⁹The way of the lazy man is like a hedge of thorns;
but the way of the righteous is made plain.
- ²⁰A wise son makes a glad father;
but a foolish man despises his mother.
- ²¹Folly is joy to him who is without any wisdom;
but a man of understanding walks uprightly.
- ²²Without wisdom, purposes are defeated;
but in the multitude of wise men they are established.
- ²³A man has joy by the answer of his mouth;
and a word spoken in due season, how good it is!
- ²⁴The way of life is above to the wise,
so that he may turn away from hell below.
- ²⁵The LORD will destroy the house of the proud;
but He will set up the border of the widow.
- ²⁶The thoughts of the wicked are very hateful to the LORD;
but the words of the pure are pleasant words.
- ²⁷He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house;
but he who hates gifts shall live.
- ²⁸The heart of the righteous studies to answer;
but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things.
- ²⁹The LORD is far from the wicked;
but He hears the prayer of the righteous.
- ³⁰The light of the eyes rejoices the heart;
and a good report makes the bones fat.
- ³¹The ear that hears the reproof of life shall remain among the wise.
- ³²He who refuses instruction despises his own soul;
but he who hears reproof gets understanding.
- ³³The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom;
and before honor is humility.

CHAPTER 16

- ¹The ordering of the heart in man,
and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.
- ²All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes;
but the LORD weighs the spirits.

- ³Roll your works upon the LORD,
and your thoughts shall be blessed.
- ⁴The LORD has made all things for Himself;
yea, even the wicked for the day of
evil.
- ⁵Everyone who is proud in heart is hateful to the LORD;
though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.
- ⁶By mercy and truth, iniquity is purged;
and by the fear of the LORD men
turn away from evil.
- ⁷When a man's ways please the LORD,
He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
- ⁸Better is a little with righteousness
than great gains without right.
- ⁹A man's heart plans his way;
but the LORD directs his steps.
- ¹⁰A divine sentence is in the lips of the king;
his mouth does not transgress in judgment.
- ¹¹A just weight and balance are the LORD's;
all the weights of the bag are His work.
- ¹²*It is* a hateful thing for kings to commit wickedness;
for the throne is established by right-
eousness.
- ¹³Righteous lips are the delight of kings;
and they love him who speaks right.
- ¹⁴The wrath of a king is as messengers
of death;
but a wise man will quiet it.
- ¹⁵In the light of the king's face is life;
and his favor is like a cloud of the latter rain.
- ¹⁶How much better it is to get wisdom
than gold!
And to get understanding is rather to be chosen than silver!
- ¹⁷The way of the upright is to turn away from evil;
he who keeps his way guards his soul.
- ¹⁸Pride goes before destruction,
and a haughty spirit before a fall.
- ¹⁹*It is* better to be of an humble spirit
with the lowly
- than to divide the spoil with the proud.
- ²⁰He who handles a matter wisely shall find good;
and whoever trusts in the LORD,
happy is he.
- ²¹The wise in heart shall be called prudent;
and the sweetness of the lips increases learning.
- ²²Understanding is a fountain of life to him who has it;
but the instruction of fools is folly.
- ²³The heart of the wise teaches his
mouth,
and adds learning to his lips.
- ²⁴Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the
bones.
- ²⁵There is a way that seems right to a
man,
but the end of it are the ways of
death.
- ²⁶He who labors works for himself;
for his mouth craves it from him.
- ²⁷An ungodly man plots evil;
and his lips are like a burning fire.
- ²⁸A perverse man causes fighting;
and a whisperer separates chief friends.
- ²⁹A violent man lures his neighbor and leads him into the way that is not
good.
- ³⁰He shuts his eyes to think of crooked
things;
moving his lips, he brings evil to pass.
- ³¹The gray head is a crown of glory,
if it is found in the way of righteous-
ness.
- ³²*He who is slow* to anger is better than
the mighty;
and he who rules his spirit is better
than he who takes a city.
- ³³The lot is cast into the lap;
but the whole ordering of it is from
the LORD.

CHAPTER 17

- ¹Better is a dry piece of bread, and quietness with it,
than a house full of sacrifices with fighting.

- ²A wise servant shall have rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brothers.
- ³The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; but the LORD tries the hearts.
- ⁴A wicked doer gives heed to false lips; and a liar gives ear to an evil tongue.
- ⁵Whoever scorns the poor reviles his Maker; and he who is glad at great troubles shall not be unpunished.
- ⁶Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.
- ⁷An excellent lip is not fitting for a fool; much less are lying lips fitting for a prince.
- ⁸A bribe is like a precious stone in the eyes of him who has it; wherever it turns, it prospers.
- ⁹He who covers a transgression seeks love; but he who repeats a matter separates friends.
- ¹⁰A reproof enters more into a wise man than a thousand stripes into a fool.
- ¹¹An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
- ¹²Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.
- ¹³Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.
- ¹⁴The beginning of strife is like letting out water; therefore leave off fighting, before it is meddled with.
- ¹⁵He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, even both of them are hateful to the LORD.
- ¹⁶Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, since he has no heart for it?
- ¹⁷A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for the time of trouble.
- ¹⁸A man with no understanding strikes hands and becomes surety in the presence of his friend.
- ¹⁹He who loves fighting loves transgression; and he who makes his gate high seeks ruin.
- ²⁰He who has a crooked heart finds no good; and he who has a crooked tongue falls into mischief.
- ²¹He who fathers a fool does it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool has no joy.
- ²²A merry heart does good like a medicine; but a broken spirit dries the bones.
- ²³A wicked man takes a bribe out of the bosom to twist the ways of judgment.
- ²⁴Wisdom is before him who has understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.
- ²⁵A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.
- ²⁶Also to fine the just is not good, nor to strike princes for uprightness.
- ²⁷He who has knowledge uses few words; and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.
- ²⁸Even a fool, when he holds his peace, is counted wise; and he who shuts his lips is counted a man of understanding.

CHAPTER 18

- ¹He that separates himself seeks his own desire and mixes himself up with all wisdom.
- ²A fool has no delight in understanding, but only that his heart may lay itself bare.
- ³When the wicked comes, then also comes scorn, and with shame comes reproach.
- ⁴The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters, and the fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.
- ⁵*It is* not good to favor the person of the wicked,

- to overthrow the righteous in judgment.
- ⁶A fool's lips enter into argument, and his mouth calls for strokes.
- ⁷A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.
- ⁸The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
- ⁹Also he who is lazy in his work is brother to him who is a great destroyer.
- ¹⁰The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe.
- ¹¹The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own mind.
- ¹²Before ruin, the heart of man is proud, and before honor is humility.
- ¹³If one answers a matter before he hears it, it is folly and shame to him.
- ¹⁴The spirit of a man will nourish his sickness; but a wounded spirit who can bear?
- ¹⁵The heart of the prudent gets knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
- ¹⁶A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men.
- ¹⁷*He who is first in his cause seems just;* but his neighbor comes and searches him.
- ¹⁸The lot causes arguments to cease, and divides between the mighty.
- ¹⁹A brother offended is harder to win than a strong city; and their disagreements are like the bars of a castle.
- ²⁰A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the product of his lips he shall be satisfied.
- ²¹Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and those who love it shall eat the fruit of it.
- ²²*Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing* and gets favor from the LORD.
- ²³The poor speaks humble requests, but the rich answers roughly.
- ²⁴A man who has friends must show himself friendly; and there is a Friend who sticks closer than a brother.

CHAPTER 19

- ¹Better is the poor who walks in his honesty than he who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.
- ²Also it is not good that the soul be without knowledge; and he who hurries with his feet sins.
- ³The foolishness of man overturns his way; and his heart frets against the LORD.
- ⁴Wealth makes many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor.
- ⁵A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies shall not escape.
- ⁶Many will beg the favor of the prince; and every man is a friend to him who gives gifts.
- ⁷All the brothers of the poor man hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him? He pursues them with words, yet they are lacking to him.
- ⁸He who gets wisdom loves his own soul; he who keeps understanding shall find good.
- ⁹A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he who speaks lies shall perish.
- ¹⁰Luxury is not becoming for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
- ¹¹The judgment of a man puts off his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.
- ¹²The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion; but his favor is like dew on the grass.

- ¹³A foolish son is ruin to his father;
and the quarreling of a wife is a never-ending dripping.
- ¹⁴Houses and riches are the inheritance
of fathers;
and a prudent wife is from the
LORD.
- ¹⁵Laziness throws one into a deep sleep;
and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.
- ¹⁶He who keeps the commandment
keeps his own soul;
but he who despises His ways shall die.
- ¹⁷He who has pity upon the poor lends
to the LORD;
and that which he has given He will pay him again.
- ¹⁸Chasten your son while there is hope,
and do not let your soul spare for his crying.
- ¹⁹A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment;
for if you deliver him, yet you must do it again.
- ²⁰Hear advice, and receive instruction,
so that you may be wise in your later
days.
- ²¹*There are* many purposes in a man's
heart;
but the counsel of the LORD shall
stand.
- ²²The charm of a man is his kindness;
and a poor man is better than a liar.
- ²³The fear of the LORD tends to life;
and he who has it shall remain satisfied;
he shall not be visited with evil.
- ²⁴A lazy man hides his hand in his
bosom
and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
- ²⁵Strike a scorner, and the simple will beware;
reprove one who has understanding,
and he will understand knowledge.
- ²⁶He who wastes his father and chases away his mother
is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.
- ²⁷My son, cease to hear the instruction which causes you to err from the words of knowledge.

- ²⁸An ungodly witness scorns judgment;
and the mouth of the wicked devours
iniquity.
- ²⁹Judgments are prepared for scorners,
and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER 20

- ¹Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging;
and whoever is deceived by it is not
wise.
- ²The fear of a king is as the roaring of
a lion;
whoever stirs him up to anger sins
against his own soul.
- ³*It is* an honor for a man to cease from
strife;
but every fool will be meddling.
- ⁴The lazy man will not plow because of the cold;
therefore he shall beg in harvest and
have nothing.
- ⁵Wisdom in the heart of man is like
deep water;
but a man of understanding will draw
it out.
- ⁶Most men will proclaim each his own
goodness;
but a faithful man who can find?
- ⁷The just man walks in his purity;
his children are blessed after him.
- ⁸A king who sits in the throne of judgment
scatters away all evil with his eyes.
- ⁹Who can say, I have made my heart
clean;
I am pure from my sin?
- ¹⁰Different kinds of weights, and different kinds of measures,
both are hateful to the LORD.
- ¹¹Even a child is known by his own doings,
whether his work is pure and whether it is right.
- ¹²The hearing ear and the seeing eye,
the LORD has made both of them.
- ¹³Do not love sleep, lest you come to
poverty;
open your eyes and you shall be satisfied with bread.
- ¹⁴*It is* bad, it is bad, says the buyer;

but when he has gone his way, then he boasts.

¹⁵There is gold and a multitude of rubies;

but the lips of knowledge are a rare
jewel.

¹⁶Take the garment of him who is surety
for a stranger;

and take a pledge from him for a
strange woman.

¹⁷Bread of deceit is sweet to a man;
but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

¹⁸Every purpose is established by wisdom;

and with good advice make war.

¹⁹A gossip is a revealer of secrets;
therefore do not mix with him who flatters with his lips.

²⁰Whoever curses his father or his
mother,
his lamp shall be put out in deep
darkness.

²¹An inheritance may be gotten quickly
at the beginning;

but the end of it shall not be blessed.

²²Do not say, I will repay evil;
but wait upon the LORD, and He shall save you.

²³Different kinds of weights are hateful
to the LORD;

and a false balance is not good.

²⁴Man's steps are of the LORD;
how can a man then understand his own way?

²⁵It is a snare to the man who swallows that which is holy,

and after vows to ask about it.

²⁶A wise king scatters the wicked and brings the wheel over them.

²⁷The spirit of man is the lamp of the
LORD,

searching all the inward parts of the
belly.

²⁸Mercy and truth preserve the king;
and his throne is upheld by mercy.

²⁹The glory of young men is their
strength;

and the beauty of old men is the gray
head.

³⁰The blueness of a wound cleanses
away evil;

so do stripes clean the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER 21

¹The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD as the rivers of water;
He turns it wherever He will.

²Every way of a man is right in his own
eyes;

but the LORD ponders the hearts.

³To do justice and judgment is more pleasing to the LORD than sacrifice.

⁴A high look, a proud heart,
and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

⁵The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenty;

but the thoughts of everyone who is hasty tend only to want.

⁶The getting of treasures by a lying tongue

is a vanity tossed to and fro by those who seek death.

⁷The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them;

because they refuse to do judgment.

⁸The way of man is twisted and strange;

but as for the pure, his work is right.

⁹It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop

than with a quarrelsome woman in a wide house.

¹⁰The soul of the wicked desires evil;
his neighbor finds no favor in his
eyes.

¹¹When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise;

and when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

¹²The righteous man wisely considers the house of the wicked;

but God overthrows the wicked for their wickedness.

¹³Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor,

he also shall cry himself, but shall not
be heard.

¹⁴A gift in secret quiets anger;
and a bribe in the bosom quiets
strong wrath.

¹⁵It is joy to the just to do judgment;

CHAPTER 22

- but ruin shall be to the workers of iniquity.
- ¹⁶The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.
- ¹⁷He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.
- ¹⁸The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.
- ¹⁹*It is better to dwell in the wilderness than with a quarrelsome and angry woman.*
- ²⁰*There is treasure to be desired, and oil, and the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man swallows it up.*
- ²¹He who follows after righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness, and honor.
- ²²A wise man scales the city of the mighty and brings down the strength of its hope.
- ²³Whoever keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
- ²⁴Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who deals in proud wrath.
- ²⁵The desire of the lazy man kills him, for his hands have refused to work.
- ²⁶He covets greedily all the day long; but the righteous gives and spares not.
- ²⁷The sacrifice of the wicked is hateful to God;
how much more when he brings it with a wicked mind?
- ²⁸A false witness shall perish; but the man who hears speaks on and on.
- ²⁹A wicked man hardens his face; but as for the upright, he directs his way.
- ³⁰*There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the LORD.*
- ³¹The horse is prepared for the day of battle; but safety is from the LORD.
- ¹A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches,
and loving favor rather than silver or gold.
- ²The rich and poor meet together; the LORD is the maker of them all.
- ³A prudent man foresees the evil and hides himself;
but the simple pass on and are punished.
- ⁴By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches and honor and life.
- ⁵Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse;
he who keeps his soul shall be far from them.
- ⁶Train up a child in the way he should go;
and when he is old, he will not depart from it.
- ⁷The rich rules over the poor,
and the borrower is servant to the lender.
- ⁸He who sows iniquity shall reap vanity;
and the rod of his anger shall fail.
- ⁹He who has a bountiful eye shall be blessed;
for he gives of his bread to the poor.
- ¹⁰Cast out the scorner, and fighting shall go out;
yes, quarrels and shame shall cease.
- ¹¹He who loves pureness of heart,
for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.
- ¹²The eyes of the LORD keep knowledge,
and He overthrows the words of the transgressor.
- ¹³The lazy man says, There is a lion outside —
I shall be killed in the streets.
- ¹⁴The mouth of strange women is a deep pit;
he who is despised by the LORD shall fall into it.
- ¹⁵Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child;
but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.
- ¹⁶He who crushes the poor to increase his riches,

- and* he who gives to the rich, shall surely come to want.
- ¹⁷Bow down your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge.
- ¹⁸For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you; they shall all be fitted in your lips.
- ¹⁹So that your trust may be in the LORD,
I have made known to you this day, even to you.
- ²⁰Have I not written to you excellent things
in counsel and knowledge,
- ²¹that I might make you know the sureness of the words of truth; that you might answer the words of truth to those who send to you?
- ²²Do not rob the poor, because he is poor;
neither press down the afflicted in the gate;
- ²³for the LORD will plead their cause, and strip the soul of those who plunder them.
- ²⁴Make no friendship with an angry man;
and you shall not go up with a man of fury,
- ²⁵lest you learn his ways
and get a snare to your soul.
- ²⁶Be not one of those who strike hands
or of those who are sureties for debts.
- ²⁷If you have nothing to pay,
why should he take away your bed from under you?
- ²⁸Do not remove the old landmark which your fathers have set.
- ²⁹Do you see a man diligent in his business?
He shall stand before kings;
he shall not stand before unknown men.
- ³⁰Do not desire his dainties,
for they are deceitful food.
- ³¹Do not labor to be rich;
cease from your own wisdom.
- ³²Will you set your eyes upon that which is not?
for riches certainly make themselves wings;
they fly away like an eagle toward the heavens.
- ³³Do not eat the bread of him who has
an evil eye,
neither desire his dainty foods;
- ³⁴for as he thinks in his heart,
so is he;
Eat and drink, he says to you;
but his heart is not with you.
- ³⁵The piece which you have eaten, you shall vomit up,
and lose your sweet words.
- ³⁶Do not speak in the ears of a fool;
for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- ³⁷Do not remove the old landmarks;
and do not enter into the fields of the fatherless;
- ³⁸for their Redeemer is mighty;
He shall plead their cause with you.
- ³⁹Apply your heart to instruction,
and your ears to the words of knowledge.
- ⁴⁰Do not withhold correction from the child;
for if you beat him with the rod, he shall not die.
- ⁴¹You shall beat him with the rod,
and shall deliver his soul from hell.
- ⁴²My son, if your heart is wise,
my heart shall rejoice, even mine.
- ⁴³Yea, my heart shall rejoice
when your lips speak right things.
- ⁴⁴Do not let your heart envy sinners;
but be in the fear of the LORD all the day long.
- ⁴⁵For surely there is an end;
and your hope shall not be cut off.
- ⁴⁶My son, hear and be wise,
and guide your heart in the way.
- ⁴⁷Do not be among those who drink
much wine;
among those who eat too much;

CHAPTER 23

- ¹When you sit down to eat with a ruler,
look carefully at what is before you; ²and put a knife to your throat,
if you are a man given to appetite.

CHAPTER 24

- ²¹for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and sleepiness shall clothe a man with rags.
- ²²Listen to your father who fathered you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.
- ²³Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
- ²⁴The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice; and he who fathers a wise child shall have joy from him.
- ²⁵Your father and your mother shall be glad, and she who bore you shall rejoice.
- ²⁶My son, give Me your heart, and let your eyes watch My ways.
- ²⁷For a harlot is a deep ditch, and a strange woman is a narrow pit.
- ²⁸She also lies in wait as for a prey, and increases the transgressors among men.
- ²⁹Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has fighting? Who has babbling? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?
- ³⁰Those who stay long at the wine; those who go to seek mixed wine.
- ³¹Do not look upon the wine when it is red, when it gives its color in the cup, when it goes down smoothly.
- ³²At the last it bites like an asp and stings like an adder.
- ³³Your eyes shall look upon strange women, and your heart shall speak perverse things.
- ³⁴Yes, you shall be as he who lies down in the middle of the sea, or as he who lies upon the top of a mast.
- ³⁵*You shall say*, They struck me; I was not sick; they have beaten me, I did not feel it. When I awake, I will still go after it again.
- ¹Do not be jealous of evil men, neither desire to be with them.
- ²For their heart studies ruin, and their lips talk of mischief.
- ³Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established;
- ⁴and by knowledge the rooms shall be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
- ⁵A wise man is strong; yes, a man of knowledge increases strength.
- ⁶For by wise counsel you shall make your war; and in a multitude of wise men there is safety.
- ⁷Wisdom is too high for a fool; he does not open his mouth in the gate.
- ⁸He who plots to do evil shall be called a master of wicked thoughts.
- ⁹The thought of foolishness is sin; and the scorner is hateful to men.
- ¹⁰*If* you faint in the day of trial, your strength is small.
- ¹¹*If* you hold back from delivering those who are drawn to death, and those who are ready to be killed;
- ¹²*if* you say, Behold, we did not know it; does not He who searches the heart see it? And He who keeps your soul, does He not know it? And shall He not give to every man according to his works?
- ¹³My son, eat honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste;
- ¹⁴so shall the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul; when you have found it, then there shall be a reward, and your hope shall not be cut off.
- ¹⁵O wicked man, do not lay wait against the dwelling of the righteous; do not spoil his resting place;

- ¹⁶for a just man falls seven times, and rises up again;
but the wicked shall fall into evil.
- ¹⁷Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles;
- ¹⁸lest the LORD see it, and it displease Him,
and He turn away His wrath from him.
- ¹⁹Do not fret yourself because of evil men,
neither be jealous of the wicked;
- ²⁰for there shall be no reward to the evil man;
the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
- ²¹My son, fear the LORD and the king;
and do not fellowship with those who are given to change;
- ²²for their trouble shall rise suddenly, and who knows the ruin of them both?
- ²³These things also belong to the wise.
It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.
- ²⁴He who says to the wicked, You are righteous;
the people shall curse him, and nations shall despise him.
- ²⁵But to those who rebuke him, it shall be a delight,
and a good blessing shall come upon them.
- ²⁶*Every man* shall kiss his lips who gives a right answer.
- ²⁷Prepare your work outside,
and make it fit for yourself in the field;
and afterwards build your house.
- ²⁸Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause;
and do not deceive with your lips.
- ²⁹Do not say, I will do so to him as he has done to me;
I will give to the man according to his work.
- ³⁰I went by the field of the lazy man,
and by the vineyard of the man without understanding;
- ³¹and, lo, it was all grown over with thorns,
and nettles had covered the face of it,
and its stone wall was broken down.
- ³²Then I saw, and set my mind on it;
I looked upon it, and received instruction.
- ³³A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep;
- ³⁴so shall your poverty come as one who travels;
and your want like an armed man.

CHAPTER 25

¹These are also proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hēz-ē-kī'āh king of Judah copied out.

²*It* is the glory of God to hide a thing;
but the honor of kings is to search out a matter.

³The heaven for height, and the earth for depth,
but the heart of kings cannot be searched.

⁴Take away the dross from the silver,
and there shall come forth a vessel for the refiner.

⁵Take away the wicked from before the king,
and his throne shall be founded in righteousness.

⁶Do not put yourself forth in the presence of the king,
and do not stand in the place of great men;

⁷for it is better that it should be said to you, Come up here, than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince whom your eyes have seen.

⁸Do not go forth quickly to fight, lest you know not what to do in the end of it,
when your neighbor has put you to shame.

⁹Debate your cause with your neighbor himself;
and do not uncover a secret to another,

- ¹⁰lest he who hears it put you to shame,
and your evil report turn not away.
- ¹¹A word fitly spoken
is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.
- ¹²*Like* an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
so is a wise reprover upon a hearing
ear.
- ¹³Like the cold of snow in the time of
harvest,
so is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
for he refreshes the soul of his masters.
- ¹⁴Whoever boasts himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.
- ¹⁵By long patience is a prince won over,
and a soft tongue breaks the bone.
- ¹⁶Have you found honey? Eat only as much as is enough for you,
lest you be filled with it and vomit it.
- ¹⁷Withdraw your foot from your neighbor's house,
lest he be weary of you and hate you.
- ¹⁸A man who bears false witness against his neighbor
is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp
arrow.
- ¹⁹Trust in an unfaithful man in time of
trouble
is like a broken tooth, and a foot out
of joint.
- ²⁰As he who takes away a garment in cold weather,
and as vinegar upon niter,
so is he who sings songs to a heavy
heart.
- ²¹If your enemy is hungry, give him
bread to eat;
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink,
- ²²for you shall heap coals of fire upon
his head,
and the LORD shall reward you.
- ²³The north wind drives away rain;
so does an angry face a backbiting
tongue.
- ²⁴*It is* better to dwell in the corner of the housetop
than with a quarreling woman in a wide house.
- ²⁵*Like* cold waters to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.
- ²⁶A righteous man falling down before
the wicked
is like a troubled fountain and a rotten spring.
- ²⁷*It is* not good to eat much honey;
so for men to search their own glory
is not glory.
- ²⁸He who has no rule over his own
spirit
is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

CHAPTER 26

- ¹As snow in summer, and as rain in
harvest,
so honor is not becoming for a fool.
- ²As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying,
so the curse without cause shall not
come.
- ³A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass,
and a rod for the fool's back.
- ⁴Do not answer a fool according to his
foolishness,
lest you also be like him.
- ⁵Answer a fool according to his foolish-
ness,
so that he may not be wise in his own
eyes.
- ⁶He who sends a message by the hand
of a fool
cuts off the feet and drinks down damage.
- ⁷The legs of the lame are not equal;
so is a parable in the mouth of
fools.
- ⁸As he who binds a stone in a sling,
so is he who gives honor to a fool.
- ⁹As a thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- ¹⁰The great God who formed all things
both rewards the fool and rewards transgressors.
- ¹¹As a dog returns to its vomit,
so a fool returns to his folly.
- ¹²Do you see a man wise in his own
eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than
for him.

CHAPTER 27

- 13The lazy man says, There is a lion in the way;
a lion is in the streets.
- 14As the door turns upon its hinges,
so does the lazy man turn upon his bed.
- 15The lazy man hides his hand in his bosom;
it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth.
- 16The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can give a reason.
- 17He who passes by, and meddles with fighting which is not his,
is like one who takes a dog by the ears.
- 18As a mad man who throws firebrands, arrows, and death, 19so is the man who deceives his neighbor
and says, I am only joking.
- 20Where there is no wood, the fire goes out;
so where there is no talebearer, the fighting ceases.
- 21As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire,
so is a quarrelsome man to kindle fighting.
- 22The words of a talebearer are as wounds,
and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
- 23Burning lips and a wicked heart
are like a broken piece of pottery with silver waste.
- 24He who hates pretends with his lips and stores up deceit within him.
- 25When he makes his voice gracious, do not believe him;
for seven hateful things are in his heart.
- 26He whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shown before the whole congregation.
- 27Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it;
and he who rolls a stone, it will return upon him.
- 28A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it;
and a flattering mouth works ruin.
- 1Do not boast yourself of tomorrow;
for you do not know what a day may bring forth.
- 2Let another man praise you, and not your mouth;
a stranger, and not your lips.
- 3A stone is heavy, and sand is heavy;
but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.
- 4Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming;
but who is able to stand before envy?
- 5Open rebuke is better than secret love.
- 6Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.
- 7The full soul despises a honeycomb;
but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.
- 8As a bird that wanders from her nest,
so is a man who wanders from his place.
- 9Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart;
so does the sweetness of a man's friend by advice from the heart.
- 10Your own friend, and your father's friend, do not forsake them;
neither go to your brother's house in the day of your trouble;
for better is a neighbor that is near than a brother far off.
- 11My son, be wise, and make my heart glad,
so that I may answer him who shames me.
- 12A man of judgment foresees the evil and hides himself;
but the simple pass on and are punished.
- 13Take his robe that is surety for a stranger,
and take a pledge from him for a strange woman.
- 14He who blesses his friend with a loud voice,
rising early in the morning,
it shall be counted a curse to him.
- 15A never-ending dropping in a very rainy day

- and a quarrelsome woman are alike.
- ¹⁶Whoever hides her hides the wind,
and the ointment of his right hand
betrays itself.
- ¹⁷Iron sharpens iron;
so a man sharpens the face of his friend.
- ¹⁸Whoever keeps the fig tree shall eat
the fruit of it;
so he who waits on his master shall
be honored.
- ¹⁹As in water face answers to face,
so the heart of man answers to man.
- ²⁰Hell and destruction are never full;
so the eyes of man are never satisfied.
- ²¹*Like* the refining pot for silver and
the furnace for gold;
so is a man to his praise.
- ²²Though you should pound a fool in a bowl
with a bar in the midst of wheat,
yet his foolishness will not depart
from him.
- ²³Be diligent to know the state of your flocks,
and watch over your herds.
- ²⁴For riches are not forever;
and does the crown endure to every generation?
- ²⁵The hay appears, and the tender grass
shows itself,
and herbs of the mountain are gathered.
- ²⁶The lambs are for your clothing,
and the goats are the price of the
field.
- ²⁷And you shall have goats' milk enough
for your food,
for the food of your household,
and a living for your maidens.
- CHAPTER 28
- ¹The wicked flee when no man pursues;
but the righteous are bold as a lion.
- ²Because of the transgression of a land,
many are the princes of it;
but by a man of understanding and
knowledge
the state of it shall be prolonged.
- ³A poor man who crushes the poor
is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food.
- ⁴Those who forsake the law praise the
wicked;
but those who keep the law plead
against them.
- ⁵Evil men do not understand judgment;
but those who seek the LORD understand all things.
- ⁶Better is the poor who walks in his uprightness
than he who is perverse in his ways,
though he is rich.
- ⁷Whoever keeps the law is a wise son;
but he who is a companion of glut-tons shames his father.
- ⁸He who increases his wealth by interest and unjust gain,
he shall gather it for him who will pity the poor.
- ⁹He who turns away his ear from hearing the law,
even his prayer is a hateful thing.
- ¹⁰Whoever causes the righteous man to go astray in an evil way,
he himself shall fall into his own pit;
but the upright shall inherit good.
- ¹¹The rich man is wise in his own
eyes;
but the poor who has understanding searches him out.
- ¹²When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory;
but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.
- ¹³He who covers his sins shall not be
blessed;
but whoever confesses and leaves
them shall have mercy.
- ¹⁴Happy is the man who always fears;
but he who hardens his heart shall fall into mischief.
- ¹⁵*Like* a roaring lion and a ranging bear,
so is a wicked ruler over the poor
people.
- ¹⁶The prince who lacks understanding
is also a cruel taskmaster;
but he who hates unjust gain shall prolong his days.
- ¹⁷A man who is pressed down with the blood
of any person
shall flee to the pit;
let no one hold him back.

- ¹⁸Whoever walks uprightly shall be saved;
but he who is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.
- ¹⁹He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread;
but he who follows after vain persons shall have poverty enough.
- ²⁰A faithful man shall overflow with blessings;
but he who makes haste to be rich shall not be innocent.
- ²¹To have respect of persons is not good;
because that man will sin for a piece of bread.
- ²²He who hastens to be rich has an evil eye,
and does not know that poverty will come upon him.
- ²³He who rebukes a man shall afterwards find more favor
than he who flatters with the tongue.
- ²⁴Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, It is no sin;
the same is the companion of a destroyer.
- ²⁵He who is of a proud heart stirs up fighting;
but he who puts his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.
- ²⁶He who trusts in his own heart is a fool;
but whoever walks wisely, he shall be delivered.
- ²⁷He who gives to the poor shall not lack;
but he who hides his eyes shall have many a curse.
- ²⁸When the wicked rise, men hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous increase.
- ³Whoever loves wisdom rejoices his father;
but he who keeps company with harlots spends his wealth.
- ⁴The king establishes the land by judgment;
but he who receives bribes overthrows it.
- ⁵A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
- ⁶In the sin of an evil man there is a snare;
but the righteous sings and rejoices.
- ⁷The righteous takes note of the plea of the poor;
but the wicked cares not to know it.
- ⁸Scornful men bring a city into a snare;
but wise men turn away wrath.
- ⁹If a wise man contends with a foolish man,
whether he rages or laughs, there is no rest.
- ¹⁰Men of blood hate the upright;
but the just seek his soul.
- ¹¹A fool speaks all his mind;
but a wise man keeps it in until afterwards.
- ¹²If a ruler listens to lies,
all his servants are wicked.
- ¹³The poor and the deceitful man meet together;
the LORD gives light to both their eyes.
- ¹⁴The king who faithfully judges the poor,
his throne shall be fixed forever.
- ¹⁵The rod and rebuke give wisdom;
but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame.
- ¹⁶When the wicked are multiplied, sin increases;
but the righteous shall see their fall.
- ¹⁷Correct your son, and he shall give you rest;
yea, he shall give delight to your soul.
- ¹⁸Where there is no wisdom, the people perish;
but he who keeps the law, he is happy.
- ¹⁹A servant will not be corrected by words;

CHAPTER 29

He who hardens his neck, after being often warned, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without help.
When the righteous are in great number, the people rejoice;
but when the wicked bear rule, the people mourn.

- for though he understands, he will not answer.
- ²⁰Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- ²¹He who tenderly brings up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the end.
- ²²An angry man stirs up fighting, and a furious man abounds in sin.
- ²³A man's pride shall bring him low; but honor shall uphold the humble in spirit.
- ²⁴Whoever is partner with a thief hates his own soul; he hears cursing and does not tell it.
- ²⁵The fear of man brings a snare; but whoever puts his trust in the LORD shall be safe.
- ²⁶Many seek the ruler's favor; but every man's judgment comes from the LORD.
- ²⁷An unjust man is a hateful thing to the just; and he who is upright in the way is hateful to the wicked.
- ⁵Every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.
- ⁶Do not add to His words, lest He reprove you and you be found a liar.
- ⁷I have asked two things from Thee; do not deny them before I die;
- ⁸remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food right for me;
- ⁹lest I be full and deny Thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.
- ¹⁰Do not accuse a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.
- ¹¹*There is a generation that* curses their father, and does not bless their mother.
- ¹²*There is a generation that are* pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their own filth.
- ¹³*There is a generation, O how lofty* are their eyes! And their eyelids are lifted up.
- ¹⁴*There is a generation whose teeth are like* swords, and their jaw teeth like knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.
- ¹⁵The leech has two daughters, crying, Give, give! There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things never say, It is enough —
- ¹⁶the grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that never says, It is enough.
- ¹⁷The eye that mocks at his father, and despises to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

CHAPTER 30

- ¹The words of Ā'gūr the son of Jā'kēh, even the prophecy; the man spoke to Ī'-thī-ēl, even to Ī'-thī-ēl and Ū'-cāl, saying,
- ²Surely I am more like an animal than any man, and do not have the understanding of a man.
- ³I have not learned wisdom, nor the knowledge of the holy.
- ⁴Who has gone up into Heaven and has come down?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His name, and what is His Son's name, if you can tell?

- ¹⁸There are three things which are too wonderful for me,
yea, four which I do not know —
- ¹⁹the way of an eagle in the air;
the way of a snake upon a rock;
the way of a ship in the middle of the sea;
and the way of a man with a maiden.
- ²⁰Such is the way of an adulterous woman;
she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, I have done no wickedness.
- ²¹For three things the earth is troubled, and for four which it cannot bear —
- ²²for a servant when he reigns;
and a fool when he is filled with food;
- ²³for a hateful woman when she is married;
and a maid that is heir to her mistress.
- ²⁴There are four things which are little upon the earth,
but they are exceeding wise —
- ²⁵the ants are a people not strong,
yet they prepare their food in the summer;
- ²⁶the conies are but a feeble folk,
yet they make their houses in the rocks;
- ²⁷the locusts have no king,
yet they all of them go forth by bands;
- ²⁸the spider takes hold with her hands,
and is in king's palaces.
- ²⁹There are three things which go well,
yea, four which are stately in going —
- ³⁰a lion which is strongest among beasts and does not turn away for any;
- ³¹a greyhound; or a he goat;
and a king against whom there is no rising up.
- ³²If you have done foolishly in lifting yourself up,
or if you have thought evil,
lay your hand upon your mouth.
- ³³Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter,

and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood;
so the forcing of wrath brings forth fighting.

CHAPTER 31

- ¹The words of king Lēm'-ū-ēl, the prophecy which his mother taught him.
- ²What, my son? And what, the son of my womb?
And what, the son of my vows?
- ³Do not give your strength to women,
nor your ways to that which destroys kings.
- ⁴*It is not* for kings, O Lēm'-ū-ēl,
it is not for kings to drink wine;
nor for princes to drink strong drink;
- ⁵lest they drink, and forget the law,
and twist the judgment of any of the afflicted.
- ⁶Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish,
and wine to those who are of heavy hearts.
- ⁷Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
and remember his misery no more.
- ⁸Open your mouth for the dumb,
for the cause of all the sons of those who are passing away.
- ⁹Open your mouth, judge righteously,
and plead the cause of the poor and needy.
- ¹⁰Who can find a woman of virtue?
For her price is far above rubies.
- ¹¹The heart of her husband trusts safely in her,
so that he shall have no need of spoil.
- ¹²She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
- ¹³She seeks wool and flax,
and works willingly with her hands.
- ¹⁴She is like the merchants' ships;
she brings her food from afar.
- ¹⁵She also rises while it is still night,
and gives food to her household,
and a share to her maidens.
- ¹⁶She considers a field, and buys it;
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

- ¹⁷She binds her loins with strength,
and makes her arms strong.
- ¹⁸She sees that her merchandise is
good;
her candle does not go out by night.
- ¹⁹She lays her hands to the spindle,
and her hands hold the distaff.
- ²⁰She stretches out her hand to the
poor;
yea, she reaches forth her hands to
the needy.
- ²¹She is not afraid of the snow for her
household;
for all her household are clothed
with scarlet.
She makes herself coverings;
her clothing is silk and purple.
- ²³Her husband is known in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of
the land.
- ²⁴She makes fine linen and sells it,
and delivers girdles to the merchants.
- ²⁵Strength and honor are her clothing;
and she shall rejoice in time to come.
- ²⁶She opens her mouth with wisdom;
and in her tongue is the law of kind-
ness.
- ²⁷She looks well to the ways of her
household,
and does not eat the bread of idle-
ness.
- ²⁸Her children rise up and call her
blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her.
- ²⁹Many daughters have done well,
but you excel them all.
- ³⁰Favor is deceitful, and beauty is
vain;
but a woman who fears the LORD,
she shall be praised.
- ³¹Give her of the fruit of her hands;
and let her own works praise her in the gates.

The Book of ECCLESIASTES

CHAPTER 1

¹The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem. ²Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! all is vanity. ³What profit does a man have from all his labor which he does under the sun? ⁴*One* generation passes away, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. ⁵The sun also arises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it arose. ⁶The wind goes toward the south, and it turns around to the north; it whirls around continually; and the wind returns again according to its circuits. ⁷All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from where the rivers come, there they return again. ⁸All things are full of labor; man cannot utter it; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. ⁹The thing that has been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done; and there is no new thing under the sun. ¹⁰Is there a thing of which it may be said, See, this is new? It has already been in days of old, which were before us. ¹¹There is no memory of former things; neither shall there be any memory of things that are to come, with those who shall come after.

¹²I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven. It is a sad task God has given to the sons of man to be humbled by it. ¹⁴I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. ¹⁵*That which* is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is lacking cannot be numbered. ¹⁶I spoke within my own heart, saying, Lo, I have become great and have gathered more wisdom than all that have been before me in Jerusalem; yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. ¹⁷And I gave my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly; I know that this also is vexation of spirit. ¹⁸For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

¹I said in my heart, Come now, I will test you with joy; therefore enjoy pleasure; and behold, this also is vanity. ²I said of laughter, It is mad; and of joy, What does it do? ³I sought in my heart to give myself to wine, yet leading my heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, until I might see what was that good thing for the sons of men, that thing which they should do under the heavens all the days of their life. ⁴I made great works for myself; I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards for myself. ⁵I made gardens and orchards for myself, And I planted trees in them, of all kind of fruit. ⁶I made pools of water for myself, to water the forest shooting forth trees. ⁷I got servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me. ⁸I also gathered silver and gold unto myself, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got men singers and women singers for myself, and the delights of the sons of men, a wife and very many wives. ⁹So I was great and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me. ¹⁰And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them; I did not withhold my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labor, and this was my part of all my labor. ¹¹Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done, and on the labor that I had labored to do; and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit; and there was no profit under the sun.

¹²And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly; for what can the man do who comes after the king? Even that which has been already done. ¹³Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. ¹⁴The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walks in darkness; and I also knew that one event happens to all of them. ¹⁵Then I said in my heart, As it happens to the fool, so it happens even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. ¹⁶For there is no memory of the wise more than of the fool forever, since that which is now shall all be forgotten in the days to come. And how does the wise man die? Like the fool! ¹⁷Therefore I hated life; because the work that is done under the sun is sad to me; for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

¹⁸Yes, I hated all my labor which I had done under the sun; because I should leave it to the man who shall be after me. ¹⁹And who knows whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? Yet he shall have rule over all my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. ²⁰Therefore I turned about to cause my heart to despair as to all the labor which I did under the sun. ²¹For there is a man whose labor is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and with success; yet to a man who has not labored in it, he shall leave it for his share. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²²For what has man from all his labor, and from the troubling of his heart, in which he has labored under the sun? ²³For all his days are sorrows, and his labor sadness; yea, his heart does not take rest in the night. This is also vanity.

²⁴There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This I also saw, that it was from the hand of God. ²⁵For who can eat, or who else can hasten enjoyment more than I? ²⁶For God gives wisdom, and knowledge, and joy to a man who is good in His sight. But to the sinner He gives labor, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

¹To every thing there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heaven — ²a time to be born, and a time to die — a time to plant, and a time to pull up that which is planted — ³a time to kill, and a time to heal — a time to break down, and a time to build up — ⁴a time to weep, and a time to laugh — a time to mourn, and a time to dance — ⁵a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together — a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing — ⁶a time to get, and a time to lose — a time to keep, and a time to throw away — ⁷a time to tear, and a time to sew — a time to keep silence, and a time to speak — ⁸a time to love, and a time to hate — a time of war, and a time of peace.

⁹What profit does he have who works in that in which he labors? ¹⁰I have seen the task which God has given to the sons of men to be humbled by it. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in His time; also He has set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God makes from the beginning to the end. ¹²I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice and to do good in his life. ¹³And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God. ¹⁴I know that, whatever God does, it shall be forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and Goes does it so that men should fear before Him. ¹⁵That which has been is now; and that which is to be has already been; and God requires that which is past.

¹⁶And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. ¹⁷I said in my heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. ¹⁸I said in my heart concerning the sons of men, that God might prove them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. ¹⁹For that which happens to the sons of men also happens to beasts; even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so dies the other; yea, they all have one breath; so that a man has no advantage over a beast; for all is vanity. ²⁰All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all return to dust again. ²¹Who knows the spirit of man that goes upward, and the spirit of the beast that goes downward? ²²Therefore I have seen that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion; for who can bring him to see what shall be after him?

¹So I returned, and considered all the cruel things that are done under the sun. And behold the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter! And on the side of those who crushed them there was power, but they had no comforter. ²Therefore I praised the dead which are already dead, more than the living which are still alive. ³Yea, better than both is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

⁴Again, I considered all labor, and every right work, that for this a man is envied by his neighbor. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. ⁵The fool folds his hands together, and eats his own flesh. ⁶Better is one handful with quietness than both hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

⁷Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun. ⁸There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he has neither child nor brother; yet there is no end to all his labor; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither does he say, For whom do I labor and take good from my soul? This is also vanity. Yes, it is a sad business.

⁹Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor. ¹⁰For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he does not have another to help him. ¹¹Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one be warm alone? ¹²And if one overthrows him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

¹³A poor and a wise child is better than an old and foolish king, who will not be warned any more. ¹⁴For out of prison he comes to reign; although in his kingdom he was poor. ¹⁵I saw all the living who walk under the sun, with the second child who shall stand up in his place. ¹⁶*There is* no end of all the people, even of all who have been before them; they also who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER 5

¹Guard your steps when you go to the house of God, and be more ready to hear than to give the sacrifice of fools. For they do not know that they are doing evil. ²Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to say a word before God — for God is in Heaven, and you are upon earth; therefore let your words be few. ³For a dream comes through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. ⁴When you vow a vow to God, do not wait to pay it. For He has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you have vowed. ⁵*It is* better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. ⁶Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin; neither say before the messenger of God that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also many different vanities. But you should fear God.

⁸If you see the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, do not marvel at the matter. For He who is higher than the highest watches; and there are some higher than they.

¹⁸Behold that which I have seen. It is good and right for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor that he takes under the sun all the days of his life, which God gives him — for it is his portion. ¹⁹Also every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor — this is the gift of God. ²⁰For he shall not much remember the days of his life, because God answers him in the joy of his heart.

¹There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men — ²a man to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a stranger eats it — this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

⁶Yea, though he live twice a thousand years, yet he has seen no good. Do not all go to one place? ⁷All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. ⁸For what has the wise more than the fool? What gain has the poor who knows how to walk before the living?

⁹Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. ¹⁰That which has been is named already, and it is known that it is man. Neither may he contend with Him who is mightier than he.

¹¹Since there are many things that increase vanity, what is man the better? ¹²For who knows what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spends as a shadow? For who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER 7

¹A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of one's birth. ²*It is* better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. ³Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made better. ⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of laughter. ⁵*It is* better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools. ⁶For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool — this also is vanity.

¹¹Wisdom is good with an inheritance; but it is gain to those who see the sun. ¹²For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it. ¹³Consider the work of God; for who can make that straight which He has made crooked? ¹⁴In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity take note that God also has set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. ¹⁵All things I have seen in the days of my vanity; there is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness. ¹⁶Do not be righteous overmuch, neither make yourself overwise — why should you destroy yourself? ¹⁷Do not be wicked overmuch, neither be foolish — why should you die before your time? ¹⁸*It is* good that you should take hold of this; yea, also from this do not withdraw your hand; for he who fears God shall come forth from all of them. ¹⁹Wisdom makes the wise stronger than ten mighty men who are in the city. ²⁰For there is not a just man upon earth who does good and does not sin. ²¹Also do not listen to all words that are spoken; lest you hear your servant curse you. ²²For oftentimes also your own heart knows that you yourself have also cursed others.

²³All this I have proved by wisdom; I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. ²⁴That which is far off and exceeding deep, who can find it out? ²⁵I set my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness; ²⁶and I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands like hands. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her. ²⁷Behold, this I have found, says the Preacher, counting one by one, to find out the sum; ²⁸which my soul still sought, but I find not — one man among a thousand I have found, but a woman among all those I have not found. ²⁹Lo, this only I have found, that God has made man upright — but they have sought out many inventions.

⁶Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. ⁷For he does not know what shall be; for who can tell him when it shall be? ⁸*There is* no man who has power over the spirit to keep the spirit; nor does he have power in the day of death; and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who are given to it. ⁹All this I have seen, and I gave my heart to every work that is done under the sun; there is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt. ¹⁰And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had done so — this is also vanity. ¹¹Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

¹²Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and his days be made longer, yet surely I know that it shall be well with those who fear God, who fear before Him. ¹³But it shall not be well with the wicked, nor shall he make his days longer like a shadow; because he does not fear before God. ¹⁴There is a vanity which is done upon the earth — that there are just men unto whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous — I said that this also is vanity. ¹⁵Then I praised gladness, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat, and to drink and to be glad; for that shall go with him of his labor for the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

¹⁶When I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth — for neither day nor night do men see sleep with their eyes — ¹⁷then I looked at all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun; because though a man labors to seek it out, yet he shall not find it. Yea, further, though a wise man speaks of knowing it, yet he shall not be able to find it.

CHAPTER 9

¹For all this I took to heart, even to make all this clear, that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. No man knows either love or hatred by all that is before them. ²All happens alike to all; there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him who sacrifices and to him who does not sacrifice; as is the good man, so is the sinner; and he who swears is as he who fears an oath. ³This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all. Yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

¹¹I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill — but time and chance happens to them all. ¹²For man also does not know his time; as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly upon them.

¹³This wisdom I have seen also under the sun, and it seemed great to me. ¹⁴*There was* a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it and circled around it, and built huge banks against it. ¹⁵Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city — yet no man remembered that same poor man. ¹⁶Then I said, Wisdom is better than strength; nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. ¹⁷The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him who rules among fools. ¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

¹Dead flies cause the ointment of the perfumer to send forth a stinking odor; so does a little foolishness outweigh wisdom and honor. ²A man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left. ³Yes also, when he who is a fool walks by the way, his wisdom fails him and he says to everyone that he is a fool. ⁴If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for yielding quiets great sinners. ⁵There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which comes from the ruler — ⁶foolishness is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. ⁷I have seen servants upon horses and princes walking as servants upon the earth. ⁸He who digs a pit shall fall into it; and whoever breaks a hedge, a snake shall bite him. ⁹Whoever removes stones shall be hurt with them. He who cuts wood shall be endangered by it. ¹⁰If the iron is blunt, and he does not whet the edge, then he must put more strength to it. But wisdom is profitable to direct. ¹¹Surely the snake will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better. ¹²The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow himself up. ¹³The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is wicked madness. ¹⁴A fool also is full of words; a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? ¹⁵The labor of the foolish wearies every one of them, because he does not know how to go to the city.

¹⁶Woe unto you, O land, when your king is a child and your princes feast in the morning. ¹⁷Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due time, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

¹⁸By much laziness the building decays; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks. ¹⁹A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes merry; but money answers all things. ²⁰Do not curse the king, no, not in your thought; and do not curse the rich in your bedroom; for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which has wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER 11

¹Cast your bread upon the waters; for you shall find it after many days. ²Give a share to seven, and also to eight; for you know not what evil shall be upon the earth. ³If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth; and if the tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it shall be. ⁴He who watches the wind shall not sow; and he who pays attention to the clouds shall not reap. ⁵As you do not know what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; even so you do not know the works of God who makes all. ⁶In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand; for you do not know what shall be blessed, either this or that, or whether they both shall be fruitful in the same way.

⁷Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun; ⁸but if a man lives many years, and rejoices in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity.

⁹Rejoice, O young man, in your youth; and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes — but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment. ¹⁰Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAPTER 12

¹Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, while the evil days do not come, nor the years draw near, when you shall say, I have no pleasure in them. ²Before the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, are darkened, or the clouds return after the rain; ³in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because there are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened, ⁴and the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and you shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low. ⁵Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail — because man goes to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets — ⁶or ever the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

⁷Then the dust shall return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return to God who gave it.

⁸Vanity of vanities, says the preacher; all is vanity. ⁹And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he listened, and looked, and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰The preacher sought to find out pleasing words; and words of truth written by the upright. ¹¹The words of the wise are like goads, yes, their collected words are like nails driven home, which are given from one Shepherd. ¹²And further, by these, my son, be warned — of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

¹³Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. Fear God, and keep His commandments — for this is the whole duty of man. ¹⁴For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

The Song of SOLOMON

CHAPTER 1

- ¹The song of songs, which is Solomon's.
- ²Let Him kiss me with the kisses of His mouth;
for Thy love is better than wine.
- ³Because of the smell of Thy good ointments
Thy name is as oil poured forth;
therefore the virgins love Thee.
- ⁴Draw me, we will run after Thee,
The king has brought me into his chambers;
we will be glad and rejoice in Thee,
we will remember Thy love more than wine;
the upright love Thee.
- ⁵I am black, but comely,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
like the tents of Kē'dār,
like the curtains of Solomon.
- ⁶Do not look upon me, because I am black,
because the sun has looked upon me.
My mother's children were angry with me;
they made me the keeper of the vineyards;
but my own vineyard I have not kept.
- ⁷Tell me, O Thou whom my soul loves,
where dost Thou feed,
where dost Thou make thy flock to rest at noon?
For why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of Thy companions?
- ⁸If you know not,
most beautiful among women,
go forth in the footsteps of the flock,
and feed your kids
beside the shepherds' tents.
- ⁹I have compared you, O my love,
to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.
- ¹⁰Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments,
your neck with chains of gold.
- ¹¹We will make you borders of gold with studs of silver.
- ¹²While the King is in His circle,
my spikenard sends forth its smell.
- ¹³A bundle of myrrh is my Beloved unto me.
He shall lie all night between my breasts.
- ¹⁴My Beloved is unto me like a cluster of henna
in the vineyards of Ēn-gē'dī.
- ¹⁵Behold, you are beautiful, my love;
behold, you are beautiful;
you have doves' eyes.
- ¹⁶Behold, you are beautiful, my Beloved,
yea, pleasant.
Also our bed is green.
- ¹⁷The beams of our house are cedar,
and our rafters are of fir.

CHAPTER 2

- ¹I am the rose of Shār'ōn,
and the lily of the valleys.
- ²As the lily among thorns, so is My love
among the daughters.
- ³As the apple among the trees of the wood,
so is my Beloved among the sons.
I sat down under His shadow with great delight,
and His fruit was sweet to my taste.
- ⁴He brought me to the banqueting house,
and His banner over me was love.
- ⁵Feed me with raisin cakes,
comfort me with apples—
for I am sick with love.

CHAPTER 3

- ⁶His left hand is under my head,
and His right hand embraces me.
- ⁷I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
by the roes, and by the hinds of the field,
do not stir up or awake my Love until He please.
- ⁸The voice of my Beloved!
Behold, He comes
leaping upon the mountains,
skipping upon the hills.
- ⁹My Beloved is like a roe
or a young hart.
Behold, He stands
behind our wall,
He looks forth at the windows,
showing Himself through the lattice.
- ¹⁰My Beloved spoke, and said to me,
Rise up, My love, My beautiful one,
and come away.
- ¹¹For lo, the winter is past,
the rain is over and gone;
- ¹²the flowers appear on the earth;
the time of the singing of birds has come,
and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land;
- ¹³the fig tree puts forth her green figs,
and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell.
Arise, My love, My beautiful one,
and come away.
- ¹⁴O My dove, in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret places of the stairs,
let Me see your face,
let Me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is beautiful.
- ¹⁵Take us the foxes,
the little foxes
that spoil the vines;
for our vines have tender grapes.
- ¹⁶My Beloved is mine, and I am His;
He feeds among the lilies.
- ¹⁷Until the day break,
and the shadows flee away,
turn, my Beloved, and be like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bē'-thēr.
- ¹By night upon my bed
I sought Him whom my soul loved;
I sought Him,
but I did not find Him.
- ²I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the broad ways;
I will seek Him whom my soul
loves.
I sought Him, but I did not find
Him.
- ³The watchmen who go about the city
found me. I said to them,
Have you seen Him whom my soul
loves?
- ⁴But a little while after I passed from
them,
I found Him whom my soul loves.
I held Him and would not let Him go, until I had brought Him into my mother's house,
and into the room of her who conceived me.
- ⁵I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
by the roes, and by the hinds of the field,
do not stir up nor awake my love
until He please.
- ⁶Who is this who comes out of the wilderness
like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
with all powders of the merchant?
- ⁷Behold his bed,
which is Solomon's;
sixty strong men are around it,
of the strong men of Israel.
- ⁸They all hold swords,
instructed in war;
every man has his sword upon his thigh
because of fear in the night.
- ⁹King Solomon made himself a chariot
of the wood of Lebanon.
- ¹⁰He made the pillars of it of silver,
the bottom of it of gold, the covering
of it of purple,
the midst of it being paved with love,
for the daughters of Jerusalem.

¹¹Go forth, O daughter of Zion, and behold King Solomon
with the crown with which his mother crowned him
in the day of his wedding,
and in the day of the gladness of his
heart.

CHAPTER 4

¹Behold, you are beautiful, My love.
Behold, you are beautiful;
you have doves' eyes
within your locks;
your hair is like a flock of goats
that appear from Mount Gilead.

²Your teeth are like a flock of shorn
sheep,
which came up from the washing;
of which every one bears twins,
and none is barren among them.

³Your lips are like a cord of scarlet,
and your speech is becoming;
your temples are like a piece of pomegranate
behind your veil.

⁴Your neck is like the tower of David,
built for an armory,
on which there hang a thousand bucklers,
all shields of mighty men.

⁵Your two breasts are like two young roes that are twins,
which feed among the lilies.

⁶Until the day break,
and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh
and to the hill of frankincense.

⁷You are all fair, My love;
there is no spot in you.

⁸Come with Me from Lebanon, My spouse, from Lebanon;
look from the top of Ā-mā'-nā,
from the top of Shē'-nir and Hēr'- mon,
from the lions' dens,
from the mountains of the leopards.

⁹You have ravished My heart, My sister, My spouse;
you have ravished My heart with one
of your eyes,
with one chain of your neck.

¹⁰How fair is your love, My sister, My
spouse!

How much better is your love than
wine!
and the smell of your ointments than all spices!

¹¹Your lips, O My spouse, drop like the honeycomb;
honey and milk are under your
tongue;
and the smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

¹²A walled garden is My sister, My
spouse;
a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

¹³Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates,
with pleasant fruits;
with henna and spikenard,

¹⁴spikenard and saffron; cāl'-ā-mūs and cinnamon,
with all trees of frankincense;
myrrh and aloes,
with all the chief spices;

¹⁵a fountain of gardens, a well of living
waters,
and streams from Lebanon.

¹⁶Awake, O north wind;
and come, south wind;
blow upon my garden,
so that the spices of it may flow out.
Let my Beloved come into His garden,
and eat His pleasant fruits.

CHAPTER 5

¹I have come into My garden, My sister, My spouse;
I have gathered My myrrh with My spice;
I have eaten My honeycomb with My honey;
I have drunk My wine with My milk.

Eat, O friends;
drink, yea, drink abundantly, O Beloved.

²I sleep, but my heart wakes.
It is the voice of my Beloved that knocks, saying,

Open to Me, My sister, My love,
My dove, My undefiled;
for My head is filled with dew,
My locks with the drops of the night.

³I have put off my coat;
How shall I put it on?
I have washed my feet;
how shall I defile them?

⁴My Beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door,
and my heart was moved for Him.

⁵I rose up to open to my Beloved;
and my hands dripped with myrrh,
and my fingers with sweet smelling
myrrh,
upon the handles of the lock.

⁶I opened to my Beloved;
but my Beloved had withdrawn Himself, and was gone;
my soul failed when He spoke;
I sought Him, but I could not find
Him;
I called Him, but He gave me no
answer.

⁷The watchmen who went about the city found me,
they struck me, they wounded me;
the keepers of the walls
took away my veil from me.

⁸I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
if you find my Beloved,
that you tell Him
that I am sick with love.

⁹What is your Beloved more than another Beloved,
most beautiful among women?
What is your Beloved more than an-
other Beloved,
that you charge us so?

¹⁰My Beloved is white and ruddy,
the chiefest among ten thousands.

¹¹His head is like the most fine gold,
His locks are bushy
and black as a raven.

¹²His eyes are as the eyes of doves
by the rivers of waters,
washed with milk,
and fitly set.

¹³His cheeks are like a bed of spices,
like sweet flowers;
His lips are like lilies,
dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

¹⁴His hands are like gold rings set with the beryl;
His belly is like bright ivory
overlaid with sapphires [sāf'-fires].

¹⁵His legs are like pillars of marble,
set upon sockets of fine gold;
His face is like Lebanon,
excellent as the cedars.

¹⁶His mouth is most sweet;
yes, He is altogether lovely.
This is my Beloved, and this is my Friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 6

¹Where has your Beloved gone,
most beautiful among women?
Where has your Beloved turned aside?
that we may seek Him with you.

²My Beloved has gone down to His garden,
to the beds of spices,
to feed in the gardens
and to gather lilies.

³I am my Beloved's, and my Beloved is mine;
He feeds among the lilies.

⁴O my love, you are as beautiful as Tir'-zāh,
as lovely as Jerusalem,
as inspiring as an army with banners.

⁵Turn away your eyes from Me,
for they have overcome Me;
your hair is like a flock of goats
that appears from Gilead.

⁶Your teeth are like a flock of sheep which go up from the washing,
of which every one bears twins,
and there is not one barren among
them.

⁷Your temples behind your veil
are like a piece of pomegranate.

⁸There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines,
and virgins without number.

⁹But My dove, My undefiled is one alone.
She is the only one of her mother.
She is the choice of her who bore
her.
The daughters saw her and blessed
her;
the queens and the concubines saw
her, and they praised her.

¹⁰Who is she who looks forth like the morning,
fair as the moon, clear as the sun and as inspiring as an army with banners?

¹¹I went down into the garden of nuts
to see the fruits of the valley, to see whether the vine flowered
and the pomegranates budded.

¹²Before I was aware, my soul set me upon the chariots of my princely
people.

¹³Return, return, O Shû'-lā-mītel Return, return, that we may look upon you.

What will you see in the Shû'-lā-mītel!
As it were the company of two armies.

CHAPTER 7

¹How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
O prince's daughter!
The joints of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

²Your navel is like a round goblet,
which never lacks mixed wine;
your belly is like a heap of wheat
set about with lilies.

³Your two breasts are like two young roes
that are twins.

⁴Your neck is like a tower of ivory;
your eyes like the fish-pools in Heshbon,
by the gate of Bāth-rāb'-bīm;
your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
which looks toward Damascus.

⁵Your head upon you is like Carmel, and the hair of your head like
purple;
the King is held captive in its tresses.

⁶How beautiful and how pleasant you
are,
O love, for delights!

⁷This your stature is like a palm tree,
and your breasts are like clusters of grapes.

⁸I said, I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of the boughs of it;
now also your breasts shall be like clusters of the vine,
and the smell of your nose like
apples;

⁹and the roof of your mouth like the best wine for my Beloved,
that goes down smoothly,
causing the lips of those who are asleep to speak.

¹⁰I am my Beloved's, and His desire is toward me.

¹¹Come, my Beloved,
let us go forth into the field;
let us stay in the villages.

¹²Let us get up early into the vineyards;
let us see if the vine flowers,
whether the tender grape appears,
and the pomegranates bud forth;
there I will give Thee my loves.

¹³The love-apples give a smell, and at our gates are all kinds of pleasant fruits,
new and old,
which I have laid up for Thee, O my Beloved.

CHAPTER 8

¹O that Thou couldst be as my brother, who sucked the breasts of my
mother!

When I find Thee outside, I would kiss Thee;
yea, I would not be despised.

²I would lead Thee, and bring Thee into my mother's house,
who would instruct Thee;
I would cause Thee to drink spiced
wine
of the juice of my pomegranate.

³His left hand would be under my
head,
and His right hand would embrace
me.

⁴I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
that you do not stir up nor awake
my Love
until He please.

⁵Who is this that comes up from the wilderness,
leaning upon her Beloved?

I raised you up under the apple tree;
there your mother brought you forth;
there she who bore you brought you forth.

⁶Set me as a seal upon Thy heart,
as a seal upon Thy arm;
for love is strong as death.
Jealousy is cruel as the grave.
The coals of it are coals of fire,
a flame of Jehovah.

⁷Many waters cannot quench love,
neither can the floods drown it.
If a man would give all the wealth
of his house for love,
it would be scorned.

⁸We have a little sister,
and she has no breasts;
what shall we do for our sister
in the day when she shall be spoken for?

⁹If she is a wall,
we will build upon her a palace of
silver;

and if she is a door,
we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

¹⁰I am a wall,
and my breasts are like towers;
then was I in His eyes
as one who found favor.

¹¹Solomon had a vineyard in Bā'-ālhā'-mōn;
he let out the vineyard to keepers;
everyone for the fruit of it was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

¹²My vineyard, which is mine, is before
me;
you, O Solomon, must have a thousand,
and those who keep the fruit of it
two hundred.

¹³You who dwell in the gardens,
the companions listen to your voice;
cause me to hear it.

¹⁴Hurry, my Beloved,
and be Thou like a roe
or a young hart
upon the mountains of spices.

The Book of ISAIAH

CHAPTER 1

¹The vision of Isaiah the son of Ā'-mōz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Ūz-zī'-āh, Jō'-thām, Ā'-hāz, and Hēz-ē-kī'-āh, kings of Judah. ²Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD has spoken, I have nursed and brought up children, and they have rebelled against Me. ³The ox knows his owner, and the ass his master's crib; but Israel does not know, My people does not understand. ⁴Ah, sinful nation, a people heavy with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children who make others rotten — they have forsaken the LORD; they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger; they have gone away backward.

⁵Why should you be stricken any more? You will revolt more and more; the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. ⁶From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores; they have not been closed, nor bound up, nor soothed with oil. ⁷Your country is wasted, your cities are burned with fire. Your land — strangers devour it right before your eyes, and it is wasted, as overthrown by strangers. ⁸And the daughter of Zion is left like a cottage in a vineyard, like a hut in a garden of cucumbers, like a besieged city. ⁹Except the LORD of hosts had left us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom, and we would have been like Gō-mōr'-rāh.

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom; give ear to the law of our God, you people of Gō-mōr'-rāh. ¹¹To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto Me? says the LORD; I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of he-goats. ¹²When you come to appear before Me, who has required this at your hand, to trample My courts? ¹³Bring no more vain sacrifice, incense is an abomination unto Me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of meetings, I cannot endure. It is iniquity, even the solemn meeting! ¹⁴Your new moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates; they are a trouble to Me; I am weary to bear them. ¹⁵And when you spread forth your hands, I will hide My eyes from you; yea, when you make many prayers, I will not hear; your hands are full of blood.

¹⁶Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes; cease to do evil; ¹⁷learn to do good; seek judgment, make those who are pressed down happy; judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. ¹⁸Come now, and let us reason together, says the LORD; though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be like wool. ¹⁹If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; ²⁰but

if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.

²¹How has the faithful city become a harlot! It was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. ²²Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water; ²³your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; everyone loves bribes, and is pursuing rewards; they judge not the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them. ²⁴Therefore says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease Myself of My foes, and avenge Myself of My enemies. ²⁵And I will turn My hand upon you, and purely purge away your dross and take away all your tin. ²⁶And I will restore your judges as at first, and your counselors as at the beginning; afterwards you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city. ²⁷Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her returning ones with righteousness.

²⁸And the downfall of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed. ²⁹For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be ashamed for the gardens which you have chosen. ³⁰For you shall be like an oak whose leaf fades, and like a garden that has no water. ³¹And the strong shall be like tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall put them out.

CHAPTER 2

¹The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. ²And in the last days the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it. ³And many people shall go and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths; for out of Zion shall go forth the Law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. ⁴And He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. ⁵O house of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

⁶Therefore Thou hast forsaken Thy people the house of Jacob, because they have become full from the east, and are fortunetellers like the Philistines. And they please themselves in the children of strangers. ⁷Also their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots. ⁸Also their land is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

⁹And the man bows down, and the great man lowers himself; therefore do not forgive them.

¹⁰Enter into the rock and hide in the dust for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of His majesty. ¹¹The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the pride of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. ¹²For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one who is proud and lofty, and upon every one who is lifted up; and he shall be brought low, ¹³And it shall be upon all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bā'-shān, ¹⁴and upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up, ¹⁵and upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, ¹⁶and upon all the ships of Tār'-shīsh, and upon all pleasant pictures. ¹⁷And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the pride of men shall be made low; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. ¹⁸And He shall completely do away with the idols. ¹⁹And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth for fear of the LORD and for the glory of His majesty, when He arises to shake the earth terribly. ²⁰In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; ²¹to go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD and for the glory of His majesty, when He arises to shake the earth terribly. ²²Cease from man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for of what value is he?

¹For behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread and the whole stay of water, ²the mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient, ³the captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the counselor, and the skilled worker, and the expert charmer. ⁴And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them. ⁵And the people shall be crushed, every man by another, and every man by his neighbor; the child shall act proudly against the old man, and the low against the honorable. ⁶When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, You have clothing, you be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand; ⁷in that day he shall swear, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing; do not make me a ruler of the people. ⁸For Jerusalem is ruined and Judah has fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of His glory.

⁹The look of their faces witnesses against them; and they declare their sin like Sodom — they do not hide it! Woe unto their soul! For they have rewarded evil unto themselves. ¹⁰Say to the righteous that it shall be well within him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. ¹¹Woe unto the wicked! It shall go evil with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

¹²As for my people, children are their taskmasters, and women rule over them. O my people, they who lead you cause you to go astray and destroy the way of your paths. ¹³The LORD stands up to plead His case, and stands up to judge the people. ¹⁴The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders of His people, and the princes of them; for you have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses. ¹⁵What do you mean by crushing My people and grinding the faces of the poor? says the Lord GOD of hosts.

¹⁶Moreover the LORD says, Because the daughters of Zion are proud, and have walked with stretched out necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet — ¹⁷therefore the Lord will strike with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will make their secret parts naked. ¹⁸In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their tinkling ornaments, and their net caps, and their round ornaments like the moon, ¹⁹the chains, and the bracelets, and the veils, ²⁰the headbands, and the ornaments of the legs, and the girdles, and the perfume boxes, and the earrings, ²¹the rings, and nose jewels, ²²the costly clothing, and the top tunics, and the shawls, and the purses, ²³the mirrors, and the fine linen, and the turbans, and the veils. ²⁴And instead of sweet smell there shall be a stinking odor; and instead of a girdle, a rope; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a robe; a wrapping of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty. ²⁵Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war. ²⁶And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall sit deserted upon the ground.

¹And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothing; only let us be called by your name, to take away our shame. ²In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for those who have escaped from Israel. ³And he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem — ⁴when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst of it by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. ⁵And the LORD will create over every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for upon all the glory shall be a defense. ⁶And

there shall be a covering for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a hiding place from storm and from rain.

CHAPTER 5

¹Now I will sing to my Beloved a song of my Beloved concerning His vineyard. My Beloved has a vineyard in a very fruitful hill. ²And He fenced it, and gathered out the stones of it, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress in it; and He looked for it to bring forth grapes. And it brought forth wild grapes. ³And now, O people of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, I pray you, judge between Me and My vineyard. ⁴What more could have been done to my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I looked for it to bring forth grapes, why did it bring forth wild grapes? ⁵And now come, I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard; I will take away the hedge of it, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall of it, and it shall be trampled down; ⁶and I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor dug; but there shall come up briars and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. ⁷For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah His pleasant plant; and He looked for justice, but behold bloody iniquity; for righteousness, but behold a cry!

⁸Woe unto those who join house to house, who lay field to field, until there is no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! ⁹The LORD of hosts said in my ears, Truly many houses shall be deserted, even great and fair, without any in it. ¹⁰Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bāth, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ē'-phāh.

¹³Therefore My people have gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge. And their honorable men are starved, and their multitude is dried up with thirst. ¹⁴Therefore hell has enlarged itself, and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, and their multitude, and their pride, and he who rejoices, shall go down into it. ¹⁵And man is bowed down, and man is humbled, and the eyes of the lofty are humbled. ¹⁶But the LORD of hosts is exalted in judgment, and God the holy One is sanctified in righteousness. ¹⁷Then shall the lambs feed in their way, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. ¹⁸Woe unto those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope; ¹⁹who say, Let Him hurry and hasten His work, so that we may see it; and let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, so that we may know it!

²⁰Woe unto those who call evil good and good evil; who put darkness for light and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! ²¹Woe unto those who are wise in their own eyes, and bright in their own sight! ²²Woe unto those who are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mix strong drink; ²³who justify the wicked for a bribe, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! ²⁴Therefore as the fire devours the stubble, and the flame burns up the chaff, so their root shall be like rottenness, and their blossom shall go up like dust — because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. ²⁵Therefore the anger of the LORD is kindled against His people, and He has stretched forth His hand against them, and has stricken them; and the hills trembled, and their dead bodies were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

²⁶And He will lift up a banner to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the ends of the earth; and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly. ²⁷None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosened, nor the thong of their sandals be broken — ²⁸whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs shall be thought like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind. ²⁹Their roaring shall be like a lion; they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. ³⁰And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea; and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow! And the light is darkened in the heavens of it.

¹In the year that king Ūz-zī'-āh died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. ²Above it stood the sēr'-ā-phīms; each one had six wings; with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory. ⁴And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him who cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

⁵Then I said, Woe is me! For I am undone; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. ⁶Then one of the seraphims flew unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. ⁷And he laid it upon my mouth and said,

Lo, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin purged. ⁸Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I; send me!

⁹And He said, Go, and tell this people, You hear indeed, but understand not; and you see indeed, but do not know. ¹⁰Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and be converted, and be healed. ¹¹Then I said, Lord, how long? And He answered, Until the cities are wasted without any left, and the houses without man, and the land is completely deserted, ¹²and the LORD has moved men far away, and there is a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

¹³But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return and shall be eaten; as a turpentine tree, and as an oak, whose stock remains, when they cast their leaves; so the holy seed shall be its trunk.

CHAPTER 7

¹And in the days of Ahaz the son of Jō'-thām, the son of Ūz-zī'-āh, king of Judah, Rē'-zīn the king of Syria, and Pē'-kāh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not overcome it. ²And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is in league with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the woods are moved by the wind. ³Then the LORD said to Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, you and Shē'-ār-jāsh'-ūb your son, at the end of the channel of the upper pool in the highway of the Fuller's Field. ⁴And say to him, Be careful and be quiet. Do not fear, neither be timid of heart because of the two tails of these smoking firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rē'-zīn with Syria, and of the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh. ⁵Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh, have plotted against you, saying, ⁶Let us go up against Judah and trouble it, and let us make a break in it for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tā'-bē-āl. ⁷Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass. ⁸For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rē'-zīn; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken so that it shall not be a people. ⁹And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Rēm-ā-lī'-āh's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established.

¹⁰Moreover the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, ¹¹Ask a sign of the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. ¹²But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. ¹³And he said, Hear now, O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? ¹⁴Therefore the Lord Himself shall give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall be with child and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call His name Īm-mān'-ū-ēl. ¹⁵Butter and honey he shall eat until he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶For before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land by which you are alarmed shall be forsaken of both its kings.

¹⁷The LORD shall bring upon you, and upon your people, and upon your father's house, days that have not come, from the days that Ephraim departed from Judah — even the king of Ās-syr'-ī-ā. ¹⁸And in that day the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the outermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. ¹⁹And they shall come and all of them shall rest in the desert valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. ²⁰In the same day the LORD shall shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by those who are beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet; and it shall also sweep away the beard. ²¹And in that day a man shall keep alive a young cow and two sheep; ²²and from the plentiful supply of milk they shall give, he shall eat butter; for butter and honey shall everyone eat who is left in the land. ²³And in that day every place where there were a thousand vines, worth a thousand pieces of silver, it shall even be for briers and thorns. ²⁴With arrows and with bows men shall come there, because all the land shall become briers and thorns. ²⁵And on all hills that shall be dug with the hoe, there shall not come there the fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen and for the trampling of sheep.

¹Moreover the LORD said to me, Take a great scroll and write in it with a man's pen concerning Mā'-hēr-shāl'-āl-hāsh-bāz. ²And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Ū-rī'-āh the priest and Zēch-ārī'-āh the son of Jē-bēr-ē-chī'-āh. ³And I went to the prophetess. And she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, Call his name Mā'-hēr-shāl'-āl-hāsh-bāz. ⁴For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

⁵The LORD also spoke to me again saying, ⁶Because this people has refused the waters of Shī-lō'-āh that go softly, and rejoice in Rē'-zīn and Rēm-ā-lī'-āh's son; ⁷now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory; and he shall come up over all his channels and go over all his banks. ⁸And he shall pass through Judah. He shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck. And the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of your land, O Īm-mān'-ū-ēl.

⁹Gather yourself, O people, and you shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all you from far countries; gird yourselves, and you shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and you shall be broken in pieces. ¹⁰Plot together, and it shall come to nothing; speak the word, and it shall not stand; for God is with us.

¹¹For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and warned me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, ¹²Do not say, A conspiracy! to all those to whom this people shall say, A conspiracy! Neither fear their fear, nor be afraid. ¹³Sanctify the LORD of hosts Himself. And let Him be your fear, and let Him fill you with wonder. ¹⁴And He shall be a sanctuary for you, but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, for a trap and for a snare to the people of Jerusalem. ¹⁵And many among them shall stumble and fall and be broken and be snared and be taken. ¹⁶Bind up the testimony, seal the law among My disciples. ¹⁷And I will wait upon the LORD, who hides His face from the house of Jacob; and I will look for Him. ¹⁸Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion.

¹⁹And when they shall say to you, Seek unto those who have familiar spirits, and unto wizards who peep and who mutter — should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? ²⁰To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. ²¹And they shall pass through it, hard-pressed and hungry; and it shall come to pass that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. ²²And they shall look to the earth; and behold! trouble and darkness and gloom of anguish! They shall be driven away into deep darkness.

¹But there will be no gloom for her who was in pain. In the former time He lightly afflicted the land of Zē-bū'-lūn and the land of Nāph'-tā-lī, but in later days He has made glorious the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; they who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them the light has shined. ³Thou hast multiplied the nation. Thou hast increased the joy. They rejoice before Thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. ⁴For Thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his taskmaster, as in the day of Mīd'-ī-ān. ⁵For every boot of the warrior tramping in the battle noise, and the coat rolled in blood, shall be burning fuel for the fire. ⁶For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder; and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. ⁷Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon His kingdom, to order it and to establish it with judgment and with justice from now on, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

⁸The Lord sent a word to Jacob, and it has fallen upon Israel. ⁹And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the people of Samaria, who say in pride and hardness of heart, ¹⁰The bricks have fallen down, but we will build with cut stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. ¹¹Therefore the LORD shall set up the foes of Rē'-zīn against him, and join his enemies together — ¹²the Syrians in front and the Philistines behind — and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

¹³For the people do not turn unto Him who strikes them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts. ¹⁴Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. ¹⁵The elder and honorable, he is the head; and the prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail. ¹⁶For the leaders of this people cause them to go astray; and they who are led by them are destroyed. ¹⁷Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall He have mercy on their fatherless and widows; for everyone is a hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaks foolishness. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

¹⁸For wickedness burns like the fire; it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall lift themselves up like the lifting up of smoke. ¹⁹Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire; no man shall have pity on his brother. ²⁰And he shall snatch on the right hand and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied; they shall each man eat the flesh of his own arm; ²¹Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

¹Woe unto those who order unrighteous laws, and to the scribes who write wicked things; ²to turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! ³And what will you do in the day of judgment and in the destroying waste which shall come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your glory? ⁴Without Me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this His hand is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

⁵O Assyrian, the rod of My anger, and the staff in their hand is My fury. ⁶I will send him against an ungodly nation, and against the people of My wrath I will give him a charge to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to trample them down like the mud of the streets. ⁷However he does not mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off many nations. ⁸For he says, Are not my princes all like kings? ⁹Is not Câl'-nô like Câr-chê'-mîsh? Is not Hâ'-mâth like Är'-pâd? Is not Samaria like Damascus? ¹⁰As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols, whose graven images did excel those of Jerusalem and of Samaria, ¹¹shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, do so to Jerusalem and her idols? ¹²Therefore, when the Lord has done His whole work upon Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the proud heart of the king of Assyria and the glory of his high looks. ¹³For he says, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am wise. And I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the people like a strong man. ¹⁴And my hand has found as a nest the riches of the people; and as one gathers eggs that are left, I have gathered all the earth; and there was none who moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. ¹⁵Shall the axe boast itself against him who chops with it? Shall the saw magnify itself against him who moves it? As if the rod could wave those who lift it up! As if a staff could raise what is not wood! ¹⁶Therefore the Lord, the Lord of hosts, shall send leanness among His fat ones; and under his glory He shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. ¹⁷And the light of Israel shall be as a fire, and His holy One as a flame; and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. ¹⁸And it shall burn up the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field, both soul and body; and they shall be as when a standard-bearer faints. ¹⁹And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child might write them.

²⁰And in that day the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob, shall never again lean upon him who struck them. But truly they will lean upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. ²¹The remnant shall return, the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. ²²For though Thy people Israel are like the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return; the full end which is decreed shall overflow with righteousness. ²³For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a full end, as ordained, in the midst of all the land.

²⁴Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people who dwell in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He shall strike you with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against you, in the manner of Egypt. ²⁵But yet a little while, and the fury shall cease, and My anger in their ruin. ²⁶And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a whip for Himself according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and as His rod was upon the sea, so shall He lift it up in the manner of Egypt. ²⁷And in that day his burden shall be taken away from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. ²⁸He has come to Aiath [Ē'-āth], he has passed to Mig'-rōn; at Mich'-māsh he has stored his baggage; ²⁹they have gone over the passage; they have made Gē'-bā their resting-place; Rā'-māh is afraid; Gīb'-ē-āh of Saul has fled. ³⁰Lift up your voice, O daughter of Gāl'-līm; cause it to be heard in Lā'-ish, O poor Ān'-ā-thōth. ³¹Mād-mē'-nāh is removed; the people of Gē'-bīm gather themselves to flee. ³²As yet he shall remain at Nob that day; he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. ³³Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror; and the great in height shall be cut down, and the proud shall be humbled. ³⁴And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

CHAPTER 11

¹And there shall come forth a Rod out of the stump of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. ²And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; ³and shall make Him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD. And He shall not judge according to the sight of His eyes, nor reprove according to the hearing of His ears. ⁴But with righteousness He shall judge the poor, and shall decide with uprightness for the meek of the earth. And He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked. ⁵And righteousness shall be the girdle of His loins, and faithfulness the girdle of His heart. ⁶Also the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. ⁷And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. ⁸And the suckling child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den. ⁹They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for a banner of the people; to it the Gentiles shall seek; and His rest shall be glorious. ¹¹And in that day the Lord shall set His hand the second time to recover the remnant of His people, which shall be left, from Assyria and from Egypt, and from Pāth'-rōs, and from Cūsh, and from Ē'-lām, and from Shī'-nār, and from Hā'-māth, and from the islands of the sea. ¹²And He shall set up a banner for the nations, and shall gather the outcasts of Israel and gather together the scattered ones of Judah from the four corners of the earth. ¹³Also the envy of Ephraim shall depart, and the foes of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not trouble Ephraim. ¹⁴But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil those of the east together; they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. ¹⁵And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with His mighty wind He shall shake His hand over the river, and shall strike it in the seven streams and make men go over dryshod. ¹⁶And there shall be a highway for the remnant of His people, which shall be left, from Assyria; as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 12

¹And in that day you shall say, O LORD, I will praise Thee; though Thou wast angry with me, Thy anger is turned away, and Thou dost comfort me. ²Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid, for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; He also has become my salvation. ³Therefore with joy you shall draw water out of the wells of salvation. ⁴And in that day you shall say, Praise the LORD, call upon His name, declare His doings among the people, make mention that His name is exalted. ⁵Sing unto the LORD; for He has done excellent things; this is known in all the earth. ⁶Cry out and shout, O man of Zion; for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of you.

¹The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Ā'-mōz did see. ²Lift up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice to them, shake the hand, so that they may go into the gates of the nobles. ³I have commanded My holy ones, I have also called My mighty ones for anger, even those who rejoice in My highness. ⁴The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; an uproar of noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together; the LORD of hosts gathers an army for the battle. ⁵They come from a far country, from the end of the heavens, even the LORD and the weapons of His fury, to destroy the whole land.

⁶Howl! For the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destroying from the Almighty. ⁷Therefore all hands shall be faint, and every man's heart shall melt; ⁸and they shall be afraid. Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them. They shall be in pain like a woman who is in labor; they shall be amazed at one another; their faces shall be like flames. ⁹Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land waste; and He shall destroy its sinners out of it. ¹⁰For the stars of heaven and their constellations shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened in its going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. ¹¹And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the pride of the terrible. ¹²I will make a man more precious than gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ō'-phīr. ¹³Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall move out of its place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of His fierce anger. ¹⁴And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man takes up; they shall each man turn to his own people, and each one flee into his own land. ¹⁵Everyone who is found shall be thrust through; and everyone who is joined to them shall fall by the sword. ¹⁶Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be robbed, and their wives raped. ¹⁷Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who shall not think anything of silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it. ¹⁸*Their* bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not pity children.

¹⁹And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the majestic beauty of the Chaldees, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh. ²⁰It shall never be dwelt in forever, neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation; neither shall the Ā-rā'-bī-ān pitch his tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there. ²¹But the wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of howling creatures; and ostriches shall dwell there, and shaggy goats shall dance there. ²²And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their castles, and jackals in their pleasant palaces; and her time is coming near, and her days shall not be delayed.

¹For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel and set them in their own land; and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cling to the house of Jacob. ²And the people shall take them and bring them to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids; and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over those who crushed them. ³And in the day that the LORD shall give you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear, and from the hard bondage in which you were made to serve, ⁴you shall take up this song against the king of Babylon and say,

How the oppressor has ceased! the golden city ceased! ⁵The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers; ⁶who struck the people in wrath without end, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution no one could hold back.

⁷The whole earth is at rest and is quiet; they break forth into singing. ⁸Yea, the fir trees rejoice at you, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since you have fallen, no woodcutter has come up against us. ⁹Hell from below is moved for you, to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the dead for you, even all the chief ones of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. ¹⁰All of them shall speak and say to you, Have you also become as weak as we? Have you become like us? ¹¹Your pride is brought down to the grave, and the noise of your viols; the worm is spread under you, and the worms cover you. ¹²How you are fallen from heaven, O Lū'-cī-fēr, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, you who weakened the nations! ¹³For you have said in your heart, I will go up into Heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. ¹⁴I will go up above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High. ¹⁵Yet you shall be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. ¹⁶Those who see you shall narrowly look upon you, and gaze at you, saying, Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; ¹⁷*who* made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities of it; who did not open the house of his prisoners? ¹⁸All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house. ¹⁹But you are cast out of your grave like a hateful branch, and like the clothing of those who are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trampled under foot. ²⁰You shall not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land and have killed your people; the seed of evildoers shall never be famous. ²¹Prepare slaughter for his sons, because of the iniquity of their fathers, so that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. ²²For I will rise up against them, says the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name and remnant, and son, and grandson, says the LORD. ²³I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water; and I will sweep it with the broom of ruin, says the LORD of hosts.

²⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so it shall come to pass; and as I have purposed, so it shall stand; ²⁵that I will break the Assyrians in My land, and upon My mountains trample him under foot. Then his yoke shall be removed from them, and his burden shall be taken off their shoulders. ²⁶This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. ²⁷For the LORD of hosts has purposed, and who shall make it come to nothing? And His hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

²⁸This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died: ²⁹Rejoice not, O Phī-līs'-tī-ā, all of you, that the rod of him who struck you is broken. For out of the serpent's root shall come an adder, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. ³⁰And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and he shall slay your remnant. ³¹Howl, O gate! Cry, O city! You, O Phī-lis'-tī-ā, all of you, are melted away; for there shall come from the north a smoke, and no straggler shall be in his ranks. ³²What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD has founded Zion, and the poor of His people shall trust in it.

CHAPTER 15

¹The burden against Moab. Because Ar of Moab is laid waste in the night and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste and brought to silence; ²he has gone up to Bā'-jīth, and to Dī'-bōn, the high places, to weep; Moab shall howl over Nē'-bō, and over Mē'-dē-bā; baldness shall be on all their heads, and every beard cut off. ³In the streets they shall clothe themselves with sackcloth; on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, everyone shall howl, melting in tears. ⁴And Hēsh'-bōn shall cry, and Ēl-ē-ā'-lēh; their voice shall be heard even unto Jā'-hāz; therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous to him. ⁵My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee to Zō'-är, a heifer of three years old; with weeping they shall go up the way to Mount Lū'-hīth; for in the way of Hōr-ō-nā'-īm they shall raise up a cry of ruin. ⁶For the waters of Nīm'-rim shall be deserted; for the hay has dried up and the grass fails, there is no green thing. ⁷Therefore that which they have saved, and that which they have laid up, they shall carry away to the brook of the willows. ⁸For the cry has gone all around the borders of Moab; the howling of it unto Ēg'-lā-īm, and the howling of it unto Bēer-ē'-līm. ⁹For the waters of Dī'-mōn shall be full of blood; for I will bring more upon Dī'-mōn, lions upon him who escapes from Moab, and upon the rest of the land.

CHAPTER 16

¹Send the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sē'-lā to the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion. ²For as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon. ³Take counsel, do judgment; make your shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; do not betray him who wanders. ⁴Let my outcasts dwell with you, Moab; be a shelter to them from the face of the destroyer; for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceases, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. ⁵And in mercy the throne shall be established; and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging and seeking judgment, and speeding righteousness.

⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud; even of his vanity, and his pride, and his wrath; but his lies shall not be so. ⁷Therefore Moab shall howl for Moab, everyone shall howl. You shall mourn for the foundations of Kīr-hār'-ē-sēth; surely they are stricken. ⁶For the fields of Hēsh'-bōn and the vine of Sib'-māh droop; the lords of the heathen have broken down the choice plants of it, they have come to Jā'-zēr, they wandered through the wilderness; her branches are stretched out, they have gone over the sea.

⁹Therefore I will mourn with the weeping of Jā'-zēr the vine of Sib'-māh; I will water you with my tears, O Hēsh'-bōn and Ēl-ē-ā'-lēh; for the shouting for your summer fruits and for your harvest has fallen.

¹⁰And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting. The treaders shall tread out no wine in presses; I have made their shouting to cease. ¹¹Therefore my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kīr-hār'-ēsh.

¹²And when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, he shall come to his sacred place to pray; but he shall not overcome. ¹³This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning Moab since that time.

¹⁴But now the LORD has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be condemned, with all that great multitude; and those that are left shall be very small and feeble.

CHAPTER 17

¹The burden against Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a heap of ruins. ²The cities of Ā-rō'-ēr are forsaken; they are for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. ³The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the rest of Syria. They shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, says the LORD of hosts. ⁴And in that day the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall become lean. ⁵And it shall be as when the harvestman gathers the grain, and reaps the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he who gathers ears in the valley of Rēph'-ā-im.

⁹In that day his strong cities shall be like a forsaken branch, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel; and there shall be ruin. ¹⁰Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not been mindful of the Rock of your strength, therefore you shall plant pleasant plants and shall set it with strange slips.

¹¹In the day you shall make your plant grow, and in the morning you shall make your seed flower; but the harvest shall be a heap in that day of grief and dying pain.

¹²Woe to the multitude of many people, who make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations who make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters! ¹³The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters; but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. ¹⁴At eveningtime, behold, terror! Before the morning, he is not! This is the lot of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

CHAPTER 18

¹Woe to the land shadowed with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā; ²which sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginnings and onward; a nation measured out and trampled down, whose land the rivers have spoiled! ³See, all you people of the world and dwellers on the earth, when He lifts up a banner on the mountains. And when He blows His trumpet, hear. ⁴For so the LORD said unto me, I will take My rest, and I will look on in My dwelling place, like a clear heat in the sunshine, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. ⁵For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, you shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches. ⁶They shall be left together to the birds of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth; and the birds shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

⁷In that time shall be brought to the LORD of hosts the present of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning onward; a nation measured out and trampled under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts—Mount Zion.

CHAPTER 19

¹The burden against Egypt. Behold, the LORD rides upon a swift cloud and shall come into Egypt. And the idols of Egypt shall be moved at His presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. ²And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians; and they shall fight each one against his brother, and every one against his neighbor; city against city, kingdom against kingdom. ³And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst of it, and I will destroy its wisdom. And they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to those who have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. ⁴And I will give the Egyptians over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, says the Lord, The LORD of hosts. ⁵And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up. ⁶And they shall turn the rivers far away; the brooks of defense shall be emptied and dried up; the reeds and flags shall wither. ⁷The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and everything sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more. ⁸The fishers also shall mourn, and all those who drop a hook into the brooks shall wail, and those who spread nets upon the waters shall droop. ⁹Moreover those who work in fine flax, and those who weave white works, shall be ashamed. ¹⁰And her foundations shall be broken, and all who make wages shall be bowed down.

¹¹Surely the princes of Zō'-ān are fools, the counsel of the wise men of Pharaoh has become like that of animals. How do you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? ¹²Where are they? Where are your wise men? And let them tell you now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts has planned against Egypt. ¹³The princes of Zō'-ān have become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also caused Egypt to go astray, the chief of her tribes. ¹⁴The LORD has mixed a perverse spirit in the midst of it; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all its work, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. ¹⁵Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do. ¹⁶In that day Egypt shall be like women; and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which He shakes over it. ¹⁷And the land of Judah shall be a terror to Egypt; everyone who makes mention of it shall be afraid within himself, because of the purpose of the LORD of hosts, which He has purposed against it.

¹⁸In that day five cities in the land of Egypt shall speak the language of Canaan and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called the city of ruin. ¹⁹In that day there shall be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border of it to the LORD. ²⁰And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt. For they shall cry unto the LORD because of the cruel ones, and He shall send them a deliverer, and a great one, and he shall deliver them. ²¹And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptian shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and give an offering; yes, they shall vow a vow to the LORD, and fulfil it. ²²And the LORD shall strike Egypt; He shall strike and heal it; and they shall return to the LORD, and He shall hear them and shall heal them.

²³In that day there shall be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. ²⁴In that day Israel shall be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the land; ²⁵whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be My people Egypt, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.

CHAPTER 20

¹In the year that Tartan came to Āsh'-dōd (when Sār'-gōn the king of Assyria sent him), and fought against Āsh'-dōd and took it; ²at that time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and take the sackcloth off your loins, and take your shoe off your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³And the LORD said, Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā; ⁴so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptian prisoners, and the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā their hope, and of Egypt their glory. ⁶And those who live in this shore shall say in that day, Behold, such is our hope, where we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria; and how shall we escape?

CHAPTER 21

¹The burden against the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it comes from the desert, from a terrible land. ²A grievous vision is declared unto me; the deceiver deals deceitfully, and the robber spoils. Go up, O Ē'-lām; circle around, O Mē'-dī-ā; all the sighting of it I have made to cease. ³Therefore my loins are filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me like the pangs of a woman who is in labor; I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was troubled at the seeing of it. ⁴My heart panted, fearfulness made me afraid; He had turned the night of my pleasure into fear unto me. ⁵Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink; arise, princes, and anoint the shield. ⁶For so the LORD has said to me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he sees. ⁷And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels. Then he listened closely with much carefulness. ⁸And he cried, A lion! My lord, without ceasing, I stand upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am stationed at my post whole nights. ⁹And, behold, here comes a chariot of men, a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen! And all the graven images of her gods He has broken to the ground. ¹⁰O my threshing, and the grain of my floor! That which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared unto you.

¹¹The burden against Dū'-māh. He calls to me out of Sē'-ir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? ¹²The watchman said, The morning comes, and also the night; if you will inquire, inquire, and come again.

¹³The burden against Arabia. You shall stay in the forest of Arabia, O traveling companies of Dē'-dā-nīm. ¹⁴The people of the land of Tē'-mā brought water to him who was thirsty; they went before him who fled with their bread. ¹⁵For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the hardship of war. ¹⁶For thus has the LORD said to me, Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kē'-dār shall fail; ¹⁷and the rest of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kē'-dār, shall be cut down; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it.

¹The burden against the valley of vision. What ails you now, you who have completely gone up to the housetops? ²You who were full of sounds, a noisy city, a joyous city; your dead men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle. ³All your rulers have fled together; they are bound by the archers; all that are found in you are bound together, all who have fled from afar. ⁴Therefore I said, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly; do not labor to comfort me because of the stripping of the daughter of my people. ⁵For it is a day of trouble, and of trampling down, and of doubt by the LORD God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains. ⁶And Ē'-lām carried the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. ⁷And your choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in order at the gate.

⁸And he uncovered the covering of Judah, and you looked in that day to the armor of the house of the forest. ⁹You have seen also the breaks in the city of David, that they are many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. ¹⁰And you have counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you have broken down the houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹You also made a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool; but you have not looked to the Maker of it, neither had respect to Him who formed it long ago. ¹²And in that day the LORD of hosts called you to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth; ¹³then, lo, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine; and saying, Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die! ¹⁴And it was revealed in my ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you until you die, says the Lord GOD of hosts.

¹⁵Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, go up to this treasurer, unto Shēb'-nā who is over the house, and say, ¹⁶What do you have here? And whom do you have here, that you have carved out a tomb for yourself here, as one who cuts himself out a tomb on high, who cuts out a home for himself in a rock? ¹⁷Behold, the LORD will carry you away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover you. ¹⁸He will surely turn and toss you violently like a ball into a large country; there you shall die, and there the chariots of your glory shall be the shame of your lord's house. ¹⁹And I will drive you from your position, and from your office He shall pull you down.

²⁰And in that day I will call My servant Ē-lī'-ā-kīm the son of Hil-kī'-āh; ²¹and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your girdle, and I will commit your government into his hand. And he shall be a father to the people of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. ²²And the key of the house of David I will lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. ²³And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. ²⁴And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the offshoots, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of jars. ²⁵In that day, says the LORD of hosts, the nail that is fastened in the sure place shall be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off; for the LORD has spoken it.

¹The burden against Tyre. Howl, ships of Tār'-shīsh! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in; from the land of Chīt'-tim it is revealed to them. ²Be still, you people of the coast; you whom the merchants of Sidon, who pass over the sea, have filled. ³And by great waters, the seed of Sī'-hôr and the harvest of the river Nile was her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. ⁴Be ashamed, O Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the strength of the sea, saying, I do not labor nor bring forth children, neither do I bring up young men, nor bring up virgins. ⁵As at the report concerning Egypt, so they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

⁶Pass over Tarshish; howl, you people of the coast! ⁷Is this your joyous city, whose age is from days of old? Her own feet shall carry her afar off to stay. ⁸Who has purposed this against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the honorable of the earth? ⁹The LORD of hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory and to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. ¹⁰Pass through your land like a river, O daughter of Tār'-shīsh; there is no more strength. ¹¹He stretched out His hand over the sea; He shook the kingdoms; the LORD has given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strongholds of it. ¹²And He said, You shall rejoice no more, O crushed one, virgin daughter of Si-don; arise, pass over to

Chit-tim; there also you shall have no rest. ¹³Behold the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns; this people was not a people until the Assyrians founded it for those who live in the wilderness. They set up the towers of it, they raised up the palaces of it; and He brought it to ruin. ¹⁴Howl, ships of Tār'-shish! For your strength is laid waste. ¹⁵And in that day Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years Tyre shall sing like a harlot. ¹⁶Take a harp, go about the city, O harlot who has been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs so that you may be remembered.

¹⁷And after the end of seventy years the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. ¹⁸And her goods and her wages shall be holiness to the LORD. It shall not be treasured nor laid up, for her merchandise shall be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat enough, and for lasting clothing.

CHAPTER 24

¹Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty, and makes it waste, and turns it upside down and scatters abroad its people. ²And as it is with the people, so it shall be with the priest; as it is with the servant, so it will be with his master; as it is with the maid, so it shall be with her mistress; as it is with the buyer, so it shall be with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor. ³The land shall be completely emptied, and utterly stripped; for the LORD has spoken this word. ⁴The earth mourns and fades away; the world droops and fades away; the proud people of the earth droop. ⁵Also the earth is defiled under its people; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, and have broken the everlasting covenant. ⁶Therefore the curse has destroyed the earth, and they who dwell in it are deserted; therefore the people of the earth are burned, and few men left. ⁷The new wine mourns, the vine droops, all the merry-hearted sigh. ⁸The gladness of tabrets ceases, the noise of those who rejoice ends; the joy of the harp ceases. ⁹They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to those who drink it. ¹⁰The city of shame is broken down; every house is shut up so that no man may come in. ¹¹*There is* a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the gladness in the land has gone. ¹²In the city is left waste, and the gate is stricken with ruin.

¹⁶From the ends of the earth we have heard songs, glory to the righteous. But I said, Leanness to me! Leanness to me! Woe unto me! The deceivers have dealt deceitfully. Yes, the deceivers have dealt very deceitfully. ¹⁷Fear, and the pit, and the snare are upon you, O dweller of the earth. ¹⁸And he who flees from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare, for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth shake. ¹⁹The earth is breaking and breaking, the earth is crashing and crashing! the earth is tottering and tottering! ²⁰The earth is staggering and stragging, like a drunken man! It rocks to and fro like a tree-but! So shall its sin be heavy upon it; and it shall fall and not rise again. ²¹And in that day the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones who are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. ²²And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days they shall be judged. ²³Then the moon shall blush, and the sun shall be ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and gloriously before His elders.

¹O LORD, Thou art my God; I will exalt Thee, I will praise Thy name; for Thou hast done wonderful things; Thy purposes of old are faithfulness and truth. ²For Thou hast made a city a heap; a walled city a ruin; a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built. ³Therefore the strong people shall glorify Thee, the city of the fearful nations shall fear Thee. ⁴For Thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the fearful ones is like a storm against the wall. ⁵Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of cloud. The branch of the fearful ones shall be brought low.

⁹And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God. We have waited for Him, and He will save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation. ¹⁰For the hand of the LORD shall rest in this mountain, and Moab shall be trampled under Him, even as straw is trampled for the dunghill. ¹¹And He shall spread forth His hands in the middle of them, as he who swims spreads forth his hands to swim. And He shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands. ¹²And the fortress of the high fort of your walls He shall bring down, lay low, bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER 26

¹In that day this song shall be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; He sets up salvation for walls and banks. ²Open the gates, so that the righteous nation which keeps the truth shall enter in. ³Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee; because he trusts in Thee. ⁴Trust in the LORD forever; for in the LORD JĒ-HŌ'-VĀH is everlasting strength.

⁵For He brings down those who dwell on high; He lays low the lofty city; He lays it low, even to the ground; He brings it to the dust. ⁶The foot shall trample it down, even the feet of the poor and the steps of the needy. ⁷The way of the just is uprightness; Thou, O Upright One, dost weigh the path of the just. ⁸Yea, in the way of Thy judgments, O LORD, we have waited for Thee; the desire of our soul is to Thy name, and to Thy memory. ⁹With my soul I have desired Thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me I will seek Thee early; for when Thy judgments are in the earth, the people of the world will learn righteousness. ¹⁰Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD. ¹¹LORD, when Thy hand is lifted up, they will not see; but they shall see and be ashamed for their envy toward Thy people. Yes, the fire of Thy enemies shall devour them.

¹²LORD, Thou wilt ordain peace for us; for Thou also hast worked all our works in us. ¹³O LORD our God, other lords besides Thee have had the rule over us; but by Thee only will we make mention of Thy name. ¹⁴*They are* dead, they shall not live; they are gone, they shall not rise. Therefore Thou hast visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. ¹⁵Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, Thou hast increased the nation; Thou art glorified; Thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth. ¹⁶LORD, in trouble they have visited Thee; they poured out a prayer when Thy chastening was upon them. ¹⁷Like a woman with child, who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so have we been in Thy sight, O LORD. ¹⁸We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind. We have not brought about any salvation in the earth; neither have the people of the world fallen. ¹⁹Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body they shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

²⁰Come, my people, enter into your rooms and shut your doors around you; hide yourself as it were for a little moment, until the fury has passed by. ²¹For behold, the LORD comes out of His place to punish the people of the earth for their iniquity; the earth also shall reveal her blood, and shall no more cover her dead.

CHAPTER 27

⁷Has He stricken him, as He struck those who struck Him? Or is He slain according to the slaughter of those who are slain by Him? ⁸In measure by measure, when sending her away, Thou didst punish her. He takes away, in respect to His rough wind, in the day of the east wind. ⁹By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in pieces, the groves and images shall not stand up. ¹⁰Yet the fortified city shall be wasted, and the dwelling forsaken and left like a wilderness; there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down and eat up the branches of it. ¹¹When its branches are dried up, they shall be broken off; the women come and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding. Therefore He who made them will not have mercy on them, and He who formed them will show them no favor.

¹²And in that day the LORD shall beat off His fruit from the stream of the river Eû-phrâ'-tês unto the brook of Egypt, and you shall be gathered one by one, O children of Israel. ¹³And in that day the great trumpet shall be blown, and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria shall come, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt shall come and shall worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 28

¹Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower which is on the head of the fat valleys of those who are overcome with wine! ²Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one — like a storm of hail, a destroying storm like a flood of mighty waters overflowing, He shall cast down to the earth with the hand. ³The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trampled under foot; ⁴and the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the first-ripe fruit before the summer; which the beholder of it swallows up even while it is yet in his hand.

⁵In that day the LORD of hosts shall be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, to the rest of His people, ⁶and for a spirit of judgment to him who sits in judgment, and for strength to those who turn the battle to the gate.

⁷But they also have sinned through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way. The priest and the prophet have sinned through drink; they are swallowed up by wine; they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. ⁸For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness; no place is clean.

¹⁴Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scornful men who rule this people which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁵Because you have said, We have made a covenant with death, and we have an agreement with hell; when the overwhelming rod shall pass through, it shall not come unto us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood — ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I place in Zion a Stone for a foundation, a tried Stone, a precious Cornerstone, a sure Foundation; he who believes shall not flee away. ¹⁷Also I will lay judgment to the line, and righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

¹⁸And your covenant with death shall be wiped out, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overwhelming rod shall pass through, then you shall be beaten down by it. ¹⁹From the time that it goes forth it shall take you; for morning by morning it shall pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be nothing less than a terror to give ear to the message. ²⁰For the bed is shorter than one can stretch himself on, and the cover is narrower than one can wrap himself in. ²¹For the LORD shall rise up as in Mount Pě-rā'-zīm; He shall be angry as in the valley of Gibeon, so that He may do His work, His strange work; and bring to pass His act, His strange act. ²²Now therefore do not be mockers, lest your bands be made strong; for I have heard from the LORD GOD of hosts that a full end has even been decreed upon the whole earth.

²³Give ear and hear my voice; listen, and hear my speech. ²⁴Does the plowman plow all day to sow? Does he open and break the clods of his ground? ²⁵When he has made the face of it level, does he not cast out the dill and scatter the cummin, and throw in the choice wheat and the chosen barley and the spelt in the border of it? ²⁶For his God instructs him to judgment and teaches him. ²⁷For the dill is not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the dill is beaten out with a staff and the cummin with a rod. ²⁸Grain is crushed — because He does not desire to be forever threshing it, nor crushing it with the wheel of his cart, nor crushing it with his horses. ²⁹This also comes forth from the LORD of hosts, who is wonderful in wisdom, excellent in working.

¹Woe unto Ār'-î-ēl, to Ār'-î-ēl, the city where David dwelt! Add year to year; let them kill their sacrifices. ²Then I will distress Ār'-î-ēl, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow; and it shall be unto me as Ār'-î-ēl. ³And I will camp against you all around, and will lay siege against you with a mount, and I will raise forts against you. ⁴And you shall be brought down and shall speak out of the ground, and your speech shall be low out of the dust, and your voice shall be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech shall whisper out of the dust. ⁵Moreover the multitude of your strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passes away; yea, it shall be at an instant — suddenly. ⁶You shall be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake and great noise, with storm and whirlwind, and the flame of devouring fire.

⁹Stand still and wonder! Smear over your eyes and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. ¹⁰For the LORD has poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes; He has covered the prophets and your rulers, also the seers. ¹¹And the vision of all has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who knows books saying, Read this, I pray you; and he says, I cannot, for it is sealed. ¹²And the book is delivered to him who does not know books, saying, Read this, I pray you; and he says, I do not know books.

¹³Therefore the LORD said, Because this people draw near Me with their mouth, and with their lips honor Me, but have removed their heart far from Me, and their fear toward Me is taught by the commandment of men; ¹⁴therefore, behold, I will go on doing an amazing work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder. For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their intelligent ones shall be hidden. ¹⁵Woe unto those who go deep to hide their purpose from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who sees us? And who knows us? ¹⁶Surely your turning things upside down shall be counted as the potter's clay; for shall the work say of him who made it, He did not make me? Or shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, He had no understanding? ¹⁷Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted as a forest?

¹⁸And in that day the deaf shall hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of their gloom and darkness. ¹⁹The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. ²⁰For the terrible one is brought to nothing, and the scorner is destroyed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off; ²¹*those* who make a man guilty for a word, and lay a trap for him gives warning in the gate, and turn aside the just for a worthless thing. ²²Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now become pale. ²³But when he sees his children, the work of My hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify My name, and sanctify the Holy one of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. ²⁴Those who erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and those who murmured shall learn doctrine.

¹Woe to the rebellious children, says the LORD, who take advice, but not of Me; and who cover with a covering, but not of My Spirit, that they add sin to sin; ²*those* who set out to go down to Egypt and have not asked at My mouth; to make themselves strong in the strength of Pharaoh and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! ³Therefore the strength of Pharaoh shall be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt shall be your curse. ⁴For his princes were at Zō'-ān, and his ambassadors came to Hā'-nēs. ⁵They were all ashamed of a people who could not profit them, nor be a help nor gain, but a shame and also a reproach.

⁸Now go, write it before them in a tablet, and note it in a book, so that it may be for the time to come forever and ever, ⁹that this is a rebellious people, lying children. They are children who will not hear the law of the LORD; ¹⁰who say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Do not prophesy unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy falsehood; ¹¹go out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. ¹²Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, Because you have despised this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rest on them; ¹³therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a branch ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. ¹⁴And He shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces. He shall have no pity, so that there shall not be found in the breaking of it a piece to take fire from the hearth, or to take water out of the pit. ¹⁵For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest you shall be saved; and in quietness and hope shall be your strength. And you would not do so. ¹⁶But you said, No; for we will flee upon horses. Therefore you shall flee. And you said, We will ride upon the swift; therefore those who pursue you shall be swift. ¹⁷One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five you shall flee, until you are left as a pole upon the top of a mountain, and as a sign on a hill.

¹⁸And therefore the LORD will wait, that He may be gracious unto you; and therefore He will be lifted up, that He may have mercy upon you. For the LORD is a God of judgment; blessed are all those who wait for Him. ¹⁹For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; you shall weep no more; He will be very gracious unto you at the voice of your cry. When He hears it, He will answer you. ²⁰And the LORD gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers shall not be removed into a corner any more, but your eyes shall see your teachers. ²¹And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right hand and when you turn to the left. ²²You shall also defile the covering of your graven images of silver, and the ornament of your molded images of gold. You shall cast them away like a menstruous cloth. You shall say unto it, Get away from here. ²³Then He shall give the rain of your seed that you shall sow the ground with; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plentiful. In that day your cattle shall feed in large pastures. ²⁴Likewise the oxen and the young asses that plow the ground shall eat clean fodder, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. ²⁵And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. ²⁶Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the break of His people and heals the stroke of their wound.

²⁷Behold, the name of the LORD comes from far, burning with His anger, and the burden of it is heavy; His lips are full of fury, and His tongue like a devouring fire. ²⁸And His breath, like an overflowing stream, shall reach to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity. And there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to go astray. ²⁹You shall have a song, as in the keeping of a holy feast night; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. ³⁰And the LORD shall cause His glorious voice to be heard, and the bringing down of His arm shall be seen, with the fury of His anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering and storm and hailstones. ³¹For through the voice of the LORD the Assyrian shall be beaten down, who struck with a rod. ³²And in every place which the ordained staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps; in battles of shaking He will fight with them. ³³For Tō'-phēt is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared. He has made it deep and large; the pile of it is fire and much wood. The breath of the LORD kindles it, like a stream of brimstone.

¹Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help; and lean upon horses and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong but they do not look unto the Holy One of Israel, neither do they seek the LORD! ²Yet He also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back His words, but will arise against the house of the evil-doers and against the help of those who work iniquity. ³Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses are flesh, and not Spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out His hand, both he who helps shall fall, and he who is helped shall fall down, and they shall all fail together. ⁴For thus has the LORD spoken unto me, Like the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, He will not be afraid of their voice, nor humble Himself because of the noise of their shouting. So the LORD of hosts shall come down to fight for Mount Zion, and upon its hill. ⁵As birds fly-ing, so the LORD of hosts will defend Jerusalem; also defending, He will deliver it; and passing over He will preserve it.

⁶Turn to Him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. ⁷For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your hands have made unto you for a sin.

⁸Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a great man; and the sword, not of a lowly man, shall devour him. For he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be put to slavery. ⁹And he shall pass over to his stronghold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the banner, says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and His furnace in Jerusalem.

¹Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. ²And a man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a shelter from the tempest, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. ³And the eyes of those who see shall not be dim, and the ears of those who hear shall listen. ⁴Also the heart of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of those who stutter shall be ready to speak plainly. ⁵The fool shall no more be called noble, nor the miser said to be bountiful. ⁶For the fool will speak evil, and his heart will work iniquity, to practice hypocrisy and to speak misleading things against the LORD, to make the soul of the hungry empty, and he will take away the drink of the thirsty. ⁷Also the weapons of the fool are evil; he thinks of wicked ways to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaks right. ⁸But the noble thinks noble things; and by noble things he shall stand.

⁹Rise up, you women who are at ease; hear my voice, you careless daughters; listen to my speech. ¹⁰Many days and years you shall be troubled, you careless women; for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come. ¹¹Tremble, you women who are at ease; be troubled, you careless ones; strip yourselves and make yourselves bare, and put sack-cloth upon your loins. ¹²They shall mourn for the breasts, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. ¹³Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city; ¹⁴because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens forever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks ¹⁵until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is thought to be a forest. ¹⁶Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. ¹⁷And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the work of righteousness shall be quietness and hope forever. ¹⁸And my people shall dwell in a peaceable home, and in secure dwellings and quiet resting places ¹⁹*even* when it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place. ²⁰Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send forth the feet of the ox and the ass there.

CHAPTER 33

¹Woe to you, destroyer, and you who have not been destroyed; you traitor whom they have not betrayed! When you stop plundering, you shall be plundered; and when you stop being a traitor, they shall betray you. ²O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for Thee; be Thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. ³At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of Thyself the nations were scattered. ⁴And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar; as the running to and fro of locusts He shall run upon them. ⁵The LORD is exalted; for He dwells on high. He has filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. ⁶And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of your times, and strength of salvation; the fear of the LORD is his treasure. ⁷Behold, their mighty ones shall cry outside; the messengers of peace shall weep bitterly. ⁸The highways lie waste, the traveler ceases. He has broken the covenant. He has despised the cities. He cared for no man. ⁹The earth mourns and droops. Lebanon is ashamed and cut down. Sharon is like a wilderness, and Bā'-shān and Carmel shake off their fruits. ¹⁰Now I will rise, says the LORD; now I will be exalted; now I will lift up Myself. ¹¹You shall conceive chaff, you shall bring forth stubble; your breath, like fire, shall devour you. ¹²And the people shall be like the burnings of lime; like thorns cut up, they shall be burned in the fire.

¹³You who are far off, hear what I have done; and you who are near, know My might. ¹⁴The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness has surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? ¹⁵He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly; he who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands free from holding bribes, who stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from seeing evil — ¹⁶he shall dwell on high; his refuge shall be the strongholds of rocks; bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. ¹⁷Your eyes shall see the king in his beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off. ¹⁸Your heart shall dwell upon terror. Where is the scribe? Where is the receiver? Where is he who counted the towers? ¹⁹You shall not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than you can understand; of a tongue that stutters, which you cannot understand. ²⁰Look upon Zion, the city of our holy meetings; your eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet home, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes of it shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords of it be broken. ²¹But there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams, in which no galley with oars shall go, neither shall mighty ship pass by it. ²²For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; He will save us. ²³Your tacklings are loosened, they could not hold their mast firm, they could not spread the sail; then is the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame take the prey. ²⁴And the people shall not say, I am sick; the people who dwell in it shall be forgiven their iniquity.

CHAPTER 34

¹Come near, nations, to hear; and, you people, listen; let the earth hear, and all that is in it; the world, and all things that come forth from it. ²For the anger of the LORD is upon all nations, and His fury upon all their armies. He has completely destroyed them, He has delivered them to the slaughter. ³Also their dead shall be thrown out, and their stink shall come up out of their dead bodies, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. ⁴And all the host of the heavens shall be melted, and the heavens shall be rolled together like a scroll; and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falls off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig-tree. ⁵For my sword shall be bathed in the heavens. Behold, it shall come down upon Ī-dū-mē'-ā and upon the people of my curse for judgment. ⁶The sword of the LORD is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams – for the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Ī-dū-mē'-ā? ⁷And the wild oxen shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. ⁸For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year to repay for the fighting against Zion. ⁹And the streams of it shall be turned into pitch, and the dust of it to brimstone, and the land of it shall become burning pitch. ¹⁰It shall not be put out night or day; the smoke of it shall go up forever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it forever and ever. ¹¹But the pelican and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also, and the raven, shall dwell in it. And He shall stretch out upon it the line of shame, and the stones of emptiness. ¹²They shall call the nobles of it to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing. ¹³And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and thistles in the fortresses of it; and it shall be a home of jackals and a court for ostriches. ¹⁴The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the shaggy goat shall cry to his fellow. The screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. ¹⁵There the great owl shall make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow; there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate.

¹⁶Seek out of the book of the LORD, and read; not one of these shall fail, none shall lack its mate; for My mouth has commanded, and His Spirit has gathered them. ¹⁷And He has cast the lot for them, and His hand has divided it to them by line — they shall possess it forever, from generation to generation they shall dwell in it.

CHAPTER 35

¹The wilderness and the desert shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose. ²It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the honor of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD and the majesty of our God.

³Make the weak hands strong and make the feeble knees sure. ⁴Say to them who are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a just reward; He will come and save you. ⁵Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. ⁶Then the lame man shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness waters shall break out, and streams in the desert. ⁷And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land shall become springs of water; in the home of jackals, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. ⁸And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The Way of Holiness — the unclean shall not pass over it. But He shall be with them; the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err in it. ⁹No lion shall be there, nor any beast of prey shall go up on it; it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there. ¹⁰And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

¹Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hêz-ê-kî'-âh that Sên-nâch'-êr-îb king of Assyria came up against all the walled cities of Judah and took them. ²And the king of Assyria sent Râb-shâ'-kêh from Lâ'-chîsh to Jerusalem unto king Hêz-ê-kî'-âh with a great army. And he stood by the channel of the upper pool in the highway of the Fuller's Field. ³Then Ê-lî'-â-kîm, Hil-kî'-âh's son, who was over the house, and Shêb'-nâ the scribe, and Jô'-âh, Â'-sâph's son, the recorder, came forth unto him. ⁴And Râb-shâ'-kêh said to them, Say now to Hêz-ê-kî'-âh, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What hope is this in which you trust? ⁵I say, But are vain words wisdom and strength for war? Now on whom do you trust, that you rebel against me? ⁶Lo, you trust in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; on which, if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. ⁷But if you say to me, We trust in Jehovah our God; is it not he whose high places and altars Hêz-ê-kî'-âh has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar? ⁸Now therefore give pledges, I pray you, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses if you are able on your part to set riders upon them. ⁹How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ¹⁰Have I now come up without Jehovah against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it.

¹¹Then Ē-lī'-ā-kīm and Shēb'-nā and Jō'-āh said unto Rāb-shā'-kēh, Speak, I pray you, unto your servants in the Assyrian language, for we understand it. But do not speak to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. ¹²But Rāb-shā'-kēh said, Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit upon the wall? that they may eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you? ¹³Then Rāb-shā'-kēh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ¹⁴Thus says the king, Do not let Hēz-ē-kī'-āh deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you. ¹⁵Neither let Hēz-ē-kī'-āh make you trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely deliver us; this city shall not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria. ¹⁶Do not listen to Hēz-ē-kī'-āh; for thus says the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me by a present, and come out to me; and let everyone eat of his vine, and everyone of his fig tree, and everyone drink the waters of his own cistern — ¹⁷until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸*Beware* lest Hēz-ē-kī'-āh fool you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us. Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hā'-māth and Ār'-phād? Where are the gods of Sē-phār-vā'-īm? And have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ²⁰Who are they among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? ²¹But they were silent and did not answer him a word, for the king's commandment was, saying, Do not answer him.

²²Then Ē-lī'-ā-kīm, the son of Hil-kī'-āh, who was over the household, and Shēb'-nā the scribe, and Jō'-āh the son of Ā'-sāph, the recorder, came to Hēz-ē-kī'-āh with their clothes torn and told him the words of Rāb-shā'-kēh.

CHAPTER 37

¹And when king Hēz-ē-kī'-āh heard, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. ²And he sent Ē-lī'-ā-kīm, who was over the household, and Shēb'-nā the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. ³And they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy! For the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. ⁴It may be the LORD your God will hear the words of Rāb-shā'-kēh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to make fun of the words of the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left. ⁵So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

⁶And Isaiah said to them, Thus you shall say unto your master, Thus says the LORD, Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

⁸So Rāb-shā'-kēh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Līb'-nāh. For he had heard that he had departed from Lā'-chish. ⁹And he heard it said concerning Tir-hā'-kāh king of Ethiopia, He has come forth to make war with you. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰So you shall say to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by completely destroying them. And shall you be delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed — Gō'-zān, and Hār'-ān, and Rē'-zēph, and the children of Eden who were in Tē-lās'-sār? ¹³Where is the king of Hā'-māth, and the king of Ār'-phād, and the king of the city of Sē-phār-vā'-īm, Hē'-nā, and I'-vāh?

¹⁴And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. And Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed unto the Lord, saying, ¹⁶O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who dost dwell between the chēr'-ū-bīms, Thou art the God, even Thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; Thou hast made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁷Bow down Thy ear, O LORD, and hear; open Thy eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sēn-nāch'-ēr-īb which he has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁸Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their countries, ¹⁹and have cast their gods into the fire — for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone — therefore they have destroyed them. ²⁰Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that Thou art the LORD, even Thou alone.

²¹Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Because you have prayed to Me against

Sën-näch'-ër-ib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him: The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. ²³Whom have you mocked and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice and lifted up your eyes upon high? Even against the Holy One of Israel. ²⁴By your servants you have mocked the LORD and have said, I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars of it, and the choice fir trees of it; and I will enter into the height of its border and the forest of its Carmel. ²⁵I have dug and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet I have dried up all the rivers of the narrow places. ²⁶Have you not heard long ago how I have done it, from days of old, that I have formed it? Now I have brought it to pass that you should be able to lay waste walled cities into heaps of ruins. ²⁷Therefore their people were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as grain blasted before it is grown up. ²⁸But I know you sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me. ²⁹Because your rage against Me, and your uproar, has come up into My ears, therefore I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way which you came.

³⁰And this shall be a sign to you. You shall eat this year that which grows of itself; and the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year you shall sow, and reap, and plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. ³¹The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward; ³²for out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and those who escape out of Mount Zion; the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

³³Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. ³⁴By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and shall not come into this city, says the LORD. ³⁵For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake and for My servant David's sake. ³⁶Then the angel of the LORD went forth and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead corpses.

³⁷So Sën-näch'-ër-ib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. ³⁸And as he was worshipping in the house of Nis'-röch his god, it came to pass that Ä-dräm'-më-lëch and Shä-rë'-zër his sons struck him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Är'-ä-rät; and E'-sär-häd'-dön his son reigned in his stead.

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came unto him and said to him, Thus says the LORD, Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live. ²Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,³ and said, Remember now, O LORD, I pray Thee, how I have walked before Thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Thy sight. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping.

⁴Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, ⁵Go and say to Hezekiah: Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will add unto your days fifteen years. ⁶And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. And I will defend this city. ⁷And this shall be a sign unto you from the LORD that the LORD will do this thing that He has spoken — ⁸behold, I will bring again the shadow of the steps, which has gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten steps backward. So the sun returned ten steps, by which steps it had gone down.

⁹The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness: ¹⁰I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave; I have numbered the rest of my years. ¹¹I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living; I shall look upon man no more with the people of the world. ¹²My dwelling is plucked up and carried away from me like a shepherd's tent; I have cut off my life like a weaver; He will cut me off with pining sickness; from day even until night Thou wilt make an end of me. ¹³I place Him before me until morning, that, as a lion, so He will break all my bones; from day even until night Thou wilt make an end of me. ¹⁴Like a crane or a swallow, so I chattered; I mourned as a dove; my eyes failed with looking upward; O LORD, I am pressed down; undertake for me. ¹⁵What shall I say? He has spoken unto me, and He Himself has done it; I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. ¹⁶O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit; so Thou wilt recover me, and make me to live. ¹⁷Behold, I had great bitterness for peace; but Thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; for Thou hast cast all my sins behind Thy back. ¹⁸For the grave cannot praise Thee, death can not rejoice in Thee; they who go down into the pit cannot hope for Thy truth. ¹⁹The living, the living, he shall praise Thee, as I do this day; the father shall make Thy truth known to the children. ²⁰The LORD was ready to save me; therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD. ²¹For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover. ²²Hēz-ē-kī'-āh also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up unto the house of the LORD?

CHAPTER 39

¹At that time Mēr-ō'-dāch-bāl'-ā-dān, the son of Bāl'-ā-dān, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. ²And Hezekiah rejoiced over them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

³Then Isaiah the prophet came unto king Hezekiah, and said to him, What did you say to these men? And where did they come from to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. ⁴Then he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house they have seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. ⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: ⁶Behold, the days come when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD. ⁷And of your sons which shall issue from you, which you shall bring forth, they shall take away; and they shall be eunuchs [ū'-nūcks] in the palace of the king of Babylon. ⁸Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which you have spoken. And he said, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

¹Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. ²Speak lovingly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry unto her that her warfare is done, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she has received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

³The voice of him who cries in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the LORD, make straight a highway in the desert for our God. ⁴Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked places shall be made level, and the rough places smooth; ⁵and the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it. ⁶The voice said, Cry! And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the beauty of it is as the flower of the field. ⁷The grass withers, the flower fades; because the Spirit of the LORD blows upon it; surely the people is grass. ⁸The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God shall stand forever.

⁹O you who bring good tidings to Zion, get up into the mountain. Lift up your voice with strength, O you who bring good tidings to Jerusalem; lift it up, do not be afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! ¹⁰Behold, the Lord GOD will come with a strong hand, and His arm shall rule for Him; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. ¹¹He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

¹²Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and measured out the heavens with a span? And who has shut up the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? ¹³Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or who being His counselor has taught Him? ¹⁴With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him and taught Him in the path of judgment, and taught Him knowledge, and showed the way of understanding to Him? ¹⁵Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the scales; behold, He takes up the isles as a very little thing. ¹⁶And Lebanon is not enough to burn, nor the beasts of it enough for a burnt offering. ¹⁷All nations before Him are as nothing; and unto Him they are thought to be less than nothing, and vanity.

¹⁸To whom then will you compare God? Or what likeness will you compare unto Him? ¹⁹The workman melts a graven image, and the goldsmith spreads it over with gold, and casts silver chains. ²⁰He who is so poor that he has no offering chooses a tree that will not rot; he looks for a skillful workman to prepare a graven image that shall not be moved. ²¹Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? ²²*It is* He who sits upon the circle of the earth, and its people are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in; ²³who brings the princes to nothing; He makes the judges of the earth as vanity. ²⁴Yes, they shall not be planted; yes, they shall not be sown. Yes, their stump shall not take root in the earth. And He shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away like stubble. ²⁵To whom then will you compare Me, or can I be equal to anyone? says the Holy One. ²⁶Lift up your eyes on high, and behold, who has created these things, who brings out their host by number? He calls them all by names by the greatness of His might, for He is strong in power — not one is lacking. ²⁷Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, My way is hidden from the LORD and my judgment has passed over from my God? ²⁸Have you not known? Have you not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not grow weak nor weary? There is no searching of His understanding. ²⁹He gives power to the weary; and to those who have no might He increases strength. ³⁰Even the young shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall — ³¹but those who wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

¹Keep silence before Me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength; let them come near; then let them speak; let us come near together to judgment. ²Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to His foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? He gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. ³He pursued them, and passed in peace; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet. ⁴Who has worked and done this, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first; and with the last, I am He. ⁵The isles saw it and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, and drew near, and came. ⁶They each one helped his neighbor, and said to his brother, Be of good courage. ⁷So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he who smoothed with the hammer encouraged him who struck the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering; and he fastened it with nails so that it should not be moved. ⁸But you, Israel, are My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham My friend. ⁹*You are those* whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called you from the chief men of it, and said to you, You are My servant; I have chosen you, and not cast you away.

¹⁰Do not fear; for I am with you; be not dismayed; for I am your God. I will make you strong; yes, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness. ¹¹Behold, all those who were angered against you shall be ashamed and confounded; they shall be as nothing — and those who strive with you shall perish. ¹²You shall seek them, and shall not find them, even those who fought with you; those who war against you shall be as nothing, and as a worthless thing. ¹³For I the LORD your God will hold your right hand, saying unto you, Do not fear; I will help you.

¹⁴Do not fear, worm Jacob and you men of Israel; I will help you, says the LORD, and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁵Behold, I make you a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth; you shall thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shall make the hills like chaff. ¹⁶You shall fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them. And you shall rejoice in the LORD and shall glory in the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁷*When* the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue fails for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not leave them. ¹⁸I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. ¹⁹I will plant the cedar in the wilderness, the acacia tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set the fir tree in the desert, and the pine, and the box tree together; ²⁰so that they may see, and know, and look upon, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹Bring near your cause, says the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, says the King of Jacob. ²²Let them bring them forth, and show us what shall happen; let them show the former things, what they are, that we may look upon them and know the final end of them; or declare to us things to come. ²³Show the things that will happen in the future, so that we may know that you are gods. Yes, do good, or do evil, so that we may be amazed and behold it together. ²⁴Behold, you are of nothing, and your work is of nothing. He who chooses you is an abomination. ²⁵I have raised up one from the forth, and he shall come from where the sun rises; he shall call upon My name. And he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter tramples clay. ²⁶Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know? And beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? Yea, there is none who shows, yea, there is none who declares, yea, there is none who hears your words. ²⁷I first shall say to Zion, Behold! behold them! and I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good news. ²⁸For I looked, and there was no man — not even one among them. And there was no one to advise, who, when I asked of them, could answer a word. ²⁹Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing; their molded images are wind and emptiness.

¹Behold My Servant, whom I uphold; My Elect, in whom My soul delights; I have put My Spirit upon Him; He shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. ²He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street. ³A bruised reed He shall not break, and a smoking wick He shall not quench; He shall bring forth judgment unto truth. ⁴He shall not fail nor be discouraged until He has set judgment in the earth; and the isles shall wait for His law.

⁵Thus says God the LORD, He who created the heavens and stretched them out; He who stretched forth the earth and that which comes out of it; He who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it — ⁶I the LORD have called Thee in righteousness, and will hold Thy hand, and will keep Thee, and give Thee for a covenant of the people, for a Light of the Gentiles; ⁷to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and those who sit in darkness out of the prison house. ⁸I am the LORD; that is My name; and My glory I will not give to another, neither My praise to graven images. ⁹Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them. ¹⁰Sing unto the LORD a new song, and His praise from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it; the isles and all their people. ¹¹Let the wilderness and the cities of it lift up their voice, the villages in which Kē'-dār dwells; let the people of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. ¹²Let them give glory to the LORD and declare His praise in the islands. ¹³The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, He shall stir up jealousy like a man of war; He shall cry, yea, roar; He shall overcome His enemies. ¹⁴I have held My peace for a long time; I have been still and refrained Myself; now I will cry like a woman in pangs of labor, I will destroy and devour at once. ¹⁵I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs. And I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools. ¹⁶And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. I will do these things unto them, and not forsake them.

¹⁷They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, those who trust in graven images and who say to the images, You are our gods. ¹⁸Hear, you deaf; and look, you blind, that you may see. ¹⁹Who is blind but My servant? Or deaf, as My messenger whom I sent? Who is blind as he who is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant? ²⁰You see many things, but do not pay attention. You open the ears, but do not hear. ²¹The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness' sake; He will magnify the Law and make it honorable. ²²But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hidden in prison-houses; they have been taken, and none delivers them; a prize, and none says, Give back. ²³Who among you will listen to this? Who will listen and hear for the time to come? ²⁴Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? Did not the LORD, He against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in His ways, neither were they obedient to His law. ²⁵Therefore He has poured upon him the fury of His anger, and the strength of battle; and it has set him on fire round about, yet he did not know; and it burned him, yet he did not lay it to heart.

¹But now thus says the LORD who created you, O Jacob, and He who formed you, O Israel; Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine. ²When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon you. ³For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour; I gave Egypt for your ransom, E-thi-ō'-pi-ā and Sē'-bā for you. ⁴Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honored, and I have loved you; therefore I will give men for you, and people for your life. ⁵Fear not; for I am with you. I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west. ⁶I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Do not keep back; bring My sons from far and My daughters from the ends of the earth; ⁷*even* everyone who is called by My name; for I have created him for My glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

⁸Bring forth the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears. ⁹Let all the nations be brought together, and let the people be gathered; who among them can declare this and show us former things? Let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, It is true. ¹⁰You are My witnesses, says the LORD, and My servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He. Before Me no God was formed, neither shall there be after Me. ¹¹I, even I, am the LORD; and there is none to save besides Me. ¹²I have declared, and have saved, and I have shown, when there was no strange god among you; therefore you are My witnesses, says the LORD, that I am God. ¹³Yea, before the day was, I am He; and there is none who can deliver out of My hand; I will work, and who shall turn it back?

¹⁴Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles and the Chāl-dē'-āns, whose cry is in the ships. ¹⁵I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King. ¹⁶Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters; ¹⁷who brings forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise; they are put out, they are snuffed out like a wick.

¹⁸Do not remember the former things, neither consider the things of old. ¹⁹Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall you not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. ²⁰The beasts of the field shall honor Me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I give waters in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen. ²¹This people I have formed for Myself; they shall show forth My praise.

²²But you have not called upon Me, O Jacob; but you have been tired of Me, O Israel. ²³You have not brought me the lamb of your burnt offerings; neither have you honored Me with your sacrifices. I have not caused you to serve with an offering, nor wearied you with incense. ²⁴You have bought Me no sweet cane with money, neither have you filled Me with the fat of your sacrifices; but you have burdened Me with your sins; you have wearied Me with your iniquities. ²⁵I, even I, am He who blots out your sins for My own sake, and will not remember your sins. ²⁶Put Me in mind; let us enter into judgment; declare yourself, that you may be justified. ²⁷Your first father has sinned, and your teachers have sinned against Me. ²⁸Therefore I have defiled the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAPTER 44

¹Yet now hear, O Jacob My servant, and Israel whom I have chosen; ²Thus says the LORD who made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you; Fear not, O Jacob My servant, and you, Jē-shū'-rūn, whom I have chosen. ³For I will pour water upon him who is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground. I will pour My spirit upon your seed, and My blessing upon your offspring; ⁴and they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses. ⁵One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall write with his hand, For the LORD, and name himself by the name of Israel. ⁶Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and besides Me there is no God. ⁷And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it and set it in order for Me, since I placed the people of old? And the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show to them. ⁸Fear not, neither be afraid; have I not told you from that time, and have declared it? You are even My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me? Yea, there is no God; I do not know any.

⁹Those who make a graven image are all of them vanity; and the things in which they delight shall not help; and they are their own witnesses. They do not see nor know, that they may be ashamed. ¹⁰Who has formed a god, or melted a graven image that is good for nothing? ¹¹Behold, all his companions shall be ashamed; and the workmen, they are of men. Let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together. ¹²The smith prepares an axe. He works in the coals, and forms it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms — yes, he is hungry, and his strength fails; he drinks no water, and is weak. ¹³The carpenter stretches out his line; he marks it out with a pencil; he shapes it with carving tools, and he marks it out with the compass, and makes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in the house. ¹⁴He cuts down cedars, and takes cypress and the oak, which he brings up for himself among the trees of the forest; he plants an ash, and the rain makes it great. ¹⁵Then it shall be for a man to burn; for he will take some of it, and warm himself — yes, he kindles it and bakes bread; yes, he makes a god and worships it; he makes it a graven image and falls down to it. ¹⁶He burns part of it in the fire; with part of it he eats flesh; he roasts roast and is satisfied; yea, he warms himself, and says, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire. ¹⁷And the rest of it he makes into a god, even his graven image: he falls down unto it and worships it, and prays unto it, and says, Deliver me! for you are my god. ¹⁸They have not known nor understood; for He has shut their eyes so that they cannot see; and their hearts so that they cannot understand. ¹⁹And none thinks within his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals of it; I have roasted flesh and eaten it; and shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? ²⁰He feeds on ashes; a deceived heart has turned him aside, so that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

²¹Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for you are My servant; I have formed you; you are My servant; O Israel, you shall not be forgotten by Me. ²²I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions, and, as a cloud, your sins; return unto Me; for I have redeemed you. ²³Sing, O heavens; for the LORD has done it. Shout, lower parts of the earth. Break forth into singing, you mountains, O forest, and every tree in it — for the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and glorified Himself in Israel. ²⁴Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb, I am the LORD who makes all things; who stretches forth the heavens alone; who spreads abroad the earth by itself; ²⁵who brings to nothing the signs of the liars, and makes diviners mad; who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish; ²⁶who makes the word of His servant sure, and makes good the counsel of His messengers; who says to Jerusalem, She shall have people; and to the cities of Judah, You shall be built, and I will raise up the waste places of it; ²⁷who says to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up your rivers; ²⁸who says of Cyrus, He is My shepherd, and shall do all My pleasure; even saying to Jerusalem, You shall be built; and to the temple, Your foundation shall be laid.

¹Thus says the LORD to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have made strong in order to humble nations before him. And I will loosen the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut. ²I will go before you, and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in two. ³And I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that I, the LORD, who calls you by your name, am the God of Israel. ⁴For Jacob My servant's sake, and Israel My elect, I have even called you by your name; I have named you, though you have not known me.

⁵I am the LORD, and there is none else; there is no God besides Me; I clothed you, though you have not known me; ⁶so that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is none else. ⁷I form the light and create darkness; I make peace and create evil; I the LORD do all these things. ⁸Drop down, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness; let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it. ⁹Woe unto him who fights with his Maker — a potsherd among the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him who forms it, What are you making? Or your work, He has no hands? ¹⁰Woe unto him who says to his father, What are you bringing forth? or to the woman, What have you brought forth? ¹¹Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask Me of things to come concerning My sons, and concerning the work of My hands command Me. ¹²I have made the earth, and created man upon it; I, even My hands, have stretched out the heavens; and all their host have I commanded. ¹³I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways; he shall build My city, and he shall let My captives go, not for price nor reward, says the LORD of hosts.

¹⁴Thus says the LORD, The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Ē-thī-ō-pī-ā and of the Sā-bē'-āns, men of stature, shall come over unto you, and they shall be yours. They shall come after you; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down to you. They shall bow down to you, saying, Surely God is in you; and there is none else, there is no other God. ¹⁵Truly Thou art a God who hides Thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. ¹⁶They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them; they who are makers of idols shall go into disgrace together. ¹⁷*But* Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation; you shall not be ashamed nor blush world without end. ¹⁸For thus says the LORD who created the heavens (God Himself), who formed the earth and made it; (He has established it: He created it, not as a waste, but He formed it to be lived in); I am the LORD; and there is no other. ¹⁹I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth. I did not say unto the seed of Jacob, Seek me in vain. I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

²⁰Gather yourselves and come; draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations; those who set up the wood of their graven image and those who pray unto a god that cannot save do not know anything. ²¹Tell them and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together; who has declared this from days of old? Who has told it from that time? Have not I the LORD? And there is no other God besides Me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none besides Me. ²²Look unto Me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other. ²³I have sworn by Myself, the word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that unto Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. ²⁴*One* shall surely say, Only in the LORD do I have righteousness and strength; even to Him shall men come; and all who are angry with Him shall be ashamed. ²⁵In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

¹Bel bows down, Né'-bō stoops; their idols were upon the beasts and upon the cattle; the things you carried about have become a load, a burden to the weary beast. ²They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but they themselves have gone into captivity.

³Listen to me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, who are borne by Me from the belly, who are carried from the womb; ⁴even unto your old age I am He; and even to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

⁵To whom will you compare Me, and make Me equal, that we may be alike? ⁶They pour gold out of the bag, and weigh silver out of the scales, and hire a goldsmith; and he makes it a god; they fall down, yea, they bow down. ⁷They carry it upon the shoulder, they carry it and set it in its place, and it stands; it shall not move from its place. Yes, one shall cry unto it, yet it cannot answer, nor save him out of his trouble. ⁸Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, O sinners. ⁹Remember the former things of old; for I am God, and there is no other. I am God, and there is none like Me, ¹⁰declaring the end from the beginning, and from days of old the things that are not yet done. saying, My purpose shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure; ¹¹calling a bird of prey from the east, the man of my purpose from a far country. Yes, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

¹²Listen unto me, you stubborn-hearted who are far from righteousness; ¹³I bring near My righteousness. It shall not be far off, and My salvation shall not wait — and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel My glory.

CHAPTER 47

¹Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground. There is no throne, O daughter of the Châl-dé'-āns; for you shall no more be called tender and delicate. ²Take the millstones and grind meal. Push back your veil, draw up your skirt, uncover your leg, pass over the rivers. ³Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, your shame shall be seen; I will take vengeance and I will meet you as a man. ⁴As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name, the Holy One of Israel. ⁵Sit silent, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Châl-dé'-āns; for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms.

⁶I was angry with My people, I have bowed down My inheritance, and given them into your hand, you showed them no mercy; you have very heavily laid your yoke upon the older. ⁷And you said, I shall be a mistress forever; so you did not lay these things to your heart, neither remembered the latter end of it. ⁸Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who live carelessly, who say in your heart, I am, and there is none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children. ⁹But these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood. They shall come upon you in their fullness for the multitude of your witchcrafts, and for the great abundance of your spells.

¹⁰For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, No one sees me. Your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you; and you have said in your heart, I am, and there is no one else besides me. ¹¹Therefore evil shall come upon you; you shall not know where it comes from. And mischief shall fall upon you; you shall not be able to put it off. And ruin shall come upon you suddenly, which you shall not know. ¹²Stand now with your spells, and with the multitude of your witchcrafts, in which you have labored from your mouth; perhaps you will be able to profit; perhaps you may bring terror. ¹³You are wearied in the multitude of your plans. Now let the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly fortune tellers, stand up and save you from these things that shall come upon you. ¹⁴Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame; there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. ¹⁵So they shall be unto you with whom you have labored, even your merchants, from your youth; they shall wander each one to his own way; none shall save you.

CHAPTER 48

¹Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and have come forth out of the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of the LORD and make mention of the God of Israel (but not in truth nor in righteousness). ²For they call themselves of the holy city, and rest themselves upon the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is His name. ³I have foretold the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of My mouth, and I showed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass. ⁴Because I knew that you are stubborn, and your neck is an iron sinew and your brow is brass; ⁵I have even from the beginning declared it to you. Before it happened I revealed it to you; lest you should say, My idol has done them, and my graven image, and my molded image, has commanded them. ⁶You have heard it; see it all; and will you not declare it? I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, and you did not know them. ⁷They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when you did not hear them; lest you should say, Behold, I knew them. ⁸Yea, you did not hear; yea, you did not know; yea, from the time that your ear was not opened; for I knew that you would deal very deceitfully, and were called a sinner from the womb.

⁹For My name's sake I will put off My anger, and for My praise I will hold back for you, that I do not cut you off. ¹⁰Behold, I have refined you, but not with silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. ¹¹For my own sake, even for My own sake, I will do it; for why should My name be defiled? And I will not give My glory unto another.

¹²Listen to me, O Jacob and Israel, My called; I am He; I am the first, I also am the last. ¹³My hand also has laid the foundation of the earth, and My right hand has stretched out the heavens — when I call unto them, they stand up together. ¹⁴*Let* all of you gather yourselves and hear; who among them has declared these things? The LORD has loved him; He will do His pleasure on Babylon, and His arm shall be on the Chāl-dē'-āns. ¹⁵I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him; and you shall bless his way.

¹⁶Come near unto me, hear this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there I am; and now the Lord GOD, and His Spirit, has sent me. ¹⁷Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, I am the LORD your God who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go. ¹⁸O that you had listened to My commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea; ¹⁹your seed also would have been like the sand, and the offspring of your bowels like the gravel of it; his name would not have been cut off nor destroyed from before Me.

²⁰Go forth out of Babylon, flee from the Chāl-dē'-āns; say it with a voice of singing, tell this, let this be heard to the end of the earth; say, The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob. ²¹And they did not thirst when He led them through the deserts; He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; He cut open the rock also, and the waters gushed out. ²²*There is* no peace, says the LORD, unto the wicked.

¹Listen, O isles, to Me; and listen, you people from afar; the LORD has called Me from the womb; He has made mention of My name from the bowels of My mother. ²And He has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of His hand He has hidden me, and made Me a polished shaft. He has hidden Me in His quiver, ³and said unto Me, Thou art My servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. ⁴Then I said, I have labored in vain; I have spent My strength for nothing, and in vain; yet surely My judgment is with the LORD, and My work is with My God.

⁵And now, says the LORD who formed Me from the womb to be His servant, to bring Jacob again to Him, Though Israel is not gathered, yet I shall be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and My God shall be My strength. ⁶And He said, It is but a little thing that you should be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to bring back the preserved ones of Israel; I will also give Thee for a light to the Gentiles, that Thou mayest be My salvation unto the end of the earth. ⁷Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to Him whom man despises, to Him whom the nation hates, to a servant of rulers — Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD who is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and He shall choose Thee. ⁸Thus says the LORD, in an accepted time I have listened to Thee, and in a day of salvation I have helped Thee; and I will preserve Thee, and give Thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause them to inherit the wasted inheritances; ⁹that Thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth! To those who are in darkness, Show yourselves! They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. ¹⁰They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun strike them; for He who has mercy on them shall lead them; even by the springs of water He shall guide them. ¹¹And I will make all My mountains a way, and My highways shall be set on high. ¹²Behold, these shall come from far; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Si'nim.

¹³Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains; for the Lord has comforted His people, and will have mercy upon His afflicted. ¹⁴But Zion said, The LORD has forsaken me, and my LORD has forgotten me. ¹⁵Can a woman forget her suckling child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yea, they may forget, yet I will not forget you. ¹⁶Behold, I have carved you upon the palms of My hands; your walls are forever before Me. ¹⁷Your children shall make haste; your destroyers and those who made you waste shall go out of you.

¹⁸Lift up your eyes round about, and behold; all these gather themselves together and come unto you. As I live, says the LORD, you shall surely clothe yourself with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on yourself as a bride does. ¹⁹For your waste and your deserted places, and your land of ruins, shall even now be too narrow for you who dwell there, and they who swallowed you up shall be far away. ²⁰The children which you shall have, after you have lost the other, shall say again in your ears, The place is too narrow for me; give place to me so that I may dwell. ²¹Then you shall say in your heart, Who has borne me these, since I have lost my children, and was unfruitful — a captive, and one put away? And who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they? ²²Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up My hand unto the Gentiles, and have set up My banner to the people; and they shall bring your sons in their arms, and your daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. ²³And kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers — they shall bow down to you with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of your feet — and you shall know that I am the LORD; for they shall not be ashamed who wait for Me.

²⁴Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? ²⁵But thus says the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the fearful ones shall be delivered — for I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your children. ²⁶And I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunk with their own blood, as with sweet wine; and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am your Saviour and your Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

CHAPTER 50

¹Thus says the LORD, Where is your mother's bill of divorce, whom I have put away? Or to which of My creditors have I sold you? Behold, you have sold yourself for your iniquities, and your mother is put away for your sins. ²Why have I come and there is no one here? When I called, why was there no one to answer? Is My hand shortened at all so that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at My rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness; their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. ³I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. ⁴The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him who is weary; He wakens morning by morning, He wakens my ear to hear as the learned. ⁵The Lord GOD has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away. ⁶I gave My back to the strikers, and My cheeks to those who plucked off the hair; I did not hide My face from shame and spitting.

⁷For the Lord GOD will help Me; therefore I have not been ashamed; Therefore I have set My face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. ⁸*He is* near who justifies Me; who will contend with Me? Let us stand together; who is My foe? Let him come near Me. ⁹Behold, the Lord God will help Me; who is he who shall condemn Me? Lo, they all shall become old like a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

¹Listen to me, you who follow after righteousness; you who seek the LORD; look to the rock from where you were cut, and to the hole of the pit from where you were dug. ²Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah who bore you; for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him. ³For the LORD shall comfort Zion; He will comfort all her waste places; and He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found in it, thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

⁴Listen to Me, My people; and give ear unto Me, O My nation; for a law shall go forth from Me, and I will make My judgment to rest for a light of the people. ⁵My righteousness is near; My salvation has gone forth, and My arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon Me, and on My arm they shall trust. ⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall become old like a garment — and those who dwell in it shall die in the same way — but My salvation shall be forever, and My righteousness shall not be broken.

⁷Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is My law; do not fear the reproach of men, neither be afraid of their revilings. ⁸For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but My righteousness shall be forever, and My salvation from generation to generation. ⁹Awake! awake! put on strength, O arm of the LORD. Awake! as in the days of old, in the generations of old. Was it not Thou who didst cut Rahab into pieces and wounded the crocodile? ¹⁰Was it not Thou who didst dry up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? ¹¹Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return and come with singing into Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head. They shall get gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. ¹²I, even I, am He who comforts you. Who are you, that you should be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man who shall be made as grass? ¹³And you forget the LORD your Maker, who has stretched forth the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. And you have feared without ceasing every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy. And where is the fury of the oppressor? ¹⁴The captive hurries so that he may be made free, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail. ¹⁵But I am the LORD your God, who divided the sea, and its waves roared; the LORD of hosts is His name. ¹⁶And I have put My words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of My hand, that I may plant the heavens and lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, You are My people.

¹⁷Awake! awake! stand up, O Jerusalem, which has drunk the cup of His fury from the hand of the LORD; you have drunk the cup of trembling to the dregs, and wrung them out. ¹⁸*There is* none to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth; neither is there any who takes her by the hand of all the sons that she has brought up. ¹⁹These two things have come unto you — who shall be sorry for you? — desolation, and ruin, and the famine, and the sword. By whom shall I comfort you? ²⁰Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, like a wild bull in a net; they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of your God.

²¹Now therefore hear this, you afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine. ²²Thus says your Lord, the LORD, and your God who pleads the cause of His people, Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of My fury; you shall never drink it again. ²³But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you; who have said to your soul, Bow down so that we may go over; and you have made your body as the ground, and as the street, to those who passed over.

CHAPTER 52

¹Awake! awake! Put on your strength, O Zion; put on your beautiful robes, O Jerusalem, the holy city; for from now on there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean. ²Shake yourself from the dust; arise and sit down, O Jerusalem; Free yourself from the bands of your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. ³For thus says the LORD, You have sold yourselves for nothing; and you shall be redeemed without money. ⁴For thus says the Lord GOD, My people went down before into Egypt to stay there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. ⁵Now therefore, what have I here, says the LORD, that My people is taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them make them howl, says the LORD; and without ceasing My name is blasphemed every day. ⁶Therefore My people shall know My name; therefore they shall know in that day that I am He who speaks; behold, it is I.

⁹Break forth into joy, sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted His people; He has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰The LORD has made bare His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

¹¹Depart, depart, go out from there! Touch no unclean thing! Go out of the midst of her; be clean, you who bear the vessels of the LORD. ¹²For you shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight; for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

¹³Behold, My Servant shall rule well; He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high. ¹⁴Just as many were astonished at Thee (His visage was marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men), ¹⁵so shall He sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at Him; for that which has not been told them they shall see; and that which they had not heard they shall understand.

CHAPTER 53

¹Who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? ²For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground; He has no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see Him, there is no beauty that we should desire Him. ³He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as it were we hid our faces from Him; He is despised, and we esteemed Him not.

⁴Surely He has borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. ⁵But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed. ⁶All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, each one, to his own way; and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. ⁷He was oppressed, and He was afflicted; yet He opened not His mouth. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a sheep before its shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth. ⁸He was taken from prison and from judgment; and who shall declare His generation? For He was cut off out of the land of the living; for the transgression of My people He was stricken. ⁹And He made His grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death; because He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in His mouth.

¹⁰Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; He has put Him to grief; when Thou shalt make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His hand. ¹¹He shall see the fruit of the travail of His soul, and shall be fully satisfied — by His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify many; for He shall bear their iniquities. ¹²Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong; because He has poured out His soul unto death; and He was counted among the transgressors; and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

¹Rejoice, O unfruitful one that did not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who did not labor in pain with child; for more are the children of the deserted than the children of the married wife, says the LORD. ²Make the place of your tent larger, and let them stretch forth the curtains of your dwellings. Do not hold back, lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes; ³for you shall break forth on the right hand and on the left; and your seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the wasted cities to be filled with people. ⁴Do not fear; for you shall not be ashamed, nor shall you blush; for you shall not be put to shame; for you shall forget the shame of your youth, and shall not remember the reproach of your widowhood any more. ⁵For your Maker is your husband; the LORD of hosts is His name; and, your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall He be called. ⁶For the LORD has called you as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when you were turned away, says your God. ⁷For a small moment I have left you; but with great mercies I will gather you. ⁸In a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you, says the LORD your Redeemer. ⁹For this is as the waters of Noah unto Me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so I have sworn that I would not be angry with you, nor rebuke you. ¹⁰For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but My kindness shall not depart from you, neither shall the covenant of My peace be removed, says the LORD who has mercy upon you.

¹¹O you afflicted, storm-tossed and not comforted, behold, I will lay your stones with beautiful colors, and lay your foundations with sãp'phires. ¹²And I will make your windows of agates, and your gates of cãr-bün'cles, and all your borders of pleasant stones. ¹³And all your children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of your children. ¹⁴In righteousness you shall be established; you shall be far from cruelty; for you shall not fear — and from terror, for it shall not come near you. ¹⁵Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by Me; whoever shall gather together against you shall fall for your sake. ¹⁶Behold, I have created the smith who blows the coals in the fire, and who brings forth a tool for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. ¹⁷No weapon that is formed against you shall be blessed; and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment, you shall condemn. This is the inheritance of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is from Me, says the LORD.

¹Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters, and he who has no money — come, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. ²Why do you spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which never satisfies? Listen carefully to Me, and eat that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. ³Bow down your ear, and come unto Me; and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. ⁴Behold, I have given Him for a witness to the people, a Prince and Commander to the people. ⁵Behold, Thou shalt call a nation that Thou dost not know; a nation that did not know Thee shall run to Thee because of the LORD Thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for He has glorified Thee.

⁶Seek the LORD while He may be found; call upon Him while He is near. ⁷Let the wicked forsake His way, and the unrighteous man His thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ⁸For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, says the LORD. ⁹For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. ¹⁰For as the rain comes down, and the snow from the skies, and does not return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, so that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater; ¹¹so shall My word be, which goes forth out of My mouth — it shall not return unto Me empty, but it shall do that which I please, and it shall certainly do what I sent it to do. ¹²For you shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace; the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. ¹³Instead of the thorn, the fir tree shall come up; and instead of the brier, the myrtle tree shall come up; and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign which shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER 56

¹Thus says the LORD, Keep judgment and do justice; for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed. ²Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; keeping the sabbath so that he does not defile it, and keeping his hand from doing any evil.

³Neither let the son of the stranger, who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, the LORD has utterly separated me from His people — nor let the eü'-nūch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. ⁴For thus says the LORD unto the eū'-nūchs who keep My sabbath, and choose the things that please Me, and take hold of My covenant; ⁵even to them will I give within My house and within My walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off. ⁶Also the sons of the stranger, who join themselves to the LORD to serve Him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from defiling the sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant; ⁷even them I will bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer — their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon My altar; for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people. ⁸The Lord GOD who gathers the outcasts of Israel says, Yet I will gather others to him, besides those who are gathered to him.

⁹All you beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all you beasts in the forest. ¹⁰His watchmen are blind; they are all ignorant; they are all dumb dogs who cannot bark, sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. ¹¹Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough; and they are shepherds who cannot understand. They all look to their own way, every one for his gain, to his own end. ¹²*They say*, come, and I will bring wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be like today, and much more abundant.

¹The righteous one perishes, and no man lays it to heart, and godly men are taken away; no one cares that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. ²He shall enter into peace; they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

³But draw near here, you sons of the sorceress, the seed of an adulterer and a harlot. ⁴Of whom are you making sport? Against whom do you make a wide mouth and draw out the tongue? Are you not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, ⁵setting yourselves afire with idols under every green tree, killing the little children in the valleys under the clefts of the rocks? ⁶Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion; they, even they, are your lot; even to them you have poured a drink offering, you have offered a meal offering. Should I receive comfort in these? ⁷Upon a lofty and high mountain you have set your bed; even there you went up to offer sacrifice. ⁸Also behind the doors and the posts you have set up your image; for you have uncovered yourself to another besides Me, and have gone up. You have widened your bed and made a covenant with them; you loved their bed where you saw it. ⁹And you went to the king with ointment, and increased your perfumes, and sent your messengers far off, and lowered yourself even to hell. ¹⁰You are wearied in the length of your way; yet you did not say, There is no hope; you found life in your hand; therefore you were not weak. ¹¹And of whom have you been afraid or feared, that you have lied and have not remembered me, nor laid it to your heart? Have I not held My peace, even of old, and you did not fear Me? ¹²I will declare your righteousness, and your works; for they shall not do you any good.

¹³When you cry, let your companies deliver you; but the wind shall carry them all away. Vanity shall take them; but he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the land, and shall inherit My holy mountain. ¹⁴And He shall say, Raise up! Raise up! Prepare the way; take up the stumbling-block out of the way of My people. ¹⁵For thus says the high and lofty One who dwells in eternity; whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, even with him who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. ¹⁶For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always angry; for the spirit should fail before Me, and the souls which I have made. ¹⁷For the iniquity of his unjust gain I was angry and struck him; I hid Myself, and was angry, and he went on turning away in the way of his heart. ¹⁸I have seen his ways, and will heal him. I will also lead him, and give comforts back to him and to his mourners. ¹⁹I create the fruit of the lips, Peace, peace, to him who is far off, and to him who is near, says the LORD; and I will heal him. ²⁰But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. ²¹*There is no peace, says my God, to the wicked.*

¹Cry aloud, do not hold back, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and show My people their transgressions, and the house of Jacob their sins. ²Yet they seek Me daily, and delight to know My ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and one who did not forget the ordinance of their God; they ask of Me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in drawing near to God.

³*They say*, Why have we fasted and Thou dost not see? Why have we afflicted our soul, and Thou dost take no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure and crush all who owe you labors. ⁴Behold, you fast for strife and debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness; you shall not fast as you do today, to make your voice to be heard on high. ⁵Is it such a fast that I have chosen? A day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast and a day pleasing to the LORD? ⁶Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed ones go free, and that you break every yoke? ⁷*Is it* not to break your bread to the hungry, and that you should bring home the poor that are cast out? when you see the naked, that you should cover him; and that you do not hide yourself from your own flesh?

⁸Then shall your light break forth as the morning, and your health shall spring forth quickly; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. ⁹Then you shall call, and the LORD shall answer; you shall cry, and He shall say, Here I am. If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity — ¹⁰and if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul — then shall your light rise in darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday. ¹¹And the LORD shall always guide you and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make your bones fat; and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not. ¹²And those who come of you shall build the old waste places; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

¹³If from the Sabbath you turn your foot away from doing your pleasure on My holy days; and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honorable; and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words; ¹⁴then you shall delight yourself in the LORD; and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed yourself with the inheritance of Jacob your father — for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.

CHAPTER 59

¹Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened so that it cannot save; neither is His ear heavy so that it cannot hear. ²But your iniquities have come between you and your God, and your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He will not hear. ³For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered perverseness. ⁴None calls for justice, nor does anyone plead for truth; they trust in vanity and speak lies; they conceive mischief and bring forth iniquity. ⁵They hatch adders' eggs and weave the spider's web; he who eats their eggs dies, and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. ⁶Their webs shall not become clothing, neither shall they cover themselves with their works — their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. ⁷Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and ruin are in their paths. ⁸They do not know the way of peace, and there is no judgment in their paths. They have made crooked paths for themselves; whoever goes in them shall not know peace.

⁹Therefore judgment is far from us; neither does justice overtake us. We wait for light, but behold, dimness; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. ¹⁰We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes. We stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in deserted places like dead men. ¹¹We all roar like bears, and mourn grievously like doves; we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. ¹²For our transgressions are multiplied before Thee, and our sins testify against us. For our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them — ¹³in transgressing and lying against the LORD, and going away from our God, talking cruelty and revolt, conceiving and speaking from the heart words of falsehood. ¹⁴And judgment has turned away backward, and justice stands afar off; for truth has fallen in the street, and right cannot enter. ¹⁵Yea, truth fails; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. And the LORD saw, and it displeased Him that there was no judgment.

¹⁶And He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was none to stand between. Therefore His own arm brought salvation unto Him; and His righteousness upheld Him. ¹⁷For He put on righteousness like a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon His head. And He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was covered with zeal like a cloak. ¹⁸According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay, fury to His foes, deed for deed to His enemies. He will repay their deeds to the islands. ¹⁹So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a banner against him.

²⁰And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto those who turn from transgression in Jacob, says the LORD. ²¹As for Me, this is My covenant with them, says the LORD; My spirit that is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed, says the LORD, from now on and forever.

CHAPTER 60

¹Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. ²For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the LORD shall rise upon you, and His glory shall be seen upon you. ³And the Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawning. ⁴Lift up your eyes all around, and see. All of them gather themselves together; they come to you. Your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be nursed at your side. ⁵Then you shall see and become bright, and your heart shall throb and swell for joy; because the multitude of the sea shall turn to you, the forces of the Gentiles will come to you. ⁶The multitude of camels shall cover you, the camels of Míd'-î-ân and Ê'-phāh. All of them from Shē'-bā shall come; they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall show forth the praises of the LORD. ⁷All the flocks of Kē'-dār shall be gathered together unto you; the rams of Nē-baī'-ōth shall minister to you. They shall come up on My altar pleasing Me, and I will glorify the house of My glory.

⁸Who are these who fly like a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? ⁹Surely the isles shall wait for Me, and the ships of Tār-shīsh first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because He has glorified you.

¹⁰And the sons of strangers shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister unto you; for in My wrath I struck you, but in My favor I have had mercy upon you. ¹¹Therefore your gates shall always be open; they shall not be shut day nor night, so that men may bring unto you the forces of the Gentiles, and so that their kings may be brought. ¹²For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish. Yes, those nations shall be completely wasted. ¹³The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious. ¹⁴Also the sons of those who afflicted you shall come bowing down to you; and all those who despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet. And they shall call you, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁵Instead of being forsaken and hated, so that no man passes through you, I will make you an everlasting majesty, a joy of many generations. ¹⁶You shall also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shall suck the breast of kings; and you shall know that I the LORD am your Saviour and your Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. ¹⁷For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver; and for wood I will bring brass, and for stones I will bring iron. I will also make your overseers to be peace, and your rulers to be righteousness. ¹⁸Violence shall no more be heard in your land, wasting nor ruin within your borders; but you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise. ¹⁹The sun shall no more be your light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light to you; but the LORD shall be unto you an everlasting light, and your God your glory. ²⁰Your sun shall no more go down, neither shall your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD shall be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended. ²¹Your people also shall all be righteous; they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of My planting, the work of My hands, so that I may be glorified. ²²A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation — I the LORD will hasten it in its time.

CHAPTER 61

¹The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me; because the LORD has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the broken-hearted, to announce deliverance to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; ²to preach the acceptable year of the LORD and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; ³to appoint unto those who mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the role of praise for the spirit of heaviness; so that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He might be glorified.

⁴And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the ruins of former times. And they shall repair the waste cities, the ruins of many generations. ⁵And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the stranger shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. ⁶But you shall be named the priests of the LORD; men shall call you the ministers of our God; you shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory you shall boast yourselves.

⁷For your shame you shall have double; and for disgrace they shall rejoice in their portion; therefore in their own land they shall possess double; everlasting joy shall be unto them. ⁸For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. ⁹And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD has blessed. ¹⁰I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for He has clothed me with the robes of salvation, He has covered me with the robe of righteousness like a bridegroom adorns himself with ornaments, and like a bride adorns herself with her jewels. ¹¹For as the earth brings forth its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

¹For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness of it go forth as brightness, and the salvation of it as a lamp that burns. ²And the Gentiles shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name. ³You also shall be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. ⁴You shall no more be called Forsaken; neither shall your land any more be called Desolate; but you shall be called Hēph'-zī-bāh, and your land Beū'-lāh; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married.

⁵For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you. ⁶I have set watchmen upon your walls, O Jerusalem, who shall never hold their peace day nor night; you who make mention of the LORD, do not keep silence. ⁷And give Him no rest until He establishes, and until He makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. ⁸The LORD has sworn by His right hand, and by the arm of His strength, Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink your wine for which you have labored. ⁹But those who have gathered it shall eat it and praise the LORD; and they who have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of My holiness.

¹⁰Go through, go through the gates; prepare the way of the people; raise up, raise up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a banner for the people. ¹¹Behold, the LORD has sent a message to the end of the world, Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your salvation comes. Behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. ¹²And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD; and you shall be called, Sought out, a city not forsaken.

CHAPTER 63

¹Who is this who comes from Ē'-döm, with dyed garments from Böz'-räh? This one who is glorious in His clothing, travelling in the greatness of His strength? I who speak in righteousness, ready to save. ²Why art Thou red in Thy clothing, and Thy garments like him who treads in the winepress? ³I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with Me; for I will tread them in My anger and trample them in My fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon My garments, and I will stain all My clothing. ⁴For the day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed has come. ⁵And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold; therefore My own arm brought salvation unto Me; and My fury, it upheld Me. ⁶And I will tread down the people in My anger, and make them drunk in My fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

⁷I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has done for us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel which He has given to them according to His mercies, and according to the multitude of His loving-kindnesses. ⁸For He said, Surely they are My people, children that will not lie; so He was their Saviour. ⁹In all their affliction He was afflicted, and the Angel of His presence saved them; in His love and in His pity He redeemed them; and He bore them, and carried them all the days of old.

¹⁰But they rebelled, and troubled His Holy Spirit; therefore He was turned to be their enemy, and He fought against them. ¹¹Then He remembered the days of old, Moses and His people, saying, Where is He who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of His flock? Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within him? ¹²Who led them by the right hand of Moses with His glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make Himself an everlasting name? ¹³Who led them through the deep, like a horse in the wilderness, so that they would not stumble? ¹⁴As a beast goes down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest; so didst Thou lead Thy people, to make Thyself a glorious name.

¹⁵Look down from Heaven, and look down from the place of Thy holiness and of Thy glory; where is Thy zeal and Thy strength, the multitude of Thy tender affections and of Thy mercies toward me? Are they withheld? ¹⁶Doubtless Thou art our Father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel does not know us. Thou, O LORD, art our father, our Redeemer; Thy name is from everlasting.

¹⁷O LORD, why hast Thou made us to wander from Thy ways, and hardened our heart from Thy fear? For Thy servants' sake, return the tribes of Thy inheritance. ¹⁸The people of Thy holiness have possessed it but a little while; our enemies have trampled Thy sanctuary. ¹⁹We are Thine; never didst Thou bear rule over them; they were not called by Thy name.

CHAPTER 64

¹Oh that Thou wouldest tear the heavens, that Thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at Thy presence, ²(as the melting fire burns, the fire causes the waters to boil), to make Thy name known to Thy foes, that the nations may tremble at Thy presence!

³When Thou didst terrible things which we did not look for, Thou didst come down, the mountains flowed down at Thy presence. ⁴For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor understood by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, besides Thee, what He has prepared for him who waits for Him. ⁵Thou didst meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember Thee in Thy ways. Behold, Thou hast been angry, for we have sinned. In them is an age to come, and we shall be saved. ⁶But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. And we all fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. ⁷And there is none who calls upon Thy name, who stirs up himself to take hold of Thee. For Thou hast hidden Thy face from us, and hast melted us away because of our iniquities. ⁸But now, O LORD, Thou art our Father; we are the clay, and Thou art our potter; and we all are the work of Thy hand.

⁹Do not be grievously angry, O LORD, neither remember iniquity forever; behold, see, we pray Thee, we are all Thy people. ¹⁰Thy holy cities are a wilderness; Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem is a ruin. ¹¹Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised Thee, is burned up with fire; and all our pleasant things are laid waste. ¹²Wilt Thou hold Thyself back for these things, O LORD? Wilt Thou hold Thy peace and afflict us very grievously?

¹I am sought by those who asked not for Me; I am found by those who sought Me not; I said, Behold Me, behold Me, to a nation that was not called by My name. ²I have spread out My hands all the day unto a rebellious people who walk in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts; ³a people who without ceasing provoke Me to anger to My face; who sacrifice in gardens, and burn incense upon altars of brick. ⁴A people who remain among the graves, and sleep in the tombs, who eat swine's flesh, and broth from hateful things is in their vessels; ⁵who say, Stand by yourself, do not come near me; for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in My nose, a fire that burns all the day. ⁶Behold, it is written before Me; I will not keep silence, but will repay, even repay into their bosom ⁷both your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers, says the LORD, who have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed Me upon the hills; therefore I will measure their former work into their bosom.

⁸Thus says the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it; so I will do to My servants, that I may not destroy them all. ⁹And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah one who inherits My mountains; and My elect shall inherit it, and My servants shall dwell there. ¹⁰And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Ā'-chôr a place for the herds to lie down in, for My people who have sought me.

¹¹But you are those who forsake the LORD, who forget My holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who furnish the drink offering unto Fate. ¹²Therefore I will number you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear; and did evil before My eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight. ¹³Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry. Behold, My servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty. Behold, My servants shall rejoice, but you shall be ashamed. ¹⁴Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart, but you shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl because of a breaking of spirit. ¹⁵And you shall leave your name for a curse unto My chosen; for the Lord GOD shall kill you, and call His servants by another name — ¹⁶that he who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from My eyes.

¹⁷For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. ¹⁸But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. ¹⁹And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in My people; and the voice of weeping shall no more be heard in her, nor the voice of crying. ²⁰There shall be no more infants there, nor an old man that has not filled his days; for the child shall die a hundred years old; but the sinner who is a hundred years old shall be despised. ²¹And they shall build houses and live in them; and they shall plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them. ²²They shall not build, and another live in them; they shall not plant, and another eat; for like the days of a tree are the days of My people, and My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. ²³They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them. ²⁴And before they call I will answer; and while they are still speaking I will hear. ²⁵The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bull; and dust shall be the food of the snake. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 66

¹Thus says the LORD, Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool. Where is the house that you build for Me? And where is the place of My rest? ²For all those things My hand has made, and all those things have been, says the LORD. But to this man I will look, even unto him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembles at My word. ³He who kills an ox is as if he killed a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he who offers an offering, as if he offered swine's blood; he who burns incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations. ⁴I also will choose the things that delude them, and I will bring their fears upon them — because when I called, none answered; when I spoke, they did not hear; but they did evil before My eyes and chose that in which I did not delight.

⁵Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at His word; your brothers who hated you, who cast you out for My name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified. But He shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. ⁶A sound of noise from the city, a sound from the temple, a sound of the LORD repaying His enemies. ⁷Before she labored in pain, she brought forth; before her pain came, she has delivered a man child. ⁸Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion labored, she brought forth her children. ⁹Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? says the LORD; shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? says your God. ¹⁰Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you who love her.

Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her; ¹¹that you may suck and be satisfied with her comforting breasts; that you may milk out and be delighted with the fullness of her glory.

¹²For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will hold out peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream. Then you shall suck, you shall be carried upon her sides and be dandled upon her knees. ¹³As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And when you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bones shall flourish like an herb; and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward His servants, and His fury toward His enemies. ¹⁵For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with His chariots like a whirlwind, to refresh His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire. ¹⁶For by fire and by His sword the LORD will enter into judgment with all flesh; and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

¹⁷Those who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves to go into the gardens, behind one tree in the middle, eating swine's flesh, and the hateful thing, and the mouse, shall be cut off together, says the LORD. ¹⁸For I (for their works and their thoughts it shall come) I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see My glory. ¹⁹And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape from them to the nations, to Tār'-shish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow — to Tū'-bāl, and Jā'-vān, unto the isles afar off, that have not heard My fame, neither have seen My glory — and they shall declare My glory among the Gentiles. ²⁰And they shall bring all your brothers for an offering to the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to My holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. ²¹And I will also take some of them for priests and for Levites, says the LORD. ²²For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before Me, says the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. ²³And from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, all flesh shall come to worship before Me, says the LORD. ²⁴And they shall go forth, and look upon the dead bodies of the men who have sinned against Me; for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be put out; and they shall be an object of disgust to all flesh.

The Book of JEREMIAH

CHAPTER 1

¹The words of Jēr-ě-mī'-āh the son of Hīl-kī'-āh, of the priests who were in Ān'-ā-thōth in the land of Benjamin, ²to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Jō-sī'-āh the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³It also came in the days of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the son of Jō-sī'-āh king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the son of Jō-sī'-āh king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. ⁴Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ⁵Before I formed you in the belly I knew you; and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you, and I ordained you a prophet unto the nations. ⁶Then I said, Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I cannot speak; for I am a child. ⁷But the LORD said to me, Do not say, I am a child; for you shall go to all that I shall send you, and whatever I command you, you shall speak. ⁸Do not be afraid of their faces; for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD. ⁹Then the LORD put forth His hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put My words in your mouth. ¹⁰See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. ¹²Then the LORD said to me, You have seen well; for I will hasten My word to perform it. ¹³And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, I see a boiling pot; and the face of it is toward the north. ¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the people of the land. ¹⁵For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD. And they shall come, and they shall each one set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls of it round about, and against all the cities of Judah. ¹⁶And I will pronounce My judgments against them regarding all their wickedness, those who have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and have worshipped the works of their own hands.

¹⁷Therefore you must gird up your loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed at their faces, lest I make you afraid before them. ¹⁸For, behold, I have made you a defenced city this day, and an iron pillar, and brass walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes of it, against the priests of it, and against the people of the land. ¹⁹And they shall fight against you; but they shall not overcome you. For I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you.

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ²Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says the LORD, I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your engagements, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. ³Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the first-fruits of His increase. All that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, says the LORD. ⁴Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

⁵Thus says the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they have gone far from Me and have walked after vanity, and have become vain? ⁶Neither did they say, Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of dry places, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man lived? ⁷And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit of it and the goodness of it; but when you entered, you defiled My land and made My inheritance an abomination. ⁸The priests did not say, Where is the LORD? And they who handle the law did not know Me; the pastors also sinned against Me, and the prophets prophesied by Bā'-āl, and walked after things that do them no good.

⁹Therefore I will enter into judgment with you, says the LORD, and with your children's children I will enter into judgment. ¹⁰For pass over the isles of Chit'-tīm, and see; and send unto Kē'-dār, and carefully consider, and see if there is such a thing. ¹¹Has a nation changed their gods who are yet no gods? But My people have changed their Glory for that which does not profit. ¹²Be amazed, O heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid; be utterly dried up, says the LORD. ¹³For My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken Me, the Fountain of living waters, and have dug out cisterns for themselves — broken cisterns that can hold no water.

²⁰For long ago I have broken your yoke and have taken away your bands; and you said, I will not transgress — when upon every high hill and under every green tree you wander, playing the harlot. ²¹Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a true seed. How then have you turned into the wild plant of a strange vine unto Me? ²²For though you wash yourself with nitre, and take much soap for yourself, yet your iniquity is marked before Me, says the Lord GOD. ²³How can you say, I am not defiled; I have not gone after Bā'—ā-līm? See your way in the valley, know what you have done; you are a swift camel crossing its ways; ²⁴a wild ass used to the wilderness, who snuffs up the wind at her pleasure; in her meeting, who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. ²⁵Withhold your foot from being bare, and your throat from thirst; but you said, There is no hope; no; for I have loved strangers, and after them I will go. ²⁶As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets; ²⁷saying to a stock, You are my father; and to a stone, You have brought me forth. For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise and save us! ²⁸But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble; for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah. ²⁹Why will you plead with Me? You all have sinned against Me, says the LORD. ³⁰In vain I have stricken your children; they received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

³¹O generation, see the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? a land of darkness? Why do My people say, We are lords; we will come no more to Thee? ³²Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her dress? Yet My people have forgotten Me days without number. ³³Why did you trim your way to seek love? Therefore you have also taught the wicked ones your ways. ³⁴Also in your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents; I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these. ³⁵Yet you say, Because I am innocent, surely His anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with you, because you say, I have not sinned. ³⁶Why do you gad about so much to change your way? You also shall be ashamed of Egypt, as you were ashamed of Assyria. ³⁷Yes, you shall go forth from him, and your hands upon your head; for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not get good by them.

¹They say, If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him and becomes another man's wife, shall he return to her again? Would not that land be greatly defiled? But you have played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to Me, says the LORD. ²Lift up your eyes to the high places, and see. Where have you not been lain with? By the highways you have sat for them, like the Ā-rā'-bī-ān in the wilderness; and you have defiled the land with your fôr-nī-cā'-tions and with your wickedness. ³Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; and you had a harlot's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. ⁴Will you not from this time cry to Me, My father, Thou art the guide of my youth? ⁵Will He keep His anger forever? Will He keep it to the end? Behold, you have spoken and done things as evil as you could do.

⁶The LORD also said unto me in the days of Jō-sī'-āh the king, Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the harlot. ⁷And I said after she had done all these things, Turn to Me! But she did not return. And her deceitful sister Judah saw it. ⁸And I watched – when for all the causes for which backsliding Israel committed adultery, I have put her away and have given her a bill of divorce – yet her deceitful sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also. ⁹And through the wantonness of her fôr-nī-cā'-tion, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. ¹⁰And yet for all this her deceitful sister Judah has not turned to Me with her whole heart, but in falsehood, says the LORD. ¹¹And the LORD said to me, The backsliding Israel has justified herself more than deceitful Judah.

¹²Go and cry these words toward the north, and say, Return, you backsliding Israel, says the LORD; and I will not cause My anger to fall upon you; for I am merciful, says the LORD, and I will not keep anger forever. ¹³Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have sinned against the LORD your God and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed My voice, says the LORD. ¹⁴Turn, O backsliding children, says the LORD; for I am married to you; and I will take you one from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵And I will give you pastors according to My heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD – neither shall it come to mind – neither shall they remember it – neither shall they visit it – neither shall it be made any more. ¹⁷At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. Neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart. ¹⁸In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers. ¹⁹But I said, How shall I put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly inheritance of the hosts of nations? And I said, You shall call me, My Father, and shall not turn away from Me.

²⁰Surely as a wife deceitfully departs from her husband, so you have dealt deceitfully with me, O house of Israel, says the LORD. ²¹A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and cryings of the children of Israel; for they have made their way crooked, and they have forgotten the LORD their God. ²²Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto Thee; for Thou art the LORD our God. ²³Truly the high hills have proved to be in vain, the noisy throng on the mountains. Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel. ²⁴For shame has eaten up the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵We lie down in our shame, and our blushing covers us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

¹If you will return, O Israel, says the LORD, return unto Me. And if you will put away your abominations out of your sight, then you shall not be moved. ²And you shall swear, The LORD lives, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in Him, and in Him they shall glory. ³For thus says the LORD to Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow among thorns. ⁴Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and people of Jerusalem; lest My fury come forth like fire, and burn so that none can put it out — because of the evil of your doings.

¹²a full wind from those places shall come unto Me. Now also I will give judgment against them. ¹³Behold, he shall come up like clouds, and his chariots shall be like a whirlwind. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us, for we are plundered! ¹⁴O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness so that you may be saved. How long shall your vain thoughts stay within you? ¹⁵For a voice declares from Dan, and makes known affliction from Mount Ephraim. ¹⁶Make mention to the nations; behold, sound out against Jerusalem that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷Like keepers of a field, they are against her round about; because she has been rebellious against Me, says the LORD. ¹⁸Your way and your doings have brought these things upon you; this is your wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reaches unto your heart.

¹⁹My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart! My heart makes a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. ²⁰Ruin upon ruin is cried; for the whole land is plundered; suddenly my tents are robbed, and my curtains in a moment. ²¹How long shall I see the banner and hear the sound of the trumpet? ²²For My people are foolish; they have not known Me; they are stupid children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. ²³I looked upon the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. ²⁴I looked upon the mountains, and, lo, they trembled; and all the hills moved lightly. ²⁵I looked, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the skies had fled. ²⁶I looked, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities of it were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by His fierce anger. ²⁷For so the LORD has said, The whole land shall be a waste, yet I will not make a full end. ²⁸The earth shall mourn for this, and the heavens above shall be black; because I have spoken, I have purposed, and will not repent; neither will I turn back from it. ²⁹The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen. They shall go into thickets and climb up upon the rocks. Every city shall be forsaken, and not a man shall live in them. ³⁰And when you have been stripped, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with crimson, though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold, though you make your eyes large with paint, you shall make yourself beautiful in vain; your lovers will despise you; they will seek your life. ³¹For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor, and the pain as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, gasping for breath and spreading her hands, saying, Woe is me now! For my soul is weary of murderers.

¹Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places of it, if you can find a man, if there are any who do judgment, who seek the truth — and I will pardon it. ²And though they say, the LORD lives; surely they swear falsely. ³O LORD, are not Thy eyes upon the truth? Thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; Thou hast destroyed them, but they have refused to receive correction; they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. ⁴Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish; but they do not know the way of the LORD nor the judgment of their God. ⁵I will go up unto the great men, and will speak to them; for they have known the way of the LORD and the judgment of their God. But these have broken the yoke together and have torn off the bonds! ⁶Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, and a wolf of the deserts shall rob them; a leopard shall watch over their cities. Everyone who goes out from them shall be torn in pieces, because their sins are many and their backslidings are multiplied.

⁷How shall I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken Me, and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery and gathered themselves by troops in the houses of the harlots. ⁸They were like fed horses in the morning; every one neighed after his neighbor's wife. ⁹Shall I not judge for these things? says the LORD. And shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

¹⁰Go up upon her walls, and destroy; but do not make a full end; take away her battlements, for they are not the LORD's. ¹¹For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very deceitfully against Me, says the LORD. ¹²They have lied against the LORD and said, It is not He; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine. ¹³And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them; so it shall be done to them. ¹⁴Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts, Because you speak this word, behold, I will make My words in your mouth fire, and will make this people wood, and it shall devour them. ¹⁵Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from afar, O house of Israel, says the LORD. It is a mighty nation, it is an old nation, a nation whose language you do not know, neither understand what they say. ¹⁶Their quiver is as an open grave; they are all mighty men. ¹⁷And they shall eat up your harvest, and your bread which your sons and your daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall make your walled cities poor with the sword, those in which you trusted. ¹⁸Nevertheless in those days, says the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

¹⁹And when you shall say, Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us? Then you shall answer them, Just as you have forsaken Me and served strange gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours. ²⁰Declare this in the house of Jacob, and cry it in Judah, saying, ²¹Now hear this, O foolish people and without understanding; who have eyes and see not; who have ears and hear not; ²²Do you not fear Me? says the LORD. Will you not tremble at My presence, I who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a never-ending decree, so that it cannot pass it? And though the waves of it toss themselves, yet they cannot succeed; though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it? ²³But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. ²⁴Neither do they say in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, who gives both the former and the latter rain in its season; He reserves unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

²⁵Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you. ²⁶For among My people are found wicked men; they lay wait, as he who sets snares; they set a trap, they catch men. ²⁷Like a cage full of birds, so their houses are full of deceit; therefore they have become great and grown rich. ²⁸They have become fat, they shine. Yes, they go past the deeds of the wicked; they do not judge the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they get rich; and they do not judge the right of the needy. ²⁹Shall I not visit for these things? says the LORD. Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

³⁰A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land. ³¹The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so, and what will you do in the end of it?

CHAPTER 6

¹O children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tē-kō'-ā, and set up a sign of fire in Bēth-hāc'-cēr-ēm — for evil appears out of the north, and great ruin. ²I have compared the daughter of Zion to a beautiful and tender woman. ³The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her all around; they shall feed each one in his place. ⁴Prepare war against her; arise and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! For the day goes away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. ⁵Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

⁶For thus has the LORD of hosts said, Cut down trees and cast a mound against Jerusalem! This is the city to be visited; there is nothing but evil in the midst of her. ⁷As a fountain casts out her waters, so she casts out her wickedness; violence and spoil is heard in her; always before Me are grief and wounds. ⁸O Jerusalem, you must be instructed, lest My soul depart from you; lest I make you a waste, a land without people.

⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine; turn back your hand as a grape gatherer into the baskets. ¹⁰To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is not circumcised, and they cannot listen;

behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. ¹¹Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in; I will pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the circle of young men together — for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him who is full of days. ¹²And their houses shall be turned to others, together with their fields and wives; for I will stretch out My hand upon the people of the land, says the LORD. ¹³For everyone from the least of them even to the greatest of them is given to unjust gain; and from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely. ¹⁴They have also healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. ¹⁵Were they ashamed when they had done a hateful thing? No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush; therefore they shall fall among those who fall. At the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, says the LORD. ¹⁶Thus says the LORD, Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths where the good way is, and walk in it, and you shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk in it. ¹⁷Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Listen to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not listen.

¹⁸Therefore hear, you nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. ¹⁹Hear, O earth; behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to My words, nor to My law, but have rejected it. ²⁰To what purpose does there come incense to me from Shē'-bā, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not pleasing, nor your sacrifices sweet to Me. ²¹Therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbor and his friend shall perish. ²²Thus says the LORD, Behold, a people comes from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth. ²³They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in order like a man for war against you, O daughter of Zion. ²⁴We have heard the rumor of it; our hands become feeble; anguish has taken hold of us, and pain, like a woman in labor. ²⁵Do not go forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear are on every side.

²⁶O daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow yourself in ashes; make mourning for yourself, as for an only son, most bitter weeping — for the ravager shall suddenly come upon us. ²⁷I have set you up as a watchtower and a stronghold among My people, that you may know and try their way. ²⁸They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders; they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. ²⁹The bellows are burned, the lead is melted by the fire; the founder melts in vain; for the wicked are not plucked away. ³⁰Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD has rejected them.

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and declare there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. ³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Make your ways and your doings good, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. ⁴Do not trust in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD are these. ⁵For if you make your ways and your doings completely good; if you completely do judgment between a man and his neighbor; ⁶if you do not press down the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt — ⁷then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, forever and ever.

⁸Behold, you trust in lying words that cannot do any good. ⁹Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know — ¹⁰and then come and stand before Me in this house which is called by My name, and say, We are delivered to do all these hateful things? ¹¹Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I also have seen it, says the LORD. ¹²But go now to My place which was in Shi'-loh, where I set My name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of My people Israel. ¹³And now, because you have done all these works, says the LORD, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear — and I called you, but you did not answer — ¹⁴therefore I will do unto this house, which is called by My name, in which you trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shi'-loh. ¹⁵And I will cast you out of My sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, the whole seed of Ephraim. ¹⁶Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me; for I will not hear you.

fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices. ²³But I commanded them this thing, saying, Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people; and walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, so that it may be well with you. ²⁴But they did not listen, nor bow their ear, but walked in the plans and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward. ²⁵Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt until this day I have even sent unto you all My servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them. ²⁶Yet they did not listen to Me, nor bow down their ear, but hardened their neck. They did worse than their fathers. ²⁷Therefore you shall speak all these words unto them, but they will not listen to you; you shall also call to them, but they will not answer you. ²⁸But you shall say to them, This is a nation which does not obey the voice of the LORD their God, nor receives instruction; truth has perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

²⁹*O Jerusalem*, cut off your hair and throw it away, and take up a weeping on the high places. For the LORD has turned away and forsaken the generation of His wrath. ³⁰For the children of Judah have done evil in My sight, says the LORD. They have set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, in order to defile it. ³¹They have built the high places of Tō'-phēt, which is in the valley of the son of Hin'-nōm, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command them, neither did it come into My heart.

³²Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tō'-phēt, nor the valley of the son of Hin'-nōm, but the valley of slaughter. For they shall bury in Tō'-phēt, until there is no place. ³³And the bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall frighten them away. ³⁴Then I will cause the voice of gladness to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem; and the voice of joy, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. For the land shall be wasted.

CHAPTER 8

¹At that time, says the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem, out of their graves. ²And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of the heavens, whom they have loved and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped. They shall not be gathered nor buried; they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth. ³And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the rest of those who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of hosts.

⁴Moreover you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD; shall they fall and not arise? Shall he turn away and not return? ⁵Why then has this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a never-ending backsliding? They hold fast to deceit; they refuse to return. ⁶I listened and heard, but they did not speak right; no man repented of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? Everyone turned to his own way, like the horse rushes into the battle. ⁷Yea, the stork in the heaven knows her seasons; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow watch the time of their coming; but my people do not know the judgment of the LORD. ⁸How do you say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly the lying pen of the scribes has written falsely. ⁹The wise men are ashamed, they have been afraid, and have been captured. Lo, they have turned away from the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them? ¹⁰Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who shall inherit them, for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to unjust gain. From the prophet even unto the priest everyone deals falsely. ¹¹For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. ¹²Were they ashamed when they had done a hateful thing? No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush; therefore they shall fall among those who fall; in the time of their judgment they shall be cast down, says the LORD.

¹³I will surely put an end to them, says the LORD; there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. ¹⁴Why do we sit still? Gather yourselves, and let us enter into the fenced cities, and let us be silent there. For the LORD our God has put us to silence, and has given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. ¹⁵We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, but behold, trouble! ¹⁶The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan; the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones. For they have come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those who live in it. ¹⁷For, behold, I will send serpents and adders among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, says the LORD.

¹⁸*When* I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint within me. ¹⁹Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of those who dwell in a far country. Is not the LORD in Zion? Is not her King in her? Why have they provoked Me to anger with their graven images and with strange vanities? ²⁰The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. ²¹For the hurt of the daughter of my people I am hurt; I am in gloom; horror has taken hold on me. ²²*Is* there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the healing of my people not come?

CHAPTER 9

¹Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! ²Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place for traveling men, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, a gathering of deceivers. ³And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies. But they are not mighty for the truth upon the earth; for they go from evil to evil, and they do not know Me, says the LORD. ⁴Everyone beware of his neighbor, and do not trust any brother! For every brother will trip up his neighbor, and will walk with slanders. ⁵And everyone will deceive his neighbor, and will not speak the truth; they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and they tire themselves to commit iniquity. ⁶Your dwelling is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know Me, says the LORD. ⁷Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of My people? ⁸Their tongue is like an arrow shot out; it speaks deceit; one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in heart he lies in wait.

⁹Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD; shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? ¹⁰I will take up a weeping and a wailing for the mountains, and a mourning for the homes of the wilderness; because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle. Both the birds of the skies and the beast have fled; they are gone. ¹¹And I will make Jerusalem ruins, a den of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desert, without a living soul.

¹²Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? For why does the land perish and burn up like a wilderness, so that none passes through? ¹³And the LORD says, Because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice. Neither have they walked in it; ¹⁴but they have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Bā'-ā-lim, which their fathers taught them. ¹⁵Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and will give them water of gall to drink. ¹⁶I will also scatter them among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. And I will send a sword after them until I have put an end to them.

¹⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts, Think carefully, and call for the mourning women, that they may come. And send for the wise women, that they may come; ¹⁸and let them make haste and take up a weeping for us, so that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. ¹⁹For a voice of weeping is heard out of Zion. How are we plundered! We are greatly ashamed, because we have forsaken the land, because they have thrown down our tents. ²⁰Yet hear the word of the LORD, O women, and let your ear receive the word of His mouth, and teach your daughters to weep, and each one teach her neighbor to mourn. ²¹For death has come up into our windows, and has entered into our houses, to cut off the children from outside and the young men from the streets. ²²Speak, Thus says the LORD, Even the bodies of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest-man, and none shall gather them.

²³Thus says the LORD, Do not let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might; do not let the rich man glory in his riches — ²⁴but let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD, doing kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth — for in these things I delight, says the LORD.

²⁵Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will punish all those who are circumcised, with those who are not circumcised — ²⁶Egypt, and Judah, and E'-dom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all who are in the outermost corners, who dwell in the wilderness. For all these nations are not circumcised, and all the house of Israel are not circumcised in heart.

CHAPTER 10

¹Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. ²Thus says the LORD, Do not learn the way of the heathen, and do not be frightened at the signs of the heavens; for the heathen are frightened at them. ³For the customs of the people are vain; for one cuts a tree out of the forest with the axe, the work of the hands of the workman. ⁴They adorn it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and hammers, so that they do not move it. ⁵They are upright as the palm tree, but do not speak; they must be carried, because they cannot go. Do not be afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good. ⁶Because there is none like Thee, O LORD; Thou art great, and Thy name is great in might. ⁷Who would not fear Thee, O King of nations? For fear belongs to Thee, because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like Thee. ⁸But they are all at once foolish and animal-like — the tree is an example of vanities. ⁹Silver spread into plates is brought from Tār'-shish, and gold from Ū'-phāz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder; blue and purple is their clothing; they are all the work of skillful men. ¹⁰But the LORD is the true God, He is the living God, and the everlasting King. At His wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to stand His fury. ¹¹Thus you shall say unto them, The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth, they shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens. ¹²He has made the earth by His power; He has established the world by His wisdom, and has stretched out the heavens by His judgment. ¹³When He utters His voice, there is a noise of many waters in the heavens. He causes the vapors to go up from the ends of the earth; He makes lightnings with rain, and brings forth the wind out of His treasures. ¹⁴Every man is like an animal in knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by the graven image; for his molded image is a lie, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁵They are vanity and the work of errors; in the time of their judgment they shall perish. ¹⁶The Portion of Jacob is not like them; for He is the Maker of all things; and Israel is the rod of His inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name.

¹⁷Gather up your goods from the ground, you who live under the siege. ¹⁸For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the people of the land at this time, and will distress them, so that they may feel it.

¹⁹Woe is me for my hurt! My wound is grievous; but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it. ²⁰My tabernacle is ravaged, and all my cords are broken; My children have gone forth from Me, and they are not. There is none to stretch out My tabernacle any more, and to set up My curtains. ²¹For the pastors have become like animals, and have not sought the LORD, therefore they shall not be blessed, and all their flocks shall be scattered. ²²Behold, the noise of the rumor has come, and a great moving out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a waste, a den of jackals.

²³O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. ²⁴O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in Thy anger, lest Thou bring me to nothing. ²⁵Pour out Thy fury upon the heathen who do not know Thee, and upon the families who do not call upon Thy name; for they have eaten up Jacob and have devoured him, and have destroyed him, and have wasted his dwelling.

CHAPTER 11

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD saying, ²Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem. ³And say to them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, ⁴which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey My voice and do them according to all that I command you – so you shall be My people, and I will be your God – ⁵so that I may fulfil the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then I answered and said, Amen, O LORD. ⁶Then the LORD said to me, Declare all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. ⁷For I earnestly testified to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and testifying, saying, Obey My voice. ⁸Yet they did not obey nor bow down their ear, but walked each one in the imagination of his evil heart. Therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did not do them. ⁹And the LORD said to me, A plot is found among the men of Judah, and among the people of Jerusalem. ¹⁰They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear My words. And they went after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers.

¹¹Therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry to Me, I will not listen to them. ¹²Then shall the cities of Judah and the people of Jerusalem go and cry unto the gods to whom they offer incense. But they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah. And according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Bā'-āl. ¹⁴Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them. For I will not hear them in the time they cry to Me for their trouble. ¹⁵What has My beloved to do in My house, since she has committed wickedness with many. And has the holy flesh passed from you? When you do evil, then you rejoice! ¹⁶The LORD called your name, a green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit. With the noise of a great uproar He has kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken. ¹⁷For the LORD of hosts who planted you has spoken evil against you, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger by offering incense to Bā'-āl.

¹⁸And the LORD has given me knowledge, and I know it. Then Thou didst show me their doings. ¹⁹But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter. And I did not know that they had plotted evils against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit of it, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name may be remembered no more. ²⁰But, O LORD of hosts who dost judge rightly, who tries the heart and the mind, let me see Thy vengeance upon them. For to Thee I have revealed my cause. ²¹Therefore thus says the LORD of the men of Ān'-ā-thōth, who seek your life, saying, Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, that you do not die by our hand. ²²Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; ²³and there shall be no remnant of them. For I will bring evil upon the men of Ān'-ā-thōth, even the year of their judgment.

CHAPTER 12

¹Righteous art Thou, O LORD, when I enter into judgment with Thee; yet let me talk with Thee of Thy judgments. Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are all those happy who deal very deceitfully? ²Thou hast planted them; yea, they have taken root. They grow, yea, they bring forth fruit. Thou art near in their mouth and far from their heart. ³But Thou, O LORD, dost know me. Thou hast seen me and tried my heart toward Thee. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. ⁴How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it? The beasts and the birds have been destroyed, because they said, He shall not see our last end.

⁵If you have run with the footmen, and they have worn you out, then how can you fret yourself with horses? And if they wore you out in the land of peace, in which you trusted, then how will you do in the swelling of Jordan? ⁶For even your brothers and the house of your father, even they have dealt deceitfully with you. Yea, they have called a multitude after you. Do not believe them, though they speak good things to you.

⁷I have forsaken My house; I have left My inheritance. I have given the dearly beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies. ⁸My inheritance is to Me as a lion in the forest; it cries out against Me; therefore I have hated it. ⁹My inheritance is to Me like a speckled bird; the birds all around are against her. Come, gather all the beasts of the field, come to devour. ¹⁰Many pastors have destroyed My vineyard; they have trampled My portion under foot; they have made My pleasant portion a deserted wilderness. ¹¹They have made it deserted, and lonely it mourns to me. The whole land is made a desert because no man lays it to heart. ¹²The ravagers have come upon all high places through the wilderness; for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land. No flesh shall have peace. ¹³They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns. They have put themselves to pain, but shall not get any good. And they shall be ashamed of your harvests because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

¹⁴Thus says the LORD against all my evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵And after I have plucked them out, I will return and have pity on them, and will bring them again, each man to his inheritance and each man to his land. ¹⁶And if they will carefully learn the ways of My people, to swear by My name, "The LORD lives"; as they taught the people to swear by Bā'-āl; then they shall be built in the midst of My people. ¹⁷But if they will not obey, I will uproot and destroy that nation, says the LORD.

¹Thus says the LORD to me, Go and get a linen girdle, and put it upon your loins, and do not put it in water. ²So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it upon my loins. ³And the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, ⁴Take the girdle that you have gotten, which is upon your loins, and arise. Go to Euphrates [Yoû-frāy'-tēez], and hide it there in a hole of the rock. ⁵So I went and hid it by Eû-phrā'-tēs, as the LORD commanded me. ⁶And after many days the LORD said to me, Arise, go to Eû-phrā'-tēs and take the girdle from there, which I commanded you to hide there. ⁷Then I went to Eû-phrā'-tēs and dug, and took the girdle from the place where I had hidden it. And, behold, the girdle was ruined; it was not good for anything. ⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹Thus says the LORD, In this way I will spoil the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰This evil people, who refuse to hear My words, who walk in the imagination of their heart and walk after other gods to serve them and to worship them, shall even be like this girdle, which is good for nothing. ¹¹For as the girdle holds fast to the loins of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me, says the LORD — so that they might be unto Me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory — but they would not hear.

¹²Therefore you shall speak to them this word: Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Every jar shall be filled with wine. And they shall say to you, Do we not surely know that every jar shall be filled with wine? ¹³Then you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the people of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. ¹⁴And I will smash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD. I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but will destroy them.

¹⁵Hear and give ear; do not be proud; for the LORD has spoken. ¹⁶Give glory to the LORD your God, before He causes darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, He turns it into the shadow of death and makes it gross darkness. ¹⁷But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride. And my eye shall weep sore and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive. ¹⁸Say to the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your greatnesses shall come down, even the crown of your glory. ¹⁹The cities of the South shall be shut up, and none shall open them. Judah shall be carried away captive, all of it; it shall be wholly carried away captive. ²⁰Lift up your eyes and behold those who come from the north; where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock? ²¹What will you say when he comes to punish you? For you have taught them to be captains and chief over you; shall not sorrows take you like a woman in labor?

²²And if you say in your heart, Why do these things come upon me? It is because of the greatness of your iniquity that your skirts are uncovered, and your heels are made bare. ²³Can the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ān change his skin, or the leopard its spots? Then you also may do good, who are accustomed to doing evil. ²⁴Therefore I will scatter them as the stubble that passes away by the wind of the wilderness. ²⁵This is your lot, the share I have measured to you, says the LORD, because you have forgotten Me and trusted in falsehood. ²⁶There I will uncover your skirts upon your face, that your shame may appear. ²⁷I have seen your adulteries, and your neighings, the wickedness of your fôr-nī-cā'-tion, and your hateful things on the hills in the fields. Woe unto you, O Jerusalem! Will you not be made clean? When will it ever be?

¹The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the time of dryness. ²Judah mourns, and its gates droop. They are black to the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem has gone up. ³And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters; they came to the cisterns, and found no water. They returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and turned pale, and covered their heads. ⁴Because the ground is dried up, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed; they covered their heads. ⁵Yea, the hind also calved in the field and left it, because there was no grass. ⁶And the wild asses stood in the high places; they snuffed up the wind like jackals; their eyes became dim because there was no grass.

¹⁰Thus says the LORD to this people; Thus they have loved to wander; they have not held back their feet; therefore the LORD does not receive them. He will now remember their iniquity and punish their sins. ¹¹Then the LORD said to me, Do not pray for this people, for their good. ¹²When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and a sacrifice, I will not receive them. But I will put an end to them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague.

¹³Then I said, Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets are saying to them, You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you true peace in this place. ¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in My name; I did not send them, neither have I commanded them, neither did I speak to them. They prophesy to you a false vision and worthless fortune telling, and a thing of no value, and the deceit of their heart. ¹⁵Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, and I did not send them; yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; by sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed. ¹⁶And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters. For I will pour their wickedness upon them.

¹⁷Therefore you shall speak this word to them: Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and do not let them cease. For the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great break, with a very grievous blow. ¹⁸If I go out into the field, then I see those killed with the sword! And if I enter into the city, then I see those who are sick with famine! Yes, both the prophet and the priest have gone up into a land that they do not know. ¹⁹Hast Thou completely turned away from Judah? Hast Thy soul hated Zion? Why hast Thou stricken us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble! ²⁰We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against Thee. ²¹Do not despise us for Thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of Thy glory; remember, do not break Thy covenant with us. ²²Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles who can cause rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Art Thou not He, O LORD our God? Therefore we will wait upon Thee; for Thou hast made all these things.

¹Then the LORD said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before Me, yet My mind could not be toward this people. Cast them out of My sight, and let them go forth. ²And if they say to you, Where shall we go? Then you shall tell them, Thus says the LORD: Those who are for death go to death; and those for the sword, to the sword; and those who are for the famine, to the famine; and those who are for the captivity go to the captivity. ³And I will set over them four kinds, says the LORD — the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. ⁴And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Mā-nās'-sēh the son of Hēz-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. ⁵For who shall have pity upon you, O Jerusalem? Or who shall weep over you? Or who shall go aside to ask how you are? ⁶You have forsaken Me, says the LORD; you have gone backward; therefore I will stretch out My hand against you, and destroy you; I am weary with repenting. ⁷And I will sift them with a sieve in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children; I will destroy My people, since they do not return from their ways. ⁸Their widows have been more to Me than the sand of the seas; I have brought upon them a ravager at noon-day against the mother of the young men; I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city. ⁹She who has borne seven droops; she has given up the spirit; her sun has gone down while it was yet day. She has been ashamed and has turned pale; and I will deliver the rest of them to the sword before their enemies, says the LORD.

¹⁰Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither loaned upon usury, nor have men loaned to me on usury; yet every one of them curses me. ¹¹The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with those who are left of you. Truly I will cause the enemy to treat you well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. ¹²Shall iron break the iron and the brass from the North? ¹³Your wealth and your treasures I will give as a prize without price, and for all your sins, even in all your borders. ¹⁴And I will make you pass with your enemies into a land which you do not know; for a fire has been kindled in My anger, which shall burn upon you.

¹⁹Therefore thus says the LORD, If you turn back, then I will bring you again, and you shall stand before me. And if you take the precious from the worthless, you shall be as My mouth. Let them turn back to you, but do not return to them. ²⁰And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of brass; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not overcome you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says the LORD. ²¹And I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.

¹The word of the LORD came also to me, saying, ²You shall not take a wife for yourself, neither shall you have sons or daughters in this place. ³For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who fathered them in this land; ⁴they shall die of painful deaths; they shall not be mourned, neither shall they be buried. But they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth. And they shall be destroyed by the sword and by famine; and their bodies shall be food for the birds of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth. ⁵For thus says the LORD, Do not enter into the house of mourning, neither go to weep nor moan over them; for I have taken away My peace from this people, says the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies. ⁶Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried, neither shall men mourn for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them. ⁷Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead. Neither shall men give them the cup of comfort to drink for their father or for their mother. ⁸Also you shall not go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. ⁹For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause the voice of mirth to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, and the voice of gladness, and the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

¹⁰And when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall say to you, Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? Or what is our iniquity, or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? ¹¹Then you shall say to them, Because your fathers have forsaken Me, says the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken Me, and have not kept My law. ¹²And you have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, you walk each one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they might not listen to Me. ¹³Therefore I will cast you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; where I will not show you favor.

¹⁴Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt — ¹⁵but, the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the North, and from all the lands where He had driven them. And I will bring them again into their lands that I gave to their fathers.

¹⁶Behold, I will send for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they shall catch them. And afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. ¹⁷For My eyes are upon all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, neither is their iniquity hidden from My eyes. ¹⁸And first I will twice repay their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land, they have filled My inheritance with the dead bodies of their hateful idols. ¹⁹O LORD, my strength and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come to Thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things in which there is no good. ²⁰Shall a man make gods to himself, and they are no gods? ²¹Therefore, behold, this once I will make them know My power; I will cause them to know My hand and My might; and they shall know that My name is Jehovah.

CHAPTER 17

¹The sin of Judah is written with a pin of iron, and with the point of a diamond; it is carved upon the tablet of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars — ²while their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills. ³O My mountain in the field, I will give your wealth and all your treasures to the spoil, and your high places for sin, throughout all your borders. ⁴And you, even through yourself, have let go of the inheritance which I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you do not know. For you have kindled a fire in My anger, which shall burn forever.

⁵Thus says the LORD, Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the LORD. ⁶For he shall be like a naked thing in the desert, and shall not see when good comes. But he shall live in the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land that has no people. ⁷Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose hope is the LORD. ⁸For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, and that spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not see when the heat comes, but its leaf shall be green — and he is not sorrowful in the year of dryness, neither shall he cease from yielding fruit.

⁹The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it? ¹⁰I the LORD search the heart, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings. ¹¹The quail sits on eggs and does not hatch them; in the same way he who gets riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the middle of his days, and in his end he shall be a fool.

¹²A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. ¹³O LORD, the Hope of Israel, all who forsake Thee shall be ashamed. Those who depart from Me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the Fountain of living waters. ¹⁴Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed, save me, and I shall be saved; for Thou art my praise.

¹⁵Behold, they say to me, Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come now! ¹⁶As for me, I have not hurried away from being a shepherd after Thee; neither have I desired the woeful day; Thou knowest. That which came out of my lips was right before Thee. ¹⁷Do not be a terror unto me; Thou art my hope in the day of evil. ¹⁸Let those who persecute me be ashamed, but do not let me be ashamed; let them be afraid, but do not let me be afraid. Bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double ruin.

¹⁹Thus the LORD said to me: Go and stand in the gates of the children of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰And say to them, Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the people of Jerusalem who enter in by these gates! ²¹Thus says the LORD, Take heed to yourselves, and carry no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem. ²²Neither carry out a burden from your houses on the Sabbath day, neither do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. ²³But they did not obey, neither bowed down their ear, but made their neck stiff, so that they might not hear nor receive instruction. ²⁴And if you carefully listen to me, says the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy, to do no work in it — ²⁵then kings and princes sitting on the throne of David shall enter into the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem. And this city shall remain forever. ²⁶And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD. ²⁷But if you will not listen to me to keep the Sabbath day holy, and not to carry a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day — then I will kindle a fire in the gates of it, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be put out.

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words. ³Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he was working a work on the wheel. ⁴And the vessel that he made in clay was ruined in the hand of the potter; so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. ⁵Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁶O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter? says the LORD. Behold, As the clay in the potter's hands, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel. ⁷The instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck it up and to pull it down, and to destroy it; ⁸if that nation, against whom I have spoken, will turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. ⁹And the instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build it and to plant it — ¹⁰if it does evil in My sight, that it does not obey My voice, then I will repent of the good with which I said I would do them good.

¹¹Now therefore come, speak to the men of Judah, and to the people of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am forming evil against you, and thinking of a plan against you. Return now, each one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good. ¹²And they said, There is no hope; but we will walk after our own ways, and we will each one do according to the stubbornness of his evil heart. ¹³Therefore thus says the LORD, Ask now among the nations; who has heard the like of this? The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. ¹⁴Will a man leave the snow of Lēb'-ā-non which comes from the rock of the field? Or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? ¹⁵Because My people have forgotten Me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused themselves to stumble in their ways from the old paths, to walk in by-paths, not in the highway, ¹⁶to make their land a waste and a hissing forever. Everyone who passes by will be amazed, and will wag his head. ¹⁷I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

¹⁸Then they said, Come and let us plot plans against Jeremiah. For the law shall not perish from the priest, nor wisdom from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. ¹⁹Give heed to me; O LORD, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. ²⁰Shall evil be given back for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before Thee to do good for them, and to turn away Thy wrath from them. ²¹Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword. And let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle. ²²Let a cry be heard from their houses, when Thou shalt bring a troop upon them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and have hidden snares for my feet. ²³Yet, LORD, Thou knowest all their plans against me to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from Thy sight, but let them be overthrown before Thee; deal with them in the time of Thy anger.

¹Thus says the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen jar, and take some of the elders of the people and of the elders of the priests. ²And

go forth to the valley of the son of Hin'-nōm, which is by the entry of the east gate, and declare there the words that I shall tell you. ³And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and people of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, which shall cause the ears of him who hears it to tingle. ⁴Because they have forsaken Me, and have made this place strange, and have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents. ⁵They have also built the high places of Bā'-āl, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Bā'-āl, which I never commanded nor spoke, neither did it come into My mind. ⁶Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tō'-phēt, nor the valley of the son of Hin'-nōm, but, The valley of slaughter. ⁷And I will make the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem come to nothing in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of those who seek their lives. And I will give their dead bodies to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. ⁸And I will make this city a waste and a hissing. Everyone who passes by shall be amazed and shall hiss because of all the plagues of it. ⁹And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall each one eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress, with which their enemies and those who seek their lives shall distress them.

¹⁰Then you shall break the jar in the sight of the men who go with you, ¹¹and shall say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, Even so I will break this people of this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel that cannot be made whole again. And they shall bury them in Tō'-phēt until there is no place left to bury. ¹²I will do this unto this place, says the LORD, and to its people, and even make this city as Tō'-phēt. ¹³And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be as defiled as the place of Tō'-phēt, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods. ¹⁴Then Jeremiah came from Tō'-phēt, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. And he stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people, ¹⁵Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all its towns all the evil that I have spoken against it, because they have hardened their necks so that they might not hear My words.

¹Now Pāsh'-ūr the son of Im'-mēr the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. ²Then Pāsh'-ūr struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. ³And on the next day, Pāsh'-ūr brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, The LORD has not called your name Pāsh'-ūr, but Mā'-gòr-mīs-sā'-bīb. ⁴For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. And they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall behold it. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword. ⁵Besides I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labors of it, and all the precious things of it; and all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies (who shall strip them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon). ⁶And you, Pāsh'-ūr, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity. And you shall come to Babylon, and you shall die there, and shall be buried there — you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.

⁷O LORD, Thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived. Thou art stronger than I, and Thou hast overcome. I am a mockery all the day; everyone laughs at me. ⁸For whenever I speak, I cry out, I cry violence and ruin; therefore the word of the LORD has been a reproach and a cause of mocking to me all day. ⁹Then I said, I will not make mention of Him, nor speak in His name any more. But His word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with holding in, and I could not stop.

¹⁰For I heard the evil words of many, terror is all around! Report him, and we will report it. All my familiar friends watched for my fall, saying, Perhaps he will be lured away, and we shall overcome him, and we shall take our revenge on him. ¹¹But the LORD is with me like a mighty, fearful one. Therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not overcome me. They shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not be blessed. Their everlasting shame shall never be forgotten. ¹²But, O LORD of hosts, who tries the righteous and sees the heart and the mind, let me see Thy vengeance upon them: For I have committed my cause unto Thee. ¹³Sing unto the LORD, praise the LORD; for He has delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

¹⁴Cursed is the day in which I was born; let not the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. ¹⁵Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A man child is born unto you; making him very glad. ¹⁶And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not; and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide; ¹⁷because he did not kill me from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me. ¹⁸Why did I come forth from the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be ended in shame?

¹The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zēd-ē-kī'-āh sent to him Pāsh'-ūr the son of Mēl-chī'-āh, and Zēph-ā-nī'-āh the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh the priest, saying, ²I pray you, ask of the LORD for us. For Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon makes war against us. Ask if the LORD will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that he may go up from us.

³Then Jeremiah said to them, You shall say this to Zēd-ē-kī'-āh, ⁴Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chāl-dē'-āns who circle you outside the walls. And I will gather them together in the middle of this city. ⁵And I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. ⁶And I will strike the people of this city, both man and beast. They shall die of a great plague. ⁷And afterward, says the LORD, I will deliver Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and those who are left in this city from the plague, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, nor have pity, nor have mercy.

⁸And to this people you shall say, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague. But he who goes out and falls to the Chāl-dē'-āns who are all around you, he shall live, and his life shall be his prize. ¹⁰For I have set My face against this city for evil, and not for good, says the LORD. It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

¹¹And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear the word of the LORD. ¹²O house of David, thus says the LORD: Do judgment in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the cruel, lest My fury go out like fire, and burn so that none can put it out, because of the evil of your doings. ¹³Behold, I am against you, O dweller of the valley and rock of the plain, says the LORD; you who say, Who shall come down against us? Or who shall enter into our homes? ¹⁴But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says the LORD; and I will kindle a fire in the forest of it, and it shall devour all things around it.

¹Thus says the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak this word there. ²And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who sits upon the throne of David, you and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. ³Thus says the LORD, Do judgment and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the cruel. And do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you do this thing indeed, then there shall enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. ⁵But if you will not hear these words, I swear by Myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a ruin. ⁶For thus says the LORD to the king's house of Judah, You are Gilead to Me, and the head of Lēb'-ā-nōn. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness and cities with no people. ⁷And I will prepare destroyers against you, each one with his weapons. And they shall cut down your choice cedars, and throw them into the fire. ⁸And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say each one to his neighbor, Why has the LORD done this to this great city? ⁹Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

²⁰Go up to Lēb'-ā-nōn, and cry. And lift up your voice in Bā'-shān, and cry from the passages; for all your lovers are destroyed. ²¹I spoke to you in your ease; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your way from your youth, for you have not obeyed My voice. ²²The wind shall eat up all your pastors, and your lovers shall go into captivity; surely then you will be ashamed and will blush for all your wickedness.

²³O dweller in Lēb'-ā-nōn, you who make your nest in the cedars, how gracious shall you be when pangs come to you, the pain as of a woman in labor? ²⁴As I live, says the LORD, though Cō-nī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm king of Judah were the signet upon My right hand, yet I would pull you out of there! ²⁵And I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear, even into the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chāl-dē'-āns. ²⁶And I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country where you were not born. And there you shall die. ²⁷But to the land to which they desire to return, there they shall not return. ²⁸Is this man Cō-nī'-āh a despised broken idol? Is he a vessel in which there is no pleasure? Why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they do not know? ²⁹O earth, earth, earth! hear the word of the LORD! ³⁰Thus says the LORD, Write this man down as childless, a man that shall not be blessed in his days. For no man of his seed shall be blessed, sitting upon the throne of David and ruling any more in Judah.

¹Woe unto the pastors who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture, says the LORD. ²Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the pastors who feed My people, You have scattered My flock, and have driven them away, and have not visited them. Behold, I will bring upon you the evil of your doings, says the LORD. ³And I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their fold. And they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴And I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them. And they shall fear no more, nor be afraid; neither shall they lack anything, says the LORD.

⁵Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and act wisely, and shall do judgment and justice in the earth. ⁶In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely. And this is His name by which He shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. ⁷Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD lives, who brought the children of Israel up out of the land of Egypt — ⁸but, The LORD lives, who brought up and led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries where I have driven them. And they shall dwell in their own land.

⁹My heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake. I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of His holiness. ¹⁰For the land is full of adulterers. Yes, because of cursing the land mourns; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their way is evil, and their power is not right. ¹¹For both prophet and priest are ungodly; yes, in My house I have found their wickedness, says the LORD. ¹²Therefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall in them; for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their judgment, says the LORD. ¹³And I have seen folly in the prophets of Sā-mār'-ī-ā; they prophesied by Bā'-āl and caused My people Israel to go astray. ¹⁴I have also seen in the prophets of Jerusalem a horrible thing; they commit adultery and walk in lies. They also give power to the hands of evildoers, so that none returns from his wickedness; they are all of them like Sodom to Me, and its people like Gō-mōr'-rāh. ¹⁵Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone forth into all the land.

¹⁶Thus says the LORD of hosts, Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you. They make you vain; they speak a vision from their own heart, not out of the mouth of the LORD. ¹⁷They still say unto those who despise Me, The LORD has said, You shall have peace! And they say to everyone who walks after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you! ¹⁸For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hears His word? Who has listened to His word and heard it? ¹⁹Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind. It shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. ²⁰The anger of the LORD shall not return, until He has done and until He has set up the purposes of His heart; in later days you shall understand it perfectly. ²¹I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. ²²But if they had stood in My wisdom and had caused My people to hear My words, then they would have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their doings.

²³Am I a God at hand, says the LORD, and not a God afar off? ²⁴Can anyone hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him? says the LORD. Do I not fill Heaven and earth? says the LORD. ²⁵I have heard what the prophets said, who prophesy lies in My name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. ²⁶How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? But, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, ²⁷who plot to cause My people to forget My name by their dreams which they tell, each one to his neighbor, as their fathers have forgotten My name for Bā'-āl. ²⁸The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream. And he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? says the LORD. ²⁹Is not My word like a fire? says the LORD; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? ³⁰Therefore, the LORD says, Behold, I am against the prophets who steal My words each one from his neighbor. ³¹The LORD says, Behold, I am against the prophets who use their tongues and say, He says. ³²The LORD says, Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams and tell them, and cause My people to go astray by their lies and by their lightness. Yet I did not send them nor command them; therefore they shall not profit this people at all, says the LORD.

³³And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? You shall then say to them, What burden? I will even forsake you, says the LORD. ³⁴And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house. ³⁵So you shall say each one to his neighbor, and each one to his brother, What has the LORD answered? And what has the LORD spoken? ³⁶And you shall mention the burden of the LORD no more. For every man's word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God. ³⁷Thus you shall say to the prophet, What has the LORD answered you? And what has the LORD spoken? ³⁸But since you say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus says the LORD, Because you say this word — the burden of the LORD — and I have sent to you saying, You shall not say, The burden of the LORD — ³⁹therefore, behold, I, even I, will completely forget you, and I will forsake you and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of My presence. ⁴⁰And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a never-ending shame, which shall not be forgotten.

¹The LORD showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon had carried away captive Jēc-ō-nī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. ²One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe. And the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. ³Then the LORD said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs — the good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so that they cannot be eaten, they are so bad.

⁴Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁵Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will acknowledge those who are carried away captive from Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns for their good. ⁶For I will set My eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. And I will build them and not pull them down; and I will plant them and not pluck them up. ⁷And I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God. For they shall return to Me with their whole heart.

⁸And like the bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad — surely thus says the LORD, So I will give to Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the king of Judah, and his princes, and the rest of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt — ⁹and I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a byword and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. ¹⁰And I will send the sword, the famine, and the plague among them until they are destroyed from the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

¹The word that came to Jeremias concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the son of Jō-sī'-āh king of Judah, that was the first year of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon — ²the word which Jeremias the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the people of Jerusalem, saying, ³From the thirteenth year of Jō-sī'-āh the son of Amon king of Judah, even to this day, that is the twenty-third year, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking. But you have not listened. ⁴And the LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but you have not listened nor bowed down your ear to hear. ⁵They said, Turn again now, every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers forever and ever. ⁶And do not go after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no harm. ⁷Yet you have not listened to Me, says the LORD, so that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

¹²And, when seventy years are fulfilled I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, and the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns, says the LORD, for their iniquity, and I will make it an everlasting ruin. ¹³And I will bring upon that land all My words which I have spoken against it, even all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴For many nations and great kings shall lay service on them also. And I will repay them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

¹⁵For thus says the LORD God of Israel to me, Take the wine cup of this fury at My hand, and cause all the nations to whom I shall send you to drink it. ¹⁶And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. ¹⁷Then I took the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the LORD had sent me, drink — ¹⁸Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings of them, and their princes, to make them a ruin and a waste, a hissing, and a curse, (as it is today), ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people, ²⁰and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Āsh'-kē-lōn, and Azzah, and Ēk'-rōn, and the rest of Āsh'-dōd, ²¹Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon, ²²and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sī'-dōn, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea, ²³Dē'-dān, and Tē'-mā, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners, ²⁴and all the kings of Ā-rā'-bī-ā, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the desert, ²⁵and all the kings of Zīm'-rī, and all the kings of Ē'-lām, and all the kings of the Medes, ²⁶and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth — and the king of Shē'-shāch shall drink after them.

²⁷Therefore you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink and be drunk, and vomit, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. ²⁸And if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, You shall certainly drink. ²⁹For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by My name; and should you be found entirely without guilt? You shall not be without guilt. For I will call for a sword upon all the people of the earth, says the LORD of hosts. ³⁰Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter His voice from His holy dwelling place. He shall mightily roar over His dwelling place. He shall give a shout, like those who tread out the grapes, against all the people of the earth. ³¹A noise shall come to the ends of the earth; for the LORD has a case against the nations; He will enter into judgment with all flesh. He will give those who are wicked to the sword, says the LORD. ³²Thus says the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the corners of the earth. ³³And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; they shall not be mourned, or gathered, or buried. They shall be as dung upon the ground.

³⁴Howl, shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in ashes, you choice ones of the flock. For the days of your slaughter and of your scatterings are fulfilled; and you shall fall like a desirable vessel. ³⁵And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the choice ones of the flock, to escape. ³⁶A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and a howling of the choice ones of the flock, shall be heard; for the LORD has spoiled their pasture. ³⁷And the peaceful pastures are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD. ³⁸Like the lion, He has left His den — for their land is wasted because of His pressing fury, and because of His fierce anger.

CHAPTER 26

¹In the beginning of the reign of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the son of Jō-sī'-āh king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying, ²Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them — do not keep back a word. ³It may be that they will listen, and each man turn from his evil way, that I may repent of the evil which I plan to do to them because of the evil of their doings. ⁴And you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you, ⁵to listen to the words of My servants the prophets whom I am sending to you (both rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened) — ⁶then I will make this house like Shī'-lōh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. ⁷So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

⁸Now when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, You shall surely die! ⁹Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shī'-lōh, and this city shall be wasted, without anyone living in it? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entrance of the new gate of the LORD's house. ¹¹And then the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.

¹²Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. ¹³Therefore, now make your ways and your doings good, and obey the voice of the LORD your God. And the LORD will repent of the evil that He has spoken against you. ¹⁴As for me, behold, I am in your hand. Do with me as seems good and right to you. ¹⁵But know for certain that if you put me to death you shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon its people. For truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.

¹⁶Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die; for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. ¹⁷Then some of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, ¹⁸Micah the Mō-rās'-thīte prophesied in the days of Hēz-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house shall become like the high places of a forest. ¹⁹Did Hēz-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah and all Judah indeed put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD, and pray to the LORD, and the LORD repented of the evil which He had spoken against them? So we are doing great evil against our souls. ²⁰And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Ū-rī'-jäh the son of Shēm-aī'-āh of Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. ²¹And when Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king tried to put him to death. But when Ū-rī'-jäh heard it, he was afraid, and fled and went into Egypt. ²²And Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the king sent men into Egypt — Ēl-nā'-thān the son of Āch'-bōr, and men with him into Egypt. ²³And they brought Ū-rī'-jäh out of Egypt and brought him to Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the king, who killed him with the sword and threw his dead body into the graves of the common people. ²⁴Nevertheless the hand of Ā-hī'-kām the son of Shā'-phān was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Thus you shall say to your masters, ⁵I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed right to Me. ⁶And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king of Babylon, My servant. And I have also given him the beasts of the field to serve him. ⁷And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land comes. And then many nations and great kings shall make him a slave to them. ⁸And the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish, says the LORD, with the sword and with the famine, and with the plague, until I have destroyed them by his hand. ⁹Therefore do not listen to your prophets, nor to your fortune tellers, nor to your dreamers, nor to your chanters, nor to your magicians, who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon. ¹⁰For they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out and you should perish. ¹¹But the nations who bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those I will let remain still in their own land, says the LORD. And they shall work it and dwell in it.

¹²I also spoke to Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. ¹³Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴Therefore do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon. For they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁵For I have not sent them, says the LORD; yet they prophesy a lie in My name, so that I might drive you out, and that you might perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you.

¹⁶Also I spoke to the priests and to all the people, saying, Thus says the LORD, Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon. For they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and live. For why should this city be laid waste? ¹⁸But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now pray to the LORD of hosts that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, may not go to Babylon.

¹⁹For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels which remain in this city, ²⁰which Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon did not take when he carried Jēc-ō-nī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-kim king of Judah away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem — ²¹yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem: ²²They shall be carried to Babylon, and they shall be there until the day that I visit them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them up and give them back to this place.

¹And the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hān-ā-nī'-āh the son of Ā'-zur the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, ²Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³Within two full years I will again bring into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, which Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon took away from this place and carried them to Babylon. ⁴And I will bring again to this place Jēc-ō-nī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went into Babylon, says the LORD. For I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hān-ā-nī'-āh in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, ⁶even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen. May the LORD do so. May the LORD confirm your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. ⁷Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your ears and in the ears of all the people: ⁸The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of plague. ⁹As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then the prophet shall be known, that the LORD has truly sent him.

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hān-ā-nī'-āh the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³Go and tell Hān-ā-nī'-āh, saying, Thus says the LORD: You have broken the yokes of wood, but you shall make for them yokes of iron. ¹⁴For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon. And they shall serve him. And I have given him the beasts of the field also.

¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hān-ā-nī'-āh the prophet, Hear now, Hān-ā-nī'-āh. The LORD has not sent you, but you make this people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶Therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will drive you from off the face of the earth. You shall die this year, because you have taught rebellion against the LORD. ¹⁷So Hān-ā-nī'-āh the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER 29

¹Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders who were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²(This was after Jēc-ō-nī'-āh the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs [yoū'-nūcks], the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem.) ³*The letter came* by the hand of Ēl-ā'-sāh the son of Shā'-phān, and Gēm-ā-rī'-āh the son of Hīl-kī'-āh (whom Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon), saying, ⁴Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all who are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵Build houses and live in them; and plant gardens and eat the fruit of them. ⁶Take wives and father sons and daughters. And take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters, that you may be multiplied there and not become few. ⁷And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray to the LORD for it. For in its peace you shall have peace.

⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your fortune tellers who are in the midst of you deceive you, neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. ⁹For they prophesy falsely to you in My name; I have not sent them, says the LORD.

¹⁰For thus says the LORD, After seventy years have been fulfilled at Babylon, I will visit and confirm My good word to you in causing you to return to this place. ¹¹For I know the thoughts which I think toward you, says the LORD; thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. ¹²Then you shall call upon Me, and you shall go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. ¹³And you shall seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. ¹⁴And I will be found by you, says the LORD; and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD. And I will bring you again into the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.

¹⁵Because you have said, The LORD has raised us up prophets in Babylon — ¹⁶thus says the LORD of the king who sits upon the throne of David, and of all the people who dwell in this city, and of your brothers who have not gone forth with you into captivity — ¹⁷thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the plague, and will make them like evil figs which cannot be eaten, they are so evil. ¹⁸And I will pursue them with the sword, with the famine, and with the plague, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and a waste, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them, ¹⁹because they have not listened to My words, says the LORD, which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them — but you would not hear, says the LORD.

²⁰Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon — ²¹thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, about Ahab the son of Kō-laī'-āh and of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon, and he shall kill them before your eyes. ²²And a curse shall be taken up from them by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, May the LORD make you like Zēd-ē-kī'-āh and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire, ²³because they have committed evil in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in My name, which I have not commanded them — even I know, and am a witness, says the LORD.

²⁴You shall also speak to Shēm-aī'-āh the Nē-hēl'-ā-mīte, saying, ²⁵Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zēph-ā-nī'-āh the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶The LORD has made you priests instead of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest, that you should be officers in the house of the LORD, to any man who is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in prison and in the stocks. ²⁷Now therefore why have you not reproved Jeremiah of Ān'-ā-thōth, who makes himself a prophet to you? ²⁸For therefore he sent to us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long. Build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat the fruit of them. ²⁹And Zēph-ā-nī'-āh the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

-aī'-āh the Nē-hēl'-ā-mīte: Because Shēm-aī'-āh has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and he caused you to trust in a lie, ³²therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shēm-aī'-āh the Nē-hēl'-ā-mīte and his seed. He shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good which I shall do for My people, says the LORD, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.

CHAPTER 30

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. ³For, lo, the days come, says the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of My people Israel and Judah, says the LORD. And I will cause them to return to the land that I gave their fathers, and they shall possess it.

⁴And these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. ⁵For thus says the LORD, We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear and not of peace. ⁶Ask now, and see: does a man labor with child? Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, like a woman in labor, and all faces are turned into paleness? ⁷Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it; it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. ⁸For in that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will break his yoke from off your neck and will burst your bonds. And strangers shall no longer lay service on him, ⁹but they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

¹⁰Therefore do not fear, O My servant Jacob, says the LORD. Neither be afraid, O Israel; for lo, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. ¹¹For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you. Though I make a full end of all nations where I have scattered you, yet I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will not find you entirely without guilt. ¹²For thus says the LORD, Your bruise cannot be cured, and your wound is grievous. ¹³*There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up; you have no healing medicines.* ¹⁴All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek you. For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of your iniquity; because your sins were multiplied. ¹⁵Why do you cry for your affliction? Your sorrow cannot be cured because of the multitude of your iniquity; because your sins had multiplied, I have done these things to you. ¹⁶Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your enemies, every one of them, shall go into captivity. And they who rob you shall be robbed, and all who strip you I will strip. ¹⁷For I will give health back to you, and will heal you of your wounds, says the LORD; because they called you an outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeks after.

¹⁸Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and will have mercy on his dwelling places. And the city shall be built upon her own hill, and the palace shall remain in its own place. ¹⁹And out of them shall come thanksgiving, and the voice of those who rejoice. And I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. ²⁰Also their children shall be as they were before, and their congregation shall be established before Me, and I will punish all who ill-treat them. ²¹And their princes shall be of themselves, and their governor shall come from among them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach Me. For who is this who pledged his heart to come near unto Me? says the LORD. ²²And you shall be My people, and I will be your God. ²³Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goes forth with fury, a never-ending whirlwind; it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked. ²⁴The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return until He has done it, and until He has fulfilled the intentions of His heart. In the latter days you shall understand it.

¹At the same time, says the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people. ²Thus says the LORD, The people who were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went before him to cause him to rest. ³The LORD has appeared to me from afar, saying, Yea, I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with loving-kindness I have drawn you. ⁴Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel. You shall again put on your tabrets, and shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice. ⁵You shall yet plant vines upon the mountains of Să-mâr'-î-ă; the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things. ⁶For there shall be a day that the watchmen upon Mount Ē'-phră-îm shall cry, Arise and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God! ⁷For thus says the LORD, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations. Cry out, give praise and say, O LORD, save Thy people, the remnant of Israel. ⁸Behold, I will bring them from the north country and gather them from the corners of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and she who is in labor with child, together; a great company shall return there. ⁹They shall come with weeping, and with prayers I will lead them. I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is My first-born.

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the isles afar off. And say, He who scattered Israel will gather him and keep him, as a shepherd keeps his flock. ¹¹For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. ¹²Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd. And their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. ¹³Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them and make them rejoice from their sorrow. ¹⁴And I will fill the soul of the priests with fatness, and My people shall be satisfied with My goodness, says the LORD.

¹⁵Thus says the LORD: A voice was heard in Rā'-māh, wailing and bitter weeping; Rachel, weeping for her children, and would not be comforted because they are not there. ¹⁶Thus says the LORD: Hold back your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD. And they shall come again from the land of the enemy. ¹⁷And there is hope for your future, says the LORD, that your children shall come again to their own border.

¹⁸I have surely heard Ephraim mourning to himself, saying, Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bull not broken in; turn me, and I shall be turned. For Thou art the LORD my God. ¹⁹Surely after I was turned, I repented; and after I was taught, I struck upon my thigh. I was ashamed, yea, I even blushed, because I bore the disgrace of my youth. ²⁰Is Ephraim My dear son? Is he a delightful child? For as often as I spoke against him, I earnestly remember him still. Therefore My bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, says the LORD. ²¹Set up waymarks, make high heaps. Set your heart toward the highway, even the way which you went. Turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. ²²How long will you go about, O backsliding daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing in the land — a woman shall enclose a man.

²³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Again they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities of it, when I shall again bring their captivity; The LORD bless you, O home of justice and mountain of holiness. ²⁴And farmers, and those who go forth with flocks, shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities of it together. ²⁵For I have satisfied the weary soul, and I have filled every sorrowful soul. ²⁶Upon this I awoke and looked up; and my sleep was sweet to me.

²⁷Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of beasts. ²⁸And as I have watched over them to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict — so I will watch over them to build, and to plant, says the LORD. ²⁹In those days they shall not say any more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. ³⁰But everyone shall die for his own iniquity. Every man who eats the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

³¹Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah, ³²not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt — which covenant of Mine they broke, although I was a husband to them, says the LORD — ³³but this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, says the LORD, I will put My law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ³⁴And they shall no more teach each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying, Know the LORD — for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

³⁵Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for a light by day and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who divides the sea when the waves of it roar — the LORD of hosts is His name — ³⁶if those ordinances depart from Me, says the LORD, the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before Me forever. ³⁷Thus says the LORD, If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth below can be searched out, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says the LORD.

³⁸Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hān'-ā-nēel to the gate of the corner. ³⁹And the measuring line shall yet go forth straight across over the hill Gār'-ēb, and shall go around to Gō'-āth. ⁴⁰And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook of Kī'-drōn, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD. It shall not be plucked up nor thrown down any more forever.

CHAPTER 32

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār. ²For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem. And Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. ³For Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy and say, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it, ⁴and Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chāl-dē'-āns, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes, ⁵and he shall lead Zēd-ē-kī'-āh into Babylon, and there he shall be until I visit him, says the LORD — though you fight with the Chāl-dē'-āns, you shall not be blessed?

⁶And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁷Behold, Hān'-ā-mēel the son of Shāl'-lūm your uncle shall come to you, saying, Buy my field which is in Ān'-ā-thōth; for the right to redeem it is yours, to buy it. ⁸So Hān'-ā-mēel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD and said to me, I pray you, buy my field which is in Ān'-ā-thōth, which is in the country of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the right to redeem is yours. Buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. ⁹And I bought the field of Hān'-ā-mēel my uncle's son, that was in Ān'-ā-thōth, and weighed him the money, seventeen shekels of silver. ¹⁰And I wrote it in a book, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed the money in the scales. ¹¹So I took the book of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open. ¹²And I gave the book of the purchase to Bār'-ūch the son of Nē-rī'-āh, the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh, in the sight of Hān'-ā-mēel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who wrote in the book of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison.

¹³And I commanded Bār'-ūch before them, saying, ¹⁴Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these books, this book of the purchase, both the one which is sealed and this book which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel so that they may last many days. ¹⁵For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall be owned again in this land.

¹⁶Now when I had delivered the book of the purchase unto Bār'-ūch the son of Nē-rī'-āh, I prayed to the LORD, saying, ¹⁷Ah, Lord GOD! Thou hast made the heavens and the earth by Thy great power and stretched out arm. There is nothing too hard for Thee. ¹⁸Thou dost show loving-kindness to thousands, and dost repay the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them. The great, the mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is His name, ¹⁹great in wisdom and mighty in work; for Thy eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, to give every one according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings. ²⁰For Thou hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even until this day, and in Israel, and among men; and hast made Thee a name, as at this day — ²¹and hast brought forth Thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror. ²²And Thou hast given them this land, which Thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey — ²³and they came in and possessed it, but they did not obey Thy voice, neither did they walk in Thy law. They have done nothing of all that Thou didst command them to do; therefore Thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them. ²⁴Behold, the siege mounds have come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hands of the Chāl-dē'-āns who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the plague. And what Thou hast spoken has come to pass; and, behold, Thou seest it. ²⁵And Thou hast said to me, O Lord GOD, Buy the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hands of the Chāl-dē'-āns.

²⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me? ²⁸Therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chāl-dē'-āns, and into the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon, and he shall take it. ²⁹And the Chāl-dē'-āns who fight against this city shall come up and set fire upon this city, and burn it with the houses upon whose roofs they have offered incense to Bā'-āl, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger. ³⁰For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before Me from their youth. For the children of Israel have only provoked Me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. ³¹For this city has been to Me as a cause of My anger and of My fury from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before My face ³²because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³³And they have turned the back to Me, and not the face; though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. ³⁴But they set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to defile it. ³⁵And they built the high places of Bā'-āl, which are in the valley of the son of Hīn'-nōm, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Mō'-lēch — which I did not command them, neither did it come into My mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

³⁶And now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague: ³⁷Behold, I will gather them out of all countries where I have driven them in My anger, and in My fury, and in great wrath. And I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely. ³⁸And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. ³⁹And I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for their good and for the good of their children after them. ⁴⁰And I will make an everlasting covenant with them that I will not turn away from them, to do them good. But I will put My fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from Me. ⁴¹Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land, and I will truly plant them in this land with My whole heart and with My whole soul. ⁴²For thus says the LORD: As I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. ⁴³And fields shall be bought in this land of which you say, It is a desert without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chāl-dē'-āns. ⁴⁴Men shall buy fields for money and write it in a book, and seal it, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south. For I will cause their captivity to return, says the LORD.

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the prison, saying, ²Thus says the LORD the Maker of it, the LORD who formed it in order to establish it — the LORD is His name: ³Call unto Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things which you do not know. ⁴For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the siege mounds and by the sword: ⁵They come to fight with the Chāl-dē'-āns, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men whom I have slain in My anger and in My fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden My face from this city. ⁶Behold, I will bring it health and healing, and I will heal them and will show them the riches of peace and truth. ⁷And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. ⁸And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me; and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned, and by which they have transgressed against Me.

⁹And it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise and an honor before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them. And they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the riches that I bring to it. ¹⁰Thus says the LORD: In this place, which you say shall be a desert without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem that are wasted without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast — ¹¹*in this place* there shall be heard again the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts, for His mercy endures forever; and the voice of those who shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return, as at the first, says the LORD.

¹⁵In those days, and at that time, I will cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David. And He shall do judgment and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶In those days Judah shall be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely. And this is the name with which she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness. ¹⁷For thus says the LORD, David shall never lack a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel, ¹⁸neither shall the priests the Levites lack a man before Me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meal offerings, and to do sacrifice forever.

¹⁹And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁰Thus says the LORD: If you can break My covenant of the day and My covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season, ²¹*then* also may My covenant with David My servant be broken, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne, and My covenant with the Levites the priests, My ministers. ²²As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured, so I will multiply the seed of David My servant and the Levites who minister to Me. ²³Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴Do you not consider what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has even cast them off? So they have despised My people, that they should be no more a nation before them. ²⁵Thus says the LORD: If My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not given the ordinances of Heaven and earth, ²⁶*then* I will cast away the seed of Jacob, and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy upon them.

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth under his rule, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem and against all the cities of it — saying, ²Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah and tell him, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. ³And you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand. And your eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon. ⁴Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah: Thus says the LORD of you, You shall not die by the sword. ⁵You shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings which were before you, so they shall burn odors for you. And they will mourn you, saying, Ah, lord! For I have spoken the word, says the LORD. ⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah in Jerusalem, ⁷when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lā'-chish, and against Ā-zē'-kāh – for these walled cities remained of the cities of Judah.

⁸*This is* the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after king Zēd-ē-kī'-āh had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them, ⁹that every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant who was a Hebrew or a Hebrewess go free, that none should cause them to be slaves to him, to a Jew, his brother. ¹⁰Now when all the princes, and all the people who had entered into the covenant, heard that each one should let his manservant, and each one his maidservant go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed and let them go. ¹¹But afterward they turned and caused the servants and handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return! And they brought them into service again for servants and for handmaids.

¹²Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ¹³Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying, ¹⁴At the end of seven years each man should let go his brother who is a Hebrew and who has been sold to him. And when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you. But your fathers did not listen to me, nor bow down their ears. ¹⁵And you had turned today, and had done right in My sight, in proclaiming liberty each man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before Me in the house which is called by My name. ¹⁶But you turned and defiled My name, and each man caused his servant, and each man caused his handmaid, whom you had set free to do as they pleased, to return. And you brought them into service to be servants and handmaids to you. ¹⁷Therefore thus says the LORD: You have not listened to Me in proclaiming liberty each one to his brother and each one to his neighbor! Behold, I proclaim a freedom for you, says the LORD, to the sword, to the plague, and to the famine. And I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸And I will give the men who have sinned against My covenant, who have not done the words of the covenant which they have made before Me when they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts of it — ¹⁹the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eū'-nūchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf — ²⁰I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky and to the beasts of the earth. ²¹And I will give Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, and his princes, into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who have withdrawn from you. ²²Behold, I will command, says the LORD, and cause them to return to this city. And they shall fight against it and take it, and burn it with fire. And I will make the cities of Judah a desert without a soul to live in it.

¹The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the sons of Jō-sī'-āh king of Judah, saying, ²Go to the house of the Rē'-chāb-ītes and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the rooms. And give them wine to drink. ³Then I took Jā-āz-ā-nī'-āh the son of Jeremiah, the son of Hā-bāz-ī-nī'-āh, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rē'-chāb-ītes. ⁴And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hā'-nān the son of Īg-dā-lī'-āh, a man of God who was beside the room of the princes, who was above the room of Mā-ā-seī'-āh the son of Shāl'-lūm, the keeper of the door. ⁵And I set pots full of wine, and cups, before the sons of the house of the Rē'-chāb-ītes. And I said to them, Drink wine! ⁶But they said, We will drink no wine, for Jon'-ā-dāb the son of Rē'-chāb our father commanded us, saying, You shall drink no wine, you nor your sons forever. ⁷Neither shall you build houses, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have anything; but all your days you shall live in tents, so that you may live many days in the land where you are strangers. ⁸So we have obeyed the voice of Jōn'-ā-dāb the son of Rē'-chāb our father in all that he has commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; ⁹nor to build houses for us to live in. Neither do we have vineyard, nor field, nor seed. ¹⁰But we have lived in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jōn'-ā-dāb our father commanded us. ¹¹But when Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, Come and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chāl-dē'-āns, and for fear of the army of the Syrians. So we are living at Jerusalem.

¹²Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction to listen to My words? says the LORD. ¹⁴The words of Jōn'-ā-dāb the son of Rē'-chāb, which he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are done. For to this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment. But I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you did not listen to Me. ¹⁵I have also sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return now each man from his evil way, and make your doings good, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers. But you have not bowed down your ear, nor listened to Me. ¹⁶Because the sons of Jōn'-ā-dāb the son of Rē'-chāb have done the commandment of their father, which He commanded them — but this people has not listened to Me — ¹⁷therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the people of Jerusalem all the evil that I have spoken against them. Because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.

¹⁸And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rē'-chāb-ites, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jōn'-ā-dāb your father, and have kept all his precepts, and have done according to all that he has commanded you — ¹⁹therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jōn'-ā-dāb the son of Rē'-chāb shall not lack a man to stand before Me forever.

CHAPTER 36

¹And in the fourth year of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the son of Jō-sī'-āh king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ²Take a roll of a book, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Jō-sī'-āh, even to this day. ³It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I plan to do to them, that they may each man return from his evil way, so that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. ⁴Then Jeremiah called Bār'-ūch the son of Nē-rī'-āh. And Bār'-ūch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which He had spoken to him, upon a roll of a book. ⁵And Jeremiah commanded Bār'-ūch, saying, I am shut up. I cannot go into the house of the LORD. ⁶Therefore you go, and read in the roll which you have written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people upon the fasting day. And also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. ⁷It may be they will present their prayer before the LORD, and will return, each one from his evil way. For great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has spoken against this people. ⁸And Bār'-ūch the son of Nē-rī'-āh did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book of the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

⁹And in the fifth year of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the son of Jō-sī'-āh king of Judah, in the ninth month, they called a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. ¹⁰Then Bâr'-ûch read in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the room of Gēm-ă-rî'-ăh the son of Shă'-phăn the scribe, in the higher court, at the entrance to the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

¹¹When Mî-chai'-ăh the son of Gēm-ă-rî'-ăh, the son of Shă'-phăn, had heard all the words of the LORD out of the book, ¹²then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room. And, lo, all the princes sat there, even Ē-lî'-shă-mă the scribe, and Dêl-ai'-ăh the son of Shēm-ai'-ăh, and Ēl-nă'-thăn the son of Āch-rî'-bôr, and Gēm-ă-rî'-ăh the son of Shă'-phăn, and Zêd-ê-kî'-ăh the son of Hăn-ă-nî'-ăh, and all the princes. ¹³Then Mî-chai'-ăh declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Bâr'-ûch read the book in the ears of the people. ¹⁴Therefore all the princes sent Jê-hû'-dî the son of Nêth-ă-nî'-ăh, the son of Shêl-ê-mî'-ăh, the son of Cû-shî, to Bâr'-ûch, saying, Take the roll in your hand, the roll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Bâr'-ûch the son of Nê-rî'-ăh took the roll in his hand and came to them. ¹⁵And they said to him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Bâr'-ûch read it in their ears. ¹⁶Now when they had heard all the words, they turned to one another in fear and said to Bâr'-ûch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. ¹⁷And they asked Bâr'-ûch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth? ¹⁸Then Bâr'-ûch answered them, He spoke all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink on the roll. ¹⁹Then the princes said to Bâr'-ûch, Go hide yourselves, you and Jeremiah — and let no man know where you are.

²⁰And they went in to the king into the court. But they laid up the roll in the room of Ē-lî'-shă-mă the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. ²¹So the king sent Jê-hû'-dî to bring the roll. And he took it out of the room of Ē-lî'-shă-mă the scribe. And Jê-hû'-dî read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. ²²Now the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month. And a fire was burning on the hearth before him. ²³And when Jê-hû'-dî had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife and threw it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was hurned up in the fire that was on the hearth. ²⁴Yet they were not afraid, nor did they tear their garments — neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words. ²⁵But Ēl-nă'-thăn and Dêl-ai'-ăh and Gēm-ă-rî'-ăh had pleaded with the king that he should not burn the roll, but he would not hear them. ²⁶But the king commanded Jê-răh'-mêel the son of Hăm'-mê-lêch, and Sê-raî'-ăh the son of Āz'-ri-êl, and Shêl-ê-mî'-ăh the son of Āb'-dêel, to take Bâr'-ûch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD hid them.

²⁷Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the roll and the words which Bâr'-ûch wrote at the mouth of

Jeremiah, saying, ²⁸Take another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹And you shall say to Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm king of Judah, Thus says the LORD: You have burned this roll, saying, Why have you written in it, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause man and beast to cease from there? ³⁰Therefore thus says the LORD of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm king of Judah: He shall have no one to sit upon the throne of David. And his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. ³¹And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity. And I will bring upon them, and upon the people of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evils that I have spoken against them; but they did not listen.

³²Then Jeremiah took another roll and gave it to Bār'-ūch the scribe, the son of Nē-rī'-āh, who wrote in it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many words like them were added to them.

CHAPTER 37

¹And king Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the son of Jō-sī'-āh reigned instead of Cō-nī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm, whom Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ²But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of the LORD which He spoke by the prophet Jeremiah. ³And Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the king sent Jē-hū'-cāl the son of Shēl-ē-mī'-āh and Zēph-ā-nī'-āh the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now to the LORD our God for us. ⁴Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people, for they had not put him into prison. ⁵Then Pharaoh's army had come forth out of Egypt. And when the Chāl-dē'-āns who besieged Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

⁶Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ⁷Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: You shall say this to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. ⁸And the Chāl-dē'-āns shall come again and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. ⁹Thus says the LORD: Do not deceive yourselves, saying, The Chāl-dē'-āns shall surely depart from us. For they shall not depart. ¹⁰For though you had stricken the whole army of the Chāl-dē'-āns who fight against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, yet they would rise up, each man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, in order to separate himself from there in the midst of the people. ¹³And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Ī-rī'-jäh, the son of Shēl-ē-mī'-äh, the son of Hān-ā-nī'-äh. And he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling away to the Chāl-dē'-āns. ¹⁴Then Jeremiah said, It is not true. I am not falling away to the Chāl-dē'-āns. But he did not listen to him; so Ī-rī'-jäh took Jeremiah and brought him to the princes. ¹⁵Therefore the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made that the prison.

¹⁶When Jeremiah had entered into the dungeon, and into the cells, and when Jeremiah had remained there many days, ¹⁷then Zēd-ē-kī'-äh the king sent and took him out. And the king asked him secretly in his bouse, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is. For, He said, you shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. ¹⁸Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zēd-ē-kī'-äh, What have I offended against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you nor against this land? ²⁰Therefore hear now, I pray you, O my lord the king; I pray you, let my cry be pleasing to you, so that you cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. ²¹Then Zēd-ē-kī'-äh the king commanded that they should put Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him a piece of bread out of the bakers' street daily, until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER 38

¹Then Shēph-ā-tī'-äh the son of Māt'-tān, and Gēd-ā-lī'-äh the son of Pāsh'-ūr, and Jū'-cāl the son of Shēl-ē-mī'-äh, and Pāsh'-ūr the son of Māl-chī'-äh, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying, ²Thus says the LORD, He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. But he who goes forth to the Chāl-dē'-āns shall live; for he shall have his life as a prize, and shall live. ³Thus says the LORD: This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. ⁴Therefore the princes said to the king, We pray you, let this man be put to death. For in this way he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the good of this people, but the hurt. ⁵Then Zēd-ē-kī'-äh the king said, Behold, he is in your hand. For the king cannot do anything against you. ⁶Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the dungeon of Māl-chī'-äh the son of Hām'-mē-lēch, which was in the court of the prison. And they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And there was no water in the dungeon, but mud. So Jeremiah sank in the mud.

⁷Now when Ē'-bēd-mēl'-ēch the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ān, one of the eū'-nūchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), ⁸Ē'-bēd-mēl'-ēch went forth out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the dungeon. And he is likely to die of hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city. ¹⁰Then the king commanded Ē'-bēd-mēl'-ēch the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ān, saying, Take thirty men with you from here, and lift Jeremiah the prophet up out of the dungeon before he dies. ¹¹So Ē'-bēd-mēl'-ēch took the men with him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took old torn clothes and old rotten rags from there, and let them down by ropes into the dungeon to Jeremiah. ¹²And Ē'-bēd-mēl'-ēch, the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ān said to Jeremiah, Now put these old torn clothes and rotten rags under your armholes under the ropes. And Jeremiah did so. ¹³So they drew up Jeremiah with ropes and took him up out of the dungeon. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

¹⁴Then Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the king sent and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third gate that is in the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you a thing. Do not hide anything from me. ¹⁵Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me. ¹⁶Zēd-ē-kī' āh the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life. ¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zēd-ē-kī'-āh, Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If you will surely go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire. And you shall live, and your house. ¹⁸But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city shall be given into the hands of the Chāl-dē'-āns, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand. ¹⁹And Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who have fallen to the Chāl-dē'-āns, lest they deliver me into their hand, and lest they hurt me. ²⁰But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver you. I beseech you, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you; so it shall be well to you, and your soul shall live. ²¹But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD has shown to me: ²²And, behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Your friends have urged you on, and have prevailed against you. Your feet have sunk in the mire, and they have turned away. ²³So they shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chāl-dē'-āns. And you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.

²⁴Then Zēd-ē-kī'-āh said to Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. ²⁵But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, Declare to us now what you have said to the king; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you — ²⁶then you shall say to them, I presented my cry before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. ²⁷Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they quit speaking with him; for the matter was not known. ²⁸So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

¹In the ninth year of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz-zār king of Babylon, and all his army, came against Jerusalem. And they besieged it. ²In the eleventh year of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh, in the fourth month, the ninth of the month, the city was broken up. ³And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the middle gate: Nēr'-gāl-shā-rē'-zēr, Sām'-gār-nē'-bō, Sār'-sē-chīm, Rāb'-sā-rīs, Nēr'-gāl-shā-rē'-zēr, Rāb'-māg, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

⁸And the Chāl-dē'-āns burned the king's houses and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹Then Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to him with the rest of the people that remained. ¹⁰But Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard left some of the poor people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

¹⁵Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, ¹⁶Go and speak to Ē'-hēd-mēl'-ēch the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ān, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring My words upon this city for evil and not for good. And they shall be done in that day before you. ¹⁷But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD. And you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. ¹⁸For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be as a prize to you, because you have put your trust in Me, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 40

¹*This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard had let him go from Rā'-māh, when he had taken him, being bound in chains, among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were being carried away captive to Babylon.* ²And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, The LORD your God has spoken evil against this place. ³Now the LORD has brought it, and has done according as He has said, Because you have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you. ⁴And now, behold, I set you free today from the chains which were upon your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come. And I will keep my eye on you. But if it seems evil to you to come with me into Babylon, stay. Behold, all the land is before you. Wherever it seems good and pleasing for you to go, go there. ⁵Now while he had not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām the son of Shā'-phān, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and live with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the guard gave him food and a reward, and let him go. ⁶Then Jeremiah went to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām at Mīzpah. And he lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gēd-ā-lī'-āh

the son of Ā-hī'-kām governor in the land, and had entrusted to him men, and women, and children, and many of the poor of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon — ⁸then they came to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh to Mizpah, even Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, and Jō-hā'-nān and Jonathan the sons of Kā-rē'-āh, and Sē-raī'-āh the son of Tān-hū'-mēth, and the sons of Ē'-phaī of Nē-tōph'-ā, and Jēz-ā-nī'-āh the son of a Mā'-āch'-ā-thīte, they and their men. ⁹And Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām the son of Shā'-phān swore to them and to their men, saying, Do not fear to serve the Chāl-dē'-āns. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ¹⁰As for me, behold, I will live at Mizpah to serve the Chāl-dē'-āns, who have come to us. But you go gather wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and live in your cities that you have taken. ¹¹Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Shā'-phān — ¹²even all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits in abundance.

¹³Moreover Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh to Mizpah. ¹⁴And they said to him, You certainly know that Bā'-ā-lis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh to kill you. But Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām did not believe them. ¹⁵Then Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh spoke to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh in Mizpah secretly, saying, I pray you, let me go. And I will kill Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, and nō mān shall know it. Why should he kill you so that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish? ¹⁶But Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām said to Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, You shall not do this thing. For you speak falsely of Ish'-mā-ēl.

¹Now in the seventh month Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh and the son of Ē-lī'-shā-mā, of the royal seed, and the princes of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām to Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah. ²Then Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh arose, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām the son of Shā'-phān with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. ³Ish'-mā-ēl also killed all the Jews who were with him, even with Gēd-ā-lī'-āh, at Mizpah, and the Chāl-dē'-āns who were found there, and the men of war. ⁴And the second day after he had killed Gēd-ā-lī'-āh (and no one knew it), ⁵some men from Shē'-chēm came from Shī'-lōh, and from Sā-mâr'-ī-ā, even eighty men, with their beards shaved, and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. ⁶And Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along. And as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām. ⁷And when they came into the middle of the city, Īsh'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh killed them, he and the men who were with him, and they threw them into the middle of the pit. ⁸But ten men were found among them who said to Īsh'-mā-ēl, Do not kill us, for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he held back and did not kill them among their brothers. ⁹Now the pit in which Īsh'-mā-ēl had thrown all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had killed because of Gēd-ā-lī'-āh, was the one which Asa the king had made for fear of Bā-āsh'-ā king of Israel. And Īsh'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh filled it with those who were killed. ¹⁰Then Īsh'-mā-ēl carried away captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard had entrusted to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām. And Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh carried them away captive and left to go over to the Ammonites.

¹¹But when Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Īsh'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh had done, ¹²then they took all the men and went to fight with Īsh'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh. And they found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. ¹³Now when all the people who were with Īsh'-mā-ēl saw Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. ¹⁴So all the people that Ish-mā-ēl had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh. ¹⁵But Ish-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh escaped from Jō-hā'-nān with eight men, and went to the Ammonites. ¹⁶Then Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh and all the captains of the forces that were with him took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Īsh'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, from Mizpah, after he had killed Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām. They took mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eū'-nūchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon. ¹⁷And they departed and lived in the inn of Chīm'-hām, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt ¹⁸because of the Chāl-dē'-ans. For they were afraid of them, because Īsh'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh had slain Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

¹Then all the captains of the forces, and Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and Jēz-ā-nī'-āh the son of Hō-shaī'-āh, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near. ²And they said to Jeremiah the prophet, We pray you, let our cry be pleasing to you, and pray for us unto the LORD your God, even for all this remnant, (for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes behold us,) ³that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we may walk, and the thing that we may do. ⁴Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard you. Behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words. And whatever thing the LORD shall answer, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you. ⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, Let the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us if we do not do even according to all things for which the LORD your God shall send you to us. ⁶Whether it is good, or whether it is evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD your God, to whom we send you; so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

⁷And after ten days the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸Then he called Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest. ⁹And he said to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom you sent me to present your cry before Him: ¹⁰If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you and will not pull you down. And I will plant you and will not pluck you up. For I repent of the evil that I have done to you. ¹¹Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Do not be afraid of him, says the LORD. For I am with you to save you and to deliver you from his hand. ¹²And I will show mercies to you, so that he may have mercy upon you and cause you to return to your own land.

¹³But if you say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, ¹⁴saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger for bread; and there we will dwell — ¹⁵then now hear the word of the LORD, you remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If you wholly set your faces to go into Egypt, and go to live there, ¹⁶then the sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt. And the famine of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and you shall die there. ¹⁷So it shall be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there. They shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. And none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. ¹⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As My anger and My fury has been poured forth upon the people of Jerusalem, so shall My fury be poured forth upon you when you shall enter into Egypt. And you shall be a curse, and a wonder, and a shame, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.

¹⁹The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Do not go into Egypt. Know certainly that I have warned you this day. ²⁰For you used deceit against your souls when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us to the LORD our God; and according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it. ²¹And now I have declared it to you this day; but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor anything for which He has sent me to you. ²²Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, in the place where you desire to go to live.

CHAPTER 43

¹And when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, ²Āz-ā-rī-āh the son of Hō-shai'-āh, and Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and all the proud men, spoke then, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, Do not go to Egypt to live there. ³But Bār'-ūch the son of Nē-rī'-āh sets you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chāl-dē'-āns, that they might put us to death and carry us away captives to Babylon. ⁴So Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, did not obey the voice of the LORD to live in the land of Judah. ⁵But Jō-hā'-nān the son of Kā-rē'-āh, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations (where they had been driven) to dwell in the land of Judah — ⁶men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard had left with Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām the son of Shā'-phān, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Bār'-ūch the son of Nē-rī'-āh. ⁷So they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. So they came to Tāh'-pān-hēs.

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tāh'-pān-hēs, saying, ⁹Take great stones to your hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln which is at the entrance to Pharaoh's house in Tāh'-pān-hēs, in the sight of the men of Judah. ¹⁰And say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king of Babylon, My servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hidden. And he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹And when he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt. And whoever is for death shall go to death, and whoever is for captivity shall go into captivity, and whoever is for the sword shall go to the sword. ¹²And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt. And he shall burn them and carry them away captives. And he shall adorn himself with the land of Egypt, like a shepherd puts on his robe; and he shall go forth from there in peace. ¹³He shall also break the images of Bēth-shē'-mēsh which is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire.

¹The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who live in the land of Mīg'-dōl, and at Tāh'-pān-hēs, and at Nōph, and in the country of Pāth'-rōs, saying, ²Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah. And, behold, this day they are a ruin, and no man lives there ³because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods whom they knew not, neither they, you, nor your fathers. ⁴However, I sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not do this abominable thing which I hate! ⁵But they did not listen, nor bow down their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. ⁶Therefore My fury and My anger was poured out, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. And they are wasted and deserted, as at this day. ⁷Therefore now thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you commit this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and babe, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain — ⁸in that you provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to live, that you might cut yourselves off and that you might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹Have you forgotten the punishments of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared nor walked in My law, nor in My statutes which I have set before you and before your fathers.

¹¹Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set My face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. ¹²And I will take the remnant of Judah, who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there; and they shall all be destroyed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be destroyed by the sword and by the famine. They shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be a curse, a wonder, and a shame, and a reproach. ¹³For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, ¹⁴so that none of the remnant of Judah, which has gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah to which they have a desire to return to live there. For none shall return except those who escape.

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great multitude, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pāth'-rōs, answered Jeremiah. And they said, ¹⁶*As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you.* ¹⁷*But we will certainly do whatever thing goes forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil.* ¹⁸*But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked all things, and have been devoured by the sword and by the famine.* ¹⁹*And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make our cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our men?*

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people — to the men and to the women, and to all the people who had given him that answer — ²¹*The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land — did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into His mind?* ²²*Yea,* so that the LORD could no longer hold back because of the evil of your doings, because of the abominations which you have committed! Therefore your land is a waste, and a wonder, and a curse, without anyone in it, as it is today. ²³*Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in His law, nor in His statutes, nor in His testimonies, therefore this evil has happened to you, as at this day.*

²⁴Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that is in the land of Egypt. ²⁵Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hands, saying, We will surely fulfil our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her. You will surely fulfil your vows and surely carry out your vows. ²⁶Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that lives in the land of Egypt. ²⁷Behold, I have sworn by My great name, says the LORD, that My name will no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD lives. Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be destroyed by the sword and by the famine, until there is an end of them. ²⁸Yet the small number that escapes the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah (who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there) shall know whose word shall stand, Mine or theirs.

²⁹And this shall be a sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place so that you may know that My words shall surely stand against you for evil. ³⁰Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give Phâr'-âôh-hôph'-râ king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zêd-ê-kî'-âh king of Judah into the hand of Nêb-û-châd-nêz'-zâr king of Babylon, his enemy and he who sought his life.

¹The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Bâr'-ûch the son of Nê-rî'-âh, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jê-hoi'-â-kim the son of Jô-sî'-âh king of Judah, saying, ²Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Bâr'-ûch: ³You said, Woe is me now, for the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest. ⁴So you shall say to him, The LORD says this: Behold, that which I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land. ⁵And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, says the LORD. But I will give your life to you as a prize, in all places where you go.

CHAPTER 46

¹The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles — ²against Egypt, against the army of Phâr'-âôh-nê'-chô king of Egypt which was by the river Eû-phrâ'-tês in Câr-che'-mish, which Nêb-û-châd-nêz'-zâr king of Babylon struck, in the fourth year of Jê-hoi'-â-kim the son of Jô-sî'-âh king of Judah. ³Order the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. ⁴Harness the horses, and get up, you horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets. Polish your spears and put on the coats of armor. ⁵Why have I seen them afraid and turned back? And their mighty ones are beaten down and have fled, and do not look back. Fear was all around, says the LORD. ⁶Do not let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape. They shall stumble and fall toward the north of the river Eû-phrâ'-tês.

⁷Who is this that comes up like a flood, whose waters are moved like the rivers? ⁸Egypt rises up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers. And he says, I will go up and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and its people. ⁹Come up, horses; and rage, chariots! And let the mighty men come forth — the Ê-thî-ô'-pî-âns and the Lîb'-y-âns who handle the shield, and the Lyd'-î-âns who handle and bend the bow. ¹⁰For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that He may avenge Himself of His foes. And the sword shall devour, and it shall be filled and made drunk with their blood, for the Lord GOD of hosts has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Eû-phrâ'-tês. ¹¹Go up into Gilead and take ba'm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt. In vain shall you use many medicines, for you shall not be cured. ¹²The nations have heard of your shame, and your cry has filled the land. For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, and they have both fallen together.

¹³The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nêb-û-châd-nêz'-zâr king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. ¹⁴Declare it in Egypt, and cry it in Mig'-döl, and make it known in Nöph and in Tâh'-pân-hês. Say, Stand fast and get ready, the sword shall devour all around you. ¹⁵Why are your mighty men swept away? They did not stand, because the LORD drove them. ¹⁶He made many fall; yea, one fell upon another. And they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people and to the land of our birth, away from the pressing sword. ¹⁷They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a noise; he has passed the chosen time. ¹⁸As I live, says the King whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tâ'-bôr is among the mountains, and as Carmel is by the sea, so he shall come. ¹⁹O daughter dwelling in Egypt, get ready to go into captivity. For Nöph shall be waste and a desert without anyone in it. ²⁰Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but ruin comes; it comes out of the north. ²¹Also her hired ones are in the midst of her like calves of the stall; for they also have turned back and have run away together. They did not stand, because the day of their calamity had come upon them, the time of their visitation. ²²The voice of it shall go up like a serpent, for they shall march with an army and come against her with axes like woodcutters. ²³They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it cannot be searched — because they are more than the grasshoppers and cannot be counted. ²⁴The daughter of Egypt shall be ashamed. She shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. ²⁵The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods and their kings — even Pharaoh and all those who trust in him — ²⁶and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nêb-û-châd-nêz'-zâr king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants. And afterward it shall have people, as in the days of old, says the LORD.

²⁷But do not fear, O My servant Jacob, and be not afraid, O Israel. For, behold, I will save you from afar off, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob shall return and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. ²⁸Do not fear, O Jacob My servant, says the LORD, for I am with you. For I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you. But I will not make a full end of you, but correct you in measure; yet I will not leave you wholly unpunished.

CHAPTER 47

¹The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gā'-zā. ²Thus says the LORD: Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land and all that is in it — the city and those who dwell in it. Then the men shall cry, and all the people of the land shall howl. ³At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children because of feebleness of hands; ⁴because of the day that comes to plunder all the Philistines and to cut off from Tyre and Si'-dōn every helper who remains. For the LORD will plunder the Philistines, the rest of the country of Cāph'-tōr. ⁵Baldness has come upon Gā'-zā. Āsh'-kē-lon is cut off with the rest of their valley. How long will you cut yourself? ⁶O sword of the LORD, how long will it be before you are quiet? Put yourself into your scabbard; rest and be still. ⁷How can it be quiet, since the LORD has given it a command? Against Āsh'-kē-lon and against the seashore, there He has set it.

CHAPTER 48

¹Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, against Moab: Woe unto Nē'-bō, for it is spoiled. Kīr-ī-ā-thā'-īm is ashamed and taken. Mīs'-gāb is ashamed and afraid. ²*There shall be* no more praise of Moab. In Hēsh'-bōn they have plotted evil against it, saying, Come and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also you shall be cut down, O madmen; the sword shall pursue you. ³A voice of crying shall be heard from Hōr-ō-nā'-īm, plundering and great ruin. ⁴Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. ⁵For in the going up of Lū'-hīth continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Hōr-ō-nā'-īm the enemies have heard a cry of ruin. ⁶Flee, save your lives, and be like a naked thing in the wilderness. ⁷For because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you shall also be taken. And Chē'-mōsh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together. ⁸And the robber shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape. Also the valley shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD has spoken. ⁹Give wings to Moab so that it may flee and get away; for the cities of it shall be a desert, without any to live in them. ¹⁰Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.

¹¹Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity. Therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. ¹²Therefore behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will send wanderers to him, who shall cause him to wander and shall empty his vessels and break their jars. ¹³And Moab shall be ashamed of Chē'-mōsh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bēth'-ēl their hope.

¹⁴How do you say, We are mighty and strong men for the war? ¹⁵Moab is plundered and has come up out of her cities. And his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter, says the King whose name is the LORD of hosts. ¹⁶The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. ¹⁷All you who are around him, mourn him. And all you who know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod! ¹⁸O dweller, daughter of Dī'-bōn, come down from your glory and sit in thirst. For the robber of Moab shall come upon you; he shall destroy your strongholds. ¹⁹O dweller of Ā-rō'-ēr, stand by the way and watch. Ask him who flees and her who escapes; say, What is happening? ²⁰Moab is put to shame, for it is broken down. Howl and cry! Tell it in Arnon that Moab is stripped. ²¹And judgment has come upon the plain country — upon Hō'-lōn, and upon Jā-hā'-zāh, and upon Mēph'-ā-āth, ²²and upon Dī'-bōn, and upon Nē'-bō, and upon Bēth-dīb-lā-thā'-īm, ²³and upon Kīr-ī-ā-thā'-īm, and upon Bēth-gām'-ūl, and upon Bēth-mē' ōn, ²⁴and upon Kēr'-ī-ōth, and upon Bōz'-rāh, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. ²⁵The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD.

²⁶Make him drunk, for he magnified himself against the LORD. Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be scorned. ²⁷For was not Israel scorned by you? Was he found among thieves? For ever since you spoke of him, you skipped for joy. ²⁸O you who dwell in Moab, leave the cities and live in the rock, and be like the dove who makes her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth. ²⁹We have heard the pride of Moab (he is exceeding proud), his loftiness, and his forwardness, and his pride, and his scornful heart. ³⁰I know his boasting, says the LORD. But it shall not be so; his lies shall not bring it about. ³¹Therefore I will howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab and shall mourn for the men of Kīr-hē'-rēs. ³²O vine of Sīb'-māh, I will weep for you with the weeping of Jā'-zēr. Your plants have gone over the sea; they reach to the sea of Jā'-zēr. The spoiler has fallen upon your summer fruits and upon your grape crop. ³³And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab. And I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses; none shall tread the grapes with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting. ³⁴From the cry of Hēsh'-hōn to Ēl-ē-ā'-lēh, and to Jā'-hāz, they have uttered their voice, from Zō'-ār to Hōr-ō-nā'-īm, like a heifer three years old. For the waters of Nimrim also shall be deserted.

³⁵Moreover, I will cause him who offers in the high places to cease in Moab, says the LORD, and him who burns incense to his gods. ³⁶Therefore my heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and my heart shall sound for the men of Kīr-hē'-rēs, because the riches that he has gotten have perished. ³⁷For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped. Upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. ³⁸Upon all the housetops of Moab, and in its streets, there is weeping for all. For I have broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure, says the LORD. ³⁹They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! How has Moab turned the back with shame! So Moab shall be a cause of scorn, and he shall be a terror to all those around him. ⁴⁰For thus says the LORD: Behold, he shall fly like an eagle and shall spread his wings over Moab. ⁴¹Kēr'-ī-ōth is taken, and the strongholds are surprised; and the mighty men's hearts in Moab shall be at that day like the heart of a woman in her pangs. ⁴²And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against the LORD. ⁴³Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon you, O Mō'-āb-ite, says the LORD. ⁴⁴He who flees from the terror shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare. For I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their judgment, says the LORD. ⁴⁵Those who fled stood powerless under the shadow of Hēsh'-bōn, for a fire shall come forth out of Hēsh'-bōn, and a flame out of the midst of Sī'-hōn, and shall devour the corner of Moab and the crown of the head of the sons of desolation. ⁴⁶Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chē'-mōsh perish; for your sons are taken captives, and your daughters captives.

⁴⁷Yet I will bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD. So much for the judgment of Moab.

CHAPTER 49

¹Thus says the LORD concerning the Ammonites: Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities? ²Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rāb'-bāh of the Ammonites. And it shall be a heap of ruins, and her daughters shall be burned with fire. Then shall Israel be heir to those who were his heirs, says the LORD. ³Howl, O Hēsh'-bōn, for Ā'-ī is spoiled! Cry, daughters of Rāb'-bāh; clothe yourselves with sackcloth, mourn, and run to and fro by the hedges! For their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together. ⁴Why do you glory in your valley, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? She trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come to me? ⁵Behold, I will bring a fear upon you, says the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those who are around you. And you shall be driven out, each man straight forward; and there shall be none to gather up the runaways. ⁶And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, says the LORD.

⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts concerning Ē'-dom: Is wisdom no more in Tē'-mān? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished? ⁸Flee, turn back, dwell deep, O people of Dē'-dān. For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him in the time that I will visit him.

⁹If the gatherers of grapes come to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves come by night, they will destroy until they have enough. ¹⁰But I have made Esau bare; I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself. His seed is spoiled, and his brothers, and his neighbors, and he is gone. ¹¹Leave your fatherless children; I will keep them alive; and let your widows trust in Me. ¹²For thus says the LORD: Behold, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have surely drunk. And are you the one to go altogether unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. ¹³For I have sworn by Myself, says the LORD, that Boz'-räh shall become a ruin, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all the cities of it shall be wastes forever. ¹⁴I have heard a message from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent to the heathen, saying, Gather together and come against her, and rise up to the battle. ¹⁵For lo, I will make you small among the heathen and despised among men. ¹⁶Your fearfulness has deceived you, and the pride of your heart, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill. Though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD. ¹⁷Also Ē'-dom shall be a ruin. Everyone who goes by it shall be amazed and shall hiss at all the plagues of it. ¹⁸As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gō-mōr'-räh and its neighbor, says the LORD, no man shall remain there, neither shall a son of man live in it. ¹⁹Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the home of the strong. But I will suddenly make him run away from her. And who is a chosen man whom I may set over her? For who is like Me? And who will appoint Me the time? And who is that shepherd who will stand before Me? ²⁰Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD which He has taken against Ē'-dom, and His purposes which He has purposed against the people of Tē'-mān: Surely the least of the flock shall drag them away. Surely He shall make their homes a ruin over them. ²¹The earth is moved at the noise of their fall; when they cried, the noise of it was heard in the Red Sea. ²²Behold, he shall come up and fly like the eagle, and spread his wings over Bōz'-räh. And at that day the heart of the mighty men of Ē'-dom shall be like the heart of a woman in her pangs.

²³Concerning Damascus: Hā'-māth and Arpad are put to shame, for they have heard bad news. They are faint-hearted. There is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. ²⁴Damascus has become feeble and turns herself to flee, and fear has seized upon her. Anguish and sorrows have taken her like a woman in labor. ²⁵How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy! ²⁶Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, says the LORD of hosts. ²⁷And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall burn up the palaces of Bēn-hā'-dād.

²⁸Thus says the LORD concerning Kē'-dār, and concerning the kingdoms of Hā'-zōr, which Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon shall strike: Arise, go up to Kē'-dār, and strip the men of the east. ²⁹They shall take away their tents and their flocks. They shall take their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels unto themselves. And they shall cry to them, Fear is on every side. ³⁰Flee, go far away, go deep to dwell; O people of Hā'-zôr, says the LORD — for Nēb-û-chād-nēz'-zâr king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has plotted a plan against you. ³¹Arise, go up to the wealthy nation that is at ease, says the LORD, which has neither gates nor bars, which dwells alone. ³²And their camels shall be a prize, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil. And I will scatter those who are in the utmost corners into all winds. And I will bring their calamity from all sides of it, says the LORD. ³³And Hā'-zôr shall be a dwelling for jackals and a ruin forever. No man shall live there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

³⁴The word of the LORD that came to Jeremias the prophet against Ē'-lām in the beginning of the reign of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, saying, ³⁵Thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will break the bow of Ē'-lām, the chief of their might. ³⁶And I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven upon Ē'-lām, and will scatter them toward all those winds. And there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Ē'-lām shall not come. ³⁷For I will cause Ē'-lām to be afraid before their enemies and before those who seek their life. And I will bring evil upon them, even My fierce anger, says the LORD. And I will send the sword after them until I have destroyed them; ³⁸and I will set My throne in Ē'-lām, and will destroy the king and the princes from there, says the LORD.

³⁹But in the latter days I will bring again the captivity of Ē'-lām, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 50

¹The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns by Jeremiah the prophet. ²Declare among the nations, and cause them to hear, and lift up a banner. Cause them to hear, do not hide it; say, Babylon is taken, Bel is ashamed, Mēr'-ō-dāch is broken in pieces; her idols are put to shame, her images are broken in pieces. ³For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land a waste, and none shall dwell in it. They shall move, they shall depart, both man and beast.

⁴In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they are the children of Judah together, going and weeping. They shall go and seek the LORD their God. ⁵They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces toward it, saying, Come and let us join ourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten. ⁶My people have been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. ⁷All who have found them have devoured them. And their enemies said, We do not offend, because they have sinned against the LORD, the dwelling place of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. ⁸Move out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chāl-dé'-āns, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

⁹For, lo, I will raise a gathering of nations and cause them to come up against Babylon. And they shall set themselves in order against her. She shall be taken from there. Their arrows shall be as those of a skillful, mighty man; none shall return in vain. ¹⁰And Chāl-dē'-ā shall be a prize; all who plunder her shall be satisfied, says the LORD. ¹¹Because you were glad, because you rejoiced, O destroyers of My inheritance — because you have grown fat like the heifer at grass and bellow like bulls — ¹²your mother shall be deeply ashamed; she who bore you shall turn pale. Behold, the last of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. ¹³Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not have anyone in it, but it shall be wholly a waste. Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be amazed and hiss at all her plagues. ¹⁴Put yourselves in order against Babylon all around; all you who bend the bow, shoot at her. Hold back no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD. ¹⁵Shout against her all around. She has given her hand; her foundations have fallen, her walls have been thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD. Take vengeance on her. As she has done, do to her. ¹⁶Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one who handles the sickle in the time of harvest. For fear of the pressing sword they shall turn, each one to his people; and they shall flee, each one to his own land.

¹⁷Israel is a scattered sheep. The lions have driven him away. First the king of Assyria devoured him, and last this Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon has broken his bones. ¹⁸Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. ¹⁹And I will again bring Israel to his home, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bā'-shān, and his soul shall be satisfied upon Mount Ephraim and Gilead. ²⁰In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for and it shall not be found; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found — for I will pardon those whom I keep.

²¹Go up against the land of Mēr-ā-thā'-īm, even against it and against the people of Pē'-kōd. Waste and destroy after them, says the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded you. ²²A sound of battle is in the land, and of great ruin. ²³How the hammer of the whole earth is cut in two and broken! How Babylon has become a ruin among the nations! ²⁴I have laid a trap for you, and you are also taken, O Babylon, and you did not know. You were found and also caught, because you have fought against the LORD. ²⁵The LORD has opened His armory, and has brought forth the weapons of His fury. For this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns. ²⁶Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her completely. Let nothing of her be left. ²⁷Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their judgment. ²⁸The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of His temple.

²⁹Call the archers together against Babylon. All you who bend the bow, camp against it all around; let none of them escape. Repay her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her. For she has been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. ³⁰Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, says the LORD. ³¹Behold, I am against you, O proud ones, says the Lord GOD of hosts; for your day has come, the time that I will judge you. ³²And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up. And I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall burn up everything all around him.

³³Thus says the LORD of hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together. And all who took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. ³⁴Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is His name. He shall thoroughly plead their cause, so that he may give rest to the land, and give trouble to the people of Babylon.

³⁵A sword is upon the Chāl-dē'-āns, says the LORD, and upon the people of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men. ³⁶A sword is upon the liars, and they shall become fools. A sword is upon her mighty men, and they shall be afraid. ³⁷A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mixed people who are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women. A sword is upon her treasures, and they shall be robbed. ³⁸A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up. For it is the land of graven images, and they are mad because of idols. ³⁹Therefore the wild beasts shall dwell there with the wild beasts of the islands, and the ostriches shall dwell there. And it shall never have anyone in it forever, neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. ⁴⁰As God overthrew Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh and their neighbors, says the LORD, so no man shall live there; neither shall any son of man live in it. ⁴¹Behold, a people shall come from the North, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the corners of the earth. ⁴²They shall hold the bow and the spear; they are cruel and will not show mercy. Their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses dressed like a man for the battle against you, O daughter of Babylon. ⁴³The king of Babylon has heard the report of them, and his hands became feeble. Anguish took hold of him, and pangs like those of a woman in labor.

⁴⁴Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan to the home of the strong. But I will make them suddenly run away from her, and who is a chosen man that I may set over her? For who is like Me? And who will set me the time? And who is that shepherd who will stand before Me? ⁴⁵Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Babylon; and His purposes which He has purposed against the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns. Surely the least of the flock shall drag them away; surely He shall make their pasture a desert with them. ⁴⁶At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

¹Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will raise up a destroying wind against Babylon, and against those who dwell in the midst of those who rise up against Me. ²And I will send fanners to Babylon, who shall fan her and shall empty her land. For in the day of trouble they shall be against her all around. ³Against him who bends, let the archer bend his bow; and against him who lifts himself up in his armor. And do not spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army. ⁴Thus the dead shall fall in the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns, and they who are thrust through in her streets. ⁵For neither Israel nor Judah has been forsaken by his God, by the LORD of hosts, though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. ⁶Flee out of the middle of Babylon, and let every man deliver his soul. Be not cut off in her iniquity, for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; He will give to her a just reward.

⁷Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, which made all the earth drunk. The nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are insane. ⁸Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed. Howl for her; take balm for her pain, if perhaps she may be healed. ⁹We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed. Forsake her and let us go, each one into his own country; for her judgment reaches to Heaven and is lifted up to the skies. ¹⁰The LORD has brought forth our righteousness; come and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. ¹¹Sharpen the arrows; gather the shields; the LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes. For His plan is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of His temple. ¹²Set up the banner upon the walls of Babylon; make the watch strong; set up the watchmen; prepare the ambushes. For the LORD has both planned and done that which He spoke against the people of Babylon. ¹³O you who live upon many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come, and the measure of your unjust gain. ¹⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself, saying, Surely I will fill you with men as with caterpillars; and they shall lift up a shout against you.

¹⁵He has made the earth by His power; He has established the world by His wisdom and has stretched out the heavens by His understanding. ¹⁶When He utters His voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and He causes the mists to ascend from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings with rain and brings forth the wind out of His treasures. ¹⁷Every man has been like an animal in knowledge; every image-molder is put to shame by the graven image. For his molded image is a lie, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁸They are vanity, the work of errors; in the time of their judgment they shall perish. ¹⁹The Portion of Jacob is not like them; for He is the Maker of all things, and Israel is the rod of His inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name. ²⁰You are My battle axe and weapons of war; for with you I will break the nations in pieces, and with you I will destroy kingdoms. ²¹And with you I will break the horse and his rider in pieces; and with you I will break in pieces the chariot and his rider. ²²Also with you I will break man and woman in pieces; and with you I will break in pieces old and young; and with you I will break in pieces the young man and the maid. ²³I will also break the shepherd and his flock in pieces with you; and with you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen; and with you I will break in pieces captains and rulers. ²⁴And I will give unto Babylon and to all the people of Chāl-dē'-ā all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says the LORD.

²⁵Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain, says the LORD, you who destroy all the earth. And I will stretch out My hand upon you and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burned mountain. ²⁶And they shall not take a stone from you for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be a waste forever, says the LORD. ²⁷Set up a banner in the land; blow a trumpet among the nations; prepare the nations against her. Call the kingdoms of Ār'-ā-rāt, Mīn'-nī, and Āsh-kē'-nāz together against her; set a captain against her. Cause the horses to come up as the rough locusts. ²⁸Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, their captains, and all their rulers, and all the land of his kingdom. ²⁹And the land shall tremble and sorrow. For every purpose of the LORD shall be done against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desert without anyone in it. ³⁰The mighty men of Babylon have stopped fighting; they have remained in strongholds; their might has failed. They became like women; they have burned her houses; her bars are broken. ³¹One runner shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end, ³²and that the fords are stopped. And they have burned the reeds with fire, and the men of war are frightened.

³³For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor; it is time to thresh her. Yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come. ³⁴Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king of Babylon has devoured me; he has crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel. He has swallowed me up like a jackal; he has filled his belly with my good things; he has thrown me out; ³⁵the violence done to me and to my flesh shall be upon Babylon — the dweller in Zion shall say. And, My blood shall be upon the people of Chāl-dē'-ā, Jerusalem shall say. ³⁶Therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will plead your cause and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry. ³⁷And Babylon shall become heaps, a home for jackals, a wonder and a hissing, without anyone in it.

³⁸They shall roar together like lions; they shall yell like lions' cubs. ³⁹In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunk so that they may rejoice and sleep a never-ending sleep, and never awaken, says the LORD. ⁴⁰I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats. ⁴¹How Shē'-shāch is taken! And how the praise of the whole earth is surprised! How Babylon has become a wonder among the nations! ⁴²The sea has come up over Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. ⁴³Her cities are a desert, a dry land and a wilderness, a land in which no man dwells, neither does anu son of man pass by it. ⁴⁴And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up. And the nations shall not flow together any more to him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall. ⁴⁵My people, go out of the midst of her; and let each man deliver his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD. ⁴⁶And let not your heart faint, nor fear the rumor that shall be heard in the land. A rumor shall come one year, and after that a rumor shall come in another year; and violence shall be in the land, ruler against ruler.

⁴⁷Therefore, behold, the days come that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon. And her whole land shall be put to shame, and all her dead shall fall in the midst of her. ⁴⁸Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall sing for Babylon; for the spoilers shall come to her from the North, says the LORD. ⁴⁹As Babylon has caused the dead of Israel to fall, so at Babylon the dead of all the earth shall fall. ⁵⁰You who have escaped the sword, go away; do not stand still. Remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. ⁵¹We have turned pale because we have heard reproach; shame has covered our faces, for foreigners have come into the holy places of the LORD's house.

⁵²Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. ⁵³Though Babylon should mount up to Heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet spoilers shall come to her from Me, says the LORD. ⁵⁴A sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and great ruin from the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns, ⁵⁵because the LORD has stripped Babylon and destroyed the great voice out of her. When her waves roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered ⁵⁶because the ravager has come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken. Every one of their bows is broken, for the LORD God of vengeance shall surely repay. ⁵⁷And I will make her princes drunk, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men drunk. And they shall sleep a never-ending sleep and not awaken, says the King whose name is the LORD of hosts. ⁵⁸Thus says the LORD of hosts: The broad walls of Babylon shall be completely broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labor in vain, and the people shall be in the fire, and they shall be weary.

⁵⁹The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Sē-raī'-āh the son of Nē-rī'-āh, the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh, when he went with Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And Sē-raī'-āh was a quiet prince. ⁶⁰So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. ⁶¹And Jeremiah said to Sē-raī'-āh, When you come to Babylon, and shall see and shall read all these words, ⁶²then you shall say, O LORD, Thou hast spoken against this place to cut it off, so that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be a ruin forever. ⁶³And when you have made an end of reading this book, you shall tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of Eū-phrā'-tēs. ⁶⁴And you shall say, In this way shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her. And they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

¹Zēd-ē-kī'-āh was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hāmū'-tāl the daughter of Jeremiah of Līb'-nāh. ²And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm had done. ³For it was because of the anger of the LORD in Jerusalem and Judah (until He had cast them out from His presence) that Zēd-ē-kī'-āh rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it and built forts against it all around. ⁵So the city was under attack until the eleventh year of king Zēd-ē-kī'-āh. ⁶And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was very grievous in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁷Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden. (Now the Chāl-dē'-āns were beside the city all around.) And they went by the way of the plain. ⁸But the army of the Chāl-dē'-āns pursued after the king and overtook Zēd-ē-kī'-āh in the plains of Jericho. And all his army was scattered from him.

⁹Then they took the king and carried him up to the king of Babylon, to Rīb'-lāh in the land of Hā'-māth, where he gave judgment against him. ¹⁰And the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh before his eyes. He also killed all the princes of Judah in Rīb'-lāh. ¹¹Then he put out the eyes of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh. And the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

¹²Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon, Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān, captain of the guard who served the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. ¹³And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house. And he burned with fire all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men. ¹⁴And all the army of the Chāl-dē'-āns who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹⁵Then Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor of the people, and the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. ¹⁶But Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land for vine-dressers and for farmers. ¹⁷Also the Chāl-dē'-āns broke the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brass sea that was in the house of the LORD, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they served. ¹⁹And the captain of the guard took away the basins, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the spoons, and the cups — that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver. ²⁰The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brass bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD — the brass of all these vessels was without weight. ²¹And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits. And a line of twelve cubits went around it, and the thickness of it was four fingers. It was hollow. ²²And a capital of brass was upon it. And the height of one capital was five cubits, with network and pōme'-grān-ātes upon the capitals all around, all of brass. The second pillar also, and the pomegranates, were like these. ²³And there were ninety-six pomegranates on a side; all the pomegranates upon the network were a hundred all around.

²⁴And the captain of the guard took Sē-raī'-āh the chief priest, and Zēph-ā-nī'-āh the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵He also took out of the city a eū'-nūch who was in charge of the men of war; and seven men from those who were near the king's person, who were found in the city; and the chief scribe of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. ²⁶So Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon to Rib'-lāh. ²⁷And the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death in Rib'-lāh in the land of Hā'-māth. So Judah was carried away captive out of his own land. ²⁸This is the people whom Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews; ²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons; ³⁰in the twenty-third year of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard carried away captive seven hundred and forty-five persons of the Jews. All the persons were four thousand and six hundred. ³¹And in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jē-hoi'-ā-chin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, Ē'-vīl-mēr'-ō-dāch king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jē-hoi'-ā-chin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, ³²and spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³And he changed his prison garments, and he always ate bread before him all the days of his life. ³⁴And for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him from the king of Babylon, every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

The Lamentations of JEREMIAH

CHAPTER 1

- ¹How lonely sits the city
that was full of people!
How like a widow she has become!
She who was great among the nations,
and princess among the provinces,
has become a servant.
- ²She weeps sore in the night,
and her tears are on her cheeks;
among all her lovers,
she has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt deceitfully
with her;
they have become her enemies.
- ³Judah has gone into captivity because of affliction
and because of great slavery.
She dwells among the heathen;
she finds no rest;
all her pursuers have overtaken her
between the narrows.
- ⁴The paths of Zion mourn
because none come to the solemn feasts.
All her gates are deserted;
her priests sigh;
her virgins are afflicted,
and she is in bitterness.
- ⁵Her enemies have become chief;
her enemies are blessed;
for the LORD has afflicted her
for the multitude of her sins.
Her children have gone into captivity
before the enemy.
- ⁶And from the daughter of Zion
all her beauty has departed;
her princes have become like harts
who find no pasture,
and they have gone without strength
before the pursuer.
- ⁷Jerusalem remembered all her pleasant things
that she had in the days of old—
in the days of her affliction
and of her mournings,
- when her people fell into the hand of
the enemy
and none helped her;
the adversaries saw her
and mocked at her sabbaths.
- ⁸Jerusalem has grievously sinned,
therefore she is removed.
All who honored her despise her because they have seen her naked-
ness;
yea, she sighs
and turns backward.
- ⁹Her uncleanness is in her skirts;
she does not remember her last end;
therefore she came down wonderfully; she had no comfort.
O LORD, behold my affliction,
for the enemy has magnified himself.
- ¹⁰The enemy has spread out his hand
upon all her pleasant things;
for she has seen
that the heathen entered into her
holy place,
whom Thou didst command
that they should not enter into Thy
congregation.
- ¹¹All her people sigh;
they seek bread.
They have given their pleasant things
for food to relieve the soul.
See, O LORD, and look upon me,
for I have become vile.
- ¹²*Is it* nothing to you, all you who pass
by?
Behold and see
if there is any sorrow like my sorrow
which is done to me,
with which the LORD has afflicted me
in the day of His fierce anger.
- ¹³From above He has sent fire into my
bones,
and it has laid them low.
He has spread a net for my feet;
He has turned me back;
He has made me amazed
and faint all the day.

- ¹⁴The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand; they are woven together and have come upon my neck. He has made my strength to fall; the LORD has delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.
- ¹⁵The LORD has trampled all my mighty men in the midst of me; He has called a gathering against me to crush my young men. The LORD has trampled the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.
- ¹⁶For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water, because the comforter who could refresh my soul is far from me. My children are deserted because the enemy overcame.
- ¹⁷Zion spreads forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her; the LORD has commanded concerning Jacob that his enemies should be all around him; Jerusalem is among them as a woman who is bleeding in her monthly season.
- ¹⁸The LORD is righteous, for I have rebelled against His commandment. I pray you, all people, hear and behold my sorrow. My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.
- ¹⁹I called for my lovers, but they deceived me; my priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city while they sought food to bring back their life.
- ²⁰Behold, O LORD, for I am in trouble; my inward parts are upset; my heart is turned within me, for I have grievously rebelled. The sword takes away abroad, and at home it is as death.
- ²¹They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that Thou hast done it. Thou wilt bring the day that Thou hast called, and they shall be like me.
- ²²Let all their wickedness come before Thee; and do to them as Thou hast done to me for all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAPTER 2

- ¹How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in His anger, and cast the beauty of Israel down from Heaven to the earth, and remembered not His footstool in the day of His anger!
- ²The Lord has swallowed up all the homes of Jacob and has not pitied. In His wrath He has thrown down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He has brought them down to the ground; He has defiled the kingdom and the princes of it.
- ³He has cut off all the horn of Israel in His fierce anger; He has drawn back His right hand from before the enemy, and He burned against Jacob like a flaming fire which devours all around.
- ⁴He has bent His bow like an enemy; He stood with His right hand like an adversary,

- and killed all who were pleasant to the eye
in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion;
He poured out His fury like fire.
- ⁵The LORD was like an enemy;
He has swallowed up Israel;
He has swallowed up all her palaces.
He has destroyed His strongholds, and has increased mourning and weeping
in the daughter of Judah.
- ⁶And He has violently taken His tabernacle away, as if it were of a garden;
He has destroyed His meeting places.
The LORD has caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths
to be forgotten in Zion,
and has despised the king and the priest
in the fury of His anger.
- ⁷The LORD has cast off His altar;
He has despised His sanctuary;
He has given up the walls of her palaces into the hand of the enemy.
They have made a noise in the house of the LORD,
as in the day of a solemn feast.
- ⁸The LORD has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion;
He has stretched out a line;
He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying,
therefore He made the rampart and the wall to lament;
they drooped together.
- ⁹Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and broken her bars.
Her king and her princes are among the Gentiles.
The law is no more;
her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.
- ¹⁰The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground and keep silence;
they have cast up dust on their heads;
they have clothed themselves with sackcloth.
- The virgins of Jerusalem hang their heads down to the ground.
- ¹¹My eyes fail with tears;
my inward parts are troubled;
my liver is poured upon the earth for the ruin of the daughter of my people, because the children and the babes faint
in the streets of the city.
- ¹²They say to their mothers,
Where are bread and wine?
when they fainted as the wounded in the streets of the city,
when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.
- ¹³What thing shall I take to witness for you?
What thing shall I compare to you, O daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I equal to you, so that I may comfort you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your break is great like the sea;
who can heal you?
- ¹⁴Your prophets have seen false and foolish things for you,
and they have not uncovered your iniquity,
to turn away your captivity;
but they have seen false oracles
and causes of banishment for you.
- ¹⁵All who pass by
clap their hands at you;
they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying,
Is this the city that men call the perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?
- ¹⁶All your enemies
have opened their mouth against you;
they hiss and gnash the teeth;
they say, We have swallowed her up.
Certainly this is the day that we looked for;
we have found, we have seen.
- ¹⁷The LORD has done that which He has purposed;

- He has fulfilled His word which He commanded in the days of old.
He has thrown down
and has not pitied;
and He has caused your enemy to rejoice over you;
He has set up the horn of your foes.
- ¹⁸Their heart cried to the LORD.
O wall of the daughter of Zion,
let tears run down like a river
day and night;
give yourself no rest.
Let not the apple of your eye cease.
- ¹⁹Arise, cry out in the night.
In the beginning of the watches,
pour out your heart like water
before the face of the LORD.
Lift up your hands toward Him
for the eyes of your young children, who faint for hunger
in the head of every street.
- ²⁰Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom Thou hast done this.
Shall the women eat their fruit,
children they have swaddled with their hands?
Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the holy place of the Lord?
- ²¹The young and the old
lie in the streets;
my virgins and my young men
have fallen by the sword.
Thou hast killed them in the day of Thy anger;
Thou hast killed and not pitied.
- ²²Thou hast called as in a solemn day
my terrors all around,
so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained.
Those whom I have swaddled and brought up,
my enemy has destroyed.
- CHAPTER 3
- ¹I am the man who has seen affliction
by the rod of His wrath.
- ²He has led me and brought me into
darkness,
but not into light.
- ³Surely He has turned against me;
He turns His hand against me all the
day.
- ⁴He has made my flesh and my skin
old;
He has broken my bones.
- ⁵He has built against me
and has circled me with gall and pain.
- ⁶He has set me in dark places,
like the dead in days of old.
- ⁷He has set a fence around me, so that I cannot get out;
He has made my chain heavy.
- ⁸Also when I cry and shout,
He shuts out my prayer.
- ⁹He has hemmed in my ways with cut
stone;
He has made my paths crooked.
- ¹⁰He was to me like a bear lying in wait
and like a lion in secret places.
- ¹¹He has turned my ways aside and pulled me in pieces.
He has made me lonely.
- ¹²He has bent His bow
and set me as a mark for the arrow.
- ¹³He has caused the arrows of His quiver
to enter into my heart.
- ¹⁴I was a mockery to all my people,
and their song all the day.
- ¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness;
He has made me drunk with worm-
wood.
- ¹⁶He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones;
He has covered me with ashes.
- ¹⁷And Thou hast removed my soul far off from peace;
I forgot blessedness.
- ¹⁸And I said, My strength and my hope
from the LORD is gone, ¹⁹remembering my affliction and my misery,
the wormwood and the gall.
- ²⁰My soul still remembers them
and is humbled in me.
- ²¹I recall this to my mind;
therefore I have hope.

- ²²*It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not destroyed, because His mercies never fail.*
- ²³*They are new every morning; great is Thy faithfulness.*
- ²⁴*The LORD is my portion, says my soul; therefore I will hope in Him.*
- ²⁵*The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, and to the soul who seeks Him.*
- ²⁶*It is good that a man should both hope and wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.*
- ²⁷*It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.*
- ²⁸*He sits alone and keeps silence because He has laid it upon him.*
- ²⁹*He puts his mouth in the dust, if perhaps there may be hope.*
- ³⁰*He gives his cheek to Him who strikes him; he is filled with reproach.*
- ³¹*For the LORD will not cast off forever;*
- ³²*but though He cause grief, yet He will have pity according to the multitude of His mercies.*
- ³³*For He does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.*
- ³⁴*To crush all the prisoners of the earth under his feet —*
- ³⁵*to turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High —*
- ³⁶*to wrong a man in his cause — this the LORD approves not.*
- ³⁷*Who is he who speaks, and it comes to pass, when the LORD does not command it?*
- ³⁸*Do not evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?*
- ³⁹*Why does a living man complain, a man, for the punishment of his sins?*
- ⁴⁰*Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.*
- ⁴¹*Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.*
- ⁴²*We have sinned and have rebelled; Thou hast not forgiven.*
- ⁴³*Thou hast covered us with anger and persecuted us; Thou hast slain; Thou hast not pitied.*
- ⁴⁴*Thou hast covered Thyself with a cloud, so that our prayer should not pass through.*
- ⁴⁵*Thou hast made us as the offscouring and garbage in the midst of the people.*
- ⁴⁶*All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.*
- ⁴⁷*Fear and a snare has come upon us, shame and ruin.*
- ⁴⁸*My eye runs down with rivers of water for the ruin of the daughter of my people.*
- ⁴⁹*My eye trickles down and does not cease, without any relief,*
- ⁵⁰*until the LORD look down and behold from heaven.*
- ⁵¹*My eye pains my heart because of all the daughters of my city.*
- ⁵²*My enemies have hunted me, like a bird, without cause.*
- ⁵³*They have cut off my life in the pit, and have cast a stone upon me.*
- ⁵⁴*Waters flowed over my head; then I said, I am cut off.*
- ⁵⁵*I called upon Thy name, O LORD, out of the deep pit.*
- ⁵⁶*Thou hast heard my voice; do not hide Thy ear at my breathing, at my cry.*
- ⁵⁷*Thou didst draw near in the day that I called upon Thee; Thou didst say, Fear not.*
- ⁵⁸*O LORD, Thou hast spoken for the causes of my soul; Thou hast redeemed my life.*
- ⁵⁹*O LORD, Thou hast seen my wrong; judge my cause.*

⁶⁰Thou hast seen all their vengeance
and all their plots against me.

⁶¹Thou hast heard their reproach, O
LORD,

and all their plots against me —

⁶²the lips of those who rose up against
me,
and their mutterings against me all
the day.

⁶³Behold their sitting down and their rising up;
I am their song.

⁶⁴Give to them a reward, O LORD,
according to the work of their hands.

⁶⁵Give them sorrow of heart,
Thy curse upon them.

⁶⁶Pursue and destroy them in anger
from under the heavens of the LORD.

CHAPTER 4

¹How the gold has become dim!
How the pure gold has changed!
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

²The precious sons of Zion,
to be compared to fine gold,
how they are counted as earthen pitchers,
the work of the hands of the potter!

³Even the wild dogs draw out the
breast;
they suckle their young ones.
The daughter of my people has become cruel,
like the ostriches in the wilderness.

⁴The tongue of the suckling child clings to the roof of his mouth because of thirst;
the young children ask bread,
and no man breaks it to them.

⁵Those who ate dainties
are deserted in the streets;
those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

⁶For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom,

which was overthrown as in a mo-
ment,
and no hands were laid upon her.

⁷Her Nāz'-ā-rites were purer than snow;
they were whiter than milk;
they were more ruddy in body than
rubies;
their form was of sapphire.

⁸Their face is blacker than a coal;
they are not known in the streets;
their skin clings to their bones;
it is dried up; it has become like a stick.

⁹Those who are killed with the sword
are better
than those who are slain with hunger;
for these pine away, stricken through for lack of the fruits of the field.

¹⁰The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children;
they were their food
in the ruin of the daughter of my
people.

¹¹The LORD has fulfilled His fury;
He has poured out His fierce anger,
and has kindled a fire in Zion,
and it has devoured the foundations of it.

¹²The kings of the earth,
and all the people of the world,
would not have believed that the foe and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³For the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who have shed the blood of the just
in the midst of her,

¹⁴they have wandered like blind men
in the streets;
they have defiled themselves with
blood,
so that men could not touch
their clothes.

¹⁵They cried to them, Depart! Un-
clean!
Depart, depart! Touch not!

- When they fled away and wandered,
they said among the nations,
They shall never live there any more.
- ¹⁶The anger of the LORD has divided
them;
He will no longer look upon them;
they did not respect the persons of
the priests;
they did not favor the elders.
- ¹⁷As for us, as yet our eyes fail
for our vain help;
in our watching we have watched
for a nation that could not save us.
- ¹⁸They hunt our steps,
so that we cannot go in our streets;
our end is near, our days are fulfilled,
for our end has come.
- ¹⁹Our pursuers are swifter
than the eagles of the heavens;
they pursued us upon the mountains,
they laid wait for us in the wilder-
ness.
- ²⁰The breath of our nostrils, the anointed
of the LORD,
was taken in their pits;
of whom we said, Under his shadow
we shall live among the nations.
- ²¹Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom,
who lives in the land of Uz.
The cup also shall pass through unto
you;
you shall be drunk and shall make yourself naked.
- ²²The punishment of your iniquity is fulfilled, O daughter of Zion;
He will no more carry you away into captivity;
He will visit your iniquity, O daughter of Edom;
He will uncover your sins.
- CHAPTER 5
- Remember, O LORD, what has come
upon us;
look down and see our shame.
- ²Our inheritance has been turned to strangers,
our houses to foreigners.
- ³We are orphans and fatherless;
our mothers are as widows.
- ⁴We have drunk our water for money;
our wood is sold to us.
- ⁵Our necks are under persecution;
we labor and have no rest.
- ⁶We have given the hand to the Egyptians,
and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
- ⁷Our fathers have sinned and are gone;
and we have carried their iniquities.
- ⁸Servants have ruled over us;
there is none who delivers us out of their hand.
- ⁹We have gotten our bread with the peril of our lives
because of the sword of the wilderness.
- ¹⁰Our skin was black like an oven because of the terrible famine.
- ¹¹They ravished the women in Zion
and the maids in the cities of Judah.
- ¹²Princes were hanged up by their hand;
the faces of elders were not honored.
- ¹³They took the young men to grind,
and the children fell under the wood.
- ¹⁴The elders have ceased from the gate,
the young men from their music.
- ¹⁵The joy of our heart has ceased;
our dance has turned into mourning.
- ¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head;
woe unto us, that we have sinned!
- ¹⁷Our heart is faint for this;
our eyes are dim for these things.
- ¹⁸Because of the mountain of Zion,
which is laid waste,
the foxes walk upon it.
- ¹⁹Thou, O LORD, dost remain forever and Thy throne from generation to generation.
- ²⁰Why dost Thou forget us forever,
and forsake us for so long a time?
- ²¹Turn us to Thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned;
renew our days as of old.
- ²²But Thou hast utterly rejected us;
Thou art very angry against us.

The Book of EZEKIEL

CHAPTER 1

¹Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Ché'-bär, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. ²In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jě-hoi'-ä-chin's captivity, ³the word of the LORD surely came to Ē-zěk'-iël the priest, the son of Bū'-zī, in the land of the Chäl-dé'-äns by the river Ché'-bär. And the hand of the LORD was upon him there.

¹⁵Now as I looked at the living creatures, behold, one wheel was upon the earth by the living creatures, with its four faces. ¹⁶The wheels and their work looked like the color of a beryl, and the four of them had one likeness. And they and their work looked like a wheel in the middle of a wheel. ¹⁷When they went, they went upon their four sides; and they did not turn when they went. ¹⁸As for their rings, they were so high that they were fearful; and their rings were full of eyes all around the four of them. ¹⁹And when the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. ²⁰Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there their spirit would go; and the wheels were lifted up along with them. For the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²¹When those went, these went; and when those stood still, these stood still. And when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up along with them. For the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²²And there was a likeness over the heads of the living creature — an expanse, like the color of the awesome crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. ²³And under the expanse their wings were straight, the one toward the other. Each one had two wings which covered their bodies on this side, and each one had two wings which covered on that side of their bodies. ²⁴And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech like the noise of an army. When they stood still they let down their wings. ²⁵And when they stood still and had let down their wings, there was a voice from the expanse that was over their heads.

²⁶And above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, looking like a sapphire [sāf'-fire] stone. And upon the likeness of the throne was a likeness, which looked like a man above upon it. ²⁷And I saw him, like the color of brass, looking like fire all around within it. From the likeness of his loins even upward, and from the likeness of his loins even downward, I saw him, looking like fire, and it had brightness all around. ²⁸As the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain looks, so the brightness all around looked. This was how the likeness of the glory of the LORD looked. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of One who spoke.

¹And He said to me, Son of man, stand upon your feet, and I will speak to you. ²And the Spirit entered into me when He spoke to me, and set me upon my feet, so that I heard Him who spoke to me. ³And He said to me, Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels, who have rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have sinned against Me, to this very day. ⁴For they are children with brass foreheads and hard hearts. I send you to them; and you shall say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD. ⁵And they, whether they will hear or whether they will stop hearing (for they are a rebellious house,) shall yet know that there has been a prophet among them.

⁶And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words, nor frightened by their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ⁷And you shall speak My words to them, whether they will hear or whether they stop hearing. For they are most rebellious. ⁸But you, son of man, hear what I say to

you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you.

⁹And when I looked, behold, a hand was sent to me; and lo, a roll of a book was in it. ¹⁰And He spread it before me; and it was written inside and out. And there were written in it weepings, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER 3

¹Besides He said to me, Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this roll, and go speak to the house of Israel. ²So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that roll. ³And He said to me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this roll that I give you. Then I ate it; and in my mouth it was like honey for sweetness.

⁴And He said to me, Son of man, go! Go up to the house of Israel and speak to them with My words. ⁵For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel — ⁶not to many people of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you. ⁷But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they will not listen to Me — for all the house of Israel have brass foreheads and hard hearts. ⁸Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces and your forehead strong against their foreheads. ⁹I have made your forehead as an adamant harder than flint; do not fear them, neither be frightened by their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ¹⁰Moreover He said to me, Son of man, receive all My words which I shall speak to you in your heart, and hear with your ears. ¹¹And go! Go to those of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD — whether they will hear or whether they will stop hearing. ¹²Then the Spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from His place. ¹³I also heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels along with them, and a noise of a great rushing. ¹⁴So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit — but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

¹⁵Then I came to those of the captivity at Tēl-ā'-bīb, who lived by the river Chē'-bār. And I sat where they sat and remained there stricken dumb among them seven days. ¹⁶And at the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁷Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word of My mouth, and give them warning from Me. ¹⁸When I say to the wicked, You shall surely die — and you do not give him warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life — the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but I will require his blood at your hand. ¹⁹Yet if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity — but you have delivered your soul. ²⁰Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and when I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die. Because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand. ²¹Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, so that the righteous does not sin, and if he does not sin, he shall surely live because he is warned — also you have delivered your soul.

²²And the hand of the LORD was upon me there. And He said to me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will talk with you there. ²³Then I arose and went forth into the plain; and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I saw by the river Chē'-bār. And I fell upon my face. ²⁴Then the Spirit entered into me and set me upon my feet; and spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself inside your house! ²⁵But you, O son of man, behold, they shall put hands upon you and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them. ²⁶And I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be dumb and shall not be one who warns them. For they are a rebellious house. ²⁷But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: He who hears, let him hear; and he who stops his ears, let him stop — for they are a rebellious house.

¹You also, son of man, take a tile to yourself, and lay it before you, and portray upon it the city Jerusalem. ²And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mound against it. Also set the camp against it, and set battering rams against it all around. ³Besides take an iron pan to yourself, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city. And set your face against it, and it shall be under attack. And you shall set a battle against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. ⁴Also lie upon your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it; according to the number of days that you shall lie upon it, you shall bear their iniquity. ⁵For I have laid upon you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶And when you have fulfilled them, lie again on your right side, and you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days — a day for a year — a day for a year, I have set for you. ⁷Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it. ⁸And, behold, I will lay bands upon you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to another until you have ended the days of your siege.

⁹Take also to yourself wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. According to the number of the days that you shall lie upon your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat of it. ¹⁰And your food which you shall eat shall be by weight twenty shekels a day; from time to time you shall eat it. ¹¹You shall also drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. From time to time you shall drink. ¹²And you shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it with dung that comes out of man, in their sight. ¹³And the LORD said, Even so shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, where I will drive them. ¹⁴Then I said, Ah Lord GOD! Behold, my soul has not been defiled. For from my youth up, even till now, I have not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither did there come any unclean flesh into my mouth. ¹⁵Then He said to me, Lo, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread with it. ¹⁶Moreover He said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem. And they shall eat bread by weight, and with care. And they shall drink water by measure, and in silence, ¹⁷so that they may lack bread and water, and be stricken dumb with one another, and waste away for their iniquity.

¹And you, son of man, take a sharp knife to yourself, take a barber's razor also, and cause it to pass upon your head and upon your beard. Then take scales to weigh, and divide the hair. ²You shall burn a third part with fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled — and you shall take a third part and beat around it with a knife — and you shall scatter a third part in the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. ³Also you shall take a few of them in number, and tie them up in your skirts. ⁴Then take of them again, and throw them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for a fire shall come forth from them into all the house of Israel.

⁵Thus says the Lord GOD: This is Jerusalem. I have set it in the middle of the nations and countries that are all around her. ⁶And she has changed My judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and My laws more than the countries that are all around her — for they have refused My judgments and My laws; they have not walked in them. ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you multiplied more than the nations that are all around you, and have not walked in My laws, neither have kept My judgments, nor have done according to the judgments of the nations that are all around you; ⁸therefore thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against you, and will carry out judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. ⁹And I will do in you that which I have not done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations. ¹⁰Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in your midst, and the sons shall eat their fathers. And I will execute judgments in you, and I will scatter the whole remnant of you into all the winds. ¹¹Therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also cut you off — neither shall My eye spare you, neither will I have any pity. ¹²A third part of you shall die with the plague and with famine they shall be destroyed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword all around you; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them. ¹³So My anger shall be fulfilled, and I will cause My fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted. And they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in My zeal, when I have fulfilled My fury in them. ¹⁴Moreover I will make you a waste and a curse among the nations that are all around you, in the sight of all who pass by. ¹⁵So it shall be a curse and a mocking, a teaching and a wonder to the nations which are all around you, when I shall execute judgments in you in anger and in fury and in angry rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it. ¹⁶When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their ruin, which I will send to destroy you; and when I increase the famine upon you, and break your staff of bread; ¹⁷and when I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and when they have taken away your loved ones; and when pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and when I bring the sword upon you — you shall know that I the LORD have spoken.

CHAPTER 6

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them. ³And say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴And your altars shall be wasted, and your images shall be broken. And I will cast down your dead before your idols. ⁵And I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶In all the places where you live, cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be deserted — so that your altars may be laid waste and ruined, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be wiped out. ⁷And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁸Yet I will leave a remnant so that you may have some who shall escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries. ⁹And those of you who escape shall remember Me among the nations where they shall be carried captives, because I was broken with their idol-worshipping heart which has departed from Me, and with their eyes which go lusting after their idols. And they shall despise themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. ¹⁰And they shall know that I am the LORD and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.

¹¹Thus says the Lord GOD: Strike with your hand and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall fall by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague. ¹²He who is afar off shall die of the plague; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is under siege shall die by the famine. So I will fulfil My fury upon them. ¹³Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when their dead shall be among their idols all around their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they offered sweet perfume to all their idols. ¹⁴So I will stretch out My hand upon them and make the land a waste, yes, more wasted than the wilderness toward Dib'-lāth, in all the places where they live; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Also, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land. ³Now the end has come upon you, and I will send My anger upon you and will judge you according to your ways, and will lay upon you all your abominations. ⁴And My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity. But I will repay your ways upon you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ⁵Thus says the Lord GOD: An evil: Behold, an only evil has come! ⁶An end has come, the end has come. It awakes against you; behold, it has come. ⁷The morning has come to you, O you who dwell in the land. The time has come, the day of trouble is near, and not the echo of the mountains. ⁸Now I will soon pour out My fury upon you, and fulfil My anger upon you. And I will judge you according to your ways, and will repay you for all your abominations. ⁹And My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; I will repay you according to your ways and your abominations that are in the midst of you. And you shall know that I am the LORD who strikes. ¹⁰Behold the day! Behold, it has come; the morning has gone forth; the rod has blossomed; pride has budded. ¹¹Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs — neither shall there be wailing for them. ¹²The time has come; the day draws near. Let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn;

for wrath is upon all the multitude of it. ¹³The seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were still alive; for the vision is about the whole multitude of it, which shall not return. Neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. ¹⁴They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goes to the battle, for My wrath is upon all the multitude of it. ¹⁵The sword is outside, and the plague and the famine inside. He who is in the field shall die with the sword; and he who is in the city shall be devoured by famine and plague.

²⁰As for the beauty of His ornament, He set it in majesty. But they made the images of their abominations and of their hateful things in it; therefore I have set it far from them. ²¹And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prize, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall defile it. ²²I will also turn My face from them, and they shall defile My secret place; for the robbers shall enter into it and defile it.

²³Make a chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. ²⁴Therefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses. I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled. ²⁵Ruin comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. ²⁶Evil shall come upon evil, and rumor shall be upon rumor. Then they shall seek a vision from the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and wisdom from the elders. ²⁷The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with misery, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled. I will do to them according to their way, and according to their deserts. I will judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹And in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house and the elders of Judah sat before me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there. ²Then I looked, and behold, there was a likeness which looked like a man — from his loins and downward he looked like fire; and from his loins and upward he had a look of brightness, like the color of brass. ³And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head. And the Spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heavens, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looks toward the north. There was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

⁵Then He said to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy was in the entrance. ⁶Then He said to me, Son of man, do you see what they do? even the great abominations which the house of Israel is doing here, that I should go far off from My sanctuary? But turn yet again, and you shall see greater abominations.

⁷And He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. ⁸Then He said to me, Son of man, dig in the wall now. And when I had dug in the wall, behold a door. ⁹And he said to me. Go in and see the wicked abominations that they do here. ¹⁰So I went in and saw. And behold, every kind of creeping thing, and hateful beast, and all the idols of the house of Israel, were portrayed upon the wall all around. ¹¹And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jā-āz-ā-nī'-āh the son of Shā'-phān, with each man having a censor in his hand. And a thick cloud of incense went up. ¹²Then He said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, each man in his image room? For they say, The LORD does not see us; the LORD has forsaken the earth.

¹³He also said to me, Turn yet again, and you shall see greater evils which they do. ¹⁴Then He brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house, which was toward the north. And behold, there sat women weeping for Tām'-mūz. ¹⁵Then he said to me, Have you seen this, O son of man? Turn yet again, and you shall see greater evils than these.

¹⁶And He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east – and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

¹⁷Then He said to me, Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they do the hateful things which they do here? For they have filled the land with violence and have turned to provoke Me to anger. And lo, they put the branch to their nose. ¹⁸Therefore I will also deal in fury; My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity. And though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.

CHAPTER 9

¹He also cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause those who have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. ²And behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate which lies toward the north, and every man had a weapon of slaughter in his hand. And one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. And they went in and stood beside the brass altar. ³And the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub upon which he was, to the doorstep of the house. And He called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. ⁴And the LORD said to him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men who sigh and who cry because of all the abominations that are done in the midst of it.

⁵And to the others He said in my hearing, Go after him through the city and strike. Let not your eye spare, neither have pity. ⁶Fully destroy old men, young men and virgins, and little children and women. But do not come near any man upon whom is the mark. And begin at My sanctuary. And they began at the old men who were before the house. ⁷And He said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the dead. Go forth! And they went forth and killed in the city.

⁸And while they were slaying them, and I was left, I fell upon my face and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! Wilt Thou destroy all the rest of Israel in Thy pouring out of Thy fury upon Jerusalem? ⁹Then He said to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city is full of perverseness. For they say, The LORD has forsaken the earth, and the LORD sees not. ¹⁰And as for Me also, My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will put their way upon their head. ¹¹And behold, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as Thou hast commanded me.

¹Then I looked, and behold, in the expanse that was over the head of the chēr'-ū-bîms, something looking like a sapphire stone came over them, and it was in the form of a throne. ²And He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, under the cherub, and fill your hands with coals of fire from between the chēr'-ū-bîms, and scatter them over the city. And he went in as I looked.

³Now the chěr'-ū-bīms stood on the right side of the house when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. ⁴Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub and stood over the doorstep of the house. And the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. ⁵And the sound of the chěr'-ū-bīms' wings was heard to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when He speaks. ⁶And when He had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the chěr'-ū-bīms, he went in then, and stood beside the wheels. ⁷And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the chěr'-ū-bīms unto the fire that was between the chěr'-ū-bīms, and took of it and put it into the hands of him who was clothed with linen. He took it and went out.

⁴Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, O son of man! ⁵And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said to me, Speak: Thus says the LORD: Thus you have said, O house of Israel. For I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them. ⁶You have multiplied your dead in this city, and you have filled the streets of it with the dead. ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the pot. But I will bring you forth out of the midst of it. ⁸You have feared the sword, and I will bring a sword upon you, says the Lord GOD. ⁹And I will bring you out of the midst of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments upon you. ¹⁰You shall fall by the sword. I will judge you in the border of Israel, and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹¹This city shall not be your pot, neither shall you be the flesh in the midst of it. But I will judge you in the border of Israel, ¹²and you shall know that I am the LORD. For you have not walked in My statutes, nor have you done My judgments, but have done after the customs of the nations who are all around you.

¹³And when I prophesied, Pēl-ā-tī'-āh the son of Bē-naī'-āh died. Then I fell down upon my face and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! Wilt Thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel? ¹⁴Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁵Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your family and all the house of Israel as a whole, are those unto whom the people of Jerusalem have said, Go far away from the LORD. Unto us is this land given in possession. ¹⁶Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come. ¹⁷Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will even gather you from the people and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. ¹⁸And they shall come there, and they shall take away all its hateful things and all its abominations from it. ¹⁹And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰so that they may walk in My statutes and keep My ordinances, and do them.

And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. ²¹But as for those whose heart walks after the heart of their hateful things and their abominations, I will put their way upon their own heads, says the Lord GOD.

²²Then the chēr'-ū-bīms lifted up their wings, and the wheels beside them. And the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. ²³And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. ²⁴Afterwards the Spirit took me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chāl-dē'-ā, to those of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵Then I spoke to those of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

CHAPTER 12

¹The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, ²Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see and see not. They have ears to hear and hear not, for they are a rebellious house. ³Therefore, son of man, prepare stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight. And you shall move from your place to another place in their sight. It may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴Then you shall bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, like stuff for moving. And you shall go forth at evening in their sight, as those who go forth into captivity. ⁵Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry out through it. ⁶In their sight you shall carry it upon your shoulders, and carry it out in the twilight. You shall cover your face so that you do not see the ground, for I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel.

⁷And I did as I was commanded. I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought it forth in the twilight, and I carried it upon my shoulder in their sight.

⁸And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing? ¹⁰Say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: This burden concerns the king in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them. ¹¹Say, I am your sign: As I have done, so it shall be done to them. They shall move and go into captivity. ¹²And the king who is among them shall carry burdens upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth. They shall dig through the wall to carry out by it. He shall hide his face so that he does not see the ground with his eyes. ¹³I will also spread My net upon him, and He shall be taken in My snare. And I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chāl-dē'-āns. Yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there. ¹⁴And I will scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and

I will draw out the sword after them. ¹⁵And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations and scatter them in the countries. ¹⁶But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the plague, so that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen where they come. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹⁷Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, eat your bread with quaking and drink your water with trembling and with carefulness. ¹⁹And say to the people of the land: Thus says the Lord GOD of the people of Jerusalem and of the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with carefulness and drink their water in dumb silence, so that her land may be deserted of her fullness, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it. ²⁰And the cities that have people shall be laid waste, and the land shall be deserted. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

²¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²²Son of man, what is that proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, The days will go on and every vision shall fail? ²³Therefore tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel. But say to them, The days are at hand, and the fulfilment of every vision. ²⁴For there shall never again be any vain vision nor flattering fortunetelling within the house of Israel. ²⁵I am the LORD. I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass. It shall no more be delayed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and will do it, says the Lord GOD.

²⁶Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁷Son of man, behold, the house of Israel says, The vision that he sees is for many days to come, and he prophesies of the times that are far off. ²⁸Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: There shall none of my words be delayed any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, says the Lord GOD.

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy. And say to those who prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear the word of the Lord: ³Thus says the Lord GOD, Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! ⁴O Israel, your prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. ⁵You have not gone up into the breaks, nor built the wall for the house of Israel, that it might stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. ⁶They have seen vanity and lying fortunetelling, saying, The LORD says. And the LORD has not sent them; and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word. ⁷Have you not seen a vision, and have you not spoken a lying prophesy, yet you say, The LORD says it; although I have not spoken? ⁸Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have spoken vanity and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord GOD. ⁹And My hand shall be upon the prophets who see vanity and who prophesy lies. They shall not be in the meeting of My people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

¹⁰Because, even because they have led My people astray, saying, Peace — and there was no peace — and one built up a wall, and lo, others daubed it with chalk; ¹¹say to those who daub it with chalk that it shall fall. There shall be an overflowing rain, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall, and a stormy wind shall tear it. ¹²Lo, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the daubing with which you have daubed it? ¹³Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in My fury. And there shall be an overflowing rain in My anger, and great hailstones in My fury to destroy it. ¹⁴So I will break down the wall that you have daubed with chalk, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation of it shall be uncovered. And it shall fall, and you shall be destroyed in the midst of it; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹⁵So I will fulfil My wrath upon the wall and upon those who have daubed it with chalk, and will say to you, The wall is no more, neither those who daubed it — ¹⁶*that is*, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the LORD.

¹⁷Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart. And prophesy against them, ¹⁸and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the women who sew pillows to armholes, and make handkerchiefs of every size to put upon the head in order to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My people, and will you save alive the souls that come to you? ¹⁹You will defile Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls that should not die, and to save alive the souls that should not live, by your lying to My people who hear your lies. ²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against your pillows with which you hunt the souls there, to make them flee. And I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that you hunt in order to make them flee. ²¹Also I will tear your handkerchiefs and deliver My people out of your hand, and they shall no more be in your hand to be hunted. And you shall know that I am the LORD. ²²Because with lies you have saddened the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and have made the hands of the wicked strong, so that he should not turn from his wicked way, by promising him life. ²³Therefore you shall never see vanity any more, nor tell fortunes. For I will deliver My people out of your hands; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

¹Then some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. ²And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ³Son of man, these men have set up their idols in the heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face. Should I at all be inquired of by them? ⁴Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Every man of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him who comes according to the multitude of his idols; ⁵so that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all cut off from Me through their idols.

⁶Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Repent and turn from your idols, and turn away your faces from all your abominations. ⁷For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger who lives in Israel, who separates himself from Me and sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and comes to a prophet to ask of him concerning Me — I the LORD will answer him by Myself. ⁸And I will set My face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My people; and you shall know that I am the LORD. ⁹And if the prophet is deceived when he has spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand upon him and will destroy him in the midst of My people Israel. ¹⁰And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity; the punishment of the prophet shall be just like the punishment of him who seeks to him — ¹¹so that the house of Israel may never again go astray from Me, neither be at all defiled with all their transgressions, but that they may be My people, and I may be their God, says the Lord GOD.

¹²The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ¹³Son of man, when the land sins against Me by trespassing grievously, then I will stretch out My hand upon it, and will break the staff of its bread, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it. ¹⁴Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver only their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵If I cause destroying beasts to come through the land, and they spoil it so that it is deserted, so that no man may pass through because of the beasts, ¹⁶*though* these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters. They only shall be delivered, but the land shall be deserted.

¹⁷Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land — so that I cut off man and beast from it — ¹⁸*though* these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

¹⁹Or if I send a plague into that land, and pour out My fury upon it in blood, to cut off man and beast from it; ²⁰though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter. They shall only deliver their own souls by their righteousness. ²¹For thus says the Lord GOD: How much more when I send My four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the destroying beast, and the plague, to cut off man and beast from it.

²²Yet, behold, there shall be left a remnant in it that shall be brought forth, sons and daughters. Behold, they shall come forth to you, and you shall see their way and their doings. And you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, concerning all that I have brought upon it. ²³And they shall comfort you when you see their ways and their doings. And you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 15

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest? ³Shall wood be taken from it to do any work? Or will men take a pin from it to hang any vessel on it? ⁴Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel. The fire devours both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is it fit for any work? ⁵Behold, when it was whole, it was fit for no work. How much less shall it be fit for any work when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned? ⁶Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the people of Jerusalem. ⁷And I will set My face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them. And you shall know that I am the LORD when I set My face against them. ⁸And I will make the land a ruin, because they have committed a trespass, says the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 16

¹Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations. ³And say, Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem, Your origin and your birth is of the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite. ⁴And as for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed with water to cleanse you; you were not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. ⁵No eye pitied you, to do any of these to you, to have compassion upon you. But you were thrown out into the open field, because your life was despised in the day that you were born.

⁶And when I passed by you and saw you in your own blood ready to be trampled, I said to you in your blood, Live! Yes, I said to you in your blood, Live! ⁷I have caused you to multiply like the bud of the field, and you have multiplied and become great, and you have come to excellent ornaments. Your breasts are formed, and your hair is grown, yet you were naked and bare. ⁸Now when I passed by you and looked upon you, behold, your time was the time of love. And I spread my skirt over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I swore to you and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord GOD, and you became Mine. ⁹And I washed you with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰I also clothed you with embroidered work, and made shoes for you of badgers' skin, and I dressed you with fine linen, and I covered you with silk. ¹¹I also adorned you with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon your hands and a chain on your neck. ¹²And I put a jewel on your forehead, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head. ¹³So you were adorned with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen and silk and embroidered work. You ate fine flour and honey and oil; and you were exceedingly beautiful, and you went on to a kingdom. ¹⁴And your fame went forth among the heathen, because of your beauty; for it was perfect in My beauty, which I had put upon you, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵But you trusted in your own beauty, and played the harlot because of your fame, and poured out your fôr-nî-câ'-tions on everyone who passed by — it was his. ¹⁶And you took from your clothes and adorned your high places with different colors, and played the harlot upon them. The like things have not come, nor ever shall be. ¹⁷You have also taken your beautiful jewels of My gold and of My silver, which I had given you, and made images of men to yourself, and committed adultery with them. ¹⁸And you took your embroidered dresses and covered them, and you have set My oil and My incense before them. ¹⁹Also My food which I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey with which I fed you, you have even set it before them for a sweet smell. And so it was, says the Lord GOD. ²⁰Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne unto Me, and you have sacrificed these to them for food. Is it a little thing that because of your fôr-nî-câ'-tions ²¹you have killed My children and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them? ²²And in all your hateful deeds and your fôr-nî-câ'-tions you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were ready to be trampled in your blood.

²³And after all your wickedness — woe, woe unto you, says the Lord GOD! — ²⁴you have also built to you a high place. Yes, you have made you a high place in every street. ²⁵You have built your high place at every head of the way, and have made your beauty to be despised, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and have multiplied your fôr-nî-câ'-tions. ²⁶*Y*ou have also committed fôr-nî-câ'-tion with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors; and you have multiplied your fôr-nî-câ'-tions to provoke Me to anger. ²⁷Behold, therefore I have stretched out My hand over you, and have withdrawn your share of food, and have delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your wicked way. ²⁸You have also played the harlot with the Assyrians, because you could never be satisfied. Yes, you have played the harlot with them, and yet you could not be satisfied. ²⁹Moreover you have multiplied your fôr-nî-câ'-tion in the land of Canaan unto Châl-dé'-â, and yet you were not satisfied with it. ³⁰How weak is your heart, says the Lord GOD, since you do all these things, the work of an overbearing, lustful woman — ³¹in that you build your high place in the head of every way, and make your high place in the head of every street — and you have not been as a harlot, in that you scorn hire; ³²*but you have been* like a wife who commits adultery, who takes strangers instead of her husband! ³³They give gifts to all harlots, but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and hire them so that they may come to you from every side for your fôr-nî-câ'-tion. ³⁴And you were just the opposite from other women in your adulteries, in that no one goes after you to commit adulteries. And in that you give a gift, and no gift is given to you, therefore you are different.

³⁵Therefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD. ³⁶Thus says the Lord GOD: Because your filthiness was poured out and your nakedness was discovered, through your fôr-nî-câ'-tions with your lovers and with all the idols of your abominations, and by the blood of your children whom you gave to them — ³⁷behold, therefore I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those whom you have loved, with all those whom you have hated — I will even gather them all around against you, and will uncover your nakedness to them so that they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸And I will judge you as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged. And I will give you blood and fury and jealousy. ³⁹And I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your high place. Yes, they shall break down your high places. They shall also strip you of your clothes, and shall take your beautiful jewels, and leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹And they shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments upon you in the sight of many women. And I will cause you to cease from playing the harlot, and you shall also give no hire any more. ⁴²So I will make My fury toward you to rest, and My jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet and will be angry no more. ⁴³Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have troubled Me in all these things; behold, therefore I will also repay your way upon your head, says the Lord GOD. And you shall not commit this fôr-nî-câ'-tion above all your other abominations.

⁴⁴Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, As the mother is, so is her daughter. ⁴⁵You are your mother's daughter, who despises her husband and her children. And you are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite. ⁴⁶And your older sister is Sā-mâr'-î-ā, she and her daughters who dwell at your left hand. And your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. ⁴⁷Yet you have not walked according to their ways, nor done according to their hateful deeds; but, as if that were a very little thing, you were corrupted more than they were in all your ways. ⁴⁸As I live, says the Lord GOD, Sodom your sister, she nor her daughters, has not done as you have done, you and your daughters. ⁴⁹Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom — pride. Fullness of bread and plenty of idleness was in her and in her daughters. Neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰And they were proud and did hateful things before Me. Therefore I took them away as I saw good. ⁵¹Neither has Sā-mâr'-î-ā committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they have, and have justified your sisters in all your abominations which you have done. ⁵²You also, who have judged your sisters, bear your own shame for your sins which you have committed more abominable than they have. They are more righteous than you! Yes, blush and bear your shame, since you have justified your sisters. ⁵³When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Sā-mâr'-î-ā and her daughters, then I will bring again the captivity of your captives in the midst of them — ⁵⁴so that you may bear your own shame, and may blush in all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. ⁵⁵When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former state, and when Sā-mâr'-î-ā and her daughters shall return to their former state, then you and your daughters shall return to your former state. ⁵⁶For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of your shaming of the daughters of Syria, and of all her neighbors, the daughters of the Philistines (who despise you on every side). ⁵⁸You must bear your fôr-nî-cā'-tion and your abominations, says the LORD. ⁵⁹For thus says the Lord GOD: I will even deal with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

⁶⁰Nevertheless I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. ⁶¹Then you shall remember your ways and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your older and your younger. And I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. ⁶²And I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall know that I am the LORD; ⁶³so that you may remember and be ashamed — and never open your mouth any more because of your shame — in that I have received an atonement for all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 17

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, put forth a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel. ³And say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, who had different colors, came to Lěb'-ā-non and took the highest branch of the cedar. ⁴He plucked off the top of its young twigs and carried it into a land of traders. He set it in a city of merchants. ⁵He also took of the seed of the land and planted it in a fruitful field. He placed it by great waters and set it as a willow tree. ⁶And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him. And its roots were under him. So it became a vine and brought forth branches and shot forth sprigs. ⁷There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. And behold, this vine bent its roots toward him and shot forth its branches toward him, that he might water it, away from the beds of its planting. ⁸It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. ⁹Say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up the roots of it and cut off the fruit of it, so that it shall wither? It shall wither in all the leaves of its spring, even without great power of many people to pluck it up by its roots. ¹⁰Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the beds where it grew.

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹²Say now to the rebellious house: Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon has come to Jerusalem and has taken its king and its princes, and brings them to himself to Babylon. ¹³And he has taken of the king's seed and has made a covenant with him, and has taken an oath from him. He has also taken the mighty of the land, ¹⁴so that the kingdom might be low, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. ¹⁵But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he be blessed? Shall he who does such things escape? Or shall he break the covenant and he delivered? ¹⁶As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king lives who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. ¹⁷Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company work for him in the war, by casting up siege mounds and building forts, to cut off many persons. ¹⁸Since he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when lo, he had given his hand, and has done all these things, he shall not escape. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely My oath that he has despised, and My covenant that he has broken, I will even repay it upon his own head. ²⁰And I will spread My net upon him, and he shall be taken in My snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and I will judge him there with his sin which he has sinned against Me. ²¹And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward all winds. And you shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

²²Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also take of the highest branch of the highest cedar and will set it; I will crop off from the top of its young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon a high and lofty mountain. ²³In a mountain, in a high place of Israel I will plant it. And it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar. And under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shadow of its branches they shall dwell. ²⁴And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish. I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

¹The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, ²What do you mean that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes and the children's teeth are set on edge? ³As I live, says the Lord GOD, you shall not have occasion to use this proverb any more in Israel. ⁴Behold, all souls are Mine. As the soul of the father, also the soul of the son is Mine. The soul that sins, it shall die.

⁵But if a man is just and does that which is lawful and right, ⁶and has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near a menstruating woman, ⁷and has not ill-treated any, but has given the debtor's pledge back to him, has robbed none by violence, has given his bread to the hungry and has covered the naked with a garment — ⁸he who has not given forth upon usury, neither has taken any increase, he who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has done judgment between man and man, ⁹has walked in My statutes, and has kept My judgments to deal truly — he shall surely live, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁰If he fathers a son that is a robber, one who sheds blood, and one who does any of these things, ¹¹and who does not any of those duties — but has even eaten upon the mountains, and has defiled his neighbor's wife, ¹²has ill-treated the poor and needy, has spoiled by violence, has not given back the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, ¹³has given forth upon usury and has taken increase — shall he then live? He shall not live! He has done all these hateful things; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him.

¹⁴Now, lo, if he fathers a son who sees all his father's sins which he has done, and fears, and does not do like him — ¹⁵*who* has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, ¹⁶neither has ill-treated any, has not withheld the pledge, neither has spoiled by violence but has given his bread to the hungry and has covered the naked with a garment, ¹⁷*who* has taken his hand from the poor, who has not received usury nor increase, has done My judgments, has walked in My statutes — he shall not die for the iniquity of his father; he shall surely live. ¹⁸*As for* his father, because he was cruel and robbed his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people — lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

¹⁹Yet you say, Why? Does not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done that which is lawful and right, has kept all My statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. ²⁰The soul that sins, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. ²¹But if the wicked will turn from all his sins which he has committed, and keep all My statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ²²All his transgressions that he has committed, they shall not be mentioned to him — in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. ²³Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? says the Lord GOD; and not that he should return from his ways and live?

²⁴But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and does according to all the hateful things that the wicked man does, shall he live? All his righteousness that he has done shall not be remembered; in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he shall die.

²⁵Yet you say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not My way equal? Are your ways not unequal [ûn-é'-kwäl]? ²⁶When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and dies in them — for his iniquity that he has done, he shall die. ²⁷Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed and does that which is lawful and righteous, he shall save his soul alive. ²⁸Because he looks carefully, and turns away from all his sins that he has committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ²⁹Yet says the house of Israel: The way of the LORD is not equal. O house of Israel, are not My ways equal? Are not your ways unequal? ³⁰Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, each one of you according to his ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent and turn yourselves from all your sins; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

³¹Cast away from you all your sins by which you have sinned; and make you a new heart and a new spirit; for why will you die, O house of Israel? ³²For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Lord GOD. Therefore turn and live.

CHAPTER 19

¹Moreover take up a weeping for the princes of Israel, ²and say: What is your mother? A lioness. She lay down among lions; she nursed her cubs among young lions. ³And she brought up one of her cubs; it became a strong lion and learned to catch the prey. It ate men. ⁴The nations also heard of him. He was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains to the land of Egypt. ⁵Now when she saw that she had waited and that her hope was lost, she took another of her cubs and made him a strong lion. ⁶And he went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion and learned to catch the prey, and ate men. ⁷And he knew their deserted palaces, and he laid their cities waste, and the land and its fullness was wasted away, because of the noise of his roaring. ⁸Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him. He was taken in their pit. ⁹And they put him under guard in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into strongholds, so that his voice should never again be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰Your mother is like a vine in your blood, planted by the waters; she was fruitful and full of branches because of many waters. ¹¹And she had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches; and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches. ¹²But she was plucked up in fury; she was thrown down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit. Her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire burned them up. ¹³And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. ¹⁴And fire has gone out from a rod of her branches, which has licked up her fruit so that there is no strong rod in her to be a scepter to rule. This is a mourning and shall be for a mourning.

¹And in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to ask of the LORD, and sat before me. ²Then came the word of the LORD to me, saying, ³Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Have you come to ask of Me? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. ⁴Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers.

⁵And say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In the day that I chose Israel, and lifted up my hand to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt; when I lifted up My hand to them, saying, I am the LORD your God; ⁶in the day that I lifted up My hand to them, to bring them forth from the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands — ⁷then I said to them, Let each man throw away the hateful idols of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God. ⁸But they rebelled against Me and would not listen to Me. They did not every one throw away the hateful idols of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, I will pour out My fury against them to fulfil My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. ⁹But I worked for My name's sake, that it should not be defiled before the heathen among whom they were, in whose sight I made Myself known to them in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰Therefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹And I gave them My laws and showed them My judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. ¹²Moreover also I gave them My sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sets them apart. ¹³But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My laws, and they despised My judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. And they greatly defiled My sabbaths. Then I said, I will pour out My fury on them in the wilderness to destroy them. ¹⁴But I worked for My name's sake, so that it should not be defiled before the heathen in whose sight I brought them out. ¹⁵Yet also I lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands — ¹⁶because they despised My judgments and walked not in My sabbaths — for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷Nevertheless My eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness. ¹⁸But I said to their children in the wilderness, Do not walk in the laws of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, neither defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹I am the LORD your God. Walk in My statutes, and keep My judgments, and do them, ²⁰and keep My sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God. ²¹Nevertheless the children rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My laws, neither kept My judgments to do them — the judgments which, if a man do, he shall even live in them. Then I said I would pour out My fury upon them, to fulfil My anger against them in the wilderness.

²²Nevertheless I withdrew My hand and worked for My name's sake, that it should not be defiled in the sight of the heathen in whose sight

I brought them forth. ²³I also lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen and scatter them through the countries, ²⁴because they had not done My judgments, but had despised My sabbaths and had defiled My sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. ²⁵Therefore I gave them also laws that were not good, and judgments by which they should not live. ²⁶And I defiled them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that open the womb to pass through the fire, that I might make them a waste, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

²⁷Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed Me, in that they have committed a sin against Me. ²⁸When I had brought them into the land for which I lifted up My hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered their sacrifices there. And there they offered their provoking gifts. There also they made their sweet perfume, and poured out their drink offerings there. ²⁹Then I said to them, What is the high place to which you go? And the name of it is called Bâ'-mâh to this day. ³⁰Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you defiled in the same way as your fathers? And do you commit fôr-nî-câ'tion after their abominations? ³¹For when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. ³²And that which comes into your mind shall not happen at all, that you say, We will be like the nations, like the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

³³As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, I will reign over you. ³⁴And I will bring you out from the people, and I will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand and with a stretched out arm and with fury poured out. ³⁵And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face. ³⁶Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the Lord GOD. ³⁷And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸And I will purge out from among you the rebels and those who sin against Me. I will bring them forth out of the country where they live, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

³⁹As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Everyone go and serve his idols, and do so from now on if you will not listen to Me. But never again defile My holy name with your gifts and with your idols. ⁴⁰For in My holy mountain, in the mountain height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of those in the land, shall serve Me. There will I receive them, and there will I ask for your offerings and the first fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. ⁴¹I will receive you with your sweet perfume when I bring you out from the people and gather you out of the countries into which you have been scattered. And I will be sanctified in you in the eyes of the nations. ⁴²And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I lifted up My hand, to give it to your fathers. ⁴³And there you shall remember your ways and all your doings in which you have been defiled. And you shall despise yourselves in your own sight for all your evils which you have committed. ⁴⁴And you shall know that I am the LORD when I have worked with you for My name's sake, not according to your wicked ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

⁴⁵Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁴⁶Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field. ⁴⁷And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall burn up every green tree in you, and every dry tree. The flaming flame shall not be put out, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned in it. ⁴⁸And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it. It shall not be put out. ⁴⁹Then I said, Ah Lord GOD! They say of me, Does he not speak parables?

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop your word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel. ³And say to the land of Israel, Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth My sword out of its sheath and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. ⁴Since then I will cut off the righteous and the wicked from you, therefore My sword shall go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north, ⁵so that all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth My sword out of its sheath. It shall not return any more. ⁶Therefore sigh, son of man, with the breaking of your loins; and sigh with bitterness before their eyes. ⁷And when they say to you, Why do you sigh? You shall answer, Because of the news. Because it is coming; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water. Behold, it comes, and shall be brought to pass, says the Lord GOD.

⁸Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the LORD. Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened and also polished. ¹⁰It is sharpened to make a grievous slaughter; it is polished so that it may flash like lightning. Should we then rejoice?

It despises the rod of My son, along with every tree. ¹¹And He has given it to be polished so that it may be handled. This sword is sharpened, and it is polished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. ¹²Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon My people; it shall be upon all the princes of Israel. Because of the sword, terrors shall be upon My people. Therefore strike upon your thigh. ¹³Because it is a trial, and what if the sword even despise; the rod? The rod shall be no more, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁴Therefore, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain. It is the sword of the great men who are slain, which enters into their secret rooms. ¹⁵I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint and that their ruins may be multiplied. Ah, it is ready to flash like the lightning; it is wrapped up for the slaughter. ¹⁶Go one way or the other, either on the right hand or on the left, wherever your face is set. ¹⁷I will also strike My hands together, and I will cause My fury to rest. I the LORD have said it.

¹⁸The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, ¹⁹Also, son of man, choose yourself two ways that the sword of the king of Babylon may come. Both of them shall come forth out of one land. And choose a place, choose it at the head of the highway to the city. ²⁰Choose a way that the sword may enter into Rāb'-bāh of the Ammonites and into Judah, into fortified Jerusalem. ²¹For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two highways, to ask of images. He made his arrows bright; he asked of images; he looked in the liver. ²²At his right hand was the divining for Jerusalem, to choose captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to choose battering rams against the gates, to cast a siege mound, and to build a fort. ²³And it shall be unto them as a false divining in their sight, to those who have sworn oaths. But He will call iniquity to memory, that they may be taken. ²⁴Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered so that your sins are revealed in all your doings; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand.

²⁵And you, ungodly, wicked king of Israel, whose day has come when iniquity shall have an end, ²⁶Thus says the Lord GOD: Remove the diadem, and take off the crown. This shall not be as it was. Lift up the low one, and put down the high one. ²⁷I will overturn, overturn, overturn it. And this shall never again be until the coming of Him whose is the right. And I will give it to Him.

²⁸And, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites and concerning their shame. Even say: The sword, the sword is drawn, polished to flash like lightning and to destroy — ²⁹while they see false visions for you, while they divine a lie to you, to bring you upon the necks of those who are slain, of the wicked whose day has come when iniquity shall have an end. ³⁰Shall I cause it to return into its sheath? I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your birth. ³¹And I will pour out My fury upon you; I will blow the fire of My wrath against you, and deliver you into the hands of beastly men, able to destroy. ³²You shall be as fuel for the fire. Your blood shall be in the midst of the land. You shall be remembered no more; for I the LORD have spoken it.

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Now, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Yes, you shall make her know all her abominations. ³Then say, Thus says the Lord GOD: The city sheds blood in the midst of it that her time may come, and makes idols against herself to defile herself. ⁴You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed; and you have defiled yourself in your idols which you have made. And you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the heathen, and a mocking to all countries. ⁵Those who are near and those who are far from you shall mock against you, O defiled of name and troubled one. ⁶Behold, the princes of Israel, every one according to his might, has been in you to shed blood. ⁷In you they have despised father and mother. In the midst of you they have dealt with the stranger by cruelty. In you they have troubled the fatherless and the widow. ⁸You have despised My holy things, and have profaned My sabbaths. ⁹In you are men who carry tales to shed blood; and in you they eat upon the mountains; in the midst of you they commit fôr-nî-câ'-tion. ¹⁰In you they have discovered their fathers' nakedness; in you they have humbled her who was set apart because of uncleanness. ¹¹And one has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another had wickedly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. ¹²In you they have taken gifts to shed blood. You have taken usury and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by cruelty, and have forgotten Me, says the Lord GOD.

¹³Behold, therefore I have beaten My hand on My thigh at your unjust gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. ¹⁴Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the day that I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken it and will do it. ¹⁵And I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you in the countries, and will destroy your uncleanness out of you. ¹⁶And you shall take your inheritance in yourself in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

¹⁷And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the middle of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem. ²⁰As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it to melt it, so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you. ²¹Yes, I will gather you and blow upon you in the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in the middle of it. ²²As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you shall be melted in the middle of it; and you shall know that I the LORD have poured out My fury upon you.

²³And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁴Son of man, say to her: You are the land that is not cleansed nor rained upon in the day of fury. ²⁵A plot by her prophets is in her midst, like a roaring lion tearing the prey. They have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they multiplied her many widows in the midst of her. ²⁶Her priests have broken My law and have defiled My holy things. They have put no difference between the holy and the common, neither have they shown difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from My sabbaths, and I am defiled among them. ²⁷Her princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood and to destroy souls, to get unjust gain. ²⁸And her prophets have daubed themselves with whitewash, seeing vanity and divining lies to them, saying, Thus says the Lord GOD – when the LORD has not spoken. ²⁹The people of the land have used cruelty and practiced robbery, and they have troubled the poor and needy. Yea, they have crushed the stranger without right. ³⁰And I sought for a man among them who should make up the wall for the land, and stand in the break before me, that I should not destroy it. But I did not find one. ³¹Therefore I have poured out My fury upon them. I have burned them up with the fire of My wrath. I have given them their own way upon their heads, says the Lord GOD.

¹The word of the LORD came again to me, ²Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. ³And they committed fôr-nî-câ'-tions in Egypt; they committed fôr-nî-câ'-tions in their youth. There their breasts were handled, and there they bruised their virgin breasts. ⁴And the names of the them were Ā-hō'-lāh, the elder, and Ā-hōl'-î-bāh, her sister. And they were Mine, and they bore sons and daughters. These were their names: Sā-mâr'-î-ā is Ā-hō'-lāh, and Jerusalem is Ā-hōl'-î-bāh. ⁵And Ā-hō'-lāh played the harlot when she was Mine. And she worshipped her lovers, the Assyrians her neighbors, ⁶*who were* clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses. ⁷So she committed her adulteries with them, with all those who were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all those she adored. She defiled herself with all their idols. ⁸Neither did she leave her fôr-nî-câ'-tions which she brought from Egypt. For in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised her virgin breasts, and poured their fôr-nî-câ'-tion upon her. ⁹Therefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians whom she adored. ¹⁰These uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters and killed her with the sword. And she became famous among women, for they had executed judgment upon her. ¹¹And when her sister Ā-hôl'-î-bâh saw this, she was more corrupt in her lust than she had been, and her fôr-nî-câ'-tions were beyond the fôr-nî-câ'-tions of her sister. ¹²She worshipped the Assyrians her neighbors, captains and rulers clothed most perfectly, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men. ¹³Then I saw that she was defiled, that they both took one way ¹⁴and that she multiplied her fôr-nî-câ'-tions. For when she saw men carved upon the wall — the images of the Châl-dē'-āns painted with vēr-mil-ion, ¹⁵clothed with girdles upon their loins, with flowing turbans upon their heads, all of them looking like princes, according to the custom of the Babylonians of Châl-dē'-ā, the land of their birth — ¹⁶and when she saw them with her eyes, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them into Châl-dē'-ā. ¹⁷And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their fornications. And she was defiled with them, and her mind was torn away from them. ¹⁸So she uncovered her lustful desires and uncovered her nakedness. Then My mind was broken off from her just as My mind was broken off from her sister. ¹⁹Yet she multiplied her fôr-nî-câ'-tions in calling to memory the days of her youth in which she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. ²⁰For she lusted after her lovers, whose flesh is like the flesh of asses and whose issue is like the issue of horses. ²¹So you looked for the wickedness of your youth, when the Egyptians bruised your breasts, for the sake of the breasts of your youth.

²²Therefore, O Ā-hôl'-î-bâh, thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will raise up against you your lovers from whom your mind is torn away; and I will bring them against you on every side — ²³the Babylonians, and all the Châl-dē'-āns, Pē'-kōd, and Shō'-ā, and Kō'-ā, and all the Assyrians with them — all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great and famous lords, all of them riding upon horses. ²⁴And they shall come against you with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people who shall set against you buckler and shield and helmet all around. And I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. ²⁵And I will set My jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury. They shall take away your nose and your ears, and the rest of you shall fall by the sword. They shall take away your sons and your daughters, and the rest of you shall be devoured by the fire. ²⁶They shall also strip you out of your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels. ²⁷So I will make your wickedness to cease from you, even your fôr-nî-câ'-tion from the land of Egypt, so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them nor remember Egypt any more. ²⁸For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those from whom your mind is torn away. ²⁹And they shall deal with you hatefully, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare. And the nakedness of your fôr-nî-câ'-tions shall be uncovered, both your wickedness and your fôr-nî-câ'-tions. ³⁰I will do these things to you because you have gone lusting after the heathen and because you are defiled with their idols. ³¹You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand. ³²Thus says the Lord GOD: You shall drink of your sister's cup deep and large; you shall be laughed to scorn and mocked; for it holds much. ³³You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of dumbness and shame, with the cup of your sister Sâ-mâr'-î-ã. ³⁴You shall even drink it and empty it. And you shall break the pieces of it and tear out your own breasts. For I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. ³⁵Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, therefore bear also your wickedness and your fôr-nî-câ'-tions.

³⁶Moreover the LORD said to me: Son of man, will you judge Ā-hô'-lâh and Ā-hôl'-i-bâh? Yes, declare to them their abominations, ³⁷that they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands. And they have committed adultery with their idols and have also caused their sons whom they bore to Me to pass through the fire for them, to destroy them. ³⁸Moreover they have done this to Me: They have defiled My sanctuary in the same day, and have defiled My sabbaths. ³⁹For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came — the same day — into My sanctuary to defile it. And lo, so they have done in the midst of My house. ⁴⁰And they have even sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent. And lo, they came. You washed yourself for them, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments, ⁴¹and sat upon a stately bed with a table prepared before it, upon which you set My incense and My oil. ⁴²And the voice of a careless multitude was with her; and with the men of the common sort were brought Sâ-bê'-ânš from the wilderness, who put bracelets upon their hands and beautiful crowns upon their heads. ⁴³Then I said to her who was old in adulteries, Will they now commit fôr-nî-câ'-tions with her, and she with them? ⁴⁰Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman who plays the harlot; so they went in unto Ā-hô'-lâh and unto Ā-hôl'-i-bâh, the wicked women.

⁴⁵And the righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. ⁴⁶For thus says the Lord GOD: I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and stripped. ⁴⁷And the company shall stone them with stones and point them out with their swords. They shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. ⁴⁸So I will cause wickedness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to go after your wickedness. ⁴⁹And they shall put your wickedness upon you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols. And you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

¹Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, write the name of the day, even of this same day. The king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day. ³And speak a parable unto the rebellious house, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Set on a pot; set it on, and also pour water into it. ⁴Gather the pieces of it into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder. Fill it with the choice bones. ⁵Take the choice of the flock, and also burn the bones under it; make it boil high, and let them boil its bones in it.

⁶Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is in it, and whose scum has not gone out of it! Bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it. ⁷For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock. She did not pour it upon the ground, to cover it with dust, ⁸that it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance. I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered. ⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile great for fire. ¹⁰Heap on wood, kindle the fire, burn up the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned. ¹¹Then set it empty upon its coals, so that its brass may be hot and may burn, and that its uncleanness may be melted in it, that the scum of it may be gone. ¹²She has wearied herself with lies, and her great scum did not go forth out of her. Her scum shall be in the fire. ¹³In your uncleanness is wickedness. Because I have purged you and you were not purged, you shall not be purged from your uncleanness any more, until I have caused My fury to rest upon you. ¹⁴I the LORD have spoken it. It shall come to pass, and I will do it. I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent. According to your ways, and according to your doings, they shall judge you, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁶Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke. Yet neither shall you mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. ¹⁷Be silent; make no mourning for the dead; tie your bonnet on your head, and put your shoes upon your feet, and do not cover your lips, and do not eat the bread of men. ¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning. And in the evening my wife died, and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

¹⁹And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things mean to us, that you do so? ²⁰Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹Speak to the house of Israel. Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will defile My sanctuary, the glory of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities. And your sons and your daughters whom you have left shall fall by the sword. ²²And you shall do as I have done. You shall not cover your lips nor eat the bread of men. ²³And your bonnets shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet. You shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away for your iniquities and mourn to one another. ²⁴Thus Ē-zēk'-iēl is a sign to you. According to all that he has done, you shall do. And when this comes, you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. ²⁵Also, son of man, in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that upon which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, ²⁶*shall it not be that* he who escapes in that day shall come to you to cause you to hear it with your ears? ²⁷In that day your mouth shall be open to him who has escaped, and you shall speak and be no more dumb. And you shall be a sign to them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them. ³And say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD: Because you said, Aha, against My sanctuary when it was defiled, and against the land of Israel when it was ruined, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity – ⁴therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the men of the east for a possession. And they shall set their palaces in you and make their dwellings in you. They shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. ⁵And I will make Rāb'-bāh a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a crouching-place for flocks. And you shall know that I am the LORD. ⁶For thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all your spite against the land of Israel – ⁷behold, therefore I will stretch out My hand upon you, and will deliver you as a prize to the nations. And I will cut you off from the people, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries. I will destroy you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁸Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Moab and Sē'-īr say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations – ⁹therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his borders, the glory of the country, even Bēth—jēsh'—ī—mōth, Bā'—āl—mē'—on, and Kīr—ī—ā—thā'—īm, ¹⁰unto the men of the east with the Ammonites. And I will give them in possession so that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹²Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Ē'-dom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended and revenged himself upon them — ¹³therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will also stretch out My hand upon Ē'-dom, and will cut man and beast off from it; and I will make it a waste from Tē'-mān, and those of Dē'-dān shall fall by the sword. ¹⁴And I will lay My vengeance upon Ē'-dom by the hand of My people Israel. And they shall do in Ē'-dom according to My anger and according to My fury. And they shall know My vengeance, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the Philistines have taken vengeance; yes, have taken vengeance with a spiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred, ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will stretch out My hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Chēr'—ē—thīms, and will destroy the rest of the sea coast. ¹⁷And I will execute great vengeance upon them with angry rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay My vengeance upon them.

CHAPTER 26

¹And in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she who was the gates of the people is broken — she has turned to me — Now that she is laid waste I shall be filled. ³Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. ⁴And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock. ⁵It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea. For I have spoken, says the Lord GOD. And it shall become a spoil to the nations. ⁶And her daughters who are in the field shall be killed by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

⁷For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring Nēb—ū—chād—nēz'—zār king of Babylon upon Tyre, a king of kings from the north, with horses and with chariots and with horsemen and with companies and many people. ⁸He shall kill your daughters with the sword in the field. And he shall make a fort against you, and cast a siege mound against you, and lift up the shield against you. ⁹And he shall set engines of war against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. ¹⁰Because of his many horses, their dust shall cover you. Your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which a break is made. ¹¹With the hoofs of his horses he shall trample all your streets. He shall kill your people by the sword, and your strong troops shall go down to the ground. ¹²And they shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise. And they shall break down your walls and destroy your desirable houses. And they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the water. ¹³And I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be heard no more. ¹⁴And I will make you like the top of a rock. You shall be a place to spread nets upon; you shall be built no more; for I the LORD have spoken it, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: Shall not the isles shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes and put off their embroidered garments. They shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground and shall tremble at every moment, and be amazed at you. ¹⁷And they shall take up a mourning for you, and say to you, How you are destroyed! you who lived by the sea, the famous city which was strong in the sea, she and her people who caused their terror to be on all who lived in it! ¹⁸Now the isles shall tremble in the day of your fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at your end. ¹⁹For thus says the Lord GOD: When I shall make you a ruined city, like the cities that have no people — when I shall bring up the deep upon you, and great waters shall cover you — ²⁰when I shall bring you down with those who go down into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set you in the low parts of the earth, in places ruined in days of old, with those who go down to the pit, so that you have no people — and when I shall set glory in the land of the living — ²¹I will make you a terror, and you shall be no more. Though you are sought for, yet you shall never be found again, says the Lord GOD.

¹The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Now, son of man, take up a mourning for Tyre. ³And say to Tyre, O you who are placed at the entrance of the sea, a merchant of the people for many isles, thus says the Lord GOD: O Tyre, you have said, I am of perfect beauty. ⁴Your borders are in the midst of the seas, your builders have perfected your beauty. ⁵They have made all your ship boards of fir trees of Sē'-nīr; they have taken cedars from Lēb'-ā-non to make masts for you. ⁶They have made the oaks of Bā'-shān your oars; the company of the Ash'-ū-rītes have made your benches of ivory from the isles of Chīt'-tīm. ⁷Fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was what you spread forth to be your sail; blue and purple from the isles of Ē-lī'-shāh was what covered you. ⁸The people of Sī'-dōn and Ār'-vād were your seamen. Your wise men, O Tyre, who were in you, were your pilots. ⁹The elders of Gē'-bāl and her wise men were your calkers in you. All the ships of the sea with their seamen were in you to do business with your merchandise. ¹⁰Those of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in your army, your men of war. They hung the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your glory. ¹¹The men of Ār'-vād were with your army upon your walls all around, and the Gām'-mā-dīms were in your towers. They hung their shields upon your walls all around; they have made your beauty perfect.

¹²Tār'-shīsh was your merchant because of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in your fairs. ¹³Jā'-vān, Tū'-bāl, and Mē'-shēch were your merchants. They traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in your markets. ¹⁴Those of the house of Tō-gār'-māh traded in your fairs with horses and horsemen and mules. ¹⁵The men of Dē'-dān were your merchants; many isles took the merchandise of your hand. They brought you horns of ivory and ebony for a present. ¹⁶Syria was your merchant because of the multitude of your works. They did business in your fairs with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate. ¹⁷Judah and the land of Israel were your merchants. They traded in your market wheat from Mīn'-nīth and Pān'-nāg, and honey, and oil, and balm. ¹⁸Damascus was your merchant in the multitude of your works, for the multitude of all riches, in the wine of Hēl'-bōn, and white wool. ¹⁹Dan and Jā'-vān also, going here and there, traded in your fairs; bright iron, cās'-sī-ā, and cāl'-ā-mūs were in your market. ²⁰Dē'-dān was your merchant in precious clothes for chariots. ²¹Arabia, and all the princes of Kē'-dār traded with you in lambs, and rams, and goats. In these they were your merchants. ²²The merchants of Shē'-bā and Rā'-ā-māh were your merchants. They traded in your fairs with all the best spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. ²³Hār'-ān, and Cān'-nēh, and Ē'-dēn, the merchants of Shē'-bā, Āssh'-ur, and Chīl'-mād were your merchants. ²⁴These were your merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes and embroidered work, and rich clothing in chests tied with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. ²⁵The ships of Tār'-shīsh sang of you in your market; and you were filled and made very glorious in the midst of the sea.

²⁶Your rowers have brought you into great waters; the east wind has broken you in the midst of the sea. ²⁷Your riches, and your fairs, your merchandise, your seamen, and your pilots, your calkers, and the traders of your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, and all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the midst of the sea in the day of your ruin. ²⁸The waves shall shake at the sound of the cry of your pilots. ²⁹And all who handle the oar, the mariners, all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships. They shall stand upon the land, ³⁰and shall cause their voice to be heard against you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall throw dust upon their heads. They shall wallow themselves in the ashes. ³¹And they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe themselves with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. ³²And in their wailing they shall take up a weeping for you and weep over you, saying, What city is like Tyre, like the city destroyed in the midst of the sea? ³³When your goods went forth out of the seas, you filled many people. You made the kings of the earth rich with the multitude of your riches and of your goods. ³⁴In the time when you shall be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your goods and all your company in the midst of you shall fall. ³⁵All the people of the isles shall be amazed at you, and their kings shall be grievously afraid. Their faces shall be troubled. ³⁶The merchants among the people shall hiss at you; you shall be a terror and shall never be any more.

CHAPTER 28

¹The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre. Thus says the Lord GOD: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas — yet you are a man and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God. ³Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from you! ⁴With your wisdom and with your understanding you have gotten riches for yourselves, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures. ⁵By your great wisdom and by your trade you have multiplied your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches. ⁶Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, ⁷behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon you, the terrible of the nations. And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. ⁸They shall bring you down to the pit, and you shall die the deaths of those who are slain in the midst of the seas. ⁹Will you yet say before him who kills you, I am God? But you shall be a man, and no god, in the hand of him who kills you. ¹⁰You shall die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers. For I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

¹¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹²Son of man, take up a mourning upon the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord GOD: You fill up the measure, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. ¹³You have been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, the sār'-dī-ūs, topaz, and the diamond, the bēryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sāp'-phīre, the emerald, and the cār'-būn-cle, and gold. The workmanship of your tabrets and of your pipes was prepared in you in the day that you were created. ¹⁴You are the anointed cherub that covers, and I have chosen you so. You were upon the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁵You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until iniquity was found in you. ¹⁶By the multitude of your goods they have filled your midst with violence, and you have sinned. Therefore I will cast you out of the mountain of God as defiled, and I will destroy you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁷Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have spoiled your wisdom because of your brightness. I will cast you to the ground; I will lay you before kings, that they may behold you. ¹⁸You have defiled your holy places by the multitude of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your trade. Therefore I will bring forth a fire from your midst; it shall devour you, and I will bring you to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all those who behold you. ¹⁹All those among the people who know you shall be astonished at you; you shall be a terror, and never shall you be any more.

²⁰Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹Son of man, set your face against Sī'-dōn, and prophesy against it. ²²And say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Sī'-dōn, and I will be glorified in the midst of you. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have executed judgments in her and have revealed My holiness in her. ²³For I will send a plague into her, and blood into her streets. And the wounded shall be judged in her midst by the sword upon her on every side. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

²⁴And the house of Israel shall never again have a pricking brier or a wounding thorn from any of those who are all around them, who despised them. And they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. ²⁵Thus says the Lord GOD: When I have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and have been sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall dwell in their land that I have given to My servant Jacob. ²⁶And they shall dwell safely in it, and shall build houses and plant vineyards. Yea, they shall dwell safely when I have executed judgments upon all those who despise them all around them — and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

¹In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. ³Speak and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon who lies in the midst of his rivers, who has said, My river is my own, and I have made it for myself. ⁴But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales, and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, and all the fish of your rivers shall stick to your scales. ⁵And I will leave you thrown into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You shall fall upon the open fields; you shall not be brought together nor gathered. I have given you for food to the beasts of the field and to the bird of the sky. ⁶And all the people of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke and tore all their shoulder. And when they leaned upon you, you broke and made all their loins come to a stand.

⁸Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring a sword upon you, and cut off man and beast out of you. ⁹And the land of Egypt shall be a desert and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD, because he has said, The river is mine, and I have made it. ¹⁰Behold, therefore I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt a complete waste and ruin, from Miḡ'-dōl to Sy-ē'-nē, even to the border of Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā. ¹¹No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall anyone live in it for forty years. ¹²And I will make the land of Egypt a ruin in the midst of the countries that are wasted; and her cities shall be deserted forty years among the cities that are laid waste. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will scatter them through the countries.

¹³Yet thus says the Lord GOD: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the people where they were scattered. ¹⁴And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return to the land of Pāth'-rōs, into their homeland. And they shall be a low kingdom there. ¹⁵It shall be the lowest of the kingdoms, and shall no more exalt itself above the nations. For I will make them so few, that they shall no more rule over the nations. ¹⁶And it shall never again be the hope of the house of Israel, which brings their iniquity to memory when they shall look after them. But they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

¹⁷And in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled. Yet neither he nor his army had any pay for Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon. And he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. ²⁰I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor with which he served against it, because they worked for Me, says the Lord GOD.

²¹In that day I will cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in the midst of them. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 30

¹The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Howl, Woe is the day! ³For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day. It shall be the time of the nations. ⁴And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. ⁵Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā, and Līb'-y-ā, and Lyd'-ī-ā, and all the mixed people, and Chüb, and the men of the land who are in covenant with them shall fall with them by the sword. ⁶Thus says the LORD: Those who uphold Egypt shall also fall, and the pride of her power shall come down. From Mig'-döl to Sÿ-ē'-nē they shall fall in it by the sword, says the Lord GOD. ⁷And they shall be ruined in the midst of the countries that are wasted, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. ⁸And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt and when all her helpers shall be destroyed. ⁹In that day messengers shall go forth from Me in ships to make the careless Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt; for lo, it is coming. ¹⁰Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon. ¹¹He and his people with them, the fearful of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land. And they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. ¹²And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked. And I will make the land waste, and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers. I the LORD have spoken it. ¹³Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Nōph. And there shall no more be a prince of the land in Egypt; and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. ¹⁴And I will make Pāth'-rōs a ruin, and will set fire in Zō'-ān, and will do judgments in No. ¹⁵And I will pour My fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt. And I will cut off the multitude of No. ¹⁶And I will set fire in Egypt; Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be torn in pieces, and Nōph shall have distresses daily. ¹⁷The young men of Ā'-vën and of Pī-bē'-sēth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity. ¹⁸At Tē-hāph'-nē-hēs also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break the yokes of Egypt there. And the pride of her strength shall cease in her; as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. ¹⁹Thus I will do judgments in Egypt; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

²⁰And in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²¹Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a bandage to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword. ²²Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong one and the broken one. And I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ²³And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will scatter them through the countries. ²⁴And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put My sword in his hand. But I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of one who is stabbed. ²⁵But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it upon the land of Egypt. ²⁶And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and scatter them among the countries. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 31

¹And in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude: Whom are you like in your greatness? ³Behold, the Assyrian was like a cedar in Lēb'-ā-non, with fair branches and with a forest-like shade, and of great height. And his top was among the thick boughs. ⁴The waters made him great; the deep set him up on high with her rivers running all around his plants, and sent out her little rivers to all the trees of the field. ⁵Therefore his height was lifted up above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth. ⁶All the birds of the sky made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches all the beasts of the field brought forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations. ⁷So he was beautiful in his greatness, in the length of his branches. For his root was by great waters. ⁸The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him; the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches. Nor was any tree in the garden of God like him in his beauty. ⁹I have made him beautiful by the multitude of his branches, so that all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God were jealous of him.

¹⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have lifted yourself up in height, and he has shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; ¹¹I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations. He shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. ¹²And strangers, the fearful ones of the nations, have cut him off and have left him. Upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches have fallen, and his boughs have been broken by all the rivers of the land. And all the people of the earth have gone down from his shadow, and have left him. ¹³Upon his ruin shall all the birds of the sky remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches, ¹⁴to the end that none of all the trees by the waters should lift themselves up because of their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs. Neither should their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water. For they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with those who go down to the pit. ¹⁵Thus says the Lord GOD: In the day when he went down to the grave, I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him, and I held back its floods, and the great waters were held back. And I caused Lēb'-ā-non to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted because of him. ¹⁶I made the nations shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with those who go down into the pit. And all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lēb'-ā-non, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the lower parts of the earth. ¹⁷They also went down into hell with him to those who are slain with the sword, and those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the midst of the nations.

¹⁸So to whom are you like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the lower parts of the earth. You shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

¹And in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, take up a mourning for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him, You are like a young lion of the nations, and you are like a crocodile in the waters. And you came forth with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. ³Thus says the Lord GOD: I will therefore spread out My net over you with a company of many people; and they shall bring you up in My net. ⁴Then I will leave you upon the land; I will cast you forth upon the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to remain upon you, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with you. ⁵And I will lay your flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. ⁶I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of you. ⁷And when I shall put you out, I will cover the heaven and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. ⁸I will make all the bright lights of heaven dark over you, and will set darkness upon your land, says the Lord GOD. ⁹I will also trouble the hearts of many people, when I shall bring your ruin among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. ¹⁰Yea, I will make many people amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish My sword before them — and they shall tremble at every moment, each man for his own life, in the day of your fall.

¹¹For thus says the Lord GOD: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you. ¹²By the swords of the mighty, I will cause your multitudes to fall, the fearful of the nations, all of them. And they shall spoil the pride of Egypt, and all the multitude of it shall be destroyed. ¹³I will also destroy all the beasts of it from beside the great waters. Neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor shall the hoofs of beasts trouble them. ¹⁴Then I will make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁵When I shall make the land of Egypt a ruin, and the country shall be stripped of its fullness — when I shall strike all those who dwell in it — then they shall know that I am the LORD. ¹⁶This is the mourning with which they shall mourn her. The daughters of the nations shall mourn her; they shall mourn for her, even for Egypt and for all her multitude, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁷It was also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt and throw them down, her and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. ¹⁹Whom do you excel in beauty? Go down and be laid with the uncircumcised. ²⁰They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword; she is delivered to the sword; draw her and all her multitudes. ²¹The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with those who help him. They have gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword. ²²Āssh'ūr is there and all her company. His graves are around him; all of them are slain, fallen by the sword; ²³*their* graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is all around her grave. All of them are slain; fallen by the sword, those who caused terror in the land of the living. ²⁴There is Ē'-lām and her multitude all around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living. Yet they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. ²⁵They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude. Her graves are all around him; all of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword; though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. He is put into the midst of those who are slain.

²⁶There is Mē'-shēch, Tū'-bāl, and all her multitude. Her graves are all around him. All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living. ²⁷And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to hell with their weapons of war. And they have laid their swords under their heads, but their sins shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. ²⁸Yea, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain with the sword. ²⁹There is Ē'-dom, her kings, and all her princes, who with their might are laid by those who were slain by the sword. They shall lie with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the pit. ³⁰There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Si-dō'-nī-āns, who have gone down with the slain in their terror. They are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. ³¹Pharaoh shall see them and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army killed by the sword, says the Lord GOD. ³²For I have caused My terror to be in the land of the living. And he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

¹Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them: When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their borders and set him for their watchman — ³if, when he sees the sword come upon the land, he blows the trumpet and warns the people, ⁴then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, if the sword does come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the trumpet and did not take warning. His blood shall be upon himself. But he who takes warning shall deliver his soul. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword coming, and does not blow the trumpet and the people are not warned — if the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity. But I will require his blood at the watchman's hand.

⁷So, O son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore you shall hear the word in My mouth, and warn them from Me. ⁸When I say to the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die; if you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity. But I will require his blood at your hand. ⁹Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity. But you have delivered your soul. ¹⁰Therefore, O son of man, speak to the house of Israel. So you have spoken, saying, When our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we are wasting away in them, how then shall we live? ¹¹Say to them: As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel? ¹²Therefore, son of man, say to the children of your people: The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression. As for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall by it in the day he turns from his wickedness. Neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sins. ¹³When I shall say to the righteous that he shall surely live — if he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered — but for his iniquity that he has committed, he shall die for it. ¹⁴Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die — if he turns from his sin and does that which is lawful and right; ¹⁵*if* the wicked gives back the pledge, gives again what he had robbed, walks in the statutes of life without committing iniquity, then he shall surely live; he shall not die. ¹⁶None of his sins that he has committed shall be called to his memory. He has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

¹⁷Yet the children of your people say, The way of the Lord is not equal. But as for them, their way is not equal. ¹⁸When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall even die by it. ¹⁹But if the wicked turns from his wickedness and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live by it. ²⁰Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, I will judge you, each one according to his ways.

²¹And in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city is stricken. ²²Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, before he who had escaped came. And He had opened my mouth until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was dumb no more. ²³Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²⁴Son of man, those who live in those wastes of the land of Israel are speaking, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land. But we are many; the land is given to us for inheritance. ²⁵Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood; and shall you possess the land? ²⁶You stand upon your sword, you work abomination, each one of you defiling his neighbor's wife. And shall you possess the land? ²⁷Speak to them in this way, Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and I will give him who is in the open field to the beasts to be eaten up, and those who are in the forts and in the caves shall die of the plague. ²⁸For I have made the land a ruin, and the pride of her strength has ceased. And the mountains of Israel shall be a waste, so that none shall pass through. ²⁹Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a ruin because of all their abominations which they have committed.

³⁰Also, son of man, the children of your people are still talking about you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speaking to one another, each one to his brother, saying, I pray you, come and hear what is the word which comes forth from the LORD. ³¹And they come to you as the people comes, and they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words. But they will not do them. For with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their unjust gain. ³²And lo, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument — for they hear your words, but they do not do them. ³³And when this happens — lo, it will come — then they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? ³You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you kill those who are fed, but you do not feed the flock. ⁴You have not made the weak strong, nor have you healed the sick, nor have you bound up the broken. You have not brought again that which was driven away, nor have you sought that which was lost — but you have ruled them with force and with cruelty. ⁵And they were scattered because there is no shepherd. And they became food to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered. ⁶My sheep wandered through all the mountains and upon every high hill. Yea, My flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none searched or sought after them.

⁷Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ⁸As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely My flock became a prey, and My flock became food to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd. Neither did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock — ⁹therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. ¹⁰Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock. Neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.

¹¹For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, even I, will both search My sheep and seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his scattered sheep, so I will seek out My sheep and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. ¹³And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land and feed them upon the mountain of Israel by the rivers, and in all the places of the country where people live. ¹⁴I will feed them in a good pasture, and their fold shall be upon the high mountains of Israel. There they shall lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture they shall feed upon the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I will feed My flock, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick. But I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. ¹⁷And as for you, O My flock, says the Lord GOD: Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats. ¹⁸*Does it seem* a small thing to you to have eaten up the good pasture, but you must trample down the rest of your pastures with your feet? And to have drunk of the deep waters, but you must foul the rest with your feet? ¹⁹And as for My flock, they eat that which you have trampled with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.

²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: Behold I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. ²¹Because you have thrust with side and with shoulder, and have pushed all the sick with your horns until you have scattered them abroad, ²²therefore I will save My flock, and they shall no more be a prey. And I will judge between cattle and cattle. ²³And I will set up one Shepherd over them, and He shall feed them, even My servant David. He shall feed them, and He shall be their Shepherd. ²⁴And I the LORD will be their God, and My servant David a prince among them. I the LORD have spoken it. ²⁵And I will make a covenant of peace with them, and will send the evil beasts out of the land. And they shall dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. ²⁶And I will make them, and the places around My hill, a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season. There shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. And they shall be safe in their land, and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke and have delivered them out of the hands of those who used them as slaves. ²⁸And no more shall they be a prey to the nations, neither shall the beast of the land eat them. But they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid. ²⁹And I will raise up for them a famous Plant, and they shall never again be destroyed with hunger in the land, neither shall they bear the shame of the nations any more. ³⁰So they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people, says the Lord GOD. ³¹And you My flock, the flock of My pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord GOD.

¹Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against Mount Sē'-ir and prophesy against it. ³And say to it, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, O Mount Sē'-ir, I am against you, and I will stretch out My hand against you, and I will make you a ruin. ⁴I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be ruined, and you shall know that I am the LORD. ⁵Because you have had a never-ending hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that iniquity had an end, ⁶therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will yield you up to blood, and blood shall pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, even blood shall pursue you. ⁷So I will make Mount Sē'-ir a ruin, and cut off from it him who passes out and him who returns. ⁸And I will fill his mountains with his dead. In your hills, and in your valleys, and in all your rivers, those who are slain with the sword shall fall. ⁹I will make you ruins forever, and your cities shall not return. And you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹⁰Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we shall possess it — yet the LORD was there — ¹¹therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will even do according to your anger and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them. And I will make Myself known among them when I have judged you. ¹²And you shall know that I am the LORD and that I have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid waste, they are given to us for food. ¹³So with your mouth you have boasted against Me, and have multiplied your words against Me. I have heard them. ¹⁴Thus says the Lord GOD: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you a ruin. ¹⁵As you rejoiced at the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was a ruin, so I will do to you. You shall be a ruin, O Mount Sē'-ir and all Ī-dū-mē'-ā, even all of it. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 36

¹Also, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. ²Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy has said against you, Aha! Even the old high places have become ours to possess — ³therefore prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they have wasted you and have panted after you on every side, so that you might be a possession to the rest of the nations, and you have been taken up into the lips of talkers and the gossip of the people — ⁴therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the deserted wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and a mockery to the rest of the nations that are all around. ⁵Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Surely in the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all I-dū-mē'-ā, who have given My land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with scornful minds, that its casting out might be for a prey. ⁶Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and in My fury, because you have borne the shame of the nations. ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I have lifted up My hand – surely the nations that are around you shall bear their shame.

⁸But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel – for they have drawn near to come. ⁹For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. ¹⁰And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it. And the cities shall have people, and the wastes shall be built. ¹¹And I will multiply man and beast upon you, and they shall increase and bring fruit. And I will settle you as in your old estates, and will do better to you than at your beginnings. And you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹²Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even My people Israel. And they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall never again make them childless from now on. ¹³Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they say to you, You are a devourer of men, and you make your nations childless – ¹⁴therefore you shall devour men no more, neither shall you make your nations childless any more, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁵Neither will I cause men to hear the shame of the nations in you any more, nor shall you bear the shame of the people any more, nor shall you cause your nations to fall any more, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁶Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying. ¹⁷Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings. Their way was like the uncleanness of a woman set apart before Me. ¹⁸Therefore I poured My fury upon them because of the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols with which they had defiled it. ¹⁹And I scattered them among the nations, and they were scattered through the countries. I judged them according to their way and according to their doings. ²⁰And when they entered into the nations where they went, they defiled My holy name when they said of them, These are the people of the LORD, and have gone forth out of His land.

²¹But I had pity for My holy name, which the house of Israel had defiled among the nations where they went. ²²Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: I do not do this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for My holy name's sake, which you have defiled among the nations where you went. ²³And I will sanctify My great name, which was defiled among the nations, which you have defiled in their midst. And the nations shall know that I am the LORD, says the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. ²⁴For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all countries, and will gather you into your own land.

²⁵Then I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean. I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from your idols. ²⁶I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷And I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you shall keep My judgments and do them. ²⁸And you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. And you shall be My people, and I will be your God. ²⁹I will also save you from all your uncleannesses, and I will call for the grain, and will increase it, and will lay no famine upon you. ³⁰And I will multiply the fruits of the tree and the increase of the field, so that you shall never again receive the curse of famine among the heathen. ³¹Then you shall remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall despise yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. ³²I do not do this for your sakes, says the Lord GOD, be it known to you.

Be ashamed and blush for your own ways, O house of Israel. ³³Thus says the Lord GOD: In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be built. ³⁴And the waste land shall be tilled, instead of laying waste in the sight of all who passed by. ³⁵And they shall say, This land that was wasted has become like the garden of Eden. And the waste and deserted and ruined cities now are walled and have people in them. ³⁶Then the nations that are left all around you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places and plant that which was wasted. I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. ³⁷Thus says the Lord GOD: I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them. I will increase them with men like a flock. ³⁸As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out of the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of a valley which was full of bones, ²and caused me to pass by them all around. And behold, there were very many in the open valley. And lo, they were very dry. ³And he said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, Thou knowest. ⁴Again he said to me, Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. ⁵Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. ⁶And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live. And you shall know that I am the LORD. ⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking! And the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸And I watched. Behold! the sinews and the flesh came upon them, and the skin covered them above. But there was no breath in them. ⁹Then He said to me, Prophecy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these dead ones so that they may live. ¹⁰So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

¹¹Then He said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, Our bones are dried and our hope is lost — we are cut off by ourselves. ¹²Therefore prophesy and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up out of your graves, and will bring you into the land of Israel. ¹³And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and have brought you up out of your graves. ¹⁴And I shall put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I the LORD have spoken and have done it, says the LORD.

¹⁵The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, ¹⁶Moreover, son of man, take a stick and write upon it, For Judah and for the children of Israel who are his companions. Then take another stick and write on it, For Joseph, the stick of Ē'-phrā-īm, and for all the house of Israel who are his companions. ¹⁷And join them to one another into one stick. And they shall become one in your hand. ¹⁸And when the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these? ¹⁹Say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ē'-phrā-īm, and the tribes of Israel who are his companions, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and will make them one stick, and they shall be one in My hand.

²⁰And the sticks on which you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. ²¹And say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and will gather them on every side, and will bring them into their own land. ²²And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel, and one king shall be king to them all. And they shall never again be two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all. ²³Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their hateful things, nor with any of their transgressions. But I will save them out of all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. So they shall be My people, and I will be their God. ²⁴And David My servant shall be king over them. And they shall all have one shepherd. They also shall walk in My judgments, and obey My laws, and do them. ²⁵And they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, the land in which your fathers have lived. And they shall dwell in it, even they and their children, and their children's children for ever. And My servant David shall be their prince forever. ²⁶Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them, and multiply them, and will set My sanctuary in the midst of them forevermore. ²⁷Also My tabernacle shall be with them. Yea, I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ²⁸And the nations shall know that I the LORD sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary shall be in the midst of them forevermore.

¹And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face against Gog, the land of Mā'-gōg, the chief prince of Mē'-shēch, and Tū'-bāl, and prophesy against him. ³And say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Mē'-shēch and Tū'-bāl. ⁴And I will turn you back, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all kinds of armor, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords — ⁵Persia, Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā, and Lib'-y-ā with them, all of them with shield and helmet — ⁶Gō'-mēr and all his bands — the house of Tō-gār-māh of the north quarters, and all his bands — and many people with you. ⁷Be prepared, and prepare for yourself, you and all your company that are gathered unto you, and be a guard to them.

⁸After many days you shall be visited. In the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and gathered out of many people. You shall come against the mountains of Israel, which have always been waste. (But they have been brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely, all of them.) ⁹You shall go up, coming up like a storm. You shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you and all your bands, and many people with you. ¹⁰Thus says the Lord GOD: And it shall be in that day that things shall come into your mind, and you shall think an evil thought. ¹¹And you shall say, I will go up to the land of unwallled villages. I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls and having neither bars nor gates, ¹²in order to take a spoil, and in order to take a prey — to turn your hand upon the waste places that now have people in them, and upon the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land. ¹³Shē'-bā and Dē'-dān, and the merchants of Tār'-shīsh, with all their young lions, shall say to you, Have you come to take a spoil? Have you gathered your company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

¹⁴Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, Thus says the Lord GOD: In that day when My people of Israel dwells safely, shall you not know it? ¹⁵And you shall come from your place out of the north parts, you and many people with you, all of them riding upon horses, a great company and a mighty army. ¹⁶And you shall come up against My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It shall be in the last days, and I will bring you against My land, so that the heathen may know Me when I shall be sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes. ¹⁷Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you he of whom I have spoken in old time by My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days many years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸And at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Lord GOD, My fury shall come up in My face. ¹⁹For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel, ²⁰so that the fishes of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at My presence. And the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. ²¹And I will call for a sword against him throughout all My mountains, says the Lord GOD. Each man's sword shall be against his brother. ²²And I will judge him with plagues and with blood. And I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people who are with him, an overflowing rain and great hailstones, fire and brimstone. ²³So I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself. And I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 39

¹Therefore, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Mē'-shēch and Tū'-bāl. ²And I will turn you back, and leave but the sixth part of you. And I will cause you to come up from the north parts, and will bring you upon the mountains of Israel. ³And I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your bands, and the people that is with you. I will give you to the birds of prey of every kind, and to the beasts of the field to be eaten up. ⁵You shall fall upon the open field, for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. ⁶And I will send a fire upon Mā'-gōg, and among those who live carelessly in the isles. And they shall know that I am the LORD. ⁷So I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel. And I will not let them defile My holy name any more. And the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

⁸Behold, it has come and it is done, says the Lord GOD. This is the day of which I have spoken. ⁹And those who live in the cities of Israel shall go forth and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the javelins, and the spears. And they shall burn them with fire seven years, ¹⁰so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests — for they shall burn the weapons for fire. And they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord GOD.

¹¹And in that day I will give to Gog a place of memorial for graves in Israel, the valley of those who pass by on the east of the sea. And it shall stop the noses of those who pass by. And there they shall bury Gog and all his multitude. And they shall call it the valley of Hā'-mōn-gōg. ¹²And the house of Israel shall be seven months burying them, that they may cleanse the land. ¹³Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them. And it shall be a famous date to them, that I should be glorified, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁴And they shall separate men for continual employment, passing through the land to bury those who remain upon the face of the earth, in order to cleanse it, along with those who pass by. After the end of seven months they shall search. ¹⁵And those who pass by, who pass through the land, when any sees a man's-bone, then he shall set up a sign by it, until the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hā'-mōn-gōg. ¹⁶And also the name of the city shall be Hā-mō'-nāh. Thus they shall cleanse the land.

¹⁷And, son of man, Thus says the Lord GOD. Speak to every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field: Gather yourselves and come; gather yourselves on every side to My sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, so that you may eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You shall eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bā'-shān. ¹⁹And you shall eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of My sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. ²⁰So you shall be filled at My table with horses and chariots, with mighty men and with all men of war, says the Lord GOD. ²¹And I will set My glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see My judgments which I have done, and My hand that I have laid upon them. ²²So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

²³And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity. Because they sinned against Me, therefore I hid

My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies. So they all fell by the sword. ²⁴According to their uncleanness and according to their sins I have done to them, and have hidden My face from them. ²⁵Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now I will bring again the captivity of Jacob, and will have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for My holy name — ²⁶after they have borne their shame and all their sins by which they have sinned against Me, when they dwelt safely in their land and none made them afraid. ²⁷When I have brought them again from the people, and have gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations; ²⁸then they shall know that I am the LORD their God who caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen. But I have gathered them to their own land, and have left none of them there any more. ²⁹Neither will I hide My face from them any more, for I have poured out My Spirit upon the house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 40

¹In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was stricken, in the same day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me there. ²In the visions of God He brought me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, upon which there was as it were the frame of a city on the south. ³And He brought me there, and behold, there was a man whose look was like the look of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed. And he stood in the gate. ⁴And the man said to me, Son of man, behold with your eyes and hear with your ears, and set your heart upon all that I shall show you. For you are brought here so that I might show them unto you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel. ⁵And behold, there was a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand was a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and a hand breadth. So he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

⁶Then he came to the gate which looked toward the east, and went up the stairs of it, and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad. And the other threshold, one reed broad. ⁷And each little room was one reed long and one reed broad. And between the little rooms were five cubits. And the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed. ⁸He also measured the porch of the gate inside, one reed. ⁹Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits. And the post of it was two cubits. And the porch of the gate was inward. ¹⁰And the little rooms of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side. The three of them were of one measure; and the posts were of the same size on this side and on that side. ¹¹And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits. The length of the gate was thirteen cubits. ¹²The space also in front of the little rooms was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side. And the little rooms were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side. ¹³Then he measured the gate from the roof of one little room to the roof of another. The breadth was twenty-five cubits, door against door. ¹⁴He also made posts of sixty cubits, even to the post of the court all around the gate. ¹⁵And from the face of the gate of the entrance to the face of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits. ¹⁶And there were narrow windows to the little rooms and to their posts inside the gate all around, and likewise to the porches. And windows were all around inside. And upon each post were palm trees. ¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court, and lo, there were rooms, and a pavement made for the court all around. Thirty rooms were upon the pavement. ¹⁸And the pavement by the side of the gates across from the length of the gates was the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the breadth from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner court outside, a hundred cubits eastward and northward.

²⁰And the gate of the outer court that looked toward the north, he measured its length and its breadth. ²¹And the little rooms of it were three on this side and three on that side. And the posts of it and the porches of it were according to the measure of the first gate. The length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth of it was twenty-five cubits. ²²And their windows, and their porches, and their palm trees, were according to the measure of the gate that looks toward the east. And they went up to it by seven steps; and its porches were before them. ²³And the gate of the inner court was across from the gate toward the north and toward the east. And he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

²⁴After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south. And he measured the posts of it and the porches of it according to these measures. ²⁵And there were windows in it and in the porches of it all around, like those windows. The length was fifty cubits, and the breadth was twenty-five cubits. And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the porches of it were before them. ²⁶And it had palm trees, one on this side and another on that side, upon the posts of it. ²⁷And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south. And he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits. ²⁸And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. And he measured the south gate according to these measures, ²⁹and its little rooms and its posts and its porches according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in the porches of it all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits broad. ³⁰And the arches all around were twenty-five cubits long and five cubits broad. ³¹And the porches of it were toward the outer court. And palm trees were upon the posts of it. And its stairway had eight steps.

³²And he brought me into the inner court toward the east. And he measured the gate according to these measures. ³³And the little rooms of it, and the posts of it, and the porches of it, were measured according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its porches all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits broad. ³⁴And the porches of it were toward the outer court. And palm trees were upon the posts of it, on this side, and on that side. And its stairway had eight steps.

³⁵And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures; ³⁶its little rooms, its posts, and its porches, and its windows all around. The length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. ³⁷And its posts were toward the outer court. And palm trees were upon the posts of it, on this side and on that side. And its stairway had eight steps. ³⁸And the rooms and their doors were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

³⁹And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, for the killing of the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. ⁴⁰And at the side outside, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables. And on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables. ⁴¹Four tables were on this side, and four tables were on that side, by the side of the gate: eight tables on which they killed their sacrifices. ⁴²And the four tables were of cut stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high. Upon these they also laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifices. ⁴³And inside were hooks, a hand broad, fastened all around. And upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

⁴⁸And he brought me to the porch of the house and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. And the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits. And he brought me by the steps by which they went up to it. And there were pillars by the posts, one on this side and another on that side.

¹Afterward he brought me to the temple and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. ²And the breadth of the door was ten cubits. And the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side. And he measured the length of it, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits. ³Then he went inside and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door was six cubits; and the breadth of the door was seven cubits. ⁴So he measured the length of it, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple. And he said to me, This is the most holy place.

⁵Afterwards he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of each side room was four cubits, all around the house on every side. ⁶And the side rooms were three, one over another, and thirty in a row. And they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side rooms all around, so that they might have a support, but they did not have a support in the wall of the house. ⁷And there was a broadening, and a winding about still upward to the side rooms. For the winding around of the house went still upward, all around the house. Therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest room to the highest by the middle. ⁸I also saw the height of the house all around. The foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six large cubits. ⁹The thickness of the wall, which was for the side room outside, was five cubits. And what was left was the place of the side rooms that were inside. ¹⁰And between the rooms was the width of twenty cubits, all around the house, on every side. ¹¹And the doors of the side rooms were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north and another door toward the south. And the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits all around.

¹²Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad. And the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and the length of it was ninety cubits. ¹³So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long. And the separate place, and the building, with the wall of it, were a hundred cubits long. ¹⁴Also the breadth of the house and of the separate place toward the east was a hundred cubits. ¹⁵And he measured the length of the building across from the separate place which was behind it, and its balconies on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple and the porches of the court, ¹⁶the door posts, and the narrow windows, and the balconies all around on their three stories, across from the door, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows — and the windows were covered — ¹⁷to that above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall around inside and outside, by measure. ¹⁸And it was made with chēr'-ū-bīms and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub. And each cherub had two faces, ¹⁹so that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. It was made through all the house all around. ²⁰From the ground to above the door were chēr'-ū-bīms and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

²¹The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary. The looks of the one was like the looks of the other. ²²The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length of it was two cubits. And its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood. And he said to me, This is the table that is before the LORD. ²³And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴And the doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves — two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door. ²⁵And on them, on the doors of the temple, there were made chēr'-ū-bīms and palm trees like those made on the walls. And there were thick planks upon the face of the porch outside. ²⁶And there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch and on the side rooms of the house, and thick planks.

¹Then he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north. And he brought me into the room that was across from the separate place and which was in front of the building to the north. ²Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. ³Across from the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and across from the pavement which was for the outer court, balcony was upon balcony in three stories. ⁴And before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit. And their doors were toward the north. ⁵Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the balconies were higher than these, than the lower, and higher than the middlemost of the building. ⁶For they were in three stories, but did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts. Therefore the building was made narrower than the lower and the middle stories from the ground. ⁷And the wall that was outside across from the rooms, toward the outer court on the front part of the rooms, the length of it was fifty cubits. ⁸For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. And lo, in front of the temple was a hundred cubits. ⁹And under these rooms was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court. ¹⁰The rooms were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, across from the separate place and across from the building. ¹¹And the passageway in front of them looked like the rooms which were toward the north, as long as they were, and as broad as they were. And all their doors were both according to their patterns and according to their entrances. ¹²And according to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly in front of the wall eastward, as one enters them.

¹³Then he said to me, The north rooms and the south rooms which are in front of the separate place, they are holy chambers, where the priests who approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things. There they shall lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering. For the place is holy. ¹⁴When the priests enter into it, then they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their clothes in which they minister, for they are holy. And they shall put on other clothes, and shall approach those things which are for the people. ¹⁵Now when he finished measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose view is toward the east, and measured it all around. ¹⁶He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed, all around. ¹⁷He measured the north side, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁸He measured the south side, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ¹⁹He turned around to the west side and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ²⁰He measured it by the four sides. It had a wall all around, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the holy place and the common place.

¹Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate that faces toward the east. ²And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. And His voice was like the noise of many waters. And the earth shone with His glory. ³And it looked the same as the vision which I saw, even according to the vision which I saw when I came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chē'bār. And I fell upon my face. ⁴And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose view is toward the east. ⁵So the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner room. And behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house. ⁶And I heard Him speaking to me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

⁷And He said to me, Son of man, the house of Israel shall no more defile the place of My throne, and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever — neither they, nor their kings, by their fôr-nī-cā'-tion nor by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places. ⁸In their setting of their doorstep by My doorsteps, and their posts by My posts, and the wall between Me and them, they have even defiled My holy name by their abominations that they have committed. Therefore I have destroyed them in My anger. ⁹Now let them put away their fôr-nĩ-cā'-tion, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from Me, and I will dwell in the midst of them forever.

¹⁰Son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. And let them measure the pattern. ¹¹And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, show them the form of the house, and the pattern of it, and its exits and its entrances, and all the forms of it, and all the ordinances of it and all their forms, and all its laws. And write it in their sight, so that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them. ¹²This is the law of the house. Upon the top of the mountain, its whole boundary all around shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

¹³And these are the measures of the altar by the cubits. The cubit is a cubit and a hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and its border by its edge all around shall be a span. And this shall be the higher place of the altar. ¹⁴And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit. And from the smaller ledge even to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. ¹⁵So the altar shall be four cubits, and from the altar and upward shall be four horns. ¹⁶And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares of it. ¹⁷And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares of it. And the border around it shall be half a cubit, and its bottom shall be half a cubit around. And its stairs shall look toward the east.

¹⁸And He said to me, Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it. ¹⁹And you shall give a young bull for a sin offering to the priests the Levites, who are of the seed of Zā'-dök, who approach Me to minister to Me, says the Lord GOD. ²⁰And you shall take of the blood of it and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the border all around. So you shall cleanse and purge it. ²¹You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary. ²²And on the second day you shall offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering. And they shall cleanse the altar as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³And when you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish and a ram out of the flock without blemish. ²⁴And you shall offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD. ²⁵Every day for seven days you shall prepare a goat for a sin offering. They also shall prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. ²⁶Seven days they shall purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. ²⁷And when these days are expired, it shall be that upon the eight day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings before the altar, and your peace offerings. And I will accept you, says the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 44

¹Then he brought me back by the way of the gate of the outer sanctuary which looks toward the east. And it was shut. ²Then the LORD said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it. Because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. ³*It is* for the prince; the prince shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD. He shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the same way.

⁴Then He brought me by the way of the north gate before the house. And I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD. And I fell upon my face. ⁵And the LORD said to me, Son of man, note carefully: see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws of it. And note carefully the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. ⁶And you shall say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: O house of Israel, let it be more than enough for you, of all your hateful deeds, ⁷that you have brought strangers, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary, to defile it, even My house, when you offer My bread, the fat and the blood. And they have broken My covenant because of all your abominations. ⁸And you have not kept the charge of My holy things, but you have set keepers of My charge in My sanctuary for themselves.

⁹Thus says the Lord GOD: No stranger, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into My sanctuary, or any stranger that is among the children of Israel. ¹⁰And the Levites who have gone far away from Me, when Israel went astray — those who went astray from Me after their idols — they shall even bear their iniquity. ¹¹Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house and ministering to the house. They shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. ¹²Because they ministered to them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have lifted up My hand against them, says the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. ¹³And they shall not come near Me, to do the office of a priest to Me, nor to come near any of My holy things, in the most holy place — but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house for all the service of it, and for all that shall be done in it.

¹⁵But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zā'-dōk, who kept the charge of My sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near Me to minister to Me, and they shall stand before Me to offer unto Me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶They shall enter My sanctuary, and they shall come near My table, to minister unto Me, and they shall keep My charge.

¹⁷And when they enter in at the gates of the court, they shall be clothed with linen clothing. And no wool shall come upon them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and inside. ¹⁸They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins. They shall not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat. ¹⁹And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court of the people, they shall put off their clothes in which they ministered, and lay them in the holy rooms. And they shall put on other clothes, so that they shall not sanctify the people with their own clothes. ²⁰Neither shall they shave their heads nor allow their hair to grow long — they shall only trim their heads. ²¹Neither shall any priest drink wine when they enter the inner court. ²²Neither shall they take for their wives a widow nor her who is put away. But they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who had a priest before.

²³And they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and common, and cause them to tell the difference between the unclean and the clean. ²⁴And in arguments they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to My judgments. And they shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My assemblies, and they shall keep My sabbaths holy. ²⁵And they shall not come near any dead person to defile themselves; but they may defile themselves for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband. ²⁶And after he is cleansed, they shall count seven days for him. ²⁷And in the day that he goes into the sanctuary, to the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD. ²⁸And it shall be to them for an inheritance. I am their inheritance. And you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. ²⁹They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. ³⁰And the first of all the first-fruits of all, and every offering of all, of every kind of your sacrifices, shall be the priest's. You shall also give the priest the first of your dough, so that he may cause the blessing to rest in your house. ³¹The priests shall not eat of anything that died of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.

¹Moreover, when you shall divide the land by lot for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to the LORD, a holy piece of the land. The length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reefs, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders of it all around. ²Of this there shall be five hundred reefs for the sanctuary, with five hundred reefs' breadth, square all around. And fifty cubits around shall be for its suburbs. ³And this measure you shall measure the length of twenty-five thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand. And in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. ⁴The holy part of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who shall come near to minister to the LORD. And it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵And the twenty-five thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, for themselves for a possession for twenty rooms.

⁶And you shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and twenty-five thousand long, opposite the offering of the holy part. It shall be for the whole house of Israel.

⁷And a piece shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the offering of the holy part, and of the possession of the city, in front of the offering of the holy part, and in front of the possession of the city, from the west side westward and from the east side eastward. And the length shall be across from one of the pieces, from the west border to the east border. ⁸In the land shall be his possession in Israel. And My princes shall never again ill-treat My people. And the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

⁹Thus says the Lord GOD: Let it be enough for you, O princes of Israel. Remove violence and spoil, and do judgment and justice. Take away your demands upon My people, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁰You shall have just balances, a just ē'-phāh and a just bāth. ¹¹The ē'-phāh and the bāth shall be of one measure, that the bāth may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ē'-phāh the tenth part of a hō'-mēr. The measure of it shall be according to the hō'-mēr. ¹²And the shekel shall be twenty gē'-rāhs. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your mā'-nēh. ¹³This is the offering that you shall offer: you shall give the sixth part of an ē'-phāh of a hō'-mēr of wheat and the sixth part of an ē'-phāh of a hō'-mēr of barley. ¹⁴Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bāth of oil, you shall offer the tenth part of a bāth out of the côr, which is a hō'-mēr of ten bāths — for ten bāths are a hō'-mēr — ¹⁵and one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pasture of Israel — for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶All the people of the land shall give this offering for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings and meal offerings and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemn seasons of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering and the meal offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

¹⁸Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. ²⁰And so you shall do the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple. So you shall purify the house. ²¹In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days. Unleavened bread shall be eaten. ²²And upon that day shall the priest prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. ²³And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily for the seven days, and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering. ²⁴And he shall prepare a meal offering of an ē'-phäh for a bull, and an ē'-phäh for a ram, and a hin of oil for an ē'-phäh. ²⁵In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, he shall do the same in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.

¹Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days. But on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened. ²And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go forth, but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. ³Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons. ⁴And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish. ⁵And the meal offering shall be an ē'-phäh for a ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil to an ē'-phäh. ⁶And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram. They shall be without blemish. ⁷And he shall prepare a meal offering, an ē'-phäh for a bull, and an ē'-phäh for a ram, and for the lambs as his hand shall be able to get, and a hin of oil to an ē'-phäh. ⁸And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go out by the same way.

¹⁹Afterward he brought me through the entry which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms of the priests, which looked toward the north. And behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. ²⁰Then he said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering, so that they may not bear them out into the outer court to sanctify the people. ²¹Then he brought me forth into the outer court and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court. And behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. ²²In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad. These four corners were of one measure. ²³And there was a row of building all around in them, all around the four of them. And it was made with boiling places under the rows all around. ²⁴Then he said to me, These are the places of those who boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

¹Afterward he brought me again to the door of the house. And behold, waters came out from under the doorsill of the house eastward. For the front of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar. ²Then he brought me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me around the way outside, to the outer gate, by the way that looks eastward. And behold, waters ran out on the right side. ³And when the man who had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters. The waters were to the ankles. ⁴Again he measured a thousand cubits, and brought me through the waters. The waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. ⁵Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over; for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

⁶And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the edge of the river. ⁷Now when I had returned, behold, there were very many trees on the one side and on the other. ⁸Then he said to me, These waters go out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea. Being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed. ⁹And everything that lives, which moves, wherever the rivers shall come, shall live. And there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come there. For they shall be healed. And everything shall live where the river comes. ¹⁰And the fishermen shall stand upon it from Ĕn-gē-dī even to Ĕn-ēg'-lā-im. There shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea, a very great many. ¹¹But the muddy places of it, and the marshes of it, shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. ¹²And by the river upon its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for food, whose leaf shall not fade, neither its fruit fail. It shall bring forth new fruit according to its months, because there their waters come forth out of the sanctuary. And the fruit of it shall be for food, and the leaf of it for healing.

¹³Thus says the Lord GOD: This shall be the border by which you shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two parts. ¹⁴And you shall inherit it, one as well as another, concerning which I lifted up My hand to give it to your fathers; and this land shall fall to you for an inheritance. ¹⁵And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the Great Sea, the way of Hēth'-lōn, as men go to Zē'-dād – ¹⁶Hā'-māth, Bē-rō'-thäh, Sib'-rā-im, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hā'-māth; Hā'-zär-hät'-tī-cōn, which is by the border of Hau'-rān. ¹⁷And the border from the sea shall be Hā'-zār-ē'-nān, the border of Damascus and the north northward, and the border of Hā'-māth. And this is the north side. ¹⁸And you shall measure the east side from Hau'-rān, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border to the east sea. And this is the east side. ¹⁹And the south side is southward from Tā'-mār, to the waters of Mēr'-ī-bāth-kā'-dēsh, the river to the Great Sea. And this is the south side southward. ²⁰The west side also is the Great Sea from the border, until a man come over against Hā'-māth. This is the west side. ²¹So you shall divide this land to yourselves according to the tribes of Israel.

²²And you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to yourselves, and to the strangers who live among you, who shall father children among you. And they shall be to you as those born in the country among the children of Israel. They shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³And in whatever tribe the stranger lives there you shall give him his inheritance, says the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 48

¹Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hēth'-lōn, as one goes to Hā'-māth, Hā'-zār-ē'-nān, the border of Damascus northward to the coast of Hā'-māth — for these are its sides east and west — one part for Dan. ²And by the border of Dan, from the east to the west side, one part for Asher. ³And by the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, one part for Nāph'-tā-lī. ⁴And by the border of Nāph'-tā-lī, from the east side to the west side, one part for Mā-nās'-sēh. ⁵And by the border of Mā-nās'-sēh, from the east side to the west side, one part for Ē'-phrā-īm. ⁶And by the border of Ē'-phrā-īm, from the east side even to the west side, one part for Reuben. ⁷And by the border of Reuben from the east side to the west side, one part for Judah.

⁸And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer of twenty-five thousand reeds breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side to the west side. And the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it. ⁹The offering that you shall offer to the LORD shall be of twenty-five thousand reeds in length and of ten thousand in breadth. ¹⁰And for them, for the priests, shall this holy offering be — toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length. And the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the middle of it. ¹¹*It shall be* for the priests who are sanctified, of the sons of Zā'-dōk, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. ¹²And this offering of the land that is offered shall be to them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites. ¹³And over across from the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length and ten thousand in breadth. All the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. ¹⁴And they shall not sell any of it, nor trade it, nor cause the first-fruits of the land to pass away. For it is holy unto the LORD.

¹⁵And the five thousand that are left in the breadth over across from the twenty-five thousand shall be a common place for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs. And the city shall be in the midst of it. ¹⁶And these shall be its measures: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. ¹⁷And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. ¹⁸And the rest in length opposite the offering of the holy part shall be ten thousand eastward and ten thousand westward. And it shall be opposite the offering of the holy part. And the produce of it shall be for food to those who serve the city. ¹⁹And they who serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel. ²⁰All the offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand. You shall offer the holy offering four-square, with the possession of the city.

²¹And the rest shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering, and of the possession of the city, opposite the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward across from the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, across from the lots for the prince. And it shall be the holy offering. And the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst of it. ²²Moreover from the possessions of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince. ²³As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin shall have one part. ²⁴And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon shall have one part. ²⁵And by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Is'-sā-chār shall have one part. ²⁶And by the border of Is'-sā-chār, from the east side to the west side, Zē-bū'lūn shall have one part. ²⁷And by the border of Zē-bū'lūn, from the east side to the west side, Gad shall have one part. ²⁸And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tā'-mār to the waters of Mēr'-ī-bāth-kā'-dēsh, and to the river toward the Great Sea. ²⁹This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their parts, says the Lord GOD.

³⁰And these are the exits of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. ³¹And the gates of the city shall be according to the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward, one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.³² And at the east side four thousand and five hundred, and three gates: and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.³³ And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures, and three gates: one gate of Simeon, one gate of Īs'-sā-chār, one gate of Zē-bū'-lūn.³⁴ And at the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Nāph'-tā-li.³⁵ It was eighteen thousand measures all around. And the name of the city from that day shall be, THE LORD IS THERE.

The Book of DANIEL

CHAPTER 1

¹In the third year of the reign of Jē-hoi'-ā-kim king of Judah, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and circled it. ²And the Lord gave Jē-hoi'-ā-kim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shī'-nār to the house of his god. And he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

³And the king spoke to Āsh'-pē-nāz the master of his eunuchs [yoū'-nūcks], that he should bring some of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes — ⁴children in whom was no blemish, but who were handsome and skillful in all wisdom; and who had knowledge and understanding, even those who were able to stand in the king's palace, and to whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chāl-dē'-āns. ⁵And the king gave them a certain part of the king's food, and of the wine which he drank for each day — so as to bring them up in this way three years, so that at the end of them they might stand before the king. ⁶Now among these were four of the children of Judah — Daniel, Hān-ā-nī'-āh, Mī'-shā-ēl, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh, ⁷unto whom the prince of the eunuchs [yoū'-nūcks] gave names. For he gave to Daniel the name of Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, and to Hān-ā-nī'-āh the name of Shād'-rāch, and to Mī'-shā-ēl the name of Mē'-shāch; and to Āz-ā-rī'-āh the name of Ā-bēd'-nē-gō.

⁸But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank. Therefore he asked permission of the prince of the eū'-nūchs that he might not defile himself. ⁹Now God had brought Daniel into favor and tender love with the prince of the eū'-nūchs. ¹⁰And the prince of the eū'-nūchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has chosen your food and your drink — for why should he see your faces sadder than the children who are of your kind? Then you would put my head in danger to the king. ¹¹Then Daniel said to Mēl'-zār, whom the prince of the eū'-nūchs had set over Daniel, Hān-ā-nī'-āh, Mī'-shā-ēl, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh, ¹²I pray you, try your servants ten days. And let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³Then let our faces be looked upon before you, and the face of the children who eat of the king's food. And as you see, deal with your servants. ¹⁴So he listened to them in this matter, and tried them for ten days. ¹⁵And at the end of ten days their faces looked fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children who had eaten the king's food. ¹⁶So Mēl'-zār took away their part of the food, and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

¹⁷As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom. And Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. ¹⁸Now at the end of the days that the king had said he would bring them in, the prince of the eū'-nūchs brought them in before Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār. ¹⁹And the king talked with them. And among them all were found none like Daniel, Hān-ā-nī'-āh, Mī'-shā-ēl, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh. Therefore they stood before the king. ²⁰And in all matters of wisdom and understanding that the king asked them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his kingdom. ²¹And Daniel carried on unto the first year of king Cyrus.

¹And in the second year of the reign of king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār dreamed dreams, with which his spirit was troubled and his sleep left him. ²Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the fortune tellers, and the Chāl-dē'-āns, in order to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. ³And the king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream. ⁴Then the Chāl-dē'-āns spoke to the king in Sŷr'-ī-āc, O king, live forever. Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the meaning. ⁵The king answered and said to the Chāl-dē'-āns, The thing has gone from me. If you will not make known to me the dream, with the meaning of it, you shall be cut in pieces and your houses shall be made a dunghill. ⁶But if you show the dream, and the meaning of it, you shall receive gifts and rewards and great honor from me. Therefore show me the dream and the meaning of it. ⁷They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the meaning of it. ⁸The king answered and said, I know that you surely want to gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. ⁹But if you will not make the dream known to me, there is only one judgment for you. For you have prepared lying and deceiving words to speak before me, until the time has changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me the meaning of it.

¹⁰The Chāl-dē'-āns answered before the king and said, There is not a man upon the earth who can show the king's matter. Therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler who asked such things from any magician or astrologer or Chāl-dē'-ān. ¹¹And it is a rare thing that the king asks, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. ¹²For this cause the king was angry and full of fury, and commanded all the wise men of Babylon to be destroyed. ¹³And the order went forth that the wise men should be killed. And they sought Daniel and his fellows to kill them.

¹⁴Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Ār'-ī-ōch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁵He answered and said to Ār'-ī-ōch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Ār'-ī-ōch made the thing known to Daniel. ¹⁶Then Daniel went in and asked of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the meaning. ¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house and made the thing known to Hān-ā-nī'-āh, Mī'-shā-ēl, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh, his companions — ¹⁸that they might pray for the mercies of God in Heaven concerning this secret, that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

¹⁹Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of Heaven. ²⁰Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His. ²¹And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. ²²He reveals the deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him. ²³I thank Thee, and praise Thee, O Thou God of my fathers, who has given me wisdom and might, and hast made known to me now what we asked of Thee. For Thou hast now made known to us the king's matter.

²⁴Therefore Daniel went in unto Ār'-ī-ōch, whom the king had chosen to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said this to him: Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will show the meaning to the king. ²⁵Then Ār'-ī-ōch quickly brought Daniel in before the king, and said to him I have found a man of the captives of Judah who will make the meaning known to the king. ²⁶The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and the meaning of it? ²⁷Daniel answered in the presence of the king and said, The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the fortunetellers cannot show to the king. ²⁸But there is a God in Heaven who reveals secrets and makes known to king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed are these. ²⁹As for you, O king, your thoughts came to your mind upon your bed, what should happen after this. And He who reveals secrets makes known to you what shall come to pass. ³⁰But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living man, but so that they might make the meaning known to the king, and that you might know the thoughts of your heart.

³¹You, O king, saw and beheld a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before you. And the form of it was fearful. ³²This image's head was of fine gold; his breast and his arms were of silver; his belly and his thighs were of brass; ³³his legs were of iron; his feet were part of iron and part of clay. ³⁴You watched until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image upon its feet which were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. ³⁵Then the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold were broken to pieces together. And they became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. And the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶This is the dream. And we will tell the meaning of it before the king. ³⁷You, O king, are a king of kings. For the God of Heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. ³⁸And wherever the children of men, the beasts of the field and the birds of the sky live, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all. You are this head of gold. ³⁹And after you shall arise another kingdom lower than you, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰And the fourth kingdom shall be as strong as iron. Since iron beats things into pieces and weakens all things; and as iron that breaks all these, it shall break in pieces and shall be broken. ⁴¹And as to that which you saw — the feet and toes, part of potters' clay and part of iron — the kingdom shall be divided. But there shall be in it the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. ⁴²And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle. ⁴³And whereas you saw iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mix themselves with the seed of men. But they shall not cling to one another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. ⁴⁴And in the days of these kings, the God of Heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed. And the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and destroy all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. ⁴⁵Because you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold — the great God has made known to the king what shall come to pass in the future. And the dream is certain, and the meaning of it is sure.

⁴⁶Then the king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār fell upon his face and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet perfumes to him. ⁴⁷The king answered Daniel and said, It is true that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret. ⁴⁸Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all these wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹Then Daniel asked the king, and he set Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō over the affairs of the province of Babylon. But Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

¹Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and the breadth of it six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dū'-rā, in the province of Babylon. ²Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the advisers, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king had set up. ³Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king had set up. And they stood before the image that Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār had set up. ⁴Then a herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, ⁵*that* at the time you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the golden image that Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king has set up. ⁶And whoever does not fall down and worship the same hour they shall be thrown into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. ⁷Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery [salt'-ēr-y], dūl'-cī-mēr, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king had set up.

⁸Therefore at that time certain Chāl-dē'-āns came near and accused the Jews. ⁹They spoke and said to the king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, O king, live forever. ¹⁰You, O king, have made a decree that every man who shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, lyre, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image. ¹¹And whoever does not fall down and worship, he should be thrown into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ¹²There are certain Jews whom you have set over the business of the province of Babylon, Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō. These men, O king, have despised you. They do not serve your gods nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

¹³Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār in his rage and fury commanded them to bring Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō. Then they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār spoke and said to them, Is it true, O Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō? Do you not serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready, at the time you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and dūl'-cī-mēr, and all kinds of music, fall down and worship the image which I have made. But if you do not worship, the same hour you shall be thrown into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. And who is that God who shall deliver you out of my hands?

¹⁶Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō answered and said to the king, O Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, we are not careful to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷If it is so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

¹⁹Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār was full of fury, and the form of his face was changed against Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō. He spoke and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰And he commanded the most mighty men who were in his army to tie up Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, and to throw them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹Then these men were tied up in their tunics, their mantles, and their turbans, and their other clothes, and were thrown into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. ²²Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō. ²³And these three men, Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ²⁴Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king was amazed. And he rose up in haste and spoke and said to his advisers, Did we not throw three men bound into the middle of the fire? They answered and said to the king, True, O king. ²⁵He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they have not been hurt. And the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

²⁶Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār came near the mouth of the burning fiery furnace and spoke, and said, Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, you servants of the most high God, come forth and come here. Then Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, came forth from the middle of the fire. ²⁷And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's advisers, being gathered together, saw these men upon whose bodies the fire had no power (nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor had the smell of fire passed upon them). ²⁸Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, who has sent His Angel and has delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and have changed the king's words and yielded their bodies that they might not serve nor worship any god except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, who speak anything amiss against the God of Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill. Because there is no other God who can deliver in this way. ³⁰Then the king promoted Shād'-rāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō in the province of Babylon.

¹Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king, to all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. ²I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders that the high God has done with me. ³How great are His signs! and how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His rule is from generation to generation.

⁴I, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, was at rest in my house and being blessed in my palace. ⁵I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the meaning of the dream. ⁷Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chāl-dē'-āns, and the fortunetellers came in. And I told the dream before them, but they did not make the meaning of it known to me.

⁸But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. And I told the dream before him, saying, ⁹O Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the meaning of it. ¹⁰So were the visions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height of it was great. ¹¹The tree grew and was strong, and the height of it reached to the heavens; and the sight of it reached to the end of all the earth. ¹²The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit was plentiful, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in the boughs of it, and all flesh was fed by it. ¹³I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from Heaven. ¹⁴He cried aloud and said this, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches; shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals get away from under it, and the birds from its branches. ¹⁵But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field. And let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let its portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. ¹⁶Let his heart be changed from man's, and let the heart of an animal be given to him. And let seven times pass over him. ¹⁷This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones — so that the living may know that the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will, and sets up over it the lowest of men. ¹⁸I, king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, have seen this dream. Now, O Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, declare the meaning of it, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make the meaning known to me. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.

¹⁹Then Daniel, whose name was Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, was dumb for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke and said, Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, do not let the dream or the meaning of it trouble you. Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār answered and said, My lord, the dream is to those who hate you, and the meaning of it to your enemies. ²⁰The tree that you saw, which grew and was strong, whose height reached to the heavens, and the sight of it to all the earth — ²¹whose leaves were fair, and the fruit of it plentiful, and in it was food for all, under which the animals of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the birds of the heavens had their home — ²²it is you, O king, who has grown and become strong. For your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your rule to the end of the earth. ²³And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from Heaven, and saying, Cut the tree down and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots of it in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him — ²⁴this is the meaning, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king. ²⁵They shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and they shall make you eat grass like oxen. And they shall wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will. ²⁶And in that they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; your kingdom shall be sure to you after you have known that Heaven rules. ²⁷Therefore, O king, let my advice be pleasing to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor, if perhaps it may make your ease last longer.

²⁸All this came upon the king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār. ²⁹At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. ³⁰The king spoke and said, Is this not great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power and for the honor of my majesty? ³¹While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from Heaven, saying, O king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, to you it is spoken. The kingdom has departed from you. ³²And they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. They shall make you eat grass like oxen, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He will. ³³The same hour the thing was fulfilled upon Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār. And he was driven from men, and ate grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

³⁴And at the end of the days, I Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār lifted up my eyes to Heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored Him who lives forever, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His rule is from generation to generation. ³⁵And all the people of the earth are counted as nothing; and He does according to His will in the army of heaven, and among the people of the earth. And none can strike His hand, or say to Him, What doest Thou? ³⁶At the same time my reason returned to me. And for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and brightness returned to me. And my advisers and my lords came for me, and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me. ³⁷Now I Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār praise and exalt and honor the King of heaven, all whose works are truth and His ways judgment. And those who walk in pride He is able to humble.

¹Bēl-shāz'-zār the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. ²Bēl-shaz'-zār, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem, that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. ³Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem. And the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. ⁴They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, and of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

¹⁰Now the queen came into the banquet house because of the words of the king and his lords. And the queen spoke and said, O king, live forever. Do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. And in the days of your father there was found in him light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods. The king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār your father — the king, I say — made him master of the magicians, astrologers, Chāl-dē'-āns, and fortunetellers — ¹²because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, explaining of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and the melting away of doubts were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Bēl-tēshāz'-zār. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the meaning.¹³ Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Are you that Daniel who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry? ¹⁴I have even heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. ¹⁵And now the wise men and the magicians have been brought in before me so that they should read this writing and make the meaning known to me. But they could not show the meaning of the thing. ¹⁶And I have heard of you that you can tell meanings and melt away doubts. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me the meaning of it, you shall be clothed with scarlet and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

¹⁷Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another. Yet I will read the writing to the king, and make the meaning known to him. ¹⁸O king, the most high God gave Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār your father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honor. ¹⁹And for the majesty that He gave him, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. He killed whom he would, and whom he would he kept alive. And whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down. ²⁰But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was put down from the throne of his kingdom, and they took his glory from him. ²¹And he was driven from the sons of men. And his heart was made like the animals, and his dwelling was with the wild asses. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, until he knew that the most high God rules in the kingdom of men, and that He appoints over it whomever He will. ²²And you his son, O Bēl-shāz'-zār, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this. ²³But you have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of His house before you; and you, and your lords, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver, and gold, or brass, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor know. And you have not glorified the God in whose hand your breath is, and to whom belong all your ways. ²⁴Then was the part of the hand sent from Him. And this writing was written.

²⁵And this is the writing that was written, MĒ'-NĒ, MĒ'-NĒ, TĒ'-KĒL, Ū-PHĀR'-SĪN. ²⁶This is the meaning of the thing. MĒ'-NĒ, God has numbered your kingdom and finished it. ²⁷TĒ'-KĒL, You are weighed in the balances and are found wanting. ²⁸PĒ'-RĒŠ, Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians. ²⁹Then Bēl-shāz'-zār commanded, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰In that night Bēl-shāz'-zār the king of the Chāl-dē'-āns was killed. ³¹And Dā-rī'-ūs the Mē'-dī-ān took the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

CHAPTER 6

¹It pleased Dā-rī'-ūs to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom. ²And over these were three presidents, (of whom Daniel was first,) so that the princes might give account to them, and the king should have no loss. ³Then this Daniel was made overseer of the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king was planning to set him over the whole kingdom.

⁴Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom. But they could find no occasion or fault, because he was faithful. Neither was there any error or fault found in him. ⁵Then these men said, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God. ⁶Then these presidents and princes gathered together to the king, and said this to him: King Dā-rī'-ūs, live forever. ⁷All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the advisers, and the captains, have planned together to establish a royal law, and to make a firm decree that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except from you, O king, he shall be thrown into the den of lions. ⁸Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, so that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians which cannot be changed. ⁹Therefore king Dā-rī'-ūs signed the writing and the decree.

¹⁰Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went to his house. And his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem; and he kneeled upon his knees three times a day and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. ¹¹Then these men gathered together and found Daniel praying and confessing before his God. ¹²Then they came near and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree. Have you not signed a decree that every man who shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, except of you, O king, shall be thrown into the lion's den? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed. ¹³Then they answered and said before the king, Daniel, who is of the children of captivity of Judah, has not respected you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his prayer three times a day. ¹⁴Then the king, when he heard these words, was very much displeased with himself. And he set his heart on Daniel to deliver him. And he labored until the going down of the sun to deliver him. ¹⁵Then these men met before the king and said to the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed. ¹⁶Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God, whom you always serve, will deliver you. ¹⁷And a stone was brought and laid upon the mouth of the den. And the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

¹⁸Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. Neither were instruments of music brought before him; and his sleep went from him. ¹⁹Then the king arose very early in the morning and hurried to the lions' den. ²⁰And when he came to the den, he cried with a grieved voice to Daniel. The king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God whom you always serve able to deliver you from the lions? ²¹Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live forever. ²²My God has sent His Angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me, because before Him purity was found in me. And also before you, O king, I have done no harm. ²³Then the king was exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of hurt was found on him, because he believed in his God.

²⁴And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they threw them into the lions' den – them, their children, and their wives. And the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces before they came to the lower part of the den.

²⁵Then king Dā-rī'-ūs wrote to all people, nations, and languages who dwell in all the earth. Peace be multiplied to you. ²⁶I make a decree that in every government of my kingdom men shall tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God, and endures forever, and His kingdom is that which shall not be destroyed, and His rule shall even be unto the end. ²⁷He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in the heavens and in earth, He who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. ²⁸So this Daniel was blessed in the reign of Dā-rī'-ūs, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

¹In the first year of Bēl-shāz'-zār king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed. Then he wrote the dream and gave the sum of the matters. ²Daniel spoke and said, In my vision by night I was looking: and behold, the four winds of the heavens were bursting forth upon the Great Sea. ³And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another. ⁴The first was like a lion and had eagle's wings. I watched until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand upon its feet like a man. And a man's heart was given to it. ⁵And behold another beast, a second, like a bear. And it raised itself up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it: Arise, eat up much flesh. ⁶After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had four wings of a bird on its back. The beast also had four heads; and rulership was given to it. ⁷After this I looked in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, fearful and terrible, and very strong. And it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the rest with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. ⁸I was thinking about the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom three of the first horns were pulled up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a man speaking great things.

⁹I watched until the thrones were put down, and the Ancient of Days sat, whose robe was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool. His throne was like the flaming fire, and his wheels like burning fire. ¹⁰A stream of fire went out and came forth from before Him. A thousand thousands served Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The judgment was set, and the books were opened. ¹¹I then watched because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke. I watched until the beast was slain, and his body was destroyed and given to the burning flame. ¹²As to the rest of the beasts, they had their rulership taken away. Yet their lives were made longer for a season and time. ¹³I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him. ¹⁴And there was given Him rulership and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations and languages, should serve Him. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom which shall not pass away, and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

¹⁵I Daniel was grieved in My spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. ¹⁶And I came near one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the meaning of the things. ¹⁷These great beasts, which are four, are four kings which shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. ¹⁹Then I wanted to know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, very frightening, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass – who devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the rest with his feet – ²⁰and of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell – even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth speaking very great things, whose look was greater than his fellows. ²¹I watched, and the same horn made war with the saints and overcame them ²²until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High. And the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. ²³So he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms and shall devour the whole earth, and shall trample it down and break it in pieces. ²⁴And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise. And another shall arise after them. And he shall be different from the first, and he shall humble three kings. ²⁵And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High and plot to change times and laws. And they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. ²⁶But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his rulership, to cut off and to destroy it until the end. ²⁷And the kingdom and rulership, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heavens, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. And all kingdoms shall serve and obey Him. ²⁸Here is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my thoughts troubled me much, and my face changed on me. But I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER 8

¹In the third year of the reign of king Bēl-shāz'-zār a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. ²And I looked in a vision. And when I looked, I was at Shū'-shān the palace, which is in the province of Ē'-lām. And in a vision I looked, and I was by the river of Ū'-lai. ³Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked. And behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. And the two horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. ⁴I saw the ram pushing westward and northward and southward — so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand. But he did according to his will, and became great. ⁵And as I was watching, behold, a he-goat came from the west, over the face of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground. And the goat had an outstanding horn between his eyes. ⁶And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran to him in the fury of his power. ⁷And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram and broke his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him. But he threw him down to the ground and stamped upon him. And there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand.

⁸Therefore the he-goat became very great. And when he was strong, the great horn was broken. And in its place came up four outstanding ones towards the four winds of the heavens. ⁹And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which became very great, toward the south and toward the east and toward the pleasant land. ¹⁰And it became great, even to the host of heaven. And it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. ¹¹Yea, he magnified himself, even to the prince of the host, and the daily sacrifice was taken away by him, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. ¹²And an army was given to him against the daily sacrifice because of transgressions, and it cast the truth down to the ground. And it worked and succeeded.

¹³Then I heard a certain holy one speaking, and another holy one said to that certain holy one who spoke, How long shall the vision last, concerning the daily sacrifice and the transgression of defilement, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled under foot? ¹⁴And he said to me, For two thousand and three hundred days. Then the sanctuary shall be cleansed.

¹⁵And when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me the form of a man. ¹⁶And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ū'-lāī, which called and said, Gabriel, make this man understand the vision. ¹⁷So he came near where I stood. And when he came, I was afraid and fell upon my face. But he said to me, Understand, O son of man, for at the time of the end the vision shall be. ¹⁸Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground. But he touched me and set me upright. ¹⁹And he said, Behold, I will make you know what shall happen in the last end of the indignation. For at the time appointed the end shall come.

²⁰The ram which you saw having two horns are the kings of Mē'-dī-ā and Persia. ²¹And the rough goat is the king of Greece. And the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. ²²Now that being broken, four stood up in its place — four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in its power. ²³And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king, fierce of face, and who understands hidden things, shall stand up. ²⁴And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power. And he shall destroy wonderful things, and shall work and succeed, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. ²⁵And also through his understanding, he shall cause deceit to succeed in his hand. And he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many. He also shall stand up against the Prince of princes. But he shall be broken without the use of a hand. ²⁶And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true. Therefore shut up the vision; for it shall be for many days. ²⁷And I Daniel fainted, and was sick for some days. Afterward I rose up, and did the king's business. And I was amazed at the vision, but none understood it.

¹In the first year of Dā-rī'-ūs the son of Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs, of the seed of the Mēdeš, who was made king over the realm of the Chāl-dē'-āns, ²in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood the number of the years by books, the time of which the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, concerning the fulfilling of the wastes of Jerusalem for seventy years.

³And I set my face toward the Lord God, to seek by prayer and holy desires, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes. ⁴And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and fearful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commandments — ⁵we have sinned and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Thy commandments and from Thy judgments. ⁶Neither have we listened to Thy servants the prophets, who spoke in Thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. ⁷O Lord, righteousness belongs to Thee, but unto us the shame of our faces, as it is today — to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem, and to all Israel who are near and who are afar off, through all the countries where Thou hast driven them because of their sin which they have sinned against Thee. ⁸O Lord, to us belongs a face of shame to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against Thee. ⁹To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against Him. ¹⁰Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws which He set before us by His servants the prophets. ¹¹Yea, all Israel have transgressed Thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey Thy voice. Therefore the curse has been poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him. ¹²And He has confirmed His words which He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil. For under the whole heavens it has not been done as it has been done unto Jerusalem. ¹³As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come upon us. Yet we did not make our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand Thy truth. ¹⁴Therefore the LORD has watched over the evil, and has brought it upon us. For the LORD our God is righteous in all His works which He does; for we did not obey His voice. ¹⁵And now, O Lord our God, who hast brought Thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast brought fame unto Thyself, as it is today, we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

¹⁶O Lord, I pray Thee, according to all Thy righteousness let Thy anger and Thy fury be turned away from Thy city Jerusalem, Thy holy mountain. Because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Thy people have become a curse to all those who are around us. ¹⁷ Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of Thy servant, and His holy desires, and cause Thy face to shine upon Thy sanctuary that is wasted, for the Lord's sake. ¹⁸ O my God, bow down Thy ear and hear. Open Thy eyes and behold our ruins, and the city which is called by Thy name. For we do not present our prayers before Thee on account of our righteousnesses, but because of Thy great mercies. ¹⁹ O LORD, hear; O LORD, forgive; O LORD, listen and do. Do not delay, for Thy own sake, O my God; for Thy city and Thy people are called by Thy name.

²⁰ And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my cry before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God — ²¹ yes, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, touched me — being caused to fly swiftly — about the time of the evening sacrifice. ²² And he gave me understanding, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you skill and understanding. ²³ At the beginning of your prayers the commandment came forth, and I have come to show you. For you are greatly beloved; therefore understand the matter, and attend to the vision. ²⁴ Seventy weeks are divided as to your people and as to your holy city, to finish the transgression and to make an end of sins, and to make atonement for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy. ²⁵ Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, unto Messiah the prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks. The street shall be built again, and the wall, even in times of affliction. ²⁶ And after sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. And the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. And the end of it shall be with a flood, and amazing things are decreed, unto the end there shall be war. ²⁷ And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week. And in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease, and by the overspreading of abominations he is laying waste, even until the end. And that which was decreed shall be poured upon the wasted one.

¹ In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār. And the thing was true, but the time appointed was long. And he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. ² In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks. ³ I ate no food for delight, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

⁴And in the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Tig'-ris, ⁵then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man was clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Ū'-phāz. ⁶His body also was like the beryl, and his face looked like lightning. And his eyes were like lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet in color were like polished brass, and the voice of his words like the sound of a multitude. ⁷And I Daniel alone saw the vision. For the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. ⁸Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me. For my beauty was turned in me into a deathly paleness, and I kept no strength. ⁹Yet I heard the voice of his words. And when I heard the voice of his words, then I was in a deep sleep upon my face, and my face was toward the ground.

¹⁰And behold, a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and the palms of my hands. ¹¹And he said to me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright. For unto you I am now sent. And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. ¹²Then he said to me, Do not fear, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to chasten yourself before your God, your words were heard. And I have come for your words. ¹³But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days. But lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days. For the vision is yet for many days. ¹⁵And when he had spoken such words to me, I bowed my face toward the ground, and I became dumb. ¹⁶And behold, one looking like the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, O my lord, my sorrows are turned upon me by the vision, and I have kept no strength. ¹⁷For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me. ¹⁸Then there came again one looking like a man and touched me, and he made me stronger ¹⁹and said, O man greatly beloved, do not fear. Peace to you; be strong; yes, be strong. And when he had spoken to me, I was made stronger and said, Let my lord speak; for you have made me stronger. ²⁰Then he said, Do you know why I come to you? And now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. And when I have gone forth, lo, the prince of Greece shall come. ²¹But I will show you that which is written in the Scripture of Truth. And there is none who holds strongly with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

¹Also in the first year of Dā-rī'-ūs the Mede, I, even I, stood to establish and to strengthen him. ²And now I will show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia. And the fourth shall be far richer than all of them. And by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece. ³And a mighty king shall stand up, one who shall rule with great power and do according to his will. ⁴And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken and shall be divided toward the four winds of the heavens. And it shall not be given to his children, nor according to his power with which he ruled — for his kingdom shall be pulled up, even for others besides these.

⁵And the king of the South shall be strong. And one of his princes, even he shall overcome him and have power. His kingdom shall be a great kingdom. ⁶And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the South shall come to the king of the North to make a treaty. But she shall not keep the power of the arm. Neither shall he stand, nor his arm. But she shall be given up, and those who brought her in, and he whom she bore, and he who made her strong in these times. ⁷But out of a branch of her roots, one shall stand up in his place, who shall come with an army and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the North. And he shall act against them, and show himself strong. ⁸And he shall also carry their gods captives into Egypt, with their princes and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold. And he shall stand more years than the king of the North. ⁹So the king of the South shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. ¹⁰But his sons shall be stirred up and shall gather a multitude of great forces. And one shall certainly come and overflow, and pass through. Then he shall return and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

¹¹And the king of the South shall be moved with anger, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the North. And he shall send forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. ¹²And when he has taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up. And he shall cast down many ten thousands, but he shall not be made stronger by it. ¹³For the king of the North shall return, and shall send forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. ¹⁴And in those times there shall stand up many against the king of the South. Also the robbers of your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision, but they shall fall. ¹⁵So the king of the North shall come, and cast up a siege mound, and take the most fenced cities. And the arms of the South shall not hold out, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to hold out. ¹⁶But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him. And he shall stand in the glorious land, which shall be destroyed by his hand. ¹⁷He also shall set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him. So he shall do. And he shall give him the daughter of women to corrupt her; but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him. ¹⁸After this he shall turn his face to the isles, and shall take many. But a prince on his own behalf shall cause the shame offered by him to cease. Without his own shame he shall cause it to turn upon him. ¹⁹Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land. But he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.

²⁰Then there shall stand up in his place a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom. But within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger nor in battle. ²¹And in his place there shall stand up a despised one, to whom they shall not give the honor of the kingdom. But he shall come in quietly and take the kingdom by flatteries. ²²And with the arms of an overflowing flood shall sweep all before him, and they shall be broken; and also the prince of the covenant. ²³And after the treaty made with him, he shall work deceitfully. For he shall come up and shall become strong with a small people. ²⁴He shall enter safely, even upon the rich places of the province. And he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers. He shall scatter the prey, and spoil, and riches among them. And he shall plan his plots against the strongholds, even for a time. ²⁵And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army, but he shall not stand. For they shall plan plots against him. ²⁶Yea, those who have been eating his food shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow. And many shall fall down slain. ²⁷And both these kings' hearts shall be to do evil, and they shall speak lies at one table. But it shall not succeed. For yet the end shall come at the time appointed. ²⁸Then he shall return to his land with great riches. And his heart shall be against the holy covenant. And he shall work. And he shall return to his own land.

²⁹At the time appointed he shall return and come against the South. But it shall not be as the former or as the latter. ³⁰For the ships of Chīt'tim shall come against him. Therefore he shall be grieved and return, and have fury against the holy covenant. So he shall do; he shall even return and give heed to those who forsake the holy covenant. ³¹And arms shall stand in his part, and they shall defile the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination of the dēs-ō-lā'-tôr. ³²And those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall ruin by flatteries. But the people who know their God shall be strong and do well. ³³And those who understand among the people shall teach many; yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, for many days. ³⁴Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall cling to them with flatteries. ³⁵And some of those of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end. Because it is still appointed for a time. ³⁶And the king shall do according to his will. And he shall lift himself up and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods, and shall succeed until the fury is fulfilled. For that which is decreed shall be done. ³⁷Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god. For he shall magnify himself above all. ³⁸But in his place he shall honor the god of forces; and a god whom his fathers did not know, he shall honor with gold and silver, and with precious stones and desirable things. ³⁹So he shall do well in the fortresses of the strongholds with a strange god, whom he shall make known, and multiply in glory. And he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price. ⁴⁰And at the time of the end, the king of the South shall push at him. And the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships.

⁴¹And he shall enter into the countries and shall overflow and pass over. He shall also enter into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown. But these shall escape out of his hand — Edom and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. ⁴²He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries. And the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt. And the Lib'-y-āns and the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns shall be at his steps. ⁴⁴But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him. Therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and to completely do away with many. ⁴⁵And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

¹And at that time Michael shall stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation — until that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. ²And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³And those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the sky; and those who turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever. ⁴But you, O Daniel, set up the words and seal the book, even to the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

⁵Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood another two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. ⁶And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river: How long shall it be until the end of these waters? ⁷And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right and his left hand to Heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half. And when they have made an end of scattering the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. ⁸And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, O my lord, what shall be the end of these things? ⁹And He said, Go, Daniel! For the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried. But the wicked shall do wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand. ¹¹And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination of the dēs-ō-lā'-tôr set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. ¹²Blessed is he who waits and comes to the thousand three hundred and thirty-five days. ¹³But go your way until the end. For you shall rest and stand in your lot at the end of the day.

The Book of HOSEA

CHAPTER 1

¹The word of the LORD that came to Hō-sē'-ā, the son of Bēer'-ī, in the days of Ūz-zī'-āh, Jō'-thām, Ahaz and Hēz-ē-kī'-āh, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jēr-ō-bō'-ām the son of Jō'-āsh, king of Israel. ²The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hō-sē'-ā. And the LORD said to Hō-sē'-ā, Go, take unto you a wife of adultery and children of adultery. For the land has committed great fōr-nī-cā'-tion, departing from the LORD. ³So he went and took Gō'-mēr the daughter of Dīb-lā'-īm, who conceived and bore him a son. ⁴And the LORD said to him, Call his name Jēz'-rēel. For still a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jēz'-rēel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. ⁵And at that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jēz'-rēel.

⁶And she conceived again and bore a daughter. And God said to him, Call her name Lō-rû-hä'-mäh, for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel. But I will utterly take them away. ⁷But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

⁸Now when she had weaned Lō-rû-hä'-mäh, she conceived and bore a son. ⁹Then God said, Call his name Lō-ām'-mī. For you are not My people, and I will not be your God.

¹⁰Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered. And it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, You are not My people, there it shall be said to them, You are the sons of the living God. ¹¹Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be gathered together, and shall set over themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land. For great shall be the day of Jēz'-rēel.

CHAPTER 2

¹Say to your brothers, Äm'-mī; and to your sisters, Rû-hä'-mäh. ²Contend with your mother, contend. For she is not my wife, neither am I her husband. Let her therefore put away her fōr-nī-cā'-tions out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts, ³lest I strip her naked and set her out as in the day that she was born — and lest I make her as the wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. ⁴And I will not have mercy upon her children, for they are the children of adulteries. ⁵For their mother has played the harlot. She who conceived them has done shamefully. For she said, I will go after my lovers who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drinks.

⁶Therefore behold, I will fence up your way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths. ⁷And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them. She shall seek them, but shall not find them. Then she shall say, I will go and return to my first husband, for then it was better with me than now. ⁸For she did not know that I gave her grain, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. ⁹Therefore I will return and take away my grain in the time of it, and my wine in its season, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness. ¹⁰And now I will uncover her wickedness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of my hand. ¹¹I will also cause all her joy to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. ¹²And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me. And I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them. ¹³And I will visit upon her the days of Bā'-ā-līm, in which she burned incense to them, and she adorned herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers and forgot Me, says the LORD.

¹⁴Therefore behold, I will lure her and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably to her. ¹⁵And I will give her her vineyards from there, and the valley of Ā'-chôr for a door of hope. And she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁶And at that day, says the LORD, you shall call Me Īsh'-ī, and shall no more call Me Bā'-ā-lī. ¹⁷For I will take away the names of Bā'-ā-līm out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name. ¹⁸And in that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground. And I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely. ¹⁹And I will betroth you to Me forever. Yea, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies. ²⁰I will even betroth you to Me in faithfulness. And you shall know the LORD. ²¹And in that day I will hear, says the LORD. I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth, ²²and the earth shall hear the grain and the wine and the oil. And they shall hear Jēz-rēel. ²³And I will sow her to Me in the earth. And I will have mercy upon her who had not had mercy. And I will say to those who were not My people, You are My people. And they shall say, Thou art my God.

¹Then the LORD said to me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love flagons of wine. ²So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for a hō'-mēr of barley and a half homer of barley. ³And I said to her, You shall abide for me many days. You shall not play the harlot, and you shall not be for another man. So I will also be for you. ⁴For the children of Israel shall live many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ē'-phōd, and without tēr'-ā-phīm. ⁵Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. And they shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the latter days.

¹Hear the word of the LORD, children of Israel. For the LORD has a quarrel with the people of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. ²They break out by swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery — and blood touches blood. ³Therefore the land shall mourn, and everyone who dwells in it shall droop, with the beasts of the field and with the birds of the heavens. Yes, the fish of the sea shall also be taken away. ⁴Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another. For your people are as those who strive with the priest. ⁵Therefore you shall fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with you in the night, and I will destroy your mother.

⁶My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you shall be no priest to Me. Since you have forgotten the law of your God, I will also forget your children. ⁷As they were increased, so they sinned against Me. Therefore I will change their glory into shame. ⁸They eat up the sin of My people, and they set their heart on their iniquity. ⁹And it has become, Like people, like priest — and I will punish them for their ways and reward them for their doings. ¹⁰For they shall eat and not have enough. They shall commit fôr-nī-cā'-tion and not increase, because they have stopped taking heed to the LORD. ¹¹Fôr-nī-cā'-tion and wine and new wine take away the heart.

¹²My people seek advice from their staffs, and their rod declares to them. For the spirit of fôr-nī-cā'-tions has caused them to go astray, and they have gone lusting away from under their God. ¹³They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because its shade is good. Therefore your daughters shall commit fôr-nī-cā'-tion, and your wives shall commit adultery. ¹⁴I will not punish your daughters when they commit fornication, nor your wives when they commit adultery. For the men themselves go aside with harlots, and they sacrifice with harlots. Therefore the people who do not understand shall fall.

¹⁵Though you, Israel, play the harlot, yet do not let Judah become guilty. And do not come to Gīl'-gāl, neither go up to Bēth-ā'-vën, nor swear, As the LORD lives. ¹⁶For Israel slides back like a backsliding heifer. Now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place. ¹⁷Ē'-phrā-īm is joined to idols; let him alone. ¹⁸Their drink is gone; they have committed fornication without end. Her rulers dearly love shame. ¹⁹The wind has bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

¹Hear this, O priests, and listen, house of Israel. And give ear, O house of the king. For judgment is toward you, because you have been a snare on Mizpah and a net spread upon Tā'-bôr. ²And those who have fallen away have gone deep to slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all. ³I know Ē'-phrā-īm, and Israel is not hidden from me. For now, O Ē'-phrā-īm, you commit fôr-ni-cá-tion and Israel is defiled. ⁴Their doings will not allow them to turn to their God; for the spirit of fornication is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD. ⁵And the pride of Israel testifies to his face. Therefore Israel and Ē'-phrā-īm shall fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them. ⁶They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find Him. He has withdrawn Himself from them. ⁷They have been traitors against the LORD, for they have brought forth strange children. Now a new moon shall devour them with their portions. ⁸Blow the cornet in Gīb'-ē-āh, and the trumpet in Rā'-māh; cry aloud at Bēth-ā'-vën, after you, O Benjamin. ⁹Ē'-phrā-īm shall be a ruin in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Israel I have made known that which shall surely be. ¹⁰The princes of Judah were like those who remove a border. Therefore I will pour out My wrath upon them like water. ¹¹Ē'-phrā-īm is crushed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment. ¹²Therefore I will be to Ē'-phrā-īm as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rotteness. ¹³When Ē'-phrā-īm saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then Ē'-phrā-īm went to the Assyrian and sent to king Jâr'-ēb — yet he could not heal you nor cure you of your wound. ¹⁴For I will be to Ē'-phrā-īm as a lion, and as a strong lion to the house of Judah. I, even I, will tear and go away. I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

¹⁵I will go and return to My place until they confess their guilt and seek My face — in their affliction they will seek Me early.

CHAPTER 6

¹Come and let us return to the LORD. For He has torn, and He will heal us; He has stricken, and He will bind us up. ²After two days He will bring us to life; in the third day He will raise us up, and we shall live in His sight. ³Then we shall know, if we follow on to know the LORD. His going forth is prepared as the morning; and He shall come to us as the rain, as the latter and former rain to the earth.

⁴O Ē'-phrā-īm, what shall I do to you? O Judah, what shall I do to you? For your goodness is like a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goes away. ⁵Therefore I have cut them in pieces by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of My mouth. And your judgments are like the light that goes forth. ⁶For I desired mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. ⁷But, like men, they have broken the covenant. They have been traitors against Me there. ⁸Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity, and is defiled with blood. ⁹And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent — for they commit wickedness. ¹⁰I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel — the fôr-nĩ-cā'-tion of Ē'-phrā-īm is there; Israel is defiled. ¹¹Also, O Judah, He has set a harvest for you, when I return the captivity of My people.

¹When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ē'-phrā-īm was uncovered, and the wickedness of Sā-mār'-ī-ā. For they have worked falsehood. And the thief comes in, and the troop of robbers spoils outside. ²And they do not think within their hearts that I remember all their wickedness. Now their own doings have hemmed them in; they are before My face. ³They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. ⁴They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker who ceases from waking after he has kneaded the dough, until it is leavened. ⁵In the day of our king, the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine. He stretches out his hand with scorners. ⁶For they have made their heart ready like an oven, while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps all the night; in the morning it burns like a flaming fire. ⁷They are all hot as an oven, and have eaten up their judges. All their kings have fallen; there is none among them who calls to me. ⁸Ē'-phrā-īm has mixed himself among the people; Ē'-phrā-īm is a cake not turned. ⁹Strangers have eaten up his strength, and he does not know it. Yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knows it not. ¹⁰And the pride of Israel testifies to his face. And they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek Him for all this.

¹¹Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart; they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. ¹²When they shall go, I will spread My net upon them; I will bring them down like the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard. ¹³Woe to them! For they have fled from me. Ruin to them! because they have sinned against me. Though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against Me. ¹⁴And they have not cried to Me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds; they gather themselves for grain and wine, and they rebel against Me. ¹⁵Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet they think evil against Me. ¹⁶They return, but not to the Most High. They are like a deceitful bow; their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This shall be their scorn in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8

¹Put the trumpet to your mouth. He shall come like an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have broken My covenant and have sinned against My law. ²Israel shall cry to me, My God, we know Thee. ³Israel has cast off that which is good; the enemy shall pursue him. ⁴They have set up kings, but not by Me; they have made princes, and I knew it not. They have made themselves idols with their silver and their gold, so that they may be cut off.

⁵Your calf, O Sā-mâr'-î-ā, has cast you off. My anger is kindled against them; how long will they be unable to bear purity? ⁶For from Israel it came also. The workman made it, therefore it is not God; but the calf of Sā-mâr'-î-ā shall be broken in pieces. ⁷For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. It has no stalk; the bud shall yield, and they shall reap the strangers shall swallow it up. ⁸Israel is swallowed up; now they shall be among the Gentiles as a vessel in which there is no pleasure. ⁹For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself. Ē-phrā-īm has hired lovers. ¹⁰Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now I will gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes: ¹¹Because Ē'-phrā-īm has made many altars to sin, altars shall be to him to sin. ¹²I have written to him the great things of My law, but they were counted as a strange thing. ¹³They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of My offerings, and eat it; but the LORD does not receive them. Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. They shall return to Egypt. ¹⁴For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and builds temples. And Judah has multiplied cities. But I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall burn up their palaces.

¹O Israel, rejoice not for joy, as other people. For you have gone lusting away from your God; you have loved a reward upon every grain floor. ²The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her. ³They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but Ē'-phrā-īm shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria. ⁴They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing to Him. Their sacrifices shall be like the bread of mourners to them; all who eat of them shall be defiled. For their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD. ⁵What will you do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD? ⁶For lo, they have left because of ruin. Egypt shall gather them up; Memphis shall bury them. Nettles shall possess the pleasant places for their silver; thorns shall be in their tents. ⁷The days of judgment have come; the days of vengeance have come; Israel shall know it. The prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, because of the greatness of your iniquity and the great hatred. ⁸The watchman of Ē'-phrā-īm was with my God. The prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God. ⁹They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gib'-ě-āh. Therefore He will remember their iniquity; He will punish their sins.

¹⁰I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers as the first-fruit in the fig tree at her first time. But they went to Bā'-āl-pē'-ōr and set themselves apart to that shameful thing; and they became hateful like that which they loved. ¹¹As for Ē'-phrā-īm, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception. ¹²Though they bring up their children, yet I will make them childless, without a man. Yea, woe also to them when I depart from them! ¹³Ē'-phrā-īm, when I looked toward Tyre, was planted in a pleasant place. But Ē'-phrā-īm shall bring forth his children to the murderer. ¹⁴Give them, O Lord — what wilt Thou give? — give them a mis-carrying womb and dry breasts. ¹⁵All their wickedness is in Gīl'-gāl, for there I hated them. I will drive them out of My house for the wickedness of their doings. I will love them no more; all their princes are revolvers. ¹⁶Ē'-phrā-īm is stricken; their root is dried up; they shall bear no fruit. Yea, though they bring forth, yet I will slay the beloved fruit of their womb. ¹⁷My God shall cast them away because they did not listen to Him. And they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10

¹Israel is an empty vine; he brings forth fruit to himself. According to the multitude of his fruit, he has increased the altars. They have made goodly images according to the goodness of his land. ²Their heart is divided; now they shall be found guilty. He shall break down their altars, and He shall spoil their images. ³For now they shall say, We have no king because we did not fear the LORD; what then should a king do to us? ⁴They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant. So judgment springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field. ⁵The people of Sā-mâr'-i-ā shall fear because of the calves of Bēth-ā'-vën; for its people shall mourn over it, and its priests who rejoiced on it for its glory shall mourn because it has departed from it. ⁶It shall also be carried to Assyria for a present to king Jâr'-ēb. Ē'-phrā-īm shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. ⁷As for Sā-mâr'-i-ā, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

⁸Also the high places of Ā'-vën, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us, and to the mountains, Fall on us.

⁹O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gîb'-ë-äh. There they stood; the battle against the children of iniquity did not overtake them in Gîb'-ë-äh. ¹⁰*It is* in My desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows. ¹¹And Ē'-phrā-îm is like a heifer that is taught, and loves to tread out the grain. But I passed over upon her fair neck. I will make Ē'-phrā-îm to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods. ¹²Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground. For it is time to seek the LORD until He comes and rains righteousness upon you. ¹³You have plowed wickedness; you have reaped iniquity; you have eaten the fruit of lies, because you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. ¹⁴Therefore an uproar shall arise among the people, and all your fortresses shall be spoiled as Shāl'-mān spoiled Bēth-ār'-bēl in the day of battle. The mother was dashed in pieces upon her children. ¹⁵So Bēth'-ēl shall do to you because of your great wickedness. In a morning the king of Israel shall be utterly cut off.

¹When Israel was a child, then I loved him and called My son out of Egypt. ²As they called them, so they went from them. They sacrificed to Bā'-ā-lîm and burned incense to graven images. ³I also taught Ē'-phrā-îm to go, taking them by their arms; but they did not know that I healed them. ⁴I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as those who take off the yoke that was on their jaws, and I was laying food before them.

⁵He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return. ⁶And the sword shall remain on his cities, and shall destroy his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels. ⁷And My people are bent to backsliding from Me. Though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt Him. ⁸How shall I give you up, Ē'-phrā-îm? How shall I deliver you, Israel? How shall I make you like Ād'-māh? How shall I set you as Zē-bō'-îm? My heart is turned within Me; My repentings are kindled together. ⁹I will not carry out the heat of My anger; I will not return to destroy Ē'-phrā-îm. For I am God and not man, the Holy One in the midst of you; and I will not enter into the city. ¹⁰They shall walk after the LORD; He shall roar like a lion. When He shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west. ¹¹They shall tremble like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria. And I will place them in their houses, says the LORD. ¹²Ē'-phrā-îm circles around Me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit. But Judah still rules with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER 12

¹Ē'-phrā-īm feeds on wind and follows after the east wind. He daily multiplies lies and cruelty. And they make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt. ²The LORD also has a quarrel with Judah and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings He will repay him.

³He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God. ⁴Yes, he wept and cried unto Him and he had power over the angel and overcame. He found him in Bēth'-ēl, and there He spoke with us, ⁵even the LORD God of hosts. The LORD is his memorial. ⁶Therefore turn to your God; keep mercy and judgment, and wait upon your God forever.

⁷*He is a merchant; the scales of deceit are in his hand; he loves to be cruel.* ⁸And Ē'-phrā-īm said, Yet I have become rich, I have found much wealth for myself. In all my labors they shall find in me no iniquity that is sin. ⁹And I the LORD, who have been your God from the land of Egypt, will yet make you to dwell in tents as in the days of the solemn feast. ¹⁰I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions and have used parables, by the ministry of the prophets. ¹¹*Is there* iniquity in Gilead? Surely they are vanity; they sacrifice bulls in Gil'-gāl. Yes, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields. ¹²And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. ¹³And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was kept safe. ¹⁴Ē'-phrā-īm provoked him to anger most bitterly; therefore he shall leave his blood upon him, and his Lord shall turn his reproach unto him.

¹When Ē'-phrā-īm spoke trembling, he was lifted up in Israel; but when he offended in Bā'-āl, he died. ²And now they sin more and more, and have made themselves molten images of their silver and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves. ³Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud and as the early dew that passes away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney. ⁴Yet I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt, and you shall know no God but Me. For there is no Saviour besides Me.

⁵I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great dryness. ⁶According to their pasture, so were they filled. They were filled and their heart was lifted up. Therefore they have forgotten Me. ⁷Therefore I will be as a lion to them; as a leopard by the way I will watch them. ⁸I will meet them like a bear whose cubs are taken away, and will tear the lining of their heart. And there I will devour them like a lion; the wild beast shall tear them.

⁹O Israel, you have destroyed yourself; but in Me is your help. ¹⁰I will be your king; where is any other who may save you in all your cities? And where are your judges of whom you said, Give me a king and princes? ¹¹I gave you a king in My anger and took him away in My wrath. ¹²The iniquity of E'-phrā-im is bound up; his sin is hidden. ¹³The sorrows of a woman in labor pains shall come upon him. He is an unwise son; for he cannot stand still in the time of the breaking forth of children. ¹⁴I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death. O Death, I will be your plagues; O Grave, I will be your ruin! Repentance shall be hidden from My eyes.

¹⁵Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind shall come. The wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up. He shall spoil the treasure of all desirable vessels. ¹⁶Sā-mār'-ī-ā shall become a waste, for she has rebelled against her God. They shall fall by the sword. Their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER 14

¹O Israel, return to the LORD your God, for you have fallen by your iniquity. ²Take with you words, and turn to the LORD. Say to Him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously. So we will give the calves of our lips. ³Assyria shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses. Neither shall we say any more to the work of our hands, You are our gods, for in you the fatherless find mercy.

⁴I will heal their backslidings; I will love them freely; for My anger has turned away from him. ⁵I will be as the dew to Israel; he shall grow as the lily and cast forth his roots like Lēb'-ā-non. ⁶His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lēb'-ā-non. ⁷They who dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall show life like the grain, and grow like the vine. Their scent shall be as the wine of Lēb'-ā-non. ⁸E'-phrā-im shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him and watched him; I am like a green fir tree. Your fruit is found from Me. ⁹Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? Understanding, and he shall know them? For the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them; but sinners shall fall in them.

The Book of JOEL

CHAPTER 1

¹The word of the LORD that came to Jō'-ēl the son of Pē-thū'-ēl. ²Hear this, you old men, and give ear, all you people of the land. Has this been in your days or even in the days of your fathers? ³Tell your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. ⁴That which the creeping locust has left, the swarming locust has eaten. And that which the swarming locust has left, the devouring locust has eaten. And that which the devouring locust has left, the hopping locust has eaten. ⁵Awake, drunkards, and weep; and howl, all you drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. ⁶For a nation has come up upon my land, strong and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the cheek teeth of a great lion. ⁷He has laid my vine waste and barked my fig tree. He has made it completely bare and cast it away. Its branches are made white.

⁸Weep like a virgin clothed with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. ⁹The meal offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn. ¹⁰The field is wasted; the land mourns, for the grain is wasted. The new wine is dried up; the oil tree droops. ¹¹Be ashamed, O husbandmen; howl, O vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field has perished. ¹²The vine is dried up, and the fig tree droops, the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, all the trees of the field, are dried up, because joy has dried up from the sons of men. ¹³Clothe yourselves, and weep, you priests; howl, you ministers of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God; for the meal offering and the drink offering is held back from the house of your God.

¹⁴Set apart a fast; call a solemn gathering. I gather the elders and all the people of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the Lord, ¹⁵Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is at hand, and it shall come as a ruin from the Almighty. ¹⁶Is not the food cut off before our eyes, and joy and gladness from the house of our God? ¹⁷The seed is rotten under their clods; the storage bins are laid waste; the barns are broken down, for the grain has dried up. ¹⁸How the beasts groan! The herds of cattle are troubled because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are destroyed. ¹⁹O LORD, unto Thee will I cry; for the fire has burned up the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. ²⁰The beasts of the field also cry to Thee; for the rivers of water are dried up, and the fire has burned up the pastures of the wilderness.

¹Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in My holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the day of the LORD comes, for it is near at hand; ²a day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains; a great people and a strong people; there has not been ever the like, neither shall there ever be again, even to the years of many generations. ³A fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns. The land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness. Yes, and nothing shall escape them. ⁴They look like horses; and like horsemen, so they shall run. ⁵They shall leap like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, like a strong people set in battle order. ⁶Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather blackness. ⁷They shall run like mighty men. They shall climb the wall like men of war, and they shall march each one upon his way, and they shall not break their ranks. ⁸Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk each one in his path; and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. ⁹They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. ¹⁰The earth shall tremble before them; the heavens shall shake. The sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. ¹¹And the LORD shall utter His voice before His army; for His camp is very great; for strong is He who does His word. For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can stand it?

¹²Yet even now, says the LORD, turn unto Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. ¹³Yes, tear your heart and not your robes, and turn to the LORD your God: for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repents of the evil. ¹⁴Who knows if He will return and repent and leave a blessing behind Him, a meal offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

¹⁵Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn gathering. ¹⁶Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, gather the elders, gather the children and those who suck the breasts. Let the bridegroom go forth out of his chamber, and the bride out of her room. ¹⁷Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare Thy people, O LORD, and give not Thy inheritance to shame, that the heathen should rule over them. Why should they say among the people, Where is their God?

¹⁸Then the LORD will be jealous for His land and pity His people. ¹⁹Yes, the LORD will answer and say to His people, Behold, I will send you grain, and wine, and oil, and you shall be satisfied with it. And I will no more make you a curse among the heathen. ²⁰But I will remove the northern army far from you, and will drive him into a barren and deserted land, with his face toward the eastern sea and his rear toward the western sea; and his stink shall come up, and his ill odor shall come up, because he has done great things.

²¹Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice. For the LORD will do great things. ²²Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness spring up; for the tree bears her fruit, and the fig tree and the vine yield their strength. ²³Be glad then, children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God. For He has given you the former rain according to righteousness, and He will cause the rain to come down for you, the former rain and the latter rain in the first month. ²⁴And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. ²⁵And I will restore to you the years which the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, and the destroyer, and the cutter, My great army which I sent among you. ²⁶And you shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt with you wonderfully; and My people shall never be ashamed. ²⁷And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and no one else; and My people shall never be ashamed.

²⁸And afterward I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. ²⁹And also I will pour out My Spirit upon the menservants and upon the maidservants in those days. ³⁰And I will show wonders in the heavens above, and in the earth, blood and fire and pillars of smoke. ³¹The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD. ³²And whoever shall call upon the name of the LORD shall be saved; for salvation shall be in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, as the LORD has said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

¹For, behold, in those days and in that time, when I will bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, ²I will also gather all nations and will bring them down into the valley of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt. And I will fight with them there for My people and for My inheritance Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and divided My land. ³And they have cast lots for My people, and have given a boy for a harlot and sold a girl for wine so that they might drink. ⁴Yea, and what have you to do with Me, O Tyre and Sī'-dōn, and all the borders of Palestine? Will you give Me a reward? And if you reward Me, swiftly and speedily I will turn your reward upon your own head, ⁵because you have taken My silver and My gold, and have carried My desirable things into your temples. ⁶You have also sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Grecians, that you might remove them far from their border. ⁷Behold, I will raise them out of the place where you have sold them, and will turn your reward upon your own head. ⁸And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sā-bé'-āns, unto a people far off; for the LORD has spoken it.

⁹Declare this among the Gentiles: Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up. ¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into swords. Let the weak say, I am strong. ¹¹Gather yourselves and come, all you nations, and gather yourselves together all around; cause Thy mighty ones to come down there, O LORD. ¹²Let the nations be awakened and come up to the valley of Jē-hosh'-ā-phāt; for there I will sit to judge all the nations all around. ¹³Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, come down; for the press is full; the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great. ¹⁴Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision; for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. ¹⁵The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. ¹⁶The LORD shall also roar out of Zion and utter His voice from Jerusalem. And the heavens and the earth shall shake. But the LORD will be the hope of His people and the strength of the children of Israel. ¹⁷So you shall know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain. Then Jerusalem shall be holy, and no strangers shall pass through her any more.

¹⁸And in that day the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters; and a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shīt'-tim. ¹⁹Egypt shall be a ruin, and Ē'-dom shall be a deserted wilderness, because of the violence against the children of Judah; for they have shed innocent blood in their land. ²⁰But Judah shall dwell forever, and Jerusalem shall be from generation to generation. For I will cleanse their blood which I have not cleansed; for the LORD dwells in Zion.

The Book of AMOS

CHAPTER 1

¹The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tē-kō'ā — the word which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Ūz-zī'āh king of Judah, and in the days of Jēr-ō-bō'ām the son of Jō'āsh king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

²And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion and utter His voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall dry up. ³Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Damascus, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron. ⁴But I will send a fire into the house of Hā-zā'ēl, which shall devour the palaces of Bēn-hā'dād. ⁵I will also break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the dweller from the plain of Ā'vèn and from him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden. And the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir, says the LORD.

⁶Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Gā'zā, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they carried the whole captivity away captive in order to deliver them up to Edom. ⁷But I will send a fire on the wall of Gā'zā, which shall devour its palaces. ⁸And I will cut off the people from Āsh'dōd, and him who holds the scepter from Āsh'kē-lōn, and I will turn My hand against Ēk'rōn. And the rest of the Philistines shall perish, says the Lord GOD.

⁹Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Tyre, yea for four, I will not turn away from it. Because they delivered up the whole captivity to Ē'-dom, and did not remember the brotherly covenant. ¹⁰But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre, which shall devour the palaces of it.

¹¹Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Ē'-dom, yea for four, I will not turn away from it. Because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pity, and his anger tore without end, and he kept his wrath forever. ¹²But I will send a fire upon Tē'mān, which shall devour the palaces of Bōz'rāh.

¹³Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of the children of Ām'mōn, yea for four, I will not turn away from it. Because they have ripped up the women of Gilead who were with child, so that they might make their own border larger. ¹⁴But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rāb'bāh, and it shall devour the palaces of it, with shouting in the day of battle, with a storm in the day of the whirlwind. ¹⁵And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

¹Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Moab, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because he burned the bones of the king of Ē'-dom into lime. ²But I will send a fire upon Mō'-āb, and it shall devour the palaces of Kēr'-ī-ōth. And Moab shall die with great noise, with shouting, with the sound of a trumpet. ³And I will cut off the judge from the midst of it, and will kill all its princes with him, says the LORD.

⁴Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Judah, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they have despised the laws of the LORD and have not kept His commandments. And their lies have caused them to go astray after which their fathers have walked. ⁵But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

⁶Thus says the LORD: For three transgressions of Israel, yea for four, I will not turn away from it; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes; ⁷who pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek. And a man and his father will go in unto the same woman, to defile My holy name. ⁸And they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken for pledge, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

⁹Yet I destroyed the Ām'-ōr-īte before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above and his roots from below. ¹⁰Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you forty years through the wilderness to possess the land of the Ām'-ōr-īte. ¹¹And I raised up prophets from your sons and Nāz'-ā-rītes from your young men. Is it not even so, O children of Israel? says the LORD. ¹²But you gave the Nāz'-ā-rītes wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, Do not prophesy. ¹³Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart that is full of sheaves is pressed. ¹⁴Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his power. Neither shall the mighty deliver himself; ¹⁵neither shall he who handles the bow stand; and he who is swift of foot shall not deliver himself. Neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself. ¹⁶And he who is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, says the LORD.

¹Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, ²You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. ³Can two walk together unless they are agreed? ⁴Will a lion roar in the forest when he has no prey? Will a young lion cry out of his den if he has taken nothing? ⁵Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth where no trap is set for him? Shall one take up a snare from the earth and have taken nothing at all? ⁶Shall a trumpet be blown in the city and the people not be afraid? Shall there be calamity in a city and the LORD has not done it? ⁷Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing unless He reveals His secret unto His servants the prophets. ⁸The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken; who can but prophesy?

⁹Cry out on the palaces of Āsh'-dōd, and on the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say: Gather yourselves upon the mountains of Sā-mār'-ī-ā, and behold the great uproars in its midst, and the oppressed in its midst. ¹⁰For they do not know how to do right, says the LORD, those who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. ¹¹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: O an enemy! and he shall be all around the land; and he shall bring you down from your strength, and your palaces shall be spoiled. ¹²Thus says the LORD: As the shepherd takes two legs out of the mouth of the lion, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out, those who dwell in Sā-mār'-ī-ā in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch. ¹³Hear and testify in the house of Jacob, says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, ¹⁴for in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Bēth'-ēl. And the horns of the altar shall be cut off and shall fall to the ground. ¹⁵And I will strike the house together with the summer house, and the houses of ivory shall perish; and the great houses shall have an end, says the LORD.

¹Hear this word, cows of Bā'-shān who are in the mountain of Sā-mār'-ī-ā — you who press down the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their masters, Bring and let us drink. ²The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness that the days shall come upon you that he will take you away with hooks, and your children with fishhooks. ³And you shall go out at the breaks, each one straight before her. And you shall cast them into the palace, says the LORD.

⁴Come to Bethel and transgress; to Gil'-gāl and multiply transgressions. And bring your sacrifices every morning and your tithes after three years; ⁵and offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and cry out and publish the free offerings! For so you love to do, O children of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

⁶And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places. Yet you have not returned unto Me, says the LORD. ⁷And I have also withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest. And I caused it to rain upon one city and caused it not to rain upon another city; one piece was rained upon, and the piece upon which it did not rain dried up. ⁸So two or three cities wandered to one city in order to drink water, but they were not satisfied – yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. ⁹I have stricken you with blasting and mildew. When your gardens and your vineyards and your olive trees increased, the creeping locust devoured them – yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. ¹⁰I have sent the plague among you in the way of Egypt; I have slain your young men with the sword, and have taken away your horses. And I have made the stink of your camps to come up into your nostrils – yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. ¹¹I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh, and you were like a firebrand plucked out of the burning – yet you have not returned to Me, says the LORD. ¹²Therefore I will do this to you, O Israel; and because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel. ¹³For lo, He forms the mountains and creates the wind, and declares to man what his thought is – He who makes the morning darkness and treads upon the high places of the earth – the LORD, the God of hosts, is His name.

CHAPTER 5

¹Hear this word which I take up against you, even a weeping, O house of Israel. ²The virgin of Israel has fallen; she shall rise no more; she is forsaken upon her land. There is none to raise her up. ³For thus says the Lord GOD: The city that went out by a thousand shall leave a hundred, and that which went forth by a hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

⁴For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel: Seek Me, and you shall live. ⁵But do not seek Bethel nor enter into Gil'-gāl, and do not pass to Bēer-shē'-bā; for Gil'-gāl shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to nothing. ⁶Seek the LORD, and you shall live; lest He break out like a fire in the house of Joseph and devour it, and there be none to put it out in Bethel. ⁷You who turn judgment to wormwood and leave off righteousness in the earth, ⁸*seek Him* who makes the Plēi'-ā-dēs and Ō-rī'-on, and who turns the shadow of death into the morning and makes the day dark with night. Seek Him who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the face of the earth – the LORD is His name – ⁹who strengthens the ones who are robbed against the strong, so that the ones who are robbed shall come against the fortress. ¹⁰They hate him who rebukes in the gate, and they despise him who speaks uprightly. ¹¹Therefore, because your walking is upon the poor, and you take burdens of wheat from him – you have built houses of carved stone, but you shall not dwell in them – you have planted desirable vineyards, but you shall not drink wine from them. ¹²For I know your many transgressions and your mighty sins. They afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate. ¹³Therefore the understanding ones shall keep silent in that time; for it is an evil time. ¹⁴Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as you have spoken. ¹⁵Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate. It may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph. ¹⁶Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Master, says this: Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! Alas! And they shall call the husbandmen to mourning, and those who are skillful in mourning to wailing. ¹⁷And there shall be wailing in all vineyards; for I will pass through you, says the LORD. ¹⁸Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD! To what end is it for you? The day of the LORD is darkness and not light — ¹⁹as if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand upon the wall, and a snake bit him. ²⁰Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness and not light? Even very dark, and no brightness in it?

²¹I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not delight in your solemn assemblies. ²²Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your meal offerings, I will not be pleased. Neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals. ²³Take the noise of your songs away from Me; for I will not hear the melody of your viols. ²⁴But let judgment roll down like waters, and righteousness like a mighty stream. ²⁵Have you offered sacrifices and offerings to Me forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? ²⁶But you have carried the tent of your Mō'-lōch and Chi'-ün your images, the star of your god which you made to yourselves. ²⁷Therefore I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

CHAPTER 6

¹Woe unto them who are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Sā-mār'-ī-ā, who are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came! ²Pass to Cāl'-nēh, and see; and from there go to Hā'-māth the great. Then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than these kingdoms, or their border greater than your border? ³You who put the evil day far away, and cause the seat of violence to come near; ⁴who lie upon beds of ivory and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock and the calves out of the midst of the stall; ⁵who chant to the sound of the viol and invent instruments of music for themselves, like David; ⁶who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph!

⁷Therefore now they shall go captive with the first who go captive, and the banquet of those who stretch themselves shall be removed.

⁸The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself, says the LORD, the God of hosts: I despise the glory of Jacob, and hate his palaces; therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it. ⁹And if there remain ten men in one house, they shall die. ¹⁰And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he who burns him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say to him who is by the sides of the house, Is there still anyone with you? And he shall say, No. Then he shall say, Hold your tongue; for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD. ¹¹For, behold, the LORD commands, and He will strike the great house with breaks, and the little house with tears.

¹²Shall horses run upon the rock? Will one plow there with oxen? For you have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock — ¹³you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, Have we not taken horns to ourselves by our own strength? ¹⁴But behold, I will raise a nation up against you, O house of Israel, says the Lord, the God of hosts. And they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hā-māth unto the river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 7

¹Thus has the Lord GOD showed me. And behold, He formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. ²And when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I pray Thee. By whom shall Jacob arise? For he is small. ³The LORD repented for this; it shall not be, says the LORD.

⁴Thus the Lord GOD showed me. And behold, the Lord GOD called for fire to plead His case, and it devoured the great deep and ate up a part. ⁵Then I said, O Lord GOD, cease, I pray Thee. By whom shall Jacob arise? For he is small. ⁶The LORD repented for this; this also shall not be, says the Lord GOD.

⁷Thus He showed me. And behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. ⁸And the LORD said to me, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A plumb-line. Then the Lord said, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of My people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. ⁹And the high places of Isaac shall be wasted, and the holy places of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jēr-ō-bō'-ām with the sword.

¹⁰Then Ām-ā-zī'-āh the priest of Bethel sent to Jēr-ō-bō'-ām king of Israel, saying, Amos has plotted against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. ¹¹For so Amos says: Jēr-ō-bō'-ām shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land. ¹²Also Ām-ā-zī'-āh said to Amos, O seer, go, flee into the land of Judah; and eat bread there, and prophesy there.

¹³But do not prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king's temple, and it is the king's court.

¹⁴Then Amos answered and said to Ām-ā-zī'-āh: I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son. But I was a herdsman and a gatherer of sycamore fruit; ¹⁵and the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said to me, Go, prophesy to My people Israel.

¹⁶Now therefore hear the word of the LORD. You say, Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not drop your words against the house of Isaac. ¹⁷Therefore thus says the LORD: Your wife shall be a harlot in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line. And you shall die in a defiled land; and Israel shall surely go into captivity out of his land.

¹Thus the Lord GOD showed me. And behold, a basket of summer fruit. ²And He said, Amos, what do you see? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then the LORD said to me, The end has come upon My people of Israel: I will never pass by them any more. ³And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, says the Lord GOD. There shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them out with silence.

⁴Hear this, O you who swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail, ⁵saying, When will the new moon be gone so that we may sell grain? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ē'-phāh small and the shekel great, and perverting the balances by deceit? ⁶that we may buy the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals; and sell the chaff of the wheat? ⁷The LORD has sworn by the Glory of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works. ⁸Shall not the land tremble for this, and everyone who dwells in it mourn? And it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned as by the flood of Egypt. ⁹And in that day, says the Lord GOD, I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the third day. ¹⁰And I will turn your feast into mourning, and all your songs into weeping; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head. And I will make it like the mourning of an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

¹¹Behold, the days come, says the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land — not a famine of bread nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. ¹²And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it. ¹³In that day the fair virgins and the young men shall faint for thirst. ¹⁴They who swear by the sin of Sā-mār'-ī-ā and say, Your God, O Dan, lives; and, The way of Bēer-shē'-bā lives — even they shall fall and never rise up again.

¹I saw the Lord standing upon the altar. And He said, Strike the capital of the door, so that the posts may shake; and break them upon the heads of all the people. And I will kill the last of them with the sword. He who flees from them shall not get away, and he who escapes from them shall not be delivered. ²Though they dig into hell, there My hand shall take them. Though they climb up to Heaven, there I will bring them down. ³And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there. And though they are hidden from My sight in the bottom of the sea, I will command the serpent there, and he shall bite them. ⁴And though they go into captivity before their enemies, I will command the sword there, and it shall kill them; and I will set My eyes upon them for evil, and not for good. ⁵And the Lord GOD of hosts is he who touches the land, and it shall melt, and all who dwell in it shall mourn. And it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned as by the flood of Egypt. ⁶*It is* He who builds His upper rooms in the heavens, and has founded His vault upon the earth; He who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out upon the face of the earth — the LORD is His name. ⁷Are you not like children of the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns to Me, O children of Israel? says the LORD. Have I not brought Israel up out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Cāph'-tôr, and the Syrians from Kīr? ⁸Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth — except that I will not completely destroy the house of Jacob, says the LORD. ⁹For lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not a grain shall fall upon the earth. ¹⁰All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword, those who say, The evil shall not overtake nor go before us.

¹¹In that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David that has fallen, and close up the breaks of it; and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old — ¹²so that they may possess the remnant of Edom and of all the heathen upon whom My name is called, says the LORD who does this. ¹³Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes shall overtake him who sows seed. And the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. ¹⁴And I will again bring the captivity of My people Israel, and they shall build the waste cities and live in them; and they shall plant vineyards and drink the wine of them. They shall also make gardens and eat the fruit of them. ¹⁵And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, says the LORD your God.

The Book of OBADIAH

¹The vision of Ō-bā-dī'-āh. Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Ē'-dōm: We have heard a rumor from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations — arise, and let us rise up against her in battle. ²Behold, I have made you small among the nations; you are greatly despised.

³The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rocks, whose dwelling is high; who say in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? ⁴Though you lift yourself up like the eagle, and though you set your nest among the stars, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD. ⁵If thieves came to you, if robbers came by night (how you are cut off!), would they not have stolen until they had enough? If the grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some grapes? ⁶How the things of Esau are searched out! How his hidden things are sought out! ⁷All the men of your covenant have brought you to the border; the men who were at peace with you have deceived you and have overcome you. Those who eat your bread have laid a snare under you; there is no understanding in them. ⁸Shall I not in that day even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau, says the LORD? ⁹And your mighty men, O Tē'-mān, shall be afraid, so that everyone from the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

¹⁰Shame shall cover you for your violence against your brother Jacob, and you shall be cut off forever. ¹¹In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried his forces away captive, and foreigners entered into his gates and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. ¹²But you should not have looked on the day of your brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither should you have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their ruin; nor should you have spoken proudly in the day of distress. ¹³You should not have entered into the gate of My people in the day of their calamity; yea, you should not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their possessions in the day of their calamity. ¹⁴Neither should you have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his who escape; nor should you have delivered up those of his who remained in the day of distress. ¹⁵For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations; as you have done, it shall be done to you. Your reward shall return upon your own head. ¹⁶For as you have drunk upon My holy mountain, so all the nations shall drink forever. Yes, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

¹⁷But upon Mount Zion shall be those who escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall have their own possessions. ¹⁸And

the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau shall be for stubble. And they shall kindle in them and burn them up. And there shall be none remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD has spoken it. ¹⁹And those of the south shall possess the mountain of Esau; and those of the plain shall possess the Philistines. And they shall possess the fields of Ē'-phrā-īm and the fields of Sā-mâr'-ī-ă; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. ²⁰And the captivity of this army of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Cā'-nāan-ītes, even unto Zār'-ě-phāth; and the captivity of Jerusalem shall possess that which is in Sē-phâr'-ād, the cities of the south. ²¹And deliverers shall come upon Zion to judge the mountain of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

The Book of JONAH

CHAPTER 1

⁴ But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty storm in the sea, so that the ship was likely to be broken. ⁵ Then the seamen were afraid, and each man cried to his god and cast forth the goods that were in the ship into the sea in order to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the inside of the ship; and he lay there, and was fast asleep. ⁶ So the shipmaster came to him and said to him, What do you mean, O sleeper? Arise, call upon your God! It may be that God will think upon us so that we do not perish? ⁷ And they said, each one to his fellow, Come and let us cast lots, so that we may know who has caused this evil to come upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. ⁸ Then they said to him, We pray you, tell us, for what reason this evil has come upon us. What is your business? And where do you come from? Where is your country? And of what people are you? ⁹ And he said to them, I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land. ¹⁰ Then the men were afraid with a great fear. And they said to him, Why have you done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

¹¹ Then they said to him, What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm unto us? For the sea grew more and more stormy. ¹² And he said to them, Take me up and throw me out into the sea. And the sea shall be calm to you; for I know that this great storm has come upon you for my sake. ¹³ Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not, for the sea became more and more stormy against them. ¹⁴ Therefore they cried to the LORD and said, We pray Thee, O LORD, we pray Thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and do not lay upon us innocent blood. For Thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased Thee. ¹⁵ So they took Jonah up and threw him out into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶ Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

¹⁷ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2

¹Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, ²and said, I cried because of my affliction to the LORD, and He heard me; out of the belly of hell I cried; Thou didst hear my voice. ³For Thou hadst cast me into the deep in the midst of the seas, and the floods were all around me. All Thy billows and Thy waves passed over me. ⁴Then I said, I am cast out of Thy sight; yet I will look again toward Thy holy temple. ⁵The waters were all around me, even to the soul; the depth closed around me; the weeds were wrapped around my head. ⁶I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was around me forever; yet Thou hast brought up my life from the pit, O LORD my God. ⁷When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came in unto Thee, into Thy holy temple. ⁸They who take heed to lying vanities forsake their own mercy; ⁹but I will sacrifice unto Thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD!

¹⁰And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3

¹And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, ²Arise, go to Nin'-ĕ-vĕh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I commanded you. ³So Jonah arose and went to Nin'-ĕ-vĕh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nin'-ĕ-vĕh was a very great city of three days' journey. ⁴And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried and said, Yet forty days and Nin'-ĕ-vĕh shall be overthrown.

⁵So the people of Nin'-ĕ-vĕh believed God. And they called a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ⁶For word came to the king of Nin'-ĕ-vĕh, and he arose from his throne. And he laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷And he caused it to be cried out and published throughout Nin'-ĕ-vĕh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed nor drink water. ⁸But let man and animal be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God. Yes, let them each one turn from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. ⁹Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from His hot anger, so that we do not perish?

¹⁰And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. And God repented of the evil that He had said He would do unto them, and He did not do it.

CHAPTER 4

¹But it displeased Jonah very much, and he was very angry. ²And he prayed unto the LORD and said, O LORD, was this not my saying when I was still in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tār'-shish. For I knew that Thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and Thou dost repent of the evil. ³Therefore now, O LORD, I pray Thee, take my life from me. For it is better for me to die than to live. ⁴Then the LORD said, Do you do well to be angry?

⁵So Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. And he made himself a booth there and sat under it in the shadow, until he might see what would become of the city. ⁶And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, so that it might be a shadow over his head, in order to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah rejoiced with great joy because of the gourd. ⁷But God prepared a worm when the morning dawned the next day. And it struck the gourd so that it withered. ⁸And when the sun arose, God prepared a cutting east wind. And the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, so that he fainted and wished that he might die. And he said, It is better for me to die than to live. ⁹And God said to Jonah, Do you well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death. ¹⁰Then the LORD said, You have had pity on the gourd, for which you had not labored, neither made it grow — which came up in a night and perished in a night — ¹¹And should I not spare Nin'-ē-vēh, that great city, in which are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who cannot tell between their right hand and their left hand, besides much cattle?

The Book of MICAH

CHAPTER 1

¹The word of the LORD that came to Mî'-câh the Mō-rās'-thîte in the days of Jō'-thām, Ahaz, and Hēz-ē-kî'-âh, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Sā-mâr'-î-â and Jerusalem. ²Hear, all you people; listen, O earth, and all that is in it. And let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from His holy temple. ³For behold, the LORD comes forth out of His place, and will come down and walk upon the high places of the earth. ⁴And the mountains shall be melted under Him, and the valleys shall tear themselves, as wax before the fire, and as waters poured down a steep place. ⁵All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Sā-mâr'-î-â? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem? ⁶Therefore I will make Sā-mâr'-î-â like a heap of the field, and like plantings of a vineyard; and I will pour down the stones of it into the valley, and I will uncover its foundations. ⁷And all the graven images of it shall be beaten to pieces, and all its gifts shall be burned with the fire, and I will destroy all its idols. For she gathered it from the reward of a harlot, and they shall return to the reward of a harlot. ⁸Therefore I will wail and howl; I will go stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the jackals, and mourning like the ostriches. ⁹For her wound cannot be cured; for it has come as far as Judah. He has come to the gate of my people, unto Jerusalem.

¹⁰Do not declare it at Gath; weep not at all; in the house of Āph'-râh roll yourself in the dust. ¹¹Pass away, O dweller of Sā'-phîr, having your shame naked. The dweller of Zā'-â-nân has not come forth; the mourning of Bēth-ē'-zēl shall take from you his standing. ¹²For the dweller of Mâr'-ōth waited carefully for good; but evil came down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem. ¹³O inhabitant of Lā'-chîsh, bind the chariot to the swift steed; she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion, for the sins of Israel were found in you. ¹⁴Therefore you shall give presents to Mō'-rēsh-ēth-gâth; the houses of Āch'-zîb shall be a lie to the kings of Israel. ¹⁵Yet I will bring an heir unto you, O dweller of Mā-rē'-shâh; he shall come unto Ā-dûl'-lām the glory of Israel. ¹⁶Make yourself bald, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight; make your baldness large like the eagle; for they have gone into captivity from you.

¹Woe unto those who plot iniquity and work evil upon their beds! When the morning is light they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand. ²And they covet fields and take them by violence — and houses, and take them away. So they defraud a man and his household, even a man and his inheritance. ³Therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, against this family I plan an evil from which you shall not remove your necks; neither shall you go proudly, for this time is evil.

⁴In that day one shall take up a parable against you and mourn with a mourning of mournings, saying, We shall be completely stripped. He has changed the share of my people; how He has removed it from me! Instead of restoring, he has divided our fields. ⁵Therefore you shall have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD. ⁶Prophecy not as they prophesy; they shall not prophesy to them, so that they shall not take shame.

⁷*O you who are* named the house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD limited? Are these His doings? Do not My words do good to him who walks uprightly? ⁸Even yesterday, My people has risen up like an enemy; you strip off the inner robe along with the outer robe, from those who pass by trustfully, as men seeking no war. ⁹You have thrown the wives of My people out from their pleasant houses; from their children you have taken away My glory forever. ¹⁰Arise and depart! For this is not your rest; because it is defiled, it shall destroy you even with a grievous ruin. ¹¹If a man walks with the wind and lies falsely, saying, I will prophesy unto you of wine and of strong drink — he shall even be the prophet of this people.

¹²I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob; and I will surely gather the remnant of Israel. I will put them together like the sheep of Böz'-räh, like the flock in the midst of their fold. They shall make great noise because of men. ¹³The breaker has come up before them; they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and have gone out by it. And their king shall pass before them, and the LORD at the head of them.

CHAPTER 3

¹And I said, I pray you, hear, O heads of Jacob and you princes of the house of Israel. Is it not for you to know judgment? ²*You* who hate the good and love the evil; who pull their skin off of them, and their flesh from their bones; ³who also eat the flesh of My people, and strip their skin off of them. And they break their bones and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the pot. ⁴Then they shall cry unto the LORD, but He will not hear them. He will even hide His face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves evilly in their doings.

⁵Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who make My people err, who bite with their teeth and cry, Peace, when their teeth have anything to bite. And whoever does not put something into their mouths, they even prepare war against them. ⁶Therefore night shall be unto you, so that you shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark to you, so that you shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. ⁷Then the seers shall be ashamed, and the diviners ashamed; yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer from God.

⁸But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. ⁹I pray you, hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, who hate judgment and pervert all equity. ¹⁰They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. ¹¹The heads of it judge for reward, and the priests of it teach for pay, and the prophets of it divine for money — yet they will lean upon the LORD and say, Is not the LORD among us? No evil can come upon us! ¹²Therefore, on account of you, Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house shall be like the high places of the forest.

¹But in the last days the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be lifted up above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. ²And many nations shall come and say, Come and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD and to the house of the God of Jacob. And He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths; for the law shall go forth out of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

³And He shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. ⁴But they shall sit each one under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken it. ⁵For all people will walk, each one in the name of his god; and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever. ⁶In that day, says the LORD, I will gather her who is lame, and I will gather her who is driven out and her whom I have afflicted. ⁷And I will make her who limped a remnant, and her who was cast off a strong nation; and the LORD shall reign over them in Mount Zion from now on, even forever.

⁸And you, O tower of the flock, the stronghold of the daughter of Zion, unto you it shall come, even the chief dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. ⁹Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished? For pangs have taken you like a woman in labor. ¹⁰Be in pain and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor — for now you shall go forth out of the city, and you shall dwell in the field; and you shall go to

Babylon. There you shall be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

¹¹Now also many nations are gathered against you, who say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. ¹²But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, neither do they understand His wisdom; for He shall gather them like the sheaves into the floor. ¹³Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs brass; and you shall beat many people into pieces. And I will give their gain unto the LORD, and their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

¹Now gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops; he has laid siege against us; they shall strike the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

²And you, Bēth'-lē-hēm Ēph'-rā-tāh, you who are little among the thousands of Judah, out of you He shall come forth unto Me to be ruler of Israel, He whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. ³Therefore He will give them up until the time that she who labors has brought forth; then the rest of His brothers shall return to the children of Israel. ⁴And He shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD His God; and they shall remain. For now He shall be great unto the ends of the earth. ⁵And this One shall be peace.

When the Assyrian shall come into our land; and when he shall walk in our palaces, then we shall raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes from among men. ⁶And they shall devour the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nīm'-rōd with her own naked swords; so He shall deliver us from the Assyrian, when he comes into our land and when He walks within our borders. ⁷And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, which do not wait for man nor wait for the sons of men.

⁸And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a strong lion among the flocks of sheep; who both tramples down and tears in pieces if he goes through, and there is none to deliver. ⁹Your hand shall be lifted up upon your foes, and all your enemies shall be cut off. ¹⁰And in that day, says the LORD, I will cut off your horses out of your midst, and I will destroy your chariots. ¹¹And I will cut off the cities of your land, and throw down all your strongholds. ¹²And I will cut off witchcrafts out of your hand, and you shall have fortunetellers no more. ¹³I will also cut off your graven images, and your statues out of the midst of you; and you shall never again worship the work of your hands.

¹⁴And I will pluck your groves out of the midst of you; so I will destroy your cities. ¹⁵And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the nations, such as they have not heard.

CHAPTER 6

¹Hear now what the LORD says: Arise, contend with the mountains and let the hills hear your voice. ²O mountains, hear the LORD's case, and you strong foundations of the earth — for the LORD has a quarrel with His people, and He will plead His case with Israel. ³O My people, what have I done to you? And in what have I made you weary? Testify against Me! ⁴For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of servants; and I sent Moses, Aaron, and Mīr'-ī-ām before you. ⁵O My people, remember now what Bā'-lāk king of Moab planned and what Bā'-lāam the son of Bē'-ôr answered him from Shīt'-tīm to Gil'-gāl, so that you may know the righteousness of the LORD.

⁶With what shall I come before the LORD and bow myself before God the Most High? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? ⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? ⁸He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you but to do justice and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God? ⁹The LORD's voice cries to the city, and it is sound wisdom to fear Thy name. Hear the rod and Him who has appointed it.

¹⁰Are the treasures of wickedness still in the house of the wicked, and the short measure that is hateful? ¹¹Shall I count those with the wicked scales pure, and those with the bag of deceitful weights? ¹²For its rich men are full of violence, and its people have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. ¹³Therefore I also have made you sick by striking you, laying you waste because of your sins. ¹⁴You shall eat but not be satisfied; and your casting down shall be in the midst of you. And you shall take hold, but shall not deliver; and that which you deliver I will give up to the sword. ¹⁵You shall sow, but you shall not reap; you shall tread the olives, but you shall not anoint yourself with oil; and sweet wine, but shall not drink wine.

¹⁶For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and you walk in their counsels, so that I should make you a ruin and its people a hissing; therefore you shall bear the shame of My people.

CHAPTER 7

¹Woe is me! For I am like the gatherings of the summer fruits, like the grape-gleanings of the vintage. There is no cluster to eat; my soul desires the firstripe fruit. ²The good man has perished from the earth, and there is none upright among men. For they all lie in wait for blood; each one hunts his brother with a net.

³They have both hands upon that which is evil, to do it well. The prince asks for a bribe, and the judge also; and the great man speaks the evil desire of his soul. So they weave it together. ⁴The best of them is like a briar; the most upright is sharper than a hedge of thorns. The day of your watchmen and your punishment comes; now their shame shall come.

⁸Rejoice not against me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light to me. ⁹I will bear the fury of the LORD because I have sinned against him, until He pleads my cause and brings forth judgment for me. He will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold His righteousness. ¹⁰Then my enemy shall see it; and shame shall cover her who said to me, Where is the LORD your God? My eyes shall behold her; now she shall be trampled down like the mud of the streets. ¹¹*In* the day that your walls are to be built, in that day the decree shall be far removed. ¹²*In* that day he shall come even to you from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain. ¹³But the land shall be wasted because of those who dwell in it, for the fruit of their doings.

¹⁴Feed your people with your rod, the flock of your inheritance, who dwell alone in the woods, in the midst of Carmel; let them feed in Bā'-shān and Gilead, as in the days of old. ¹⁵According to the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt I will show unto him marvelous things.

¹⁶The nation shall see and be ashamed at all their might; they shall lay their hand upon their mouth; their ears shall be deaf. ¹⁷They shall lick the dust like a snake; they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth. They shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of Thee. ¹⁸Who is a God like Thee, who pardons iniquity and passes by the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He does not keep His anger forever, because He delights in mercy. ¹⁹He will turn again, He will have pity upon us. He will trample our iniquities; and Thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. ²⁰Thou wilt fulfil the faithful promise to Jacob and the mercy to Abraham, which Thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

The Book of NAHUM

CHAPTER 1

¹The burden against Nīn'-ē-vēh. The book of the vision of Nā'-hūm the Ēl'-kō-shīte.

²God is jealous, and the LORD revenges; the LORD revenges and is full of fury. The LORD will take vengeance upon His foes, and He keeps wrath for His enemies. ³The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all set the wicked free. The LORD has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet. ⁴He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers; Bā'-shān droops, and Carmel, and the flower of Lēb'-ā-non droops. ⁵The mountains quake at Him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at His presence; yes, the world and all who dwell in it. ⁶Who can stand before His fury? And who can stand up in the heat of His anger? His fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by Him. ⁷The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and He knows those who trust in Him. ⁸But with an overflowing flood He will make an utter end of its city, and darkness shall pursue His enemies.

¹⁵Behold upon the mountains the feet of Him who brings good news, who cries peace! O Judah, keep your solemn feasts, fulfil your vows; for the wicked shall pass through you no more; he is completely cut off.

CHAPTER 2

¹He who breaks in pieces has come up before your face. Guard the banks, watch the way, make your loins strong, fortify your power mightily. ²For the LORD has turned away the glory of Jacob, as the glory of Israel; for the robbers have emptied them out, and have spoiled their vine branches. ³The shield of his mighty men is made red; the mighty men are in scarlet; the chariots flame like torches in the day he makes ready and the fir trees shall be made to tremble. ⁴The chariots shall race madly in the streets; they shall run to and fro in the broad ways. They shall seem like torches; they shall run like the lightnings. ⁵He shall remember his nobles; they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to its wall, and the covering shall be prepared. ⁶The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be melted. ⁷And Hüz'-zâb shall be led away captive; she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, beating upon their breasts.

⁸But Nin'-ë-vêh is of old like a pool of water; yet they shall flee away. Halt! Halt! they cry, but none looks back. ⁹Take the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; for there is no end of the treasure, rich with all precious vessels. ¹⁰She is empty and void and waste; and the heart melts, and the knees knock together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of all of them gather blackness. ¹¹Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the strong lions, where the lion, the old lion, walked, and the lion's cub, and no one made them afraid? ¹²The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey and his dens with torn flesh. ¹³Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour your strong lions. I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall be heard no more.

¹Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery; the prey never departs from her; nor the noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the galloping horses, and of the bounding chariots. ²The horseman lifts up both the bright sword and the shining spear. And there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of dead bodies and there is no end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses — ⁴because of the multitude of the fôr-nî-câ'-tions of the well-favored harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, who sells nations through her fornications, and families through her witchcrafts.

⁵Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts; and I will uncover your skirts upon your face, and I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. ⁶And I will cast filth upon you, and will dishonor you, and will set you as a gazing-stock. ⁷And all those who look upon you shall flee from you and say, Nin'-ë-vêh is laid waste; who will weep for her? From where shall I seek comforters for you? ⁸Are you better than No Amon, who sat among the rivers, that had the waters all around it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea? ⁹E-thî-ô'-pi-â and Egypt were her strength, and it was without end. Püt and Lû'-bîm were your helpers. ¹⁰Yet she was carried away; she went into captivity. Her young children also were broken in pieces at the head of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

¹¹You also shall be drunken; you shall be hidden, you also shall seek strength because of the enemy. ¹²All your strongholds shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs; if they are shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater. ¹³Behold, your people in the midst of you are women. The gates of your land shall be set wide open unto your enemies; the fire shall devour your bars. ¹⁴Draw waters for the siege; fortify your strongholds; make the clay strong, and tread the mortar; make the brick kilns strong. ¹⁵There the fire shall devour you; the sword shall cut you off, it shall eat you up like the locust. Make yourself as many as the locust, multiply like the grasshoppers. ¹⁶You have multiplied your merchants above the stars of heaven; the locust spoils and flies away. ¹⁷Your crowned ones are like the locusts, and your captains like the great grasshoppers which camp in the hedges in the cold day — but when the sun rises they flee away, and no one knows the place where they are. ¹⁸Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria. Your nobles are at rest; your people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathers them. ¹⁹*There is* no healing of your hurt; your wound is grievous; all who hear the news of you shall clap the hands over you; for upon whom has your wickedness not passed continually?

The Book of HABAKKUK

CHAPTER 1

¹The burden which Hā-bāk'-kūk the prophet saw.

²O LORD, how long shall I cry and Thou wilt not hear! I even cry out unto Thee of violence, and Thou wilt not save! ³Why dost Thou show me iniquity, and why dost Thou behold wrong? For robbing and violence are before me; and there are those who raise up strife and contention. ⁴Therefore the law is made numb, and judgment never goes forth; for the wicked hems the righteous in, therefore perverted judgment comes from them.

⁵Look among the heathen, and behold and wonder marvelously; for I will work a work in your days which you will not believe, not even if it is declared to you. ⁶For lo, I raise up the Chāl-dé'-āns, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land to possess the homes that are not theirs. ⁷They are terrible and fearful; their judgment and their glory shall come forth from themselves. ⁸Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. And their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from afar. They shall fly like the eagle who hurries to eat. ⁹They shall all come for violence; their faces are set eagerly like the east wind, and they gather captives like the sand. ¹⁰And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them. They shall laugh at every stronghold, for they shall heap dust upon it and take it. ¹¹Then his mind shall change, and he shall pass over and sin, crediting his power in this to his god.

¹²Art Thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One? We shall not die. O LORD, Thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, Thou hast established them for correction. ¹³*Thou art* of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look upon iniquity — why dost Thou look upon those who deal deceitfully, and hold Thy tongue when the wicked devours him who is more righteous than he? ¹⁴*For Thou* dost make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things who have no ruler over them? ¹⁵They take up all of them with the hook; they catch them in their net and gather them in their seine. Therefore they rejoice and are glad. ¹⁶Therefore they sacrifice unto their net and burn incense unto their seine; because by them their portion is fat and their food is rich. ¹⁷Shall they therefore empty their net, and not stop slaying the nations without end?

¹I will stand upon my watch and set myself upon the tower, and will watch to see what He will say to me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. ²And the LORD answered me and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon the tablets, that he who reads it may run. ³For the vision is still for a set time, but at the end it shall speak and not lie. Though it lingers, wait for it; because it will surely come. It will not be long.

⁴Behold, the soul of him who is lifted up is not upright in him; but the just shall live by his faith. ⁵Moreover, because he transgresses by wine, he is a proud man, neither stays at home; who multiplies his desire as hell, and is like death and cannot be satisfied, but gathers all nations unto himself and heaps unto himself all people; ⁶shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a mocking poem against him, and say, Woe unto him who increases what is not his! How long? that he should load himself with thick clay! ⁷Shall not those who shall bite you rise up suddenly, and those awake who shall trouble you, and you shall be for a prize to them? ⁸Because you have stripped many nations, all the rest of the people shall strip you; because of men's blood, and because of the violence of the land, of the city, and of all who dwell in it.

⁹Woe unto him who gains an evil gain for his house, so that he may set his nest upon high, so that he may be delivered from the power of evil! ¹⁰You have planned shame to your house by cutting off many people, and have sinned against your soul. ¹¹For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

¹²Woe unto him who builds a town with blood and establishes a city by iniquity! ¹³Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labor in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity? ¹⁴For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁵Woe unto him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring out your bottle, and also making him drunk, that you may look upon their nakedness! ¹⁶You are filled with shame instead of glory; drink also, and let your foreskin be uncovered! The cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned to you, and shameful vomiting shall be upon your glory. ¹⁷For the violence of Lēb'-ā-nōn shall cover you, and the spoil of beasts which make them afraid because of men's blood, and because of the violence of the land, of the city, and of all who dwell in it.

¹⁸What does the graven image profit its maker, that he has carved it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusts in it, to make dumb idols? ¹⁹Woe to him who says to the wood. Awake! to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. ²⁰But the LORD is in His holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him.

¹A prayer of Hā-bāk'-kūk the prophet upon Shīg-ī-ō'-nōth. ²O LORD, I have heard Thy speech; I have been afraid. O LORD, give new life to Thy work in the midst of the years; in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

³God came from Tē'-mān, and the Holy One from Mount Pār'-ān. Sē'-lāh. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise. ⁴And His brightness was as the light; He had rays coming out of His hand, and there was the hiding of His power. ⁵The plague went before Him, and burning coals went forth at His feet. ⁶He stood and measured the earth; He looked and made the nations tremble, and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the eternal hills bowed down. His ways are everlasting. ⁷I saw the tents of Cū'-shān in affliction; and the curtains of the land of Mid'-i-ān trembled. ⁸Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? Was Thy anger against the rivers? Was Thy wrath against the sea, that Thou didst ride upon Thy horses and Thy chariots of salvation? ⁹Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even Thy word. Sē'-lāh.

Thou didst cut through the earth with rivers. ¹⁰The mountains saw Thee, and they trembled; the overflowing of the water passed by. The deep uttered its voice and lifted up its hands upon high. ¹¹The sun and moon stood still in their heavens; at the light of Thy arrows they sped, and at the shining of Thy gleaming spear. ¹²Thou didst march through the land in fury; Thou didst thresh the nations in anger. ¹³Thou didst go forth for the salvation of Thy people, for salvation with Thy anointed; Thou didst wound the head out of the house of the wicked, by making them naked unto the neck. Sē'-lāh. ¹⁴Thou didst strike the heads of his villages through with his own staves. They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me; their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly. ¹⁵Thou didst walk through the sea with Thy horses, the foaming of mighty waters. ¹⁶When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice. Rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself that I might rest in the day of trouble; when He comes up to the people, He will invade them with His troops.

¹⁷Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no food. The flocks shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls; ¹⁸yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. ¹⁹The LORD God is my strength, and He will make my feet like hinds' feet, and He will make me to walk upon my high places.

To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

The Book of ZEPHANIAH

CHAPTER 1

¹The word of the LORD which came to Zēph-ă-nī'-ăh the son of Cū'-shī, the son of Gēd-ă-lī'-ăh, the son of Ām-ă-rī'-ăh, the son of Hīz-kī'-ăh, in the days of Jō-sī'-ăh the son of Amon, king of Judah.

²I will completely sweep away all things from off the land, says the LORD. ³I will sweep away man and beast; I will sweep away the birds of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks, even the wicked; and I will cut off man from the face of the land, says the LORD. ⁴I will also stretch out My hand upon Judah and upon all the people of Jerusalem. And I will cut off the remnant of Bā'-ăl from this place, and the name of the idol-worshippers, with the priests, ⁵and those who worship the host of heaven upon the housetops, and those who worship and who swear by the LORD and who swear by Māl'-chām, ⁶and those who have turned back from the LORD, and those who have not sought the LORD, nor sought for Him.

⁷Be still! at the presence of the Lord GOD, for the day of the LORD is at hand. For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice; He has prepared His guests. ⁸And in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all who are clothed with strange clothing. ⁹Also in the same day I will punish all those who leap upon the doorstep, who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit. ¹⁰And in that day, says the LORD, there shall be the noise of a cry from the Fish Gate, and a howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills. ¹¹Howl, O people of Māk'-tēsh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all those who carry silver are cut off. ¹²And at that time I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men who are settled upon their lees; who say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will He do evil. ¹³Therefore their goods shall become a prize and their houses a waste. They shall also build houses but not live in them, and they shall plant vineyards but not drink the wine of them.

¹⁴The great day of the LORD is near; it is near and hastens greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD. The mighty man shall cry there bitterly. ¹⁵That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of waste and ruin, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, ¹⁶a day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities and against the high towers. ¹⁷And I will bring distress upon men, so that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD. And their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as dung. ¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of His jealousy. For He shall make even a speedy end of all those who dwell in the land.

¹Gather yourselves together; yea, gather together, O nation not desired; ²before the decree brings forth, before the day passes like the chaff, before the hot anger of the LORD comes upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger comes upon you. ³Seek the LORD, all you meek of the earth who have done His judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness. It may be you shall be hidden in the day of the LORD's anger.

⁸I have heard the reproach of Moab and the curses of the children of Ammon, with which they have cursed My people and have magnified themselves against their border. ⁹Therefore as I live, says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be like Sodom, and the children of Ammon like Gō-mōr'-rāh — a place for thorns, and salt pits, and a ruin forever. The rest of My people shall spoil them, and the remnant of My people shall possess them. ¹⁰They shall have this for their pride, because they have cursed and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. ¹¹The LORD will be frightening to them; for He will make all the gods of the earth lean; and men shall worship Him, each one from his own place, even all the isles of the nations.

¹²You Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns also, you shall be slain by My sword. ¹³And He will stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria, and will make Nin'-ē-veh a desert and dry like a wilderness. ¹⁴And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations; both the pelican and the bittern shall roost in the upper capitals of it; a voice shall sing in the windows, for ruin shall be in the doorsteps, for he shall uncover the cedar work. ¹⁵This is the rejoicing city which lived carelessly — who said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me. What a ruin she has become, a place for beasts to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her shall hiss and wag his hand.

¹Woe unto her who is rebelling and is defiled, to the oppressing city!
²She did not obey the voice; she did not receive correction. She trusted not in the LORD; she did not draw near to her God. ³Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves. They do not gnaw the bones until the next day. ⁴Her prophets are light and deceitful persons; her priests have defiled the sanctuary; they have done violence to the law. ⁵The just LORD is in the midst of her; He will not do iniquity. Every morning He brings His judgment to light; He fails not, but the unjust knows no shame. ⁶I have cut off the nations; their towers are deserted. I made their streets waste, so that none passes by; their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no one in them. ⁷I said, Surely you will fear Me; you will receive instruction (so that their dwelling should not be cut off, no matter how I punished them), but they rose early, corrupting all their doings.

⁸Therefore wait upon Me, says the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for My judgment is to gather the nations, that I may gather the kingdoms to pour upon them My fury, all My fierce anger. For all the earth shall be burned up with the fire of My jealousy. ⁹For then I will turn a pure lip unto the people, so that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve Him with one mind. ¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Ē-thi-ō'-pī-ā My worshippers, the daughter of My scattered ones, shall bring My offering. ¹¹In that day you shall not be ashamed for all your doings in which you have transgressed against Me; for then I will take away those who rejoice in your pride out of your midst, and you shall never again be proud because of My holy mountain. ¹²I will also leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD. ¹³The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity nor speak lies, neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth; for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

¹⁴Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. ¹⁵The LORD has taken away your judgments; He has cast out your enemy. The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall not see evil any more. ¹⁶In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear not; and to Zion, Let not your hands be idle. ¹⁷The LORD your God is mighty in the midst of you; He will save, He will rejoice over you with joy; He will rest in His love; He will rejoice over you with singing. ¹⁸I will gather for the solemn assembly those of you who are sorrowful, to whom its shame was a burden. ¹⁹Behold, at that time I will undo all those who afflict you. And I will save her who is lame, and gather her who was driven out. And I will gain praise and fame for them in every land where they have been put to shame. ²⁰At that time I will bring you, even in the time that I gather you; for I will gain a name and a praise for you among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, says the LORD.

The Book of HAGGAI

¹In the second year of Dā-rī'-ūs the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Hāg'-gā-ī the prophet unto Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, governor of Judah, and to Jōsh'-ū-ā the son of Jōs'-ē-dēch, the high priest, saying, ²Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying: This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built. ³Then came the word of the LORD by Hāg'-gā-ī the prophet, saying, ⁴*It is time for you yourselves to dwell in your finished houses, and shall this house lie waste?* ⁵Now therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Think upon your ways — ⁶you have sown much and bring in little — you eat, but you do not have enough — you drink, but you are not filled with drink — you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm — and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag full of holes.

⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts: Think upon your ways. ⁸Go up to the mountain and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, says the LORD. ⁹You looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew upon it. Why? says the LORD of hosts. Because of My house that is waste, and you run, each man to his own house. ¹⁰Therefore the heaven above you has been held back from dew, and the earth is held back from her produce. ¹¹And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground brings forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labor of your hands.

¹²Then Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, and Jōsh'-ū-ā the son of Jōs'-ē-dēch, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Hāg'-gā-ī the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people feared before the LORD. ¹³Then Hāg'-gā-ī, the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message, spoke to the people saying, I am with you, says the LORD. ¹⁴And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jōs'-ē-dēch, the high priest, and the spirit of all the rest of the people. And they came and worked in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, ¹⁵in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Dā-rī'-ūs the king.

¹In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Hāg'-gā-ī, saying, ²Now speak to

Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jōs'-ē-dēch, the priest, and to the rest of the people, saying, ³Who is left among you who saw this house in her first glory? And how do you see it now? When compared to it, is it not as nothing in your eyes? ⁴Yet now be strong, O Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl, says the LORD. And be strong, O Joshua, son of Jōs'-ē-dēch, the priest; and be strong, all you people of the land, says the LORD, and work; for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts. ⁵*According to* the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit remains among you. Fear not. ⁶For thus says the LORD of hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land. ⁷And I will shake all nations; and the desire of all nations shall come; and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. ⁸The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, says the LORD of hosts. ⁹The glory of this latter house shall be greater than that of the former, says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, says the LORD of hosts.

¹⁰In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Dā-rī'-ūs, the word of the LORD came by Hāg'-gā-ī the prophet, saying, ¹¹Thus says the LORD of hosts: Now ask the priests concerning the law, saying, ¹²If one carries holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and touches bread or pottage or wine or oil or any food with his skirt, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No. ¹³Then Hāg'-gā-ī said, If one who is unclean by a dead body touches any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. ¹⁴Then Hāg'-gā-ī answered and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before Me, says the LORD. And so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. ¹⁵And now, I pray you, set your mind upon it — from this day and backward, before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD — ¹⁶since those days onward. When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the oil vat in order to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty. ¹⁷I struck you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labors of your hands; yet you did not turn to Me, says the LORD. ¹⁸Now set your mind on the time from this day and upward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, think of it — ¹⁹is the seed still in the barn? Yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, has not brought forth. From this day I will bless you.

²⁰And again the word of the LORD came to Hāg'-gā-ī in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, ²¹Speak to Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth. ²²And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. And I will overthrow the chariots and those who ride in them. And the horses and their riders shall come down, each one by the sword of his brother. ²³In that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will take you, O Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl, My servant, the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, says the LORD, and will make you like a signet — for I have chosen you, says the LORD of hosts.

The Book of ZECARIAH

CHAPTER 1

¹In the eighth month, in the second year of Dă-rî'-ūs, the word of the LORD came to Zēch-ă-rî'-ăh, the son of Bēr-ē-chî'-ăh, the son of Id'-dō the prophet, saying, ²The LORD has been greatly displeased with your fathers. ³Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Turn unto Me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, says the LORD of hosts. ⁴Be not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Turn now from your evil ways and from your evil doings. But they did not hear nor listen unto Me, says the LORD. ⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶But My words and My statutes which I commanded My servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? And they returned and said, As the LORD of hosts planned to do unto us, according to our ways and according to our doings, so He has done with us.

⁷Upon the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sē'-băt, in the second year of Dă-rî'-ūs, the word of the LORD came to Zēch-ă-rî'-ăh, the son of Bēr-ē-chî'-ăh, the son of Id'-dō the prophet, saying, ⁸I watched by night. And behold! a Man riding upon a red horse, and He stood among the myrtle trees that were in the shade. And behind Him there were red horses, sorrel, and white. ⁹Then I said, O my lord, what are these? And the angel who talked with me said unto me, I will show you what these are. ¹⁰And the Man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are those whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro through the earth. ¹¹And they answered the Angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sits still and is at rest.

¹²Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt Thou not have mercy upon Jerusalem and upon the cities of Judah, against which Thou hast had fury these seventy years? ¹³And the LORD answered the angel who talked with me with good words and comfortable words. ¹⁴So the angel who talked with me said to me, Cry out, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. ¹⁵And I am greatly displeased with the heathen, who are at ease. For I was but a little displeased, and they urged their affliction forward. ¹⁶Therefore thus says the LORD: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. My house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts. And a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. ¹⁷Cry out again, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts: My cities shall yet be spread abroad through good, and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

¹⁸Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold! four horns. ¹⁹And I said to the angel who talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. ²⁰And the LORD showed me four carpenters. ²¹Then I said, What are these coming to do? And He spoke, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head. But these have come to scare them, to throw out the horns of the Gentiles who lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAPTER 2

¹I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold! a man with a measuring line in his hand. ²Then I said, Where are you going? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem — to see what is the breadth of it and what is the length of it. ³And behold, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him. ⁴And he said to him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be filled with people, as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle in it. ⁵For I, says the LORD, will be to her a wall of fire all around, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

⁶Ho, ho, flee then from the land of the north, says the LORD. For I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, says the LORD. ⁷Deliver yourself, O Zion, you who live with the daughter of Babylon. ⁸For thus says the LORD of hosts: He has sent me after glory, unto the nations who stripped you; for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye. ⁹For behold, I will shake My hand upon them, and they shall be a prey to their servants. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

¹⁰Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion. For lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you, says the LORD. ¹¹And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be My people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me unto you. ¹²And the LORD shall inherit Judah, His portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. ¹³Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for He has risen out of His holy dwelling place.

¹And He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him. ²And the LORD said to Satan, May the LORD rebuke you, O Satan! May even the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked out of the fire? ³Now Joshua was clothed with filthy clothes, and stood before the Angel. ⁴And He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy clothes from him. And to him He said, Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with change of clothing. ⁵And I said, Let them set a beautiful miter upon his head. So they set a beautiful miter upon his head and clothed him with garments. And the Angel of the LORD stood by. ⁶And the Angel of the LORD solemnly swore unto Joshua, saying, ⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in My ways, and if you will keep My charge, then you shall also judge My house, and shall also keep My courts, and I will give you places to walk among these who stand by. ⁸Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men of wonder. For behold, I will bring forth My Servant the BRANCH. ⁹For look at the stone that I have laid before Joshua. Upon one stone shall be seven eyes; behold, I will carve the writing on it, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. ¹⁰In that day, says the LORD of hosts, you shall call, each man his neighbor, under the vine and under the fig tree.

¹And the angel that talked with me came again and awakened me, as a man that is awakened out of his sleep. ²And he said to me, What do you see? And I said, I have looked, and behold, a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it. And its seven lamps are on it, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which are on the top of it. ³And two olive trees are beside it, one upon the right side of the bowl and the other upon the left side of it. ⁴So I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? ⁵Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, Do you know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. ⁶Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of the LORD to Zē-rüb'-bā-bēl, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of hosts. ⁷Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zē-rüb'-bā-bēl you shall become a plain; and he shall bring forth the top stone with shoutings, Grace, grace unto it!

⁸Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ⁹The hands of Zē-rüb'-bā-bēl have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. ¹⁰For who has despised the day of small things? For they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zē-rüb'-bā-bēl with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD which run to and fro through the whole earth.

¹¹Then I answered and said to him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the lampstand and upon the left side of it? ¹²And I answered again and said to him, What are these two olive branches which empty the golden oil out of themselves through the two golden pipes? ¹³And he answered me and said, Do you not know what these are? And I said, No, my lord. ¹⁴Then he said, These are the two anointed ones who stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

¹Then I returned and lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold a flying roll. ²And he said to me, What do you see? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length of it is twenty cubits, and the breadth of it is ten cubits. ³Then he said to me, This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole earth; for everyone who steals shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and everyone who swears shall be cut off as on that side, according to it. ⁴I will bring it forth, says the LORD of hosts; and it shall enter into the house of the thief and into the house of him who swears falsely by My name. And it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall destroy it with its timber and its stones.

⁵Then the angel who talked with me went forth and said to me, Now lift up your eyes and see what this is that goes forth. ⁶And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ē'-phäh that goes forth. He said moreover, This is their likeness through all the earth. ⁷And behold, there was lifted up a round piece of lead. And this is a woman who sits in the midst of the ē'-phäh. ⁸And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ē'-phäh. And he cast the piece of lead upon the mouth of it. ⁹Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, two women came out of it. And the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork. And they lifted up the ē'-phäh between the earth and the heavens. ¹⁰Then I said to the angel who talked with me, Where are these carrying the ē'-phäh? ¹¹And he said to me, To build a house for it in the land of Shī-nār; and it shall be established and set there upon its own base.

¹And I turned and lifted up my eyes and looked; and behold, four chariots came from between two mountains. And the mountains were mountains of brass. ²Red horses were in the first chariot; and in the second chariot were black horses; ³and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot mottled and bay horses. ⁴Then I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, What are these, my lord? ⁵And the angel answered and said to me, These are the four spirits of the heavens who go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶The black horses which are in it go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the mottled go forth toward the south country. ⁷And the bay went forth and sought to go, so that they might walk to and fro through the earth. And he said, Go away from here; walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. ⁸Then he cried to me and spoke to me, saying, Behold, these who go toward the north country have caused My Spirit to rest in the north country.

⁹And the word of the LORD came to me saying, ¹⁰Take Hël'-daï, Tō-bī'-jäh, and Jē-daī'-äh, from those of the captivity who have come from Babylon; and come the same day and go into the house of Jō-sī'-äh the son of Zēph-ā-nī'-äh. ¹¹Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Jös'-ē-dēch, the high priest. ¹²And speak to him, saying, Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH! And He shall grow up out of His place, and He shall build the temple of the LORD. ¹³Even He shall build the temple of the LORD; and He shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon His throne. And He shall be a priest upon His throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. ¹⁴And the crowns shall be for a memorial in the temple of the LORD to Hē'-lēm and to Tō-bī'-jäh and to Jē-daī'-äh, and to Hen the son of Zēph-ā-nī'-äh. ¹⁵And they who are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass if you will carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God.

¹And in the fourth year of king Dä-rī'-ūs, the word of the LORD came to Zēch-ā-rī'-äh in the fourth day of the ninth month — in Chīs'-leū — ²when they had sent Shēr-ē'-zēr and Rē'-gēm-mēl'-ēch and their men to the house of God, to pray before the LORD — ³to speak to the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these many years? ⁴Then came the word of the LORD of hosts to me, saying, ⁵Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did you at all fast unto Me, even unto Me? ⁶And when you ate, and when you drank, did you not eat and drink for yourselves? ⁷*Should you* not hear the words which the LORD has cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was full of people and blessing, and her cities were all around her, when men lived in the South and the plain?

⁸And the word of the LORD came to Zēch-ā-rī'-äh, saying, ⁹Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying, Do true judgment, and show mercy and pity, each man to his brother. ¹⁰And do not crush the widow or the fatherless, the stranger or the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart. ¹¹But they refused to listen and pulled away the shou'lder, and stopped their ears so that they should not hear. ¹²Yes, they made their hearts hard like diamond, so that they should not hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts has sent by His spirit by the former prophets. Therefore a great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. ¹³Therefore as He cried and they would not hear, so they cried and I would not hear, says the LORD of hosts. ¹⁴But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. So the land has been wasted after them, so that no man passed through nor returned. For they laid the pleasant land waste.

CHAPTER 8

¹Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, ²Thus says the LORD of hosts: I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. ³Thus says the LORD: I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain. ⁴Thus says the LORD of hosts: There shall yet be old men and old women living in the streets of Jerusalem, and each man with his staff in his hand because of their many days. ⁵And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets of it. ⁶Thus says the LORD of hosts: If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvelous in My eyes? says the LORD of hosts. ⁷Thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save My people from the east country and from the west country. ⁸And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And they shall be My people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, who were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. ¹⁰For before these days there was no wages for man, nor any pay for beast; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the affliction — for I set every man against his neighbor. ¹¹But now I will not be unto the rest of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts. ¹²For the seed shall be blessed — the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew — and I will cause the rest of this people to possess all these things. ¹³And as you were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah and house of Israel — so I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not fear, but let your hands be strong. ¹⁴For thus says the LORD of hosts: As I thought to punish you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath, says the LORD of hosts, and I did not repent — ¹⁵so again I have thought in these days to do well to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Fear not.

¹⁶These are the things that you shall do. Let each man speak the truth to his neighbor; carry out the judgment of truth and peace in your gates; ¹⁷and let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbor; and love no false oath. For all these are things that I hate, says the LORD.

¹⁸And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, ¹⁹Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be unto the house of Judah for joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace. ²⁰Thus says the LORD of hosts: There shall yet come people, even the people of many cities; ²¹and the people of one shall go to another, saying, Let us go always to pray before the LORD and to seek the LORD of hosts. I will go also. ²²Yes, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem and to pray before the LORD. ²³Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men, out of all languages of the nations, shall take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, We will go with you — for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER 9

¹The burden of the word of the LORD against the land of Hā'-drāch, and Damascus shall be its resting-place (when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD); ²and Hā'-māth also shall join on to it; Tyre and Sī'-dōn also, though she is very wise (³therefore Tyre built herself a stronghold and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mud of the streets; ⁴behold, the Lord will cast her out, and He will strike her power in the sea, and she shall be burned up with fire). ⁵Āsh'-kē-lōn shall see and fear; Gā'-zā also shall see and be very sorrowful, and Ēk'-rōn also; for her hope shall be ashamed. And the king shall perish from Gā'-zā, and Āsh'-kē-lōn shall have no people. ⁶And a bastard shall dwell in Āsh'-dōd, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. ⁷And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; but he who remains, even he, shall be for our God. And he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ēk'-rōn like a Jēb'-ū-sīte. ⁸And I will camp around My house because of the army, because of him who passes by and because of him who returns; and no tyrant shall pass through them any more. For now I have seen with My eyes.

⁹Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, your King comes unto you. He is just, having salvation in Himself; meek and riding upon an ass, even upon a colt, the foal of an ass. ¹⁰And I will cut off the chariot from Ē'-phrā-īm, and the horse from Jerusalem. And the battle bow shall be cut off, and He shall speak peace to the nations; and his kingdom shall be from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth. ¹¹As for Thee also, by the blood of Thy covenant I have sent forth Thy prisoners out of the pit in which is no water.

¹²Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope; even today I declare that I will give you double. ¹³when I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ē'-phrā-īm, and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and made you as the sword of a mighty man. ¹⁴And the LORD shall be seen over them, and His arrow shall go forth like the lightning; and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. ¹⁵The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink and make a noise as through wine. And they shall be filled like bowls, and like the corners of the altar. ¹⁶And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of His people; for they shall be like the stones of a crown, lifted up as a banner upon His land. ¹⁷For how great is His goodness, and how great is His beauty! Grain shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

¹Ask rain from the LORD in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds and give them showers of rain, grass to everyone in the field. ²For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie and have told false dreams. They comfort in vain; therefore they went their way like a flock; they were troubled because there was no shepherd. ³My anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats; for the LORD of hosts has visited His flock the house of Judah, and has made them as His beautiful horse in the battle. ⁴Out of Him came forth the corner, out of Him the nail, out of Him the battle bow, out of Him every ruler together.

⁵And they shall be like mighty men who trample down their enemies in the mud of the streets in the battle. And they shall fight because the LORD is with them, and they shall make the riders on horses ashamed. ⁶And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to settle them; for I have mercy upon them. And they shall be as though I had not cast them off; for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them. ⁷And Ē'-phrā-īm shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine; yea, their children shall see and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD. ⁸I will hiss for them and gather them; for I have redeemed them. And they shall multiply as they have multiplied. ⁹And I will sow them among the people, and they shall remember Me in far countries; and they shall live with their children and turn again. ¹⁰I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lēb'-ā-nōn; for there shall not be enough space found for them. ¹¹And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall strike the waves in the sea; and all the deeps of the river shall dry up. And the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt shall move away. ¹²And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in His name, says the LORD.

CHAPTER 11

¹Open your doors, O Lēb'-ā-nōn, so that the fire may devour your cedars. ²Howl, fir tree; for the cedar has fallen; because the mighty are stripped. Howl, O oaks of Bā'-shān; for the fortified forest has come down.

³*There is* a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is destroyed. There is a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is destroyed. ⁴For thus says the LORD my God: Feed the flock of the slaughter, ⁵whose owners kill them and hold themselves not guilty. And those who sell them say, Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich; and their own shepherds do not pity them. ⁶For I will never again pity the people of the land, says the LORD; but lo, I will deliver the men, each one into his neighbor's hand and into the hand of his king. And they shall strike the land, and I will not deliver them out of their hand. ⁷And I will feed the flock of slaughter, verily the poor of the flock. And I took two staves for myself; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Binders; and I fed the flock. ⁸I also cut off three shepherds in one month; and my soul despised them, and their soul also despised me. ⁹Then I said, I will not feed you; that which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat, each one the flesh of his neighbor. ¹⁰And I took my staff Beauty, and cut it apart, so that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. ¹¹And it was broken in that day; and so the poor of the flock who waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. ¹²And I said to them, If you think it is good, give me my price; and if not, let it go. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. ¹³And the LORD said to me, Throw it to the potter — the magnificent price at which I was valued by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD. ¹⁴Then I cut my other staff apart, Binders, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵And the LORD said to me, Take unto yourself yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land who shall not visit those who are cut off, neither seek the young one, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which stands still. But he shall eat the flesh of the fat and tear their claws in pieces. ¹⁷Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword shall be upon his arm and upon his right eye; his arm shall be completely dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

¹The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, says the LORD, who stretches forth the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him. ²Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people all around, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

³And in that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people. All who burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it. ⁴In that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with terror and his rider with madness; and I will open My eyes upon the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the people with blindness. ⁵And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The people of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

⁶In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf. And they shall devour all the people all around, on the right hand and on the left. And Jerusalem shall be full of people again in her own place, even in Jerusalem. ⁷The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the people of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah. ⁸In that day the LORD shall defend the people of Jerusalem. And he who is feeble among them at that day shall be like David; and the house of David shall be like God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

⁹And in that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. ¹⁰And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the people of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of prayers. And they shall look upon Me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for Him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. ¹¹In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hā-dād-rim'-mōn in the valley of Mē-gīd'-dōn. ¹²And the land shall mourn, each family apart — the family of David apart, and their wives apart — the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart — ¹³the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart — the family of Shīm'-ē-ī apart, and their wives apart — ¹⁴all the families who remain, each family apart and their wives apart.

²And in that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall be remembered no more. And also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. ³And when any shall yet prophesy, his father and his mother who brought him forth shall say to him then, You shall not live; for you speak lies in the name of the LORD. And his father and his mother who brought him forth shall thrust him through when he prophesies. ⁴And in that day the prophets shall be ashamed, each one of his vision, when he has prophesied. Neither shall they wear a hairy garment to deceive. ⁵But he shall say, I am no prophet; I am a man, a tiller of the ground; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth. ⁶And one shall say to him, What are these wounds in your hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

⁷Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and against the Man who is My companion, says the LORD of hosts; strike the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. And I will turn My hand upon the little ones. ⁸And in all the land, says the LORD, two parts in it shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left in it. ⁹And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. They shall call upon My name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is My people; and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

¹Behold, the day of the LORD comes, and your spoil shall be divided in the midst of you. ²For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women raped; and half of the city shall go into captivity, and the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

³Then the LORD shall go forth and fight against those nations, as when He fought in the day of battle. ⁴And His feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall divide in the midst of it toward the east and toward the west, making a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. ⁵And you shall flee to the valley of the mountain; for the valley of the mountain shall reach to Ā'-zāl. Yes, you shall flee as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Ūz-zī'-āh king of Judah. And the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with you. ⁶And in that day the light shall not be clear nor dark. ⁷But the day shall be one which shall be known to the LORD, neither day nor night — but at evening time it shall be light. ⁸And in that day living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them shall go toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea. In summer and in winter it shall be. ⁹And the LORD shall be king over all the earth; in that day there shall be one LORD, and His name shall be one. ¹⁰All the land shall be turned as a plain from Gē'-bā to Rīm'-mōn south of Jerusalem. And she shall be lifted up and shall dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the Tower of Hān'-ā-nēel unto the king's winepresses. ¹¹And men shall dwell in it, and there shall never again be complete ruin; but Jerusalem shall dwell safely.

¹²And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the people who have fought against Jerusalem. Their flesh shall be eaten away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall be eaten away in their holes. And their tongue shall be eaten away in their mouth. ¹³And in that day a great destroying from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall each one lay hold upon the hand of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor. ¹⁴And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen all around shall be gathered together, gold and silver and clothing in great abundance. ¹⁵And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts who shall be in these tents, like this plague.

¹⁶And everyone who is left of all the nations which came up against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. ¹⁷And it shall be that whoever will not come up of all the families of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain. ¹⁸And if the family of Egypt does not go up, and does not come, they shall have no rain. Then shall be the plague with which the LORD shall strike the nations who do not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles. ¹⁹This shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all nations who do not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

²⁰In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD. And the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. ²¹Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts. And all those who sacrifice shall come and take of them and boil in them; and in that day there shall be none of the Canaanites in the house of the LORD of hosts any more.

The Book of MALACHI

CHAPTER 1

¹The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Māl'ă-chî. ²I have loved you, says the LORD. But you say, In what hast Thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? says the LORD; yet I loved Jacob, ³and I hated Esau and laid his mountains and his inheritance waste for the jackals of the wilderness. ⁴But Ē'-dom says, We are made poor, but we will return and build the waste places. Thus says the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them the border of wickedness and the people against whom the LORD has fury forever. ⁵And your eyes shall see, and you shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

⁶A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests who despise My name. And you say, In what way have we despised Thy name? You offer defiled bread upon My altar; and you say, In what way have we defiled Thee? In that you say, The table of the LORD is a thing to be despised. ⁸And if you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And if you offer the lame and the sick, is it not evil? Offer it now unto your governor; will he be pleased with you, or accept your person? says the LORD of hosts. ⁹And now I pray you, pray unto God that He will be gracious unto us. If this has been by your hands, will He regard your persons? says the LORD of hosts. ¹⁰O that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on My altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts; neither will I be pleased with an offering at your hand. ¹¹For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the sun, My name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto My name, and a pure offering — for My name shall be great among the heathen, says the LORD of hosts.

¹²But you have made it common in that you say, The table of the LORD is defiled; and the fruit of it, even His food is to be despised. ¹³You also said, Behold, what a weariness it is! And you have puffed at it, says the LORD of hosts. And you brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick. You brought an offering this way; should I accept it from your hand? says the LORD. ¹⁴But cursed be the deceiver who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices unto the LORD a blemished thing. For I am a great king, says the LORD of hosts, and My name is fearful among the heathen.

¹And now, O priests, this commandment is for you. ²If you will not hear, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto My name, says

the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. Yea, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. ³Behold, I will destroy your seed and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts. And one shall take you away with it. ⁴And you shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that My covenant might be with Levi, says the LORD of hosts. ⁵My covenant with him was Life and Peace, and I gave them to him. He was to fear Me; and he did fear Me, and was afraid before My name. ⁶The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and turned away many from iniquity. ⁷For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. ⁸But you have turned out of the way; you have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts. ⁹Therefore I have also made you despised and low before all the people, according as you have not kept My ways but have been partial in the law. ¹⁰Do we not all have one father? Has not one God created us? Why do we act deceitfully, each man against his brother, by making the covenant of our fathers common?

¹¹Judah has acted deceitfully, and a hateful thing is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has defiled the holiness of the LORD which He loved, and has married the daughter of a strange god. ¹²The LORD will cut off the man who does this, the master and the scholar, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering unto the LORD of hosts. ¹³And you have done this again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, so much so that He does not respect the offering any more, nor does He receive it with good will at your hand.

¹⁴Yet you say, Why? Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have acted deceitfully; yet she is your companion and the wife of your covenant. ¹⁵And did He not make one only, though He had the remaining fullness of the Spirit? And why one? So that He might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal deceitfully against the wife of his youth. ¹⁶For the LORD, the God of Israel, says that He hates divorce. For one covers his garments with violence, says the LORD of hosts. Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal deceitfully.

¹⁷You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, In what have we wearied Him? When you say, Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3

¹Behold, I will send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me. And the LORD, whom you seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, he shall come, says the LORD of hosts. ²But who can endure the day of His coming? And who shall stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap. ³And He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver. And He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. ⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old and as in former years. ⁵And I will come near you to judgment. And I will be a swift witness against the magicians, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those who rob the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and those who turn the stranger aside, and those who do not fear Me, says the LORD of hosts. ⁶For I am the LORD, I change not — therefore you sons of Jacob are not destroyed.

⁷Even from the days of your fathers, you have gone away from My ordinances and have not kept them. Return unto Me, and I will return unto you, says the LORD of hosts. But you said, In what way shall we return? ⁸Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me. But you say, In what way have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings! ⁹You are cursed with a curse; for you have robbed Me, even this whole nation. ¹⁰Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house. And test Me now with this, says the LORD of hosts, to see if I will not open the windows of Heaven for you, and pour you out a blessing, so that there shall not be room enough to receive it. ¹¹And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before the time in the field, says the LORD of hosts. ¹²And all nations shall call you blessed; for you shall be a delightful land, says the LORD of hosts.

¹³Your words have been hard against Me, says the LORD. Yet you say, What have we spoken against Thee? ¹⁴You have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept His ordinance and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? ¹⁵And now we call the proud happy; yea, those who work wickedness have been built up. Yes, those who tempt God have escaped.

¹⁶Then those who feared the LORD spoke often to one another. And the LORD listened and heard it. And a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared the LORD and thought upon His name. ¹⁷And they shall be Mine, says the LORD of hosts, in that day when I will make up My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him. ¹⁸Then you shall return and see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve Him.

CHAPTER 4

¹For behold, the day comes which shall burn like an oven. And all the proud, yes, and all who do wickedly, shall be stubble. And the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

²But unto you who fear My name, the Sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings; and you shall go forth and grow up like calves of the stall. ³And you shall trample down the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, says the LORD of hosts.

⁴Remember the law of Moses My servant, which I commanded to him in Hòr'-èb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

⁵Behold, I will send you Ê-lí'-jäh the prophet before the coming of the great and fearful day of the LORD. ⁶And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, so that I may not come and strike the earth with a curse.

NEW TESTAMENT

The Gospel According to MATTHEW

CHAPTER I

¹The book of the generations of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. ²Abraham fathered Isaac, and Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers. ³And Judah fathered Phâr'-êz and Zâ'-râh of Tâ'-mâr. And Pharez fathered Hêz'-rôn, and Hezron fathered Ram, ⁴and Ram fathered Ām-min'-ă-dăb, and Amminadab fathered Nâh'-shôn, and Nahshon fathered Săl'-môn. ⁵And Salmon fathered Bô'-ăz of Ră'-hăb, and Boaz fathered Ō'bêd of Ruth, and Obed fathered Jesse, ⁶and Jesse fathered David the king.

And David the king fathered Solomon of her who had been wife of Ū-rî'-ăh. ⁷And Solomon fathered Rê-hô-bô'-ăm, and Rehoboam fathered Ā-bî'-jăh, and Abijah fathered Ā'-să. ⁸And Asa fathered Je-hosh'-ă-phăt, and Jehoshaphat fathered Je-hôr'-ăm, and Jehoram fathered Ūz-zî'-ăh. ⁹And Uzziah fathered Jô'-thăm, and Jotham fathered Ā'-hăz, and Ahaz fathered Hêz'-ê-kî'-ăh. ¹⁰And Hezekiah fathered Mă-năs'-sêh, and Manasseh fathered Ā'-môn, and Amon fathered Jô-sî'-ăh. ¹¹And Josiah fathered Jê-hoi'-ă-chîn and his brothers, at the time they were carried away to Băb'-y-lôn.

¹²And after the carrying away to Babylon, Jê-hoi'-ă-chîn fathered Shê-ăl'-ti-êl, and Shealtiel fathered Zê-rûb'-bă-bêl. ¹³And Zerubbabel fathered Ā-bî'-üd, and Abiud fathered Ē-lî'-ă-kîm, and Eliakim fathered Ā'-zôr. ¹⁴And Azor fathered Să'-doc, and Sadoc fathered Ā'-chîm, and Achim fathered Ē-lî'-üd. ¹⁵And Eliud fathered Ēl-ê-ă'-zăr, and Eleazar fathered Măt'-thăn, and Matthan fathered Jacob. ¹⁶And Jacob fathered Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ. ¹⁷So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations. And from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations. And from the carrying away into Babylon until Christ are fourteen generations.

¹⁸Now the birth of Jesus Christ was this way. (For Mary, His mother, was betrothed to Joseph.) Before they came together, she was found to be with child of the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹But Joseph, betrothed to be her husband, being righteous, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly.

²⁰And as he thought on these things, behold! an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary to you as your wife. For that which is in her is born of the Holy Spirit. ²¹And she shall bring forth a son, and you shall call His name JESUS—for He shall save His people from their sins. ²²Now all this came to pass in order that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, ²³“Behold! The virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call His name Im-mān’-ū-ēl” which means God with us when translated (See [ISAIAH 7:14]). ²⁴And Joseph, being aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took his wife to himself. ²⁵And he did not know her until she had brought forth her first-born son. And he called His name JESUS.

¹Now when Jesus had been born in Bēth’-lē-hēm of Jū’-dē-ā in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem. ²And they said, Where is He who has been born king of the Jews? for we have seen His star in the east and have come to worship Him. ³But hearing this, Herod the king was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he asked of them where the Christ should be born. ⁵And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judea—for so it is written by the prophet, ⁶“And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the princes of Judah, for out of you shall come a Governor who shall shepherd My people Israel” (See MICAH 5:2).

⁷Then secretly calling the wise men aside, Herod inquired of them the exact time the star appeared. ⁸And sending them on to Bethlehem, he said, Go and search carefully for the little child. And when you have found him, bring me word again so that I may come and worship him also. ⁹And hearing the king, they went away. And behold! the star which they had seen in the east went before them, until it had come where it stood right over the little child. ¹⁰And seeing the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. ¹¹And coming into the house, they found the little child with Mary, His mother. And falling down, they worshipped Him. And opening their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold and frankincense and myrrh [mērr]. ¹²Then being warned of God in a dream not to return to Herod, they went away into their own country another way.

¹³And when they were gone, behold! An angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise! Take the little child and His mother with you and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I shall tell you. For Herod is about to look for the little child in order to kill Him. ¹⁴And he arose and took the little child and His mother with him and withdrew by night into Egypt. ¹⁵And he was there until the death of Herod—so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt have I called My Son" (See HOSEA 11:1).

¹⁶Then seeing that he was fooled by the wise men, Herod was very angry. And sending men, he killed all the boys that were in Bethlehem, and in all of its borders, from two years old and under — according to the time which he had accurately inquired of the wise men. ¹⁷Then that was fulfilled which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁸"A voice was heard in Rā'-māh, wailing and bitter weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted because they are not there" (See JEREMIAH 31:15). ¹⁹But when Herod had died, behold! an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in Egypt, in a dream, ²⁰saying Arise, take the little child and His mother and go into the land of Israel. For they who were seeking the life of the little child have died.

²¹And he arose and took the little child and His mother with him, and came into the land of Israel. ²²But hearing that Archelaus [Ār-kē-lāy'-ūs] ruled over Judea, instead of Herod his father, he was afraid to go there. And being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into a part of Galilee ²³and came and lived in a city called Nāz'-a-rēth — so that it should be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, "He shall be called a Nāz'-ā-rēne."

CHAPTER 3

¹Now in those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea. ²And he was saying, Repent! for the kingdom of Heaven has come near. ³For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight" (See ISALAH 40:3). ⁴And John himself had his clothing of camel's hair and a girdle of leather about his loins. And his food was locusts and wild honey.

⁵Then Jerusalem and all Judea went out to him and all the country around the Jordan river. ⁶And they were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. ⁷But when he saw many of the Pharisees [Fāir'-i-sēes] and Sadducees [Sād'-ū-sēes] coming to his baptism, he said to them, You children of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance! ⁹And do not think to say within yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. ¹⁰And even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree not bringing forth good fruit is cut down, and is thrown into the fire. ¹¹I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance — but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

¹²His fan is in His hand, and He will completely clear His floor and will gather His wheat into the storehouse—but the chaff He will burn up with fire that cannot be put out.

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan river, to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴But John was forbidding Him, saying, I have need to be baptized by Thee, and dost Thou come to me? ¹⁵But answering him Jesus said to him, Let it be so now. For in this way it is becoming to us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he gave way to Him. ¹⁶And being baptized Jesus went up immediately out of the water. And behold! the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove, and coming upon Him. ¹⁷And behold, a voice out of the heavens, saying, This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased.

¹Then Jesus was led up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted by the devil. ²And since he had not eaten for forty days and forty nights, He afterwards was hungry. ³And the tempter coming to Him said, If you are the Son of God, command that these stones may become bread. ⁴But answering He said, It is written, “Not by bread alone shall man live, but by every word coming out of the mouth of God” (See DEUTERONOMY 8:3). ⁵Then the devil took Him to the holy city, and he set Him upon the edge of the Temple ⁶and said to Him, If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down—for it is written, “He shall give His angels charge of Thee, and in their hands they shall hold Thee up lest Thou strike Thy foot against a stone” (See PSALM 91:11). ⁷Jesus said to him, Again it is written, “You shall not tempt the Lord your God” (See DEUTERONOMY 6:16). ⁸Again, the devil took Him up to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, ⁹and said to Him, All these things I will give to you if you will fall down and worship me. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, Get away, Satan! for it is written, “You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him alone you shall serve” (See DEUTERONOMY 6:13). ¹¹Then the devil left Him. And behold! angels came and ministered to Him.

¹⁸And walking by the sea of Galilee, Jesus saw two brothers — Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, throwing a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹And He said to them, Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men. ²⁰And they immediately left their nets and followed Him. ²¹And going on from there He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zēb'-ē-dēe, and John his brother, in the ship with Zēb'-ē-dēe their father, mending their nets. And He called them. ²²And they immediately left the ship and their father and followed Him.

²³And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues [sin'-a-gogs] and preaching the Gospel of the kingdom. And He was healing every kind of disease and ailment among the people. ²⁴His fame went into all Syria. And they brought to Him all who were sick, pressed down by different kinds of diseases and torments, and those who were demon-possessed, and lūn'-ā-tics, and pār-ā-lyt'-ics. And He healed them. ²⁵And great crowds followed Him from Galilee and Dē-cāp'-ō-lis and Jerusalem and Judea and beyond the Jordan river.

CHAPTER 5

¹But seeing the multitudes, He went up into the mountain. And when He had sat down, His disciples came to Him. ²And opening His mouth, He taught them, saying, ³Blessed are the poor in spirit! for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

⁴Blessed are they who mourn! for they shall be comforted.

⁵Blessed are the meek! for they shall inherit the earth.

⁶Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness! for they shall be filled.

⁷Blessed are the mercifull! for they shall obtain mercy.

⁸Blessed are the pure in heart! for they shall see God.

⁹Blessed are the peacemakers! for they shall be called the sons of God.

¹⁰Blessed are they who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake! for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

¹¹Blessed are you when they shall call you names, and shall persecute, and lying shall say every evil word against you for My sake. ¹²Rejoice, and leap for joy! for great is your reward in Heaven — for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

¹³You are the salt of the earth — but if the salt loses its taste, with what shall it be salted? For then it no longer has its strength, but is to be thrown out and trampled upon by men. ¹⁴You are the light of the world. A city that is set upon a hill cannot be hid. ¹⁵Neither do they light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but upon the lampstand — and it shines for all who are in the house. ¹⁶Even so let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in Heaven.

¹⁷Do not think that I came to do away with the Law and the Prophets. I did not come to do away with it, but to fulfill it. ¹⁸For verily I say unto you, Until the sky and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle shall pass away from the Law until all comes to pass. ¹⁹Whosoever then shall break one of these commandments, even the least, and shall teach men to do so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of Heaven. But whoever shall practice and teach them, this one shall be called great in the kingdom of Heaven. ²⁰For I say to you that unless your righteousness shall be over and above that of the scribes and Phâr'-î-sêes, you shall in no way enter into the kingdom of Heaven.

²¹You have heard that it was said to the men of old, "You shall not kill." And, "Whoever shall kill shall be in danger of the Judgment" (See Exodus 20:13). ²²But I say to you that every one who is angry with his brother, without cause, shall be in danger of the Judgment. ²³And whoever shall say to his brother, Raca! shall be in danger of the Sãn-hê'-drin — but whoever shall say, Fool! shall be in danger of the fire of hell. ²³If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar and shall remember there that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar and go away, and first renew friendship with your brother — and then after you have come back, offer your gift.

²⁵Agree quickly with him who has a cause against you, while you are still in the highway with him, lest this one who has a cause against you deliver you up to the judge, and the judge deliver you up to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. ²⁶Verily I say unto you, you shall in no way come out from there until you have paid the last penny.

²⁷You have heard that it was said to the men of old, "You shall not commit adultery." (See Exodus 20:14). ²⁸But I say to you that everyone who looks upon a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. ²⁹But if your right eye cause you to sin, pluck it out and throw it from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should be lost, and not that your whole body should be thrown into hell. ³⁰And if your right hand cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should be lost, and not that your whole body be thrown into hell.

³¹It was also said, Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce. ³²But I say to you that whoever shall put away his wife, except on account of fôr-ni-cã'-tion, causes her to commit adultery. And whoever shall marry her that has been put away commits adultery.

³³Again, you have heard that it was said to the men of old, "You shall not swear falsely, but you shall perform your oaths to the Lord" (See LEVITICUS 19:12). ³⁴But I say to you, Do not swear at all, neither by Heaven (because it is God's throne); ³⁵nor by the earth (because it is the footstool of His feet), nor by Jerusalem (because it is the city of the great King). ³⁶Neither shall you swear by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black. ³⁷But let your word be, yes, yes, no, no. But what is more than these is from evil.

³⁸You have heard that it was said, "Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth" (See Exodus 21:24). ³⁹But I say to you, Do not resist evil—but whoever shall strike you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. ⁴⁰And to him who would go to law with you, and take your vest, let him have your coat also. ⁴¹And whoever will force you to go one mile, go two miles with him. ⁴²To him who asks of you, give, and you shall not turn away from him that wishes to borrow from you.

⁴³You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. ⁴⁴But I say to you, Love your enemies, bless those who curse you. Do good to those that hate you. And pray for those who insult you and persecute you: ⁴⁵so that you may be sons of your Father who is in Heaven—for He makes His sun to rise on evil and good, and He sends rain on just and unjust. ⁴⁶For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not the tax-collectors do the same? ⁴⁷And if you greet your brothers only, what do you do more than others? Do not the tax-collectors also do so? ⁴⁸Therefore, you shall be perfect, even as your Father who is in Heaven is perfect.

¹Be careful that you do not do your good deeds before men in order to be seen by them. Otherwise you do not have any reward with your Father who is in Heaven. ²Therefore when you do good deeds, do not sound a trumpet before you, like the hypocrites do in the syn'-ā-gōgues and in the streets, so that they may have glory from men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. ³But when you are doing good deeds, do not let your left hand know what your right hand does—⁴so that your good deeds may be in secret. And your Father, who is seeing in secret, shall Himself reward you openly.

⁵And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the syn'-ā-gōgues and in the corners of the streets, so that they may be seen by men. Verily I say unto you that they have their reward. ⁶But when you pray, go into your inner room, shut your door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you openly. ⁷But when you pray, do not vainly babble words as the heathen do—for they think that in their much speaking they shall be heard. ⁸Be not like them then, for your Father knows what things you need before you ask Him. ⁹Therefore, pray in this way:

Our Father, who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
¹⁰Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in Heaven.
¹¹Give us this day our daily bread, ¹²and forgive us our debts as we also forgive our debtors.
¹³And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

¹⁴For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will forgive you too. ¹⁵But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

¹⁶And when you fast, do not be as the hypocrites of a sad face, for they darken their faces that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you that they have their reward. ¹⁷But you, when you fast, oil your head and wash your face, ¹⁸so that you may not appear to men to fast. But fast to your Father who is in secret—and your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly.

²⁴No one is able to serve two lords—for either he will hate the one, and he will love the other—or, he will hold to one, and he will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and mammon. ²⁵Because of this I say to you, Do not be anxious as to your life, what you should eat and what you should drink—nor for your body, what you should put on. Is not the life more than the food? and the body than the clothing? ²⁶Look at the birds of the sky, that they do not sow, nor do they reap, nor do they gather into barns—yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much better than they? ²⁷But which of you by being anxious is able to add one cubit to his height? ²⁸And why are you worried about clothing? Look at the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not work, neither do they spin. ²⁹But I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these! ³⁰But if God so clothe the grass of the field (which is here today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow,) will He not much rather clothe you, O you of little faith? ³¹Therefore, do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, With what shall we be clothed? ³²For the heathen seek all these things. For your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things. ³³But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. ³⁴Therefore, do not be anxious for tomorrow—for tomorrow shall be anxious for its own things. Enough for each day is its own evil.

¹Judge not, so that you may not be judged. ²For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged. And with what measure you measure out, it shall be measured to you again. ³But why do you look upon the twig that is in your brother's eye, but do not see the log in your own eye? ⁴Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull the twig out of your eye: and behold! the log is in your eye? ⁵Hypocrite! First pull the log out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to pull the twig out of your brother's eye.

⁶Do not give that which is holy to the dogs, nor throw your pearls before the hogs—lest they should trample upon them with their feet, and then turn and tear you. ⁷Ask and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. ⁸For everyone that asks does receive—and he that seeks does find—and to him that knocks, it shall be opened. ⁹Or what man is there of you, who if his son should ask bread, will he give him a stone? ¹⁰Or if he should ask a fish, will he give him a snake? ¹¹If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more your Father who is in Heaven will give good things to those who ask Him! ¹²Therefore all things whatever you desire men to do to you, you do also to them—for this is the Law and the Prophets.

¹³Go in through the narrow gate—for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to death, and many are they who enter through it. ¹⁴Because narrow is the gate and narrow is the way that leads to life, and few are they who find it.

¹⁵But beware of the false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inside they are plundering wolves. ¹⁶By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? ¹⁷Even so every good tree brings forth good fruit, but the worthless tree brings forth evil fruit. ¹⁸A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit. Neither can a worthless tree bring forth good fruit. ¹⁹Every tree not bringing forth good fruit is cut down and is thrown into the fire. ²⁰Then surely by their fruits you shall know them.

²¹Not everyone who says to Me, Lord! Lord! shall enter into the kingdom of Heaven. But he who does the will of My Father who is in Heaven shall enter in. ²²Many will say to Me in that day, Lord! Lord! did we not prophesy through Thy name, and through Thy name throw out demons, and through Thy name do mighty works? ²³And then I will say to them, I never knew you! Depart from Me, you who work lawlessness!

²⁴Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on a rock—²⁵and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and struck against that house—and it did not fall. For it had been founded upon a rock. ²⁶And everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not do them, he shall be likened to a foolish man who built his house upon the sand—²⁷and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house—and it fell. And great was the fall of it.

²⁸And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, the people were astonished at His teaching—²⁹for He was teaching them as One who had authority, and not like the scribes.

CHAPTER 8

¹And when He had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed Him. ²And behold! a leper came and worshiped Him, saying, Lord, if Thou dost desire, Thou art able to make me clean. ³And stretching out His hand, Jesus touched him, saying, I will! Be clean! And instantly his leprosy was gone. ⁴And Jesus said to him, See that you do not tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gifts which Moses commanded, for a witness to them.

⁵And when Jesus had entered into Că-pěr'-nă-ŭm, a centurion came to Him begging Him, ⁶and saying, Lord, my servant has been laid out in the house, a paralytic, fearfully tormented. ⁷And Jesus said to him, I will come and heal him. ⁸The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst come under my roof. But only speak a word and my servant shall be healed. ⁹For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, Go! and he goes; and to another, Come! and he comes; and to my servant, Do this! and he does it. ¹⁰And hearing this, Jesus marveled, and said to those following, Verily I say unto you, Not even in Israel have I found so great faith. ¹¹But I say to you that many shall come from the east and west and shall sit down with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of Heaven — ¹²but the children of the kingdom shall be thrown out into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ¹³And Jesus said to the centurion, Go! and as you have believed, so be it done to you. And his servant was healed in that hour.

¹⁴And when Jesus had come to Peter's house, He saw his wife's mother laid out in bed and sick of a fever. ¹⁵And He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and served them.

¹⁶And as evening was coming on, they brought to Him many that were demon-possessed. And He threw out the spirits by a word and healed all who were sick — ¹⁷so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He took upon Himself our weaknesses and bore our sicknesses" (See ISALAH 53:4).

¹⁸And seeing great crowds around Him, Jesus gave orders to go away to the other side. ¹⁹And a certain scribe came and said to Him, Master, I will follow you wherever you go. ²⁰And Jesus says to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere He may lay His head. ²¹And another of His disciples said to Him, Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father. ²²But Jesus said to him, Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.

²³And when He had gone into the ship, His disciples followed Him. ²⁴And behold! a great tempest occurred in the sea — so that the ship was covered by the waves. But He was asleep. ²⁵And His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, saying, Lord, save us! We perish! ²⁶And He said to them, Why are you afraid, O you of little faith? Then rising up, He rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. ²⁷And the men marveled, saying, What kind of man is this? that even the winds and the sea obey Him!

²⁸And when He had come to the other side into the country of the Ger'-gē-sēnes, two demon-possessed men met Him, coming out of the tombs. They were so very violent that no man was able to pass by that way. ²⁹And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with Thee, Jesus, Thou Son of God? Art Thou come here before the time to torment us? ³⁰Now there was far off from them a herd of many hogs feeding. ³¹And the demons begged Him, saying, If Thou cast us out, allow us to go away into the herd of hogs. ³²And He said to them, Go! And they came out and entered into the herd of hogs. And behold! the whole herd of hogs rushed down the steep into the sea and died in the waters. ³³And those who fed them ran away. And going into the city, they told everything, and the things about the demon-possessed. ³⁴And behold, the whole city went out to meet Jesus. And seeing Him, they begged Him that He would go away from their countryside.

¹And entering into the ship, He passed over and came to His own city. ²Lo and behold, they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. And seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, Be of good courage, child, your sins are forgiven you. ³And behold! Some of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. ⁴And knowing their thoughts, Jesus said, Why do you think evil in your hearts? ⁵For which is easier? to say, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Arise and walk? ⁶But so that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins, He then said to the paralytic, Arise! Take up your bed and go to your house. ⁷And rising up, he went away to his house. ⁸And seeing this, the multitudes marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

⁹And passing on, Jesus saw there a man named Matthew sitting at the tax-office. And He says to him, Follow Me! And rising up, he followed Him. ¹⁰And it came to pass as He was dining in the house, behold, many tax-collectors and sinners came and dined with Jesus and His disciples. ¹¹And the Phâr'-î-sêes seeing it said to His disciples, Why does your Master eat with tax-collectors and sinners? ¹²But Jesus hearing them, He said to them, They who are strong have no need of a doctor, but they who are sick. ¹³But go and learn what this means, "I will have mercy, and not sacrifice" (See HOSEA 6:6). For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

¹⁴Then the disciples of John came near to Him saying, Why do we and the Phâr'-î-sêes fast often, but Thy disciples do not fast at all? ¹⁵And Jesus said to them, Can the children of the bride chamber mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will have been taken away from them, and then they will fast. ¹⁶But no one puts a piece of new cloth onto an old piece of clothing, for filling it up with new cloth takes away from the clothing, and the tear is made worse. ¹⁷Neither do men put new wine into old wineskins, otherwise the wineskins burst, and the wine runs out, and the wineskins will be ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved together.

¹⁸While He was speaking these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped Him, saying, Just now my daughter has died. But come and lay Thy hand upon her and she shall live. ¹⁹And rising up, Jesus followed him, also His disciples.

²⁰Lo and behold! a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came up behind Him and touched the hem of His robe. ²¹For she said within herself, If only I shall touch His robe, I shall be cured. ²²But turning and seeing her, Jesus said, Be of good courage, daughter, your faith has cured you. And the woman was cured from that hour.

²³And coming to the house of the ruler, and seeing the flute-players and the crowd making a great noise, ²⁴Jesus said to them, Go back, for the little girl is not dead, but is asleep. And they scornfully laughed at Him. ²⁵But when the crowd had been put out, He went in and took hold of her hand. And the little girl rose up. ²⁶And this tale went out into all that land.

²⁷And as Jesus was passing on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying and saying, Have mercy on us, Son of David. ²⁸And coming into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, Do you believe that I am able to do this? They said to Him, Yes, Lord. ²⁹Then He touched their eyes saying, According to your faith be it to you. ³⁰And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, See that you let no one know. ³¹But after they left, they made Him known in all that land. ³²And as they were going out, behold, they brought to Him a man dumb, demon-possessed. ³³And when the demon had been thrown out, the dumb one spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, Never was it seen like this in Israel. ³⁴But the Phâr'-î-sêes said, He throws out demons by the prince of demons.

³⁵And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the Gospel of the kingdom. And He was healing every sickness and weakness of body among the people. ³⁶And seeing the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them because they were tired and scattered as sheep having no shepherd. ³⁷Then He said to His disciples, The harvest truly is great, but the workers are few. ³⁸Pray then that the Lord of the harvest may send out workers into His harvest.

CHAPTER 10

¹And calling His twelve disciples, He gave to them authority over unclean spirits so as to throw them out, and also power to heal every kind of sickness and every kind of weakness of body.

⁵Jesus sent out these twelve, commanding them, saying, Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter into a city of the Sâ-mâr'-î-tāns. ⁶But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷And as you go, preach, saying, The kingdom of Heaven has come near. ⁸Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, throw out demons. You have freely received, so freely give. ⁹Do not take either gold or silver, or money in your purses — ¹⁰nor a bag for the journey, nor two coats, nor shoes, nor a staff. For the workman is worthy of his food. ¹¹And into whatever city or village you enter, ask who in it is worthy. And stay there until you go forth. ¹²And when you come into the house, greet it. ¹³And if the house truly is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴And whosoever will not receive you, nor will hear your words, come out of that house or city — shake off the dust from your feet. ¹⁵Verily I say to you, it shall be more bearable for the land of Sod'-ūm and Gō-mōr'-rāh in the day of judgment than for that city.

¹⁶Behold! I send you forth as sheep in the middle of wolves. Therefore show yourselves wise as serpents and harmless as doves. ¹⁷But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to the sãn-hé'-drĩns, and they will beat you in their syn'-ã-gōgues. ¹⁸And also you shall be brought before governors and kings for My sake — for a witness to them and to the Gentiles. ¹⁹But when they deliver you up, do not be anxious how or what you should speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what you should say. ²⁰For it is not you that speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you. ²¹And brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. And children will rise up against parents and will put them to death. ²²And you shall be hated by all men on account of My name. But he that endures to the end shall be saved.

²³But when they persecute you in this city, flee into another. For verily I say to you, In no way will you have finished the cities of Israel until the Son of man has come. ²⁴The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. ²⁵It is enough that the disciple become like his master, and the servant like his lord. If they have called the Master of the house Bē-ēl'-zē-būb, how much more shall they call those of His household? ²⁶You should not therefore fear them. For there is nothing covered that shall not be uncovered, and nothing hidden which shall not be known. ²⁷What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light. And what you hear in the ear, preach it upon the housetops.

²⁸And you should not be afraid of those who kill the body, but who are not able to kill the soul. But rather you should fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. ²⁹Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? and one of them shall not fall to the ground without your Father. ³⁰But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹You should not fear then, for you are of more value than many sparrows. ³²Therefore, everyone who shall confess me before men, I will also confess him before My Father who is in Heaven. ³³But whosoever shall deny Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father who is in Heaven.

³⁴Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵For I came to set a man against his father — and a daughter against her mother — and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. ³⁶And a man's foes shall be his own household. ³⁷He that loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me! And he that loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me! ³⁸And he that does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me! ³⁹He that has found his life shall lose it. And he that has lost his life on account of Me shall find it. ⁴⁰He that receives you receives Me. And he that receives Me receives Him who sent Me. ⁴¹He that receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward. And he that receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. ⁴²And whoever shall give to one of these little ones only a cup of cold water to drink, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no way lose his reward!

CHAPTER 11

¹And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished commanding His twelve disciples, He left there in order to teach and to preach in their cities.

²Now hearing in the prison of the works of the Christ, John sent two of his disciples. ³And they said to Him, Art Thou the coming One? or are we to look for another? ⁴And answering, Jesus said to them, Go! Tell John what you hear and see: ⁵*The* blind receive sight and the lame walk. Lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear. The dead are raised, and the poor have the Gospel preached to them. ⁶And blessed is he who shall not be offended in Me.

⁷And as these were going away, Jesus began to say to the multitude concerning John, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with the wind? ⁸But what did you go out to see? a man clothed in soft clothing? Behold! they that wear soft clothing are in the houses of kings. ⁹But what did you go out to see? a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one more excellent than a prophet! ¹⁰For this is he of whom it has been written, "Behold! I send My messenger before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee" (See MALACHI 3:1). ¹¹Verily I say unto you, There has not ever risen among those born of women any greater than John the Baptist. But he that is least in the kingdom of Heaven is greater than he is. ¹²And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of Heaven is taken by violence, and the violent take it by force. ¹³For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. ¹⁴And if you are willing to receive it, he is E-li'-jäh who is to come. ¹⁵He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁶But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like little children sitting in the markets and calling to their playmates, ¹⁷saying, We played the flute to you, and you did not dance! We mourned to you, but you did not wail! ¹⁸For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon. ¹⁹The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold! a man who is a glutton and a wine-drinker, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners. But wisdom was justified by her children.

²⁰Then He began to shame the cities in which most of His mighty works had taken place, because they did not repent. ²¹Woe to you, Chorazin [Kō-rāy'-zīn]! Woe to you, Bēth-sā'-ī-dā! For if the mighty works which have taken place in you had happened in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²²But I say to you, It shall be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. ²³And you, Cā-per'-nā-ūm, who have been lifted up to Heaven, shall be brought down into hell. For if the mighty works which have taken place in you had happened in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. ²⁴But I say to you that it shall be more bearable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you.

²⁵Answering at that time Jesus said, I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, because Thou didst hide these things from the sophisticated and cunning and didst reveal them to babes. ²⁶Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Thy sight. ²⁷All things are delivered to Me by My Father. And no one knows the Son except the Father—nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son may desire to reveal Him.

²⁸Come unto Me, all you that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take My yoke upon you and learn of Me—for I am meek and lowly in heart—and you shall find rest unto your souls. ³⁰For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.

CHAPTER 12

¹At that season Jesus went through the grainfield on the Sabbath day. And His disciples were hungry. And they began to pluck the ears of grain and to eat. ²But seeing this, the Phâr'-ī-sēes said to Him, Behold! your disciples are doing what it is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day. ³But He said to them, Have you never read what David did when he himself was hungry, and those with him? ⁴how he went into the house of God and ate the showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those with him, but only for the priests? ⁵Or have you never read in the Law how on the sabbaths the priests in the Temple profane the sabbath, and are not guilty? ⁶But I say to you that One greater than the Temple is here. ⁷But if you had known what this means, "I desire mercy and not sacrifice" (See HOSEA 6:6), you would not have condemned those who are not guilty. ⁸For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath day.

⁹And going away from there, He went into their syn'-ă-gogue. ¹⁰And behold! there was a man there with a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbaths? (so that they might accuse Him). ¹¹But He said to them, What! shall there be a man of you who shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbaths, will he not lay hold on it and lift it out? ¹²How much better, then, is a man than a sheep? So it is lawful to do well on the sabbath. ¹³Then He says to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he stretched it out. And it was made whole again, just like the other.

¹⁴But after they went out, the Phâr'-î-sêes held a meeting against Him, how they might do away with Him. ¹⁵And knowing this, Jesus withdrew from there, and great crowds followed Him. And He healed them all, ¹⁶and He strictly commanded them that they should not make Him known — ¹⁷so that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Ī-sâ'-î-âh the prophet, saying, ¹⁸"Behold My Servant, whom I have chosen: My Beloved in whom My soul is well-pleased. I will put My Spirit upon Him, and He shall show judgment to the Gentiles. ¹⁹He shall not strive or cry out, neither shall anyone hear His voice in the streets. ²⁰A bruised reed He will not break, and a smoking wick He will not put out, until He bring forth judgment to victory. ²¹And in His name the Gentiles shall trust" (See ISAIAH 42:1).

²²Then a demon-possessed man was brought to Him, who was blind and dumb. And He healed him, so that the blind and dumb one both spoke and saw. ²³And all the people were amazed, and said, This is the son of David! ²⁴But hearing this the Phâr'-î-sêes said, This one does not throw out demons except by Bē-ēl'-zē-būb the prince of the demons. ²⁵But knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is made helpless. And every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶And if Satan does throw out Satan, he has been divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷And if I throw out the demons by Bē-ēl'-zē-būb, by whom do your children throw them out? Because of this they shall be your judges. ²⁸But if I throw out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²⁹Or else how is anyone able to enter into the house of the strong man and take his goods — unless he first ties up the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. ³⁰He that is not with Me is against Me! and he who does not gather with Me scatters. ³¹Because of this I say to you, Every kind of sin and blasphemy [blās'-fē-mē] shall be forgiven to men, but blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven to men. ³²And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him — neither in this world, nor in the world to come. ³³Either make the tree good and its fruit good — or else make the tree evil and its fruit evil — for the tree is known from the fruit.

³⁸Then some of the scribes and Phâr'-i-sêes answered, saying, Master, we want to see a sign from you. ³⁹But answering He said to them, A generation full of evil and adultery seeks for a sign. And a sign shall not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰For even as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹*The men of Nîn'-ê-vêh* shall stand up in the Judgment with this generation and shall condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold! One greater than Jonah is here. ⁴²The queen of the south shall rise up in the Judgment with this generation and shall condemn it. For she came from the other side of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold! One greater than Solomon is here.

⁴³When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he walks through dry places looking for rest and does not find it. ⁴⁴Then he says, I will go back into my house from where I came out. And coming back he finds it empty, swept, and decorated. ⁴⁵Then he goes and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself. And entering in, they live there — and the last condition of that man becomes worse than the first. So also shall it be to this wicked generation.

⁴⁶While He was still speaking to the people, lo, His mother and His brothers were standing outside, wanting to speak to Him. ⁴⁷Then someone said to Him, Behold! Thy mother and Thy brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to Thee. ⁴⁸But answering He said to the one who spoke to Him, Who is My mother? and who are My brothers? ⁴⁹And stretching out His hand toward His disciples He said, Behold, My mother and My brothers! ⁵⁰For whoever shall do the will of My Father who is in Heaven, the same is My brother and sister and mother.

¹And in that day, going out from the house, Jesus sat down by the sea. ²And great multitudes were gathered to Him, so that He entered into a boat and sat down. And all the crowd stood on the shore. ³And He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went out to sow. ⁴And as he sowed, some seeds fell by the road side, and the birds came and ate them. ⁵And others fell upon the stony places, where they did not have much earth. And they sprang up immediately because they had no deepness of earth. ⁶And when the sun came up they were scorched. And because they did not have any root, they dried up. ⁷And some fell upon the thorns. And the thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸And some fell upon the good ground, and brought forth fruit — some a hundred times, another sixty and another thirty. ⁹He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁰And coming to Him, the disciples said to Him, Why do you speak to them in parables? ¹¹He answered and said to them, Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. ¹²For whoever has, more shall be given to him — and he shall have plenty. But whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him. ¹³Because of this I speak to them in parables — because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. ¹⁴And the prophecy of Ī-sā'-ī-āh is fulfilled in them, which says, “In hearing you shall hear and shall in no way understand. And seeing you shall see and in no way see. ¹⁵For the heart of this people has grown fat, and with their ears they have heard sluggishly — and they have closed their eyes, lest they should see with their eyes, and they should hear with their ears, and they should understand with their heart and should be converted, and I should heal them” (See ISAIAH 6:9). ¹⁶But your eyes are blessed because they see, and your ears because they hear. ¹⁷For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and saw not; and to hear what you hear, and heard not.

¹⁸Hear then the parable of the sower. ¹⁹When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the wicked one comes and catches away that which was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the road side.

²⁰And he who received seed upon the stony places, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. ²¹But he has no root in himself, and is only temporary. And when trouble or persecution rises on account of the word, he immediately stumbles.

²²And he who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the care of this life and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

²³But he that received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands. He indeed brings forth fruit and produces one a hundred times, another sixty, another thirty.

²⁴He put forth another parable to them, saying, The kingdom of Heaven has become like a man sowing good seed in his field. ²⁵But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went away. ²⁶And when the blade sprouted, and fruit was brought forth, then the tares appeared also. ²⁷And the servants of the master of the house said to him, Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then does it have the tares? ²⁸And he said to them, A man, an enemy, has done this. And the servants said to him, Then do you want us to go and gather them up? ²⁹But he said, No! lest gathering the tares you should root up the wheat with them. ³⁰Let both grow together until the harvest. And in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, First gather the tares and bind them into bundles to burn them — but gather the wheat into my barn.

³¹He put forth another parable to them, saying, The kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed which a man has taken and sowed in his field. ³²*It* is indeed less than all the seeds, but when it is grown it is greater than the other plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and roost in the branches of it.

³³He spoke another parable to them. The kingdom of Heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.

³⁴Jesus spoke all these things to the multitudes in parables. And without a parable He spoke nothing to them — ³⁵so that that which was spoken by the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, “I will open My mouth in parables. I will say things hidden from the foundation of the world” (See PSALM 78:2).

³⁶Then sending the crowds away, Jesus went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field. ³⁷And answering He said to them, He who sows the good seed is the Son of man. ³⁸And the field is the world. And the good seed are the children of the kingdom. But the tares are the children of the evil one. ³⁹And the enemy who sowed them is the devil. And the harvest is the end of the world. And the reapers are the angels. ⁴⁰Therefore just as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it shall be at the end of the world. ⁴¹The Son of man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness. ⁴²And they shall throw them into a furnace of fire. There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³Then the righteous shall shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

⁴⁴Again, the kingdom of Heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid. And from the joy of it, he goes and sells all things, as many things as he has, and buys that field.

⁴⁵Again, the kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a merchant, looking for beautiful pearls. ⁴⁶And having found one very precious pearl, going away, he sold all, as many things as he had, and bought it.

⁵¹Jesus said to them, Have you understood all these things? They say to Him, Yes, Lord. ⁵²And He said to them, Because of this every scribe schooled unto the kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a master of a house, who puts forth out of his treasure things both new and old.

⁵³And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these parables, He went away from there. ⁵⁴And coming to His own country, He taught them in their syn'-ă-gogue, so that they were astonished. And they said, Where does this one have this wisdom and these mighty works from? ⁵⁵Is this not the son of the carpenter? Is his mother not called Mary, and his brothers James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶And his sisters, are they not all with us? Where then does this one have all these things from? ⁵⁷And they were offended in Him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is never without honor except in his own country, and in his own house. ⁵⁸And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

¹At that time Herod the têt'-rärch heard the fame of Jesus, ²and said to his servants, This is John the Baptist! He is risen from the dead. And because of this, mighty works show themselves in him. ³For after Herod had caught John, he bound him and put him in prison, on account of Hë-rō'-dī-ās the wife of his brother Philip. ⁴For John said to him, It is not lawful for you to have her. ⁵And when he would have killed him, he feared the people, because they held him to be a prophet.

⁶But the birthday of Herod being celebrated, the daughter of Hë-rō'-dī-ās danced in the middle of them and pleased Herod. ⁷So he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask. ⁸And she had been urged on by her mother beforehand, and said, Give me here the head of John the Baptist on a platter. ⁹And the king grieved. But on account of the oaths, and those who reclined with him at table, he commanded it to be given. ¹⁰And he sent, and had John beheaded in the prison. ¹¹And his head was brought on a platter and was given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. ¹²And his disciples came and took the body and buried it. And they came and told Jesus.

¹³And hearing this, Jesus went by ship to a desert place apart. And when the people heard of it, they followed Him on foot, out of the cities. ¹⁴And going out, Jesus saw a multitude and was moved with compassion toward them, and He healed their sick. ¹⁵And since evening had come, His disciples came to Him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time has already gone by. Send away the multitude, that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.

¹⁶But Jesus said to them, They have no need to go away. You give them food to eat. ¹⁷But they said to Him, We have here nothing except five loaves and two fishes. ¹⁸And He said, Bring them here to Me. ¹⁹And after commanding the multitude to lie on the grass, and after He had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, and had looked up to Heaven, He blessed them. And breaking them, He gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the multitude. ²⁰And all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the pieces that were left over. ²¹And those men who ate were about five thousand, besides women and children.

²²And immediately Jesus made His disciples get into a ship, and to go before Him to the other side, until He had sent the multitudes away. ²³And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up alone into a mountain to pray. And after evening had come, He was there alone. ²⁴But the ship now was in the middle of the sea being tossed by the waves, for the wind was against them. ²⁵But in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went out to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶And seeing Him walking on the sea, the disciples were troubled, saying, It is a ghost! And they cried out from fear. ²⁷But immediately Jesus spoke to them saying, Be of good courage, I am He! Do not fear. ²⁸And answering Him Peter said, Lord, if it is Thee, tell me to come to Thee upon the waters. ²⁹And He said, Come! And Peter, coming down out of the ship, walked upon the waters to go to Jesus. ³⁰But when he saw the wind was violent, he was afraid. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me! ³¹And immediately, stretching out His hand, Jesus took hold of him. And He said to him, O you of little faith, why did you doubt? ³²And after they had come into the ship, the wind stopped. ³³And those in the ship came and worshipped Him saying, Truly Thou art the Son of God.

³⁴And after they had passed over, they came to the land of Gën-ēs'-ă-rēt. ³⁵And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent out to all the country round about, and brought to Him all that were diseased. ³⁶And they begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched were made perfectly well.

CHAPTER 15

¹Then scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem came to Jesus saying, ²Why do your disciples violate the tradition of the elders? for they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. ³But answering, He said to them, Why do you also violate the commandment of God on account of your tradition? ⁴For God commanded, saying, "Honor your father and mother;" and, "He who speaks evil of father or mother, by death let him die" (See Exodus 20:12 and 21:17). ⁵But you say, Whoever shall say to his father or mother, Whatever you might have gained from me is a gift to God! — and so in no way honor his father or his mother. ⁶And you have made the commandment of God worthless on account of your tradition. ⁷Hypocrites! well did Isaiah prophesy about you saying, ⁸"This people draws near to Me with their mouth, and with their lips honor Me, but their heart is far from Me: ⁹but in vain they worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (See ISALAH 29:13). ¹⁰And calling the multitude, He said to them, Hear and understand. ¹¹Not that which enters into the mouth defiles a man, but that which goes forth out of the mouth, this is what defiles a man.

¹²Then coming up to Him, His disciples said to Him, Dost Thou know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying? ¹³But answering He said, Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted shall be rooted up. ¹⁴Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. ¹⁵Then answering, Peter said to Him, Explain this parable to us. ¹⁶But Jesus said, Are you also still without understanding? ¹⁷Do you not yet understand that everything which enters into the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the waste-bowl? ¹⁸But the things which go forth out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and they defile a man. ¹⁹For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, lies, blasphemies. ²⁰These things are they which defile a man, but eating with unwashed hands does not make a man unclean before God.

²¹And leaving there, Jesus withdrew into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. ²²And behold, a woman of Cā'-nāan coming out of those borders cried to Him saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David. My daughter is miserably demon-possessed. ²³But He answered her not a word. And His disciples came and asked Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries after us. ²⁴But answering, He said, I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ²⁵But coming up, she worshipped Him, saying,

Lord, help me. ²⁶But answering He said, It is not good to take the children's bread and to throw it to the little dogs. ²⁷But she said, True, O Lord, but even the little dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from the table of their masters. ²⁸Then answering, Jesus said to her, O woman, great is your faith! So be it to you even as you wish. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

²⁹And going away from there, Jesus came towards the sea of Galilee. And going up into a mountain, He sat down there. ³⁰And a great multitude came to Him, having with them lame, blind, dumb, maimed and many others. And they flung them down at Jesus' feet. And He healed them, ³¹so that the multitude wondered, seeing the dumb speaking, the maimed made sound, the lame walking and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel. ³²But calling His disciples, Jesus said, I am moved with compassion for the multitude because it is three days they have been with Me, and have nothing to eat. And I am not willing to send them away fasting lest they faint in the way. ³³And His disciples said to Him, Where could we get so many loaves in a wilderness, so as to satisfy so great a multitude? ³⁴And Jesus said to them, How many loaves have you? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. ³⁵And He commanded the crowds to lie on the ground; ³⁶and taking the seven loaves and the fishes, giving thanks, He broke them and gave to His disciples. And the disciples gave them to the multitude. ³⁷And all ate and were satisfied. And they took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces left over. ³⁸And they who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹And after sending away the multitudes, He entered into the ship, and came to the borders of Mäg'-dā-lā.

¹And the Pharisees and Sād'-dū-cēes came to Him tempting Him, asking Him to show them a sign out of Heaven. But answering He said to them, ²When evening has come, you say, Fair weather: for the sky is red. ³And in the morning, A storm today: for the sky is red and gloomy. Hypocrites! Indeed you know how to tell the face of the sky, but you cannot see the signs of the times! ⁴A generation full of wickedness and adultery seeks a sign, but there shall be no sign given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. And leaving them, He went away.

⁵And when His disciples came to the other side, they forgot to take loaves. ⁶And Jesus said to them, Beware and take heed of the leaven of the Phâr'-î-sēes and Sād'-dū-cēes. ⁷And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread. ⁸And knowing this Jesus said to them, O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you have brought no bread? ⁹Do you not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets

you took up? ¹⁰Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? ¹¹How is it that you do not understand that I spoke not to you about bread, but to beware of the leaven of the Phâr'-i-sées and Sâd'-dû-cées? ¹²Then they understood that He was not saying to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Phâr'-i-sées and Sâd'-dû-cées.

¹³And when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi [Sêe'-zâ-rê-a Fill'-îp-î], He questioned His disciples, saying, Who do men say that I the Son of man am? ¹⁴And they said, Some say John the Baptist, and others say Ê-lî'-jâh, and others, Jer-ê-mî'-âh, or one of the prophets. ¹⁵He said to them, But you, who do you say that I am? ¹⁶And answering, Simon Peter said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God! ¹⁷And answering Jesus said to him, Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but My Father who is in Heaven. ¹⁸And I say to you, that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. ¹⁹And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of Heaven: and whatever you may bind on earth shall come to pass, having been already bound in Heaven. And whatever you may loose on earth shall come to pass, having been already loosed in Heaven. ²⁰Then He charged His disciples that they should say to no one that He is Jesus the Christ.

²¹From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that it was necessary for Him to go away to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes — and to be killed, and to be raised the third day ²²But taking Him aside, Peter began to rebuke Him, saying, God be gracious to Thee, Lord, this shall never be done to Thee. ²³But turning around He said to Peter, Get behind Me, Satan: you are a scandal to Me, for you do not think of the things of God, but only the things of men. ²⁴Then Jesus said to His disciples, If anyone wants to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. ²⁵For whosoever wants to save his life shall lose it, but whosoever may lose his life on account of Me shall find it. ²⁶For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? For what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? ²⁷For the Son of man is going to come in the glory of His Father, with His angels: and then He will give to each man according to his works. ²⁸Verily I say unto you, There are some of those standing here who in no way shall taste of death until they have seen the Son of man coming in His kingdom.

¹And after six days Jesus took with Him Peter and James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain apart. ²And He was gloriously changed before them! And His face shone as the sun, and His clothes became white as the light. ³And behold! there appeared to them Moses and Ē-li'-jäh talking with Him. ⁴And answering, Peter said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here. If it pleases Thee, let us make here three tabernacles: one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Ē-li'-jäh. ⁵While he was yet speaking, lo and behold! a bright cloud overshadowed them. And behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased, hear Him. ⁶And hearing it the disciples fell upon their face, and they were greatly terrified. ⁷And coming to them, Jesus touched them and said, Rise up, and do not be afraid. ⁸And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus alone.

⁹And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man has risen from among the dead. ¹⁰And His disciples asked Him, saying, Why then do the scribes say that Ē-li'-jäh must come first? ¹¹And answering, Jesus said to them, Ē-li'-jäh indeed comes first and shall restore all things. ¹²But I say to you that Ē-li'-jäh already has come, and they did not know him, but did to him whatever they desired. In like manner also the Son of man is going to suffer from them. ¹³Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

¹⁴And when they came to the multitude, there came to Him a man kneeling down to Him and saying, ¹⁵Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is a lün'-ă-tic and suffers miserably: for many times he falls into the fire, and often into the water. ¹⁶And I brought him to Thy disciples, and they were not able to heal him. ¹⁷And answering, Jesus said, O faithless and crooked generation, how long shall I be with you? How long will I suffer you? Bring him here to Me. ¹⁸And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon departed from him, and the boy was healed from that very hour. ¹⁹Then coming aside to Jesus, the disciples said, Why were we not able to throw him out? ²⁰And Jesus said to them, Because of your unbelief. For verily I say unto you, If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, Move from here to there, and it shall move: and nothing shall be impossible to you. ²¹But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.

²²And while they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, ²³and they shall kill Him, and the third day He shall be raised up. And they were made very sad.

²⁴And after they had come to Că-pěr'-nă-üm, those who collected the tax-money came to Peter and said, Your master — does he not pay the tax money? ²⁵He said, Yes. And when he went into the house, Jesus spoke before him, saying, What do you think, Simon — from whom do the kings of the earth receive custom or tribute? from their sons, or from strangers?

²⁶Peter said to Him, From the strangers. Jesus said to him, Then truly the sons are free. ²⁷But that we may not offend them, when you go down to the sea, throw out a hook and take the first fish coming up. And when you have opened its mouth, you shall find a piece of money. Take that and give it to them for Me and you.

¹In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Who then is greatest in the kingdom of Heaven? ²And after Jesus had called to Him a little child, He set him in the middle of them. ³And He said, Verily I say unto you, unless you are converted and become as the little children, you shall in no way enter into the kingdom of Heaven. ⁴Whoever therefore will humble himself as this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of Heaven. ⁵And whoever shall receive one such little child in My name receives Me. ⁶But whoever shall cause one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it is better for him that a millstone should be hung upon his neck and that he be sunk in the depth of the sea. ⁷Woe to the world because of offences! For it is necessary for the offences to come, but woe to that man by whom the offence comes. ⁸And if your hand or your foot cause you to offend, cut them off and throw them from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or maimed than to have two hands or two feet to be thrown into everlasting fire. ⁹And if your eye cause you to offend, pluck it out and throw it from you. It is better for you to enter into life one-eyed than to have two eyes to be thrown into hell fire. ¹⁰Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in Heaven continually behold the face of My Father who is in Heaven. ¹¹For the Son of man has come to save that which has been lost. ¹²What do you think? If a man should have a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go upon the mountains to seek that which has gone astray? ¹³And if it comes about that he finds it, verily I say to you that he rejoices more over it than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray. ¹⁴Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

¹⁵And if your brother sin against you, go and show him his fault between you and him alone. If he will hear you, you have gained your brother. ¹⁶But if he will not hear, take one or two more with you, so that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may stand. ¹⁷But if he fails to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he also fails to listen to the church, let him be to you as the heathen and the tax-collector. ¹⁸Verily I say unto you, Whatever you shall bind on earth shall come to pass, having been already bound in Heaven. And whatever you shall loose on the earth shall come to pass, having been already loosed in Heaven. ¹⁹Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything, whatever they shall ask shall be done for them by My Father who is in Heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them.

²¹Then coming to Him, Peter said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? ²²Jesus said to him, I do not say to you, Until seven times, but, Until seventy times seven. ²³Because of this the kingdom of Heaven has been likened to a man, a king who would make an accounting with his servants. ²⁴And when he had begun to count, there was brought to him one debtor who owed him ten thousand talents. ²⁵But as he had nothing to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and the children, and all, as much as he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶The servant then fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me and I will pay you all. ²⁷And being moved with compassion, the lord of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. ²⁸But going out the same servant found one of his fellow-servants who owed him a hundred denaries. And when he had caught him, he took him by the throat, saying, Pay me what you owe. ²⁹His fellow-servant then fell down and begged him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay you all. ³⁰But he would not, but he went out and threw him into prison, until he should pay that which was owing. ³¹But when his fellow-servants saw what things had taken place, they were very sorry and came and told their lord all that had taken place. ³²Then calling him, his lord said to him, O wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. ³³Shouldn't you also have pitied your fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on you? ³⁴And his lord being angry delivered him up to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was owing to him. ³⁵Even so shall My heavenly Father do to you unless every one of you from your heart forgives his brother their offences.

CHAPTER 19

¹And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, He departed from Galilee and came into the borders of Judea beyond Jordan. ²And great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there.

³And the Pharisees came to Him, tempting Him, and saying to Him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? ⁴But answering He said to them, Have you not read that He who made them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵and said, "For this cause a man shall leave father and mother and shall cleave to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?" ⁶So that they no longer are two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. ⁷They said to Him, Why did Moses then command to give a bill of divorce and to put her away? ⁸He said to them, Because of the hardness of your heart Moses allowed you to put away your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. ⁹And I say to you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, if not for fornication, and shall marry another, commits adultery. And he who marries her who is put away commits adultery. ¹⁰His disciples said to Him, If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not helpful to marry. ¹¹But He said to them, Not all receive this word, but those to whom it has been given. ¹²For there are eunuchs who from the mother's womb were born that way, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men. And there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of Heaven. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it.

¹³Then little children were brought to Him so that He might lay His hands on them and might pray, but the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴But Jesus said, Allow the little children, and do not forbid them to come to Me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven. ¹⁵And laying His hands upon them, He went away from there.

¹⁶And behold, coming up, one said to Him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life? ¹⁷And He said to him, Why do you call Me good? No one is good, except One, that is God! But if you desire to enter into life, keep the commandments. ¹⁸He said to Him, Which? Jesus said, You shall not commit murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, ¹⁹honor your father and mother, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself. The young man said to Him, ²⁰All these I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack? ²¹Jesus said to him, If you desire to be perfect, Go sell what you have and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven. And come follow Me. ²²But hearing that saying, the young man went away sorrowful, for he had a great many possessions.

²³And Jesus said to His disciples, Verily I say unto you that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of Heaven. ²⁴And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. ²⁵And hearing this, His disciples were much amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? ²⁶But looking on them Jesus said to them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

²⁷Then answering, Peter said to Him, Behold! we left all things and followed Thee. What then shall we have? ²⁸And Jesus said to them, Verily I say unto you that in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit upon the throne of His glory, you who have followed Me shall also sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹And everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for the sake of My name, shall receive a hundredfold and shall inherit everlasting life. ³⁰But many who are now first shall be last, and the last shall be first.

¹For the kingdom of Heaven is like a man, a master of a house, who went out in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ²And after agreeing with the workers for a denary a day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace. ⁴And he said to them, You go also into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you. And they went. ⁵Going out again about the sixth and ninth hour, he did likewise. ⁶And going out about the eleventh hour, he found others standing idle, and said to them, Why do you stand here all the day idle? ⁷They answered him, Because no man has hired us. He said to them, You go also into the vineyard, and whatever may be right, you shall receive. ⁸And evening coming on, the lord of the vineyard said to his steward, Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first. ⁹And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denary. ¹⁰And when the first ones had come, they thought that they would receive more, and they also each one received a denary. ¹¹And when they received it, they grumbled against the master of the house, ¹²saying, These last have worked one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and the heat of the day. ¹³But answering he said to one of them, Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denary? ¹⁴Take your own and go. But I intend to give to this last the same as to you. ¹⁵Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish in that which is mine? Is your eye evil because I am good? ¹⁶So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many are called, but few chosen.

¹⁷And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples aside in the highway and said to them, ¹⁸Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes. And they will condemn Him to death, ¹⁹and they will deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock and to scourge and to crucify. And the third day He will rise again.

²⁰Then the mother of the sons of Zēb'-ē-dēe came to Him with her sons, worshipping, and asking something from Him. ²¹And He said to her, What do you desire? She says to Him, Say that these my two sons may sit one on Thy right hand and one on Thy left in Thy kingdom. ²²But answering, Jesus said, You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup which I am about to drink, and to be baptized with the baptism with which I am to be baptized? They said to Him, We are able. ²³And He said to them, Indeed My cup you shall drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized; but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father. ²⁴And when the ten heard this, they were very indignant about the two brothers. ²⁵But calling them to Him,

Jesus said, You know that the rulers of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and the great ones exercise authority over them. ²⁶However, it shall not be so among you. But whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. ²⁷And whoever wants to be first among you, let him be your bondslave; ²⁸even as the Son of man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.

²⁹And as they were going out from Jer'-i-chō, a great multitude followed Him. ³⁰And behold, two blind men sitting by the road side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David! ³¹But the multitude commanded them that they should be quiet. But they cried out the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David! ³²And stopping, Jesus called them and said, What do you desire that I should do for you? ³³They say to Him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. ³⁴And moved with compassion Jesus touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

¹And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage [Bēth'-fā-jēe] towards the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, Go into the village across from you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to Me. ³And if one say anything to you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them. And immediately he will send them. ⁴But all this came to pass that that which was spoken by the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, ⁵"Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your King comes to you, meek and mounted on an ass, even a colt, the foal of a beast of burden" (See ISALAH 62:11; ZECHARIAH 9:9). ⁶And the disciples went, and they did as Jesus commanded them ⁷and brought the ass, even the colt. And they put upon them their coats, and He sat on them. ⁸And the greater part of the multitude spread their coats on the road. ⁹And others were cutting down branches from the trees and were spreading them on the road. And the multitudes, both those going before and those following, were crying out, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest! ¹⁰And as He entered into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? ¹¹And the multitudes said, This is Jesus the Prophet, He who is from Nāz'-ār-ēth of Galilee.

¹²And Jesus entered into the Temple of God and threw out all those selling and buying in the Temple. And He overthrew the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling the doves. ¹³And He said to them, It is written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer," but you have made it a den of thieves (See ISALAH 56:7). ¹⁴And the blind and the lame came to Him in the Temple, and He healed them. ¹⁵But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonders which He did, and the children crying in the Temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! they were angry. ¹⁶And they said to Him, Do you hear what these say? And Jesus said to them, Yes, have you never read, "Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings Thou hast perfected praise" (See PSALM 8:2)? ¹⁷And leaving them He went out of the city to Bêth-â-ny and passed the night there.

¹⁸Now early in the morning, coming back into the city, He was hungry. ¹⁹And seeing a fig tree by the road side, He came to it and found nothing on it, but leaves only. And He said to it, Let there be no more fruit from you forever. And immediately the fig tree dried up. ²⁰And seeing it the disciples wondered, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! ²¹Answering, Jesus said to them, Verily, I say unto you, If you have faith and do not doubt, not only the miracle of the fig tree shall you do, but even if you should say to this mountain, Be removed, and be tossed into the sea it shall come to pass. ²²And all things whatever you may ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive.

²³And on his coming into the Temple, there came up to Him as He was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people, saying, By what authority do you do these things? and, Who gave to you this authority? ²⁴And answering, Jesus said to them, I will ask you one thing also, which if you tell Me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵The baptism of John, where was it from? from Heaven? or from men? ²⁶And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we should say, From Heaven, He will say to us, Then why did you not believe him? But if we should say, From men, we fear the multitude — for all of them hold John as a prophet. ²⁷And answering Jesus, they said, We do not know. He also said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

²⁸But what do you think? A man had two children, and coming to the first he said, Child, go work today in my vineyard. ²⁹And answering he said, I will not. But repenting afterwards, he went. ³⁰And coming to the second, he said likewise. And answering he said, I go, sir, and did not go. ³¹Which of the two did the will of the father? They say to him, The first one. Jesus says to them, Verily I say to you that the tax-collectors and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him — but the tax-collectors and harlots believed him. And you, when you had seen it, did not repent afterwards so that you might believe him.

³³Hear another parable: There was a certain man, a master of a house, who planted a vineyard and placed a hedge around it. And he dug a winepress in it and built a tower. And He let it out to vinedressers and left the country. ³⁴And when the fruit season drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers to receive his fruits. ³⁵And after the vinedressers took his servants, they beat one, and another they killed, and another they stoned. ³⁶Again he sent other servants, more than the first. And they did to them in the same way. ³⁷And at last he sent to them his son, saying, They will have respect for my son. ³⁸But seeing the son, the vinedressers said among themselves, This is the heir! Come, let us kill him and get hold of his inheritance. ³⁹And taking him, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. ⁴⁰When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do to those vinedressers? ⁴¹They say to him, Evil men! He will miserably destroy them, and he will let out the vineyard to other vinedressers who will give him the fruits in their seasons. ⁴²Jesus said to them, Have you never read in the Scriptures, "The Stone which the builders rejected, the same has become head of the corner: this was from the Lord, and it is wonderful in our eyes" (See PSALM 118:22)? ⁴³Because of this I say to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and it shall be given to a nation bringing forth the fruits of it. ⁴⁴And he who falls on this Stone shall be broken, and on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. ⁴⁵And the chief priests and the Phâr'-i-sées hearing His parables knew that He spoke about them. ⁴⁶And seeking to lay hold of Him, they feared the multitude, because they held Him as a prophet.

¹And answering, Jesus again spoke to them in parables, saying, ²The kingdom of Heaven has been compared to a man, a king, who made a wedding feast for his son. ³And he sent his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, and they would not come. ⁴Again he sent other servants, saying, Tell those who have been invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and the fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast. ⁵But paying no attention, they went away, one to his own field, and another to his business. ⁶And the rest, catching hold of his servants, insulted and killed them. ⁷And hearing it, the king was angry, and sending forth his armies he destroyed those murderers, and he burned their city. ⁸Then he said to his servants, The wedding feast indeed is ready, but those who had been invited were not worthy. ⁹Go therefore into the highways, and as many as you shall find, invite to the wedding feast. ¹⁰And going out into the highways, those servants brought together as many as they found, both evil and good. And the wedding feast was full of guests. ¹¹And coming in to see the guests, the king saw there a man not clothed with a wedding garment. ¹²And he said to him, Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment? But he was speechless. ¹³Then the king said to the servants, After binding his feet and hands, take him away and throw him out into the outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ¹⁴For many are called, but few chosen.

²³On that same day Săd'-dû-cêes came to Him (who say there is not a resurrection). And they asked Him, ²⁴saying, Master, Moses said, If any one should die not having any children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up seed to his brother. ²⁵Now there were with us seven brothers. And after he had married, the first one died, and having no seed, he left his wife to his brother. ²⁶In like manner the second also died, and the third, unto the seventh. ²⁷And last of all the woman died also. ²⁸Therefore in the resurrection, of the seven, whose wife shall she be? for they all had her. ²⁹And answering, Jesus said to them, You err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. ³⁰For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in Heaven. ³¹But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, ³²"I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?" (See Exodus 3:6). God is not God of the dead, but of the living. ³³And hearing this, the multitudes were astonished at His teaching.

³⁴But the Phâr'-î-sêes, hearing that He had silenced the Săd'-dû-cêes, were gathered together. ³⁵And one of them, a doctor of the Law, questioned Him, tempting Him and saying, ³⁶Master, which is the great commandment in the Law? ³⁷And Jesus said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. ³⁸This is the first and great commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. ⁴⁰On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

⁴¹But the Phâr'-î-sêes being gathered together, Jesus asked them, ⁴²saying, What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is He? They say to Him, The son of David. ⁴³He said to them, How then does David in Spirit call him Lord? saying, ⁴⁴"The LORD said to my Lord, Sit Thou on My right hand, until I place Thy enemies as a footstool for Thy feet" (See Psalm 110:1)? ⁴⁵If therefore David calls him Lord, how is He his son? ⁴⁶And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day to question Him any more.

¹Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes, and to His disciples, saying, ²The scribes and the Phâr'-i-sêes have sat down on Moses' seat. ³All things whatever they may tell you to keep, you keep and do. But do not follow after their works—for they say, and do not. ⁴For they bind together heavy loads, and hard ones to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders. But with their own fingers they will not move them. ⁵And all their works they do to be seen by men. And they make their prayer-bands broad and enlarge the borders of their robes. ⁶And they love the chief place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, ⁷and the greetings in the market-places, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi. ⁸But you must not be called Rabbi; for one is your Teacher, the Christ, and you are all brothers. ⁹And do not call anyone your father upon the earth; for one is your Father, who is in Heaven. ¹⁰Neither be called masters, for one is your Master, the Christ. ¹¹And he that is greater among you shall be your servant. ¹²And whoever desires to exalt himself shall be brought low; and whoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.

¹³But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you shut up the kingdom of Heaven in front of men. For you do not enter, nor do you allow even those who are going in to enter. ¹⁴Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you devour the houses of widows, and for a pretense make long prayers. Because of this you shall receive a greater judgment. ¹⁵Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you go about the sea and the dry land to make one convert. And when he becomes a convert, you make him twofold more a child of hell than yourselves. ¹⁶Woe to you, blind guides, who say, Whoever shall swear by the Temple, it is nothing—but whoever shall swear by the gold of the Temple is duty bound. ¹⁷Fools and blind! for which is greater? the gold, or the Temple which sanctifies the gold? ¹⁸And, Whoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing—but whoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it is duty bound. ¹⁹Fools and blind! for which is greater? the gift, or the altar which sanctifies the gift? ²⁰He therefore that swears by the altar swears by it and by all things on it. ²¹And he that swears by the Temple swears by it and by Him who dwells in it. ²²And he that swears by Heaven swears by the throne of God and by Him who sits upon it.

²³Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you pay tithes of mint and dill and cummin, and you have left undone the weightier matters of the Law—judgment, and mercy and faith. You ought to have done these, and not leave those undone. ²⁴Blind guides! who strain out the gnat, but swallow the camel. ²⁵Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you cleanse the outside of the cup and the plate, but within they are full of robbery and excess. ²⁶Blind Pharisee! cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the plate so that the outside of them may also become clean. ²⁷Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are like white-washed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful on the outside, but within are full of dead bones, and of all uncleanness. ²⁸Even so you also appear righteous to men on the outside, but inside you are full of hypocrisy [hī-pok'-rī-sēe] and lawlessness.

²⁹Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the tombs of the righteous. ³⁰And you say, If we had been there in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. ³¹So you bear witness to yourselves, that you are the children of those who murdered the prophets, ³²and you fill up the measure of your fathers. ³³Serpents! Offspring of vipers! how shall you escape the judgment of hell? ³⁴Because of this, behold! I send to you prophets and wise men and scribes. And some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and you will persecute them from city to city. ³⁵So that on you may come the righteous blood poured out upon the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zēch-ā-rī'-ah the son of Ber-ē-chī'-āh, whom you murdered between the Temple and the altar. ³⁶Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

³⁷O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! who kill the prophets and stone those who have been sent to her. How often would I have gathered your children together, like a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and you did not desire it. ³⁸Behold! your house is left to you deserted. ³⁹For I say to you, In no way shall you see Me from now on until you say, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord" (See PSALM 118:26).

¹And going forth, Jesus departed from the Temple, and His disciples came to Him to point out to Him the buildings of the Temple. ²But Jesus said to them. Do you not see all these things? Verily I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

³And as He was sitting upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things happen? and what is the sign of Thy coming, and of the end of the world? ⁴And answering, Jesus said to them, Take care lest any one fool you. ⁵For many will come in My name, saying, I am the Christ, and they will fool many. ⁶And you shall begin to hear of wars, and rumors of wars. See, be not troubled, for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. ⁷For nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. And there shall be famines and plagues and earthquakes in many different places. ⁸But all these are the beginning of sorrows. ⁹Then they will deliver you up to trouble and will kill you. And you will be hated by all the nations on account of My name. ¹⁰And then many will be offended and will deliver up one another and will hate one another. ¹¹And many false prophets will rise up and will fool many. ¹²And because lawlessness shall abound, the love of many shall grow cold. ¹³But he who endures to the end, he shall be saved. ¹⁴And this Gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all the nations — and then the end shall come.

¹⁵When therefore you shall see the ă-bom'-i-nā'-tion of dēs'-ō-lā'-tion (which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet) standing in the holy place, (he who reads let him understand) ¹⁶then let those in Judea flee into the mountains. ¹⁷He that is on the housetop — let him not come down to take anything out of his house. ¹⁸And he that is in the field — let him not go back to take his clothes. ¹⁹And woe to those that are with child, and to those that give suck in those days! ²⁰And pray that your flight is not in winter, nor on a sabbath. ²¹For there shall then be great trouble, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now — no, nor ever shall be. ²²And unless those days had been shortened, there would have been no flesh saved — but on account of the elect those days shall be shortened.

²³Then if any one says to you, Behold! here is the Christ! or here! Do not believe it. ²⁴For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and they will give great miracles and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵Behold! I have told you beforehand. ²⁶If therefore they shall say to you, Behold, He is in the wilderness, go not forth. Behold, He is in the inner rooms. Do not believe it. ²⁷For as the lightning comes from the east and appears as far as the west, so shall be also the coming of the Son of man. ²⁸For wherever the dead body may be, there the eagles will be gathered together.

²⁹And immediately after the trouble of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give its light. And the stars shall fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. ³⁰And then the sign of the Son of man shall appear in the sky: and then all the tribes of the earth shall mourn. And they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. ³¹And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

³²Now from the fig-tree learn a parable. When its branch has already become tender, and it puts forth the leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³So also when you see all these things, you know that it is near,

even at the doors. ³⁴Verily I say unto you, in no way will this generation have passed away until all these things shall have come to pass. ³⁵The sky and the earth shall pass away, but My words in no way shall pass away. ³⁶But concerning that day and the hour, no one knows, not even the angels of Heaven, but My Father only. ³⁷But as the days of Noah, so shall be also the coming of the Son of man. ³⁸For as they were in the days which were before the flood — eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, ³⁹and they knew not until the flood came and took away all — so shall be also the coming of the Son of man. ⁴⁰Then two will be in the field, the one is taken and the other left. ⁴¹Two shall be grinding at the mill, one is taken and the other left.

⁴²Watch therefore, for you do not know in what hour your Lord comes. ⁴³But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched and not have allowed his house to be dug through. ⁴⁴So also, you be ready, for in an hour that you think not the Son of man comes. ⁴⁵Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give to them food in due time? ⁴⁶Happy is that servant whom his lord, when he comes, shall find so doing. ⁴⁷Verily I say unto you that he will set him over all his goods. ⁴⁸But if that evil servant should say in his heart, My lord delays to come, ⁴⁹and should begin to beat his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken, ⁵⁰the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he does not expect him, and in an hour he knows not, and will cut him in two, ⁵¹and will give him his part with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

¹Then shall the kingdom of Heaven be compared to ten virgins, who taking their lamps went out to meet the bridegroom. ²And five of them were wise, and five foolish. ³When they took their lamps, the foolish ones did not take oil with them, ⁴but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. ⁵And as the bridegroom stayed, they nodded and went to sleep. ⁶And in the middle of the night there was a cry, Behold! the bridegroom comes. Go out to meet him. ⁷Then all those virgins rose up and trimmed their lamps. ⁸And the foolish ones said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out. ⁹But the wise virgins answered, saying, No, lest there be not enough for us and you. But go rather to those who sell and buy for yourselves. ¹⁰But as they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut. ¹¹And afterwards the other virgins came also, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. ¹²But answering he said, Verily I say unto you, I do not know you. ¹³Watch therefore, for you do not know the day or the hour in which the Son of man comes.

¹⁴For it is as if a man leaving the country called his own servants and gave them his goods. ¹⁵And to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his own ability. And he left the country immediately. ¹⁶And he who received the five talents went out and traded with them and made another five talents. ¹⁷In the same way also he who received the two: he also gained another two. ¹⁸But going out, he who received the one talent dug in the ground and buried his lord's money. ¹⁹And after a long time the lord of those servants came and took account with them. ²⁰And coming up, he who received the five talents brought to him another five talents, saying, Lord, you gave me five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents besides them. ²¹And his lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You were faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things, enter into the joy of your lord. ²²And he also who received the two talents came to him and said, Lord, you gave me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides them. ²³His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You were faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things, enter into the joy of your lord. ²⁴And he also who had received the one talent came to him and said, Lord, I knew that you were a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter. ²⁵And being afraid, I went away and buried your talent in the earth: Behold! you have your own back. ²⁶But answering, his lord said to him, Wicked and slothful servant! you knew that I reaped where I did not sow, and gathered where I did not scatter. ²⁷Then you ought to have taken my money to the money-lenders, and then at my coming I should have received my own back with interest. ²⁸Take therefore the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. ²⁹For to every one who has shall more be given, and he shall have plenty — but from him who has not, even that which he has shall be taken from him. ³⁰And throw this worthless servant into the outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

³¹But when the Son of man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit upon the throne of His glory. ³²And before Him all the nations shall be gathered. And He shall separate them from one another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on His left. ³⁴Then the King will say to those on His right hand, Come, the blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵For I was hungry, and you gave me to eat. I thirsted, and you gave me to drink. I was a stranger, and you took Me in. ³⁶*I was* naked, and you clothed Me. I was sick, and you visited Me. I was in prison, and you came to Me. ³⁷*Then* the righteous will answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see Thee hungering, and fed Thee? or thirsting, and gave Thee to drink? ³⁸And when did we see Thee a stranger, and took Thee in? or naked, and clothed Thee? ³⁹And when did we see Thee sick, or in prison, and came to Thee? ⁴⁰And answering, the King will say to them, Verily I say to you, Inasmuch as you did it to one of these, the least of My brothers, you did it to Me. ⁴¹Then He will say also to those on the left, Go away from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴²For I was hungry, and you gave Me nothing to eat. I thirsted, and you gave Me nothing to drink. ⁴³I was a stranger, and you did not take Me in. I was naked, and you did not clothe Me. I was sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me. ⁴⁴Then they will also answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see Thee hungering, or thirsting, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to Thee? ⁴⁵Then He will answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me. ⁴⁶And these shall go away into everlasting punishment — but the righteous into everlasting life.

¹And it came to pass when Jesus had finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples, ²You know that after two days the Passover takes place, and the Son of man is to be handed over to be crucified. ³Then the chief priests and the scribes and the elders of the people were gathered together into the court of the high priest who was called Caiaphas [Ky'-ä-fas]. ⁴And they plotted together in order that they might take Jesus by trickery and kill Him. ⁵But they said, Not during the feast, so that there will not be an uproar among the people.

¹⁴Then one of the twelve, called Jū-dās Is-câr'-i-ot, went to the chief priests ¹⁵and said, What are you willing to give me, and I will betray Him to you? And they appointed to him thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁶And from that time he looked for an opportunity, that He might betray Him.

¹⁷Now on the first day of the unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, Where wilt Thou that we should prepare for Thee to eat the passover? ¹⁸And He said, Go into the city to such a one and say to him, The Master says, My time is near. I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples. ¹⁹And the disciples did as Jesus commanded them and prepared the passover.

²⁰And when evening had come, He was reclining at table with the twelve. ²¹And as they were eating He said, Verily I say unto you that one of you will betray Me. ²²And being very sorrowful, they began each of them to say to Him, Lord, is it I? But answering, ²³He said, He who dipped his hand with Me in the dish will betray me. ²⁴Truly the Son of man does go, as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born. ²⁵And Judas, who was betraying Him, answering said, Is it I, Master? He said to him, You have said it.

²⁶And as they were eating, Jesus, taking the bread and blessing it, broke it and gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is My body. ²⁷And taking the cup, and giving thanks, He gave it to them, saying, All of you drink of it; ²⁸For this is My blood of the new covenant which for many is being poured out unto remission of sins. ²⁹But I say to you that I will not at all drink of this fruit of the vine after this, until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of My Father. ³⁰And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ³¹Then Jesus said to them, All of you will be offended in Me during this night. For it has been written, "I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered abroad" (See ZECHARIAH 13:7). ³²But after My resurrection, I will go before you into Galilee. ³³And answering, Peter said to Him, Even if all men will be offended in Thee, I will never be offended. ³⁴Jesus said to him, Verily I say to you that during this night, before the cock crows, you will deny Me three times. ³⁵Peter said to Him, Even if it were needful for me to die with Thee, I will in no way deny Thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

³⁶Then Jesus comes with them to a place called Gêth-sêm'-ă-nê, and He said to the disciples, Sit here while I go away — I shall pray yonder. ³⁷And taking Peter and the two sons of Zêb'-ê-dêe, He began to be sorrowful and deeply troubled. ³⁸Then He says to them, My soul is very sorrowful, even unto death. Stay here and watch with Me. ³⁹And going forward a little He fell upon His face praying, and saying, O My Father, if it is possible let this cup pass from Me: nevertheless not as I will, but as Thou wilt. ⁴⁰And He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and He said to Peter, Sol were you not able to watch one hour with Me? ⁴¹Watch and pray that you do not enter into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh weak. ⁴²Again, going away a second time, He prayed, saying, O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me, except I drink it, Thy will be done. ⁴³And coming back He found them sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴And leaving them, He went away again and prayed the third time, saying the same word. ⁴⁵Then He came to His disciples and said to them, Sleep on now and take your rest. Behold! the hour has come near, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶Rise, let us go. Lol he who is betraying Me has come near.

⁴⁷And while He was yet speaking, Behold, Judas came, one of the twelve, and a great multitude with swords and staves came with him, being sent from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸And he who was betraying Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, it is He; lay hold on Him. ⁴⁹And coming up to Jesus immediately, he said, Hail, Master, and kissed Him. ⁵⁰But Jesus said to him, Friend, why have you come? Then coming near, they laid hands on Jesus and held Him. ⁵¹And behold! one of those with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword. And striking a servant of the high priest, he took off his ear. ⁵²Then Jesus said to him, Put your sword back into its place, for all who take the sword shall perish by the sword. ⁵³Or do you think that I am not able now to call upon My Father, and He will place beside Me more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴How then should the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must come to pass in this way?

⁵⁵In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, You have come out with swords and staves to take Me, as against a thief. I sat daily with you teaching in the Temple, and you did not lay hold on Me. ⁵⁶But this has all come to pass that the Scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled. Then all the disciples ran away, forsaking Him.

⁵⁷And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to Cai'-ă-phās, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. ⁵⁸And Peter followed Him from afar, even to the court of the high priest. And going inside he sat with the officers to see the end. ⁵⁹And the chief priests and the elders and the whole Săn-hê'-drîn looked for false evidence against Jesus — so that they might put Him to death. ⁶⁰But they found none: even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses coming up ⁶¹said, This one said, I am able to destroy the Temple of God, and in three days to build it. ⁶²And the high priest standing up said to Him, Do you answer nothing? What do these men say against you? ⁶³But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to Him, I command you by the living God that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God. ⁶⁴Jesus says to him, You have said it. More than that I say to you, From this time you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven. ⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, He has blasphemed! Why have we any more need of witnesses? Behold! now you have heard his blasphemy. ⁶⁶What do you think? And answering, they said, He is worthy of death. ⁶⁷Then they spat in His face and buffeted Him, and some struck Him with the palm of the hand, ⁶⁸saying, Prophecy to us, O Christ, Who is he that struck you?

⁶⁹And Peter was sitting outside in the court, and a certain girl came to him, saying, And you were with Jesus the Galilean. ⁷⁰But he denied it before all, saying, I do not know what you say. ⁷¹And after he had gone out into the porch, another saw him and said to those there, This one also was with Jesus the Nazarean. ⁷²And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. ⁷³And after a little while those standing near came up and said to Peter, Truly you are also one of them, for even your speech makes you known. ⁷⁴Then he began to curse and to swear, I do not know the man. And immediately the cock crew. ⁷⁵And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who had said to him, Before the cock crow, you shall deny Me three times. And going out, he cried bitter tears.

¹And when morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Jesus, so that they might put Him to death. ²And tying Him up, they led Him away and handed Him over to Pontius Pilate [Pon'-shī-ūs Pī'-lāt], the governor.

³Then Judas, who had betrayed Him, seeing that He was condemned, being sorry, brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, ⁴saying, I sinned. I have betrayed innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us? You will have to see to that! ⁵And throwing down the pieces of silver in the Temple he withdrew, and going away he hanged himself. ⁶And taking the silver the chief priests said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, for it is the price of blood. ⁷And after talking it over, they bought the potter's field with them, for the burial of strangers. ⁸So that field was called Field of Blood until this day. ⁹Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "And I took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who was priced, on whom they of the sons of Israel set a price, ¹⁰and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."

¹¹And Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor questioned Him, saying, Are you the king of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, You say it. ¹²And when He was accused by the chief priests and the elders, He answered nothing. ¹³Then Pilate said to Him, Do you not hear how many things they say against you? ¹⁴And He did not answer him even to one word, so that the governor greatly marveled.

¹⁵Now at this feast-time the governor was accustomed to release to the people a prisoner, anyone whom they desired. ¹⁶And they had then a noted prisoner, called Barabbas. ¹⁷Then, when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, Whom do you desire that I release to you? Bär-äb'-bäs, or Jesus who is called Christ? ¹⁸For he knew that they handed Him over through envy. ¹⁹But as he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Let there be nothing between you and that righteous one, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of him. ²⁰But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitude that they should beg for Bär-äb'-bäs and should destroy Jesus. ²¹And the governor answering said to them, Which of the two do you desire that I release to you? And they said, Bär-äb'-bäs. ²²Pilate says to them, What then shall I do with Jesus, who is called Christ? ²³They all said to him, Let him be crucified! And the governor said, Why? What evil has he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified! ²⁴And when Pilate saw that it gained nothing, but rather that an uproar was arising, taking water he washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just one: you will see. ²⁵And answering, all the people said, Let his blood be on us and on our children. ²⁶Then he released Bär-äb'-bäs to them; but having Jesus whipped, he handed Him over that He might be crucified.

²⁷Then the soldiers of the governor, taking Jesus with them into the palace, gathered all the band against Him. ²⁸And stripping Him they put a scarlet robe around Him. ²⁹And they plaited a crown of thorns and put it upon His head, and a reed in His right hand. And bowing the knees before Him, they made fun of Him, saying, Hail, king of the Jews! ³⁰And after they spit upon Him, they took the reed and struck Him on His head. ³¹And when they had made fun of Him, they took the robe off Him, and they put His own clothes on Him and led Him away to crucify Him.

³²And going out they found a man, a Cyrenean [Sy-rēen'-yän] named Simon. They forced him to carry His cross. ³³And coming to a place called Göl'-göth-ä, which is called 'Place of a Skull,' ³⁴they gave Him vinegar to drink, mixed with gall. But tasting it, He would not drink. ³⁵And when they had crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting a lot; so that that which was spoken by the prophet might be fulfilled, "They divided My garments among themselves, and for My clothing they cast a lot" (See PSALM 22:18). ³⁶And sitting down they watched Him there. ³⁷And they put up over His head His charge written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. ³⁸Then two thieves were with Him, one at His right hand, and one at His left. ³⁹But those passing by blasphemed Him, shaking their heads, ⁴⁰and saying, You who destroy the Temple and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross. ⁴¹And in the same way also, the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, made fun saying, ⁴²He saved others, but he is not able to save himself. If he is the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. ⁴³He has trusted on God, let Him deliver him now — if He will have him. (For he said, I am the Son of God.) ⁴⁴And in the same way the thieves who were together with Him also reviled Him.

⁴⁵Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁶And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Ē'-lī Ē'-lī, lä'-mä sä-bäch'-thā-nī, that is to say, My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me? ⁴⁷And some of those who were standing there hearing this said, This man calls Elijah. ⁴⁸And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, and he filled it with vinegar and put it on a reed, giving it to Him to drink. ⁴⁹But the rest said, Let Him alone, let us see if Elijah will come to save him.

⁵⁰And Jesus cried again with a loud voice and gave up His spirit. ⁵¹And behold! the veil of the Temple was torn into two from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were sheared, ⁵²and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep arose, ⁵³and coming forth out of the tombs after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.

⁵⁴And the centurion, and they who watched with him over Jesus, seeing the earthquake and the things that took place, feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God!

⁵⁵And there were many women there watching from afar off, who followed Jesus from Galilee ministering to Him, ⁵⁶among whom was Mary Mäg'-dā-lēne, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zēb'-ē-dēe. ⁵⁷And when evening had come, a rich man from Ār-ī-mā-thē'-ā, named Joseph, came, who also himself was Jesus' disciple. ⁵⁸Going to Pilate he begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. ⁵⁹And taking the body, Joseph wrapped it in a clean linen cloth ⁶⁰and laid it in his own new tomb which he had cut out in the rock. And when he had rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, he departed. ⁶¹And there was Mary Mäg'-dā-lēne and the other Mary, sitting across from the grave.

⁶²Now on the next day, which is after the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, ⁶³saying, Sir, we have remembered that that deceiver said, while he was living, After three days I will arise. ⁶⁴Command therefore that the grave be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples coming by night steal him away and say to the people, He has risen from the dead. And the last error shall be worse than the first. ⁶⁵And Pilate said to them, You have a guard. Go away. Make it as secure as you know how. ⁶⁶And going away they made the grave secure, sealing the stone, together with the guard.

CHAPTER 28

¹And at the end of the Sabbath, as it was dawning toward the first day of the week, Mary Mäg'-dä-lêne and the other Mary came to see the grave.

²And behold! there had been a great earthquake! for an angel of the Lord coming down out of Heaven had rolled away the stone from the door and was sitting upon it. ³And his face was as lightning, and his clothing white as snow. ⁴And those keeping guard trembled from fear of him and became like dead men. ⁵But answering, the angel said to the women, You must not fear, for I know that you seek Jesus who has been crucified. ⁶He is not here, for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying. ⁷And go quickly, saying to His disciples that He has risen from the dead. And behold! He goes before you into Galilee. There you shall see Him. Behold, I have told you. ⁸And going out quickly from the tomb, with great joy and fear, they ran to tell His disciples. ⁹But as they were going to tell His disciples, lo and behold! Jesus met them, saying, Greeting. And coming up to Him they laid hold of His feet and worshiped Him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to them, Fear not, Go, tell My brethren that they should go into Galilee, and there they shall see Me.

¹¹And as they were going, behold, some of the guard went into the city and reported to the chief priest all things that were done. ¹²And gathering together with the elders, and talking it over, they gave large sums of money to the soldiers, ¹³saying, Say that his disciples came by night and stole him, we being asleep. ¹⁴And if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade him and will make you free from care. ¹⁵And taking the money they did as they were taught. And this saying is spread among the Jews until the present day.

¹⁶And the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus commanded them. ¹⁷And seeing Him they worshipped Him, but some doubted. ¹⁸And coming up to them, Jesus spoke to them, saying, All authority has been given to Me in Heaven and on earth. ¹⁹Go therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit — ²⁰teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you. And lo, I am with you all the days until the end of the world. Amen.

The Gospel According to MARK

CHAPTER 1

¹The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, ²as it has been written in the prophets, "Behold! I send My messenger before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee. ³*The* voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord. Make His paths straight" (See MALACHI 3:1).

⁴John came baptizing in the wilderness, and preaching the baptism of repentance for remission of sins. ⁵And all the country of Judea and of Jerusalem went out to him, and all were baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. ⁶And John was clothed in camel's hair, and a girdle of leather about his loins, and eating locusts and wild honey. ⁷And he preached, saying, He who comes after me is mightier than I, of whom I am not fit to stoop down to untie the latchet of His sandals. ⁸I indeed did baptize you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.

⁹And it came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nāz'-ā-rēth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰And immediately coming up from the water, He saw the heavens opened and the Spirit as a dove coming down upon Him. ¹¹And a voice came out of Heaven, saying, Thou art My Son, the Beloved, in whom I am well pleased.

¹²And immediately the Spirit drove Him out into the wilderness. ¹³And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan and was with the wild beasts. And the angels ministered to Him.

¹⁴And after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of the kingdom of God, ¹⁵and saying, The time has been fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent, and believe in the Gospel. ¹⁶And walking by the sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea, for they were fishers. ¹⁷And Jesus said to them, Come after Me and I will make you fishers of men. ¹⁸And immediately, leaving their nets, they followed Him. ¹⁹And going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zēb'-ē-dēe, and John his brother, and they were in the ship mending their nets. ²⁰And immediately He called them. And leaving their father Zēb'-ē-dēe in the ship with the hired servants, they went away after Him.

²¹And they went into Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm. And at once on the sabbaths He entered into the synagogues and taught. ²²And they were astonished at His teaching: for He was teaching them as One who had authority, and not as the scribes. ²³And there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, ²⁴saying, Hal what have we to do with Thee, Jesus, Nazarene? Art Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee, who Thou art, the Holy One of God! ²⁵And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be quiet, and come out of him! ²⁶And after the unclean spirit had thrown him into fits, and had cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. ²⁷And all were astonished, so that they questioned together among themselves, saying, What is this? what new teaching is this? that with authority He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him! ²⁸And immediately His fame spread throughout all the country around Galilee.

³⁵And very early, while it was still night, rising up, He went out and departed into a desert place, and He was there praying. ³⁶And Simon went after Him, and those with him. ³⁷And finding Him they said to Him, All men look for Thee. ³⁸And He said to them, Let us go into the next towns, so that I may preach there also, because for this I have come forth. ³⁹And He was preaching in their syn'-ă-gögues in all Galilee, and casting out the demons.

⁴⁰And a leper came to Him, begging Him, and kneeling down to Him, and saying to Him, If Thou wilt, Thou art able to make me clean. ⁴¹And Jesus, being moved with compassion, putting forth His hand touched him, and said to him, I will! Be clean! ⁴²And when He had spoken, instantly the lēp'-rō-sy departed from him, and he was made clean. ⁴³And strictly commanding him, He at once sent him away. ⁴⁴And He said to him, See that you say nothing to any one. But go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a witness to them. ⁴⁵But after he had gone out, he began to speak of it, and very much to spread the matter abroad — so that Jesus was no longer able to enter into the city openly, but was outside in desert places. And they came to Him from every quarter.

¹And again He entered into Că-pēr'-nă-üm after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house. ²And immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no longer any room, not even at the door. And He spoke the word to them. ³And they come to Him, bringing a pâr-ă-lyt'-ic, carried by four men. ⁴And not being able to come near Him on account of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. And breaking through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying. ⁵And Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralytic, Son, your sins have been forgiven you. ⁶But there were some of the scribes sitting there. And they were questioning in their hearts, ⁷Why does this one speak blasphemies this way? Who is able to forgive sins, except One, that is, God? ⁸And instantly, knowing in His spirit that they were thinking this way inside themselves, Jesus said to them, Why do you question these things in your hearts? ⁹Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, Your sins have been forgiven you or to say, Arise! and take up your bed, and walk? ¹⁰But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins — He said to the paralytic, ¹¹I say to you, Arise! and take up your bed and go to your house. ¹²And he rose up immediately, and taking up the bed went forth before them all, so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, Never did we see it so.

¹³And He went forth again by the seaside, and all the multitude came to Him, and He taught them. ¹⁴And passing on He saw Levi, the son of Alpheus [Āl-fēe'-ūs], sitting at the tax-office. And He said to him, Follow Me! And rising up he followed Him. ¹⁵And it came to pass, as He reclined at table in his house, that many tax-collectors and sinners sat also together with Jesus and His disciples — for there were many, and they followed Him. ¹⁶And the scribes and Pharisees, seeing Him eating with tax-collectors and sinners, said to His disciples, Why is it that He eats and drinks with the tax-collectors and sinners? ¹⁷And hearing this, Jesus said They who are strong have no need of a doctor, but they who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

¹⁸And the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees were fasting. And they came and said to Him, Why do the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees fast, but Thy disciples do not fast? ¹⁹And Jesus said to them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they are not able to fast. ²⁰But the days will come when the bridegroom will have been taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days. ²¹And no man sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment, else the new piece that is filling it up takes away from the old, and the tear becomes worse. ²²And no man puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine bursts the wineskins, and the wine is poured out, and the wineskins will be ruined. But the new wine is to be put into new wineskins.

²³And it came to pass that He went through the grain fields on the Sabbath. And His disciples began to make a way, plucking the ears. ²⁴And the Pharisees said to Him, Behold! why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day? ²⁵And He said to them, Have you never read what David did, when he had need and was hungry, he and those with him? ²⁶how he entered into the house of God in the days of Ā-bī'-ā-thār the high priest and ate the showbread — which it is not lawful to eat, except for the priests? And he even gave to those who were with him. ²⁷And He said to them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath. ²⁸So then the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

¹And He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered. ²And they were watching Him to see if He would heal him on the Sabbath, in order that they might accuse Him. ³And He said to the man who had the withered hand, Arise! Come into the middle. ⁴And He said to them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they were silent. ⁵And looking around on them with anger, being made sad at the hardness of their heart, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored whole like the other one. ⁶And going out, the Pharisees immediately plotted with the Hē-rō'-dī-āns against Him — how they might destroy Him.

⁷And Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judea, ⁸and from Jerusalem, and from Ī-dū-mē'-ā, and beyond the Jordan. And when those around Tyre and Sidon heard what great things He was doing, a great multitude came to Him. ⁹And He spoke to His disciples that a small ship might wait upon Him, on account of the multitude, that they might not press upon Him. ¹⁰For He healed many, so that they threw themselves upon Him, that they might touch Him, as many as had plagues. ¹¹And the unclean spirits, when they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God! ¹²And He rebuked them many times, so that they should not make Him known.

¹³And He went up into the mountain and called to Him whom He desired, and they went to Him. ¹⁴And He appointed twelve, that they might be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach, ¹⁵and that they might have authority to heal diseases, and to cast out demons. ¹⁶And he added to Simon the name Peter. ¹⁷And there was James the son of Zēb'-ē-dēe, and John the brother of James — and He added to them the names Bō-ān-er'-gēs, which is, Sons of Thunder. ¹⁸And there was Andrew — and Philip and Bār-thol'-ō-mew — and Matthew, and Thomas — and James the son of Āl-phē'-ūs, and Thād-dē'ūs — and Simon the Cā'-nān-īte, ¹⁹and Jū'dās Īs-cār'-ī-ot, who also betrayed Him.

And they came into a house. ²⁰And a multitude came together again, so that they were not able so much as to eat bread. ²¹And hearing of it

those belonging to Him went out to lay hold of Him, for they said, He is beside Himself. ²²And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, He has Bē-ēl'-zē-büb, and, By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons. ²³And calling them, He said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand. ²⁵And if a house is divided against itself, that house is not able to stand. ²⁶And if Satan has risen up against himself and has been divided, he is not able to stand, but has an end. ²⁷After going into his house, no one in any way is able to plunder the goods of the strong man, unless he first tie up the strong man. And then he will plunder his house. ²⁸Verily I say unto you that all sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they shall have blasphemed—²⁹but whoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness unto eternity, but is in danger of everlasting condemnation—³⁰because they said, He has an unclean spirit.

³¹Then His brothers and His mother came. And standing outside, they sent to Him, calling Him. ³²And a multitude sat around Him, and they said to Him, Behold, Thy mother and Thy brothers seek Thee outside. ³³And He answered them, saying, Who is My mother, or My brothers? ³⁴And looking around in a circle on those who were sitting about Him, He said Behold, My mother and My brothers! ³⁵for whosoever shall do the will of God, he is My brother and My sister and My mother.

CHAPTER 4

¹And again He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude gathered together to Him, so that He entered into a ship and sat in the sea, and all the multitude was on the land close to the sea. ²And He taught them many things in parables, and said to them in His teaching, ³Listen. Behold! the sower went out to sow. ⁴And it came to pass as he sowed that some seed fell by the roadside, and the birds of the air came and ate it. ⁵And some fell upon stony ground, where it did not have much earth. ⁶But after the sun had risen, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away. ⁷And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it bore no fruit. ⁸And another fell into the good ground, growing up and increasing, and bore fruit. And one bore thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundred times. ⁹And He said to them, He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁰And when He was alone, those about Him, with the twelve, asked Him about the parable. ¹¹And He said to them, To you it has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God. But to those who are on the outside, all things are done in parables: ¹²“That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand;

lest they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them” (See ISAIAH 6:9). ¹³And He said to them, Do you not know this parable? And how then will you know all the parables? ¹⁴The sower sows the word. ¹⁵And these are the ones by the roadside, where the word is sown, and when they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that has been sown in their hearts. ¹⁶And in the same way, these are the ones who are sown upon the stony ground, who, when they hear the word, receive it immediately with joy. ¹⁷But they have no root in themselves but last only for a little while. Then when trouble or torment has arisen on account of the word, immediately they are offended. ¹⁸And these are the ones who are sown among the thorns; these are the ones who hear the word, ¹⁹and the cares of this world, and the false promises of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²⁰And these are the ones who are sown upon good ground: such as hear the word and receive it and bring forth fruit, one thirty, and one sixty, and one a hundred times.

²¹And He said to them, Does the lamp come that it might be put under a bushel-basket? or under the bed? or is it not that it may be put upon the lampstand? ²²For nothing is hidden which shall not be made clear, nor has any secret thing taken place, but that it should come to light. ²³If any man has ears to hear, let him hear. ²⁴And He said to them, Take heed what you hear. In whatever measure you measure out, it shall be measured to you. And to you who hear, more shall be added: ²⁵For whosoever has, to him shall more be given. And he who has not, even that which he has shall be taken away from him.

²⁶And He said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should throw the seed upon the ground, ²⁷and should sleep, and rise night and day. And the seed should spring up and grow, he knows not how — ²⁸for of itself the earth brings forth fruit, first a blade, then an ear, then full grain in the ear. ²⁹And when the fruit yields itself, immediately he sends forth the sickle, because the harvest has come. ³⁰And He said, To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we compare it? ³¹*It is* like a grain of mustard — for when it has been sown upon the earth, it is less than all the seeds which are upon the earth. ³²But when it has been sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all the plants and produces great branches — so that the birds of the air are able to rest under the shadow of it. ³³And with many such parables He spoke to them the word, as they were able to hear. ³⁴But without a parable He did not speak to them. And He explained all things to His disciples alone.

³⁵And after evening had come on that day, He said to them, Let us pass over to the other side. ³⁶And sending away the multitude, they took Him with them as He was in the ship. And other small ships were also with Him. ³⁷And there came a great storm of violent wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was already filled. ³⁸And He was on the stern, sleeping on a pillow. And they awakened Him and said to Him, Master! Dost Thou not care that we perish? ³⁹And being awakened, He rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Peace! Be still! And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰And He said to them, Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith? ⁴¹And they feared with very great fear and said to one another, Who then is this! that even the wind and sea obey Him?

CHAPTER 5

¹And they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gād'- ā-rēnes. ²And upon His going forth out of the ship, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, ³who had his home in the tombs. And no one was able to tie him up, not even with chains. ⁴Because he often had been tied with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters had been broken in pieces. And no one was able to tame him. ⁵And always, night and day in the mountains and in the tombs, he was crying and cutting himself with stones. ⁶And seeing Jesus from afar off, he ran and worshipped Him.
⁷And crying with a loud voice, he said, What have I to do with Thee, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I call upon Thee by God not to torment me. ⁸For He said to him, Unclean spirit, come out of the man!
⁹And He asked him, What is your name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion, for we are many. ¹⁰And he begged Him very much that He would not send them out of the country. ¹¹Now there was a great herd of hogs feeding near the mountains. ¹²And all the demons begged Him, saying, Send us into the hogs, that we may enter into them. ¹³And Jesus immediately gave them permission. And going out, the unclean spirits entered into the hogs, and the herd rushed down a steep place into the sea. And they were about two thousand, and they were choked in the sea. ¹⁴And those who fed the hogs ran and told it to the city and to the country. And they went out to see what it was that had been done. ¹⁵And they came to Jesus. And they saw the one who was demon-possessed sitting and clothed and of sound mind—him who had the legion. And they were afraid. ¹⁶And those who had seen it told them how it happened to him who was demon-possessed and about the hogs.
¹⁷And they began to beg Him to go away from their borders.

¹⁸And as He was entering into the ship, he who had been demon-possessed begged Him that he might be with Him. ¹⁹But Jesus did not allow him to go, but said to him, Go away to your house, to your own, and tell them how much the Lord did for you, and pitied you. ²⁰And he went away and began to preach in Dē-cāp'-ō-lis how much Jesus had done for him. And all marveled.

²¹And when Jesus had passed over to the other side again in the ship, a great multitude was gathered to Him, and He was by the sea. ²²And behold! one of the rulers of the synagogue, named Jā-ī'-rūs, came up. And seeing Him, he fell at His feet. ²³And he begged Him fervently, saying, My little daughter is at the very end, I pray that Thou wouldst come and lay Thy hands upon her, so that she may be cured, and she shall live. ²⁴And He went with him, and a great crowd followed Him and thronged Him.

²⁵And a certain woman came, who had been sick with a flow of blood for twelve years, ²⁶and who had suffered much under many doctors. And she had spent all her means, and had gained in no way, but instead she had become worse. ²⁷Hearing about Jesus, she came in the crowd behind Him and touched His clothes. ²⁸For she said, If I shall but touch His clothes I shall be cured. ²⁹And instantly the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she was healed from the plague. ³⁰And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that the power had gone forth out of Him, turning in the crowd, said, Who touched My clothes? ³¹And His disciples said to Him, Thou seest the multitude thronging Thee, and sayest Thou, Who touched Me? ³²And He looked round to see who had done this thing. ³³But the woman, being afraid and trembling, knowing what had been done upon her, came and fell down before Him and told Him all the truth. ³⁴And He said to her, Daughter, your faith has cured you. Go in peace, and be well from your plague.

³⁵While He was still speaking, they came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, Your daughter is dead. Why do you still trouble the Master? ³⁶But hearing the word spoken, Jesus immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, Do not be afraid, only believe. ³⁷And He allowed no one to go with Him except Peter and James and John, the brother of James. ³⁸And He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and He saw an uproar, much weeping and wailing. ³⁹And going in, He said to them, Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but sleeps. ⁴⁰And they laughed at Him. But putting them all out, He took the father and mother of the child, and those with Him, and went in where the child was lying. ⁴¹And taking the hand of the child, He said to her, Tāl'-īth-ā kou-mī! which translated is, Little girl, I say to you, Arise! ⁴²And immediately the little girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed with a great amazement. ⁴³And very distinctly He commanded that no one should know this. And He asked that something should be given her to eat.

¹And He went out from there and came into His own country. And His disciples followed Him. ²And Sabbath coming on, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him were astonished, saying, From where do these things come to this one? and, What is the wisdom that has been given to him, that even such mighty works are done by his hands? ³Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses, and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended in Him. ⁴But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. ⁵And He was not able to do any work of power there, except He laid hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶And He marveled because of their unbelief. And He went about the villages in a circle, teaching.

⁷And He called the twelve to Him and began to send them forth two by two, and He gave to them authority over the unclean spirits. ⁸And He commanded them that they should take nothing for their trip, except a staff only — no bag, nor bread, nor money in the belt — ⁹but to be shod with sandals, and not to put on two coats. ¹⁰And He said to them, Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from that place. ¹¹And as many as will not receive you or hear you — as you go forth from there, shake off the dust which is under your feet for a witness to them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more bearable for Sodom or Gō-mōr'-rah in the day of judgment than for that city. ¹²And going out they preached that men should repent. ¹³And they cast out many demons and anointed many of the sick with oil and healed them.

¹⁴And king Herod heard of Him, for His name was spread abroad. And he said, John the Baptist has risen from among the dead, and because of this the mighty powers are working in him. ¹⁵Others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, or like one of the prophets. ¹⁶But Herod hearing it said, It is he whom I beheaded, John. He has risen from among the dead. ¹⁷For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John and had put him in prison, on account of Hē-rō'-dī-ās, the wife of Philip his brother (because he had married her). ¹⁸For John said to Herod, It is not lawful for you to have the wife of your brother. ¹⁹And Hē-rō'-dī-ās set herself against him and wanted to kill him, and was not able. ²⁰For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and He kept him safe. And when he heard him, he did many things and heard him gladly. ²¹And a day of opportunity came, when Herod made a supper to great men on his birthday, and to the chief captains, and to the first men of Galilee. ²²And the daughter of Hē-rō'-dī-ās herself came in and danced, and she pleased Herod and those reclining at table with him. The king said to the girl, Ask me whatever you desire, and I will give it to you. ²³And he swore to her, Whatever you may ask me, I will give you, even to half of my kingdom. ²⁴And going out, she said to her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. ²⁵And coming in immediately with haste to the king, she asked, saying,

I want you to give to me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter. ²⁶And the king was very sorrowful, yet on account of the oaths, and those who reclined at table with him, he would not refuse her. ²⁷And immediately the king sent a guardsman and commanded his head to be brought. And going out, he beheaded him in the prison. ²⁸And he brought his head upon a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹And hearing this, his disciples came and took up his corpse and laid it in the tomb.

³⁰And the apostles were gathered together to Jesus, and they told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. ³¹And He said to them, You yourselves come apart into a desert place and rest a little. For those coming and those going were very many, and they did not even have opportunity to eat. ³²And they went away by ship into a desert place alone. ³³And the people saw them going away, and many recognized Him. And they ran together on foot from all the cities and went before them, and they came together to Him. ³⁴And going out, Jesus saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion towards them, because they were as sheep having no shepherd. And He began to teach them many things. ³⁵And now the hour being late, His disciples came to Him, saying, The place is desert, and now the hour is late. ³⁶Send them away that they may buy bread for themselves by going to the surrounding farms and villages — for they have nothing to eat.

³⁷And answering He said to them, You give them something to eat. And they said to Him, Shall we go and buy two hundred denaries worth of bread and give them to eat? ³⁸And He said to them, How many loaves have you? Go and see. And when they knew, they said, Five loaves and two fishes. ³⁹And He commanded them to make everyone recline in companies upon the green grass. ⁴⁰And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. ⁴¹And taking the five loaves and the two fishes, looking up to Heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves and gave to His disciples that they might set before them. And the two fishes He divided among all. ⁴²And they all ate and were filled. ⁴³And they took up twelve baskets full of the pieces, and of the fishes. ⁴⁴And those that ate of the loaves were about five thousand men.

⁴⁵And immediately He made His disciples to enter into the ship and to go to the other side, to Bēth-sā'-ī-dā, until He should send away the people. ⁴⁶And taking leave of them, He went away into a mountain to pray. ⁴⁷And when evening had come, the ship was in the middle of the sea, and He alone was upon the land. ⁴⁸And He saw them laboring in the rowing, for the wind was contrary to them. And about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. ⁴⁹But they, seeing Him walking on the sea, thought it was a ghost, and cried out: ⁵⁰for they all saw Him and were troubled.

And immediately He spoke with them and said to them, Be of good courage. I am He! Fear not. ⁵¹And He went up to them into the ship, and the wind ceased. And they were exceedingly amazed in themselves, beyond measure, and wondered. ⁵²For they did not understand about the loaves, for their hearts were hardened.

⁵³And when they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gēn-nēs'-ā-rēt and drew to the shore. ⁵⁴And on their coming out of the ship, immediately the people recognized Him. ⁵⁵And running through all that country round about, they began to carry on beds those that were ill — wherever they heard that He was. ⁵⁶And wherever He entered into villages, or cities, or country, they laid those who were sick in the market-places and begged Him that they might touch only the border of His garment. And as many as touched Him were healed.

¹And the Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered together to Him, coming from Jerusalem. ²And seeing some of His disciples eating bread with defiled (that is, unwashed) hands, they found fault. ³For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash the hands with their fist — holding the tradition of the elders. ⁴And as they come from market, they do not eat unless they wash themselves. And many other things there are which they have accepted to hold: washings of cups and pots, and brass vessels, and beds. ⁵Then the Pharisees and the scribes asked Him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders but eat bread with unwashed hands? ⁶But answering He said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it has been written, “This people honors Me with the lips, but their heart is far from Me. ⁷But in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men” (See ISALAH 29:13). ⁸For laying aside the commandments of God, you hold the tradition of men — washing of pots and cups, and many other like things you do.

⁹And He said to them, Truly you reject the commandment of God, so that you may keep your own tradition. ¹⁰For Moses said, “Honor your father and your mother;” and, “He who speaks evil of father or mother — let him die the death” (See EXODUS 20:12; 21:17). ¹¹But you say, If a man shall say to father or mother, Whatever you may gain by me, Corban! (that is to say, It is a gift to God.) ¹²And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, ¹³setting aside the word of God by your tradition which you have delivered. And many such things you do.

¹⁴And calling all the crowd to Him, He said to them, Every one listen to Me and understand. ¹⁵There is nothing from outside a man which, entering into him, is able to defile him—but the things which go out from him, those are the things which defile the man. ¹⁶If a man has ears to hear, let him hear. ¹⁷And when He went into a house from the people, His disciples asked Him about the parable. ¹⁸And He said to them, So you also are without understanding? Do you not see that everything which enters from outside into the man is not able to defile him? ¹⁹because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the waste-bowl, purifying all the food. ²⁰And He said, That which comes out of the man is that which defiles the man. ²¹For from within, out of the heart of men, come forth evil thoughts, adulteries, fôr-nî-că'-tions, murders, ²²thefts, greedy desires, wickednesses, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: ²³all these evil things come from within and defile the man.

²⁴And rising up from there, He went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. And entering into the house, He wanted no one to know it, but He could not be hidden. ²⁵For hearing about Him, a certain woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, came and fell down at His feet. ²⁶Now the woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phenician [Sÿ'-rô Fë-nîsh'-yün] by race. And she begged Him that He should throw the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷But Jesus said to her, Let the children first be filled, for it is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs. ²⁸But she answered and said to Him, Yes, Lord, for even the little dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. ²⁹And He said to her, Because of this saying, Go! The demon has gone out of your daughter. ³⁰And going away to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter lay upon the bed.

³¹And again, going away from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the sea of Galilee, through the middle of the borders of Dë-căp'-ô-lîs. ³²And they brought to Him a deaf man who spoke with difficulty, and they asked Him that He might lay His hand upon him. ³³And taking him away from the multitude, He put His fingers to his ears, and having spit, He touched his tongue. ³⁴And looking up to Heaven, He groaned, and said to him, Ephphatha! (that is, Be opened!) ³⁵And immediately his ears were opened, and the band on his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly. ³⁶And He commanded them that they should tell no one. But as much as He commanded them, that much more they published it. ³⁷And they were above measure astonished, saying, He has done all things well: He makes both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.

¹In those days the multitude was very great, and they had nothing to eat. Calling His disciples to Him, Jesus said to them, ²I am moved with compassion on the multitude because they now have been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. ³And if I send them away fasting to their homes, they will faint in the way — for some of them come from afar off. ⁴And His disciples answered Him, From where shall any one be able to satisfy these with bread here in the wilderness? ⁵And He asked them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven. ⁶And He commanded the people to recline on the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke and gave to His disciples, that they might set it before them. ⁷And they set it before the people. And they had a few small fishes, and blessing them, He commanded these also to be set before them. ⁸And they ate and were satisfied. And they took up that which was left over of broken pieces — seven baskets full. ⁹And those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

¹⁰And immediately entering into the ship with His disciples, He came into the parts of Dāl-mā-nū'-thā. ¹¹And the Pharisees went out and began to argue with Him, seeking a sign from Heaven from Him, tempting Him. ¹²And groaning in His spirit, He says, Why does this generation seek after a sign? Verily I say unto you, No sign shall be given to this generation. ¹³And leaving them, and going into the ship again, He went away to the other side.

¹⁴And they forgot to take bread. And except for one loaf, they had none with them in the ship. ¹⁵And He ordered them, saying, Take heed! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. ¹⁶And they reasoned with one another, saying, It is because we have no bread. ¹⁷And knowing it Jesus said to them, Why do you reason because you have no bread? Do you not yet see nor understand? Have you hardened your heart? ¹⁸Do you have eyes and do not see? And do you have ears and do not hear? And do you not remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves to the five thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you take up? They said, Twelve. ²⁰And when I broke the seven loaves to the four thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you take up? And they said, Seven. ²¹And He said to them, How is it that you do not understand?

²²And He came to Bēth-sā'-i-dā. And they brought to Him a blind man and begged Him that He might touch him. ²³And taking hold of the blind man, He led him forth out of the town, and when He had spit upon his eyes and had laid His hands upon him, He asked him if he saw anything. ²⁴And looking up he said, I see men, for as trees I see them walking. ²⁵Then again He laid His hands upon his eyes and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everything clearly. ²⁶And He sent him away to his house, saying, Neither may you go into the town, nor tell it to anyone in the town.

²⁷And Jesus and His disciples went forth into the towns of Caē-sā-rē'-ā Phīl'-īp-pī. And in the highway He asked His disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am? ²⁸And they answered, John the Baptist, and others say, Ēlī'-jāh, but others say, One of the prophets. ²⁹And He said to them, But who do you say that I am? And Peter answering said to Him, Thou art the Christ! ³⁰And He strictly commanded them that they should tell no one about Him. ³¹And He began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and by the chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. ³²And He spoke the word openly. And taking Him aside, Peter began to rebuke Him. ³³But turning and looking upon His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, Get behind Me, Satan! for your thoughts are not of the things of God, but of the things of men.

³⁴And calling the multitude together with His disciples, He said to them, Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. ³⁵For whoever wants to save his life shall lose it, but whoever shall lose his life for My sake shall save it. ³⁶For what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul? ³⁷Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? ³⁸Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man shall also be ashamed of him when He shall come in the glory of His Father, with the holy angels.

¹And He said to them, Verily I say unto you that there are some of those standing here who shall in no way taste of death until they see the kingdom of God coming in power.

²And after six days Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John and brought them up into a high mountain alone by themselves. And He was transfigured before them. ³And His clothes became shining, exceedingly white as snow, such as no fuller on earth is able to whiten. ⁴And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵And answering, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three tabernacles, one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. ⁶For he did not know what he should say, for they were greatly afraid. ⁷And there came a cloud overshadowing them. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is My beloved Son: hear Him! ⁸And suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them, but Jesus alone. ⁹And as they were coming down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, except when the Son of man should be risen from the dead. ¹⁰And they kept that saying among themselves, questioning with one another what the rising from among the dead is.

¹¹And they asked Him, saying, The scribes say that Elijah must come first? ¹²And answering He said to them, Elijah indeed comes first and restores all things. And how has it been written of the Son of man that He should suffer many things, and be mocked? ¹³But I say to you that Elijah also has come, and they did to him whatever they desired, as it is written of him.

¹⁴And coming to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning with them. ¹⁵And immediately all the crowd seeing Him was greatly amazed, and running to Him greeted Him. ¹⁶And He asked the scribes, What do you question with them? ¹⁷And one answering out of the multitude said, Master, I brought my son to Thee. For he has a dumb spirit, ¹⁸and wherever it lays hold on him it tears him. And he foams, and gnashes his teeth, and is wasting away. And I spoke to Thy disciples that they may throw it out, and they were not able. ¹⁹But answering him He says, O unbelieving generation! how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me. ²⁰And they brought him to Him. And seeing Him the spirit immediately threw him into fits. And falling on the ground, he was wallowing and foaming. ²¹And He asked his father, How long a time is it that this has been with him? And he said, From childhood. ²²And it often throws him both into fire and into waters, that it might destroy him. But if Thou art able to do anything, help us, have compassion on us. ²³And Jesus said to him, If you are able to believe, all things are possible to him that believes. ²⁴And immediately the father of the child, crying out, with tears in his eyes, said, I believe, Lord, help my unbelief! ²⁵But Jesus, seeing that the people were running together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, Come out of him! and you may no more enter into him. ²⁶And crying out, and tearing him up, it came out. And he became as dead, so that many said that he was dead. ²⁷But taking him by the hand, Jesus raised him up, and he arose.

²⁸And when He had gone into a house, His disciples asked Him privately, Why were we not able to throw it out? ²⁹And He said to them, This kind can go out by nothing except by prayer and fasting.

³⁰And going forth from there, they went through Galilee. And He did not desire that anyone should know it. ³¹For He was teaching His disciples and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. And after being killed, on the third day He will arise. ³²But they did not understand the saying and were afraid to ask Him.

³³And He came to Că-per'-nā-ūm. And being in the house, He asked them, What were you arguing among yourselves in the highway? ³⁴But they were silent—for they had been arguing with one another in the highway who is greater among them. ³⁵And sitting down He called the twelve, and He said to them, If any man desires to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all. ³⁶And taking a little child, He set him in their midst. And taking him in His arms, He said to them, ³⁷Whoever shall receive one of such little children, in My name, receives Me. And whoever shall receive Me receives not Me but Him who sent Me.

³⁸And John answered Him, saying, Master, we saw one throwing out demons in Thy name, who does not follow us, and we told him not to do it because he does not follow us. ³⁹But Jesus said, Do not forbid him. For there is no one who shall do a work of power in My name and be able to easily speak evil of me—⁴⁰for he who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For whoever may give you a cup of water to drink in My name, because you belong to Christ, verily I say to you, He shall in no way lose his reward. ⁴²And whoever may cause one of the little ones who believe in Me to offend, it were better for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck and he had been thrown into the sea. ⁴³And if your hand causes you to offend, cut it off: it is better for you to enter into life maimed, than to have two hands to go away into hell, into the fire that cannot be put out—⁴⁴where their worm dies not, and the fire is never put out. ⁴⁵And if your foot causes you to offend, cut it off: it is better for you to enter into life lame than to have two feet to be thrown into hell, into the fire that cannot be put out—⁴⁶where their worm dies not, and the fire is never put out. ⁴⁷And if your eye causes you to offend, pluck it out: it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes to be thrown into hell-fire—⁴⁸where their worm dies not, and the fire is never put out. ⁴⁹For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. ⁵⁰Salt is good, but if the salt becomes saltless, with what will you season? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.

CHAPTER 10

¹And rising up from there, He came into the borders of Judea, by the other side of Jordan. And the people come together again to Him, and as He had always done, He again taught them. ²And the Pharisees coming to Him asked Him if it is lawful for a man to put away a wife, tempting Him. ³But answering He said to them, What did Moses command you? ⁴And they said, Moses allowed us to write a bill of divorce and to put them away. ⁵And answering, Jesus said to them, Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this commandment. ⁶But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. ⁷Because of this a man shall leave his father and mother and shall be joined to his wife, ⁸and the two shall be one flesh—so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹What therefore God joined together, let not man part.

¹⁰And in the house His disciples again asked Him about the same thing. ¹¹And He said to them that whoever should put away his wife and marry another would commit adultery against her. ¹²And if a woman should put away her husband and be married to another, she commits adultery.

¹³And they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. ¹⁴But Jesus seeing it was much displeased and said to them, Allow the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. ¹⁵Verily I say unto you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God like a little child shall in no way enter into it. ¹⁶And taking them in His arms, and laying His hands upon them, He blessed them.

¹⁷And as He went forth into the highway, one came running up. And kneeling down to Him he asked Him, Good master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? ¹⁸And Jesus said to him, Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One, that is, God. ¹⁹You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery; do not commit murder; do not steal; do not bear false witness; do not cheat; honor your father and your mother. ²⁰And answering he said to Him, Master, all these I have kept from my youth. ²¹And looking upon him Jesus loved him, and He said to him, One thing you lack: go sell as much as you have and give it to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven; and come, follow Me, taking up the cross. ²²But being saddened at that saying, he went away sorrowful — for he had many possessions. ²³And looking around Jesus said to His disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! ²⁴And the disciples were astonished at His words. And answering again Jesus said to them, Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. ²⁶And they were very much astonished, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? ²⁷But looking on them Jesus said, With men it is impossible, but not with God — for with God all things are possible.

²⁸And Peter began to say to Him, Lo, we have left all and followed Thee. ²⁹But answering, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and for the Gospel, ³⁰that shall not receive a hundred times now in this time: houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions — and in the world that is coming, everlasting life. ³¹But many who are first shall be last, and the last shall be first.

³²And they were in the highway going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going on before them, and they were amazed and afraid, as they were following. And taking the twelve to Him again, He began to tell them the things that were about to happen to Him. ³³Behold! we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be delivered up to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they will condemn Him to death and will deliver Him up to the Gentiles. ³⁴And they will mock Him, and will whip Him, and will spit upon Him, and will kill Him — and on the third day He will rise again.

³⁵And James and John, the sons of Zēb'-ē-dēe, came near to Him, saying, Master, we wish that whatever we ask Thou wouldst do for us. ³⁶And He said to them, What would you have Me do for you? ³⁷And they said to Him, Grant to us that we may sit in Thy glory, one on Thy right hand, and one on Thy left. ³⁸But Jesus said to them, You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup which I drink? and to be baptized with the baptism which I am baptized with? ³⁹And they said to Him, We are able. But Jesus said to them, Of the cup which I drink, you shall indeed drink. And with the baptism that I am baptized with, you shall be baptized — ⁴⁰but to sit at My right hand and at My left hand is not Mine to give; but to those for whom it has been prepared. ⁴¹And hearing this, the ten began to be indignant about James and John. ⁴²But calling them to Him, Jesus said to them, You know that those who are thought to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them. And their great ones exercise authority over them. ⁴³But it shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to be great among you, he shall be your servant; ⁴⁴and whoever of you desires to be first, he shall be servant of all. ⁴⁵For even the Son of man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.

⁴⁶And they come to Jericho. And as He was going out from Jericho, and His disciples and a great number of people, Bār-ti-mē'-ūs the son of Tī-mē'-ūs was sitting beside the highway begging. ⁴⁷And hearing that it was Jesus the Nāz-ā-rē'-an, he began to cry out and to say, Jesus, Son of David! Have pity on me! ⁴⁸And many rebuked him that he should be still, but he cried out much more, Son of David! Have pity on me! ⁴⁹And Jesus, stopping, asked for him to be called. And they called the blind one, saying to him, Be of good courage. Rise up, He calls you. ⁵⁰And throwing aside his cloak, he rose up and came to Jesus. ⁵¹And answering, Jesus said to him, What do you desire that I should do to you? And the blind one said to Him, Master, that I may receive sight. ⁵²And Jesus said to him, Go! Your faith has healed you. And instantly he received his sight and followed Jesus in the highway.

¹And when they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage [Bēth'-fā-gē] and Bēth'-ā-ny, to the Mount of Olives, He sent forth two of His disciples

²and said to them, Go into the village that is across from you. And immediately when you enter it you will find a colt tied, upon which no one has sat. After untying it, bring it. ³And if anyone says to you, Why do you do this? say, The Lord needs it. And immediately he will send it here. ⁴And they went away and found the colt tied outside at the door, by the crossing of two ways, and they untied it. ⁵And some of those standing there said to them, What are you doing untying the colt? ⁶And they said to them even as Jesus had commanded. And they allowed them to go. ⁷And they led the colt to Jesus. And they threw their robes upon it, and He sat on it. ⁸And many spread their robes in the highway, and others were cutting down branches from the trees and were scattering them in the highway. ⁹And those going on before, and those following, were crying out, saying, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord" (See PSALM 118:26). ¹⁰Blessed is the kingdom of our father David, coming in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest! ¹¹And Jesus entered into Jerusalem and into the Temple. And looking around on all things, the hour already being late, He went out to Bēth'-ā-ny with the twelve.

¹²And on the next day, after they had left Bēth'-ā-ny, He was hungry. ¹³And seeing a fig-tree afar off with leaves, He came, if perhaps He might find anything on it. And coming to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season of figs. ¹⁴And answering Jesus said to it, Let no one ever eat any more fruit of you forever. And His disciples heard it. ¹⁵And they came to Jerusalem. And Jesus, after He entered into the Temple, began to throw out those selling and buying in the Temple. And He overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those selling the doves. ¹⁶And He would not allow that any man should carry a vessel through the Temple. ¹⁷And He taught, saying to them, Has it not been written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations"? (See ISAIAH 56:7). But you made it a den of thieves. ¹⁸And the scribes and the chief priests heard it, and they began seeking how they might destroy Him — for they feared Him because all the people were astonished at His teaching. ¹⁹And when evening came, He went forth out of the city.

²⁰And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots. ²¹And remembering, Peter said to Him, Master, see, the fig-tree which Thou didst curse is dried up. ²²And answering, Jesus said to them, Have faith in God. ²³For verily I say unto you that whoever shall say to this mountain, Be lifted up and thrown into the sea! and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he says shall come to pass — it shall happen to him, whatever he shall say. ²⁴For this reason I say to you, All things whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you shall receive, and it shall happen to you. ²⁵And whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive it, so that also your Father who is in Heaven may forgive you your trespasses. ²⁶But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in Heaven forgive your trespasses.

²⁷And they came again to Jerusalem, and as He was walking in the Temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to Him and said to Him, ²⁸By what authority do you do these things? and, Who gave you this authority, that you should do these things? ²⁹And answering, Jesus said to them, I will also ask you one question, and answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things: ³⁰The baptism of John — was it from Heaven? or from men? Answer Me. ³¹And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we should say, From Heaven, he will say, Why then did you not believe him? ³²But if we should say, From men — they feared the people, for all men held that John truly was a prophet. ³³And answering, they said to Jesus, We do not know. And answering Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

¹And He began to speak to them in parables, A man planted a vineyard and set a hedge about it, and he dug a wine-vat and built a tower. And he let it out to vinedressers and left the country. ²And in due season he sent a servant to the vinedressers, so that he might receive the fruit of the vineyard from the vinedressers. ³But after catching him, they beat him and sent him away empty. ⁴And again he sent another servant to them, and stoning him, they wounded him in the head and sent him away, treating him shamefully. ⁵And again he sent another, and they killed him — and many others, beating some and killing others. ⁶Yet, then, having one son, his own beloved, he also sent him to them at last, saying, They will respect my son. ⁷But those men said among themselves, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours. ⁸And taking him, they killed him and threw him out of the vineyard. ⁹What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and will destroy the vinedressers, and he will give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Did you never even read this Scripture, "The Stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner." ¹¹This was from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes"? (See PSALM 118:22). ¹²And they desired to lay hold of Him, but they feared the people — for they knew that He had spoken the parable against them. And leaving Him, they went away.

¹³And they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and some of the Hě-rō'-dī-āns, so that they might catch Him in conversation. ¹⁴And coming up they said to Him, Master, we know that you are true and that you care about no one, for you do not look upon the outward appearance of men, but teach with truth the way of God. Is it right to give tribute to Caesar or not? ¹⁵Should we give, or should we not give? But knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, Why do you tempt Me? Bring Me a coin that I may see. ¹⁶And they brought it. And He says to them, Whose likeness and engraving is this? And they said to Him, Caesar's. ¹⁷And answering, Jesus said to them, Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. And they marveled at Him.

¹⁸And the Săd'-dū-cēes came to Him, who say there is no resurrection. And they questioned Him saying, ¹⁹Master, Moses wrote to us, that if any one's brother should die and leave behind a wife, and have no children, that his brother should take his wife and raise up seed to his brother. ²⁰There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife, and he died and left no seed. ²¹And the second took her and died, and neither did he leave any seed; and the third likewise. ²²And the seven took her, and left no seed. Last of all the woman died also. ²³In the resurrection, therefore, when they shall arise, of which of them shall she be the wife? for the seven had her as a wife. ²⁴And answering, Jesus said to them, Do you not err because of this, not knowing either the Scriptures or the power of God? ²⁵For when they rise from among the dead, neither do they marry nor are given in marriage — but they are as the angels who are in Heaven. ²⁶But concerning the dead, that they do rise, have you not read in the book of Moses how God spoke to him at the bush, saying, I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob? ²⁷He is not the God of the dead, but God of the living. You therefore greatly err.

²⁸And one of the scribes came and heard them reasoning together. Seeing that He answered them well, he asked Him, Which is the first commandment of all? ²⁹And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord. ³⁰And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength" (See DEUTERONOMY 6:4). This is the first commandment, ³¹and the second is like this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (See LEVITICUS 19:18). There is no other commandment greater than these. ³²And the scribe said to Him, Master, Truly you have said the truth, that there is one God, and there is none other besides Him: ³³and to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all the whole burnt offerings and the sacrifices. ³⁴And, when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, He said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And no one after that dared to question Him.

³⁵And teaching in the Temple, Jesus answered and said, How can the scribes say that Christ is the son of David? ³⁶For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, "The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit at My right hand until I place Thy enemies as a footstool for Thy feet" (See PSALM 110:1).

³⁷Therefore David himself calls Him Lord. But how then is He his son? And the great crowd heard Him gladly.

³⁸And He said to them in His teaching, Be careful of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, ³⁹and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost places at the feasts — ⁴⁰who devour widows' houses, and as a pretense make long prayers. These shall receive greater condemnation.

⁴¹And sitting down across from the treasury, Jesus saw how the crowd put money into the treasury. And many of the rich were putting in much. ⁴²And one poor widow came and put in two mites (which make a kō-drän'-tēs). ⁴³And calling His disciples to Him, He said to them, Verily I say unto you that this poor widow has put in more than all of those putting money into the treasury. ⁴⁴For all others put in out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all, as much as she had — her whole living!

¹And as He was going forth out of the Temple, one of His disciples said to Him, Master, see! What stones, and what buildings! ²And answering, Jesus said to him, Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be left a stone on top of a stone which shall not be thrown down.

³And as He was sitting upon the Mount of Olives across from the Temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked Him privately, ⁴Tell us, When shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things are going to be fulfilled? ⁵And Jesus answering them began to say, Watch out, lest anyone lead you astray. ⁶For many will come in My name, saying, I am He, and they will lead many astray. ⁷But when you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled — for this must happen — but the end is not yet. ⁸For nation shall rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there shall be earthquakes in different places, and there shall be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of anguish. ⁹But watch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you up to sān-hē'-drīns and syn'-ā-gōgues. You will be beaten, and you will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, for a witness to them: ¹⁰and the Gospel must first be preached to all nations. ¹¹But whenever they lead you away and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what you should say or think. But speak whatever is given to you in that hour, for you are not the ones who speak, but the Holy Spirit speaks.

¹²And brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. And children will rise up against parents and will put them to death. ¹³And you will be hated by all because of My name. But he that endures to the end, he shall be saved.

¹⁴But when you see the ā-bom'-i-nā-tion of dēs-ō-lā'-tion, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let him who reads understand) then let those in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁵And he on the housetop, let him not come down into the house, nor go in to take anything out of his house. ¹⁶And he who is in the field, let him not return to the things behind, to take his clothing. ¹⁷But woe to them that are with child, and to those that give suck in those days! ¹⁸And pray that your flight may not be in winter. ¹⁹For in those days shall be trouble, such as has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. ²⁰And unless the Lord had shortened the days, there would not have been any flesh saved — but on account of the elect, whom He chose, He has shortened the days.

²¹And then if any man shall say to you, Behold! here is the Christ; or lo, there! you shall not believe it. ²²For there will arise false Christs and false prophets, and they will give signs and miracles in order to deceive, if possible, even the elect. ²³But be careful. Behold! I have told you all things beforehand. ²⁴But in those days, after that great trouble, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light. ²⁵And the stars of the sky shall be falling, and the powers which are in the heavens shall be shaken. ²⁶And then they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷And then He will send His angels, and will gather together His elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of Heaven. ²⁸But learn a parable from the fig-tree: when its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that the summer is near. ²⁹So also when you see these things coming to pass, you know that it is near, at the doors. ³⁰Verily I say unto you that this generation shall in no way have passed away until all these things have taken place. ³¹The sky and the earth shall pass away, but My words shall in no way pass away. ³²But concerning that day and the hour no one knows, no, not even the angels who are in Heaven, nor the Son, but the Father. ³³Be careful, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time is. ³⁴As a man going out of the country, leaving his house, gave authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and commanded the doorkeeper that he should watch: ³⁵Watch, then, for you do not know when the master of the house comes — at evening, or at midnight, or at cock-crowing, or morning — ³⁶lest coming suddenly he should find you sleeping. ³⁷And what I say to you, I say to all, Watch!

CHAPTER 14

¹Now after two days it was the Passover and the feast of unleavened bread. And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might take hold of Him by trickery and kill Him. ²But they said, Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people.

³And when He was at Bēth'-ā-ny, in the house of Simon the leper, as He reclined at table, a woman came with a very precious alabaster box of ointment of spikenard. And breaking the alabaster box, she poured it on His head. ⁴And some were indignant within themselves, and were saying, Why has this waste of the ointment been made? ⁵For this could have been sold for more than three hundred coins and given to the poor. And they murmured at her. ⁶But Jesus said, Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work towards Me. ⁷For you have the poor always with you, and whenever you desire you are able to do them good; but you do not have Me always. ⁸She has done what she could. She came beforehand to anoint My body for the burial. ⁹Verily I say unto you, Wherever this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, also what this woman has done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

¹²And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, His disciples said to Him, Where dost Thou desire that we should go to prepare so that Thou mayest eat the passover? ¹³And He sent forth two of His disciples and said to them, Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water—follow him. ¹⁴And wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, The Master says, Where is the guest-room where I may eat the passover with My disciples? ¹⁵And he will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. There make ready for us. ¹⁶And His disciples went forth and came into the city, and they found it as He had said to them, and they made ready the passover. ¹⁷And when evening had come He comes with the twelve. ¹⁸And as they were reclining at table and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you that one of you who is eating with Me will betray Me. ¹⁹And they began to be sorrowful and to say to Him, one by one, Is it I? And another, Is it I? ²⁰But answering, He said to them, It is one of the twelve, he who is dipping with Me in the dish. ²¹The Son of man indeed goes, as it has been written about Him—but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Good were it for him if that man had never been born.

²²And as they were eating, Jesus, taking a loaf and blessing it, broke it and gave to them, and said, Take, eat; this is My body. ²³And taking the cup and giving thanks, He gave to them, and they all drank of it. ²⁴And He said to them, This is My blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many. ²⁵Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine until that day when I will drink it new in the kingdom of God.

²⁶And singing a hymn they went out into the Mount of Olives. ²⁷And Jesus said to them, All of you will be offended because of Me this night; for it is written, "I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad" (See ZECARIAH 13:7). ²⁸But after I have risen, I will go before you into Galilee. ²⁹But Peter said to Him, Even if all shall be offended, yet not I. ³⁰And Jesus said to him, Verily I say unto you that to-day, in this very night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny Me three times. ³¹But he spoke more strongly, If it were necessary for me to die with Thee, in no way will I deny Thee. And in like manner they all also spoke.

³²And they came to a place which was named Gēth-sēm'-ā-nē. And He said to His disciples, Sit here while I pray. ³³And He took Peter and James and John with Him, and He began to be greatly amazed and very heavy-hearted. ³⁴And He said to them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death. Stay here and watch. ³⁵And going forward a little, He fell upon the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. ³⁶And He said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to Thee; take away this cup from Me — nevertheless not what I will, but what Thou wilt. ³⁷And He comes and finds them sleeping. And He said to Peter, Simon, do you sleep? Could you not watch one hour? ³⁸Watch and pray that you enter not into temptation. The spirit truly is willing, but the flesh is weak. ³⁹And going away He prayed and spoke the same words. ⁴⁰And returning He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what they should answer Him. ⁴¹And He came the third time and said to them, Sleep on now and take your rest. It is enough; the hour has come. Behold! the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Rise up, let us go. Behold, he who is betraying Me has come.

⁴³And immediately while He was still speaking, Judas, who was one of the twelve, came up. And a great multitude was with him, with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. ⁴⁴Now he who was betraying Him had given a sign to them, saying, Whomever I shall kiss is the one, — catch hold of him and lead him safely. ⁴⁵And after he had come, immediately he came up to Him and said, Master, Master! and kissed Him. ⁴⁶And they laid their hands upon Him and took hold of Him. ⁴⁷But drawing a sword one of those standing by struck a servant of the high priest, and he took off his ear. ⁴⁸And answering, Jesus said to them, Have you come out as against a thief, with swords and staves to take Me? ⁴⁹I was daily with you in the Temple teaching, and you did not lay hold on Me. But it must be so that the Scripture may be fulfilled. ⁵⁰And forsaking Him, they all ran away. ⁵¹And a certain young man was following Him, wearing a linen cloth about his naked body. And the young men lay hold on him, ⁵²but, leaving behind the linen cloth, he fled from them naked.

⁵³And they led Jesus away to the high priest. And with Him were gathered together all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. ⁵⁴And Peter followed Him afar off, as far as the inside of the hall of the high priest. And he was sitting with the officers, and was warming himself near the fire. ⁵⁵And the chief priests and the whole sān-hē'-drīn sought testimony against Jesus, in order to put Him to death, and did not find any. ⁵⁶For many bore false witness against Him, but their stories were not alike. ⁵⁷And rising up, some bore false witness against Him, saying, ⁵⁸We heard him saying, I will destroy this Temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another which is not made with hands. ⁵⁹And neither was their testimony alike in this. ⁶⁰And standing up in the middle, the high priest questioned Jesus, saying, Do you answer nothing? What do these witness against you? ⁶¹But He was silent and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked Him and said to Him, Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? ⁶²And Jesus said, I am! And you will see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power and coming with the clouds of heaven. ⁶³And tearing his clothes, the high priest said, What need do we have of any more witnesses? ⁶⁴You heard the blasphemy. How does it look to you? And they all condemned Him to be worthy of death. ⁶⁵And some began to spit upon Him, and to cover up His face, and to beat Him with their fists, and to say to Him, Prophecy! And the officers hit Him with the palms of their hands.

⁶⁶Peter was in the court below. And one of the maids of the high priest came up. ⁶⁷And seeing Peter warming himself, looking at him, she said, You also were with Jesus the Nāz'-a-rē'-ān. ⁶⁸But he denied it, saying, I do not know nor even understand what you say. And he went out into the porch, and the cock crew. ⁶⁹And the maid seeing him again began to say to those standing there, This is one of them. ⁷⁰And he again denied it. And after a little, again those standing by said to Peter, Truly you are one of them, for you are both a Galilean and your speech sounds like it. ⁷¹But he began to curse and to swear, I do not know this man of whom you speak. ⁷²And the second time the cock crew. And Peter remembered the word that Jesus said to him, Before the cock crows two times, you will deny Me three times. And thinking of this, he broke out into tears.

¹And immediately in the morning, the chief priests, having consulted with the elders and scribes and the whole sān-hē'-drīn, tied Jesus up and carried Him away and delivered Him up to Pilate. ²And Pilate questioned Him, Are you the king of the Jews? And answering He said to him, You say it. ³And the chief priests were accusing Him of many things. ⁴And again Pilate questioned Him, saying, Do you answer nothing? Behold! how many things they witness against you! ⁵But Jesus did not answer anything any more, so that Pilate wondered.

⁶Now at the feast he released to them one prisoner, whoever they asked. ⁷And there was the one called Bär-äb'-bäs, locked up with those who rioted with him, who had committed murder in the riot. ⁸And the multitude crying out began to beg him to do as he always did to them. ⁹But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews? ¹⁰for he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him up through envy. ¹¹But the chief priests stirred the people up in order that he might rather release Bär-äb'-bäs to them. ¹²And answering again, Pilate said to them, What then do you want me to do with him whom you call king of the Jews? ¹³And they cried out again, Crucify him! ¹⁴And Pilate said to them, Why? What evil did he do? But they cried out much stronger, Crucify him!

¹⁵And wanting to do that which was pleasing to the people, Pilate released Bär-äb'-bäs to them, and he delivered Jesus, after having Him scourged, that He might be crucified. ¹⁶And the soldiers led Him away into the hall, which is the governor's palace. And they called together the whole band. ¹⁷And they put purple on Him, and after plaiting it, they placed a crown of thorns on Him. ¹⁸And they began to greet Him, Hail, King of the Jews! ¹⁹And they struck Him on the head with a reed and spat upon Him. And bending their knees, they bowed down to Him. ²⁰And when they had made fun of Him, they took the purple off Him and put His own clothes on Him. And they led Him out that they might crucify Him. ²¹And they forced a certain one passing by (Simon, a Cy-rē'-nī-än, coming from the field, the father of Alexander and Rufus) that he might carry His cross.

²²And they brought Him to a place, Göl'-göth-ä, which translated is, The place of a skull. ²³And they gave Him wine mixed with myrrh to drink — but He did not take it. ²⁴And after crucifying Him they divided His clothes, throwing a lot upon them to see what each should take. ²⁵And it was the third hour, and they crucified Him.

²⁶And the title of His charge was written above Him — THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁷And they crucify two thieves with Him, one at the right hand, and one at the left of Him. ²⁸And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "And He was numbered with the transgressors" (See ISALAH 53:12).

²⁹And those passing by blasphemed Him, shaking their heads, and saying, Ahal you who will destroy the Temple, and build it in three days, ³⁰save yourself, and come down from the cross. ³¹And in the same way the chief priests, making fun among one another with the scribes, said, He saved others, but he is not able to save himself. ³²The Christ? The King of Israel? Let him come down now from the cross so that we may see and believe. And they who were crucified with Him raved at Him.

³⁷And uttering a loud cry Jesus breathed forth the spirit. ³⁸And the veil of the Temple was torn into two pieces, from top to bottom. ³⁹And the centurion who stood by, across from Him, seeing that He cried out so and gave up the spirit, he said, Truly this Man was the Son of God. ⁴⁰And there were also women looking on afar off, among whom was Mary Mäg'-dä-lēne, and Mary the mother of James the less, and Joses and Sā-lō'-mē ⁴¹(who also followed Him and ministered to Him when He was in Galilee), and many others who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

⁴²And now when evening had come — since it was the prēp-ä-rä'-tion, that is the day before sabbath — ⁴³Joseph of Ā-ri-mä-thē'-ä, an honorable councillor who himself was also waiting for the kingdom of God, came and begged the body of Jesus, having great courage in going in to Pilate. ⁴⁴And Pilate wondered if He were already dead. And calling the centurion to him, he questioned him if He were long dead. ⁴⁵And knowing it from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶And buying fine linen, and taking Him down, he wrapped Him in the fine linen and laid Him in a tomb which was cut out of a rock. And he rolled a stone to the door of the tomb. ⁴⁷And Mary Mäg'-dä-lēne and Mary the mother of Joses saw where He was being laid.

¹And the sabbath being past, Mary Mäg'-dä-lēne, and Mary the mother of James and Salome, bought sweet spices that they might come and anoint Him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb, at the rising of the sun. ³And they said among themselves, Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb? ⁴And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away: for it was very large. ⁵And entering into the tomb they saw a young man sitting on the right, clothed with a white robe, and they were amazed. ⁶But he said to them,

Do not be amazed. You look for Jesus the Nazarean, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold the place where they laid Him. ⁷But go, say to His disciples and to Peter, that He goes before you into Galilee. There you shall see Him, as He said to you. ⁸And going out quickly, they fled from the tomb. And trembling and amazement took hold of them. And neither did they say anything to anyone, for they were afraid.

⁹Now rising early the first day of the week, He first appeared to Mary Mäg'-dā-lēne, from whom He had cast out seven devils. ¹⁰She went and told it to those who had been with Him, who were grieving and weeping. ¹¹And hearing that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it. ¹²And after these things, He was revealed in another form to two of them as they walked going into the country. ¹³And going away they told it to the rest — neither did they believe them. ¹⁴Afterwards as they reclined at table, He was revealed to the eleven, and He censured their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him risen. ¹⁵And He said to them, Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. ¹⁶He that believes and is baptized shall be saved, and he that believes not shall be condemned. ¹⁷And these signs shall follow those that believe: In My name they shall cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues; ¹⁸they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

¹⁹The Lord, then, after speaking to them, was received up into Heaven, and sat at the right hand of God. ²⁰And going forth they preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the miracles following it. Amen.

The Gospel According to LUKE

CHAPTER 1

¹Inasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up an account of those things which have been fully believed among us—²even as they who were eye-witnesses and ministers of the word from the beginning delivered them to us—³it seemed good to me also, having accurately traced out all these things from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Thē-oph'-ī-lūs, ⁴that you may know the certainty of those things in which you were taught.

⁵In the days of Herod, the king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zacharias [Zäck-ā-rī'-ās], of the course of A-bī'-jāh, and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. ⁶And they were both righteous before God, walking blameless in the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. ⁷And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in their days. ⁸And it came to pass, in the doing of his priestly service (in the order of his course before God, ⁹according to the custom of the priestly office), it was his lot to enter into the Temple of the Lord to burn incense. ¹⁰And all the multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense. ¹¹And an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right of the altar of incense. ¹²And seeing him Zäch-ā-rī'-ās was troubled, and fear fell upon him. ¹³But the angel said to him, Fear not, Zäch-ā-rī'-ās, because your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth shall bear a son to you, and you shall call his name John. ¹⁴And he shall be joy and gladness to you, and many shall rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵For he shall be great before the Lord and shall never drink wine or strong drink. And he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶And he shall turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. ¹⁷And he shall go forth before Him, in the spirit and power of Ē-lī'-jah, to turn hearts of fathers to children, and the ones who do not obey to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

¹⁸And Zäch-ā-rī'-ās said to the angel, By what shall I know this? For I am an old man and my wife is advanced in her days. ¹⁹And answering, the angel said to him, I am Gabriel [Gāy'-brē-ěl], who stands before God. And I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you the good news of these things. ²⁰And behold! you shall be dumb and not able to speak until the day in which these things shall take place, because you did not believe my words, which shall be fulfilled in their time. ²¹And the people were expecting Zäch-ā-rī'-ās, and they wondered at his staying in the Temple. ²²But when he came out he was not able to speak to them, and they saw that he had seen a vision in the Temple. And he was making signs to them and remained dumb. ²³And it came to pass, when the days of his service were finished, he departed to his house.

²⁴Now after these days his wife Elizabeth conceived. And she hid herself five months, saying, ²⁵So has the Lord done unto me in the days in which He looked upon me to take away my reproach among men.

²⁶And in the sixth month the angel Gā'-brī-ēl was sent from God to a city of Galilee, the name of which is Nāz'-ā-rēth, ²⁷to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. And the name of the virgin was Mary. ²⁸And coming to her, the angel said, Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women. ²⁹But seeing him, she was troubled at his saying and was considering what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰And the angel said to her, Fear not, Mary, for you have found favor with God. ³¹And behold! you shall conceive in your womb and bring forth a son, and you shall call His name Jesus. ³²He shall be great, and He shall be called the Son of the Highest. And the Lord God shall give Him the throne of David His father; ³³and He shall reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there shall never be an end. ³⁴But Mary said to the angel, How shall this be, since I know not a man? ³⁵And answering the angel said to her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow you: for this reason also the Holy Thing born of you shall be called Son of God. ³⁶And behold, Elizabeth, your kinswoman! She also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month with her who had been called barren — ³⁷for nothing shall be impossible with God. ³⁸And Mary said, Behold the maid-servant of the Lord! Let it be unto me according to your word. And the angel departed from her.

³⁹And rising up Mary went in those days into the hill-country with haste, to a city of Judah, ⁴⁰and entered into the house of Zāch'-ā-rī'-ās, and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹And it came to pass as Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, ⁴²and she cried out with a loud voice and said, Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ⁴³And why is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? ⁴⁴For Lo! as the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the babe leaped for joy in my womb. ⁴⁵And blessed is she who believed, for there shall be a fulfillment to the things spoken to her from the Lord.

⁴⁶And Mary said, My soul magnifies the Lord, ⁴⁷and my spirit rejoiced in God my Saviour. ⁴⁸For He looked upon the lowliness of His maid-servant. For behold! from now on all generations will call me blessed. ⁴⁹For the Mighty One has done great things to me, and holy is His name. ⁵⁰And His mercy is to generations of generations to those who fear Him. ⁵¹He worked powerfully with His arm, He scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. ⁵²He put down rulers from thrones and exalted the lowly: ⁵³the hungry He filled with good things, and the rich He sent away empty. ⁵⁴He helped His servant Israel in order to remember mercy, ⁵⁵even as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed forever. ⁵⁶And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

⁵⁷Now the time was fulfilled to Elizabeth that she should bring forth, and she bore a son. ⁵⁸And the neighbors and kinsfolk heard that the Lord was magnifying His mercy with her, and they rejoiced with her. ⁵⁹And it came to pass on the eighth day they came to circumcise the little child, and they were calling him after the name of his father, Zăch-ă-rî'-ăs. ⁶⁰And answering, his mother said, No, but he shall be called John. ⁶¹And they said to her, There is no one among your kindred who is called by this name. ⁶²And they made signs to his father as to what he would wish him to be called. ⁶³And asking for a writing tablet he wrote, saying, John is his name. And they all wondered. ⁶⁴And his mouth opened immediately and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. ⁶⁵And fear came upon all those who lived around them. And in the whole hill-country of Judea these things were spoken of. ⁶⁶And all who heard laid them up in their hearts, saying, What then will this child be? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

⁶⁷And his father Zăch-ă-rî'-ăs was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying, ⁶⁸Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because He looked upon His people and worked out redemption for them. ⁶⁹And He raised up a Horn of salvation for us in the house of David, His servant — ⁷⁰even as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets which have been since the world began — ⁷¹salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all those who hate us — ⁷²to fulfil mercy with our fathers, and to remember His holy covenant, ⁷³*the* oath which He swore to Abraham our father, ⁷⁴to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve Him without fear, ⁷⁵in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our lives. ⁷⁶And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Highest — for you shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare His way, ⁷⁷to give knowledge of salvation to His people in remission of their sins, ⁷⁸through the tender mercies of our God, in which the Dayspring from on high has visited us, ⁷⁹to shine upon those sitting in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. ⁸⁰And the little child grew and was made stronger in spirit. And he was in the deserts until the day of his showing unto Israel.

¹And it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus [Sêe'-zăr Aw-gūs'-tūs] that all the world should be registered. ²This registration first came to pass when Cŷ-rên'-î-ūs was governor of Syria. ³And all went to be registered, each to his own city. ⁴And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city Năz'-ă-rêth, into Judea, to the city of David which is called Bēth'-lē-hēm, because he was of the house and family of David. ⁵*He went* to register himself with Mary, who was engaged to him as wife, she being great with child. ⁶And it came to pass while they were there, the days were fulfilled for her bringing forth. ⁷And she brought forth her first-born son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes. And she laid Him in the manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

⁸And there were shepherds in the same country, living in the fields and keeping watch by night over their flock. ⁹And behold! the angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they feared with a great fear. ¹⁰And the angel said to them, Fear not. Behold! I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all the people. ¹¹For to you a Saviour was born today, who is Christ the Lord, in the city of David. ¹²And this is the sign to you: You shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in the manger. ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

¹⁵And it came to pass, as the angels were going away from them into Heaven, that the men, the shepherds, said to one another, Indeed, let us go over to Bethlehem, and let us see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord made known to us. ¹⁶And hurrying, they came and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. ¹⁷And seeing it, they spoke out about the saying which had been told them concerning the little child. ¹⁸And all who heard wondered about the things which had been spoken to them by the shepherds. ¹⁹But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. ²⁰And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all those things which they had heard and seen, as it was said to them. ²¹And when eight days were fulfilled for the circumcising of the child, His name was called Jesus, which He was called by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

²²And when the days for their purification were fulfilled according to the Law of Moses, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord — ²³even as it has been written in the Law of the Lord, “Every male opening a womb shall be called holy to the Lord” (See EXODUS 13:2), ²⁴and to offer a sacrifice according to that which has been said in the Law of the Lord, a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

²⁵And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. And this man was righteous and godly, waiting for the Comfort of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. ²⁶And it was divinely revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he should see the Christ of the Lord. ²⁷And he came in the Spirit into the Temple. And when the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do according to the custom of the Law for Him, ²⁸he also received Him into his arms — and he blessed God and said, ²⁹Now dost Thou let Thy servant go in peace, Lord, according to Thy word. ³⁰For my eyes have seen Thy Salvation, ³¹which Thou hast prepared before the face of all the peoples; ³²a light for enlightenment of the Gentiles, and the glory of Thy people Israel. ³³And Joseph and His mother were wondering at the things which were spoken about Him. ³⁴And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary His mother, Behold! this One is set for the fall and rising up of many in Israel, and for a sign spoken against — ³⁵Yea, a sword shall pierce your own soul also — so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

³⁶And there was Anna, a prophetess, daughter of Phanuel [Fänew'-ēl], of the tribe of Asher. She was much advanced in days, for she had lived seven years with a husband from her virginity, ³⁷and she was a widow of about eighty-four years who never departed from the Temple, serving with fastings and prayers night and day. ³⁸And coming up at the same hour she gave praise to the Lord and spoke about Him to all those waiting for redemption in Jerusalem.

³⁹And when they had done all things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city Nāz'-ā-rēth. ⁴⁰And the child grew and became strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon Him.

⁴¹And His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the Feast of the Passover. ⁴²And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the Feast. ⁴³And when they had completed the days, as they returned, the child Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem. But Joseph and His mother did not know it, ⁴⁴and supposing Him to be in the company, they went a day's journey. And then they sought Him among the relations and among the friends. ⁴⁵And when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem looking for Him. ⁴⁶And it came to pass after three days they found Him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them and asking questions. ⁴⁷And all those hearing Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers. ⁴⁸And seeing Him they were astonished. And His mother said to Him, Son, why hast Thou done so to us? Behold, Thy father and I, sorrowing, were seeking Thee. ⁴⁹And He said to them, Why is it that you were seeking Me? Do you not know that I must be about My Father's business? ⁵⁰And they did not understand the saying which He spoke to them. ⁵¹And He went down with them and came to Nāz'-ā-rēth, and He was obedient to them. And His mother kept all these things in her heart. ⁵²And Jesus advanced in wisdom and size, and in favor with God and men.

¹Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Ti-ber'-i-ās Caesar, Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea and Herod was tēt'-rārch of Galilee. And his brother Philip was tēt'-rārch of Ī-tū-rē'-ā and of the region of Trāch-ō-nī'-tis, and Lȳ-sā'-nī-ās was the tēt'-rārch of Āb-ī-lē'-nē. ²During this high-priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas [Ky'-ā-fās], the word of God came upon John the son of Zāch-ā-rī'-ās in the wilderness. ³And he went into all the country around the Jordan River, preaching the baptism of repentance for remission of sins — ⁴as it has been written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness. Perpare the way of the Lord. Make straight His paths. ⁵Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low. And the crooked places shall become a straight path, and the rough roads shall become smooth, ⁶and all flesh shall see the salvation of God" (See ISAIAH 40:3).

⁷Then he said to the multitude coming out to be baptized by him, Children of vipers! who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say to you that God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. ⁹And also the axe is already laid to the root of the trees: therefore every tree which does not bring forth good fruit is cut down and is cast into the fire. ¹⁰And the people asked him, saying, What then shall we do? ¹¹And answering he said to them, He that has two coats, let him give to him that has none. And he that has food, let him do likewise. ¹²And tax-collectors also came to be baptized. And they said to him, Teacher, what shall we do? ¹³And he said to them, Exact no more than that which is appointed to you. ¹⁴And those who were soldiers likewise asked him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Treat no one cruelly, nor accuse falsely, and be satisfied with your wages.

¹⁵But as the people were in suspense and were all reasoning in their hearts about John, whether or not he might be the Christ, ¹⁶John answered, saying to all, I indeed baptize you with water, but He comes who is mightier than I, of whom I am not worthy to untie the thong of His sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹⁷*His* sifting fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly purge His floor and will gather the wheat into His storehouse — but He will burn the chaff with fire that cannot be put out. ¹⁸And, truly then, entreating with many other things, he preached the Gospel to the people. ¹⁹But Herod the tēt'-rārch had been rebuked by John concerning Hē-rō'-dī-ās the wife of his brother Philip, and concerning all the evils which Herod had done. ²⁰And he also added this to it all, that he shut up John in the prison.

²¹Now when all the people had been baptized, and Jesus had been baptized and was praying, it came to pass Heaven was opened, ²²and the Holy Spirit came down in a bodily form, like a dove, upon Him. And a voice out of Heaven came, saying, Thou art My beloved Son. In Thee I am well pleased!

²³And Jesus Himself was beginning to be about thirty years old, being, as was supposed, son of Joseph, the son of Hē'-lī, ²⁴the son of Māt'-thāt, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi [Mēl'-ki], the son of Jān'-nā, the son of Joseph, ²⁵the son of Māt'-tā-thī'-as the son of Amos, the son of Nā'-hūm, the son of Ēs'-lī, the son of Nāg'-gā-ī, ²⁶the son of Mā'-āth, the son of Māt'-tā-thī'-ās, the son of Sēm'-ē-ī, the son of Joseph, the son of Juda, ²⁷the son of Jō-ānn'-ēs, the son of Rhesa [Rē'-sā], the son of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl, the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, the son of Neri, ²⁸the son of Mēl'-chī, the son of Addi, the son of Cō'-sām, the son of Ēl-mō'-dām, the son of Er, ²⁹the son of Joses, the son of Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr, the son of Jō'-rīm, the son of Māt'-thāt, the son of Levi, ³⁰the son of Sīm'-ē-on, the son of Juda, the son of Joseph, the son of Jō'-nān, the son of Ē-lī'-ā-kīm, ³¹the son of Mēl'-ē-ā, the son of Menna, the son of Māt'-tā-thā, the son of Nathan, the son of David, ³²the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nāh'-shon, ³³the son of Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb, the son of Aram, the son of Hēz'-ron, the son of Pharez [Fāir'-ēz], the son of Judah, ³⁴the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Tē'-rāh, the son of Nā'-hōr, ³⁵the son of Sē'-rūg, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Sā'-lāh, ³⁶the son of Cainan [Kāy'-ī-nān], the son of Arphaxad [Ār-fāx'-ād], the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lameci [Lāy'-mēck], ³⁷the son of Mē-thū'-sē-lāh, the son of Ē'-noch, the son of Jared [Jāir'-ēd], the son of Mā-hāl'-ā-lēel, the son of Cā'-ī-nān, ³⁸the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

¹And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness ²forty days, being tempted by the devil. And He ate nothing in those days, and when they were ended, He afterwards hungered. ³And the devil said to Him, If you are the Son of God, speak to this stone that it might become bread. ⁴And Jesus answered him saying, It has been written, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God" (See DEUTERONOMY 8:3). ⁵And the devil taking Him up into a high mountain showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶And the devil said to Him, All this authority I will give to you, and all their glory — for to me it has been delivered, and to whomever I wish, I give it. ⁷Therefore if you will kneel down before me, all things shall be yours. ⁸And answering him, Jesus said, Get behind Me, Satan! For it has been written, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve" (See DEUTERONOMY

6:13). ⁹And he led him to Jerusalem and set Him upon the pinnacle of the Temple. And he said to Him, If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, ¹⁰for it has been written, "To His angels He will give charge concerning Thee, to keep Thee, ¹¹and in their hands they shall bear Thee up, lest at any time Thou dash Thy foot against a stone" (See PSALM 91:11, 12). ¹²And answering, Jesus said to him, It has been said, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God" (See DEUTERONOMY 6:16). ¹³And when the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from Him for a while.

¹⁴And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee. And there went out a report concerning Him through all the country round about. ¹⁵And He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all. ¹⁶And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And according to His custom, He entered into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. ¹⁷And there was given to Him the book of Isaiah the prophet. And unrolling the book, He found the place where it was written, ¹⁸"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor, He has sent Me to heal the broken-hearted, to announce deliverance to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to send forth the bruised with deliverance, ¹⁹to preach the acceptable year of the Lord" (See ISALAH 61:1). ²⁰And rolling up the book, He gave it to the officers and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened upon Him. ²¹And He began to say to them, Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your ears. ²²And all bore witness to Him and wondered at the gracious words which came out of His mouth. And they said, Is this not the son of Joseph? ²³And He said to them, Surely you will say to Me this proverb, Physician, heal yourself. Whatever things we have heard were being done in Că-per'-nă-üm, do also here in your own country. ²⁴But He said, Verily I say unto you that no prophet is accepted in his own country. ²⁵But of a truth I say to you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, when there was a great famine upon all the land — ²⁶and to none of them was Elijah sent except to Zarephath [Zăr'-ĕ-fāth] of Sī'-dōn, to a woman, a widow. ²⁷And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Ē-li'-shā the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Nă'-ā-mān the Syrian. ²⁸And hearing these things all in the synagogue were filled with indignation. ²⁹And rising up, they threw Him out of the city, and they led Him to the brow of the hill upon which their city had been built — in order to throw Him headlong down the hill. ³⁰But passing through the midst of them, He went away.

³¹And He went down to Că-per'-nă-üm, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the sabbaths. ³²And they were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority. ³³And in the syn'-ă-gogue was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴saying, Hal what have we to do with Thee, Jesus, Nazarene? Art Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee who Thou art — the Holy One of God. ³⁵And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be quiet and come out of him! And after the demon had thrown him into the middle, he came out from him, not having hurt him. ³⁶And amazement came upon all, and they spoke to one another saying, What is this word? that with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out? ³⁷And a report concerning Him went out into every place of the country round about.

³⁸And rising up out of the synagogue, He entered into the house of Simon. And the mother-in-law of Simon was pressed with a great fever. And they asked Him about her. ³⁹And standing over her He rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she rose up and served them.

⁴⁰And at the setting of the sun, all, as many as had any sick ones with various diseases, brought them to Him. And He laid His hands on each one of them and healed them. ⁴¹And also many demons went out from many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Christ, the Son of God! And rebuking them, He did not allow them to speak because they knew Him to be the Christ.

⁴²And when it was day, He came out and went into a desert place. And the people were seeking Him and came up to Him. And they were keeping Him, so that He might not go away from them. ⁴³But He said to them, It is right for Me to preach the Gospel of the kingdom of God in the other cities also, because it was for this that I have been sent. And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

¹And it came to pass as the people pressed upon Him to hear the word of God, that He was standing by the lake of Gën-nës'-ă-rët. ²And He saw two ships standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone away from them and were washing their nets. ³And entering into one of the ships, which was Simon's, He asked him to put back a little from the land. And sitting down He taught the people from the ship. ⁴And when He left off speaking, He said to Simon, Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a haul. ⁵And answering, Simon said to Him, Master, we have worked through the whole night and have taken nothing; nevertheless at Thy word I will let down the net. ⁶And doing this, they took in a great multitude of fishes. And their net was breaking, ⁷and they signaled to the partners, those in the other ship, that they should come help them. And they came and filled both the ships, so that they were sinking. ⁸And seeing this Simon Peter fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. ⁹For astonishment caught hold of him, and all those with him, at the haul of fish which they had taken. ¹⁰And so also were James and John, sons of Zēb'-ē-dēe, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Fear not, from now on you shall be catching men. ¹¹And bringing the ships onto the land, they left all and followed Him.

¹²And as He was in one of the cities, it came to pass that there was a man full of leprosy. And seeing Jesus, he fell on his face, begging Him, saying, Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou art able to make me clean. ¹³And stretching out His hand He touched him, saying, I will! Be clean! And instantly the leprosy departed from him. ¹⁴And He commanded him to tell no one, saying, But go and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a witness to them. ¹⁵But still more the report about Him was spread abroad: and great multitudes were coming to hear, and to be healed of their sicknesses by Him. ¹⁶But He drew Himself back into the deserts and was praying.

¹⁷And it came to pass, on one of the days He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the Law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee and of Judea and of Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was there to heal them. ¹⁸And behold! men appeared carrying upon a bed a man who was paralyzed. And they were trying to bring him in, and to place him before Him. ¹⁹And finding no way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, going up on the housetop they let him down through the tiles — with the little bed into the middle — in front of Jesus. ²⁰And seeing their faith, He said to him, Man, your sins have been forgiven you! ²¹And the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, saying, Who is this who speaks blās'-phē-miēs? Who is able to forgive sins, except God alone? ²²But knowing their thoughts, Jesus answered, saying to them, Why do you question in your hearts? ²³Which is easier? to say, Your sins have been forgiven you! or to say, Arise and walk! ²⁴But so that you may know that the Son of man has authority on the earth to forgive sins, He said to the paralyzed one, I say to you, Arise! And take up your bed, and go to your house. ²⁵And immediately, standing up before them, he took up the bed on which he was lying and went away to his house, glorifying God. ²⁶And amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things today.

²⁷And after these things He went out and saw a tax-collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, Follow Me! ²⁸And leaving all, he rose up and followed Him. ²⁹And Levi made a great feast in his own house, and there was a great company of tax-collectors, and others who were with them, reclining at table. ³⁰And their scribes and Pharisees murmured at His disciples saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax-collectors and sinners? ³¹And answering, Jesus said to them,

They who are well do not need a doctor — but they who are sick. ³²I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. ³³And they said to Him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink? ³⁴And He said to them, Are you able to make the sons of the bride chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? ³⁵But days will come also when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, then they will fast in those days.

³⁶And He spoke also a parable to them: No one puts a piece of new cloth upon an old piece of cloth. Otherwise, he both tears the new, and the old does not match the piece which is from the new. ³⁷And no one puts new wine into old wineskins, otherwise the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the wineskins will perish. ³⁸But new wine is to be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved together. ³⁹And no one who has drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, The old is better.

¹And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, He passed along through the grain fields. And His disciples were plucking the ears and were eating, rubbing them in the hands. ²But some of the Pharisees said to them, Why do you do that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbaths? ³And answering to them Jesus said, Did you never even read that which David did when he was hungry, himself and those who were with him? ⁴how he went into the house of God and took the showbread and ate (and he also gave to those with him) — which it is not lawful to eat, but only the priests? ⁵And He said to them, The Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

⁶And it came to pass also on another sabbath that He went into the synagogue and taught. And there was there a man, and his right hand was withered. ⁷And the scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him, whether He would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find a charge against Him. ⁸But He knew their thoughts and said to the man who had the withered hand, Arise! and stand in the middle! And he arose and stood. ⁹Then Jesus said to them, I will ask you one thing, Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good? or to do evil? to save life? or to destroy? ¹⁰And looking around upon them all, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he did so, and his hand was restored as whole as the other. ¹¹But they were filled with madness, and talked with one another what they should do to Jesus.

¹²And it came to pass in those days, He went out into the mountain to pray, and He was spending the night in prayer to God. ¹³And when it became day, He called His disciples and chose out twelve from them, whom also He named apostles: ¹⁴Simon (whom He also named Peter), and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bär-thol'-ō-mew; ¹⁵Matthew and Thomas; James (the son of Āl-phē'-ūs), and Simon (who was called Zē-lō'-tēs); ¹⁶Judas (the brother of James) and Judas Is-câr'-i-ot (who also became the betrayer). ¹⁷And going down with them He stood on a level plain and looked upon a crowd of His disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sî'-dōn — who had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases — ¹⁸and those beset by unclean spirits also came — and they were all healed. ¹⁹And the whole multitude sought to touch Him, for power went out from Him and healed all.

²⁰And lifting up His eyes upon His disciples, He said, Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh. ²²Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they shall cut you off, and shall revile you, and throw out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man — ²³rejoice in that day, and leap for joy. For behold! Your reward is great in Heaven, for so their fathers did to the prophets. ²⁴But woe to you that are rich, for you are receiving your comfort! ²⁵Woe to you who have been filled, for you shall hunger! Woe to you who laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep! ²⁶Woe to you when all men shall speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets! ²⁷But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you. ²⁸Bless those who curse you and pray for those who spitefully use you. ²⁹And to him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer also the other. And from him who takes away your cloak, do not forbid him to take your coat also. ³⁰And give to everyone who asks you; and from him who takes away your goods, ask not again. ³¹And even as you desire that men should do unto you, do also unto them in the same way. ³²And if you love those who love you, what thanks is it to you? for even sinners love those who love them. ³³And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks is it to you? for even sinners do the same. ³⁴And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks is it to you? for even sinners lend to sinners in order that they may receive as much again. ³⁵But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again — and great shall be your reward, and you shall be the children of the Highest, for He is good to the unthankful and to the evil.

³⁶Therefore be merciful, as your Father is also merciful. ³⁷And judge not, so that in no way you may be judged. Condemn not, so that in no way you may be condemned. Forgive, and you shall be forgiven. ³⁸Give, and it shall be given to you — good measure, pressed down and shaken together and running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with the same measure with which you measure, it shall be measured to you again.

³⁹And He spoke a parable to them, Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not both fall into a ditch? ⁴⁰The disciple is not above his master, but everyone who is perfected shall be as his master. ⁴¹But why do you look on the twig that is in the eye of your brother, but do not see the log that is in your own eye? ⁴²Or how can you say to your brother, Brother, let me pull out the twig that is in your eye, yourself not seeing the log in your own eye? Hypocrite! first throw the log out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to pull out the twig that is in the eye of your brother. ⁴³For there is no good tree bringing forth bad fruit—nor a bad tree bringing forth good fruit—⁴⁴for every tree is known by its own fruit. For they do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather a bunch of grapes from a bramble bush. ⁴⁵A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which is good—and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which is evil—for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. ⁴⁶And why call Me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? ⁴⁷Whoever comes to Me and hears My sayings, and does them, I will show you to whom he is like: ⁴⁸He is like a man building a house, who dug, and deepened, and laid the foundation on a rock. And a flood came up and the stream burst upon that house, and could not shake it, for it had been founded upon a rock. ⁴⁹But he who hears, and does not do, is like a man who had built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke forth. And immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.

¹Now when He had completed all His sayings in the ears of the people, He entered into Că-per'-nă-um. ²And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and was about to die. ³And he had heard about Jesus and sent to Him elders of the Jews begging Him that He would come and heal his servant. ⁴And when they had come to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that the one to whom He should grant this was worthy, ⁵for he loves our nation, and he built a synagogue for us. ⁶And Jesus went with them. But when He was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, Lord, Do not trouble Thyself, for I am not worthy that Thou shouldst come under my roof. ⁷For this reason neither did I think myself worthy to come to Thee. But say by a word, and my servant shall be healed. ⁸For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under myself. And I say to this one, Go! and he goes; and to another, Come! and he comes; and to my servant, Do this! and he does it. ⁹And hearing these things Jesus marveled at him, and turning to the people following Him, He said, I say to you, Not even in Israel have I found such great faith. ¹⁰And returning to the house, those who were sent found the ailing servant in good health.

¹¹And it came to pass on the next day, He went into a city called Nain. And many of His disciples and a great multitude went with Him. ¹²And as He drew near to the gate of the city, behold! one who had died was being carried out. He was an only son to his mother, and she was a widow, and many people of the city were with her. ¹³And the Lord, seeing her, was moved with compassion on her. And He said to her, Do not weep. ¹⁴And coming up He touched the bier, and those bearing it stood still. And He said, Young man, I say to you, Arise! ¹⁵And the dead boy sat up and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. ¹⁶And fear clutched them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet has risen up among us; and, God has visited His people. ¹⁷And this report concerning Him went out into all Judea, and into all the region round about.

¹⁸And the disciples of John brought word of all these things. ¹⁹And calling to him two particular ones of his disciples, John sent them to Jesus, saying, Art Thou He who is coming, or are we to look for another? ²⁰And coming to Him, the men said, John the Baptist has sent us to Thee, saying, Art Thou He who is coming, or are we to look for another? ²¹And in the same hour He healed many of their sicknesses and plagues and evil spirits. And to many of the blind, He gave power to see. ²²And answering Jesus said to them, When you go back, tell John what you have seen and heard — that the blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the Gospel is preached to the poor, ²³and whosoever shall not be offended in Me is blessed. ²⁴And after the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the people about John: What have you gone out into the wilderness to look upon? a reed shaken by the wind? ²⁵But what have you gone out to see? a man clothed in soft clothing? Behold! they who are in gorgeous clothes and who are in luxury are living in palaces. ²⁶But what have you gone out to see? a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one more excellent than a prophet. ²⁷This is he about whom it has been written, "Behold! I send My messenger before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee" (See MALACHI 3:1). ²⁸For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist — but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

²⁹And hearing this, all the people and the tax-collectors who had been baptized with the baptism of John justified God. ³⁰But the Pharisees and the lawyers who had not been baptized by him rejected the purpose of God as to themselves. ³¹And the Lord said, Then to what shall I compare the men of this generation? and, To what are they like? ³²They are like little children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, and saying, We have piped to you, and you did not dance; we mourned to you, and you did not weep. ³³For John the Baptist has come, neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and you say, He has a demon. ³⁴The Son of man has come, eating and drinking; and you say, Behold! a glutton and a wine-drinker — a friend of tax-collectors and sinners! ³⁵Yet wisdom was justified by all her children.

³⁶And one of the Pharisees asked Him that He would eat with him. And going into the house of the Pharisee, He reclined at table. ³⁷And behold! a woman in the city who was a sinner, knowing that He had reclined at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment. ³⁸And standing behind Him, weeping beside His feet, she began to wash His feet with tears. And she was wiping them with the hairs of her head, and was lovingly kissing His feet, and was anointing them with the ointment.

³⁹But seeing this, the Pharisee who invited Him spoke within himself, saying, This one, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what kind of woman this is who touches Him, for she is a great sinner. ⁴⁰Jesus said to him, Simon, I have something to say to you. And he said, Master, speak. ⁴¹There were two men who owed money to a certain lender; the one owed five hundred pieces of silver, and the other fifty. ⁴²But as they had nothing to repay, he forgave both. Which of them, then, do you say will love him most? ⁴³And answering Simon said, I suppose that one to whom he forgave the most. And He said to him, You have judged rightly. ⁴⁴And turning to the woman, He said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I entered into your house and you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with tears and wiped them with the hairs of her head. ⁴⁵You gave Me no kiss, but since I came in, this woman has not ceased to lovingly kiss My feet. ⁴⁶You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with ointment. ⁴⁷Because of this I say to you, her many sins have been forgiven — for she loved much — but to whom little is forgiven, he loves little. ⁴⁸And He said to her, Your sins have been forgiven. ⁴⁹And those reclining with Him began to say within themselves, Who is this who even forgives sins? ⁵⁰But He said to the woman, Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.

CHAPTER 8

¹And it came to pass afterwards that He was going through every city and village preaching and announcing the Gospel of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with Him. ²And certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities also were with Him — Mary

(who is called Măg'-dă-lēne), from whom seven demons had gone forth,³ and Joanna (the wife of Chuza, a steward of Herod,) and Susanna, and many others—who ministered to Him from their property.

⁴And a great multitude came together. And those who were from each city came to Him. And He spoke by a parable. ⁵The sower went forth to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the roadside, and it was trodden down, and the birds of the air ate it up. ⁶And other seed fell upon a rock, and after it had sprung up, it withered away because it had no moisture. ⁷And other seed fell in the middle of thorns, and after springing up together, the thorns choked it. ⁸And other seed fell upon the good ground, and springing up bore fruit a hundred times. Having said these things, He cried, He that has ears to hear, let him hear!

⁹And His disciples asked Him, saying, What might this parable be? ¹⁰And He said, Unto you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest I speak in parables—that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. ¹¹Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. ¹²And those by the roadside are those who hear. Then comes the devil and takes away the word from their heart, lest they should believe and be saved. ¹³And those upon the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy. But these have no root, who for a time believe, and in time of temptation fall away. ¹⁴And that which fell into the thorns: these are they who, after they have heard and have gone forth, are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring nothing to perfection. ¹⁵And that in the good ground: these are they who, in an honest and good heart, hearing the word, keep it and bring forth fruit with patience.

¹⁶And no man lighting a lamp covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed—but he puts it on a lampstand so that they who enter in may see the light. ¹⁷For nothing is hidden which shall not be revealed, nor secret which shall not be known and come to light. ¹⁸Take care therefore how you hear. For whoever may have, more shall be given to him. And whoever may not have, even what he seems to have shall be taken from him.

¹⁹And His mother and His brothers came to Him and were not able to get to Him because of the crowd. ²⁰And it was told Him, saying, Thy Mother and Thy brothers are standing outside desiring to see Thee. ²¹And answering He said to them, My mother and My brothers are those who are hearing the word of God and doing it.

²²And it came to pass on a certain day that He and His disciples entered into a ship. And He said to them, Let us pass over to the other side of the lake. And they shoved off from shore. ²³And as they sailed He fell asleep. And a storm of wind on the lake came down, and they were being filled with water and were in danger. ²⁴And coming to Him they awakened Him, saying, Master, Master, we are perishing. And rising up He rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵And He said to them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying to one another, Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?

²⁶And they sailed down to the country of the Găd'-ă-rēnes, which is across from Galilee. ²⁷And on His going forth upon the land, a certain man out of the city met Him, who had demons for a long time, and who was wearing no clothes, and who was not living in a house, but in the tombs. ²⁸And seeing Jesus, and crying out, he fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with Thee, Jesus, Son of God, the Most High? I beg of Thee, do not torment me. ²⁹For He was commanding the unclean spirit to come forth from the man. For oftentimes it had seized him, and he was being guarded, being kept with chains and fetters, and breaking the bonds he was driven by the demon into the deserts. ³⁰And Jesus asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion (because many demons had entered into him). ³¹And they begged Him that He would not command them to go away into the bottomless pit. ³²Now there was there a herd of many hogs feeding in the mountains, and they begged Him that He would allow them to enter into those—and He allowed them. ³³And the demons went forth from the man. They entered into the hogs, and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake and were choked.

³⁴And seeing what had taken place, those who fed them fled. And going to the city and to the countryside, they reported it. ³⁵And they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting, clothed, and of sound mind, at the feet of Jesus. And they were afraid. ³⁶And also those who had seen it told them how he who had been demon-possessed was healed. ³⁷And the whole multitude of the country of Găd'-ă-rēnes round about begged Him to go away from them, for they were possessed with great fear. And entering into the ship, He returned. ³⁸And the man from whom the demons had gone forth was begging Him to be taken with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹Return to your house and tell all that God has done for you. And he went his way, telling all that Jesus had done throughout the whole city.

⁴⁰And it came to pass, in the returning of Jesus, the people gladly received Him, for they were all looking for Him. ⁴¹And behold! there came a man named Jă-ī'-rūs, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling down at the feet of Jesus he begged Him to come to his house, ⁴²because he had an only daughter about twelve years old, and she was dying. And as He went, the people thronged Him. ⁴³And a woman came who had been sick with a flow of blood for twelve years, and who had spent her whole living on doctors—but could be cured by no one. ⁴⁴Coming up behind Him, she touched the border of His robe, and instantly her flow of blood was stopped. ⁴⁵And Jesus said, Who was that touching Me? And when all denied, Peter and those with Him said, Master, the multitudes throng and press Thee, and dost Thou say, Who was that touching Me? ⁴⁶And Jesus said, Someone has touched Me, for I knew that power went forth from Me. ⁴⁷And seeing that she was not hidden, the woman came up trembling. And falling down before Him, she told Him before all the people for what cause she had touched Him, and how she was healed instantly. ⁴⁸And He said to her, Daughter, be of good courage, your faith has cured you. Go in peace.

⁴⁹While He yet was speaking one came from the house of the ruler of the synagogue, saying to him, Your daughter has died, do not trouble the Master. ⁵⁰But hearing this Jesus answered him, saying, Fear not, only believe, and she shall be restored. ⁵¹And entering into the house He allowed no one to go in, except Peter and James and John, and the father and the mother of the child. ⁵²And they were all weeping and bewailing her. But He said, Do not weep, she is not dead, but sleeps. ⁵³And they laughed at Him scornfully, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴But putting them all out, and taking hold of her hand, He called, saying, Child, arise! ⁵⁵And her spirit came again, and she immediately arose. And He commanded something should be given to her to eat. ⁵⁶And her parents were amazed, but He commanded them that they should tell no one what had happened.

¹And calling His twelve disciples together, He gave to them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases. ²And He sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal those who were sick. ³And He said to them, Take nothing for the highway—neither staves, nor bag, nor bread, nor money—neither have two coats each. ⁴And into whatever house you may enter, stay there, and depart from there. ⁵And as many as may not receive you, as you are going forth from that city, even the dust from your feet shake off for a witness against them. ⁶And going forth they passed through the towns, preaching the Gospel, and healing everywhere.

⁷And Herod the tēt'-rārch heard of the things being done by Him, and was puzzled, because it was said by certain ones, John has been raised from among the dead; ⁸and by certain ones that Ē-lī'-jāh had appeared—by others also that a prophet, one of the ancients, had arisen. ⁹And Herod said, John I beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see Him.

¹⁰And having returned, the apostles told Him all that they had done. And taking them along, He withdrew apart into a desert place of the city called Bēth-sā'-ī-dā. ¹¹But knowing it, people followed Him. And receiving them, He spoke to them about the kingdom of God. And those who needed healing He cured. ¹²But the day began to decline, and the twelve coming near said to Him, Turn the multitude loose so that they may go into the towns and the country around about, that they may lodge and find food; for here we are in a desert place. ¹³But He said to them, You give them something to eat. But they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes, unless we should go and buy food for all this people. ¹⁴For they were about five thousand men. But He said to His disciples, Make them recline in companies of fifties. ¹⁵And they did so, and made all recline. ¹⁶And taking the five loaves and the two fishes, looking up into Heaven, He blessed them and broke them and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. ¹⁷And they ate and were all satisfied. And that which was taken up of the pieces that were left over and above to them was twelve baskets full.

¹⁸And it came to pass as He was alone praying, the disciples were with Him. And He questioned them, saying, Who do the people say that I am? ¹⁹And answering they said, John the Baptist, but others say Elijah, and others that some prophet of the ancients has risen. ²⁰And He said to them, But who do you say that I am? And answering Peter said, The Christ of God. ²¹And strictly directing them, He commanded them to tell no one this, ²²saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and is to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised the third day. ²³And He said to all, If any one desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and let him take up his cross day by day, and let him follow Me. ²⁴For whoever desires to save his life shall lose it — but whoever may lose his life for My sake, he shall save it. ²⁵For what is a man profited who has gained the whole world, but who has destroyed or lost himself forever? ²⁶For whoever may have been ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of man will be ashamed of him when He shall come in His own glory, and in His Father's glory, and of the holy angels. ²⁷But I say to you, truly there are some of those standing here who shall not taste of death until they have seen the kingdom of God.

²⁸And it came to pass, about eight days after these words, that He took Peter and John and James and went up into a mountain to pray. ²⁹And it came to pass as He prayed, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothing was dazzling white. ³⁰And behold! two men talked with Him, who were Moses and Elijah — ³¹who appearing in glory spoke of His departure, which He was about to complete in Jerusalem. ³²But Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep. And when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him.

³³And it came to pass as they were departing from Him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here; and, Let us make three tabernacles, one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah — not knowing what he was saying. ³⁴But as he was saying these things a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they feared as those men entered into the cloud. ³⁵And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My beloved Son, hear Him! ³⁶And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they were silent, and they told it to no one in those days, not any of those things which they had seen.

³⁷And it came to pass on the next day, on coming down from the mountain, a great crowd met Him. ³⁸And behold, a man cried out of the crowd, saying, Master, I beg Thee, look upon my son, for he is an only child to me. ³⁹And behold, a spirit takes him and he suddenly cries out, and it throws him into convulsions with foaming and painfully departs from him, bruising him. ⁴⁰And I begged Thy disciples that they might throw it out, and they were not able. ⁴¹And answering Jesus said, O faithless and crooked generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here. ⁴²But as he was coming up, the demon dashed him down and threw him into convulsions. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and He healed the child and gave him back to his father again. ⁴³And all were amazed at the majesty of God.

And as all were wondering at all things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁴Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men. ⁴⁵But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they should not see it. And they were afraid to ask Him about that saying. ⁴⁶And there arose an argument among them — this, Who might be the greatest of them. ⁴⁷And Jesus seeing the thought of their heart, taking a little child, He set it beside Him ⁴⁸and said to them, Whoever shall receive this little child in My name receives Me. And whoever shall receive Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all is he who shall be great. ⁴⁹And answering John said, Master, we saw someone throwing out demons in Thy name, and we ordered him to stop because he does not follow along with us. ⁵⁰And Jesus said to him, Do not stop him, for whoever is not against us is for us.

⁵¹And it came to pass, when the days of His taking up were being fulfilled, that He set His face to go to Jerusalem. ⁵²And He sent messengers before His face. And going on they entered into a village of the Să-mâr'-î-tăns, so as to make ready for Him. ⁵³And they did not receive Him because His face was set to go to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴And when His disciples saw it, James and John said, Lord, dost Thou desire that we should call fire to come down from Heaven and burn them up, even as Elijah did? ⁵⁵But turning He rebuked them and said, You do not know of what spirit you are! ⁵⁶For the Son of man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

⁵⁷And it came to pass as they were going in the highway, someone said to Him, Lord, wherever Thou may go, I will follow Thee. ⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere He may lay His head. ⁵⁹And He said to another, Follow Me! But he said, Lord, let me first go away to bury my father. ⁶⁰But Jesus said to him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go out and preach the kingdom of God. ⁶¹And another also said, Lord, I will follow Thee, but first let me go take leave of those at my house. ⁶²But Jesus said to him, No one who has laid his hand on the plow, and who is looking back on the things behind, is fit for the kingdom of God.

¹Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy others also. And He sent them two and two before His face, into every city and place where He Himself was about to come. ²He said therefore to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He may send forth laborers into His harvest. ³Go! Lo, I send you forth as lambs in the middle of wolves. ⁴Do not carry purse, or bag, or shoes, and greet no one on the highway. ⁵And into whatever house you may enter, first say, Peace to this house. ⁶And if indeed there is a son of peace there, your peace shall rest upon it. But if not, it shall return to you. ⁷And stay in that same house, eating and drinking the things given by them—for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. ⁸And into whatever city you may enter, and they may receive you, eat the things set before you. ⁹And heal the sick in it, and say to them, The kingdom of God has drawn near to you. ¹⁰But into whatever city you may enter, and they do not receive you, going out into its streets, say, ¹¹Even the dust which has clung to us out of your city we wipe off against you—yet know this, that the kingdom of God has drawn near to you. ¹²And I say to you that it shall be more bearable in that Day for Sodom than for that city. ¹³Woe unto you, Chorazin [Kō-rāy'-zīn]! Woe unto you, Bēth-sā'-ī-dāl for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been taking place in you, they long ago would have repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴But it shall be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon in the Judgment than for you. ¹⁵And you, Cā-per'-nā-ūm, who have been lifted up to Heaven, you shall be thrust down into hell. ¹⁶He that hears you hears Me, and he that despises you despises Me—and he that despises Me despises Him who sent Me.

¹⁷And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through Thy name. ¹⁸And He said to them, I saw Satan falling out of Heaven, like lightning. ¹⁹Behold! I give you the authority to walk on serpents and scorpions, and upon all the power of the enemy, and nothing in any way shall hurt you. ²⁰Yet do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice that your names are written in Heaven.

²¹In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and of the earth, that Thou didst hide these things from the sophisticated and cunning, and didst reveal them to babes: yea, Father, for so it seemed good in Thy sight. ²²And turning to the disciples He said, All things are delivered to Me by My Father, and no one but the Father knows who the Son is, and who the Father is but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal Him. ²³And turning to the disciples, He said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see what you see. ²⁴For I say to you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and did not see them — and to hear what you hear, and did not hear.

²⁵And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him, and saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? ²⁶And He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read? ²⁷And answering he said, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself. ²⁸And He said to him, You have answered right. Do this and you shall live. ²⁹But desiring to justify himself, he said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? ³⁰And taking up the word Jesus said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. And he fell among thieves, who, after stripping him and wounding him, went away leaving him half dead. ³¹Now it so happened a certain priest went down that road. And seeing him, he passed by on the other side. ³²And in the same way also a Levite, being at the place, coming up and seeing him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a certain Samaritan traveling that way came to him. And seeing him, he was moved with pity. ³⁴And coming near, he tied up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. And putting him on his own animal, he brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵And on the next day, going away, he took out two coins and gave them to the innkeeper. And he said to him, Take care of him, and whatever you may spend more than this, I will repay you when I come back. ³⁶Who, then, of these three, seems to you to have been a neighbor to him who fell among the thieves? ³⁷And he said, He who showed mercy to him. Then Jesus said to him, You go and do likewise.

³⁸And it came to pass as they went on that He entered into a certain village. And a certain woman named Martha received Him into her house. ³⁹And she had a sister called Mary, who, sitting down at the feet of Jesus, was listening to His word. ⁴⁰But Martha was troubled with so much serving. And standing by Him, she said, Lord, Dost Thou not care that my sister has left me alone to serve? Speak to her, then, that she help me. ⁴¹And answering Jesus said to her, Martha, Martha, you are careful and troubled about many things—⁴²but one thing is needful, and Mary has chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER 11

¹And it came to pass as He was in a certain place praying, when He ceased, one of His disciples said to Him, Lord, teach us to pray, even as John taught his disciples. ²And He said to them, When you pray, say, Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so also upon the earth. ³Give us day by day our daily bread. ⁴And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive every one who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.

⁵And He said to them, Who among you shall have a friend and shall go to him at midnight and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves, ⁶for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey and I have nothing to set before him. ⁷And what if he from the inside should answer, saying, Do not trouble me, the door is already shut, and my children are in bed with me; I cannot rise and give it to you? ⁸I say to you, even if he will not rise up and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his shameless insisting he will rise and give as many as he needs. ⁹And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. ¹⁰For every one that asks receives. And he that seeks finds. And to him that knocks, it will be opened. ¹¹And which of you who is a father, if the son shall ask a loaf, will give a stone to him? And if he asks a fish, will he instead of a fish give him a snake? ¹²Or, if he shall ask for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? ¹³If you therefore, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more your Father who is of Heaven will give the Holy Spirit to those asking Him!

¹⁴And He was throwing out a demon, and it was dumb. And when the demon had gone out, it came to pass the dumb one spoke. And the people wondered. ¹⁵But some of them said, He throws out demons by Bē-ēl'-zē-būb, chief of the demons. ¹⁶And others, tempting Him, were asking for a miracle from Heaven from Him. ¹⁷But knowing their thoughts, He said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to ruin; and, A house divided against a house falls. ¹⁸And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? Because you say, I throw out the demons by Bē-ēl'-zē-būb. ¹⁹And if I throw out demons by Bē-ēl'-zē-būb, then by whom do your sons throw them out? Because of this they shall be judges of you. ²⁰But if I throw out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²¹When the strong man keeps his own palace, being armed, his goods are in peace—²²but as soon as the stronger than he comes upon him, he shall overcome him and take from him all his armor in which he had trusted, and he divides his spoils. ²³He that is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters!

²⁴When the unclean spirit has gone out from a man, he goes through dry places looking for rest. And not finding any he says, I will go back to my house from which I came out. ²⁵And coming, he finds it swept and decorated. ²⁶Then he goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and entering they live there—and the last state of that man is worse than the first. ²⁷And it came to pass as He spoke these things, lifting up her voice from the crowd, a certain woman said to Him, Blessed is the womb that bore Thee, and the breasts which Thou hast sucked. ²⁸But He said, Yes, rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it.

²⁹And with the multitudes crowding together upon Him, He began to say, This generation is evil. It looks for a sign, and a sign shall not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ³⁰For as Jonah was a sign to the Nin'-ē-vites, so shall the Son of man also be to this generation. ³¹The queen of the south shall rise up in the Judgment with the men of this generation, and she shall condemn them—for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold! One greater than Solomon is here. ³²Men of Nineveh shall stand up in the Judgment with this generation and shall condemn it—for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold! One greater than Jonah is here. ³³But no one who has lighted a lamp puts it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but upon the lampstand, so that those who come in may see the light. ³⁴The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is clear, your whole body also is lightened—but when your eye is filled with evil, your whole body also is darkened. ³⁵Take care, then, that the light that is in you is not darkness. ³⁶If, then, your whole body is made light, not having any part dark, the whole shall be made light as it is when the brightness of a lamp gives you light.

³⁷Now as He was speaking, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. And entering in, He reclined at table. ³⁸But the Pharisee, watching, marveled that He had not first washed before the dinner. ³⁹But the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but your inward part is full of robbery and wickedness. ⁴⁰Fools! did not He who made the outside also make the inside? ⁴¹But give alms of the things which you have inside, and lo, all things are clean to you. ⁴²But woe to you, Pharisees! For you pay tithes of mint, and rue, and every vegetable, and pass by judgment and the love of God. These things you ought to have done, and not to be neglecting those things. ⁴³Woe unto you, Pharisees! For you love the uppermost seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the market places. ⁴⁴Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees! Hypocrites! For you are as the unseen graves, and the men who walk over them do not know it.

⁴⁵And one of the lawyers, answering, said to Him, Master, saying these things you insult us too. ⁴⁶And He said, Woe unto you also, lawyers! For you load men with burdens too heavy to bear, and you yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. ⁴⁷Woe unto you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. ⁴⁸Truly you bear witness that you consent to the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. ⁴⁹Because of this also the wisdom of God said, I will send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute, ⁵⁰that the blood of all the prophets poured out from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation — ⁵¹from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, who perished between the altar and the Temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation. ⁵²Woe unto you, lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge — you yourselves did not enter, and those who were entering, you hindered. ⁵³And as He was saying these things to them, the scribes and Pharisees began to press Him furiously and to make Him speak about many things — ⁵⁴watching Him and trying to catch something out of His mouth that they might accuse Him.

CHAPTER 12

¹In the meantime a crowd that could not be numbered were gathered together, so as to trample upon one another. He began to say to His disciples first of all, Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees (which is, playing the hypocrite). ²But nothing is covered up which shall not be uncovered; nor hidden which shall not be known. ³Therefore whatever you said in the darkness shall be heard in the light, and what you spoke in the ear in secret rooms shall be shouted upon the housetops. ⁴But I say to you, My friends, Do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after these things are not able to do anything else. ⁵But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after killing you, has authority to throw you into hell. Yes, I say to you, Fear Him!

⁶Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. ⁷But even the hairs of your head have all been numbered. Therefore do not fear, you are of more value than many sparrows. ⁸But I say to you, Everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of man will also confess him in front of the angels of God. ⁹But he who has denied Me before men will be denied before the angels of God. ¹⁰And everyone who shall say a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him — but it will not be forgiven to him who has blasphemed the Holy Spirit. ¹¹But when they bring you in front of the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you shall reply, or what you shall say — ¹²for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you ought to say.

¹³And one of the company said to Him, Master, speak to my brother to divide the inheritance with me. ¹⁴But He said to him, Man, who made Me a judge or a divider over you? ¹⁵And He said to them, Watch! and keep yourselves from lusting for more and more — for a man's life is not in the fullness of the things which he owns. ¹⁶And He spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully. ¹⁷And he was thinking within himself, saying, What shall I do? because I have nowhere to lay up my fruits. ¹⁸And he said, This I will do, I will take down my barns and will build bigger ones, and I will lay up all my crops and my good things there. ¹⁹And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many good things laid up for many years, take your rest, eat, drink and be merry. ²⁰But God said to him, Fool! This is the night your soul shall be demanded of you; and that which you have gotten together, to whom shall it be given? ²¹So is he who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.

²²And He said to His disciples, Because of this I say to you, Be not anxious as to your life, what you should eat — nor as to the body, what you should put on. ²³Life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. ²⁴Think of the ravens, for they do not sow or reap, to which there is no barn nor storehouse, and God feeds them. How much better are you than the birds! ²⁵And who of you is able to add one cubit to his height by being anxious? ²⁶If, then, you are not able to do even the least, why are you anxious about the rest? ²⁷Think of the lilies, how they grow. They do not work, nor do they spin, but I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these. ²⁸But if God so clothes the grass — which today is, but tomorrow is thrown into the oven — how much rather you? O you of little faith!

²⁹And you, do not seek what you may eat, or what you may drink, and do not be in doubt — ³⁰for the nations of the world seek after all these things, and your Father knows that you have need of these things. ³¹But seek rather the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. ³²Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father took delight in giving you the kingdom. ³³Sell what you own and give alms. Make yourselves bags that do not grow old, a treasure in Heaven that does not fail — where the thief does not come near, nor the moth destroy. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. ³⁵Let your loins be girded and your lamps burning. ³⁶And be like men waiting for their lord, whenever He shall return from the wedding feasts — so that when he comes and knocks they may immediately open to him. ³⁷Blessed are those servants whom the lord shall find watching when he comes. I say to you that he will gird himself and will make them recline at table. And coming near, he will serve them. ³⁸And if he comes in the second watch, and in the third watch, and finds them so, blessed are those servants. ³⁹But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken through. ⁴⁰And you, then, be ready — for in an hour that you do not suppose, the Son of man comes.

⁴¹And Peter said to Him, Lord, dost Thou speak this parable to us, or also to all? ⁴²And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall set over his household as ruler, to give the measure of grain in due season? ⁴³Blessed is that servant, whom, when his lord comes, he will find him doing so. ⁴⁴Truly I say to you that he will make him ruler over all that he has. ⁴⁵But if that servant should say in his heart, My lord is waiting to come, and should begin to beat the menservants and maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunk — ⁴⁶the lord of that servant will come in a day when he does not expect him, and in an hour which he does not know. And he will cut him in two and will give him his portion with the unbelievers. ⁴⁷But that servant who knew the will of his master, and did not make ready, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. ⁴⁸But he who knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. And to whom much was given, much will be demanded from him — and to whom much was entrusted, the more they will ask of him. ⁴⁹I came to hurl fire into the earth, and what if I desire it already to be kindled? ⁵⁰But I have a baptism I must be baptized with, and how am I pressed down until it is done! ⁵¹Do you think that I came to give peace on earth? No, I say to you, but rather to divide — ⁵²for from now on there will be five divided in one house — three against two, and two against three. ⁵³Father will be divided against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother — mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

⁵⁴And He said to the people also, When you see a cloud rising up from the west, immediately you say, A shower is coming; and it is so. ⁵⁵And when a south wind is blowing, you say, There will be heat; and it comes to pass. ⁵⁶Hypocrites! you know how to judge the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not know this time? ⁵⁷Yes, and why do you not judge what is right even of yourselves? ⁵⁸For as you go with the one who is against you to the justice, in the highway try hard to be set free from him, lest he should drag you away to the judge, and the judge should deliver you to the officer, and the officer should throw you into prison. ⁵⁹I say to you, In no way shall you come out of there until you have paid even the last piece of money.

¹And some, who were there at the same time, were telling Him about the Gäl-î-lê'-āns, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ²And answering Jesus said to them, Do you think that these Gäl-î-lê'-āns were sinners above all the Gäl-î-lê'-āns, because they have suffered such things? ³No, I say to you, but if you do not repent, you shall all perish the same way. ⁴Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that these were sinners beyond all men who lived in Jerusalem? ⁵No, I say to you, but if you do not repent, you shall all perish the same way.

⁶And He spoke this parable: A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it, and did not find any. ⁷And he said to the vinedresser, Behold, three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and have not found any. Cut it down! Why does it still waste the ground? ⁸And answering he said to him, Master, let it alone this year too, until I shall dig around it and manure it, ⁹perhaps indeed it shall bear fruit, But if not, after that you shall cut it down.

¹⁰And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on one of the sabbaths. ¹¹And behold! there was a woman who had a spirit of unsoundness eighteen years, and she was bowed together and in no way able to lift herself up. ¹²And seeing her Jesus called and said to her, Woman, you have been turned loose from your unsoundness. ¹³And He laid His hands upon her, and instantly she was made straight, and she glorified God. ¹⁴But the ruler of the synagogue answering — angry because Jesus healed on the Sabbath — said to the people, There are six days in which men ought to work; in these therefore come to be healed, and not on the Sabbath day. ¹⁵Then the Lord answered him, and said, Hypocrite! Does not every one of you untie his ox or his ass from the manger and lead it away and give it water? ¹⁶And this woman is a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has held tight to these eighteen years — is it not right that she be turned loose from this bond on the Sabbath day? ¹⁷And when He said these things, all who were against Him were ashamed. And all the people were rejoicing at all the glorious things which were being done by Him.

¹⁸And He said, To what is the kingdom of God like? and to what shall I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a grain of mustard, which a man took and threw into his garden. And it grew and became a great tree, and the birds of the air lodged in the branches of it. ²⁰And again He said, To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? ²¹It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until all of it was leavened.

²²And He was going through cities and villages, teaching and making progress towards Jerusalem. ²³And one said to Him, Lord, are those being saved few? But He said to them, ²⁴Try hard to enter in through the narrow gate. For I say to you, Many will try to enter in and will not be able. ²⁵When once the Master of the house has risen up and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us; and answering He will say to you, I do not know you. Where are you from? ²⁶Then you will begin to say, We ate and drank before Thee, and in our streets Thou didst teach. ²⁷And He will say, I tell you, I do not know where you are from—depart from Me, all you workers of unrighteousness. ²⁸There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves being thrown out. ²⁹And they shall come from east and west, and from north and south, and shall lie down in the kingdom of God. ³⁰And behold! there are those who are now last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.

³¹On the same day some of the Pharisees came to Him, saying to him, Get out! and, Go away from here! for Herod wants to kill you. ³²And He said to them, When you go back, say to that fox, Behold, I throw out demons, and I finish cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I am perfected. ³³But it is only right for me to go on today and tomorrow and the day after, for it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem. ³⁴O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and that stones those who have been sent to her!—how often would I have gathered your children, in the way a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not have it so. ³⁵Behold! your house is left to you in ruins. And verily I say unto you, You shall not see Me until the time come when you say, Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

¹And it came to pass, on His going into the house of one of the chief Pharisees on a sabbath in order to eat bread, that they were watching Him. ²And behold! there was in front of Him a certain man who had ddropsy. ³And answering, Jesus spoke to the lawyers and to the Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? ⁴But they were silent. And taking hold of him, He healed him and let him go. ⁵And answering them, He said, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit and he will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day? ⁶And they were not able to answer Him as to these things.

⁷And He spoke a parable to those who were invited, observing how they were choosing out the chief places, saying, ⁸When you are invited by anyone to wedding feasts, do not recline in the chief place, lest one more honorable than you may have been invited by him. ⁹And he who invited both you and him coming up may say to you, Give place to this one, and then you begin with shame to take the last place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, on going in, recline in the last place, so that when he who has invited you comes, he may say to you, Friend, come up higher. Then there shall be honor to you in front of those reclining at table with you. ¹¹For everyone that exalts himself shall be humbled. And he that humbles himself shall be exalted. ¹²And He said also to the one who had invited Him, When you make a dinner or a supper, do not call your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors — lest they also should invite you in return and repay you. ¹³But when you make a feast, call the poor, maimed, lame, and blind — ¹⁴and you shall be blessed; for they have nothing to repay you. It shall be repaid to you in the resurrection of the just.

¹⁵And hearing these things, one of those reclining with Him said to Him, Blessed is he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. ¹⁶But He said to him, A certain man made a great supper and invited many. ¹⁷And he sent his servant at supper time to say to those who had been invited, Come, for all is now ready. ¹⁸And they all with one mind began to make excuse. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of land, and I have to go and see it — I beg you, count me excused. ¹⁹And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out — I beg you, count me excused. ²⁰And another said, I have married a wife, and because of this I cannot come. ²¹And coming back, that servant reported these things to his lord. Then the master of the house, being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and maimed, the lame and the blind. ²²And the servant said, Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room. ²³And the lord said to the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in so that my house may be filled — ²⁴for I say to you, that not one of those men who have been invited shall taste of my supper.

²⁵And great multitudes were going with Him. And turning, He said to them, ²⁶If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, and besides also his own life, he cannot be My disciple. ²⁷And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. ²⁸For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost — whether he has enough to finish? ²⁹that all who see should not begin to make fun of him when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, ³⁰saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish. ³¹Or what king going out to make war with another king does not sit down and first consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who is coming against him with twenty thousand? ³²But if not, while he is still far off, sending a group of ambassadors, he asks the terms for peace. ³³So in the same way, every one of you who does not take leave of all that he himself owns cannot be My disciple. ³⁴Salt is good, but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what shall it be seasoned? ³⁵It is neither fit for land, nor for manure, but they throw it out. He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

¹And all the tax-collectors, and the sinners, were drawing near to Him to hear Him. ²And the Pharisees and the scribes complained, saying, This one receives sinners and eats with them. ³And He spoke to them this parable, saying, ⁴What man of you who has a hundred sheep, and has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go on after that which has been lost until he finds it? ⁵And finding it he lays it on his shoulders rejoicing, ⁶and coming to the house he calls together friends and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost. ⁷I say to you that likewise joy shall be in Heaven over one sinner repenting, more than over ninety-nine righteous ones who have no need of repentance. ⁸Or what woman who has ten pieces of silver, if she should lose one piece, does not light a lamp and sweep the house, and look carefully until she finds it? ⁹And finding it she calls together friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I lost. ¹⁰In the same way, I say to you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner repenting.

¹¹And He said, A certain man had two sons. ¹²And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give to me that part of the property falling to me. And he divided to them the living. ¹³And not many days after, gathering together all, the younger son went away into a far country and there wasted his property with riotous living. ¹⁴But when he had spent all, there came on a mighty famine, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵And going over, he joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed hogs. ¹⁶And he was longing to fill his belly from the husks which the hogs were eating — and no one gave to him. ¹⁷And coming to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father have more than enough bread, and I am dying with hunger? ¹⁸I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven and before you, ¹⁹and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants. ²⁰And rising up, he went to his father.

But while he was yet far off, his father saw him and was moved with loving pity, and running he fell upon his neck and lovingly kissed him. ²¹And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. ²²But the father said to his servants, Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and give a ring for his hand, and sandals for his feet. ²³And when you have brought the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat and be merry — ²⁴for this my son was dead, and is alive again, and was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. ²⁵And his elder son was in the field. And as he came back and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶And calling one of his servants near, he asked what these things meant. ²⁷And he said to him, Your brother has come, and your father killed the fattened calf, because he has received him safe and sound. ²⁸He was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father went out and entreated him. ²⁹But answering he said to his father, Lo, these many years I served you and never disobeyed your commandment — and you never gave a kid to me that I might make merry with my friends. ³⁰But when this your son came, who wasted your living with harlots, you killed the fattened calf for him. ³¹But he said to him, Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. ³²But it was right to make merry and rejoice, because your brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and now is found.

CHAPTER 16

¹And He said also to His disciples, There was a certain rich man who had a manager. And he was accused to him as wasting his goods. ²And calling him he said to him, What is this I hear about you? Give me an account of your management; for you can no longer be manager. ³And the manager said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord is taking away the management from me? I am not able to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. ⁴I know what I will do, so that when I have been removed from the management they will receive me into their houses. ⁵And calling each one of his lord's debtors to him, he said to the first, How much do you owe my master? ⁶And he said, A hundred baths of oil. And he said to him, Sit down, take your bill and quickly write fifty. ⁷Then to another he said, And how much do you owe? And he said, A hundred homers of wheat. And he says to him, Take your bill and write eighty. ⁸And the master praised the unjust manager, that he had done that which was to his own interest. For the children of this world are in their generation more mindful of their interests than the children of the light in their own generation. ⁹And I say to you, Make friends to yourselves by the mammon of unrighteousness, so that when you fail they may receive you into the everlasting dwellings. ¹⁰He that is faithful in the least is faithful in much. And he that is unrighteous in the least is also unrighteous in much. ¹¹If, then, you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will entrust to you the true riches? ¹²And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? ¹³No servant is able to serve two masters — for either he will hate the one, and he will love the other — or else he will cling to the one, and he will despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

¹⁴And the Pharisees, who were greedy, also heard these things. And they scoffed at Him. ¹⁵And He said to them, You are they who justify themselves before men, but God knows your hearts — for that which is highly prized among men is a hateful thing before God. ¹⁶The Law and the Prophets were until John came. From that time the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone forces his way into it. ¹⁷But it is easier for the sky and the earth to pass away than for one tittle of the law to fail. ¹⁸Everyone who puts away his wife and marries another commits adultery; and everyone who marries her who is put away from her husband also commits adultery.

¹⁹Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, making merry every day in luxury. ²⁰And there was a certain beggar named Lāz'-ā-rūs, who was full of sores, and was laid at his gate, ²¹and who desired to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the table of the rich man. But even the dogs came and licked his sores. ²²And it came to pass that the beggar died. And he was carried away by the angels into the bosom of Abraham. And the rich man also died and was buried. ²³And being in torment in hell, lifting up his eyes, he saw Abraham afar off, and Lāz'-ā-rūs in his bosom. ²⁴And crying out he said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lāz'-ā-rūs, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue — for I am tormented in this flame. ²⁵But Abraham said, Son, remember that you fully received your good things in your lifetime, and Lāz'-ā-rūs likewise his evil things. But now he is comforted, and you are suffering. ²⁶And besides all these things, between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot do so, nor can they pass from there to us. ²⁷And he said, Then I beg you, father, that you send him to the house of my father, ²⁸for I have five brothers — so that he may earnestly witness to them, that they may not come to this place of torment also. ²⁹Abraham said to him, They have Moses and the Prophets, let them hear them. ³⁰But he says, No, father Abraham, but if one should go to them from the dead, they will repent. ³¹And he said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even though one should rise from the dead.

CHAPTER 17

¹And He said to the disciples, It is impossible that the offences should not come, but woe to him by whom they come. ²It is better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. ³Take heed to yourselves; and if your brother sin against you, rebuke him. And if he should repent, forgive him. ⁴And if he should sin against you seven times a day, and seven times in a day should return to you saying, I repent, you shall forgive him.

⁵And the apostles said to the Lord, Give us more faith. ⁶But the Lord said, If you had faith, as much as a grain of mustard, you might say to this sycamine tree, Be rooted up! and, Be planted in the sea! — and it would obey you. ⁷But which of you who has a servant plowing or feeding will say immediately when he has come from the field, Go and recline at table? ⁸But will he not say to him, Make ready that I may eat; and, Gird yourself and serve me while I eat and drink, and after these things you will eat and drink? ⁹Is he thankful to that servant because he did the things commanded him? I think not. ¹⁰So also when you have done all things commanded you, you say, We are unprofitable servants, for we have done that which it was our duty to do.

¹¹And it came to pass in His going up to Jerusalem that He passed through the middle of Să-mâr'-î-ă and Galilee. ¹²And on His entering into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met Him, who stood afar off. ¹³And they lifted up their voice, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. ¹⁴And seeing them He said to them, Go, show yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass as they went they were made clean. ¹⁵And seeing that he was healed, one of them turned back. And with a loud voice glorifying God, ¹⁶he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him: and he was a Să-mâr'-î-tăn. ¹⁷And answering Jesus said, Were not the ten made clean? but where are the other nine? ¹⁸Were there not any found returning to give glory to God except this stranger? ¹⁹And He said to him, Rise up and go, your faith has cured you.

²⁰And being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, He answered them and said, The kingdom of God does not come with careful watching. ²¹Nor shall they say, Lo, here! or, Behold, there! For behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you.

²²And He said to the disciples, The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and shall not see it. ²³And they will say to you, Lo, here! or, Behold, there! but do not go forth nor follow after them. ²⁴For as the lightning that flashes out of the one part under heaven and shines to the other part under heaven, so will the Son of man be in His day. ²⁵But first it is needful for Him to suffer many things and to be rejected of this generation. ²⁶And as it came to pass in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. ²⁷They were eating — they were drinking — they were marrying — they were being given in marriage — until the day Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. ²⁸And in the same way as it was in the days of Lot: they were eating — they were drinking — they were buying — they were selling — they were planting — they were building — ²⁹but on the day Lot went out from Sodom fire and brimstone rained from Heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰Even so shall it be in the day the Son of man is made known. ³¹In that day he who is on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And in the same way, he in the field, let him not return to the things behind: ³²Remember Lot's wife! ³³Whoever may try to save his life shall lose it. And whoever may lose it shall save it. ³⁴I say to you, In that night there shall be two men upon one bed — the one shall be taken and the other shall be left. ³⁵Two women shall be grinding together — one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. ³⁶Two men shall be in the field — the one shall be taken, and the other left. ³⁷And they answered, saying to Him, Where, Lord? And He said to them, Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

¹And He spoke also a parable to them to show that it is needful always to pray and not to faint, ²saying, There was a certain judge in a city, who neither feared God nor respected man. ³And there was a widow in that city, and she came to him, saying, Avenge me against my enemy. ⁴And he would not for a while, but afterwards he said within himself, Even though I do not fear God and do not respect man, ⁵yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, so that she will not wear me out by coming again and again. ⁶And the Lord said, Hear what the unrighteous judge says? ⁷And shall not God avenge His elect who cry to Him day and night, also being patient over them? ⁸I say to you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man comes, will He indeed find faith on the earth?

⁹And He spoke also this parable to certain ones who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and who despised others. ¹⁰Two men went up into the Temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. ¹¹The Pharisee was standing and praying this way within himself, God, I thank Thee that I am not like other men — robbers, unrighteous, adulterers, or even as this publican. ¹²I fast twice in the week, I tithe all things that I get. ¹³And standing far off, the publican would not even lift up his eyes to Heaven, but was beating on his breast, saying, O God, be merciful to me, a sinner! ¹⁴I say to you, This one went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone that exalts himself shall be humbled. And he that humbles himself shall be exalted.

¹⁵And they brought infants to Him too, that He might touch them. But seeing it, the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁶But calling them Jesus said,

Allow the little children to come unto Me, and do not forbid them; for of the like is the kingdom of God. ¹⁷Verily I say unto you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no way enter into it.

¹⁸And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? ¹⁹And Jesus said to him, Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One — God! ²⁰You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not bear false witness, honor your father and your mother. ²¹And he said, I have kept all these from my youth. ²²And hearing these things, Jesus said to him, Still one thing is lacking to you: Sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven — and come, follow Me. ²³But hearing these things, he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich. ²⁴And when Jesus saw him, becoming very sorrowful, He said, How hardly shall those having riches enter into the kingdom of God. ²⁵For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. ²⁶And those who heard said, Who then is able to be saved? ²⁷But He said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. ²⁸And Peter said, Lo! we have left all and followed Thee. ²⁹And He said to them, Verily I say unto you. There is no one who has left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God, ³⁰who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and life everlasting in the world that is coming.

³¹And taking the twelve to Him He said to them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets about the Son of man shall be done. ³²For He will be delivered up to the Gentiles and will be laughed at, and He will be insulted and will be spit upon. ³³And after they scourge Him, they will kill Him. And on the third day He will rise again. ³⁴And they did not understand any of these things, but the saying was hidden from them, and they did not know that which was said.

³⁵And it came to pass as He drew near to Jericho, a certain blind man sat beside the road begging. ³⁶And hearing the multitude passing by, he asked what this might mean. ³⁷And they told him, Jesus the Nāz'-ā-rēne, is passing by. ³⁸And he called out, saying, Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me. ³⁹And those passing by rebuked him that he should be quiet; but he cried out the more, Son of David, have mercy on me! ⁴⁰And Jesus stopped and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he came near, He asked him, ⁴¹saying, What do you desire me to do to you? And he said, Lord, that I may receive sight. ⁴²And Jesus said to him, Receive your sight! your faith has healed you. ⁴³And instantly he received sight and followed Him, glorifying God. And seeing it, all the people gave praise to God.

¹And after going into Jericho, He passed through it. ²And behold! a man named Zaccheus [Zäck-kêe'-ûs], and he was a chief tax-collector. And he was rich. ³And he was trying to see Jesus, to see who He was. But he was not able because of the crowd, for he was little in height. ⁴And running ahead beforehand, he climbed up into a sycamore tree so that he might see Him — for He was about to pass that way. ⁵And as He came to the place, Jesus looked up and saw him. And He said to him, Zăc-chē'-us! Hurry. Come down! for today I must stay in your house. ⁶And hurrying he came down and joyfully received Him. ⁷And seeing it, all murmured, saying, He has gone in to stay with a sinful man. ⁸And standing up, Zăc-chē'-us said to the Lord, Behold! Lord, I give half of what I own to the poor, and if I have taken anything from anyone by lying charges, I give him back fourfold. ⁹And Jesus said to him, Salvation has come to this house today, because he also is a son of Abraham — ¹⁰for the Son of man has come to seek and to save that which has been lost.

¹¹And as they were hearing many things, adding a parable, He spoke — because He was near Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God was immediately about to be revealed. ¹²He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive a kingdom for himself, and then to return. ¹³And calling ten of his servants, he gave to them ten minas. And he said to them, Do business until I come back. ¹⁴But his citizens hated him and sent a group of men after him saying, We do not desire this man to rule over us. ¹⁵And upon his return, after he had received the kingdom, it happened that he commanded these servants to be called to him — the ones to whom he gave the money — in order that he might know what each had gained by their business. ¹⁶And the first one came up, saying, Lord, your mina has gained ten minas. ¹⁷And he said to him, Well done, good servant. Because you have been faithful in a very little, you have authority over ten cities. ¹⁸And the second one came, saying, Lord, your mina has made five minas. ¹⁹And he said also to this one, You be over five cities. ²⁰And another one came, saying, Lord, Look upon your mina, which I have kept laid up in a handkerchief. ²¹For I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh man. You take up what you did not lay down, and you reap what you did not sow. ²²And he said to him, I will judge you out of your own mouth, wicked servant. You knew that I was a harsh man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow. ²³But why did you not give my money to the bank, so that when I came I could have exacted my own with interest? ²⁴And he said to those standing by, Take the mina away from him and give it to him who has the ten minas. ²⁵(And they said to him, Lord, he has ten minas.) ²⁶For I say to you, that to everyone who has, more shall be given. But from him who does not have, even that which he has shall be taken away from him. ²⁷Furthermore, bring here those who were unwilling for me to rule over them and kill them in front of me.

²⁸And saying these things He went on in front, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹And it happened, as He drew near to Bēth'-phā-gē and Bethany, towards the mount called the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples away, ³⁰saying, Go into the village over on the other side, in which, as you go in, you will find a colt tied up — on which no one has ever yet sat. After untying it, bring it here. ³¹And if anyone asks you, Why do you untie it? You shall say this to him, Because the Lord has need of it. ³²And going away, the ones who had been sent found it just as He had said to them. ³³And as they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, Why do you untie the colt? ³⁴And they said, The Lord has need of him. ³⁵And they led it to Jesus. And throwing their coats upon the colt, they set Jesus upon it. ³⁶And as He went, they were spreading their coats in the road.

³⁷And as He was drawing near, now at the descent of the Mount of Olives, all the multitude of the disciples began to praise God, rejoicing with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, ³⁸saying, Blessed is the King coming in the name of the Lord! (See ZECHARIAH 9:9). Peace in Heaven, and glory in the highest! ³⁹And some of the Pharisees said to Him from the multitude, Master, rebuke your disciples. ⁴⁰And answering He said to them, I say to you that if these should be silent the stones will cry out. ⁴¹And as He drew near, seeing the city, He wept over it, ⁴²saying, If you had known, even you, even at least in this your day, the things which are for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes: ⁴³because days shall come upon you that your enemies shall throw up a rampart around you and surround you. And they shall keep you in on every side ⁴⁴and shall level you to the ground, you and your children in you. And they shall not leave in you one stone on top of another, because you did not know the time of your visitation.

⁴⁵And going into the Temple, He began to throw out those selling and buying inside of it, ⁴⁶saying to them, It has been written, "My house is a house of prayer" but you have made it a den of thieves. (See JEREMIAH 7:11) ⁴⁷And He was teaching daily in the Temple. But the chief priests and the scribes were wanting to do away with Him, and the chief of the people too. ⁴⁸But they did not find what they could do, for the people all were hanging onto Him, listening.

CHAPTER 20

¹And it came to pass on one of those days, as He was teaching the people in the Temple and preaching the Gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came up with the elders ²and spoke to Him, saying, Tell us, by what authority do you do these things? or who is it who gave you this authority? ³And answering He said to them, I will ask you also one thing, and tell me; ⁴The baptism of John, was it from Heaven or from men? ⁵And they talked it over among themselves, saying, If we should say, From Heaven, he will say, Why then did you not believe him? ⁶But if we should say, From men, all the people will stone us — for they are persuaded that John was a prophet. ⁷And they answered that they did not know where. ⁸And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

⁹And He began to speak this parable to the people: A certain man planted a vineyard and let it out to vinedressers, and he left the country for a long time. ¹⁰And in time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that they might give him his part from the fruit of the vineyard. But beating him, the vinedressers sent him away empty. ¹¹And besides this, he sent another servant, but beating him and shamefully treating him, they sent him away empty. ¹²And besides this, he sent a third, and after wounding him they threw him out. ¹³And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be seeing him they will respect him. ¹⁴But seeing him, the vinedressers talked it over among themselves, saying, This is the heir. Come, let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours. ¹⁵And throwing him out of the vineyard, they killed him. What then will the lord of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and will do away with these vinedressers, and he will give the vineyard to others. And hearing this they said, Let it not be said! ¹⁷And looking at them He said, What then is this that has been written? “The Stone which the builders despised, this has become the chief Cornerstone” (See PSALM 118:22). ¹⁸Everyone that falls on that Stone will be broken, but on whomever it may fall, it will grind him to powder. ¹⁹And the chief priests and the scribes wanted to lay hands on Him in that hour, but they were afraid of the people — for they knew that He had spoken the parable against them.

²⁰And watching Him they sent out spies, pretending themselves to be righteous men so that they might lay hold of a word of His — so as to betray Him to the power and to the authority of the governor. ²¹And they questioned Him, saying, Master, we know that you say and teach rightly, and accept no one’s person, but truly do teach the way of God. ²²Is it right for us to give tribute to Caesar or not? ²³But seeing through their slyness, He said to them, Why do you tempt Me? ²⁴Show me a coin. Whose likeness and writing is this? And they said, Caesar’s. ²⁵And He said to them, Then give Caesar’s things to Caesar, and the things of God to God. ²⁶And they were not able to take hold of His words before the people. And wondering at His answer they were silent.

²⁷And some of the Sād’-dū-cēes came up (who deny there is a resurrection). They questioned Him ²⁸saying, Master, Moses wrote to us, If anyone's brother should have a wife and he should die without children, that his brother should take the wife and should raise up seed to his brother. ²⁹There were, therefore, seven brothers. And the first one took a wife and died without children. ³⁰And the second one took the woman, and he died without children. ³¹And the third one took her, and in the same way also the seven died and left no children. ³²And last of all the woman died also. ³³Therefore, in the resurrection, of which one of these does she become the wife? For the seven all had her as wife. ³⁴And answering Jesus said to them, The children of this world marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵But those counted worthy to reach that world, and the resurrection which is from among the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage — ³⁶neither can they die any more — for they are equal to angels and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. ³⁷But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. ³⁸But He is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live for Him. ³⁹And then some of the scribes answering said, Master, you have spoken well. ⁴⁰And never any more did they dare to ask Him anything.

⁴¹And He said to them, How do they say that Christ is the son of David? ⁴²And David himself said in the book of Psalms, "The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit Thou on My right hand ⁴³until I place Thy enemies as a footstool for Thy feet" (See PSALM 110:1). ⁴⁴David therefore calls Him Lord, and how then is He his son?

⁴⁵And as all the people were listening, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁶Be-ware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the market-places, and the first seats in the synagogues, and the first places in the feasts — ⁴⁷who devour the houses of widows, and as a pre-tense pray long prayers. These shall receive a greater judgment.

CHAPTER 21

¹And looking up He saw the rich men putting their gifts into the treasury. ²And He also saw a certain poor widow putting two mites in there. ³And He said, Truly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all. ⁴For all these have put into the offerings of God out of their plenty, but she out of her want has put in all the living that she had.

⁵And as some were speaking about the Temple, that it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, He said, ⁶As to these things which you are seeing, the days will come in which there shall not be left a stone on top of a stone which shall not be thrown down. ⁷And they asked Him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign when these things are about to take place? ⁸And He said, Be careful that you are not led astray — for many will come in My name, saying, I am Christ; and, The time has come. Do not go after them. ⁹And when you shall hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified — for all these things must take place first — but the end is not at once.

¹⁰Then He was saying to them, Nation shall rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹Also there shall be great earthquakes in different places, and famines and plagues. There shall be fearful sights and great signs from Heaven. ¹²But before these things, they will lay their hands upon all of you and will persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons — bringing you before kings and governors on account of My name. ¹³But it shall return to you for a testimony. ¹⁴Settle, then, in your hearts not to be studying beforehand how to reply — ¹⁵For I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all those who are against you will not be able to gainsay nor resist. ¹⁶But you will be betrayed even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷And you will be hated by all men because of My name. ¹⁸But in no way may a hair of your head perish. ¹⁹In your patience you shall gain the life of your souls.

²⁰But when you see Jerusalem being encircled with armies, then you know that her ruin has drawn near. ²¹Then those in Judea, let them flee into the mountains. And those in the middle of her, let them go out. And those in the countries, let them not enter into her — ²²for these are the days of avenging, that all things that have been written may be done. ²³But woe to those with child, and to those giving suck in those days! for there shall be a great misery upon the land, and anger against this people. ²⁴And they shall fall by the edge of the sword and shall be led captive into all nations. And Jerusalem shall be trodden underfoot by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

²⁵And there shall be signs in the sun and moon and stars. And there shall be a strangling of nations upon the earth, with bewilderment; with the sea and the waves roaring, ²⁶men's hearts failing them from fear, and looking for that which is coming upon the earth — for the powers of Heaven shall be shaken. ²⁷And then they shall see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with great power and glory. ²⁸But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near. ²⁹And He spoke a parable to them: Look at the fig-tree and all the trees; ³⁰now when they sprout, you know by looking on them yourselves that summer is now near. ³¹So, also, when you see these things coming to pass, you know that the kingdom of God is near. ³²Verily I say unto you that in no way will this generation have passed away until all shall have come to pass. ³³The sky and the earth shall pass away, but My words in no way shall pass away. ³⁴But be careful of yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with headaches and drunkenness and cares of this life — and that day should suddenly come upon you —^{35f} for it shall come as a snare upon all those sitting upon the face of the whole earth. ³⁶ Watch therefore, praying in every season that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things which are about to come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man.

³⁷ And He was teaching in the Temple during the day and going out by night. He was staying on the mount called the Mount of Olives. ³⁸ And all the people came early in the morning to Him, to hear Him in the Temple.

⁷ And the day of unleavened bread came, in which the passover must be sacrificed. ⁸ And He sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare the passover for us so that we may eat. ⁹ But they said to Him, Where dost Thou desire that we should make ready? ¹⁰ And He said to them, Behold! on your entering into the city, you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him to the house where he goes, ¹¹ and you shall say to the master of the house, The Master says to you, Where is the guest-room where My disciples and I may eat the passover? ¹² And he will show you a large, furnished upper room. ¹³ Make ready there. And going on they found it as He had said to them. And they made the passover ready.

¹⁴ And when the hour arrived, He reclined at table, and the twelve apostles were with Him. ¹⁵ And He said to them, With great longing I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶ For I say to you that I will never eat with you any more until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God. ¹⁷ And taking a cup, giving thanks, He said, Take this and divide it among yourselves. ¹⁸ For I say to you that I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God has come. ¹⁹ And taking a loaf, giving thanks, He broke it and gave to them, saying, This is My body which is given for you: this do in the remembrance of Me. ²⁰ And the cup, in the same way after the taking of supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you. ²¹ Furthermore, behold! the hand of him who betrays Me is with Me on the table — ²² and truly the Son of Man goes just as it has been marked out, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed! ²³And they began to ask among themselves then as to which of them it might be who would do this thing.

²⁴And there was a striving among them as to this: which of them is to be thought the greater. ²⁵And He said to them, The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called benefactors. ²⁶But you shall not be so — but he who is greater among you, let him be as the younger, and he who leads as he that serves. ²⁷For which is greater? he that reclines at table, or he that serves? Is not he that reclines at table? But I am in the midst of you as he who serves. ²⁸However, you are they who have continued with Me in My temptations. ²⁹And I appoint to you a kingdom, as My Father has appointed to Me, ³⁰that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and that you may sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, Behold! Satan has claimed you for himself, in order to sift you as wheat. ³²But I have prayed for you, that your faith fail not — and when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers. ³³And he said to Him, Lord, I am ready to go with Thee both into prison and into death. ³⁴And He said, I tell you, Peter, surely the cock shall not crow today before you deny knowing Me three times.

³⁵And He said to them, When I sent you without purse and bag and shoes, did you lack anything? And they said, Nothing. ³⁶Then He said to them, However, now he who has a purse, let him take it. And in the same way also take your bag. And he who does not have one, let him sell his coat and buy a sword. ³⁷For I say to you that this that has been written must still be fulfilled in Me, “And He was numbered with the transgressors” (See ISAIAH 53:12) — for the things concerning Me have an end too. ³⁸And they said, Lord, Behold, here are two swords. And He said to them, It is enough.

³⁹And going out, according to His custom He went to the Mount of Olives. And His disciples also followed Him. ⁴⁰And arriving at the place, He said to them, Pray that you do not enter into temptation. ⁴¹And He was withdrawn from them about a stone’s throw. And falling on His knees He prayed, ⁴²saying, Father, if Thou be willing, remove this cup from Me: nevertheless not My will, but Thine be done. ⁴³And there appeared an angel to Him from Heaven, strengthening Him. ⁴⁴And being in an agony He prayed more earnestly. And His sweat became as great drops of blood falling down to the ground. ⁴⁵And rising up from prayer, coming to the disciples, He found them sleeping from the sorrow. ⁴⁶And He said to them, Why do you sleep? Rise and pray, so that you may not enter into temptation.

⁴⁷And as He was yet speaking, Behold, a multitude! and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, was coming in front of them — and he drew near to Jesus to kiss Him. ⁴⁸But Jesus said to him, Judas, do you betray the Son of man with a kiss? ⁴⁹And, those around Him seeing what was about to happen, they said to Him, Lord, shall we strike with the sword? ⁵⁰And a certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. ⁵¹And answering, Jesus said, Let them go this far. And touching the man's ear, He healed him. ⁵²And Jesus said to those who had come out against Him, chief priests and captains of the Temple and elders, Have you come out with swords and staves, as if against a thief? ⁵³When I was with you daily in the Temple you did not stretch out your hands against Me — but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

⁵⁴And taking hold of Him, they led Him and took Him into the house of the high priest. And Peter was following afar off. ⁵⁵And they kindled a fire in the midst of the court and sat down together, and Peter sat among them. ⁵⁶And seeing him sitting by the light, and looking closely upon him, a certain girl said, This man was with him too! ⁵⁷But he denied Him, saying, Woman, I do not know Him. ⁵⁸And after a little while, another beholding him said, You are one of them too. Put Peter said, Man, I am not! ⁵⁹And about one hour going by, a certain other one said confidently, Truly, this one was with him too, for he is a Galilean. ⁶⁰And Peter said, Man, I do not know what you say. And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock crew. ⁶¹And turning around, the Lord looked at Peter, and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, Before the cock crow, you will deny Me three times. ⁶²And going out, Peter cried bitterly.

⁶³And the men who were holding Jesus made fun of Him, beating Him. ⁶⁴And blindfolding Him, they were slapping His face, and were asking Him, saying, Prophesy! Who is it that hit you? ⁶⁵And many other things they said to Him, blaspheming Him.

⁶⁶And when it became day, the elders of the people, both the chief priests and scribes, gathered together. And they led Him in to their sān-hē'-drin, saying, ⁶⁷If you are the Christ, tell us. And He said to them, If I should tell you, you will in no way believe it; ⁶⁸and if I also ask you, you will not answer Me at all, nor let Me go. ⁶⁹From this time the Son of man shall be sitting at the right hand of the power of God. ⁷⁰And they all said, Are you then the Son of God? And He said to them, You say it, because I am! ⁷¹And they said, What need do we have of any more witness, for we ourselves heard from his own mouth?

CHAPTER 23

¹And rising the whole multitude of them led Him to Pilate. ²And they began to accuse Him, saying, We found this man leading the nation

astray and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he is Christ, a king. ³And Pilate questioned Him, saying, Are you the king of the Jews? And answering him He said, You say it. ⁴And Pilate said to the chief priests and the people, I do not find any fault in this man. ⁵But they were more urgent, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout the whole of Judea, beginning from Galilee even to here. ⁶But hearing Galilee, Pilate asked if the man was a Gāl-ī-lé'-ān. ⁷And learning that He was from the district of Herod, he sent Him to Herod (he also being at Jerusalem in those days).

⁸And seeing Jesus, Herod rejoiced greatly, for he had been wishing to see Him for a long time, because of hearing many things about Him. And he was hoping to see some miracle done by Him. ⁹And he questioned Him in many words, but He answered him nothing. ¹⁰And the chief priests and the scribes had stood, furiously making charges against Him. ¹¹And Herod humiliated Him with his troops and made fun of Him. And dressing Him with gorgeous clothing, he sent Him back to Pilate. ¹²And that same day Pilate and Herod became friends with one another — for before they were at odds between themselves.

¹³And calling the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴Pilate said to them, You brought this man to me as one turning away the people. But behold, I have examined him in front of you, I found no fault in this man as to the things which you charged against him — ¹⁵nor even Herod, for I sent you up to him — and behold! nothing worthy of death is done by him. ¹⁶Therefore, after I beat him, I will let him go. ¹⁷(For it was needful for him to release one to them at every feast.) ¹⁸And they cried out all together, saying, Away with this man! and, Release Bā-rāb'-bās to us ¹⁹(who was thrown into prison because of a certain revolt and murder done in the city). ²⁰Again, then, Pilate called to them, wishing to let Jesus go. ²¹But they were crying out, saying, Crucify him! Crucify him! ²²And a third time he said to them, Why, then, what evil did this one do? I have found no cause of death in him. Therefore after I beat him, I will let him go. ²³But they were urgent with loud voices, asking for Him to be crucified. And the voices of them, and of the chief priests, prevailed. ²⁴And Pilate gave judgment that their request should be granted. ²⁵And he released to them the one who had been thrown into prison for revolt and murder, whom they had asked for. But he delivered up Jesus to their will.

²⁶And as they led Him away, laying hold on one Simon (a Cy-rē'nī-ān coming from the country) they put the cross upon him, to carry it behind Jesus. ²⁷And a great crowd of the people were following Him, and of women, who were smiting their breasts and weeping over Him. ²⁸But Jesus turning to them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹For behold, days are coming in which they will say, Happy are the barren, and the wombs which did not bear, and the breasts which never gave suck. ³⁰Then they shall begin to say to the mountains, Fall upon us! and to the hills, Cover us! ³¹For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall happen in the dry?

³²And two other evildoers were also led away with Him, to be put to death. ³³And when they came to the place called Calvary, they crucified Him and the evildoers — the one on the right, and the other on the left. ³⁴And Jesus said, Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do. And dividing His clothes, they threw dice for them. ³⁵And the people stood looking on. And the rulers made fun of Him, saying, He saved others, let him save himself if this is the Christ, the chosen of God. ³⁶And the soldiers also made fun of Him, coming near and offering Him vinegar, ³⁷and saying, If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself. ³⁸And there was also a title written over Him in Greek and Latin and Hebrew letters: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁹Now one of the evildoers who had been hanged railed at Him, saying, If you are the Christ, save yourself and us. ⁴⁰But the other answered and rebuked him, saying, Do you not even fear God, you that are under the same judgment? ⁴¹And we indeed justly — for we get what we deserve for what we did — but this One did nothing wrong. ⁴²And he said to Jesus, Remember me, Lord, when Thou dost come in Thy kingdom. ⁴³And Jesus said to him, Verily I say unto you, Today you shall be with Me in Paradise.

⁴⁴And it was about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁵And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the Temple was torn in the middle. ⁴⁶And crying out with a loud voice, Jesus said, Father, into Thy hands I commit My spirit. And saying these things, He breathed forth the spirit. ⁴⁷Now the centurion, seeing that which took place, glorified God, saying, Certainly this Man was righteous. ⁴⁸And all the people who had come together to this sight, seeing the things which took place, returned, beating their breasts. ⁴⁹And all those who knew Him stood afar off, also the women who followed Him from Galilee, watching these things.

⁵⁰And behold! a man named Joseph (who was a council member, a good and righteous man — ⁵¹he had not agreed to their decision and deed), a man from Ār-ī-mā-thē'-ā, a city of the Jews — and who himself was also waiting for the kingdom of God. ⁵²Going to Pilate, he begged the body of Jesus. ⁵³And taking it down, he wrapped it in a linen cloth and laid it in a tomb cut in a rock, in which no one ever had been laid. ⁵⁴And it was the day of preparation, and sabbath was coming on.

⁵⁵And the women who had come with Him out of Galilee also followed after Joseph, and they saw the tomb and how His body was laid. ⁵⁶And returning they prepared spices and ointments. And on the Sabbath they remained quiet, according to the commandment.

¹But on the first day of the week at early dawn they came to the tomb, bringing spices which they had prepared, and certain ones with them. ²And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. ³And going in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴And it came to pass as they were bewildered about this, Behold! two men stood beside them in shining clothes. ⁵And they began to be filled with fear and bowed down their faces to the earth. They said to them, Why do you look for the living among the dead? ⁶He is not here, but has risen. Remember how He spoke to you while He was yet in Galilee, ⁷saying, It is necessary for the Son of Man to be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and to be crucified, and to rise again the third day. ⁸And they remembered His words. ⁹And returning from the tomb, they told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now it was Mary Măg'-dă-lēne, and Jō-ān'-nă, and Mary, mother of James, and the rest with them, who told these things to the apostles. ¹¹And their words seemed to them like idle talk, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter rising up ran to the tomb. And stooping down, he saw the linen clothes lying by themselves and went away wondering at that which had happened.

¹³And behold! two of them were going to a village called Ĕm-mă'-ūs on that same day, which was sixty furlongs from Jerusalem. ¹⁴And they were talking with one another about all these things which had happened. ¹⁵And it came to pass, as they talked and reasoned together, that Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. ¹⁶But their eyes were held, so as not to know Him. ¹⁷And He said to them, What kind of words are these which you debate with one another as you walk, and are sad? ¹⁸And answering the one named Clē'-o-pās said to Him, Are you only a stranger in Jerusalem and have not known the things which have come to pass in it in these days? ¹⁹And He said to them, What things? And they said to Him, The things about Jesus the Năz'-ă-rēne, who was a prophet, mighty in deed and word before God and all the people — ²⁰and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him up to a sentence of death and crucified Him? ²¹But we were hoping that He was the One who is about to redeem Israel. But also with all these things, this is the third day since these things happened, ²²and furthermore certain women from among us went early to the tomb, ²³and not finding His body, they came claiming to have seen also a vision of angels, who say He is living. ²⁴And some of those with us went to the tomb and found it even as the women said, but they did not see Him. ²⁵And He said to them, O fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Was it not necessary for Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?

²⁷And beginning from Moses, and from all the prophets, He explained to them the things about Himself in all the Scriptures. ²⁸And they drew near to the village where they were going, and He appeared to be going farther. ²⁹But they pressed Him, saying, Stay with us, for it is towards evening and the day has declined. And He went in to stay with them. ³⁰And it came to pass as He reclined at table with them, taking the bread, He blessed it, and breaking it, He gave it to them. ³¹And their eyes were opened and they knew Him. And He vanished from them. ³²And they said to one another, Did not our heart burn within us while He was speaking to us in the way, and as He was opening the Scriptures to us? ³³And rising up that same hour they went back to Jerusalem, and they found the eleven gathered together, and those with them, ³⁴saying, The Lord has truly risen and has appeared to Simon. ³⁵And they told what things happened in the way, and how He was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

³⁶And as they were telling these things, Jesus Himself stood in their midst and said to them, Peace unto you! ³⁷But being terrified and filled with fear they thought they beheld a spirit. ³⁸And He said to them, Why are you troubled? And why do doubtings arise in your heart? ³⁹Behold! My hands and My feet, that I am He! Handle Me and see! for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see Me having. ⁴⁰And saying this He showed them His hands and feet. ⁴¹And while they were still not believing for joy, and were wondering, He said to them, Have you anything here to eat? ⁴²And they gave to Him a piece of a broiled fish, and of a honeycomb. ⁴³And taking it, He ate before them. ⁴⁴And He said to them, These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which have been written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and Psalms about Me. ⁴⁵Then He opened their understanding that they might understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁶and said to them, So it has been written, and so it was necessary that the Christ should suffer and rise from among the dead the third day; ⁴⁷and that repentance and remission should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸And you are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And behold, I send the promise of My Father upon you — but stay in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high.

⁵⁰And He led them out as far as to Bethany, and lifting up His hands He blessed them. ⁵¹And it came to pass as He was blessing them He was separated from them and was carried up into Heaven. ⁵²And after they had worshipped Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy. ⁵³And they were continually in the Temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

The Gospel According to JOHN

CHAPTER 1

¹In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things came into being through Him. And without Him not even one thing was made that has come into being. ⁴In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not lay hold of it.

⁶There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷He came for a witness, that he might witness concerning the Light — so that all might believe through Him. ⁸He was not the Light, but came so that he might witness concerning the Light — ⁹*that* was the true Light, which is shining upon every man coming into the world. ¹⁰He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him. ¹¹He came unto that which was His own, but His own did not receive Him. ¹²But as many as did receive Him, He gave to them the authority to become children of God — to those that believe in His name — ¹³who were not born of blood, nor of the will of flesh, nor of the will of man, but were born of God.

¹⁴And the Word became flesh and lived among us. And we beheld His glory, the glory as of an only-begotten of the Father — full of grace and truth. ¹⁵John bears witness about Him and has cried out, saying, This was He of whom I said, He who comes after me has the right to go before me, for He was before me. ¹⁶And we all received of His fullness, and grace on top of grace. ¹⁷For the Law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came into being through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸No one has seen God at any time, the only-begotten Son has revealed Him, (He who is in the bosom of the Father).

¹⁹And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem that they might ask him, Who are you? ²⁰And he confessed and did not deny, but said, I am not the Christ. ²¹And they asked him, What then? Are you Elijah? And he said, I am not. Are you the Prophet? And he answered, No! ²²They said then to him, Who are you, so that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself? ²³He said, "I am a voice crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord," as Isaiah the prophet said (See ISALAH 40:3). ²⁴And those who had been sent were from among the Pharisees. ²⁵And they asked him, and said to him, Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet? ²⁶John answered them saying, I baptize with water; but One stands in your midst whom you do not know. ²⁷It is He who is coming after me, who has been before me, of whom I am not worthy to untie the thong of His sandal.

²⁸These things happened in Bēth-āb'-ā-rā beyond the Jordan River, where John was baptizing.

²⁹The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! ³⁰This is He about whom I said, After me a Man comes who has the right to go before me, because He was before me. ³¹And I did not know Him — but in order that He might be shown to Israel, therefore I came baptizing with water. ³²And John witnessed, saying, I have seen the Spirit coming down like a dove out of Heaven, and it stayed upon Him. ³³And I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water, He said to me, He upon whom you shall see the Spirit coming down and staying upon Him, this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. ³⁴And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.

³⁵Again the next day John was standing, and two of his disciples also. ³⁶And looking upon Jesus walking, he says, Behold! The Lamb of God! ³⁷And the two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸But turning and looking at them following, Jesus said to them, What do you seek? And they said to Him, Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are you staying? ³⁹He said to them, Come and see. They went and saw where He was staying, and they stayed with Him that day. And it was about the tenth hour. ⁴⁰Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard this from John, and followed Him. ⁴¹He first finds his own brother, Simon, and said to him, We have found the Messiah (which translated means, The Christ). ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus. And looking at him, Jesus said, You are Simon the son of Jonah, you shall be called Cephas [Sēe'fās] (which translated means, A stone).

⁴³On the next day Jesus wanted to go into Galilee, and He found Philip and said to him, Follow Me! ⁴⁴Now Philip was from Bēth-sā'-ī-dā, the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵Philip found Nā-thān'-ā-ēl and said to him, We have found Him of whom Moses wrote in the Law and the Prophets: Jesus the son of Joseph, who is from Nāz'-ā-rēth. ⁴⁶And Nā-thān'-ā-ēl said to him, Can any good thing come out of Nāz'-ā-rēth? Philip answered him, Come and see. ⁴⁷Jesus saw Nā-thān'-ā-ēl coming to Him and said concerning him, Behold! Truly an Israelite in whom there is no guile. ⁴⁸Nā-thān'-ā-ēl said to Him, From where dost Thou know me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you. ⁴⁹Nā-thān'-ā-ēl answered and said to Him, Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God! Thou art the King of Israel! ⁵⁰Jesus answered and said to him, Do you believe because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree? You shall see greater things than these. ⁵¹And He said to him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, From this time on you shall see Heaven open, and the angels of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man.

¹And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. And the mother of Jesus was there. ²And Jesus was invited to the marriage, and His disciples also. ³And when the wine was gone, the mother of Jesus said to Him, They have no wine. ⁴Jesus answered her, What is that to Me and to you, woman? My hour has not yet come. ⁵His mother said to the servants, Whatever He may say to you, do it. ⁶And there were six waterpots of stone, placed according to the cleansing laws of the Jews, each one holding two or three measures. ⁷Jesus said to them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸And He said to them, Draw out now and carry to the master of the feast. And they carried it. ⁹But when the master of the feast had tasted the water that had become wine, he did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew). The master of the feast called the bridegroom ¹⁰and said to him, Every man, at first, sets out the good wine. And when they have drunk freely, then he sets out that which is worse. But you have kept the good wine until now. ¹¹This, the beginning of the miracles, Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and showed forth His glory. And His disciples believed on Him.

¹²After this He went down to Că-per'-nă-ūm, He and His mother and His brothers and His disciples. And they did not stay there many days. ¹³And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴And He found in the Temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money-changers sitting there. ¹⁵And making a whip of small cords, He drove them all out of the Temple, and also the sheep and the oxen. And He poured out the money of the money-changers and overthrew the tables. ¹⁶And He said to those who sold the doves, Take these things away from here! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise. ¹⁷And His disciples remembered that it was written, "The zeal of Thy house has eaten Me up" (See PsALM 69:9). ¹⁸Then the Jews answered and said to Him, What sign do you show us that you do these things? ¹⁹Jesus answered them and said, Destroy this Temple and in three days I will raise it up. ²⁰Then the Jews said, This Temple was forty-six years in building, and will you raise it up in three days? ²¹But He spoke concerning the Temple of His body. ²²When therefore He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this to them, and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

²³Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many looking upon His miracles which He was doing believed on His name. ²⁴But Jesus did not trust Himself to them, because of His knowledge of all men, ²⁵and because He had no need that any should testify about man, for He knew what was in man.

¹And there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nīc-ō-dēm'-ūs, a ruler of the Jews. ²He came to Jesus by night and said to Him, Rabbi, we know that Thou art a Teacher come from God, for no one is able to do these miracles which Thou art doing unless God be with him. ³Jesus answered and said to him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Unless a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ⁴Nīc-ō-dē'-mūs said to Him, How can a man be born, being old? Can he enter a second time into the womb of his mother and be born? ⁵Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Unless a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. ⁶That which has been born of the flesh is flesh — and that which has been born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷Do not marvel that I said to you, You need to be born again. ⁸The Spirit breathes where He desires, and His voice you hear, but you do not know from where He comes and where He goes — so is everyone who has been born of the Spirit.

⁹Nīc-ō-dē'-mūs answered and said to Him, How can these things be? ¹⁰Jesus answered and said to him, Are you the teacher of Israel and do not know these things? ¹¹Verily, verily, I say unto you, We speak that which we know, and bear witness of that which we have seen, yet you do not receive our witness. ¹²If I told you earthly things, and you do not believe, how shall you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³And no man has gone up into Heaven, except He who came down out of Heaven — the Son of Man who is in Heaven. ¹⁴And even as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵so that everyone who believes on Him may not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁶For God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whosoever believes on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁷For God did not send His Son into the world that He might judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. ¹⁸He that believes on Him is not condemned. But he that does not believe has been condemned already — because he has not believed on the name of the only-begotten Son of God. ¹⁹And this is the condemnation, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light — for their works were evil. ²⁰For everyone that practices evil hates the Light and does not come to the Light, so that his works may not be discovered. ²¹But he that practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his works may be known, that they have been fashioned in God.

²²After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea. And He stayed there with them and was baptizing. ²³And John also was baptizing in Ē'-nōn, near Sā'-līm, because there were many waters there. And they were coming and were being baptized — ²⁴for

John was not yet thrown into prison. ²⁵Then there arose a question from the disciples of John with some Jews about cleansing. ²⁶And they came to John and said to him, Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have borne witness, lo and behold! He is baptizing, and all come to Him. ²⁷John answered and said, A man is not able to receive anything unless it is given to him from Heaven. ²⁸You yourselves bear me witness that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before Him. ²⁹He that has the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice — therefore my joy is complete. ³⁰It is right for Him to increase, but me to decrease. ³¹He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth is of the earth, and he speaks of the earth. He who comes from Heaven is above all, ³²and what He has seen and heard, this He testifies, and no man receives His witness. ³³He that has received His witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. ³⁴For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives not the Spirit by measure. ³⁵The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand. ³⁶He that believes on the Son has everlasting life. But he that refuses to obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains upon him.

¹Then when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John ²(although indeed Jesus Himself was not baptizing, but His disciples), ³He left Judea, and went away again into Galilee. ⁴And it was necessary for Him to pass through Sā-mâr'-i-ā. ⁵He came, then, to a city of Sā-mâr'-i-ā called Sy'-châr, near the parcel of ground which Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ⁶And Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from the journey, sat thus upon the well. It was about the sixth hour. ⁷A woman came out of Sā-mâr'-i-ā to draw water. Jesus said to her, Give Me to drink ⁸(for His disciples had gone away into the city that they might buy food). ⁹The Sā-mâr'-i-tān woman then said to Him, How is it that you, being a Jew, ask a drink of me, being a Sā-mâr'-i-tān woman? For Jews have no dealing with Sā-mâr'-i-tāns. ¹⁰Jesus answered and said to her, If you had known the gift of God, and who it is that says to you, Give Me to drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given living water to you. ¹¹The woman says to Him, Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do you get the living water? ¹²Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and himself drank of it, and his sons and his cattle? ¹³Jesus answered and said to her, Everyone that drinks of this water will thirst again. ¹⁴But whoever may drink of the water which I will give him shall never ever thirst — but the water which I will give to him shall become within him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. ¹⁵The woman said to Him, Sir, give me this water so that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw. ¹⁶Jesus says to her, Go, call your husband and come back here. ¹⁷The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, Well did you say, I have no husband. ¹⁸For you have had five husbands, and he whom you have now is not your husband — you have truly spoken this.

¹⁹The woman said to Him, Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. ²⁰Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is necessary to worship. ²¹Jesus said to her, Woman, believe Me that the hour is coming when you shall worship the Father neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²²You worship what you do not know. We worship what we know — for salvation is of the Jews. ²³But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth — for the Father also seeks the ones who worship Him. ²⁴God is a spirit, and they that worship Him must worship in spirit and truth. ²⁵The woman said to Him, I know that Messiah is coming, who is called Christ. When He comes He will tell us all things. ²⁶Jesus said to her, I am He who speaks to you. ²⁷And upon this His disciples came and marveled that He talked with the woman. However, no one said, What dost Thou seek? or, Why dost Thou speak with her?

²⁸The woman then left her waterpot and went away into the city and said to the men, ²⁹Come! see a man who told me all things I ever had done. Is this not the Christ? ³⁰Therefore they went forth out of the city and came to Him.

³¹But in the meantime, His disciples were asking Him, saying, Master, eat. ³²But He said to them, I have food to eat which you do not know. ³³Therefore the disciples said to one another, Did anyone bring Him anything to eat? ³⁴Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work. ³⁵Do not say that it is yet four months and the harvest comes. Behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes and see the fields, for they are white unto harvest already. ³⁶And he that reaps receives a reward and gathers fruit unto everlasting life — so that both he who is sowing and he who is reaping may rejoice together. ³⁷For in this matter the saying is true, that there is one who sows, and another who reaps. ³⁸I sent you to reap that on which you have not labored: others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.

³⁹And many of the Sā-mâr'-î-tāns out of that city believed on Him, because of the word of the woman saying, He told me all things I ever had done. ⁴⁰Then when the Sā-mâr'-î-tāns came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them. And He stayed there two days. ⁴¹And many more believed because of His word ⁴²and said to the woman, We no longer believe because of your saying, for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this is truly the Saviour of the world, the Christ.

⁴³But after the two days, He departed from there and went away into Galilee. ⁴⁴For Jesus Himself bore witness that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵Then when He came into Galilee, the Gāl-i-lē'-āns received Him (having seen all things which He did in Jerusalem during the feast, for they also went to the feast).

⁴⁶Then Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where He made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick in Cā-per'-nā-ūm. ⁴⁷Hearing that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and begged Him that He would come down and heal his son — for he was about to die. ⁴⁸Then Jesus said to him, Unless you see miracles and wonders, you will not believe. ⁴⁹The nobleman said to Him, Sir, come down before my little child dies. ⁵⁰Jesus said to him, Go! Your son lives! And the man believed the word which Jesus spoke to him and went away. ⁵¹But even as he was going down, his servants met him and reported, saying, Your child lives. ⁵²He therefore asked of them the hour in which he got better. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. ⁵³So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, Your son lives. And he himself believed, and his whole house. ⁵⁴This again is a second miracle that Jesus did, coming out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

¹After these things there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ²Now there is a pool at the sheepgate in Jerusalem, which is called in Hebrew Bēth-ēs'-dā, having five porches. ³In these were lying a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, withered, awaiting the moving of the water. ⁴For at a certain time an angel came down into the pool and stirred the water. Then the first one who entered after the stirring of the water became well, whatever disease held him. ⁵And a certain man was there, who had been sick thirty-eight years. ⁶Seeing him lying there, and knowing that he had already been there a long time, Jesus said to him, Do you want to become well? ⁷The ailing man answered Him, Sir, I have no man, that he may put me into the pool when the water has been stirred. But while I am coming, another goes down in front of me. ⁸Jesus said to him, Arise! Take up your bed and walk. ⁹And instantly the man was made well and took up his bed. And he was walking, and that day was a sabbath. ¹⁰Therefore the Jews said to him who had been healed, It is the Sabbath, it is not lawful for you to take up the bed. ¹¹He answered them, The One who made me well said to me, Take up your bed and walk. ¹²Then they asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? ¹³But he who had been healed did not know who He was. For Jesus had moved away, since a crowd was in that place.

¹⁴Afterward Jesus found him in the Temple and said to him, Behold! you have become well. Sin no more so that a worse thing does not happen to you. ¹⁵The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who made him well. ¹⁶And because of this the Jews persecuted Jesus and wanted to kill Him, because He had done these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷But Jesus answered them, My Father works until now, and I work. ¹⁸Therefore, because of this, the Jews wanted even more to kill Him — because He not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God His own Father, making Himself equal with God. ¹⁹Then Jesus answered and said to them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son is not able to do anything of Himself, except what He may see the Father doing — for whatever He does, the Son does these things also in the same way. ²⁰For the Father loves the Son and shows all things to Him which He Himself does. And He will show Him greater works than these in order that you may marvel. ²¹For even as the Father raises up the dead and gives life, so also the Son gives life to whomever He will. ²²For the Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, ²³so that all may honor the Son even as they honor the Father. He that honors not the Son honors not the Father who sent Him. ²⁴Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that hears My word and believes on Him who sent Me has everlasting life and does not come into judgment — but has passed out of death into life.

²⁵Verily, verily, I say unto you that the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and those that hear shall live. ²⁶For even as the Father has life in Himself, so also He gave to the Son to have life in Himself. ²⁷And He gave to Him also authority to execute judgment, because He is the Son of man. ²⁸Do not marvel at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the graves shall hear His voice ²⁹and shall come forth — those who practiced good to the resurrection of life — and those who practiced evil to the resurrection of judgment. ³⁰I am not able to do anything of Myself; even as I hear, I judge — and My judgment is right because I do not seek My own will, but the will of the Father, who sent Me. ³¹If I bear witness about Myself, My witness is not true. ³²There is another who bears witness about Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesses about Me is true. ³³You have sent to John, and he has witnessed to the truth. ³⁴But I do not receive witness from man, but these things I say that you may be saved. ³⁵He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for an hour in his light. ³⁶But I have a witness greater than John's. For the works which the Father gave Me, that I should finish them, the works themselves which I do witness about Me — that the Father has sent Me. ³⁷And the Father who sent Me has Himself witnessed about Me. Neither have you heard His voice at any time, nor have you seen His shape. ³⁸And you do not have His word living within you, for you do not believe Him whom He sent.

³⁹You search the Scriptures, for you think in them you have everlasting life. And those Scriptures are they which are witnessing about Me — ⁴⁰and you are not willing to come unto Me so that you may have life. ⁴¹I do not receive glory from men — ⁴²but I have known you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. ⁴³I have come in the name of My Father, and you do not receive Me. If another should come in his own name, you will receive him. ⁴⁴How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and the glory which is from the only God you do not desire? ⁴⁵Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, Moses, in whom you have hoped. ⁴⁶For if you believed Moses, you would have believed Me — for he wrote of Me. ⁴⁷But if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe My words?

¹After these things Jesus went away over the Sea of Galilee, the Tiber'—i-ān Sea, ²and a great multitude followed Him — because they saw His miracles which He worked upon those who were sick. ³And Jesus went up into the mountain and sat there with His disciples. ⁴And the feast of the Jews, the Passover, was near. ⁵Then lifting His eyes and seeing that a great crowd was coming to Him, Jesus said to Philip, Where shall we buy loaves that these may eat? ⁶But He said this to test him, for He knew what He was about to do. ⁷Philip answered Him, Two hundred pennies worth of loaves are not enough for them, so that each of them may have a little. ⁸One of His disciples, Simon Peter's brother Andrew, said to Him, ⁹Here is a little boy who has five barley loaves and two small fishes — but what are these for so many? ¹⁰And Jesus said, Make the men recline. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men did recline, about five thousand in number. ¹¹And Jesus took the loaves, and giving thanks, He passed them out to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were reclining. ¹²And in the same way He gave them as many of the small fishes as they wanted. And when they were full, He said to His disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which are left, so that nothing may be lost. ¹³Then they gathered up and filled twelve hand-baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over to those who had eaten. ¹⁴Then seeing the miracle which Jesus had done, the men said, This is truly the prophet who is coming into the world. ¹⁵Then knowing that they were about to come and take hold of Him (so that they may make Him king), Jesus drew back again into the mountain alone.

¹⁶And when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea. ¹⁷And entering into the ship, they were going over the sea to Că-per'-nă-ŭm. And it had already become dark, and Jesus had not come to them. ¹⁸And the sea was aroused by a strong wind blowing. ¹⁹After they had pushed forward, then, about twenty-five or thirty furlongs, they saw Jesus walking on the sea, and coming near the ship, and they were afraid. ²⁰But He said to them, I am He! Do not be afraid. ²¹They were willing, then, to receive Him into the ship. And instantly the ship was at the land where they were going.

²²On the following day the people that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other small ship there, except one — that one into which His disciples had entered. And they saw that Jesus did not go with His disciples into the small ship, but that His disciples went away alone. ²³(But other little ships came from Tĭ-bēr'-ĭ-ās near the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had given thanks.) ²⁴Therefore when the people saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they also themselves entered into the ships, and they came to Că-per'-nă-ŭm looking for Jesus. ²⁵And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, Rabbi, when did you come here? ²⁶Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, You do not seek me because you saw miracles, but because you ate of the loaves and were satisfied. ²⁷Do not labor for the food which vanishes away — but labor for the food which lasts unto everlasting life, which the Son of man will give to you. For it is Him that the Father sealed, even God. ²⁸Then they said to Him, What shall we do that we may work the works of God? ²⁹Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that you should believe on Him whom He has sent. ³⁰They said therefore to Him, What miracle then will you do, so that we may see and believe you? What do you work? ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written, “He gave them bread out of Heaven to eat” (See PSALM 78:24). ³²Then Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses has not given you the bread out of Heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread out of Heaven. ³³For the bread of God is He who comes down out of Heaven and gives life to the world.

³⁴Then they said to Him, Lord, always give to us this bread. ³⁵But Jesus said to them, I am the Bread of life — he that comes to Me shall never ever hunger, and he that believes on Me shall never thirst at any time. ³⁶But I said to you that you also have seen Me and still do not believe. ³⁷All that the Father gives Me shall come to Me, and him that comes to Me I will in no way ever cast out. ³⁸For I have come down out of Heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. ³⁹And this is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all that He has given Me, I should not lose any of it, but should raise it up in the last day. ⁴⁰And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes on Him should have everlasting life — and I will raise him up at the last day. ⁴¹The Jews then were complaining about Him, because He said, I am the bread which came down out of Heaven. ⁴²And they were saying, Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? Then how does he now say, I have come down out of Heaven? ⁴³Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Do not murmur with one another. ⁴⁴No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draw him, and I will raise him up at the last day. ⁴⁵It is written in the prophets, “And they shall all be taught of God” (See ISAIAH 54:13). Therefore everyone that has heard and has learned from the Father comes to Me — ⁴⁶not that any man has seen the Father. Only He who is from God, He has seen the Father. ⁴⁷Verily, verily, I say unto you, He who believes on Me has everlasting life. ⁴⁸I am the Bread of life. ⁴⁹Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and died. ⁵⁰This is the Bread which comes down out of Heaven, so that anyone may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹I am the Living Bread which came down out of Heaven. If anyone eats of this Bread, he shall live forever. And the bread which I will give for the life of the world is My flesh.

⁵²Therefore the Jews were contending with one another, saying, How is he able to give his flesh to eat? ⁵³Then Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Unless you have eaten the flesh of the Son of man, and have drunk His blood, you have no life in yourselves. ⁵⁴He that eats My flesh and drinks My blood has everlasting life — and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁵⁵For My flesh truly is food, and My blood truly is drink. ⁵⁶He that eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. ⁵⁷As the living Father sent Me, and I live by means of the Father — so he that eats Me, he also shall live because of Me. ⁵⁸This is the bread which came down out of Heaven — not as your fathers ate the manna and died — he who feeds upon this bread shall live forever. ⁵⁹He said these things in the synagogue, teaching in Că-per'-nă-ŭm.

⁶⁰Therefore many of His disciples, hearing this, said, This word is hard, who is able to hear it? ⁶¹But knowing in Himself that His disciples murmured about this, Jesus said to them, Does this offend you? ⁶²What then if you should see the Son of man going up where He was before? ⁶³It is the Spirit who gives life, the flesh does not profit anything. The words which I speak to you are spirit and are life — but there are some of you who do not believe. ⁶⁴For Jesus had known from the beginning who they were who do not believe, and the one who was to betray Him. ⁶⁵And He said, Because of this I said to you that no one can come unto Me unless it shall have been given to him from My Father.

⁶⁶From that time many of His disciples went back and did not walk any more with Him. ⁶⁷Then Jesus said to the twelve, Are you also wanting to go away? ⁶⁸Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of everlasting life. ⁶⁹And we have believed and have known that Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. ⁷⁰Jesus answered them, Did I not choose you as the twelve, and one of you is a devil? ⁷¹But He spoke of Judas Is-câr'-î-ôt, Simon's son, for he was about to betray Him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7

¹And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee, for He did not wish to walk in Judea because the Jews were trying to kill Him. ²Now the Jewish Feast of the Tabernacles was near. ³Therefore His brothers said to Him, Move away from here and go into Judea so that your disciples may also see your works which you do. ⁴For no one does anything in secret, and he himself seeks to be known in public. If you do these things, show yourself to the world. ⁵For neither did His brothers believe in Him. ⁶Then Jesus said to them, My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. ⁷The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I witness concerning it—that the works of it are evil. ⁸You go up to this feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, for My time has not yet been fulfilled. ⁹And saying these things to them, Hé stayed in Galilee. ¹⁰But when His brothers went up, then He also went up to the feast—not openly, but as in secret. ¹¹The Jews therefore were looking for Him at the feast, and said, Where is he? ¹²And there was much talking about Him among the people. Some said, He is good. But others said, No, but he leads the people astray. ¹³However, no one spoke about Him publicly, because of the fear of the Jews.

¹⁴But now in the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the Temple and was teaching. ¹⁵And the Jews were wondering, saying, How does this one know letters, having never learned? ¹⁶Jesus answered them and said, My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me. ¹⁷If anyone wants to practice His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I speak from Myself. ¹⁸He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory. But He who is seeking the glory of Him who sent Him, He is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him. ¹⁹Has not Moses given you the Law? And not one of you practices the Law! Why do you want to kill Me? ²⁰The people answered and said, You have a demon! Who wants to kill you? ²¹Jesus answered and said to them, I did one work, and all of you wonder. ²²For this cause Moses has given you circumcision, (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers,) and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. ²³If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath in order that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with Me because I made a man perfectly whole upon the Sabbath? ²⁴Do not judge according to sight, but judge righteous judgment. ²⁵Then some of the ones from Jerusalem said, Is this not he whom they are seeking to kill? ²⁶And behold, He speaks out publicly, and they say nothing to him. Have the rulers recognized indeed that this is truly the Christ? ²⁷But we know where this one is from. But the Christ, whenever He comes, no one knows where He is from. ²⁸Then Jesus cried in the Temple, teaching and saying, You both know Me, and you know where I am from. And, I have not come from Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know. ²⁹But I know Him, because I am from Him, and He sent Me. ³⁰They were wishing then to lay hold on Him, but no one laid a hand on Him because His hour had not yet come. ³¹And many out of the multitude believed on Him, and said, The Christ, when He comes, will He do more miracles than these which this One did?

³²The Pharisees heard the people murmuring these things about Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers that they might take Him. ³³Jesus therefore said to them, Yet a little while I am with you, and I go to Him who sent Me. ³⁴You will look for Me and shall not find Me. And, Where I am you are not able to come. ³⁵Therefore the Jews said among themselves, Where is he about to go that we shall not find him? Is he about to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and to teach the Greeks? ³⁶What is this word which he said, You will look for Me and shall not find Me. And, Where I am you are not able to come?

³⁷And in the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If anyone thirst, let him come unto Me and drink. ³⁸He that believes on Me, as the Scripture said, "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water" (See ISAIAH 12:3; 58:11). ³⁹But He said this concerning the Spirit which those believing on Him were about to receive (for the Holy Spirit was not yet given because Jesus was not yet glorified). ⁴⁰Many out of the multitude, then, hearing the word, said, This truly is the Prophet. ⁴¹Others said, This is the Christ. And others said, Does the Christ then come out of Galilee? ⁴²Did not the Scriptures say that the Christ comes out of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? ⁴³Therefore a division arose among the people because of Him. ⁴⁴And some of them wanted to lay hold on Him, but no one laid hands on Him. ⁴⁵Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said to them, Why did you not bring Him? ⁴⁶The officers answered, Never did any man speak like this man speaks. ⁴⁷Then the Pharisees answered them, Have you also been led astray? ⁴⁸Has any one of the rulers believed on him? or of the Pharisees? ⁴⁹But this crowd, which does not know the Law, are accursed. ⁵⁰Nicō-dē'-mūs said to them (he who came by night to Him), being one of themselves, ⁵¹Does our Law judge a man, unless it has first heard from him and knows what he does? ⁵²They answered and said to him, Are you also of Galilee? Search and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee.

⁵³And each one went on to his house.

¹But Jesus went on to the Mount of Olives. ²And at dawn He came again into the Temple, and all the people came to Him. And sitting down, He taught them. ³And the scribes and the Pharisees brought to Him a woman taken in adultery. And setting her in the middle, ⁴they said to Him, Master, this woman was taken in the very act, committing adultery. ⁵Now in the Law, Moses commanded us that such ones were to be stoned. What then do you say? ⁶But they said this tempting Him so that they might have reason to accuse Him. But stooping down, Jesus wrote with His finger on the ground. ⁷And as they continued asking Him, lifting Himself up He said to them, He among you who is without sin, let him first throw a stone at her. ⁸And stooping down again, He wrote on the ground. ⁹And hearing this, and being convicted by conscience, they went out one by one, beginning from the elders, unto the last one. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middle. ¹⁰And lifting Himself up and seeing no one but the woman, Jesus said to her, Woman, where are those men, your accusers? Did no one give judgment against you? ¹¹And she said, No one, Sir. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I judge you, Go, and sin no more.

¹²Then again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the Light of the world—he who follows Me shall in no way walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. ¹³Therefore the Pharisees said to Him, You witness about yourself. Your witness is not true. ¹⁴Jesus answered and said to them, Even if I witness about Myself, My witness is true, because I know where I came from and where I go. But you do not know where I come from and where I go. ¹⁵You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. ¹⁶And even if I judge, My judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me. ¹⁷And also it has been written in your Law that the witness of two men is true. ¹⁸I am one who witnesses about Myself, and the Father who sent Me witnesses about Me. ¹⁹They then said to Him, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You do not know Me nor My Father. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also. ²⁰Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, teaching in the Temple—and no one laid hold of Him, for His hour had not yet come.

²¹Then Jesus said to them again, I go away, and you will look for Me, and you will die in your sin—for where I go you are not able to come. ²²Then the Jews said, Will he kill himself? because He said, Where I go you are not able to come. ²³And He said to them, You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. ²⁴Therefore I said to you that you shall die in your sins—for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins. ²⁵Therefore they said to Him, Who are you? And Jesus said to them, Even the same which I also say to you. ²⁶I have many things to say and to judge concerning you; but He who sent Me is true, and those things I heard from Him, these I say to the world. ²⁷They did not know that He spoke to them of the Father. ²⁸Then Jesus said to them, When you shall have lifted up the Son of man, then you shall know that I am He. And I do nothing of Myself, but I speak these things, just as the Father taught Me. ²⁹And He who sent Me is with Me. The Father did not leave Me alone, because I always do the things that are pleasing to Him. ³⁰As He spoke these things, many believed on Him.

³¹Therefore Jesus said to the Jews who had believed on Him, If you continue in My word you are truly My disciples. ³²And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free. ³³They answered Him, We are Abraham's seed, and we have never been under bondage to anyone. How do you say, You shall become free? ³⁴Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you that everyone that practices sin is the slave of sin. ³⁵Now the slave does not stay in the house forever, but the Son continues for ever. ³⁶If therefore the Son shall set you free, you shall be free indeed. ³⁷I know that you are Abraham's seed — but you want to kill Me because My word has no place to enter into you. ³⁸I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you therefore do always what you have seen with your father.

³⁹They answered and said to Him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus says to them, If you were children of Abraham, you would always do the works of Abraham. ⁴⁰But now you want to kill Me — a man who has spoken the truth to you, which I heard from God — Abraham did not do this. ⁴¹You are always doing the works of your father. They said to Him then, We are not born of fôr-nî-câ'-tion. We have one father — God. ⁴²Then Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I came forth and am come from God. For neither of Myself have I come, but He sent Me. ⁴³Why do you not understand My words? Because you are not able to hear My word. ⁴⁴You are of the devil your father, and the lusts of your father you choose to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has not stood in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own — for he is a liar and the father of it. ⁴⁵And because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me. ⁴⁶Who of you convicts Me of sin? But if I speak truth, why do you not believe Me? ⁴⁷He who is of God hears the words of God. Therefore you do not hear them because you are not of God.

⁴⁸Then the Jews answered and said to Him, Do we not say rightly that you are a Sā-mâr'-i-tān, and that you have a demon? ⁴⁹Jesus answered, I do not have a demon! But I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. ⁵⁰But I do not seek My own glory — there is One who seeks and judges. ⁵¹Verily, verily, I say unto you, If anyone keep My word, he shall in no way see death forever. ⁵²Then the Jews said to Him, Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets died, and you say, If anyone keep my word, he shall in no way taste of death forever. ⁵³Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died also. Whom do you make yourself? ⁵⁴Jesus answered, If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God. ⁵⁵And you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I say I do not know Him, I shall be like you, a liar. But I know Him, and I keep His word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham greatly rejoiced in that he should see My day, and He saw and was glad. ⁵⁷Then the Jews said unto Him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? ⁵⁸Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham began to be, I am! ⁵⁹They then took up stones that they might throw at Him, but Jesus hid Himself. And He went forth out of the Temple, going through the middle of them, and passed on by.

¹And passing on He saw a man blind from birth. ²And His disciples asked Him, saying, Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind? ³Jesus answered, Neither this one sinned, nor his parents, but that the works of God should be shown in him. ⁴It is necessary for Me to work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day Night comes when no man is able to work. ⁵As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world. ⁶Saying these things, He spat upon the ground and made clay of the spittle, and He spread the clay upon the eyes of the blind one. ⁷And He said to him, Go! Wash in the pool of Sī-lō'-ām (which translated means Sent). He therefore went away and washed, and he came away seeing. ⁸Then the neighbors and those who saw him before, that he was blind, said, Is this not he who was sitting and begging? ⁹Some said, It is he. But others said, He is like him. He said, I am he. ¹⁰Then they said to him, How were your eyes opened? ¹¹He answered and said, A man called Jesus made clay and spread it upon my eyes and said to me, Go to the pool of Sī-lō'-ām and wash. And after I had gone and washed, I received sight. ¹²Then they said to him, Where is he? He said, I do not know.

¹³So they brought him who once was blind to the Pharisees. ¹⁴Now it was the Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. ¹⁵Again, therefore, the Pharisees also asked him how he received sight. And he said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and I see. ¹⁶Therefore some of the Pharisees said, This man is not of God because he does not keep the Sabbath. Others said, How can a man who is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. ¹⁷They said to the blind one again, What do you say about him, for he opened your eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. ¹⁸The Jews, therefore, did not believe concerning him, that he was blind and received sight, until they called the parents of him who had received sight. ¹⁹And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he see? ²⁰His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. ²¹But how he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him. He is of age. He shall speak concerning himself. ²²His parents said these things because they feared the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed together that if anyone should confess Him to be the Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. ²³Because of this his parents said, Ask him, he is of age.

²⁴Then a second time they called the man who was blind and said to him, Give glory to God; we know that this man is a sinner. ²⁵Then he answered and said, I do not know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that I was blind but now I see. ²⁶And they said to him again, What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes? ²⁷He answered them, I told you already, and you did not hear. Why do you want to hear again? Do you also want to become his disciples? ²⁸And they railed at him, and said, You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹We know that God has spoken to Moses, but we do not know where this man is from. ³⁰The man answered and said to them, Why, this is a wonderful thing indeed, that you do not know where he is from, and he opened my eyes. ³¹But we know that God does not hear sinners, and if anyone is a worshipper of God, and does His will, He hears him. ³²Since the world began it was never heard that anyone opened the eyes of one who has been born blind. ³³If this man were not from God, he could do nothing. ³⁴They answered and said to him, You were born entirely in sins, and do you teach us? And they threw him out.

³⁵Jesus heard that they threw him out, and finding him said to him, Do you believe on the Son of God? ³⁶He answered and said, Who is He, Lord, that I may believe on Him? ³⁷And Jesus said to him, You have both seen Him, and He who speaks with you is He. ³⁸And he said, I believe, Lord! And he worshiped Him. ³⁹And Jesus said, I came into this world for judgment, that they that see not might see, and they that see might become blind. ⁴⁰And those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and they said to Him, Are we blind too? ⁴¹Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, We see! Therefore your sin remains.

¹Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that does not enter in by the door to the sheepfold, but climbs up some other place, the same is a thief and a robber. ²But he that enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The gatekeeper opens to him, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴And when he puts forth his own sheep, he goes in front of them. And the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵But they will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him because they do not know the voice of strangers. ⁶Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what it was which He spoke to them.

⁷Therefore Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. ⁸All those who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. ⁹I am the door. If anyone enter in through Me, he shall be saved and shall go in and shall go out and shall find pasture. ¹⁰The thief does not come except that he may steal and kill and destroy. I have come that they might have life, and might have it abundantly. ¹¹I am the Good Shepherd! The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. ¹²But the hired servant, and he who is not the shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away. And the wolf catches them and scatters the sheep. ¹³Now the hired servant runs away because he is a hired servant, and does not care about the sheep. ¹⁴I am the Good Shepherd, and I know those that are Mine. And I am known of those who are Mine. ¹⁵Even as the Father knows Me, I also know the Father, and I lay down My life for the sheep. ¹⁶And I have other sheep which are not of this fold. It is needful that I bring these also, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one flock, one Shepherd. ¹⁷Because of this the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, in order that I may take it again. ¹⁸No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again. This commandment I received from My Father. ¹⁹Then again there was a division among the Jews, because of these words. ²⁰And many of them said, He has a demon and is mad, why do you listen to him? ²¹Others said, These are not the words of one who is demon-possessed. Is a demon able to open the eyes of the blind?

²²Now the Feast of Dēd-ī-cā'-tion took place at Jerusalem, and it was winter. ²³And Jesus was walking in the Temple, in the porch of Solomon. ²⁴Then the Jews came round about Him and said to Him, How long do you hold our soul in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly. ²⁵Jesus answered them, I told you, and you do not believe. The works which I do in the name of My Father, these witness about Me, ²⁶but you do not believe because you are not of My sheep. As I told you, ²⁷My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me, ²⁸and I give unto them eternal life. And they shall never perish, neither shall anyone pluck them out of My hand. ²⁹My Father who has given them to Me is greater than all, and no one is able to pluck them out of My Father's hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one!

³¹Then again the Jews took up stones that they might stone Him. ³²Jesus answered them, I showed you many good works from My Father — for which of these are you stoning Me? ³³The Jews answered Him, saying, We do not stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy, and because you, being a man, make yourself God. ³⁴Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, “I said, you are gods?” (See PSALM 82:6) ³⁵If He called them gods unto whom the word of God came — and the Scripture cannot be broken — ³⁶do you say of Him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, You blasphemest because I said, I am the Son of God? ³⁷If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me. ³⁸But if I do, even if you do not believe Me, believe the works so that you may know and believe that the Father is in Me, and I in Him. ³⁹Therefore they tried again to lay hold on Him, but He went forth out of their hand. ⁴⁰And He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at first baptizing — and He stayed there.

⁴¹And many came to Him, and said, John indeed did no miracle, but all things whatever John said about this One were true. ⁴²And many believed on Him there.

¹Now there was a certain one sick, Lāz'-ā-rūs of Bēth'-ā-ny, of the town of Mary and her sister Martha. ²And it was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lāz'-ā-rūs was sick. ³Therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, Lord, lo, he whom Thou dost love is sick. ⁴And hearing this Jesus said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it. ⁵Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lāz'-ā-rūs. ⁶When, therefore, He heard that he was sick, then indeed he stayed there where He was two days. ⁷Then after this He said to the disciples, Let us go into Judea again. ⁸The disciples said to Him, Master, the Jews were just now seeking to stone Thee, and dost Thou go there again? ⁹Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the daytime he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. ¹⁰But if anyone walks in the nighttime, he stumbles because the light is not in him. ¹¹He said these things, and after this He says to them, Our friend Lāz'-ā-rūs has fallen asleep, but I go that I may awake him. ¹²Therefore His disciples said, Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will get well. ¹³But Jesus had spoken of his death, and they thought that He had spoken of the rest of sleep. ¹⁴Then, therefore, Jesus said to them plainly, Lazarus died. ¹⁵And I rejoice for your sakes that I was not there, in order that you may believe. But let us go to him. ¹⁶Then Thomas, the one called Did'-y-mūs, said to his fellow-disciples, Let us go too so that we may die with him.

¹⁷So when Jesus came, He found him. He had already been four days in the tomb. ¹⁸Now Bēth'-ā-ny was near to Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off, ¹⁹and many of the Jews had come to those around Martha and Mary, that they might comfort them concerning their brother. ²⁰Then when she heard that Jesus was coming, Martha met him. But Mary was still sitting in the house. ²¹Then Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother would not have died. ²²But I know even now that whatever Thou mayest ask of God, God will give Thee. ²³Jesus says to her, Your brother will rise again. ²⁴Martha said to Him, I know that he will rise again in the resurrection in the last day. ²⁵Jesus said to her, I am the Resurrection and the Life. He that believes on Me, though he die, he shall live. ²⁶And everyone who lives and believes on Me shall never die. Do you believe this? ²⁷She says to Him, Yes, Lord. I have believed that Thou art the Christ, the Son of God, who comes into the world. ²⁸And saying these things she went away. And she called her sister Mary secretly, saying, The Master has come and calls you. ²⁹When she heard, she rose up quickly and came to Him. ³⁰Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met Him.

³¹Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and were comforting her, seeing that Mary quickly rose up and went out, they followed her, saying, She is going to the tomb that she may weep there. ³²Then when she came where Jesus was, seeing Him, Mary fell down at His feet, saying to Him, Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother would not have died. ³³Then when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, He groaned in spirit and troubled Himself, ³⁴and said, Where have you laid him? They said to Him, Lord, come and see. ³⁵Jesus wept. ³⁶Therefore the Jews said, Behold! How He loved him! ³⁷But some of them said, Was not this One who opened the eyes of the blind able also to cause that this one should not have died?

³⁸Then again groaning within Himself, Jesus came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was lying upon it. ³⁹Jesus says, Take away the stone. Martha, the sister of him who had died, said to Him, Lord, by this time he stinks, for it is four days. ⁴⁰Jesus said to her, Did I not say to you that if you would believe you shall see the glory of God? ⁴¹Then they took away the stone where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted His eyes upwards, and said, Father, I thank Thee that Thou didst hear Me; ⁴²and I knew that Thou dost always hear Me — but on account of the people who stand around I said it, in order that they might believe that Thou didst send Me. ⁴³And saying these things, He cried out with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth! ⁴⁴And he who had been dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes. And his face was tied up with a handkerchief. Jesus said to them, Untie him and let him go.

⁴⁵Therefore many of the Jews who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did believed on Him. ⁴⁶But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus did. ⁴⁷Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What can we do? for this man does many miracles. ⁴⁸If we let him alone this way, all will believe on him, and the Romans will come and will take away from us both our place and nation. ⁴⁹But a certain one of them, Cai'-ā-phās, being high priest of that year, said to them, You do not know anything, ⁵⁰nor consider that it is good for us that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should be lost. ⁵¹And he did not say this of himself, but being high priest of that year he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation — ⁵²and not for the nation only, but that also He might gather together into one the children of God, who have been scattered abroad. ⁵³Then from that day forth they put their heads together that they might put Him to death. ⁵⁴Therefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went away from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ē'-phrā-īm. And He stayed there with His disciples.

⁵⁵Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover, so that they might purify themselves. ⁵⁶Then they were looking for Jesus, and were saying among one another, standing in the Temple, What do you think, that He will not come to the feast? ⁵⁷Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone should come to know where He was, he should show it, so that they might take Him.

CHAPTER 12

¹Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bēth'-ā-ny, where Lazarus was (the one who had died, whom He raised from among the dead). ²Therefore, they made Him a supper there, and Martha served. And Lazarus was one of those reclining with Him. ³Mary, then, taking a pound of ointment of pure spikenard, of great price, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. ⁴Then said one of His disciples (Judas Īs-cār'-ī-ōt, Simon's son, who was about to betray Him,) ⁵Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred pieces of silver and given to the poor? ⁶Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief and had the bag, and he carried away whatever was put in it. ⁷Then Jesus said, Let her alone! She has kept it for the day of My burial. ⁸For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me.

⁹Then a great crowd of the Jews learned that He was there. And they came, not because of Jesus only, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom He raised from among the dead. ¹⁰But the chief priests planned together so that they might put Lazarus to death too, ¹¹because many of the Jews were leaving and were believing on Jesus because of him.

¹²On the next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, hearing that Jesus was coming into Jerusalem, ¹³took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him. And they were crying, Hosanna! "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel" (See PSALM 118:26). ¹⁴And finding a young ass, Jesus sat upon it — as it is written, ¹⁵"Fear not, daughter of Zion: Behold! Your king comes sitting upon the colt of an ass" (See ZECHARIAH 9:9). ¹⁶Now His disciples did not understand these things at the first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they did these things to Him. ¹⁷Then the people (who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from among the dead) were testifying. ¹⁸Also it was because they had heard that He had done this miracle that the people met Him. ¹⁹The Pharisees, therefore, said among themselves, Do you see that you gain nothing? Behold, the world has gone after Him!

²⁰And there were certain Greeks among those who came up in order that they might worship in the feast. ²¹Then these came to Philip, who was from Bêth-sâ'-i-dâ of Galilee. And they asked him, saying, Sir, we want to see Jesus. ²²Philip came and told Andrew. And again, Andrew and Philip told Jesus. ²³But Jesus answered them, saying, The hour has come that the Son of man should be glorified. ²⁴Verily, verily, I say unto you, Unless the grain of wheat falling into the ground should die, it stays there alone. But if it should die, it brings forth much fruit. ²⁵He that loves his life shall lose it. And he that hates his life in this world shall keep it unto life everlasting. ²⁶If any one serves Me, let him follow Me. And where I am, there also shall My servant be. And if any one serves Me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷Now My soul has been troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour. But because of this I came to this hour — ²⁸Father, glorify Thy name. Then a voice came out of Heaven, I both have glorified it and will glorify it again. ²⁹Therefore the people that were standing there, and heard, said, It has thundered. Others said, An angel has spoken to Him. ³⁰Jesus answered and said, This voice has not come because of Me, but because of you. ³¹Now there is a judging of this world! Now the prince of this world shall be thrown out! ³²And if I shall be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all unto Myself. ³³But He said this showing by what kind of death He was about to die. ³⁴The people answered Him, We heard out of the Law that the Christ lives for ever. And how do you say that the son of man must be lifted up? Who is this son of man? ³⁵Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while the Light is with you. Walk while you have the Light, so that darkness may not overtake you. And he who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes. ³⁶While you have the Light, believe in the Light, so that you may become sons of light. Jesus spoke these things, and then, going away, He was hidden from them.

³⁷Yet even though He had done so many miracles before them, they did not believe on Him — ³⁸in order that the word of Ī-sā'-i-āh the prophet might be fulfilled, which he said, "Lord, who believed our report? and the arm of the Lord — to whom was it revealed?" (See ISAIAH 53:1). ³⁹Because of this, therefore, they could not believe. Again, because Ī-sā'-i-āh said, ⁴⁰"He has blinded their eyes, and has hardened their heart, so that they should not see with the eyes and understand with the heart, and be converted, and I should heal them" (See ISAIAH 6:9, 10). ⁴¹Ī-sā'-i-āh said these things when he saw His glory and spoke about Him. ⁴²Nevertheless, even from among the rulers, many did believe on Him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess, so that they might not be put out of the synagogue — ⁴³for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God. ⁴⁴And Jesus cried, and said, He that believes on Me believes not on Me but on Him who sent Me. ⁴⁵And he who beholds Me beholds Him who sent Me. ⁴⁶I have come as a Light into the world, so that everyone who believes on Me may not remain in the darkness. ⁴⁷And if anyone hears My words, and does not believe, I do not judge him — because I did not come that I might judge the world, but that I might save the world. ⁴⁸He that rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has one that judges him: the word which I spoke, that shall judge him in the last day. ⁴⁹Because I did not speak from Myself, but the Father who sent Me, He Himself gave me commandment what I should say, and what I should speak — ⁵⁰and I know that His commandment is life everlasting. Therefore what I speak, I speak just as the Father has said to Me.

¹Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that His hour had come that He should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved His own which were in the world — He loved them to the very end. ²And as the supper was taking place, the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Īs-cār'-i-ōt, Simon's son, that he should betray Him. ³And Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He came out from God, and to God He was going — ⁴He rose from the supper and laid aside His robes. And taking a towel, He tied it around Himself. ⁵After that He poured water into the washbowl and began to wash the feet of the disciples, and to wipe them with the towel which He had tied around Him. ⁶He then comes to Simon Peter. And he says to Him, Lord, dost Thou wash my feet? ⁷Jesus answered and said to him, You do not know what I do now, but you shall know hereafter. ⁸Peter says to Him, In no way shalt Thou wash my feet. Never! Jesus answered him, Unless I wash you, you have no part with Me. ⁹Simon Peter says to Him, Lord, not my feet only but also the hands and the head. ¹⁰Jesus says to him, He that has been bathed has no need, except to wash his feet, but he is clean altogether. And you are clean, but not all of you. ¹¹For He knew him who was betraying Him. Because of this He said, You are not all clean. ¹²Therefore, when He had washed their feet, and had taken His robes, reclining again, He said to them, Do you know what I have done to you? ¹³You call Me Master, and, The Lord, and you say well, for I am. ¹⁴Then if I, the Lord and Master, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash the feet of one another. ¹⁵For I gave you an example, that as I did to you, you should do also. ¹⁶Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his master, nor the messenger greater than he who sent him. ¹⁷If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. ¹⁸I do not speak of you all — I know whom I chose — but that the Scripture might be fulfilled, “He that eats bread with Me lifted up his heel against Me” (See PSALM 41:9). ¹⁹From this time I tell you, before it happens, so that when it comes to pass you may believe that I am He. ²⁰Verily, verily, I say unto you, He who receives whomsoever I shall send receives Me. And he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.

²¹Saying these things, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and witnessed and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray Me. ²²Then the disciples looked upon one another, wondering whom He was talking about. ²³And there was one of His disciples lying upon the bosom of Jesus, whom Jesus loved. ²⁴Simon Peter, therefore, made a sign for him to find out who it might be of whom He spoke. ²⁵And leaning on the breast of Jesus, he said to Him, Lord, who is it? ²⁶Jesus answers, It is he to whom I shall dip the morsel and give it. And dipping the morsel, He gave it to Judas Īs-câr'-ĭ-ōt, Simon's son. ²⁷And after the morsel, Satan then entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, What you do, do quickly! ²⁸But no one of those reclining at table knew why He said this to him. ²⁹For some thought, since Judas had the bag, that Jesus said to him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast. Or, that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰Receiving the morsel, then, he immediately went out. And it was night.

³¹Then when he had left, Jesus said, Now the Son of man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in Him. ³²If God has been glorified in Him, God shall also glorify Him in Himself, and He shall glorify Him at once. ³³Little children, I am with you yet a little while. You will look for Me, and, even as I said to the Jews — Where I go, you are not able to come — that I also say to you now. ³⁴I give to you a new commandment, that you should love one another. Even as I loved you, that you also should love one another. ³⁵By this all shall know that you are My disciples, if you have love among one another. ³⁶Simon Peter says to Him, Lord, where dost Thou go? Jesus answered him, Where I go you are not able to follow now, but you shall follow Me afterwards. ³⁷Peter said to Him, Lord, why am I not able to follow Thee now? I will lay down my life for Thee. ³⁸Jesus answered him, You will lay down your life for Me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, The cock will not crow until you have denied Me three times.

¹Do not let your heart be troubled. You believe on God. Believe also on Me. ²In My Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so I would have told you. I go now to prepare a place for you. ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I am coming again, and I will receive you unto Myself — so that where I am, you may be also. ⁴And where I go you know, and the way you know. ⁵Thomas said to Him, Lord, we do not know where Thou goest. And, How can we know the way? ⁶Jesus says to him, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father but by Me. ⁷If you had known Me, you would have also known My Father. And from now on you do know Him and have seen Him. ⁸Philip said to Him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. ⁹Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long a time and you have not known Me, Philip? He that has seen Me has seen the Father; and how do you say, Show us the Father? ¹⁰Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words which I speak unto you, I do not speak from Myself; but the Father who is in Me, He does the works. ¹¹Believe Me that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me. But if not, then believe Me because of the works themselves. ¹²Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believes on Me, he shall do the works which I do also — and he shall do greater works than these, because I go unto My Father. ¹³And whatever you may ask in My name, this I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴If you ask anything in My name, I will do it.

¹⁵If you love Me, keep My commandments. ¹⁶And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Comforter, that He may be with you forever — ¹⁷the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive because it does not see Him, nor know Him. But you know Him, for He is with you and shall be in you. ¹⁸I will not leave you orphans, I am coming to you. ¹⁹Yet a little while and the world sees Me no longer. But you see Me. Because I live, you shall live also. ²⁰In that day you shall know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. ²¹He that has My commandments and keeps them, he it is that loves Me. But he that loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will reveal Myself unto him. ²²Judas (not the Is-câr'-i-öt) said to Him, Lord, what has happened that Thou art about to reveal Thyself to us, and not to the world? ²³Jesus answered and said to him, If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come unto him and will make Our home with him. ²⁴He that does not love Me does not keep My words. And the word which you hear is not Mine, but of the Father who sent Me.

²⁵I have spoken these things to you while I am still with you. ²⁶But the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and He will bring to your memory all the things which I said to you. ²⁷Peace I leave with you. My peace I give unto you — I do not give you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. ²⁸You heard that I said to you, I am going away and I am coming to you. If you loved Me, you would have been happy that I said, I am going to the Father, for My Father is greater than I. ²⁹And now I have told you, before it happens, so that when it shall have come to pass, you may believe. ³⁰I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world comes and has nothing in Me. ³¹But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go away from here.

¹I am the True Vine, and My Father is the Vinedresser. ²He takes away every branch in Me that is not bearing fruit. And every one that bears fruit, He prunes it that it may bear more fruit. ³Now you are clean through the word which I have spoken to you. ⁴Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch is not able to bear fruit of itself unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me. ⁵I am the Vine. You are the branches. He that abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit — for apart from Me you are not able to do anything. ⁶If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown out as a branch and is dried up. And they gather and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. ⁷If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you shall ask whatever you desire, and it shall be done to you. ⁸In this is My Father glorified, that you should bear much fruit, and so shall you become My disciples. ⁹As the Father loved Me, I also loved you.

Continue in My love. ¹⁰If you keep My commandments, you shall continue in My love — even as I have kept the commandments of My Father and continue in His love. ¹¹I have spoken these things to you so that My joy in you may continue and your joy may be full. ¹²This is My commandment, that you love one another, even as I loved you. ¹³No one has greater love than this, that one should lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴You are My friends, if you practice whatever I command you. ¹⁵I do not call you servants any longer, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, for all things which I heard of My Father I have made known unto you. ¹⁶You did not choose Me, but I chose you. And I planted you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should last — so that whatever you may ask the Father in My name, He may give to you. ¹⁷I command you these things, that you love one another. ¹⁸If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you. ¹⁹If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, the world hates you because of this. ²⁰Remember the word which I said to you, The servant is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours too. ²¹But they will do all these things to you on account of My name, because they do not know Him who sent Me. ²²If I had not come and had not spoken to them, they would not have had sin — but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³He that hates Me hates My Father also. ²⁴If I had not done among them the works which no other one did, they would not have had sin — but now they have both seen and have hated both Me and My Father. ²⁵But it is in order that the word might be fulfilled that has been written in their law, “They hated Me without a cause” (See PSALM 35:19). ²⁶But when the Comforter comes (whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of Truth who comes forth from the Father) He will bear witness concerning Me. ²⁷And you also bear witness because you were with Me from the beginning.

¹I have spoken these things unto you that you may not stumble. ²They will put you out of the synagogues. And the hour is coming that everyone who kills you will think he is offering service to God. ³And they will do these things to you because they do not know the Father nor Me. ⁴But I have said these things to you, that when the hour may come, you may remember that I told you of them. But I did not say these things to you from the beginning because I was with you. ⁵But now I go to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, Where dost Thou go? ⁶But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. ⁷Nevertheless, I tell you the truth. It is better for you that I should go away — for if I do not go away the Comforter will not come to you. But if I go, I will send Him to you.

⁸And when He comes, He will prove the world wrong about sin and about righteousness and about judgment — ⁹about sin, because they do not believe on Me; ¹⁰about righteousness, because I go away to My Father, and you can no longer see Me; ¹¹and about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged. ¹²I still have many things to say to you, but you are not able to bear them now. ¹³But when He has come, the Spirit of Truth, He will guide you into all the truth. For He will not speak from Himself, but as many things as He hears, He will speak. And He will tell you the things that are coming. ¹⁴He will glorify Me, for He will receive of Mine and will declare it to you. ¹⁵All things that the Father has are Mine. This is why I said, He will take of Mine and will declare it to you. ¹⁶A little while and you do not see Me. And again a little while, and you will see Me — because I go away to the Father.

¹⁷Then some of the disciples said to one another, What is this which He says to us? — a little while and you do not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me? And, Because I go away to the Father?¹⁸ Therefore they said, What is this which He says, A little while? We do not know what He says.¹⁹ Jesus knew then that they wanted to ask Him, and He said to them, Do you ask about this among one another, that I said, A little while and you do not behold Me; and again a little while and you will see Me? ²⁰Verily, verily, I say unto you that you will weep and wail, but the world will rejoice. And you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall become joy. ²¹When she gives birth, a woman has sorrow because her hour is come. But when she brings forth the child, she no longer remembers the pain because of the joy that a man has been born into the world. ²²And you, therefore, now indeed have sorrow — but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you. ²³And in that day you shall ask nothing of Me. Verily, verily, I say unto you, As many things as you may ask the Father in My name, He will give you. ²⁴Up to this time you have not asked anything in My name. Ask, and you shall receive, so that your joy may be full.

²⁵I have spoken these things to you in parables, but the hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in parables, but I will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in My name — and I do not say I shall ask the Father for you — ²⁷for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came out from God. ²⁸I came out from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father. ²⁹His disciples said to Him, See, now Thou dost speak plainly and speak no parable. ³⁰Now we know that Thou hast known all things and need not that anyone should ask Thee. By this we believe that Thou didst come forth from God. ³¹Jesus answered them, Do you believe now? ³²Behold! the hour is coming, and now is, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own home, and you will leave Me alone. And yet I am not alone because the Father is with Me. ³³I have spoken these things to you so that you may have peace in Me. You have trouble in the world, but be of good courage, I have overcome the world.

¹Jesus spoke these things, and lifting up His eyes to Heaven, He said, Father, the hour has come! Glorify Thy Son so that Thy Son also may glorify Thee, ²even as Thou didst give to Him authority over all flesh, so that He should give everlasting life to all which Thou hast given Him. ³And this is life everlasting, that they should know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom Thou didst send. ⁴I did glorify Thee upon the earth. I have finished the work which Thou hast given Me, that I should do it. ⁵And now, O Father, glorify Thou Me beside Thyself, with the glory which I had beside Thee before the world ever was. ⁶I made Thy name known to the men whom Thou hast given Me out of the world. They were Thine, and Thou hast given them to Me, and they have kept Thy word. ⁷Now they have known that all things that Thou hast given Me are from Thee. ⁸For the words which Thou hast given Me I have given them, and they received them. And they know truly that I came out from Thee, and they believed that Thou didst send Me.

⁹I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom Thou hast given to Me, because they are Thine, ¹⁰and all My things are Thine, and Thine are Mine; and I have been glorified in them. ¹¹And I am no longer in the world, and these are in the world, and I come unto Thee. Holy Father, keep them in Thy name whom Thou hast given to Me, so that they may be one, even as We are. ¹²While I was with them in the world I kept them in Thy name. I watched over those Thou hast given to Me, and not one of them is lost, but only the son of perdition, in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled. ¹³And now I come to Thee, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have My joy fulfilled in them. ¹⁴I have given them Thy word, and the world hated them because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁵I do not pray for Thee to take them out of the world, but for Thee to keep them from evil. ¹⁶They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁷Sanctify them by Thy truth. Thy word is truth. ¹⁸As Thou didst send Me into the world, I also sent them into the world. ¹⁹And I sanctify Myself for them, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.

²⁰Neither do I pray for these alone, but for those who shall believe on Me through their word — ²¹that they also may be one, as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us — so that the world may believe that Thou didst send Me. ²²And the glory which Thou hast given Me, I have given them, so that they may be one, even as We are one: ²³I in them, and Thou in Me, so that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that Thou didst send Me and dost love them as Thou didst love Me. ²⁴Father, I want those whom Thou hast given Me to be with Me where I am, so that they may behold My glory which Thou didst give unto Me, because Thou didst love Me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵O righteous Father! The world did not know Thee, but I knew Thee, and these came to know that Thou didst send Me. ²⁶And I made Thy name known to them, and will make it known, so that the love with which Thou didst love Me may be in them, and I in them.

¹When Jesus had spoken these words, He went out with His disciples beyond the brook of Kē'-drōn, where there was a garden, into which He and His disciples entered. ²And Judas, who was betraying Him, also knew the place, because Jesus often went there to meet with His disciples. ³Therefore, receiving the band and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, Judas came there with torches and lamps and weapons. ⁴Then, knowing all things that were coming upon Him, going forward, Jesus said to them, Whom do you seek? ⁵They answered Him, Jesus the Nāz-ā-rē'-ān. Jesus said to them, I am He! And Judas, who betrayed Him, was standing with them also. ⁶When, therefore, He said unto them, I am He! they went backward and fell to the ground. ⁷Then He asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, Jesus the Nāz-ā-rē'-ān. ⁸Jesus answered, I told you that I am He. If therefore you seek Me, let these go away ⁹(which He said that the word might be fulfilled, "Of those whom Thou hast given Me, I did not lose one.") ¹⁰Then Simon Peter drew the sword he had and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. And the servant's name was Māl'-chūs. ¹¹Then Jesus said to Peter, Put your sword into the sheath; the cup which the Father has given Me, should I not drink it?

¹²Then the band, and the chief captain, and the officers of the Jews took hold of Jesus and tied Him up. ¹³And they led Him away to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Cai'-ā-phās, who was high priest that year. ¹⁴And it was Cai'-ā-phās who advised the Jews that it is good for one man to die for the people. ¹⁵And Simon Peter was following Jesus, and the other disciple too. And that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest — ¹⁶but Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple went out (the one who was known to the high priest,) and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter inside. ¹⁷Then the girl who kept the door said to Peter, Are you not one of the disciples of this man too? He says, I am not. ¹⁸And the servants and the officers were standing and were warming themselves (for they had made a fire of coals because it was cold). And Peter was standing with them and was warming himself.

¹⁹Then the high priest asked Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching. ²⁰Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogue and in the Temple, where the Jews always come together, and I spoke nothing in secret. ²¹Why do you ask Me? Ask those who have heard what I said to them. Behold! they know what I said. ²²But as He said these things, one of the officers standing beside Jesus gave Him a blow with the palm of the hand, saying, Do you answer the high priest so? ²³Jesus answered him, If I spoke evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me? ²⁴Now Annas had sent Him bound to Cai'-ā-phās the high priest.

²⁵And Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him, Are you not one of his disciples too? He denied it, and said, I am not. ²⁶One of the servants of the high priest (who was a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off) says, Did I not see you in the garden with him? ²⁷Again, then, Peter denied it. And immediately a cock crew.

²⁸Then they led Jesus from Cai'-ā-phās to the judgment hall, and it was early. And they did not go into the judgment hall so that they might not be made unclean, and that they might eat the passover. ²⁹Therefore Pilate came out to them, and said, What charge do you bring against this man? ³⁰They answered and said to him, If he were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered him up to you. ³¹Pilate then said to them, You take him and judge him according to your law. Then the Jews said to him, It is not allowed to us to put anyone to death ³²(that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He spoke, showing by what death He was about to die). ³³Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again. And he called Jesus and said to Him, Are you the king of the Jews? ³⁴Jesus answered him, Do you say this of yourself, or did others say it to you about Me? ³⁵Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you up to me. What did you do? ³⁶Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom was of this world, My servants would fight in order that I might not be delivered up to the Jews, but now My kingdom is not from here. ³⁷Pilate therefore said to Him, Then, are you a king? Jesus answered, You say it, because I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, that I may bear witness to the truth. Every one that is of the truth hears My voice. ³⁸Pilate said to Him, What is truth?

And saying this, he went out to the Jews again and said to them, I do not find any fault at all in him. ³⁹But it is a custom with you that I should release one to you at the Passover. Therefore, do you desire that I should release to you the king of the Jews? ⁴⁰Then they all cried out again, saying, Not this one, but Bār-āb'-bās. Now Bār-āb'-bas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

¹Therefore Pilate then took Jesus and whipped Him. ²And after they had plaited a crown of thorns, the soldiers put it on His head. And they put a purple robe around Him, ³and said, Hail! King of the Jews! And they gave Him blows with the palm of the hand. ⁴Pilate then went out again and said to them, Behold! I bring Him out to you so that you may know that I do not find any fault in him. ⁵Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And he said to them, Behold! The man!

⁶When the chief priests and the officers saw Him, then they cried out saying, Crucify! Crucify! Pilate said to them, You take him and crucify him, for I do not find any fault in him. ⁷The Jews answered him, We have a law, and according to our law he ought to die, because he made himself Son of God. ⁸Then when Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid, ⁹and went again into the judgment hall. And he said to Jesus, Where are you from? But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰Then Pilate said to Him, Do you not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to crucify you, and I have authority to let you go? ¹¹Jesus answered, You would have no authority against Me if it were not given to you from above. Because of this, he who delivers Me up to you has the greater sin. ¹²From this time Pilate wanted to let Him go, but the Jews cried out, saying, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend. Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar. ¹³Therefore, hearing these words, Pilate led Jesus out. And he sat down upon the judgment seat at a place called Pavement (but in Hebrew, Gāb'-bāth-ā). ¹⁴And it was the time to make ready the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he says to the Jews, Behold, your king! ¹⁵But they cried out, Away! Away! Crucify him! Pilate said to them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king except Caesar. ¹⁶Then he delivered Him up to them that He might be crucified.

And they took Jesus and led Him away. ¹⁷And bearing His cross, He went out to the place called Place of a Skull (which is called in Hebrew, Gol'-gōth-ā), ¹⁸where they crucified Him. And with Him were two others, one on this side, and one on that side, and Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹And Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. And it was written, JESUS THE NĀZ-Ā-RĒ'-ĀN, THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁰Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in Hebrew, in Greek, and in Latin. ²¹Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not write, The king of the Jews, but write that he said, I am king of the Jews. ²²Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

²³Then when they crucified Jesus, the soldiers took His garments and made four parts, one part to each soldier. They also took the coat, but the coat was seamless, woven from the top throughout. ²⁴Therefore they said to one another, Let us not tear it, but let us throw dice for it to see whose it shall be. This was in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says, "They parted My clothes among them, and for My robe they threw lots" (See PSALM 22:18). Therefore the soldiers did these things.

²⁵And His mother stood by the cross of Jesus, and the sister of His mother, Mary the wife of Clō'-pās, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶Jesus, therefore, seeing His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He says to His mother, Woman, Behold your son! ²⁷Then He says to the disciple, Behold your mother! And from that hour that disciple took her into his own home. ²⁸After this, knowing that all things now had been finished, Jesus said, I thirst! (so that the Scripture might be fulfilled).²⁹ Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar. And filling a sponge with vinegar, and putting it on hyssop [hiss'-öp], they brought it to His mouth.³⁰ Then when Jesus received the vinegar, He said, It has been finished! And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

³¹Then the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they be taken away (so that the bodies might not stay on the cross on the Sabbath, because it was the time to make ready the Passover — for that Sabbath was a great day).³² Therefore the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with Him.³³ But coming to Jesus, when they saw He already was dead, they did not break His legs.³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water.³⁵ And he who has seen this has testified, and his witness is true, and he knows that he speaks true things, so that you may believe.³⁶ For these things were done so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, “Not a bone of Him shall be broken” (See Exodus 12:46).³⁷ And again another Scripture says, “They shall look upon Him whom they pierced” (See Zechariah 12:10).

³⁸And after these things Joseph of Ar-i-mä-thë'-ä (who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly through fear of the Jews) asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him permission. Therefore he came and took away the body of Jesus.³⁹ And Nic-ö-dë'-müs also came (the one who at first came to Jesus by night) bearing a mixture of myrrh [mërr] and ä'l'-öes, about a hundred pounds.⁴⁰ Then they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen clothes with the spices, as it was the custom among the Jews to prepare for burial.⁴¹ Now there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and a new tomb in the garden, in which no one was ever laid.⁴² Therefore, because it was the Jews' time to make ready, because this tomb was near, they laid Jesus there.

¹And on the first of the Sabbaths, Mary Mäg'-dä-lëne came early to the tomb, while it was still dark. And she saw the stone already taken away from the tomb.² Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, They took away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him.³ Therefore Peter and the other disciple went forth, and they were coming to the tomb,⁴ and the two were running together. And the other disciple ran forward faster than Peter and came first to the tomb.⁵ And stooping down, he saw the linen clothes lying there. Yet he did not go in.⁶ Then Simon Peter came following him and entered into the tomb. And he saw the linen clothes lying there,⁷ and the handkerchief which was upon His head (which was not lying with the linen clothes, but was folded up in a place by itself). ⁸Then, therefore, the other disciple who came to the tomb first also entered in, and he saw and believed ⁹(for they did not yet know the Scripture, that it was necessary for Him to rise again from among the dead). ¹⁰Then the disciples went away again to their home.

¹¹But Mary was standing at the tomb, weeping outside. As she was weeping, then, she stooped down into the tomb, ¹²and she saw two angels in white, one sitting at the head, and one at the feet where the body of Jesus was laid. ¹³And they say to her, Woman, why do you weep? She said to them, Because they took away my Lord, and I do not know where they laid Him. ¹⁴And saying these things, she turned backward and saw Jesus standing there (but she did not know that it was Jesus). ¹⁵Jesus says to her, Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek? Thinking that it was the gardener, she said to Him, Sir, if you carried Him away, tell me where you laid Him, and I will take Him away. ¹⁶Jesus says to her, Mary! Turning around, she said to Him, Rāb-bō'-nī! (that is to say, Master!) ¹⁷Jesus said to her, Do not touch Me, for I have not yet gone up unto My Father; but go to My brothers and say to them, I go up to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God. ¹⁸Mary Māg'-dā-lēne came bringing word to the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He had spoken these things to her.

¹⁹Then, it being evening on that day, the first of the Sabbaths, and the doors having been shut where the disciples were gathered together, through fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst. And He said to them, Peace unto you! ²⁰And saying this, He showed to them His hands and His side. Therefore the disciples rejoiced, seeing the Lord. ²¹Jesus then said to them again, Peace unto you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you. ²²And saying this, He breathed on them, and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit! ²³If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven to them. If of any you keep, they have been kept.

²⁴But Thomas, called Did'-y-mūs, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵Therefore the other disciples said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I see in His hands the mark of the nails, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not at all believe. ²⁶And after eight days again His disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. The door being shut, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said, Peace unto you! ²⁷Then He said to Thomas, Bring your finger here and see My hands; and bring your hand and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing. ²⁸And Thomas answered and said to Him, My Lord and my God! ²⁹Jesus says to him, Have you believed because you have seen Me, Thomas? Blessed are the ones who have not seen and have believed.

³⁰Then Jesus did many other miracles also in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book — ³¹but these have been written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you might have life in His name.

CHAPTER 21

¹After these things Jesus showed Himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tī-bē'-rī-ās. Now He showed Himself this way: ²There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Did'y-mūs, and Nā-thān'-ā-ēl from Cana of Galilee, and the sons of Zēb'-ē-dēe, and two others of His disciples. ³Simon Peter said to them, I go to fish. They say to him, We will come with you too. They went out and went up into the ship immediately. And during that night they took nothing. ⁴But when morning had already come, Jesus stood on the shore. However, the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ⁵Jesus then says to them, Little children, have you any food? They answered Him, No. ⁶And He said to them, Throw the net to the right side of the ship and you shall find some. Therefore they threw there, and they were no longer able to draw it, because of the multitude of the fish. ⁷Then that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, It is the Lord! Then, hearing that it was the Lord, Simon Peter tied on his outer coat (for he was naked) and threw himself into the sea. ⁸And the other disciples came dragging the net full of fish in the small ship, for they were not far from the land, but somewhere around three hundred feet off.

⁹Then when they went up on the land, they saw a fire of coals lying, and fish lying upon it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus said to them, Bring some of the fish which you caught just now. ¹¹Simon Peter went up and drew the net full of large fish to land, a hundred and fifty three. And though there were so many, the net was not torn. ¹²Jesus said to them, Come and eat. But none of the disciples dared to ask Him, Who art Thou, knowing that it was the Lord. ¹³Then Jesus came and took the bread and gave to them, and the fish likewise. ¹⁴This is now the third time Jesus was revealed to His disciples after being raised from among the dead.

¹⁵Then when they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me more than these? He said to Him, Yes, Lord, Thou knowest that I love Thee. He said to him, Feed My lambs. ¹⁶Again He said to him a second time, Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me? He said to Him, Yes, Lord, Thou knowest that I love Thee. He said to him, Shepherd My sheep. ¹⁷He said to him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, do you have love for Me? Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, Do you have love for Me? And he said to Him, Lord, Thou knowest all things, Thou knowest that I love Thee. Jesus said to him, Feed My sheep. ¹⁸Verily, verily, I say unto you, When you were younger you dressed yourself, and walked where you desired. But when you are old, you shall stretch out your hands, and another shall dress you and bring you where you do not desire to go. ¹⁹And He said this to show by what death he should glorify God. And saying this, He said to him, Follow Me!

²⁰But turning around, Peter saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them (the one who rested upon His breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is it who is betraying Thee?). ²¹Peter seeing him said to Jesus, Lord, but what of this one? ²²Jesus said to him, If I want him to stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me. ²³Then this saying went out among the brothers that that disciple does not die. However, Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, If I want him to stay until I come, what is that to you?

²⁴This is the disciple who bears witness concerning these things, and who wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true. ²⁵And there are many other things—as many as Jesus did—which, if they should be written one by one, I suppose not even the world itself would have place for the books written. Amen.

The ACTS of the Holy Apostles

¹Truly, O Theophilus [Thē-ōf'-ī-lūs], I made the first report about all the things which Jesus began both to do and to teach, ²until the day in which He was taken up (after He had given commandments through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen). ³He also showed Himself alive to them after His suffering, with many proofs that cannot be denied. And He was seen by them for forty days and spoke about the things of the kingdom of God. ⁴*And when He was* gathered together with them, He commanded them not to go away from Jerusalem, but said, Wait for the promise of the Father, which you have heard from Me. ⁵For John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days after this.

¹⁰And as He was going up, while they were looking steadfastly into heaven, then behold! two men stood by them in white clothing. ¹¹And they said, Men! Gāl'-il-ē-āns! Why do you stand looking up into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into Heaven, shall come in the same way you saw Him going up into Heaven.

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called the Mount of Olives, which is near Jerusalem, being a sabbath day's journey away. ¹³And when they had come in, they went up to the upper room where both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bär-thöl'-ō-mew and Matthew, James the son of Alpheus [Āl-fēe'-ūs], and Simon Zē-lō'-tēs, and Judas the brother of James, were staying. ¹⁴All of these were continuing together in prayer and seeking unto God, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

¹⁵And in those days, after he had stood up in the middle of the disciples — the number of names together was about a hundred and twenty — Peter said, ¹⁶Men! Brothers! It was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled — which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David — about Judas, who became guide to those who took Jesus. ¹⁷For he was counted with us, and got a part in this ministry. ¹⁸Now then, this man bought a field out of the reward of unrighteousness, and falling face down, he broke open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out. ¹⁹And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their own language, Ā-kēl'-dā-mā, which means, Field of Blood. ²⁰For it has been written in the book of Psalms, "Let his home become forsaken, and let there be no one living in it," and "let another take his place" (See PSALM 69:25; 109:8).

²¹Therefore, it is right that one of those men who have been with us all the time during which the Lord Jesus came in and went out among us — ²²beginning from the baptism of John, until the day in which He was taken up from us — should become a witness of His resurrection with us. ²³And they put forward two men, Joseph called Bār'-sā-bās, whose last name was Justus; and Māt-thī'-ās. ²⁴And praying, they said, Thou, Lord, who doth know the hearts of all men, show us which one of these two Thou didst choose ²⁵to receive a part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell away, by sin, to go to his own place. ²⁶And they gave their lots, and the lot fell upon Māt-thī'-ās, and he was counted with the eleven apostles.

¹And when the day of Pentecost was being fulfilled, they were all together in the same place. ²And suddenly a sound came out of the sky, like a rushing violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³And forked tongues, like fire, appeared to them, and sat upon each one of them. ⁴And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak other languages, just as the Spirit made them able to speak.

⁵Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, God-fearing men from every nation under the sky. ⁶And when this sound had come to them, the multitude came together and were dumfounded because they were each one hearing them speak in his own language. ⁷And they were all amazed and wondered, saying to one another, Behold! Aren't these all Galileans who are speaking? ⁸and, How is it that we each hear in our own language in which we were born? ⁹*Pār'-thī-āns*, and Mēdes, and Ē'-lām-ites, and those who live in Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ā, and Judea, and Cāp-pā-dō'-cī-a, Pontus, and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia [Fridg'-ī-a] also, and Pamphylia [Pām-fill'-ī-ā], Egypt, and the parts of Libya which is around Cyrene [Sy-rēen'-ee], and the strangers from Rome, both Jews and their converts, ¹¹Crêtes and Arabians — we hear them speaking the great things of God in our own languages. ¹²And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What does this mean? ¹³But others making fun of them said, They are full of new wine.

¹⁴But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and spoke to them, Men! Jews! and all of you who live in Jerusalem! Let this be known unto you, and listen to my words. ¹⁵For these men are not drunken, as you suppose, for it is only the third hour of the day. ¹⁶But this is that which has been spoken by the prophet Joel, ¹⁷“And it shall come to pass in the last days, God says, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh. And your sons and daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. ¹⁸And also upon My menservants and upon My maidservants I will pour out of My Spirit in those days, and they shall prophesy. ¹⁹And I will give wonders in the heaven above, and miracles on the earth below — blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke. ²⁰The sun shall be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and unmistakable day of the Lord. ²¹And it shall come to pass that everyone who shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (See JOEL 2:28-32).

²²Men! Israelites! Hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man approved of God among you by mighty works and wonders and miracles, which God worked by Him in your midst — even as you yourselves know — ²³this One who was delivered to you by the before-determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you did take by wicked hands. Crucifying Him, you killed Him. ²⁴Whom God has raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it. ²⁵For David says in regard to Him, “I foresaw the Lord always before Me, because He is at My right hand, that I may not be moved: ²⁶Therefore My heart rejoiced, and My tongue was glad; yea, more, My flesh also shall rest in hope, ²⁷because Thou wilt not leave My soul in hell, neither wilt Thou give Thy Holy One to see corruption. ²⁸Thou didst make known unto Me ways of life. Thou wilt fill Me with joy with Thy face” (See PSALM 16:8-11).

²⁹Men! Brothers! I may speak with freedom to you about the pā'-trī-ärch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is among us unto this day. ³⁰Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God swore to him with an oath, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit upon his throne — ³¹he, foreseeing this, spoke about the resurrection of the Christ — that His soul was not left in hell, nor did His flesh see corruption. ³²God did raise up this Jesus, of which we all are witnesses. ³³Then, having been exalted by the right hand of God, and having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, He poured out this which you now see and hear. ³⁴For David did not go up into the heavens, but he says himself, “The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit at My right hand ³⁵until I place Thy enemies as a footstool at Thy feet” (See PSALM 110:1). ³⁶Therefore, let all the house of Israel surely know that God did make Him both Lord and Christ, this same Jesus whom you did crucify.

³⁷Now having heard this, they were stabbed in the heart, and said to Peter and the other apostles, What shall we do, men, brothers? ³⁸But Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized, every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, unto remission of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all those that are afar off, as many as the Lord our God shall call. ⁴⁰And with many other words he earnestly testified and encouraged them, saying, Be saved from this wicked generation.

⁴¹Then those who gladly welcomed his word were baptized, and there were about three thousand souls added on that day. ⁴²And they were firmly devoted to the teaching of the apostles, and in fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. ⁴³And fear came upon every soul, also many wonders and miracles were being done through the apostles. ⁴⁴And all who believed were together, and had all things common, ⁴⁵and they sold their possessions and goods and divided them to all as anyone had any need. ⁴⁶And continuing steadfastly together in the Temple, and breaking bread in their houses, they took their food with gladness and purity of heart, ⁴⁷praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added those who were being saved day by day to the church.

¹Now about this time Peter and John went up into the Temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer. ²And a certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they put down daily at the gate of the Temple called Beautiful Gate, so as to beg alms from those who were entering into the Temple. ³*When he* saw Peter and John about to go into the Temple, he begged to receive alms. ⁴And Peter, with John, fastening his eyes upon him said, Look unto us! ⁵And he watched them eagerly, expecting to get something from them. ⁶But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none, but what I have, that I give unto you: In the name of Jesus Christ, the Nazarene, rise up and walk! ⁷And taking him by the right hand, he raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankle-bones were strengthened. ⁸And leaping up, he stood, and walked, and entered into the Temple with them walking and leaping and praising God.

⁹And all the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰And they recognized him, that it was he who was sitting at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple for alms. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him. ¹¹And as the lame man who had been healed held Peter and John, the people all ran together to them in the porch called Solomon's Porch, greatly wondering. ¹²And seeing it, Peter answered to the people, Men! Israelites! Why do you wonder at this?

Or why do you look so strongly upon us, as if we had made him to walk by our own power or goodness? ¹³The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His Son, Jesus, whom you delivered up to die. And you denied Him in the presence of Pilate, after he had decided to let Him go. ¹⁴But you denied the holy and righteous One, and asked that a man who was a murderer be given to you instead. ¹⁵And you killed the Author of life, whom God raised up from among the dead, of which we are witnesses. ¹⁶And by faith in His name, this one whom you see and know has been made strong by His name. And the faith which is through Him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. ¹⁷And now, my brothers, I know that you did this without knowing what you did, as also is true of your rulers. ¹⁸But what God had before preached by the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ should suffer, He fulfilled in this way.

¹⁹Therefore repent and be converted, for the blotting out of your sins, so that the times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord may come. ²⁰And so that He may send Him who was before preached to you, Jesus Christ, ²¹whom Heaven must indeed receive until the times when all things shall be restored — of which God spoke by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began. ²²For Moses indeed said to the fathers, The Lord your God shall raise up a Prophet to you from among your brothers, One like me. You shall hear Him in all things, whatever He may say to you. ²³And it shall come to pass that every soul which will not hear that Prophet shall be destroyed from among the people. ²⁴Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those following — as many as spoke — also told of these days beforehand. ²⁵You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, “And in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed” (See GENESIS 12:3) ²⁶When He had raised up His Son Jesus, God sent Him to you first, blessing you in turning each one of you away from your sins.

¹And, as they were speaking to the people, the priests, and the captain of the Temple, and the Sād'-dū-cées came upon them. ²*They* were distressed because they were teaching the people and preaching the resurrection which is from among the dead by Jesus. ³And they laid hands on them and put them under guard until the next day, for it was evening already. ⁴But many of those who had heard the word believed. And the number of the men was about five thousand.

⁵And it came to pass on the next day that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together at Jerusalem. ⁶And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas [Ky'-ā-fās], and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the high-priestly family were there.⁷ And when they had placed them in the middle, they asked, By what power or by what name did you do this?⁸ Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,⁹ if we are tried this day as to the good work done to the lame man — by what power he has been cured —¹⁰ be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ, the Nazarean, whom you crucified, whom God raised from among the dead, it is by Him this one stands before you sound.¹¹ This is the Stone which you builders have counted worthless, which has become Head of the corner.¹² And neither is there salvation in any other; for there is no other name under Heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

¹³Now seeing the boldness of Peter and of John, and having become aware that they were without learning or education, they wondered. And they took note of them that they had been with Jesus.¹⁴ And looking at the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to reply.¹⁵ But having commanded them to go outside the Sān-hē-drīn, they talked it over with one another,¹⁶ saying, What shall we do to these men? For that a truly notable miracle has come to pass through them is plain to all those living in Jerusalem, and we are not able to deny it.¹⁷ But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them strictly to speak no more in this name to any man.

¹⁸And having called them, they commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus.¹⁹ But Peter and John answering them said, Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you judge.²⁰ For we cannot but speak what we saw and heard.²¹ But after further threatening them, they let them go, finding nothing as to how they might punish them, on account of the people. Because all the people were glorifying God for that which had been done —²² for the man was over forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing had taken place.

²³And when they had been released, they came to their own friends and reported to them whatever the chief priests and the elders said.²⁴ And when they heard it, they all together lifted up their voice to God and said, O Master, Thou art God, who didst make the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that are in them. *Thou art He*²⁵ who, through the mouth of David Thy servant didst say, "Why did the heathen rage, and the peoples think vain things?"²⁶ The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against His Christ" (See PSALM 2:1, 2).²⁷ For truly against Thy holy child Jesus, whom Thou didst anoint, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the heathen and the peoples of Israel, were gathered together²⁸ to do whatever Thy hand and counsel before determined to be done.²⁹ And now, O Lord, look upon their threats, and give to Thy servants to speak Thy word with all boldness —³⁰in the stretching forth of Thy hand for healing and miracles and wonders to come to pass through the name of Thy holy child Jesus.³¹ And when they had prayed, the place in which they were assembled was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

³²And of the multitude of those who did believe, the heart and the soul were one. And no one said that anything which he possessed was his own, but all things were common to them.³³ And with great power the apostles told of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.³⁴ For neither was there anyone among them in need, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the prices of the things sold,³⁵ and they laid them down at the feet of the apostles. And it was distributed to each as everyone had need.³⁶ And Joses, who was surnamed Bärnabas by the apostles (which means Son of cōn-sō-lā'-tion,) a Levite, of Cyprus by birth,³⁷ having some land sold it and brought the money and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

¹But a certain man named Ān-ā-nī'-ās, with his wife Sapphira [Sāf-fūr'-ā], sold a possession² and kept back part of the price, his wife also was aware of this. And bringing a certain part, he laid it at the feet of the apostles.³ But Peter said, Ān-ā-nī'-ās! why did Satan fill your heart for you to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep part of the price of the land? ⁴While it remained unsold, did it not belong to you? And when it was sold, was it not still in your own power? Why did you think this thing in your heart? You did not lie to men, but to God! ⁵And Ān-ā-nī'-ās hearing these words fell down and died. And great fear came upon all who heard these things.⁶ And the younger men arose, bound him up, and carried him out and buried him.

⁷And it happened that about three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.⁸ And Peter answered her, Tell me if you sold the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much.⁹ And Peter said to her, Why is it that you agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold! the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they shall carry you out.¹⁰ And she fell down immediately at his feet and died. And coming in, the younger men found her dead. And they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.¹¹ And great fear came upon all the church and upon all who heard these things.

¹²And many miracles and wonders were worked among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in the porch of Solomon.¹³ And of the rest no one dared join them, but the people greatly magnified them. ¹⁴And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. ¹⁵And they brought out the sick into the streets and put them on beds and couches so that at least the shadow of Peter might overshadow some one of them. ¹⁶And there came together also the crowds from the cities round about Jerusalem bringing sick ones and those who were beset by unclean spirits—who were all healed.

²¹And hearing this, they went into the Temple at dawn, and were teaching. And the high priest and the ones with him arrived. And they called the Sanhedrin together, and all the senate of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. ²²But the officers that came did not find them in the prison. And returning, they reported, ²³saying, Truly we found the prison shut with all safety, and the keepers standing outside in front of the doors; but when we had opened, we did not find anyone inside.

²⁴And when they heard these words, both the priest and the captain of the Temple, and the chief priests, were bewildered about them, what this might come to. ²⁵But someone came and told them, saying, Behold! the men whom you put in the prison are in the Temple, standing and teaching the people. ²⁶Then the captain, going with the officers, brought them without violence—for they feared that they might get stoned by the people. ²⁷And having brought them, they set them in the Sān-hē'-drin. And the high priest asked them, ²⁸saying, Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? And lo and behold! you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and intend to bring upon us the blood of this man.

²⁹And Peter and the apostles answering said, We ought to obey God rather than men. ³⁰The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed by hanging Him upon a tree. ³¹*This One*, a Prince and a Saviour, God has exalted by His right hand in order to give repentance to Israel and remission of sins. ³²And we are His witnesses of these things, and the Holy Spirit also, whom God gave to those that obey Him. ³³But hearing this, they were cut, and took counsel to put them to death. ³⁴But a certain Pharisee named Gā-mā'-li-ēl, a teacher of the Law, honored by all the people, rising up in the Sān-hē'-drin commanded the apostles to be put out for a short while. ³⁵And he said to them, Men! Israelites!

Be careful what you are about to do in regards to these men. ³⁶For before these days Theū'-dās rose up, boasting himself to be somebody, to whom a number of men (about four hundred) were joined. He was killed. And all of them were scattered and came to nothing, even as many as were obeying him. ³⁷After this one, Judas the Galilean rose up, in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all of them were scattered — as many as were obeying him. ³⁸And now I say to you, Draw back from these men and let them alone — for if this counsel or this work is of men it will be overthrown. ³⁹But if it is from God you are not able to overthrow it, lest you also be found to be fighters against God.

⁴⁰And they were persuaded by him, and having called the apostles, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus and let them go. ⁴¹Then they departed from the presence of the Sān-hē'-drīn, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame in His name. ⁴²And daily in the Temple, and in the houses, they did not stop teaching and preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 6

¹And in those days the disciples multiplied, and there arose a murmuring of the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were overlooked in the daily serving of food. ²And the twelve, calling the multitude of the disciples near, said, It is not right for us to leave the word of God in order to wait on tables. ³Therefore, brethren, find out seven men from among yourselves who are of good report and full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we can appoint over this business. ⁴But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

⁸And Stephen, full of faith and power, worked great wonders and miracles among the people. ⁹And there arose certain ones of those of the synagogue called Libertines, and of Cyrenians [Sy-rēen'-yāns], and of Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia [Sy-lish'-yā] and Asia, debating with Stephen. ¹⁰But they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke. ¹¹Then they secretly urged men on, saying, We have heard him speaking words that blaspheme Moses and God. ¹²And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes. And coming upon him, they caught him and brought him to the Săn-hē'-drîn. ¹³And they set up false witnesses, saying, This man does not stop speaking words that blaspheme this holy place and the Law. ¹⁴For we have heard him saying that Jesus the Nazarean will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us. ¹⁵And all that sat in the Săn-hē'-drîn, fastening their eyes upon him, saw his face as if it were the face of an angel.

¹Then the high priest said, Then are these things so? ²And Stephen said, Men! Brothers and fathers! Listen! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ā before he lived in Haran, ³and said to him, "Go away from your country, and your kinsfolk, and come into the land which I will show unto you" (See GENESIS 12:1). ⁴Then going out from the land of the Chaldeans [Kāl-dēe'-āns], he lived in Haran. And after his father died, He moved him from there into this land in which you now live. ⁵And He gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot-breadth. But He promised to give it to him for his own, and to his seed after him (at the time when he had no children).

⁶And God spoke in this way: That his seed shall be living in a strange land, and they will bring them into slavery and mistreat them four hundred years. ⁷And the nation to whom they shall be in slavery I will judge, said God, and after these things they shall come out and serve Me in this place. ⁸And He gave to him a covenant of circumcision. And so he fathered Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day, and Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. ⁹And moved with envy, the patriarchs sold Joseph into Egypt. ¹⁰But God was with him, and delivered him out of all his troubles, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And he made him governor over Egypt and all of his house. ¹¹And there came a famine upon all the land of Egypt and Canaan [Kāy'-nān], and great distress, and our fathers found no food. ¹²But Jacob, hearing that there was grain in Egypt, sent out our fathers the first time. ¹³And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's kinsfolk became known to Pharaoh. ¹⁴And Joseph sent, calling for his father Jacob and all his kinsfolk (seventy-five souls in all). ¹⁵And Jacob went down into Egypt and died, he and our fathers. ¹⁶And they were carried over to Shechem [Shē'-kēm], and were laid in the tomb which Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Emmor, of Shechem.

¹⁷But as the time of the promise was drawing near (the promise which God had sworn to Abraham), the people increased and multiplied in Egypt, ¹⁸until another king arose—one who had not known Joseph. ¹⁹*This one* acted slyly with our race, wickedly mistreating our fathers, causing them to put their babies outside so that they might not live.

²⁰In this time Moses was born, and he was beautiful unto God and was nursed three months in the house of his father. ²¹And when he was put outside, the daughter of Pharaoh took him up and brought him up for her own son. ²²And Moses was taught in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in words and in deeds. ²³And when forty years was fulfilled to him, it came into his heart to see his brothers, the sons of Israel. ²⁴And seeing a certain one suffering wrong, he defended him by smiting the Egyptian, and he avenged him who was being mistreated. ²⁵For he thought that his brothers would understand that God by his hand was giving them their salvation. But they did not understand. ²⁶And the next day, also, he showed himself to them as they fought and urged them to peace, saying, Men! you are brothers, why do you wrong one another? ²⁷But he that was doing wrong to his neighbor pushed him away, saying, Who made you a ruler and judge over us? ²⁸Do you want to kill me in the way you killed the Egyptian yesterday?

²⁹And at this saying Moses ran away and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons. ³⁰And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the desert of Mount Sinai [Sŷ'-nŷ'], in a flame of fire in a bush. ³¹And Moses seeing the fire wondered at the sight. And as he was coming near to look, there came a voice of the Lord to him: ³²"I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses trembled, not daring to look. ³³And the Lord said to him, "Put off the shoes from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground." ³⁴"I have seen the affliction of My people in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and came down in order to take them out. And now come, I will send you into Egypt" (See Exodus 3:3-10). ³⁵This Moses whom they had refused, saying, Who made you a ruler and judge?—this one God sent as ruler and deliverer, by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶This one led them out, after working wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea and in the wilderness forty years.

³⁷This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, The Lord your God will raise up a Prophet to you from among your brothers, One like me. You shall hear Him. ³⁸This is he who was in the con-grē-gā'-tion in the wilderness with the Angel who spoke to him in Mount Sinai and with our fathers. This is he who received living words to give to us—³⁹to whom our fathers would not be obedient. But they pushed him away and turned their hearts back to Egypt, ⁴⁰saying to Aaron, Make us gods who will go before us—for we do not know what has happened to this

Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt. ⁴¹And they made a calf in those days and offered sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in the works of their hands. ⁴²But God turned and delivered them up to serve the bodies of the sky, as it has been written in the book of the Prophets, "Did you offer slain beasts and sacrifices to Me forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? ⁴³And you took up the tent of Moloch [Mō'-lock] and the star of your god Remphan [Rēm'-fän] — the figures which you made to worship them — and I will remove you beyond Babylon" (See AMOS 5:25). ⁴⁴But the tabernacle of witness was among our fathers in the wilderness, as He who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern which he had seen. ⁴⁵This tabernacle our fathers received in turn, bringing it in with Joshua when they took possession of the nations which God drove out from before the face of our fathers — until the days of David, ⁴⁶who found favor before God. And he asked to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob, ⁴⁷but Solomon built Him a house.

⁴⁸But the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands — as the prophet says, ⁴⁹"Heaven is My throne, and earth is a footstool for My feet. What house will you build Me? says the Lord, or, Where is the place of My rest? ⁵⁰Has My hand not made all these things?" (See ISAIAH 66:1). ⁵¹O you stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always hold back against the Holy Spirit. As your fathers were, so are you. ⁵²Which one of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed the ones who preached before concerning the coming of the Just One — of whom you now have become betrayers and murderers! — ⁵³*you* who received the Law through orders of angels, and did not keep it.

⁵⁴And hearing these things they were cut to their hearts and gnashed their teeth at him. ⁵⁵But being full of the Holy Spirit, looking into Heaven he saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶*He* said, Behold! I see the heavens opened and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁷And crying out with a loud voice, they held their ears and rushed upon him with one mind. ⁵⁸And throwing him out of the city, they stoned him. And the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a young man called Saul. ⁵⁹And they stoned Stephen praying, saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. ⁶⁰Moreover, kneeling down, he cried with a loud voice, Lord, do not lay this sin to them. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

¹And Saul was agreeing to his death. And there came on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem. And they were all scattered throughout the countries of Judea and Sā-mâr'-î-ā, except the apostles. ²And devout men buried Stephen and made great lamentation over him. ³But Saul was ravaging the church. Entering house by house and dragging men and women, he delivered them up to prison.

⁴Therefore, they who had been scattered went everywhere preaching the Gospel, the Word. ⁵And Philip, going down to a city of Sā-mār'-ī-ā, preached Christ to them. ⁶And the people with one accord listened to the things spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the miracles which he did. ⁷For unclean spirits came out from many of those who were possessed, crying with a loud voice. And many who were paralyzed and lame were healed. ⁸And there was great joy in that city.

⁹But a certain man, named Simon, had been using magic arts in the city before, and had been amazing the nation of Sā-mār'-ī-ā, declaring himself to be someone great. ¹⁰To whom they were all listening, both the small and the great, saying, This is the power of God, which is great. ¹¹And they were giving attention to him because for a long time he had amazed them with the magic arts. ¹²But when they believed Philip preaching the Gospel—the things about the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ—they were baptized, both men and women. ¹³And Simon himself also believed. And when he had been baptized, he continued to follow Philip. And seeing miracles and great works of power being done, he was amazed. ¹⁴And when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Sā-mār'-ī-ā had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. ¹⁵And they, when they had come, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit—¹⁶for as yet He had fallen upon none of them, but they had only been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷Then they laid hands upon them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸And when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the hands of the apostles, he offered them money, ¹⁹saying, Give me also this power, that on whomever I may lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. ²⁰But Peter said to him, May your money be destroyed with you, because you thought the gift of God could be gotten by money. ²¹You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right in the sight of God. ²²Repent therefore of this your wickedness and pray God if indeed the thought of your heart may be forgiven to you. ²³For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and the bond of iniquity. ²⁴And Simon answering them said, Pray to the Lord on my behalf, so that none of these things of which you have spoken may come upon me. ²⁵Then when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem. And they preached the Gospel in many villages of the Sā-mār'-ī-tāns.

²⁶And an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, on the way which goes down from Jerusalem to Gā'-zā

(the same is desert). ²⁷And rising up, he went. And behold! an Ēth-ī-ō'-pī-ān man, a eū'-nūch, one in power under Cān'-dā-cē the queen of the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Ī-sā'-ī-āh. ²⁹And the Spirit said to Philip, Go near and join yourself to this chariot. ³⁰And running near to him, Philip heard him reading the prophet Ī-sā'-ī-āh, and said, Do you then know what you read? ³¹And he said, How could I unless someone should guide me? And he asked Philip to come up to sit with him. ³²And the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, "He was led as a sheep to slaughter, and as a lamb dumb before his shearer, so He does not open His mouth. ³³In His humiliation His judgment was taken away, and who shall declare His generation? for His life is taken from the earth" (See ISALAH 53:7). ³⁴And the eunuch answering to Philip said, I pray you, about whom does the prophet say this? about himself, or about some other? ³⁵And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture he preached to him the Gospel of Jesus.

³⁶And as they were going along the way, they came upon a certain water, and the eunuch says, Behold! Water! What keeps me from being baptized? ³⁷And Philip said, If you believe from the whole heart, it is lawful. And answering he said, I believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God. ³⁸And he commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. ³⁹And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more, for he went his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰And Philip was found at Ā-zō'-tūs, and passing through he preached the Gospel to all the cities until he came to Caesarea [Sēe-zā-rē'-ā].

CHAPTER 9

¹But Saul, still breathing out threatenings and murder against the Lord's disciples, went to the high priest ²asking for letters from him to the synagogues at Dā-mās'-cūs, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³But in going, he drew near to Dā-mās'-cūs, and suddenly a light from heaven shone round about him. ⁴And he fell down on the ground and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? ⁵And he said, Who are you, lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you persecute. It is hard for you to kick against the goads. ⁶And trembling and amazed, he said, Lord, What wilt Thou have me to do? And the Lord said to him, Get up and go into the city and you will be told what you should do. ⁷But the men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing indeed the voice, but seeing no one. ⁸And Saul rose up from the ground, and his eyes being opened, he saw no one. But leading him by the hand, they brought him to Dă-măs'-cūs. ⁹And he was three days without seeing and did not eat or drink.

¹⁰And there was a certain disciple in Dă-măs'-cus, named Ān-ā-nī'-ās. And the Lord said to him in a vision, Ān-ā-nī'-ās! And he said, Behold me, Lord. ¹¹And the Lord said to him, Get up! go into the street called Straight Street and ask in the house of Judas for one named Saul of Tār'-sūs: for behold, he prays. ¹²And he has seen in a vision a man named Ān-ā-nī'-ās coming in and putting a hand upon him, so that he might see. ¹³And Ān-ā-nī'-ās answered, Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many evils he has done to Thy saints in Jerusalem; ¹⁴and here he has authority from the chief priests to chain all who call upon Thy name. ¹⁵And the Lord said to him, Go! for this man is a chosen vessel unto Me, to bear My name before nations and kings and the sons of Israel. ¹⁶For I will show him how much he must suffer for My name. ¹⁷And Ān-ā-nī'-ās went away and entered into the house. And laying his hands on him, he said, Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me — Jesus who appeared to you in the way in which you came — in order that you might receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he instantly saw again.

And rising up, he was baptized. ¹⁹And taking food, he was strengthened. And Saul was with the disciples at Dă-măs'-cūs certain days. ²⁰And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God. ²¹And all those who heard were amazed and said, Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this Name in Jerusalem? and who had come here for this, that he might bring them chained to the chief priests? ²²But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived in Dă-măs'-cūs, proving to them that this is the Christ. ²³Now when many days were fulfilled, the Jews plotted together to kill him. ²⁴But their plot became known to Saul. They were also watching the gates both day and night, so that they might kill him. ²⁵But the disciples, taking him by night, let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

²⁶And after Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. ²⁷But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and told them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that He spoke to him — and how he had spoken boldly in Dă-măs'-cūs in the name of Jesus. ²⁸And he was with them, coming in and going out in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus. ²⁹And he spoke and reasoned with the Hellenists; but they undertook to kill him. ³⁰But when the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caē-sā-rē'-ā, and sent him away to Tār'-sūs. ³¹Then indeed the churches through all of Judea and Galilee and Sā-mâr'-î-ă had peace — being built up and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

³²Now it came to pass that Peter, passing through all the places, went down also to the saints that lived at Lÿd'-dă. ³³And he found there a certain man named Ē-nē'-ās, who had been lying on a bed for eight years, being paralyzed. ³⁴And Peter said to him, Ē-nē'-ās, Jesus the Christ heals you! Get up and spread a bed for yourself. And he rose up immediately. ³⁵And all of those living in Lÿd'-dă and Sâr'-ōn saw him and turned to the Lord.

³⁶And there was a certain disciple at Jop'-pă named Tăb'-î-thă (which means she was called Dôr'-căs). She was full of good works and of kind-hearted acts which she did. ³⁷And it happened in those days that she became sick and died. And after they had bathed her, they put her in an upper room. ³⁸And as Lÿd'-dă was near to Jöp'-pă, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him asking him to come to them without delay. ³⁹And Peter rose up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. And all the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing coats and clothes which Dorcas was making with them. ⁴⁰But Peter put them all out and kneeled down and prayed. Then turning to the body, he said, Tăb'-î-thă, Arise! And she opened her eyes, and, seeing Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹And he gave her his hand and raised her up, and when he had called the saints and the widows back, he showed her alive. ⁴²And it became known throughout all Jöp'-pă, and many believed on the Lord. ⁴³And it came to pass that he stayed many days in Jöp'-pă with a certain tanner named Simon.

¹And there was a certain man in Caē-sā-rē'-ă named Cornelius, a captain of the Italian Band. ²*He was* pious and feared God with all his house, doing also many good deeds unto the people, and praying to God continually. ³About the ninth hour of the day he saw in a vision plainly an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, Cornelius! ⁴And when he looked earnestly on him, he was afraid and said, What is it, lord? And he said to him, Your prayers and your charity have come up for a memorial before God. ⁵And now send men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose last name is Peter. ⁶He stays with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. He shall tell you what you ought to do. ⁷And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius went away, he called two of his servants and a pious soldier from among those who always waited on him. ⁸And after he told them all things, he sent them to Joppa.

⁹And on the next day, as these men were traveling and drawing near to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. ¹⁰And he became very hungry and wanted to eat. But as they were making ready, a trance fell upon him, ¹¹and he saw heaven opened up. And he saw a certain vessel coming down upon him, like a great sheet bound by the four corners. And it was let down on the earth, ¹²in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth and the wild beasts, and creeping things, and the birds of the sky. ¹³And a voice came to him saying, Get up, Peter, kill, and eat. ¹⁴But Peter said, Oh no, Lord, for I never have eaten anything common or unclean. ¹⁵And a voice came again the second time to him saying, What God has made clean, you do not make common. ¹⁶And this took place three times, and then the vessel was again taken up into heaven. ¹⁷And even as Peter was bewildered as to what the vision which he saw might mean, then behold! the men who were sent from Cornelius (having asked for the house of Simon), stood at the gate. ¹⁸And they called out asking if Simon, whose last name was Peter, was staying there.

¹⁹And even while Peter thought upon the vision, the Spirit said to him, Behold! three men are looking for you. ²⁰But arise and go down and go with them, doubting nothing, for I have sent them. ²¹And Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius, and said, Behold! I am he whom you seek. Why did you come? ²²And they said, Cornelius, a captain, a righteous and God-fearing man, also one well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house, and to hear words from you. ²³Then he called them in, and lodged them. And on the next day Peter went away with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him. ²⁴And on the next day they entered Caē-sā-rē'-ā. And Cornelius was expecting them, having called together his close friends and relatives. ²⁵And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, falling down at his feet, worshipping. ²⁶But Peter raised him up, saying, Stand up, I myself also am a man.

²⁷And talking with him he went in, and he found many gathered together. ²⁸And he said to them, You know that it is not lawful for a Jewish man to go with or come near to one of another race. But God taught me not to call any man common or unclean. ²⁹Therefore when I was sent for, I came without doubt. I ask, therefore, for what reason did you send for me? ³⁰And Cornelius said, Four days ago until this hour, I was fasting, and at the ninth hour praying in my house, and behold! a man stood in front of me in bright clothing ³¹and said, Cornelius, your prayer was heard and your kind-hearted deeds were remembered before God. ³²Therefore send to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose last name is Peter. He is staying in Simon's house, a tanner, by the sea. When he comes, he will speak to you. ³³Therefore, I immediately sent to you, and you did well to come. Now then we are all present before God to hear all things that God has commanded you. ³⁴And Peter, opening his mouth said, Of a truth I see that God is not a respecter of persons, ³⁵but in every nation he who fears Him and works righteousness is acceptable to Him. ³⁶The word which He sent to the sons of Israel, preaching the Gospel, peace by Jesus Christ — He is Lord of all — you know. ³⁷*It is* the message which came throughout all Judea, having begun from Galilee after the baptism which John preached: ³⁸How that God anointed Jesus (who was from Nazareth) with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all that were pressed down by the devil, because God was with Him. ³⁹And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they killed by hanging Him on a tree. ⁴⁰This One God raised up on the third day and revealed Him to be seen, ⁴¹not to all the people, but to witnesses who had been chosen before by God — even to us who ate with Him and drank with Him after He had risen from among the dead. ⁴²And He commanded us to preach to the people and to fully testify that it is He who has been appointed by God to be the Judge of living and dead. ⁴³All the prophets bear witness to Him, that through His name everyone that believes on Him receives remission of sins.

⁴⁴Even while Peter was speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all those hearing the word. ⁴⁵And those of the circumcision-believers (those who came with Peter) were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had also been poured out upon the Gentiles. ⁴⁶For they heard them speaking with languages and magnifying God. Then Peter answered, ⁴⁷Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit even as we also? ⁴⁸And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they begged him to stay certain days.

CHAPTER 11

¹And the apostles and brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles received the word of God also. ²And when Peter went up to Jerusalem, they of the circumcision contended with him, ³saying, You went in to men not circumcised and ate with them. ⁴But Peter began explaining to them in order, saying, ⁵I was in the city of Joppa praying. And in a trance I saw a vision of a certain vessel like a great sheet coming down, lowered by its four corners out of heaven. And it came as far as me. ⁶Looking into it, I considered, and I saw the four-footed animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the sky. ⁷And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter! kill and eat. ⁸But I said, Not so, Lord! for nothing common or unclean has entered my mouth. ⁹But a voice answered me the second time out of heaven,

What God made clean, you do not make common. ¹⁰And this took place three times, and all was again drawn up into the sky. ¹¹And behold! immediately three men stood at the house where I was, having been sent from Caē-sā-rē'-ā to me.

¹²And the Spirit said for me to go with them, doubting nothing. And these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man. ¹³And he told us how he saw the angel standing in his house and saying to him, Send men to Joppa, and send for Simon, who is surnamed Peter. ¹⁴He shall speak words to you whereby you and all your house shall be saved. ¹⁵And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them also, even as upon us in the beginning. ¹⁶And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷If then God gave the same gift to them as also to us, when we had believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to be able to withstand God? ¹⁸And hearing these things, they were silent and glorified God, saying, Then truly God gave repentance unto life to the Gentiles also.

²²And the news about them was heard in the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem. And they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. ²³He rejoiced when he had come and had seen the grace of God and encouraged them all to cleave to the Lord with purpose of heart. ²⁴For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great multitude was added to the Lord. ²⁵And Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul, ²⁶and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass that they gathered together in the church a whole year and taught a great multitude. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

²⁷And in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸And one rising up from among them (named Āg'-ā-būs), he showed by the Spirit that a great famine was about to be over the whole world — which also came to pass in the time of Claudius Caesar. ²⁹And every one of the disciples decided to send relief to the brothers living in Judea, as much as anyone was able — ³⁰which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

¹And at that time Herod the king put forward his hands to do evil to some of those of the church. ²And he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. ³And seeing that it was pleasing to the Jews, he went further to lay hold on Peter too. And then were the days of unleavened bread. ⁴When he had caught Peter too, he put him in prison, delivering him to four sets of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. ⁵Then, indeed, Peter was kept in the prison, but fervent prayer for him was made by the church unto God. ⁶But when Herod was about to bring him out, in the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards were keeping the prison in front of the cell door.

⁷And behold! an angel of the Lord stood by, and a light shone in the building. And hitting Peter on the side, he wakened him, saying, Get up quickly! And the chains fell off from his hands, and the angel said to him, Dress yourself, and put on your sandals — and he did so. ⁸And he says to him, Put your robe around you and follow me. ⁹And he followed him, going out. And he did not realize this which was happening by means of the angel was really true, but thought he saw a vision. ¹⁰And passing through the first guard, and the second, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them of its own accord. And going out, they went on through one street, and suddenly the angel left him. ¹¹Now coming to himself, Peter said, Now I know truly that the Lord sent out His angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod and from all the hope of the people of the Jews.

¹²And considering it, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, who is surnamed Mark, where many were gathered together and praying. ¹³And when Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl named Rhoda came to see who was at the door. ¹⁴And recognizing the voice of Peter, she did not open the gate for pure joy. But running inside she told them of Peter standing in front of the gate. ¹⁵But they said to her, You are crazy. But she insisted it was so. And they said, It is his angel. ¹⁶But Peter still kept on knocking. And when they opened up, they saw him and were amazed. ¹⁷But waving to them with his hand to be silent, he told them how the Lord brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go tell these things to James, and to the brothers. And going out, he went into another place.

¹⁸And day coming, there was no small stir among the soldiers. What then had become of Peter? ¹⁹And Herod, after searching for him and not finding him, examined the guards. And he commanded them to be led away to death. And going down from Judea to Caē-sā-rē'-ā, he stayed there. ²⁰And Herod was bitterly displeased with the Ty'-rī-āns and Sī-dō'-nī-āns. But they (having made a friend of Blastus, who was over the bedchamber of the king) came to Herod all together and sought peace, because their country was fed by the king's country. ²¹And on an appointed day, Herod was dressed up in royal clothing and was sitting upon the throne, making a speech to them. ²²And the people were crying out, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man! ²³But immediately an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give the glory to God. And he died, being eaten of worms.

²⁴But the word of God grew and multiplied. ²⁵And Barnabas and Saul came back from Jerusalem, having completed their mission, taking with them John also, who was surnamed Mark.

¹Now there were certain prophets and teachers there in the church in Antioch: Both Barnabas and Simeon (who was called Niger), and Lucius the Cy-rēn'-ī-ān, and Mān'-ā-ēn (the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch), and Saul. ²And as they were doing service to the Lord, and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, Now separate both Barnabas and Saul to Me, for the work to which I have called them. ³Then when they had fasted and prayed and had laid hands on them, they let them go. ⁴Then they went down to Seleucia [Sē-loose'-yā], having been truly sent forth by the Holy Spirit, and from there sailed away to Cyprus. ⁵And coming into Sāl'-ā-mus, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John as a minister.

⁶And passing through the island as far as Paphos [Pāy'-foss], they found a certain magician (a false prophet—a Jew whose name was Bār-jē'-sūs) ⁷who was with the governor, Ser'-gī-ūs Paul'-ūs, an intelligent man. He called Barnabas and Saul to him, asking to hear the word of God. ⁸But there Ēl'-y-mās the magician (for so is the meaning of his name) withstood them, wanting to turn away the governor from the faith. ⁹But Saul (who is also Paul), being filled with the Holy Spirit, and fastening his eyes on him, ¹⁰said, O son of the devil, full of all guile and all cunning, enemy of all righteousness, will you not stop perverting the right ways of the Lord? ¹¹And now behold! the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for some time. And immediately a mist and darkness fell upon him, and he went about asking some to lead him by the hand. ¹²Then seeing what had happened, the governor believed, being gladly amazed at the teaching of the Lord.

¹³Paul and those with him sailed from Pā'-phōs and came to Perga of Pamphylia [Pām-fīl'-ī-ā]. And John left them and returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴But after passing through from Perga, they came to Antioch of Pisidia. And going into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, they sat down. ¹⁵And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Men! Brothers! if there is among you a word of encouragement to the people, say on. ¹⁶And Paul rose up and made a signal with his hand, saying, Men! Israelites! and those fearing God, listen! ¹⁷The God of this people Israel chose out our fathers, and lifted up the people in their stay in the land of Egypt. And He brought them out of it with a high arm, ¹⁸and He endured their manners about the time of forty years in the desert. ¹⁹And having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave their land to them by lot. ²⁰And after these things, about four hundred and fifty years, He gave judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹And then they asked for a king, and God gave Saul to them, the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ²²And after taking him away, He raised up David for their king—to whom also He witnessed and said, I found David the son of Jesse a man according to My own heart, who shall do all My will. ²³Of the seed of this man, according to promise, God raised up a Saviour unto Israel, Jesus—²⁴after John had first preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel before His coming. ²⁵And as John was finishing his course, he said, Who do you think that I am? I am not He! but behold! He comes after me, of whom I am not worthy to loose the sandal of His feet.

²⁶Men! Brothers! sons of the race of Abraham, and those among you fearing God! To you was the word of this salvation sent. ²⁷For those living in Jerusalem and their rulers, not knowing Him, nor the voices of the prophets who are being read on every Sabbath, they have fulfilled them in condemning Him. ²⁸And no one finding any cause of death in Him, they begged Pilate to put Him to death. ²⁹And when they finished all things that had been written about Him, taking Him down from the tree, they laid Him in a tomb. ³⁰But God raised Him from among the dead, ³¹and He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem—who are His witnesses to the people.

³²And we preach to you the Gospel, the promise made to the fathers, ³³that God has fulfilled this to us, their children, having raised up Jesus. As it has been written in the second Psalm also, “Thou art My Son. Today have I begotten Thee” (See PSALM 2:7). ³⁴And that He raised Him from among the dead, never more to return to corruption, He spoke in this way: “I will give unto you the sure mercies of David” (See ISAIAH 55:3). ³⁵Therefore He also says in another, “Thou wilt not allow Thy Holy One to see corruption” (See PSALM 16:10). ³⁶For after serving his own generation by the will of God, David died and was added to his fathers, and did see corruption. ³⁷But He whom God raised up did not see corruption! ³⁸Be it known to you, therefore, Men, Brothers, that through this One is remission of sins preached. ³⁹And in Him everyone who believes is justified from all things from which you were not able to be justified by the law of Moses.

⁴⁰Take care, therefore, that it may not come upon you which has been spoken in the prophets — ⁴¹“Behold, you despisers! and wonder and perish, for I work a work in your days, a work which you in no way would believe, not even if one should declare it to you” (See HABAKKUK 1:5). ⁴²But after the Jews left the synagogue, the Gentiles asked that these words be spoken to them on the next Sabbath. ⁴³And after the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and the devoted converts followed Paul and Barnabas — who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴And on the coming Sabbath, almost all the city was gathered together to hear the word of God. ⁴⁵But seeing the multitudes, the Jews were filled with envy and denied the things spoken by Paul, opposing and blaspheming. ⁴⁶But speaking boldly, Paul and Barnabas said, It was right that the word of God should be spoken to you first, but because you thrust it away, and you do not judge yourselves worthy of everlasting life, behold! we turn to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷For so the Lord has commanded us: “I have set Thee for a light of the Gentiles, that Thou mightest be for salvation to the uttermost part of the earth” (See ISAIAH 49:6).

⁴⁸And the Gentiles hearing this rejoiced and glorified the word of the Lord — and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. ⁴⁹And the word of the Lord was spread abroad through all that country. ⁵⁰But the Jews stirred up the devoted and honorable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they expelled them out of their borders. ⁵¹But shaking off the dust of their feet against them, they came to Iconium [Ī-kō'-nī-ŭm]. ⁵²And the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14

¹And it came to pass that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews in Iconium and spoke so that a great multitude believed, both of Jews and Grecian Jews. ²But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, making them evil-hearted against the brethren. ³Therefore they stayed a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who bore witness to the word of His grace, giving miracles and wonders to be done through their hands.

⁴And the multitude of the city was divided, and some were with the Jews, and some with the apostles. ⁵And when there was an attack of both the Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, in order to abuse and to stone them, ⁶they became aware of it and escaped to the cities of Lycaonia [Lÿ-kāy-ō'-nī-äh], Lystra [Līs'-trā], and Derbe, and the country round about. ⁷And there they were preaching the Gospel.

⁸And a certain man sat in Lystra powerless in the feet, being lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked. ⁹This man heard Paul speaking: who, fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had faith to be healed, ¹⁰said with a loud voice, Stand up on your feet! And he jumped up and walked. ¹¹And the people, seeing what Paul did, lifted up their voice in the Lycaonian [Lÿ-kāy-ōwn'-yän] language, saying, The gods have become like men and have come down to us. ¹²And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the leader in speaking.

¹³And the priest of Zeus, who was before the city, bringing up oxen and garlands to the gates, along with the people, wanted to sacrifice. ¹⁴And hearing this, Barnabas and Paul tore their clothes and rushed into the crowd, crying out ¹⁵and saying, Men! why do you do these things? We also are men with feelings like you, preaching the Gospel to you in order to turn you from these worthless things to the living God—who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all the things in them—¹⁶who in the past ages allowed all the nations to go on in their own ways, ¹⁷although He truly did not leave Himself without witness, doing good by giving rains from Heaven to us, and fruitful seasons, and filling our hearts with food and gladness. ¹⁸And saying these things, they barely stopped the people from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹But Jews from Antioch and Ī-cō'-nī-ūm came there, and having persuaded the people, they stoned Paul and drew him outside the city, supposing him to have died. ²⁰But the disciples gathered around him, and he rose up and went into the city. And on the next day he went away with Barnabas to Derbe. ²¹And having preached the Gospel to that city, and having taught many, they returned again to Lystra and Iconium and Antioch—²²confirming the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the kingdom of God. ²³And after electing elders for them in every church, and praying, with fastings, they gave them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. ²⁴And passing through Pī-sīd'-i-ā, they came to Pamphylia [Pām-fill'-i-ā], ²⁵and after they had spoken the word in Perga, they came down to Āt-tā'-lī-ā. ²⁶And from there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been delivered up to the grace of God for the work which they had completed. ²⁷And having come and gathered together the church, they reported all that God did with them, and that He opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸And they stayed there for some time with the disciples.

¹And certain ones who had come down from Judea were teaching the brothers, saying, Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved. ²Therefore, after an uproar had taken place, and not a little discussion by Paul and Barnabas with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and certain others from among them, to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this question. ³Then, indeed, having been sent forward by the church, they passed through Phenicia [Fē-nish'-yā] and Samaria telling of the conversion of the Gentiles. And they caused great joy to all the brothers. ⁴And coming to Jerusalem, they were welcomed gladly by the church and the apostles and the elders. And they made known all that God did with them.

⁵And there rose up certain of those of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, It is only right to circumcise them and command them to keep the law of Moses. ⁶And the apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. ⁷And after there had been much talk, rising up, Peter said to them, Men! Brothers! you know that from early days from among us God chose that the Gentiles were to hear the word of the Gospel by my mouth, and to believe. ⁸And the heart-knowing God bore witness to them, giving to them the Holy Spirit, even as also to us. ⁹And also He put no difference between us and them, for He had made their hearts pure by faith. ¹⁰Now, therefore, why do you tempt God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples? a yoke which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? ¹¹But we believe through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, to be saved in the same manner as they also.

¹²And all the multitude kept silence and heard Barnabas and Paul telling what miracles and wonders God did among the Gentiles by them. ¹³And after they were silent, James answered, saying, Men! Brothers! hear me. ¹⁴Simon Peter has said how God at first looked out in order to take out of the Gentiles a people for His name. ¹⁵And with this agree the words of the prophets: as it has been written, ¹⁶“After these things I will return and will build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen; and the ruins of it I will build again, and will set it up, ¹⁷so that the men who are left may seek out the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom My name has been called, says the Lord, who is doing all these things” (See AMOS 9:11, 12). ¹⁸All His works are known unto God from eternity. ¹⁹Therefore I judge: We are not to trouble those who from the Gentiles turn to God; ²⁰but to write to them to abstain from the unclean things of the idols and from fornication and from things strangled and from blood. ²¹For Moses from ages past has those preaching him in the synagogues, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.

²²Then it seemed good to the apostles and to the elders, with the whole church, to send men chosen from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas (whose last name was Barsabas) and Silas, chief men among the brothers, ²³writing thus by their hand: The apostles and the elders and the brothers to those in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia. Brothers from among the Gentiles, greeting: ²⁴Inasmuch as we have heard that certain ones who went forth from us troubled you by words, unsettling your souls, saying, Be circumcised and keep the Law — to whom we gave no command — ²⁵it seemed good to us, having come together with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul — ²⁶men who have given up their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, and they by word will tell you the same things. ²⁸For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay no further burden upon you than these necessary things: ²⁹to abstain from things sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from fornication, from which if you keep yourselves, you will do well. Farewell.

³⁰They, therefore, being let go, went to Antioch. And gathering the multitude together, they delivered the letter. ³¹And having read it, they rejoiced at the comfort. ³²And Judas and Silas also, being themselves prophets, encouraged the brethren through much discussion and strengthened them. ³³And after some time had passed, they were let go in peace from the brothers to the apostles. ³⁴But it seemed good to Silas to stay there. ³⁵And Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, with many others also, teaching and preaching the Gospel, the word of the Lord.

³⁶But after some days Paul said to Barnabas, Now then, let us go back and search out our brothers in every city in which we have preached the word of the Lord, to see how they are. ³⁷And Barnabas planned to take John, the one called Mark. ³⁸But Paul did not think it good to take him who withdrew from them from Päm-phyl'-i-ä and did not go with them to the work. ³⁹Therefore there arose a sharp fit of anger so that they parted from one another. And Barnabas, taking Mark, sailed to Cyprus. ⁴⁰But Paul, choosing Silas, went forth after being commended to the grace of God by the brothers. ⁴¹And he went through Syria and Cilicia [Sy-lish'-yă], making the churches strong.

CHAPTER 16

¹And he came to Dēr'-bē and Lystra [Liss'-träh]. And behold! a certain disciple was there, named Timothy (the son of a certain woman who was a believing Jewess, but his father was a Greek). ²*He* was well reported of by the brothers in Lys'-trä and Ī-cōn'-i-üm. ³Paul wanted this one to go with him, and he took and circumcised him on account of the Jews who were in those places—for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

⁴And as they were passing through the cities, they delivered to them the commandments to keep, those decided on by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. ⁵Then, truly, the churches were made stronger in the faith and increased in number every day. ⁶And having passed through Phryg'-i-ā and the country of Galatia [Gā-lāy'-shāh], they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia. ⁷After coming down to Mysia [Mīsh'-yāh] they were trying to go on to Bithynia [Bī-thīn'-yāh], but the Spirit did not allow them. ⁸And passing by Mys'-i-ā, they came down to Trō'-ās. ⁹And a vision appeared to Paul during the night: A certain man of Macedonia [Māss-ē-dō'-nī-āh] was standing and calling to him, saying, Cross over into Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā! Help us! ¹⁰And when he saw the vision, we immediately tried to go into Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, feeling sure that the Lord had called us to preach the Gospel to them.

¹¹Therefore, after sailing from Trō'-ās, we came with a straight course to Samothracia [Sām-ō-thrāy'-shāh]. And on the next day we came to Nē-ā'-pō-lis, ¹²and from there to Philippi [Fill'-īp-pī], which is the chief city of that part of Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, a colony. And we were staying in this city for some days. ¹³And on the day of the Sabbath, we went outside the city by a river, where it was the custom for prayer to be made. And sitting down, we spoke to the women who came together there. ¹⁴And a certain woman, named Lydia [Līd'-yāh], a seller of purple cloth—who was from the city of Thy-ā-tī'-rā—who worshipped God, was listening: whose heart the Lord opened in order to pay attention to the things spoken by Paul. ¹⁵And when she was baptized, and her household, she appealed to us, saying, If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay. And she compelled us.

¹⁶And it came to pass as we were going to prayer, a certain young girl met us—one who had a spirit which could divine things, who brought much gain to her masters by divining. ¹⁷Following Paul and us, she cried out, saying, These men are servants of the Most High God, who show to us the way of salvation. ¹⁸And this she did for many days. But Paul, being grieved, turning to the spirit said, I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out the same hour. ¹⁹And seeing that the hope of their gain was gone, her masters caught Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market place before the rulers. ²⁰And bringing them up to the judges, they said, These men, who are Jews, trouble our city, ²¹and they teach customs which it is not lawful for us to receive nor to do, being Romans. ²²And the multitude rose up together against them. And the judges, after tearing their clothes off them, commanded them to be beaten with rods. ²³And after they laid on them many stripes, they threw them into prison, warning the jailor to keep them safely. ²⁴After getting such a warning, he shoved them into the inner prison and fastened their feet to the wood stocks.

²⁵And towards midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners listened to them. ²⁶Then suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened and all of the bonds were loosened. ²⁷And the jailor being awakened out of sleep, and seeing the doors of the prison opened, drawing a sword was about to kill himself — supposing the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸But Paul called out with a loud voice saying, Do no harm to yourself! for we are all here. ²⁹And he, after he had called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling in front of Paul and Silas.

³⁰And after he had brought them out, he said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? ³¹And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you shall be saved, you and your household. ³²And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, and to all those in his household. ³³And taking them in that hour of the night, he washed dirt from the stripes. And he and all who were his were baptized at once. ³⁴And bringing them into his own house, he laid a table for them, and rejoiced with all his household, having believed in God.

³⁵And when day had come, the judges sent the floggers saying, Let those men go. ³⁶And the jailor spoke these words to Paul, The judges have sent that you may be set free. Now, then, when you have gone out, go in peace. ³⁷But Paul said to them, After they had beaten us publicly, who are Romans and not found guilty, they threw us into prison — and now they secretly throw us out! No indeed! But let them come themselves and bring us out. ³⁸And the floggers reported these words to the judges. And when they heard that they were Romans, they were afraid. ³⁹They came and appealed to them, and bringing them out they begged them to go out of the city. ⁴⁰And after going forth out of the prison, they came to Lÿd'-i-ă's, and having seen the brothers, they comforted them, and went away.

¹And after they had traveled through Ām-phīp'-ō-lis and Āp-ōl-lō'-nī-ā, they came to Thēss-ā-lō-nī'-cā, where the Jews' synagogue was. ²And according to the custom with Paul, he went in to talk to them. And for three sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, ³opening and setting out that the Christ must needs have suffered and to have risen from among the dead — and that this Jesus whom I preach unto you is the Christ.

⁴And some of them were persuaded, and joined themselves to Paul and Silas. And a great many of the Greeks who worshipped, and quite a few of the leading women were persuaded. ⁵But the unbelieving Jews, becoming jealous, and taking some evil men from the market-loafers, collected a crowd and set the city in an uproar. And after setting themselves against Já-son's house, they tried to bring them out to the people. ⁶But not finding them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city judges, crying out, Those who have turned the world upside down have come here too, ⁷and Jason has received them. And all of these do things contrary to the commandments of Caesar, saying there is another king — Jesus. ⁸And they stirred up the people and the city judges who heard these things. ⁹But after they had taken bond from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

¹⁰But the brothers immediately sent both Paul and Silas away by night to Bě-rě'-ă. They, when they arrived, went into the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹And these were more noble-minded than those in Thēs'-sā-lō-nī'-cā. For they received the word with all readiness, daily searching the Scriptures to see if these things were so. ¹²Then, indeed, many of them believed, and quite a few of the honorable Greek women and men. ¹³But when the Jews from Thēs'-sā-lō-nī'-cā found out that the word of God was preached by Paul in Bě-rě'-ă also, they came there too, stirring up the people. ¹⁴And then immediately the brothers sent Paul away to go toward the sea, but both Silas and Timothy stayed there. ¹⁵And those bringing Paul brought him to Āth'-ĕns. And after they had received a command to Silas and Timothy, that they should come to him as quickly as possible, they went away.

¹⁹And taking hold of him they brought him to Mars Hill, saying, Are we able to know what this new teaching is, which is taught by you? — ²⁰for you bring strange things to our ears. We would like to know, therefore, what these things mean. ²¹Now all the Āth-ĕ'-nī-ăns and the strangers living there spent their leisure time in nothing else than to tell and to hear some new thing. ²²And Paul, standing in the middle of Mars Hill, said, Men! Āth-ĕ'-nī-ăns! I see you are very fearful of gods in all things. ²³For passing through and seeing the things which you worship, I found also an altar on which this had been written, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Therefore not knowing whom you worship, I make Him known to you — ²⁴the God who made the world and all things that are in it. He being Lord of Heaven and earth does not live in temples made with hands. ²⁵Neither is He served by the hands of men, as if He needed anything, He Himself giving to all life, breath and all things. ²⁶And He made every nation of men of one blood, to live on all the face of the earth. For He had ordained the times and boundaries of their living place, which He before determined, ²⁷so that they might seek the Lord — if perhaps they might feel after Him, and might find Him. Though, indeed, He is not far from each one of us, ²⁸for in Him we live and move and have our being; as also some of the poets among you have said, For we are also His offspring. ²⁹Being offspring of God, then, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold or silver or stone, engraved by art and imagination of man. ³⁰Truly, then, having before overlooked the times of ignorance, God now commands all men everywhere to repent. ³¹Because He has set a day in which He is going to judge the world in righteousness, by the Man whom He ordained — for He has given assurance to all, having raised Him from among the dead.

³²But hearing of a resurrection of the dead, some indeed made fun of it, but others said, We will hear you again concerning this. ³³And so Paul went out from their midst. ³⁴But some men believed, joining themselves to him; among whom also was Dionysius [Dy-ō-nīss'-yūs] the Ār-ē-ōp'-ā-gīte, and a woman named Dām'-ā-rīs, and others with them.

¹And after these things, Paul left Athens and came to Corinth. ²And after he had found a certain Jew named Aquila (of Pontus by birth) and Priscilla his wife (who had lately come from Italy because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome,) he came to live with them. ³And because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and worked — for they were tentmakers by trade. ⁴And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

⁵And when both Silas and Timothy came down from Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, Paul was pressed in the spirit, earnestly witnessing to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. ⁶But as they set themselves in opposition, and were blaspheming God, he shook his robes and said to them, Your blood be upon your own head! I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles. ⁷And leaving there, he came to the house of a certain one named Justus, who worshipped God, whose house was next to the synagogue.

⁸And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. And many of the Corinthians hearing this believed and were baptized. ⁹And by a vision in the night, the Lord said to Paul, Fear not, but speak, and do not keep still, ¹⁰because I am with you, and no one shall set upon you to do evil to you, for I have many people in this city. ¹¹And he stayed there a year and six months, teaching among them the word of God.

¹²But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia [Ā-ky'-āh], the Jews rose up against Paul all together and led him to the judgment seat, ¹³saying, This one persuades men to worship God contrary to the Law. ¹⁴But as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If, indeed, then, it was anything unrighteous, or some wicked fraud, O Jews, according to reason I would have borne with you. ¹⁵But if it is a question about words and names, and a law which is among you, you will see to it yourselves—for I do not want to be a judge of these things. ¹⁶And he drove them away from the judgment seat. ¹⁷Then all the Greeks, taking Sōs'-thē-nēs, the ruler of the synagogue, were beating him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio did not care, even for these things.

¹⁸But Paul still remained there many days. And then, taking leave of the brothers, he sailed away to Syria. And Priscilla and Aquila were with him. And he had shorn his head in Cenchrea [Sēn'-krē-āh], for he had a vow. ¹⁹And he came to Ephesus [Ēf'-ē-sūs] and left them there. But he himself reasoned with the Jews, after he had entered into the synagogue. ²⁰And when they asked him to stay for a longer time with them, he did not agree. ²¹But he left them, saying, It is needful for me by all means to keep the coming feast at Jerusalem, but I will come again to you, God willing. And he sailed from Ephesus. ²²And having landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, then went down to Antioch. ²³And after staying some time, he left, passing through the countries of Galatia and Phrygia [Frīdg'-ē-ā] in that order, giving strength to all the disciples.

²⁴But a certain Jew named Apollos, an Āl-ēx-ān'-drī-ān by birth, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, being mighty in the Scriptures. ²⁵He was taught in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and exactly taught the things concerning the Lord—though knowing only the baptism of John. ²⁶And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. And when Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him and more exactly explained the way of God to him. ²⁷And when he wanted to pass through into Ā-chaī'-ā, the brothers wrote to the disciples encouraging them to welcome him. And after he had arrived, he very much helped the ones who believed through grace. ²⁸For he powerfully confuted the Jews publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

¹And it came to pass while Apollos was in Corinth, Paul came to Ephesus, after he had passed through the upper countries. And finding certain disciples, ²he said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said to him, We did not even hear if there is any Holy Spirit. ³And he said to them, Then unto what were you baptized? And they said, Unto the baptism of John. ⁴And Paul said, John truly baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him, who was coming after him — that is, on the Christ: Jesus. ⁵And hearing this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶And after Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they were speaking with tongues and prophesying. ⁷And there were about twelve men in all.

¹³But some of the Jews, who went around throwing out demons, took it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, We command you by Jesus, whom Paul preaches. ¹⁴And there were certain ones (the seven sons of Sceva, a Jew and a chief priest) who were doing this. ¹⁵But the evil spirits answering said, Jesus I know and Paul I know, but you, who are you? ¹⁶And the man, in whom the evil spirit was, leaped upon them. And overcoming them, he gained the victory against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷And this became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. ¹⁸And many of those who believed came confessing and declaring their deeds. ¹⁹And many of those who had practiced the magic arts, bringing their books, burned them before all. And they counted up the prices of them and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. ²⁰So with power the word of the Lord increased and triumphed.

²¹And when these things were ended, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, Paul purposed in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, it is needful for me to also see Rome. ²²And having sent two of those who ministered to him into Macedonia (Timothy and Erastus), he stayed for a time in Asia.

²³And there came at that time quite a disturbance about the Way. ²⁴For a certain one named Dē-mē'-trī-ūs, a silversmith making silver shrines of Diana, brought no little profit to the skilled workers. ²⁵After bringing these together, and the workmen doing the same kind of things, he said, Men! you know that we have our riches from this work. ²⁶And you see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but almost in all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away a great multitude, saying that they which are made by hands are not gods. ²⁷Now not only is this dangerous to us lest our trade come to be lightly regarded, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised. And her majesty may also be about to be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships. ²⁸And hearing this, becoming full of anger, they cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians [Ē-fēe'-zī-āns]. ²⁹And the whole city was filled with disorder, and they rushed all together into the theatre, having first laid hold on Paul's traveling companions from Macedonia, Gaius [Gāy'-ūs] and Aristarchus [Ā-rīs-tārk'-ūs]. ³⁰But when Paul wanted to go in to the people, the disciples did not let him go. ³¹And some of the chief men of Asia, being his friends, sent to him and urged him not to try to go into the theatre himself.

³⁵And after the townclerk calmed the crowd, he said, Men! Ē-phē'-sī-āns! Why, who is the man who does not know the city of the Ē-phē'-sī-āns as being the temple-keepers of the great goddess Diana, and of that which fell down from Zeus? ³⁶These things, then, being without doubt, you ought to be quiet and to do nothing rashly. ³⁷For you brought these men, who are neither temple-robbers nor blaspheming your goddess. ³⁸If, then, Dē-mē'-trī-ūs and the workers with him truly have a matter against anyone, court days are held, and there are proconsuls — let them accuse one another. ³⁹But if you ask about other matters, it shall be decided in a lawful meeting. ⁴⁰For we are also in danger to be accused of riot in regard to this day, there being not one cause by which we shall be able to give a reason for this riotous gathering. ⁴¹And when he had spoken these things, he sent the crowd away.

CHAPTER 20

¹And after the uproar stopped, Paul called the disciples and embraced them, then left to go into Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā. ²And after he had passed through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came to Greece. ³And after staying three months, as he was about to sail into Syria he decided to return through Măc-ê-dô'-nî-ă because of a plot being made against him by the Jews.

⁴And Sô'-pă-těr of Berea; and Ār-īs-tăr'-chūs and Sě-cūn'-dus of the Thěss-ă-lô'-nî-ăns; and Gaius [Gāy'-ūs] of Derbe; and Timothy; and Tychicus [Tīck'-īk-ūs] and Trophimus [Trōf'-ī-mūs] of Asia went with him as far as Asia. ⁵These, going before us, waited in Troas. ⁶And after the days of the unleavened bread, we sailed away from Philippi. And we came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

⁷And on the first day of the week, when the disciples had been gathered together to break bread, Paul preached to them. He was about to leave on the next day, and he continued the sermon until midnight. ⁸And there were many lamps in the upper room where they were gathered together. ⁹And a certain youth named Eutychus [Yōū'-tīk-ūs] was sitting upon the window. And overpowered by deep sleep as Paul preached for a long time, he sunk down from the sleep and fell from the third story down, and was taken up dead. ¹⁰But after he had come down, Paul fell upon him, embracing him, and said, Do not wail, for his life is in him. ¹¹And after he had gone up, and had broken and tasted bread, and had talked for a long time (until day-break), he left. ¹²And they brought the boy alive and were not a little comforted.

¹³But we, going ahead to the ship, sailed to Ās'-sōs, intending to take in Paul there — for so he had ordered, intending himself to go on foot. ¹⁴And when he met with us at Assos, taking him in we went to Mitylene [Mīt-ī-lēe'-nēe]. ¹⁵And sailing away from there, we arrived the following day across from Chios [Kŷ'-ōss]. And the next day we arrived at Să'-mos. And after staying in Trogyllium [Trō-jīl'-lī-um], the next day we came to Mī-lē'-tūs: ¹⁶for Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he might not lose time in Asia. For if it were possible for him, he hurried so as to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost. ¹⁷And sending from Mī-lē'-tūs to Ephesus, he called for the elders of the church. ¹⁸And when they had come to him, he said to them, You know how I was with you at all times, from the first day I arrived in Asia, ¹⁹serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind and many tears and temptations which happened to me through the plots of the Jews. ²⁰*You know* how I kept nothing back, so as not to tell you of those things that are profitable to you, and to teach you publicly, and from house to house — ²¹earnestly testifying both to Jews and Greeks repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

²²And now, behold! I go on to Jerusalem, bound in the Spirit, not knowing the things which shall happen to me in it: ²³except that the Holy Spirit in every city fully testifies, saying that bonds and trials are waiting for me. ²⁴But I think nothing of these things, nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, so as to fully testify the Gospel of the grace of God. ²⁵And now, lo, I know that you will see my face no more, you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom of God. ²⁶On account of this I bear witness to you in this day that I am pure from the blood of all, ²⁷for I did not hold back from preaching to you all the counsel of God. ²⁸Therefore watch yourselves and all the flock in which the Holy Spirit made you overseers, to feed the church of God which He bought with the blood of His own Son.

²⁹For I know this, that after my departing grievous wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. ³⁰And from among your own selves will rise up men speaking evil things, in order to draw away the disciples after them. ³¹Watch, therefore, remembering that I did not stop warning each one of you day and night, with tears, for three years. ³²And now, my brothers, I give you up unto God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all the sanctified. ³³I have not desired any man's silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴But you yourselves know that these hands supplied my needs, and to those who were with me. ³⁵I showed you all things, that working in this way we ought to help those who are weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. ³⁶And after he had said these things, he bowed his knees and prayed with all of them. ³⁷And there was much crying by all. And falling upon Paul's neck, they kissed him lovingly, ³⁸sorrowing most of all for the word that he had said — that they were to see his face no more. And they went with him into the ship.

¹And it came to pass, after we had torn ourselves away from them, that we sailed. After a direct run we came to Cōs, and on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Păt'-ă-ră. ²And finding a ship passing over into Phenicia [Fě-nīsh'-yă], we went on board and sailed away. ³And sighting Cyprus, and leaving it behind on the left, we sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre — for the ship was unloading there.

⁴And searching out the disciples, we stayed there seven days. And they said to Paul, by the Spirit, not to go up to Jerusalem. ⁵But when it came about that we completed the days there, setting out, we traveled on. All with their wives and children went with us as far as the outside of the city. And bowing our knees on the shore, we prayed. ⁶And after embracing one another we went up into the ship, and they went back to their own homes. ⁷And after we finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais [Töll-e-mă'-is]. And after greeting the brothers, we stayed one day with them. ⁸And on the next day, after Paul and those with him had gone forth, they came to Caē-să-rē'-ă. And entering into the house of Philip the evangelist (who was one of the seven deacons,) we stayed with him. ⁹Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. ¹⁰And as we stayed on many more days, there came down a certain man from Judea, a prophet named Agabus. ¹¹And when he had come to us, and had taken up Paul's belt, and had tied his hands and feet, he said, Thus says the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews in Jerusalem tie up the man who owns this belt. And they shall deliver him up into the hands of the Gentiles. ¹²And when we heard these things, both we and those of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³But Paul answered, What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart! For I not only am ready to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁴And when he was not persuaded, we were quiet, saying, The Lord's will be done.

¹⁵And after these days we packed the baggage and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶And some of the disciples from Caē-sā-rē'-ā also went with us, bringing along with them a certain Mnason [Nāy'-son] of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we might stay. ¹⁷After we had arrived at Jerusalem, the brothers gladly welcomed us. ¹⁸And on the next day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were gathered. ¹⁹And after greeting them, he told them one by one what things God worked among the Gentiles by his ministry. ²⁰And hearing this, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and all are zealous of the Law. ²¹And concerning you, they have been told that you teach a falling away from Moses, telling all the Jews among the Gentiles not to circumcise their children, nor to walk in the customs. ²²What is it, therefore? A multitude will surely come together, for they will hear that you have come. ²³Therefore, you do what we say to you. There are four men with us who have a vow upon themselves. ²⁴Taking these, be purified with them. And pay their expenses, so that they may shave their head. And then all may know that the things they have been told about you are nothing, but that you yourself walk orderly also, keeping the Law. ²⁵But concerning those of the Gentiles who have believed, we have written — judging that they observe no such thing, only to keep themselves from things offered to idols and blood and what is strangled and fôr-nî-cā'-tion.

³⁰And all the city was moved. And there was a running together of the people. And laying hold on Paul, they drug him outside the Temple, and the doors were shut immediately. ³¹But as they were trying to kill him, a report came to the chief captain of the band that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. ³²At once taking soldiers and centurions, he ran down upon them. And seeing the chief captain and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³Then drawing near, the chief captain laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains. And he asked who he might be, and what he had been doing. ³⁴But some cried out one thing, and some another, from within the crowd. And not being able to know with certainty, on account of the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into the fortress. ³⁵But when he came upon the stairs, it happened he was carried by the soldiers, because of the violence of the crowd. ³⁶For the multitude of the people followed, crying out, Away with him!

³⁷But as Paul was about to be brought into the fortress, he said to the chief captain, Is it permitted for me to say something to you? And he said, Do you know Greek? ³⁸Then are you not the Egyptian who before these days caused an uprising and led four thousand men of the assassins into the desert? ³⁹But Paul said, I truly am a Jew, a man of Tarsus in Cī-li'-cī-ā, a citizen of no small city. And I beg you, let me speak to the people. ⁴⁰And as he permitted it, Paul standing on the stairs beckoned with his hand to the people. And as a great silence took place, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

¹Men! Brothers and Fathers! Hear my defense now unto you. ²And when they heard that he was speaking in the Hebrew language, they gave the more silence. And he says, ³I am truly a Jew, a man born in Tarsus of Cī-li'-cī-ā, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gā-mā'-li-ēl. I was taught according to the strictness of the Law of the fathers, being zealous for God, even as all of you are this day. ⁴And I persecuted this Way unto death, binding and delivering up into prisons both men and women — ⁵as also the high priest witnesses to me, and all the elders. From whom also I received letters to the brothers, going to Damascus in order to also bring those who were there to Jerusalem bound, so that they might be punished.

⁶But traveling on and drawing near Damascus about midday, it happened to me! Suddenly out of heaven a great light shone about me. ⁷And I fell to the ground, and I heard a voice saying to me, Saul! Saul! why do you persecute Me? ⁸And I answered, Who are you, lord? And He said to me, I am Jesus, the Nāz-ā-rē'-ān, whom you persecute. ⁹But those who were with me indeed saw the light, and were afraid, but did not hear the voice of Him speaking to me. ¹⁰And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Arise! Go to Damascus, and there you shall be told about all the things which it has been appointed for you to do. ¹¹And as I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I came to Damascus being led by the hand of those who were with me.

¹²And a certain Ān-ā-nī'-ās, a man devoted according to the Law, who was witnessed to by all the Jews living there, ¹³came to me. And standing by, he said to me, Brother Saul, Look up! And in the same hour I looked up upon him. ¹⁴And he said, The God of our fathers appointed you to know His will and to see the Just One and to hear a voice out of His mouth — ¹⁵for you shall be a witness for Him to all men of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶And now why do you wait? Arise! Be baptized and wash away your sins, calling upon the name of the Lord.

¹⁷And it came to pass when I returned to Jerusalem, and while I was praying in the Temple, that I began to be in a trance. ¹⁸And I saw Him saying unto me, Hurry and go quickly out of Jerusalem, because they will not receive your testimony about Me. ¹⁹And I said, Lord, they themselves know that I was putting in prison and beating those that believed on Thee in every synagogue. ²⁰And when the blood of Stephen, Thy witness, was poured out, I also was standing by and agreeing to his death, and I kept the clothes of those who killed him. ²¹And He said to me, Go, for I will send you afar off to the Gentiles.

²²And they listened to him until this statement, but now they lifted up their voice, saying, Away from the earth with such a one, for it is not fit that he should live. ²³And as they were shouting, and throwing off clothes, and throwing dust into the air, ²⁴the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the fortress — ordering him to be examined by lashes, so that he might know for what cause they cried out against him. ²⁵But as he stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, Is it lawful for you to whip a Roman who has not been found guilty? ²⁶And when the centurion heard this, he went away and reported to the chief captain, saying, Be careful what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman. ²⁷And the chief captain coming up said to him, Tell me, are you a Roman? And he said, Yes. ²⁸And the chief captain answered, I bought this citizenship with a great sum. And Paul said, But I was even born free. ²⁹Immediately, then, those who were about to examine him left, and the chief captain also was afraid when he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

³⁰And on the next day, wanting to know with certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he turned him loose from the bonds. And he commanded the chief priests and their entire Sān-hē'-drin to come. And bringing Paul down, he set him among them.

CHAPTER 23

¹And after looking earnestly upon the Sanhedrin, Paul said, Men! Brothers! I have behaved myself in all good conscience toward God to this day. ²But the high priest, Ananias, commanded those standing by him to hit him on the mouth. ³Then Paul said to him, God is about to strike you, you whited wall! And do you sit judging me according to the Law, and against Law command me to be struck? ⁴And those who stood by said, Do you revile the high priest of God? ⁵And Paul said, I did not know, brothers, that he is high priest; for it has been written, "You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people" (See EXODUS 22:28).

⁶But knowing that the one part were of the Sād'-dū-cēes, and the other of the Pharisees, Paul cried out in the Sān-hē'-drīn, Men! Brothers! I am a Pharisee, son of a Pharisee. I am judged concerning a hope and resurrection of the dead. ⁷And when he had spoken this, there was a striving between the Pharisees and the Sād'-dū-cēes, and the multitude was divided. ⁸For indeed, the Sād'-dū-cēes say there is no resurrection nor angel nor spirit. But the Pharisees believe in both. ⁹And there was a great uproar, and the scribes on the side of the Pharisees were standing up, contending, saying, We do not find anything evil in this man. And if a spirit spoke to him, or an angel, let us not fight against God. ¹⁰And as a great strife rose up, the chief captain feared lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them. So he commanded the soldiers to go down to take him from their midst by force, and to bring him to the fortress. ¹¹But the following night, standing by him, the Lord said, Be of good courage, Paul, for as you fully testified the things about Me at Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness at Rome.

¹²And when it became day, the Jews made a plot, putting themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³And they were more than forty men who had made this plot. ¹⁴And coming to the chief priests and elders, they said, With a curse we have cursed ourselves, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵Now, then, you make a statement to the chief captain, with the Sān-hē'-drīn, so that tomorrow he may bring him down to you, as if you were about to ask more exactly the things concerning him. And we are ready to put him to death before he comes near.

¹⁶But the son of Paul's sister, hearing of the ambush, after he had come and entered into the fortress, reported to Paul. ¹⁷And calling one of the centurions, Paul said, Take this young man to the chief captain, for he has something to tell him. ¹⁸Indeed, then, taking him he brought him to the chief captain, and said, The prisoner Paul called me near asking that this young man be brought to you, for he has something to say to you. ¹⁹And the chief captain, taking hold of his hand and drawing him off to one side, asked, What is it which you have to tell me? ²⁰And he said, The Jews agreed to ask you that tomorrow you may bring Paul down into the Sān-hē'-drīn, as if they were about to ask something more exactly about him. ²¹You, therefore, be not persuaded by them, for more than forty men of them lie in wait for him, putting themselves under a curse neither to eat nor drink until they put him to death. And now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you. ²²Then, indeed, the chief captain let the young man go, after commanding him, Tell no one that you revealed these things to me.

²³And calling a certain two of the centurions near, he said, Make ready two hundred soldiers, that they may go as far as Caē-sā-rē'-ā, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, for the third hour of the night. ²⁴And provide animals so that, setting Paul thereon, they may carry him safe to Felix the governor. ²⁵And he wrote a letter, in this way: ²⁶Claudius Lysias [Līss'-ēe-ās], to the most excellent governor Felix, greeting. ²⁷This man was caught by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. But coming up with the troop, I rescued him. ²⁸Learning that he was a Roman, and wanting to know the cause for which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Sān-hē'-drīn. ²⁹*But* I found him to be accused concerning questions of their law, and having no charge against him worthy of death or of bonds. ³⁰But when it was suggested to me that a plot against the man was about to be carried out by the Jews, I sent him at once to you, commanding the ones who accuse him also to say the things against him before you. Farewell.

³¹Then the soldiers, according to the orders given to them, took Paul and brought him by night to Ān-tip'-a-trīs. ³²And on the next day, leaving the horsemen to go with him, they went back to the fortress. ³³And entering into Caē-sā-rē'-ā, they delivered the letter to the governor, also delivering Paul to him. ³⁴And after the governor had read it, and had asked of what province he was, and had learned that he was from Cī-lī'-cī-ā, ³⁵he said, I will hear you fully when your accusers also have come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's palace.

¹And after five days Ān-ā-nī'-ās the high priest came down, with the elders, and a certain public speaker, Tēr-tūll'-ūs, who made a statement to the governor against Paul. ²And when Tertullus was called, he began to accuse, saying, ³*We are* enjoying great peace through you, and through your forethought very worthy things are being done for this nation. Both in every way and everywhere we gladly accept it, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. ⁴But that I may no longer keep you, I beg you in your mercy to hear us briefly. ⁵For we have found this man a pest, and moving rebellion among all the Jews in the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nāz-ā-rē'-āns, ⁶also trying to profane the Temple. We also caught him and according to our law wished to judge him. ⁷But Lys'-ī-ās, the chief captain, coming up with great force took him out of our hands, commanding his accusers to come to you, ⁸from whom you will be able to know that of which we accuse him, after judging for yourself. ⁹And the Jews also agreed these things to be so.

¹⁰But after the governor signaled to him to speak, Paul answered, Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, the more cheerfully I answer concerning myself. ¹¹You are able to find out that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. ¹²And neither did they find me arguing with anyone in the Temple, nor making a stir among the people, either in the synagogues or in the city. ¹³Neither can they prove the things concerning which they now accuse me. ¹⁴But I confess this to you, that, according to the Way (which they call heresy), so I serve the God of the fathers. I believe all things that have been written throughout the Law and the Prophets, ¹⁵having a hope in God which they themselves also hold, that there is going to be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. ¹⁶And in this I exercise myself to have a conscience without offense towards God and men continually. ¹⁷And after many years I came bringing alms and offerings to my nation. In the midst of this they found me purified in the Temple—not with a crowd, nor with tumult. ¹⁸But certain Jews from Asia were there, ¹⁹who ought to appear before you, and to accuse me if they have anything against me. ²⁰Or let these themselves speak, if they found any unrighteousness in me when I stood before the Sān-hē'-drin, ²¹*except* about this one speech which I cried out as I stood among them: I am judged today by you concerning a resurrection of the dead.

²²And after Felix heard these things, he put them off, knowing more precisely of the things concerning the Way, saying, When Lysias the chief captain comes down, I will know more fully the things about you. ²³And he commanded the centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and to forbid none of his own to minister or to come to him. ²⁴And after certain days, Felix came with Drusilla his wife, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and heard him concerning faith in Christ. ²⁵And as he reasoned about righteousness, and self-control, and the Judgment that is about to come, Felix, becoming afraid, answered, For this time go away. And when I have found a convenient time I will call for you. ²⁶He hoped that Paul would give him money, so that he might let him go. For this reason also he often sent for him and talked with him. ²⁷But after two years had been completed, Felix welcomed a successor, Porcius Festus [Pōr'-shus Fēs'-tūs]. And desiring to obtain favors for himself with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

¹Then after Festus had come into the province, three days later he went up to Jerusalem from Caē-sā-rē'-ā. ²And the high priest and the chief of the Jews made charges to him against Paul. ³And they begged him, asking a favor against Paul, that he might send after him in order to bring him to Jerusalem (preparing an ambush in order to kill him on the way). ⁴Then, indeed, Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was shortly to go there. ⁵He says, Then those in power among you may come down together. Let them accuse him if there is anything wicked in this man. ⁶And after he had stayed among them more than ten days, going down to Caē-sā-rē'-ā, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. ⁷And when he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around, bringing many and heavy charges against Paul (which they were not able to prove). ⁸He said in defense, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the Temple, nor against Caesar did I commit any sin at all.

⁹But Festus, wanting to obtain favor for himself with the Jews, answered Paul saying, Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be judged before me regarding these things? ¹⁰And Paul said, I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where I ought to be judged. I did nothing wrong to the Jews, as you very well know. ¹¹For if I truly did wrong and have done anything deserving of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is none of the things of which they accuse me, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar! ¹²Then, after he talked with the council, Festus answered, You have appealed to Caesar, to Caesar you shall go!

¹³And after some days passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice came down to Caē-sā-rē'-ā, greeting Festus. ¹⁴And as they stayed there many days, Festus laid the things relating to Paul before the king, saying, There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix, ¹⁵about whom the chief priests and the elders of the Jews made charges when I was in Jerusalem, asking judgment against him. ¹⁶I answered that it is not a custom of Romans to give up any man to die before he who is accused has his accusers face to face, and has an opportunity for defense regarding the crime laid against him. ¹⁷Then when they had come together here, making no delay whatever I sat upon the judgment seat the next day and commanded the man to be brought. ¹⁸But regarding him, the accusers when they stood up brought no charges such as I expected. ¹⁹But they had certain questions about their own religion with him, and about a certain Jesus who is dead, whom Paul claimed to be alive. ²⁰But being doubtful as to the inquiry about this, I asked if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and be judged there regarding these things. ²¹But when Paul appealed for himself to be kept for the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar. ²²And Agrippa said to Festus, I would like to hear the man myself. And he says, Tomorrow you shall hear him.

²³Therefore on the next day Paul was brought out, after Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered into the place of hearing with the chief captains and the important men of the city, and after Festus had commanded it. ²⁴And Festus says, King Agrippa, and all the men who are here with us, you see this one, about whom all the multitude of the Jews pleaded with me, both here and in Jerusalem, crying out that he ought not to live any longer. ²⁵But when I found him to have done nothing deserving of death, and when he also had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him. ²⁶But I have nothing to write about him to my lord. For this reason I brought him forth before you, and especially before you, O king Agrippa, so that after the examination has been completed I may have something to write. ²⁷For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to state the charges against him.

CHAPTER 26

¹And Agrippa said to Paul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. Then stretching out his hand, Paul spoke for himself: ²Regarding all of which I am accused by the Jews, king Agrippa, I consider myself happy as I am about to speak for myself before you today. ³For you are especially acquainted with both the customs and questions among Jews, and for this reason I ask you to hear me patiently.

⁴Truly, then, all the Jews know my manner of life from my youth, which from the beginning was among my nation in Jerusalem. ⁵They knew me from the first, if they would but testify, that I lived a Pharisee, according to the strictest sect of our religion. ⁶And now I stand, being judged for the hope of the promise made to the fathers by our God, ⁷the hope to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, serving God fervently night and day. It is concerning this hope that I am accused by the Jews, O king Agrippa. ⁸Why is it thought unbelievable by any of you that God raises the dead? ⁹Indeed, I then thought within myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus the Nāz-ā-rē'-ān. ¹⁰Which things I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the saints I shut up in prisons, receiving authority from the chief priests. And when they were put to death, I gave my vote against them. ¹¹And often punishing them in all the synagogues, I compelled them to blaspheme. And being extremely maddened against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

¹²During which time also, as I was traveling to Damascus with authority and a commission from the chief priests, ¹³at noon-time, O king, I saw in the road a light from heaven — brighter than the sun — shining around me and those traveling with me. ¹⁴And as we all were falling down to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads. ¹⁵And I said, Who are you, lord? And He said, I am Jesus, whom you persecute. ¹⁶But rise up and stand up on your feet, for it was for this purpose I appeared to you: to appoint you a servant and a witness, both of what you have seen and in what I shall yet appear to you. ¹⁷I take you out from the people, and the Gentiles to whom I now send you ¹⁸in order to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the authority of Satan to God — so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and inheritance among those that have been sanctified by faith in Me. ¹⁹After this, O king Agrippa, I did not disobey the heavenly vision. ²⁰But I preached to those in Damascus first, and then Jerusalem, and to all the region of Judea, and to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance.

²¹Because of these things, catching hold of me in the Temple, the Jews tried to kill me. ²²So then, by the help of God I have stood until this day, bearing witness to both the small and the great, saying nothing else than what both the prophets and Moses said was going to happen: ²³that Christ should suffer and that through the resurrection of the dead, He was first going to proclaim light to the people and to the Gentiles. ²⁴And as he was speaking these things in his defense, Festus cried out with a loud voice, You are mad, Paul! Much learning turns you to madness. ²⁵But he says, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but I speak words of truth and sanity. ²⁶For the king is aware of these things, toward whom I also speak with boldness. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him — for this has not been done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe.

²⁸And Agrippa said to Paul, You almost persuade me to become a Christian. ²⁹And Paul said, I would wish to God that not only you but also all those hearing me this day should both almost, and altogether, become such as I also am, except for these bonds. ³⁰And after he had said these things, the king, and the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them rose up. ³¹And going aside, they spoke to one another saying, This man does nothing deserving of death or of bonds. ³²And Agrippa said to Festus, This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.

CHAPTER 27

¹And when it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered up both Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion of the band of Augustus, whose name was Julius. ²And after going on board a ship of Ād-rā-mŷt'-tū-um, intending to sail along the coasts of Asia, we set sail. And Aristarchus [Ār-īs-tār'-kūs], a Macedonian [Mäss-ē-dō'-nī-ān] from Thëss-ā-lō-nī'-cā was with us. ³And the next day we landed at Sī'-dōn. And Julius, treating Paul kindly, allowed him to go to his friends to receive refreshment. ⁴And setting sail from there we sailed under Cyprus [Sī'-prūs], because the winds were contrary. ⁵And after sailing over the sea alongside of Cī-lī'-cī-ā and Pām-phŷl'-ī-ā, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia [Līss'-ī-ā]. ⁶And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing to Italy, and he put us into it. ⁷And after sailing slowly for many days, and having difficulty coming abreast of Cnidus [Nŷ-dūs] (the wind not allowing us), we sailed under Crête, opposite Sāl-mō'-nē. ⁸And coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, which was near a city of Lā-sē'-ā.

⁹And when much time had been used up, and the voyage was already dangerous (because the Fast was also already past), Paul warned them, ¹⁰saying, Men! I perceive that the voyage is about to be visited with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and of the ship, but also of our lives. ¹¹But the centurion was persuaded more by the pilot and the ship-owner than by the things spoken by Paul. ¹²And because the port was not comfortable to winter in, the majority also gave advice to set sail from there to see if by any means they might be able to winter at Phoenix [Fēe'-niks], a port of Crete which looked towards the southwest and towards the northwest. ¹³And when a south wind began blowing gently, thinking that they had gained their purpose, they lifted anchor and coasted along close beside Crete. ¹⁴But not long after this a stormy wind called Euroclydon [Yoū-rōc'-lŷ-dōn] rose up against it. ¹⁵And the ship was caught, and could not bring her head into the wind. So giving up, we were driven along. ¹⁶But running under a certain little isle called Clauda, we were hardly able to be masters of the boat. ¹⁷Then taking helps, they used them to undergird the ship. And fearing lest they should fall into the quicksand, they let down the mast and were driven along. ¹⁸But as we were being violently tossed by the storm, on the next day they finished throwing out the cargo. ¹⁹And on the third day we threw out the tackling of the ship with our own hands. ²⁰And when neither the sun nor the stars appeared for many days, and no small storm lying upon us, from that time all hope of our being saved was taken away. ²¹And after a long period of fasting, then Paul, standing in the midst of them, said, Truly, O men, you ought to have listened to me, and should not have set sail from Crete, and so have spared yourself this injury and loss. ²²But now I urge you to be of good cheer, for there shall be no loss of life among you, but of the ship only. ²³For tonight there stood by me an angel of God (whose I am and whom I serve) ²⁴saying, Fear not, Paul, you must stand before Caesar; and, lo, God has given to you all those sailing with you. ²⁵So be of good cheer, men! for I believe God, that it shall be so even as it has been spoken to me. ²⁶But we must fall on a certain island.

²⁷And when the fourteenth night came—as we were being driven about in the Ā-dri-āt'-ic—towards midnight the sailors supposed that some country was drawing near to them, ²⁸and they sounded and found twenty fathoms. And going a little farther, they sounded again and found fifteen fathoms. ²⁹And being afraid they would fall upon rocky places, they threw four anchors out of the stern and wished for day to come. ³⁰And letting down the boat into the sea, the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, pretending as if they were about to throw out anchors from the prow. ³¹Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, If these men do not stay in the ship, you cannot be saved. ³²Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat and let her fall. ³³And until day was about to dawn, Paul called upon all to take food, saying, It is the fourteenth day today that you continue watching without taking food, for you have taken nothing. ³⁴For this reason I beg you to take food, for this is for your safety—for not a hair shall fall from the head of any one of you.

³⁵And when he had said this, taking bread he gave thanks to God before all, and breaking it he began to eat. ³⁶And all became cheerful and themselves also took food. ³⁷And all the souls in the ship were two hundred and seventy-six.

³⁸And when they were satisfied with food they lightened the ship by throwing out the wheat into the sea. ³⁹And when it was daytime they did not recognize the land. But they saw a certain bay with a beach on which they decided to drive the ship, if they were able. ⁴⁰And cutting away the anchors, they left them in the sea. At the same time they loosened the bands of the rudders, and after hoisting the mainsail to the wind, they made for the shore. ⁴¹And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground. And the forepart, indeed, sticking fast remained fixed, but the stern was broken by the violence of the waves. ⁴²And the advice of the soldiers was that they should kill the prisoners lest any of them should escape, swimming out. ⁴³But wanting to save Paul, the centurion kept them from their purpose and commanded those who could swim to jump off first and go out on the land. ⁴⁴And the rest also went, some indeed on boards, and others on some things from the ship. And so it came to pass that all were brought safely to the land.

¹And when they had been saved, then they knew that the island was called Mēl'-ī-tā. ²And the natives showed us no ordinary kindness — for after they had kindled a fire they received all of us because of the rain that was coming down, and because of the cold. ³And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and had laid them on the fire, a viper coming out of the heat fastened upon his hand. ⁴And when the natives saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said to one another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has been saved from the sea, Justice has not allowed to live. ⁵But, indeed, shaking the beast off into the fire, he suffered no harm. ⁶But they were expecting him to be ready to become inflamed, or to suddenly fall down dead. And after expecting for a long time, and seeing nothing amiss happening to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

⁷Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief of the island, whose name was Pūb'-li-ūs. And he, having received us, housed us for three days, in a friendly way. ⁸And it happened that the father of Pūb'-li-ūs lay overcome with fevers and dysentery [diss'-ēn-tērr-ē] — unto whom Paul went in, and when he had prayed, he laid his hands on him and healed him. ⁹Then this being done, the others in the island who also had sicknesses came and were healed. ¹⁰*They* also honored us with many honors, and when we were sailing they heaped upon us the things that were needed.

¹¹And after three months we sailed in a ship which had wintered in the island, an Alexandrian ship with the sign, THE TWIN BROTHERS. ¹²And when we had landed at Syracuse, we stayed three days. ¹³From

there, after going around, we came to Rhegium [Rêe'-jī-ūm]. And after one day a south wind sprang up, and the second day we came to Puteoli [Pû-têe-ō'-lī], ¹⁴where we found brothers, and were pressed to stay with them seven days. And so we came toward Rome. ¹⁵And hearing the things about us, the brothers from there came out to meet us, as far as The Appian Forum and Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, giving thanks to God, he took courage.

¹⁶And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the commander of the camp. But Paul was allowed to remain by himself, with the soldier who guarded him. ¹⁷And it came to pass after three days, Paul called together those who were chief men of the Jews. And when they had come together, he said to them, Men! Brothers! I have done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered up a prisoner from Jerusalem, into the hands of the Romans—¹⁸who, when they had examined me, wished to let me go, because there was not one cause of death in me. ¹⁹But the Jews speaking against it, I was forced to appeal to Caesar—not as though I had anything to lay against my nation. ²⁰For this cause, then, I called for you, to see and to speak to you. For on account of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. ²¹And they said to him, We neither received letters from Judea about you, nor did any one of the brothers who came report it, or say anything evil about you. ²²But we think it good to hear from you, what you think, for, truly, as regarding this belief, it is known to us that it is everywhere spoken against.

²³And after setting him a day, many came to him into his house. To whom he explained, fully witnessing to the kingdom of God, and persuading them of the things concerning Jesus—both from the law of Moses and from the prophets—from morning to evening. ²⁴And some truly were persuaded of the things spoken, but some did not believe. ²⁵And without agreeing with one another, they went away, after Paul had spoken one word, Well did the Holy Spirit speak through Isaiah the prophet unto our fathers, saying, ²⁶“Go to this people, and say, By hearing you shall hear, and in no way understand; and seeing you shall see, and in no way perceive. ²⁷For the heart of this people has grown fat, and they have heard with the ears heavily, and their eyes they have closed—lest they should see with their eyes, and they should hear with their ears, and with their heart they should understand, and should be converted, and I should heal them” (See ISALAH 6:9). ²⁸Be it known unto you, therefore, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear. ²⁹And when he had said this, the Jews went away, arguing among themselves.

³⁰And Paul stayed two whole years in his own hired house, and welcomed all who came in to him, ³¹preaching the kingdom of God and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all freedom, without being hindered.

The Letter to the ROMANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, a called apostle and servant of Jesus Christ, who was separated to the Gospel of God — ²(which He promised before through His prophets in the holy Scriptures — ³*the Gospel* about His Son, who came of the seed of David as far as the flesh is concerned, ⁴*and* who was declared Son of God in power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by His resurrection from among the dead — ⁵*even* Jesus Christ, our Lord, through whom we received grace and apostleship, unto the obeying of faith among all the nations, for His name's sake, ⁶among whom are you also, the called of Jesus Christ) — ⁷To all those who are in Rome, beloved and called saints of God: grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. ⁹For God is my witness (whom I serve in my spirit in the Gospel of His Son) how in my prayers I make mention of you without stopping, ¹⁰always praying if by any means now I may be blessed by the will of God to come to you. ¹¹For I long to see you so that I may give to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be firmly rooted. ¹²That is, I desire to be comforted together among you, through each other's faith, both yours and mine. ¹³But I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that many times I set out to come to you (in order that I might have some fruit among you too, even as I also have among the other Gentiles) but I was kept back until now. ¹⁴I am a debtor both to Greeks and bār-bār-ī-āns, both to the wise and the foolish, ¹⁵so that I am ready to preach the Gospel to you who are in Rome also. ¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ — for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one who believes, to the Jew first, and to Greek. ¹⁷For in it the righteousness of God is revealed by faith unto faith, even as it has been written, "But the just shall live by faith" (See HABAKKUK 2:4).

¹⁸For God's wrath is revealed from Heaven upon all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold down the truth in unrighteousness. ¹⁹Because that which is known about God is clearly known within them, for God clearly showed it to them. ²⁰For the unseen things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, both His eternal power and Godhead, in order for them to be without excuse. ²¹Because when they knew God they did not glorify Him as God, neither were they thankful. But they became vain in their thoughts and their foolish heart was darkened. ²²Claiming to be wise, they became fools, ²³and they changed the glory of the immortal God into a likeness of an image of man that dies — and also of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things. ²⁴For this reason God also gave them up to uncleanness in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies between themselves: ²⁵who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the created thing more than the Creator — who is blessed forever. Amen.

²⁶For this reason God gave them up to vile passions of dishonor — for even their females changed the natural use into that which is contrary to nature — ²⁷and in the same way also, leaving the natural use of the woman, the men were inflamed in their lust towards one another, men working out shame with men, and receiving in themselves that reward which was fitting for their error. ²⁸And just as much as they did not think it good to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not right, ²⁹being filled with all kinds of unrighteousness — fornication, wickedness, covetousness, malice — being full of envy, murder, quarrels, deceit, evil habits. They became whisperers, ³⁰slanderers, God-haters, insolent, proud, braggarts, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, ³¹without understanding, impossible to trust, without natural love, unforgiving and without mercy. ³²*They* knew the righteous judgment of God, that those doing such things are worthy of death — but not only do they practice them, but they also delight in those who do so.

¹For this reason you are without excuse, O man, every one of you who is judging. For in that thing in which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who are doing the judging keep on doing the same things. ²But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth upon those who do such things. ³And O man! (you who judge those that do such things, yet keep on doing them yourself,) do you think this, that you shall escape the judgment of God? ⁴Or do you despise the riches of His goodness and forbearance and long-suffering? Do you not know that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? ⁵But according to your hardness and stubborn heart, you are saving up wrath for yourself in the Day of wrath and revelation of God's righteous judgment. ⁶*For He* will render to each according to his works: ⁷Everlasting life to those who truly, with patience in good work, are seeking glory and honor and deathlessness. ⁸But wrath and anger shall be given to the ones who rebel, and who do not obey the truth, but obey that which is wrong. ⁹Trouble and great pain shall be upon every soul of man who works out evil — both of the Jew first, and of the Greek. ¹⁰But glory and honor and peace shall be to everyone who works out good — both to the Jew first, and to the Greek. ¹¹For there is no respect of persons with God. ¹²For as many as sinned without Law shall also be lost without Law. And as many as sinned within Law shall be judged by means of Law. ¹³For it is not the hearers of the Law who are righteous with God, but it is the doers of the Law that shall be counted righteous. ¹⁴For when the Gentiles (who do not have the Law) do by nature the things of the Law, not having the Law, these are a law unto themselves. ¹⁵*For they* show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness with them. And the thoughts which passed between one another will be accusing or excusing them ¹⁶on the Day when God shall judge the hidden things of men according to my Gospel, by Jesus Christ.

¹⁷Behold! you who are called a Jew, and rest in the Law, and boast in God, ¹⁸and know the will of God. And behold! you who approve the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the Law, ¹⁹and who are sure that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light of those in darkness, ²⁰a teacher of foolish ones, a teacher of babes, because you have the pattern of knowledge and of truth in the Law. ²¹You, then, who are teaching another, do you teach yourself? You who are preaching not to steal, do you steal? ²²You who are advising not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who hate idols, do you rob their temples? ²³You who boast in the Law, do you dishonor God through the breaking of the Law? ²⁴For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, even as it has been written (See ISAIAH 52:5). ²⁵For if you keep the Law, circumcision truly profits you, but if you are a breaker of the Law, your circumcision has become no circumcision. ²⁶If, then, the one not circumcised keeps the demands of the Law, shall his lack of circumcision not be counted for circumcision? ²⁷And then shall not the one who lacks circumcision by nature, by fulfilling the Law, judge you, who with letter and circumcision are a breaker of the Law? ²⁸For he is not a Jew who is so outwardly, neither is circumcision that which is outward in flesh — ²⁹but he is a Jew who is so inwardly. And circumcision is of the heart, in spirit, not in letter — of whom the praise is not of men, but of God.

¹Then what is the advantage of the Jew? Or what is the profit of circumcision? ²Much in every way! For indeed, first, they were entrusted with the very words of God. ³For what if some did not believe? Shall their not believing make the faith of God of no use? ⁴Let it not be said! But let God be true and every man a liar, just as it has been written, "That Thou shouldest be justified in Thy words, and mayest overcome when Thou art called into judgment" (See PSALM 51:4). ⁵But if our unrighteousness shows forth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous, who lays on wrath? (I speak as a man.) ⁶Let it not be said! Otherwise how shall God judge the world? ⁷For if in my lie the truth of God overflowed to His glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? ⁸And why not (as we are wrongly accused, and as some report that we say,) Let us practice evil so that good may come? Their judgment is just.

⁹What then? Are we better? Not at all! For we have before charged both Jews and Greeks with being all under sin; ¹⁰according as it has been written, ¹¹"There is none righteous, no, not one! There is none that understands, there is none that seeks after God. ¹²All have gone out of the way. Together they have become worthless. There is none that is doing good, no, not one! ¹³Their throat is an opened grave. They deceived with their tongues. The poison of asps is under their lips. ¹⁴*Their* mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. ¹⁵Their feet are swift to shed blood. ¹⁶Ruin and misery are in their ways, ¹⁷and they have not known the way of peace. ¹⁸There is no fear of God before their eyes" (See PSALM 5:9; 10:7; 14:1; 140:3; PROVERBS 1:16; ISALAH 59:7).

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those within the Law — so that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world be under judgment to God. ²⁰For this reason no flesh shall be justified before Him by works of Law — for the knowledge of sin comes by means of Law. ²¹But God's righteousness has been revealed apart from Law, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets — ²²even the righteousness of God through faith of Jesus Christ, towards all and upon all those who believe. For there is no difference — ²³for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God; ²⁴being justified as a free gift, by His grace, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵For God has set Him forth as a Mercy Seat through faith in His blood, for the showing forth of His righteousness (by reason of the passing-by of those sins committed beforehand, in the forbearance of God). ²⁶*It was* for the showing forth of His righteousness in the present time, that He might be just and the justifier of him who is of the faith of Jesus. ²⁷Where then is the boasting? It was shut out. By what law? of works? No! But by a law of faith. ²⁸Therefore we reckon that a man is justified by faith, without the works of Law. ²⁹*Is He* the God of Jews only? and not of Gentiles too? Yes, also of Gentiles, ³⁰since truly it is one God who will justify the circumcision by faith, and those not circumcised through faith. ³¹Do we then do away with the Law through faith? Let it not be said! Yea, we establish the Law.

CHAPTER 4

¹What then shall we say our father Abraham has found, according to the flesh? ²For if Abraham was justified by works, he has reason to boast — but not towards God. ³For what does the Scripture say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness" (See GENESIS 15:6). ⁴Now to him who works, the reward is not counted according to grace, but according to debt. ⁵But to him who does not work, but believes on Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. ⁶Even as David also speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works: ⁷"Blessed are they whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. ⁸Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will in no way reckon sin" (See PSALM 32:1). ⁹*Is* this blessedness then upon the circumcision only? or also upon those not circumcised? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. ¹⁰How then was it reckoned? Was he in circumcision? or not in circumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision! ¹¹And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had in uncircumcision — for him to be father to those who believe (though still in uncircumcision) — for righteousness also to be reckoned to them. ¹²And that he might be father of circumcision to those who are not of circumcision only, but also to those who walk in the steps of the faith our father Abraham had during uncircumcision.

¹³For the promise that he should be heir of the world was not by law to Abraham, or to his seed, but was by righteousness of faith. ¹⁴For if they who are of the Law are heirs, faith has been made useless, and the promise is made of no effect. ¹⁵For the Law works out wrath (for where there is no law, there is no lawbreaking). ¹⁶Because of this it is of faith, so that it might be according to grace, so that the promise might be made sure to all the seed — not to that which is of the Law only, but also to that which is of Abraham's faith (who is father of us all). ¹⁷Even as it has been written, "I have made you a father of many nations" (See GENESIS 17:5). This was before God, whom he believed, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things which are not as if they were. ¹⁸For in hope he believed against hope that he would become the father of many nations (according to that which has been said, "So shall your seed be"). ¹⁹And not being weak in the faith, he did not consider his own body already dead (being a hundred years old) and the deadening of Sarah's womb. ²⁰And he did not stagger at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, ²¹and being fully persuaded that what God has promised He is also able to do. ²²For this reason also it was counted to him for righteousness. ²³But it was not written that it was reckoned to him for his sake only, ²⁴but also for our sake, to whom it is going to be reckoned — to those that believe on Him who raised our Lord Jesus from among the dead, ²⁵who was delivered for our sins, and was raised for our justification.

CHAPTER 5

¹Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace toward God through our Lord Jesus Christ. ²Through Him we also have the entrance by faith into this grace in which we stand. And we fill up with rejoicing in hope of the glory of God. ³And not only so, but we also rejoice exceedingly in troubles, knowing that trouble works out patience. ⁴And patience works out proven character, and proven character works out hope. And this hope does not make us ashamed, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. ⁶For while we were still without strength, in due time, Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷Now scarcely will one die on behalf of a righteous man. For the sake of a good man someone might even dare to die. ⁸But God proves His own love to us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

⁹Much more then, having been justified now by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath by Him. ¹⁰For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more now that we have been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. ¹¹And not only so, but we also fill up with joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now have received the reconciliation.

¹²Because of this, just as sin entered into the world by one man, and death by sin, even so death passed unto all men on the ground that all sinned: ¹³(For until the time of the Law, sin was in the world, but sin is not charged when there is no law. ¹⁴But death ruled from Adam until Moses, even upon those who had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's sin — who is a type of Him who is coming.) ¹⁵But the free gift, however, is not like the sin. For if by the sin of the one many died, much more the grace of God — and the gift in grace, which is of the one man Jesus Christ — overflowed to the many. ¹⁶And the free gift is not as by one who sinned (for indeed the judgment is of one unto sentence of death) but the free gift is of many failings unto justification. ¹⁷For if by the fall of the one, death ruled through the one; much more those who are receiving the overflowing of grace and the gift of righteousness shall rule in life by the One, Jesus Christ. ¹⁸So, then, as through one fall the sentence unto death was unto all men, so also through one completed righteousness the free gift came unto all men unto justification of life. ¹⁹For as through the one man's failure to obey, the many were placed in the position of sinners, so also through the obedience of the One, the many shall be placed in the position of righteous ones. ²⁰But the Law came in beside, in order that the offense might increase. But where sin increased, ²¹grace overflowed much more — so that as sin ruled in death, so also grace might rule through righteousness unto life everlasting through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

¹What shall we say then? Shall we go on in sin so that grace may abound? ²Let it not be said! We who died to sin, how shall we still live in it? ³What? do you not understand that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus, we were baptized into His death? ⁴Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised up from among the dead by the glory of the Father, so also we should walk in newness of life. ⁵For if we have been joined together in the likeness of His death, so we shall also certainly be in that of His resurrection — ⁶knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be done away with (so that we no longer should serve sin). ⁷For he that has died has been justified from sin.

⁸Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him — ⁹knowing that when Christ was raised up from among the dead, He dies no more. Death does not rule over Him any more. ¹⁰For in that He died, He died to sin once for all — but in that He lives, He lives unto God. ¹¹So also you count yourselves truly dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus, our Lord. ¹²Therefore do not let sin be king in your mortal body, to obey it in its evil desires. ¹³Neither should you give your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin, but give yourselves completely to God as one alive from among the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. ¹⁴For sin shall not lord it over you, for you are not under Law, but under grace.

¹⁵What then? Shall we sin because we are not under Law, but under grace? Let it not be said! ¹⁶Do you not know that to whom you give yourselves as servants for obedience, you are slaves to him whom you obey?—whether it be of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness. ¹⁷But thanks be unto God that you were the slaves of sin, but you obeyed from the heart the form of teaching to which you were delivered up. ¹⁸And being set free from sin, you became slaves to righteousness. ¹⁹I speak in the manner of men, because of the weakness of your flesh. For as you gave your members up in bondage to uncleanness, and to one lawless act unto another lawless act, so now give your members in bondage to righteousness unto holiness. ²⁰For when you were the slaves of sin, you were free as to righteousness. ²¹What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. ²²But now being set free from sin, and having become bondslaves to God, you have your fruit unto holiness, and the end life everlasting. ²³For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

¹Do you not understand, brothers (for I speak to those who know the Law), that the Law rules over a man as long as he lives? ²For the married woman is bound by law to the living husband—but if the husband should die, she is set free from the law of the husband. ³So, then, while the husband is alive, she shall be called an adulteress, if she becomes another man's. But if the husband should die, she is free from the law, so as not to be an adulteress if she becomes another man's wife. ⁴So that, my brothers, you also were made dead to the Law through the body of Christ, in order for you to become another's (who was raised from among the dead so that we should bring forth fruit unto God). ⁵For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins (which were through the Law) worked in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. ⁶But now we have been set free from the Law, being dead to that in which we were held, so that we should serve in newness of spirit and not in oldness of letter.

⁷What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? Let it not be said! But I did not know sin except through the Law. For I would not have recognized lust unless the Law had said, "You shall not lust." ⁸But sin, receiving an opportunity through the commandment, worked out in me every lust—for apart from Law sin was dead. ⁹And I was alive apart from Law once, but the commandment came and sin came alive, and I died. ¹⁰And the commandment which was unto life was found to be death to me. ¹¹For sin, receiving an opportunity through the commandment, seduced me, and through it killed me. ¹²So that the Law truly is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good. ¹³That which is good, then, has it become death to me? Let it not be said! But sin, that it might be revealed as sin—working death to me by that which is good—so that sin might become overflowing sinful through the commandment.

¹⁴For we know that the Law is spiritual, and I am fleshly, being sold under sin. ¹⁵For I do not approve what I do—for I do not do this which I will, but I do this which I hate. ¹⁶But if I do what I do not will, I consent to the Law that it is good. ¹⁷Now, then, I am no longer working it out, but the sin living in me does it. ¹⁸For I know that in me—that is, in my flesh—there dwells no good—for to desire is present with me, but how to work out the good I find not. ¹⁹For the good that I desire, I do not—but what evil I do not desire, this I do. ²⁰But if I do that which I do not desire, it is no longer I who work it out, but sin living in me. ²¹I find, then, a law, that when I desire to do what is right, evil is present with me. ²²For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man—²³but I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind, and leading me captive to the law of sin which is in my members. ²⁴O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord! ²⁵So then, I myself truly with the mind serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

¹*There is* therefore now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. ²For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set me free from the law of sin and of death. ³For what the Law was not able to do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, in sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to be a sacrifice for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. ⁴*This was* in order that the righteous demand of the Law should be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. ⁵For they who are according to the flesh mind the things of the flesh. And they who are according to the Spirit mind the things of the Spirit. ⁶For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace. ⁷Because the mind of the flesh is enmity towards God: for it is not subject to the law of God; for neither can it be, ⁸and they that are in the flesh are not able to please God.

⁹But you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God truly dwells in you. But if anyone has not the Spirit of Christ, he is not His. ¹⁰But if Christ is in you, the body truly is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹But if the Spirit of Him who raised up Jesus from among the dead dwells in you, He who raised up the Christ from among the dead will also make your death-doomed bodies live because of His Spirit that dwells in you. ¹²So then, brothers, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³For if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die. But if you by the Spirit put to death the deeds of the body, you will live—¹⁴for as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God! ¹⁵For you did not receive a spirit of bondage again unto fear, but you received a spirit of adoption in which we cry, Abba, Father. ¹⁶The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God. ¹⁷And if children, also heirs, truly heirs of God, and joint-heirs of Christ, if we indeed suffer together, so that we may also be glorified together.

¹⁸For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory about to be revealed to us. ¹⁹For the creation eagerly looks out for the unveiling of the sons of God—²⁰for the creation has been made subject to weakness (not of its own will, but by reason of Him who made it subject) in hope ²¹that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of decay into the glorious liberty of the children of God. ²²For we know that the whole creation groans together and labors together in pain until now. ²³And not only so, but even we ourselves, having the first-fruit of the Spirit, we ourselves also groan in ourselves, waiting for adoption (that is, the redemption of our body). ²⁴For we were saved in hope. But hope that is seen is not hope. For what anyone sees, why does he also hope for it? ²⁵But if we hope for that which we do not see, we wait with patience. ²⁶And in the same way the Spirit also joins in to help our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself pleads our case for us with groanings that cannot be spoken. ²⁷But He who searches the hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because He pleads the case for the saints according to God. ²⁸And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. ²⁹Because whom He foreknew, He also predestinated to be conformed to the image of His Son, in order that He might be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰And whom He predestinated, these He also called. And whom He called, these He also justified. And whom He justified, these He also glorified.

³¹What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³²Truly He who did not withhold His own Son, but surrendered Him for us all, shall He not also freely give us all things with Him? ³³Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies! ³⁴Who is he that condemns? Christ is the One who died! Yea, rather He is also raised up (who also is at the right hand of God, who also pleads our case for us). ³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Trouble? or distress? or persecution? or hunger? or nakedness? or danger? or sword? ³⁶As it is written, "For Thy sake we are killed all the day long. We were counted as sheep for slaughter." (See PSALM 44:22). ³⁷But in all these things we more than conquer through Him who loved us. ³⁸For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, ³⁹nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

CHAPTER 9

¹I tell the truth in Christ. I do not lie, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit, ²that I have great grief and pain that never stops in my heart — ³for I myself was wishing to be a curse from Christ for my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh. ⁴*For they* are Israelites, to whom belong the sonship, and the glory, and the covenants, and the Law-giving, and the service, and the promises of God. ⁵To whom belong the fathers also, and from whom comes the Christ according to the flesh (Who is God-blessed over all forever. Amen!). ⁶Not, however, that the word of God has failed! For those are not all Israel who are out of Israel. ⁷Nor are all of them children because they are seed out of Abraham. But “In Isaac shall a seed be called unto you” (See GENESIS 21:12). ⁸That is to say, the children of the flesh are not the ones who are the children of God. But the children of the promise are counted as the seed. ⁹For this word is of promise, “According to this time I will come, and there shall be a son born to Sarah” (See GENESIS 18:10). ¹⁰And not only this, but also when Rebecca had conceived by one (Isaac our father) — ¹¹for the children had not yet been born, nor had they done anything good or evil, so that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of Him who calls — ¹² it was said to her, “The elder shall serve the younger” (See GENESIS 25:23). ¹³*This was* according as it has been written, “Jacob have I loved, and Esau have I hated” (See MALACHI 1:2).

¹⁴What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? Let it not be said! ¹⁵For he says to Moses, “I will show mercy to whom I will show mercy, and I will have pity on whom I will have pity” (See EXODUS 33:19). ¹⁶So then it is not of him that wills, nor of him that runs, but of God who shows mercy. ¹⁷For Scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very thing I raised you up, so that I might show My power in you, and so that My name should be made known in all the earth” (See EXODUS 9:16). ¹⁸So, then, He shows mercy to whom He desires to show mercy, and He hardens whom He will.

¹⁹You will then say to me, Why does He still find fault? for who has resisted His purpose? ²⁰Yes, rather, O man, who are you that answers against God? Shall the thing formed say to Him who formed it, Why did you make me this way? ²¹Or, does not the potter have authority over the clay? Can he not out of the same lump make one vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor? ²²And what if God, minded to show wrath and to make His power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted for destruction? ²³And also that He might make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy which He beforehand prepared for glory—²⁴even us whom He also has called, not only among the Jews, but also from among the Gentiles. ²⁵As He says also in Hosea, “I will call that which is not My people, ‘My People!’ And that which is not loved, ‘Beloved!’ ²⁶And it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, You are not My people, there they shall be called sons of the living God” (See HOSEA 1:10 and 2:23). ²⁷But Ī-sā’-ī-āh cries out in regard to Israel, “If the number of the sons of Israel are as the sand of the sea, the remnant shall be saved—²⁸for He is bringing the matter to an end, and cutting it short in righteousness, because the Lord will do a short work upon the earth” (See ISALAH 10:22). ²⁹And as Ī-sā’-ī-āh said before, “Except the Lord of Hosts had left us a seed, we would have become as Sodom, and would have been like Gō-mōr’-rāh” (See ISALAH 1:9).

³⁰What shall we say then? That the Gentiles that do not follow after righteousness have gotten righteousness, but a righteousness that is by faith. ³¹But Israel, following after a law of righteousness, did not lay hold of a law of righteousness. ³²Why? Because it was not by faith, but as by works of the Law. For they stumbled at the Stone-of-stumbling, ³³even as it has been written, “Behold! I place in Zion a Stone-of-stumbling and a Rock-of-offense. And everyone who believes on Him shall not be ashamed” (See ISALAH 28:16).

¹*My* brothers, truly my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel’s sake is for them to be saved. ²For I bear witness to them that they have zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³For being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and trying to set up their own righteousness, they did not put themselves under the righteousness of God. ⁴For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

⁵For Moses tells of the righteousness which is of the Law, that, “The man who has practiced those things shall live by them” (See LEVITICUS 18:5). ⁶But the righteousness of faith speaks in this way, “You may not say in your heart, Who shall go up into Heaven?”—that is, in order to bring Christ down. ⁷Or, “Who shall go down into the pit?”—that is, in order to bring Christ up from among the dead. ⁸But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart”—that is, the word of faith which we preach. ⁹So that if you confess the Lord Jesus with your mouth, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from among the dead, you shall be saved (See DEUTERONOMY 30:12). ¹⁰For with the heart man believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses unto salvation. ¹¹For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes on Him shall not be ashamed” (See ISALAH 28:16). ¹²For there is no difference between Jew and Greek—for the same Lord of all is rich toward all that call upon Him. ¹³For everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. ¹⁴How then shall they call upon Him whom they did not believe? And how shall they believe on Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without someone preaching? ¹⁵And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it has been written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who are preaching the Gospel of peace, of those preaching the Gospel of good things" (See ISALAH 52:7).

¹⁶But not all obeyed the Gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who believed our report?" (See ISALAH 53:1). ¹⁷So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. ¹⁸But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, rather, their voice went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. ¹⁹But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses says, "I will cause you to be jealous by those who are not a nation. I will anger you by a nation without understanding" (See DEUTERONOMY 32:21). ²⁰And Isaiah is very bold and says, "I was found by those who were not trying to find Me. I was revealed to those who were not seeking after Me." ²¹But to Israel He says, "All the day long I stretched out My hands to an unbelieving and gainsaying people" (See ISALAH 65:1, 2).

¹I say then, Did God cast away His people? Let it not be said! For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. ²God did not throw aside His people whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says in the history of Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel, saying, ³"Lord, they killed Thy prophets, and they dug down Thy altars; and I was left alone, and they seek my life." ⁴But what does the Divine answer say to him? "I left to Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed a knee to Baal" (See I KINGS 19:10-18). ⁵So then also in the present time there has been a remnant according to the election of grace. ⁶But if by grace, it is no longer of works—otherwise grace no longer proves to be grace. But if of works, it is no longer of grace—otherwise work no longer proves to be work.

⁷What then? Whatever Israel looks for, this it did not get. But the chosen have gotten it, and the rest were blinded—⁸even as it has been written, "God gave them a spirit of slumber, eyes that do not see, and ears that do not hear," unto this day (See ISALAH 29:10). ⁹And David says, "Let their table be for a snare, and for a trap, and for a stumbling-block, and for a reward to them. ¹⁰Let their eyes be darkened so as not to see, and bow down their back always" (See PSALM 69:22). ¹¹I say then, Did they stumble so that they might fall? Let it not be said! But by their falling away salvation is given to the Gentiles, so as to cause them to be jealous. ¹²But if their falling away is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fullness? ¹³For I speak to you, the Gentiles—inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry—¹⁴if by any means I shall cause those who are my flesh to be jealous and shall save some from among them. ¹⁵For if their casting away becomes the reconciliation of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, except life from among the dead?

¹⁶Now if the first-fruit is holy, the lump is too. And if the root is holy, the branches are too. ¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off, and being a wild olive tree you were grafted in among them and came to partake with them of the root and of the fatness of the olive tree, ¹⁸do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast against them, remember that you do not bear the root, but the root bears you. ¹⁹You will say then, The branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. ²⁰Well! They were broken off by unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be high-minded! But fear, ²¹for if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps He will not spare you either. ²²Behold then the goodness and severity of God: upon those who fell—severity; and upon you—goodness, if you keep on in His goodness, otherwise you too will be cut off. ²³And if they do not keep on in unbelief, they also shall be grafted in. For God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and, contrary to nature, were grafted into a good olive tree, how much more shall these who are according to nature be grafted into their own olive tree!

²⁵For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, my brothers (so that you may not be wise in your own eyes), that hardness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶And so all Israel shall be saved, even as it has been written, "Out of Zion the Deliverer shall come, and He shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. ²⁷And this is My covenant to them—whenever I take away their sins" (See ISAIAH 59:20). ²⁸Indeed, as regards the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes. But as regards the election, they are beloved for the sake of the fathers. ²⁹For the gifts and the calling of God are without repentance. ³⁰For as you also in times past were unbelieving, but now have been shown mercy through their unbelief—³¹so also these now have not believed in regard to your mercy, so that they too may have mercy shown them. ³²For God shut all up together in unbelief, so that He might show mercy to all. ³³O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways are past finding out! ³⁴For who has known the mind of the Lord? or who became His advisor? ³⁵Or, who has first given to Him, and it shall be given back to him again? ³⁶For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things: to Him be glory forever. Amen.

¹Therefore, my brothers, I call upon you by the mercies of God to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing unto God—which is your reasonable service. ²And be not conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good and pleasing and perfect will of God. ³For through the grace which is given to me, I say to everyone that is among you, Do not be high-minded above what you ought to think — but set your mind so as to think wisely, according as God has given to each a measure of faith. ⁴For even as in one body we have many members, but the members do not have the same use — ⁵even so we, the many, are one body in Christ, and every one members of one another. ⁶But we have different gifts according to the grace which is given to us. If it is prophecy, let us prophesy according to how much faith we have. ⁷Or ministry, let us be busy in serving; or he who teaches, in teaching; ⁸or he who comforts, in comforting; or he who is giving, with an open heart. And he who is leading, let him be eager; he who shows mercy, let him do it in cheerfulness. ⁹*Let your love be without pretending*; hate evil and hold tight to that which is good. ¹⁰*Be tender towards one another, in brotherly love, going before one another in giving honor*. ¹¹*Do not be careless in business. Be warm in spirit, serving the Lord*. ¹²*If you are in hope, be rejoicing; in trouble, enduring; in prayer, steadily keeping on, ¹³giving to the needs of the saints, following after hospitality.*

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you — bless, and do not curse them. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. ¹⁶*Be of the same mind toward one another, not minding the high things, but going along with the lowly. Be not wise in your own selves. ¹⁷Pay no one evil for evil. Think beforehand to provide things honest before all men. ¹⁸If possible, as far as is in you, be at peace with all men. ¹⁹Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to anger — for it has been written, “Vengeance belongs to Me, I will repay, says the Lord” (See DEUTERONOMY 32-35). ²⁰Therefore if your enemy should be hungry, feed him; if he should be thirsty, give him something to drink — for doing this, you will heap coals of fire upon his head. ²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.*

¹Let every soul put himself under the higher authorities — for there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist have been appointed by God. ²So that he who sets himself against the authority sets himself against the order of God. And they who do resist shall receive judgment to themselves. ³For the rulers are not frightening to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be so that you are not afraid of the authority? Do good, and you shall have praise from it — ⁴for it is a servant of God unto your good. But if you do evil, be afraid — for it does not wear the sword in vain. For it is a servant of God, a punisher for wrath to him that does evil. ⁵That is why it is needful to be under it — not only because of wrath, but also for conscience' sake. ⁶For because of this you also pay taxes — for they are servants of God, always giving attention to this same thing. ⁷Therefore give to all their dues — taxes to whom taxes are due, custom to whom custom is due, fear to whom fear is due, and honor to whom honor is due. ⁸Do not owe anything to anyone, unless it is this, to love one another — for he who loves the other has fulfilled the Law. ⁹For, “You shall not commit adultery; You shall not commit murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not lust;” and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, in this, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (See EXODUS 20:13-17; LEVITICUS 19:18). ¹⁰Love does not work any ill to its neighbor — therefore love is the fulfilling of the Law. ¹¹This also, knowing the time, that it is already time that we should be aroused out of sleep — for now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. ¹²The night is far gone, and the day has come near — therefore let us throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk honorably, as in daytime — not in carousings and drinking, not in unlawful intercourse and lustful acts, not in fighting and envy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not take any thought for the lusts of the flesh.

¹And receive him who is weak in the faith, but not for the purpose of judging his opinions. ²One believes that he may eat all things. Another, being weak, eats vegetables. ³Do not let the one who eats meat despise the one who does not eat. And he who does not eat, let him not judge him who eats, for God has taken him to Himself. ⁴Who are you that you are judging the servant of another? He stands or falls to his own master. And he shall be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand. ⁵One judges one day above another. Another judges every day alike. Let each be fully persuaded in his own mind. ⁶He who regards the day regards it to the Lord. And he who does not regard the day does not regard it to the Lord. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God. And he who does not eat, he does not eat to the Lord, and gives thanks to God. ⁷For not one of us lives to himself, and not one dies to himself. ⁸For both if we should live, we live to the Lord — and if we should die, we die unto the Lord. Both, then, if we should live, and if we should die, we are the Lord's. ⁹For to this end Christ both died and rose and lived again, in order that He might rule over both the living and the dead.

¹⁰But you, why do you judge your brother? Or again, You, why do you belittle your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. ¹¹For it has been written, “I live, says the Lord, so that every knee shall bow unto Me, and every tongue shall confess unto God” (See ISAIAH 45:23). ¹²So then each of us shall give account of himself to God. ¹³No longer, then, should we judge one another. But rather judge you this, that you are not to put a stumbling-block or a reason to fall before your brother. ¹⁴I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean of itself — except to him who judges anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. ¹⁵But if your brother is grieved on account of your food, you no longer walk according to love. Do not with your food destroy him for whom Christ died. ¹⁶Therefore do not let your good be spoken evil of — ¹⁷for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸For he who serves Christ in these things is pleasing to God and approved by men. ¹⁹So then let us follow the things of peace, and the things for building up one another. ²⁰Do not throw down the work of God for the sake of food. All things are indeed pure, but it is evil to the man who eats while causing to stumble. ²¹It is not right to eat flesh or drink wine or to do anything in which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is weak. ²²Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who does not condemn himself by what he approves. ²³But he who doubts, if he eat, has been condemned, because it is not of faith. And whatever is not of faith is sin.

¹And we who are strong, we ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak and not try to please ourselves. ²For let every one of us please his neighbor unto good, building him up. ³For even Christ did not please Himself — but, according as it has been written, “The curses of them who were cursing Thee fell upon Me” (See PSALM 69:9). ⁴For as many things as were written before were written before for our learning — so that through patience and comfort of the Scriptures we might have hope. ⁵Now the God of patience and comfort give you grace to mind the same thing with one another according to Christ Jesus. ⁶So that with one mind, with one mouth, you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷Therefore take one another to your hearts, even as Christ also took us to Himself unto the glory of God.

⁸But I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant of circumcision for the truth of God, in order to confirm the promises of the fathers. ⁹And also for the Gentiles to glorify God for mercy — even as it has been written, “Because of this I will confess to Thee among the Gentiles, and Thy name I will praise” (See PSALM 18:49). ¹⁰And again it says, “Rejoice, you Gentiles, with His people” (See DEUTERONOMY 32:43). ¹¹And again, “Praise the Lord, all the Gentiles, and praise Him, all the peoples” (See PSALM 117:1). ¹²And again, Isaiah says, “There shall be the Root of Jesse, and He that arises to reign over the Gentiles — in Him the Gentiles shall hope” (See ISALAH 11:10). ¹³Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

¹⁴But, my brothers, I myself am also persuaded about you, that you yourselves are full of goodness — that you have been filled with all knowledge, being able also to warn one another. ¹⁵But I did more boldly write to you, my brothers, in part, as reminding you, because of the grace which was given to me under God. ¹⁶For to me it was given to be a minister of Jesus Christ unto the Gentiles, sacredly ministering the Gospel of God, in order that the offering up of the Gentiles might be pleasing, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷I have therefore my boasting in Christ Jesus in the things pertaining unto God.

¹⁸For I will not dare speak anything of what Christ has not done through me — for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, ¹⁹of signs and wonders in power, in the power of God's Spirit. So that I have fully preached the Gospel of Christ from Jerusalem, and in a circle as far as Ī-lŷr'-i-cūm. ²⁰And so I was eager to preach the Gospel — not where Christ was named, that I might not build upon another's foundation — ²¹but according as it has been written, "They shall see, to whom nothing was told about Him; and those that have not heard shall understand" (See ISAIAH 52:15). ²²For this reason also I was kept back many times from coming to you. ²³But now, having no more place in these parts, and having a great longing to come to you for many years, whenever I go to Spain I will come to you. ²⁴For I hope in going through to see you, and to be sent forward to there by you — if first I shall be in part satisfied by you.

²⁵But now I go to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints. ²⁶For Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă and Achaia [Ā-ky'-ă] were pleased to make a certain gift for the poor of the saints who are in Jerusalem. ²⁷They have been well pleased indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles took part in their spiritual things, they ought also to minister to them in fleshly things. ²⁸Then when I have finished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain. ²⁹And I am sure that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of blessing of the Gospel of Christ. ³⁰And I beg you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, ³¹so that I may be delivered from those who are unbelieving in Judea. And so that my service which I take for Jerusalem may be pleasing to the saints, ³²*and* that I may come in joy to you by the will of God, and I may be refreshed with you. ³³And the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

¹And I commend to you Phoebe [Fēe'-bēe], our sister, who is a servant of the church of Cencrea [Sēn-krēe'-ă] — ²that you may receive her in the Lord, as saints should, and you may help her in whatever matter she may need you. For she also has been a helper of many, and of myself also. ³Greet Priscilla and Ā-quīl'-ă, my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus, ⁴who laid down their own necks for my life — whom not only I thank, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. ⁵And greet the church at their house. Greet Ęp-ē'-ně-tūs, my beloved, who is a first-fruit of Ā-chaī'-ā for Christ. ⁶Greet Mary, who did much labor for us. ⁷Greet Ān-drō-nī'-cūs and Jū'-nī-ās, my kinsmen and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the messengers—who also were in Christ before me. ⁸Greet Ām'-plī-ās, my beloved in the Lord. ⁹Greet Ur-bān'-ūs, our helper in Christ, and Stāch'-ys, my beloved. ¹⁰Greet Ā-pēl'-lēš, the approved in Christ. Greet those of the household of Ā-ris-tō-bū'-lūs. ¹¹Greet Hē-rō'-dī-ōn, my kinsman. Greet those of the household of Nār-cīs'-sūs, who are in the Lord. ¹²Greet Trȳ-phē'-nā and Trȳ-phō-sā, who labor in the Lord. Greet Per'-sis, the beloved, who much labored in the Lord. ¹³Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. ¹⁴Greet Ā-syn'-cri-tūs, Phlēg-ōn, Her'-mās, Pāt'-rō-bās, Her'mēs, and the brothers with them. ¹⁵Greet Phil-ōl'-ō-gūs and Julias, Nē'-reus, and his sister and Ō-lȳm-pās, and all the saints with them. ¹⁶Greet one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ greet you.

¹⁷Now I beg you, brothers, to consider those who make the divisions and causes of stumbling which are contrary to the teaching which you have learned, and turn away from them. ¹⁸For such do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but serve their own belly. And by smooth words and praise they deceive the hearts of the innocent. ¹⁹For your obedience reached to all. I therefore rejoice concerning you. But I would have you to be wise unto good, and simple as to evil, ²⁰and the God of peace will bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. ²¹Timothy, my fellow-worker, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sō-sīp'-ā-ter, my kinsmen, greet you. ²²I, Ter'-ti-ūs, who wrote you the epistle in the Lord, greet you. ²³Gāi'-ūs, the host of the whole church and me, greets you. Ę-rās'-tūs, the steward of the city, and Quārt'-ūs, the brother, greets you. ²⁴The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. ²⁵Now unto Him that is able to establish you according to my Gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revealing of the mystery (regarding which silence has been kept during eternal ages; ²⁶but which now has been made plain), and by prophetic scriptures, according to commandment of the everlasting God, made known for obedience of faith to all the nations, ²⁷*the* only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever. Amen.

The FIRST Letter to the CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, and Sos'-thē-nēs the brother, ²to the church of God which is in Corinth [Kôr'-inth], who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called-out saints, with all the ones who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours. ³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God that was given to you in Christ Jesus—⁵that you were made rich in Him in everything: in all speech and all knowledge; ⁶even as the witness of Christ was made sure in you, ⁷so that you are behind in not one gift—awaiting the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁸who also will make you sure unto the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful, by whom you were called into fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰Now I urge you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all say the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you. But I urge you to be joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹For it was revealed to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are of the house of Chloe [Klō'-ēe], that there are arguments among you. ¹²But I say this, that each of you says, I am of Paul, and I am of Apollos, and I am of Peter, and I am of Christ. ¹³Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? ¹⁴I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one should say that I baptized into my name. ¹⁶And I also baptized the household of Stephanas [Stěf'-ā-nās]. As to the rest I do not know if I baptized any other. ¹⁷For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the Gospel—not in wisdom of word, so that the cross of Christ might not be made useless. ¹⁸For the preaching of the cross is foolishness to them that are being lost, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it has been written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will set aside the understanding of the intelligent ones" (See ISAIAH 29:14).

²⁰Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this age? Did God not make the wisdom of this world foolish? ²¹For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God by wisdom, God was pleased by the foolishness of preaching to save those that believe. ²²Since both the Jews ask for a sign, and the Greeks look for wisdom, ²³but we preach Christ crucified—to the Jews truly a cause of stumbling, and to the Greeks foolishness—²⁴but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is God's power and God's wisdom. ²⁵Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. ²⁶For you see your calling, brothers, that there are not many wise according to the flesh, not many powerful, not many high-born ones. ²⁷But God chose the foolish things of the world so that He might put the wise to shame. And God chose the weak things of the world so that He might put the strong things to shame—²⁸and God chose the low-born of the world, and the things of no account. And He chose the things that are not—so that He might bring to nothing the things that are, ²⁹so that no flesh might glory in His presence. ³⁰But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God and righteousness and sanctification and redemption—³¹so that, even as it has been written, "He that glories, let him glory in the Lord" (See JEREMIAH 9:24).

¹And when I came to you, my brothers, I did not come with excellency of word or wisdom, announcing to you the testimony of God. ²For I decided not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified. ³And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. ⁴And my word and my preaching was not in moving words of human wisdom, but in proof of the Spirit and of power—⁵so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

⁶But we speak wisdom among the perfect. But it is not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. ⁷But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained for our glory before the world—⁸*the wisdom* which not one of the rulers of this world has known (for if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory). ⁹But even as it has been written, "Eye has not seen, and ear has not heard," neither has it entered into the heart of man, "the things which God has prepared for them that love Him" (See ISALAH 64:4). ¹⁰But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit—for the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. ¹¹For who among men knows the things of man, except the spirit of man which is in him? So also no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.

¹²But we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, so that we might know the things given to us by God. ¹³Which things we also speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teaches, but in the words the Holy Spirit teaches, explaining spiritual things by spiritual means. ¹⁴But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God — for they are foolishness to him — neither can he know them, because they are spiritually understood. ¹⁵But the spiritual man understands all things, and he is judged by no one. ¹⁶For who has known the mind of the Lord? Who shall teach Him? But we have the mind of Christ.

¹And, my brothers, I could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly ones — even as to babes in Christ. ²I gave you milk to drink, and not solid food, for you were not yet able to bear it. But even now, you are not yet able, ³for you are still fleshly. For whereas there are divisions and jealousy and fighting among you, are you not fleshly and walk according to man? ⁴For when one says, I am of Paul! — and another says, I am of Apollos! — are you not fleshly? ⁵Who then is Paul? And who is Apollos? They are but ministers through whom you believed, and as the Lord gave to each. ⁶I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave growth. ⁷So that he who plants is not anything, nor he who waters — but God who gives growth. ⁸But he who plants and he who waters are one.

But each one shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. ⁹For of God we are fellow-workers. You are God's field, God's building. ¹⁰I have laid the foundation as a wise master-builder, according to the grace of God which was given unto me — and another builds upon it. But let each one be careful how he builds upon it. ¹¹For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²Now if anyone build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, grass, straw — ¹³the work of each one will be revealed. For the day will make it known, because it is revealed in fire. And the fire will test the work of each one — what kind it is. ¹⁴If the work of any man lasts, which he built up, he shall receive a reward. ¹⁵If the work of anyone shall be burned, he shall suffer loss. But he himself shall be saved — but so as through fire. ¹⁶Do you not know you are the temple of God? and the Spirit of God dwells in you? ¹⁷If anyone defile the temple of God, God shall destroy him, for the temple of God is holy — which you are. ¹⁸Let no one deceive himself! If anyone among you imagines himself to be wise in this age, let him become foolish so that he may be wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it has been written, "He takes the wise in their own wickedness" (See JOB 5:13). ²⁰And again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise that they are vain" (See PSALM 94:11). ²¹Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours — ²²whether Paul, or Apollos, or Peter, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, ²³and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

¹Let a man so esteem us as ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. ²But as to the rest, it is necessary in stewards that one be found faithful. ³But to me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by the day of man. But neither do I judge myself. ⁴For I am aware of nothing of myself. But I have not been justified by this, but He who judges me is the Lord. ⁵Therefore do not judge anything before the time—until the Lord has come—who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the thoughts of all hearts. And then shall each one have praise from God.

⁶And these things, my brothers, I have changed to fit Apollos and myself for your sakes—so that you may learn in us not to think above what has been written, in order that no one of you may be puffed up, one against another. ⁷For who makes you to differ from another? And what do you have which you did not receive? But now if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it? ⁸You are already satisfied! You are already rich! You ruled as kings without us! And I wish you surely did rule, so that we also might rule with you. ⁹For I think that God has set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death. For we became a show to the world, both to angels and to men. ¹⁰We are fools for the sake of Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are glorious, but we are without honor! ¹¹Even to this present hour we both hunger and thirst. And we are naked and are beaten and wander about without a home. ¹²And we labor, working with our own hands. When we are reviled, we bless. When we are persecuted, we bear it. ¹³*When we are* defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the off-scouring of all things to this day. ¹⁴I do not write these things to shame you, but I warn you as my beloved children. ¹⁵For if you have ten thousand teachers in Christ, yet you have not many fathers—for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the Gospel. ¹⁶Therefore I urge you to become imitators of me.

¹⁷For this reason I sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved child, and faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my ways that are in Christ, just as I teach everywhere in every church. ¹⁸Now as to my not coming to you, some were puffed up. ¹⁹But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will. And I will not mark the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. ²⁰For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power! ²¹What do you want? that I should come to you with a rod? or in love, and in a spirit of meekness?

¹It is commonly said that there is fornication among you (and such fornication as is not even named among the Gentiles—that one should have his father's wife). ²And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, so that he who did this deed might be taken away from among you! ³For I truly (as being absent in body, but present in spirit) have already judged him who has so done this thing (as though I were present). ⁴*I have judged* in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (you and my spirit being gathered together with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ) ⁵to deliver such a one to Satan in order to destroy the flesh — so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. ⁶Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven will leaven a whole lump? ⁷Therefore purge out the old leaven so that you may be a new lump, according as you are unleavened. For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. ⁸Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven (nor with leaven of meanness and wickedness), but with the bread of sincerity and truth, which is not leavened.

⁹I wrote to you in a letter not to keep company with fornicators. ¹⁰And this was not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or the robbers, or the worshippers of idols — for then you would have to go out of the world. ¹¹But now I wrote to you not to keep company with him, if anyone called a brother is either a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolator, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a robber. Do not even eat with such a one. ¹²For what is it to me to judge those who are outside too? Do you not judge those who are inside? ¹³But God judges those who are outside. And you shall put that wicked person out from among yourselves!

¹*If* any one of you has a matter against another, do you dare go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? ²Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? ³Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more then the things of this life? ⁴If then you have judgment as to things of this life, set those up who are least esteemed in the church. ⁵I speak to your shame. Sol! Is there not a wise man among you, not even one who shall be able to decide between his brother and another brother? ⁶But brother goes to law with brother. And this before unbelievers! ⁷Already then there is a failure among you, that you have law-suits among yourselves. Why do you not rather permit wrong to yourselves? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸But you do wrong and cheat, and these things to your brothers. ⁹Do you not know that unjust men shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be fooled — neither fornicators, nor worshippers of idols, nor adulterers, nor abusers of themselves as women, nor abusers of themselves with men, ¹⁰nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor name-callers, nor robbers shall inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹And some of you were these things. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

¹²All things are lawful to me, but not all things do good. All things are lawful to me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. ¹³Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats—but God shall bring both this and these to nothing. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord. And the Lord is for the body. ¹⁴And God has both raised up the Lord, and will raise us up by His power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them the members of a harlot? Let it not be said! ¹⁶Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body? For He says, “The two shall be one flesh” (See GENESIS 2:24). ¹⁷But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. ¹⁸Run from fornication! Every sin that a man does is outside the body. But he who commits fornication sins against his own body. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit in you?—which you have from God. ²⁰And you are not your own—you were bought with a price! Then glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.

¹But about the things you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. ²But because of fornication, let each one have his own wife. And let each one have her own husband. ³Let the husband give to the wife proper kindness, and likewise also the wife to the husband. ⁴The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. And likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. ⁵Do not withhold from one another—except by agreement for a time, so that you may be free for fasting and prayer. But come together again into one place so that Satan may not tempt you because of your not being able to contain yourself. ⁶But I say this by way of permission, not by way of command. ⁷For I wish that all men were even as myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one in this way, and another in that way. ⁸But I say to the unmarried and the widows, it is good for them if they should stay even as I am. ⁹However, if they do not have control of themselves, let them marry—for it is better to marry than to burn.

¹⁰But to the married I command (yet not I, but the Lord), The wife should not be parted from the husband. ¹¹However, if she is parted from him, let her either stay unmarried or be reconciled to her husband again. And the husband should not leave the wife. ¹²But to the rest I say (not the Lord), If any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she agrees to live with him, let him not leave her. ¹³And the woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he agrees to live with her, let her not leave him. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife. And the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. For otherwise your children are unclean — but now they are holy. ¹⁵But if the unbeliever separates himself, let him separate himself. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace. ¹⁶For what do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? Or what do you know, O husband, whether you shall save your wife?

¹⁷But to each one as God has given, as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And so I command in all the churches. ¹⁸Was anyone called who had been circumcised? Let him not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called not being circumcised? Let him not be circumcised. ¹⁹Circumcision is nothing, and not being circumcised is nothing. But keeping God's commandments is everything. ²⁰Each one in the calling in which he was called, let him live in this way. ²¹Were you called as a slave? Do not let it be a care to you — but if you are able to become free, use it rather. ²²For he who is called as a slave in the Lord is a free man of the Lord. And likewise he who is called free is a bond-slave of Christ. ²³You were bought with a price! Do not become the slaves of men. ²⁴*My* brothers, each one, in whichever way he was called, let him live with God in that way.

²⁵Now about virgins, I do not have any commandment of the Lord. Yet I give judgment as one who has received mercy from the Lord to be faithful. ²⁶I think then this is good — because of the present necessity — that it is good for a man to be this way. ²⁷Have you been bound to a wife? Do not try to be free. Have you been freed from a wife? Do not look for a wife. ²⁸However, if you did get married, you did not sin. And if a virgin has gotten married, she did not sin. But you shall have much trouble in the flesh — but I spare you. ²⁹But I say this, my brothers, the time is short. The rest is this: that even those who have wives should be as if they did not have; and those weeping as if they did not weep. ³⁰And the ones rejoicing should be as though not rejoicing. And the ones who are buying should be as those who do not own anything. ³¹And the ones using this world should be as though they did not use it as their very own — for the fashion of this world passes away.

³²But I want you to be free from care. The unmarried one cares for the things of the Lord, how he shall please the Lord. ³³But he that is married cares for the things of the world, how he shall please his wife. ³⁴The wife and the virgin are different. The unmarried one cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit. But she that is married cares for the things of the world, how she shall please her husband. ³⁵And I say this for your own good, not that I may throw a noose in front of you, but for that which is right, and that you may wait upon the Lord without being distracted.

³⁶But if anyone considers it behaving unseemly towards his virginity (if he is beyond his prime, and so it ought to be), let him do what he chooses — he does not sin — let them marry. ³⁷But he who stands firm in his heart, not having any need, but who has authority over his own will (and he has judged this thing in his heart, to keep his own virginity), he does well. ³⁸So that he that gives in marriage does well. And he that does not give in marriage does better.

³⁹A wife is bound by law for as long a time as her husband is living. But if her husband is dead, she is free to be married to whom she pleases, only in the Lord. ⁴⁰But according to my judgment, she is happier if she should stay unmarried. And I think I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

¹Now about things sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ²But if anyone thinks he knows anything, he has not known anything as he ought to know it. ³But if anyone loves God, he is known by Him. ⁴Therefore, about the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world. And there is no other God except one. ⁵For even though there are those called gods (whether in Heaven or on the earth), as there are many gods and many lords — ⁶yet to us there is one God the Father, of whom are all things, and we for Him. And there is one Lord Jesus Christ by whom are all things, and we by Him. ⁷But this knowledge is not in all — but some, fully aware of the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol even until now. And their conscience being weak, they are defiled. ⁸But food does not commend us to God. For neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse. ⁹But be careful lest this strength of yours become a cause of stumbling to those who are weak. ¹⁰For if anyone see you who have this knowledge dining in an idol-temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be built up so as to eat things sacrificed to idols? ¹¹And through your knowledge the weak brother, for whom Christ died, will fall away. ¹²But sinning in this way against the brothers and wounding their weak conscience, you are sinning against Christ. ¹³Therefore if food causes my brother to stumble, I should never eat flesh for ever — so that I may not cause my brother to stumble.

CHAPTER 9

¹Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ²If I am not an apostle to others, yet without doubt I am to you—for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. ³My answer to those who examine me is this: ⁴Do we not have authority to eat and to drink? ⁵Do we not have authority to lead around a sister, a wife, as also the other apostles, and Peter, and the brothers of the Lord? ⁶Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to quit working? ⁷Who at any time serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of the fruit at any time? Or who shepherds a flock and does not eat of the milk of the flock? ⁸Do I speak these things after the manner of men? or does not the Law also say these things? ⁹For it has been written in the law of Moses, “You shall not muzzle an ox treading out corn” (See DEUTERONOMY 25:4). Is it because God cares for the oxen? ¹⁰or because of us alone that He says it? It was written for us, because he who plows ought to plow in hope. And he who treads out corn in hope ought to partake of his hope. ¹¹If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your fleshly things? ¹²If others share in the authority over you, should not rather we? But we did not use this authority. But we endure all things lest we should hinder the Gospel of Christ. ¹³Do you not know that those who labor about holy things eat of the things of the temple? The ones attending at the altar partake with the altar. ¹⁴Even so the Lord has commanded to those who preach the Gospel, that they should live of the Gospel.

¹⁵But I did not use any of these things. And I did not write these things that it should be so with me. For it were better for me to die than that anyone should make my glorying useless. ¹⁶For if I preach the Gospel, there is no glory to me—for great need is laid upon me, and it is woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel. ¹⁷For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, I am still entrusted with an administration of the Gospel. ¹⁸What then is my reward? It is that in preaching the Gospel I should make the Gospel of Christ free—so that I may not misuse my authority in the Gospel. ¹⁹For being free from all, I myself became a slave to all, so that I might gain the most. ²⁰And I became as a Jew to the Jews, so that I might gain Jews; and to those under Law as under Law, so that I might gain those under Law. ²¹*And I became* to those without Law as one without Law (not being without law unto God, but under law unto Christ) that I might gain those without Law. ²²To the weak I became as weak, so that I might gain the weak. To all these I have become all things, so that by all means I might save some. ²³And I do this for the sake of the Gospel, so that I might be a partaker of it.

²⁴Do you not know that the ones who run in a race really all run, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may win. ²⁵But everyone who tries to win in all things controls himself. Then they indeed do it so that they may win a crown that perishes—but we to win one that cannot perish. ²⁶So then I run, not as if I were uncertain. And so I fight, not as one who beats the air. ²⁷But I am beating my body down and leading it captive, lest by any means I myself should be rejected after I have preached to others.

¹Now I do not want you to be ignorant, my brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud. And all passed through the sea. ²And all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³And all ate the same spiritual food. ⁴And all drank the same spiritual drink—for they continued to drink of the spiritual rock that followed them—and the Rock was Christ. ⁵Yet God was not pleased with most of them, for they were slain in the desert. ⁶But these things became examples for us, so that we may not be lusters after evil things, even as they also desired. ⁷Neither be worshippers of idols, even as some of them were—for it has been written, “The people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play” (See EXODUS 32:6). ⁸Neither should we commit fornication, even as some of them committed fornication (and in one day twenty-three thousand fell). ⁹Neither should we try Christ, even as also some of them tried Him and were destroyed by the serpents. ¹⁰Neither should you complain, even as some of them complained and were destroyed by the destroyer. ¹¹Now all these things happened as examples to them, and were written for our warning, on whom the ends of the ages are come.

¹²Therefore let him that thinks he stands be careful lest he fall. ¹³No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. But God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able—but with the temptation He will make a way of escape, so that you may be able to bear it. ¹⁴Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idol-worshipping. ¹⁵I speak as to wise men: you judge what I say. ¹⁶The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the fellowship of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the fellowship of the body of Christ?—¹⁷because we, the many, are one loaf, one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. ¹⁸Look at Israel according to the flesh—are not the ones eating the sacrifices fellow-partakers with the altar? ¹⁹What do I say then? that the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice is anything? ²⁰But I say that what the Gentiles sacrifice they sacrifice to demons, and not to God. But I do not want you to be fellow-partakers with demons. ²¹You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too! You cannot eat of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons too! ²²Or, do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? (See DEUTERONOMY 32:21). Are we stronger than He is?

²³All things are lawful for me, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful for me, but not all things build up. ²⁴Let no one seek his own, but each one should seek the other's welfare. ²⁵Eat everything that is sold in a market, in no way inquiring because of conscience. ²⁶"For the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it" (See PSALM 24:1). ²⁷But if any one of the unbelievers invites you, and you desire to go, eat all that is set before you, in no way inquiring because of conscience. ²⁸But if anyone say to you, This is offered to an idoll — do not eat for the sake of him that showed it, and the conscience. "For the earth is the Lord's and the fullness of it." ²⁹But conscience, I say, not that of yourself, but that of the other man, For why is my freedom judged by another's conscience? ³⁰But if I partake with thanksgiving, why am I slandered for that for which I give thanks? ³¹Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³²Give no occasion of stumbling — both to the Jews and Greeks, and to the church of God. ³³Even as I also please men in all things — not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, so that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11

¹Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

²Now I praise you, my brothers, that you have remembered me in all things. And you hold fast the teachings even as I taught them to you. ³But I want you to know that Christ is the Head of every man, but the head of the woman is the man, and the Head of Christ is God. ⁴Every man who prays or prophesies with anything upon his head puts his Head to shame. ⁵And every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered puts her head to shame. For it is one and the same as if her head had been shaved. ⁶For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or to be shaven, then let her be covered. ⁷For indeed man, being the image and glory of God, ought not to have his head covered — but woman is the glory of man. ⁸For man is not of the woman, but woman of the man. ⁹For also man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man. ¹⁰For this reason the woman ought to have authority on the head, for the sake of the angels. ¹¹Nevertheless neither is man apart from the woman, nor woman apart from the man, in the Lord. ¹²For as the woman is of the man, so also is the man by the woman — but all things are of God. ¹³Judge within yourselves: Is it becoming for a woman to pray to God uncovered? ¹⁴Or does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair it is a dishonor to him? ¹⁵But if a woman has long hair, it is to her glory — for the long hair is given to her instead of a covering. ¹⁶But if anyone thinks to be full of argument, we have no such custom, nor the churches of God.

¹⁷But commanding you as to this, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸For first of all I hear that you have divisions among you when you come together in the church — and I partly believe it. ¹⁹For there must also be heresies among you in order that the approved may be made known among you. ²⁰Therefore when you come together into one place, it is not in order to eat the Lord's supper. ²¹For each one takes beforehand his own supper when you eat — and one is hungry and another is drunken. ²²What! Do you not have houses for eating and drinking? Or do you despise the church of God, and put the ones who have nothing to shame? What should I say unto you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you! ²³For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered unto you — that the Lord Jesus took bread (in the night in which He was betrayed), ²⁴and after giving thanks He broke it, and said, Take, eat! This is My body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me. ²⁵In like manner also after He had supped, He took the cup, saying, This cup is the new covenant in My blood: this do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me. ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you show forth the death of the Lord until He comes. ²⁷So that whoever shall eat this bread or shall drink the cup of the Lord in a way that is not worthy, he shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸But let a man examine himself, and let him eat of the bread and let him drink of the cup in this way. ²⁹For he that eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself — not seeing through to the body of the Lord. ³⁰For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and many are dead. ³¹For if we examine ourselves, we would not be judged. ³²But when we are judged, we are corrected by the Lord, so that we should not be condemned with the world. ³³So then, my brothers, when you come together in order to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home — so that you may not come together for judgment. And the other things I will set in order when I come.

¹But concerning spiritual gifts, my brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. ²You know that you were Gentiles carried away to dumb idols, even as you were led. ³For this reason I give you to know that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says that Jesus is accursed. And no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit. ⁴But there are different kinds of gifts, yet the same Spirit. ⁵And there are different kinds of ministries, yet the same Lord. ⁶And there are different kinds of workings, yet it is the same God who works all things in all. ⁷But to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for profit. ⁸For to one a word of wisdom is given by the Spirit. And to another a word of knowledge is given, according to the same Spirit, ⁹and to a different one faith, in the same Spirit. And to another is given gifts of healing, in the very same Spirit. ¹⁰And to another is given the working of mighty works, and to another prophecy, and to another the discerning of spirits. And to a different one is given many kinds of languages, and to another the interpretation of languages. ¹¹But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, giving separately to each one as He desires. ¹²For even as the body is one and has many parts — but all the parts of the body, though many, are one body — so also is Christ. ¹³For by one Spirit also we were baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free men, and all were made to drink into one Spirit. ¹⁴For also the body is not one member, but many. ¹⁵If the foot should say, Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body — is it therefore not of the body? ¹⁶And if the ear should say, Because I am not an eye, I am not part of the body — is it therefore not of the body? ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? ¹⁸But now God set each one of the parts in the body, just as He pleased. ¹⁹But if all were one part, where would be the body?

²⁰But now truly there are many parts, but only one body. ²¹And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you. Nor again can the head say to the feet, I have no need of you. ²²But much rather the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are needed. ²³And those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, to these we give the more honor. And our unbecoming parts have the most comeliness — ²⁴but our becoming parts have no need. But God tempered the body together, giving more honor to that part which had need, ²⁵that there should not be any division within the body — but that the parts might have the same care for one another. ²⁶And if one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it. And if one part is glorified, all the parts rejoice together. ²⁷Now you are the body of Christ, and members in particular. ²⁸And God has set certain ones in the church. First, He has set apostles; secondly, prophets; thirdly, teachers — then works of power, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, different kinds of languages. ²⁹*Are* all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all do works of power? ³⁰Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? ³¹But love the better gifts, and yet I show you a more excellent way.

¹If I speak in the tongues of men and angels, but have not love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. ²And if I have prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith (so that I could remove mountains,) but have not love, I am nothing. ³And if I give all my goods in order to feed the poor, and if I give my body that I may be burned, but have not love, I have gained nothing. ⁴Love has patience and is kind. Love is not jealous. Love is not vain, is not puffed up. ⁵*Love* does not behave unseemly. Love does not seek its own things, is not easily provoked. Love thinks no evil, ⁶does not rejoice in evil — but rejoices in the truth. ⁷*Love* covers all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. ⁸Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they shall be done away. Whether there are gifts of languages, they shall be done away. Whether there is a gift of knowledge, it shall be done away. ⁹For we know in part, and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰but when that which is perfect comes, then that which is in part shall be done away. ¹¹When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I thought as a child, and I reasoned as a child. But when I became a man, I did away with childish things. ¹²For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part — but then I shall know even as also I have been known. ¹³And now faith, hope and love remain, these three things, but the greatest of these is love.

¹Run after love, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that you may prophesy. ²For he who speaks in tongues does not speak to men, but to God — for no one hears, but he in spirit speaks mysteries. ³But he who prophesies speaks to build men up and to encourage and comfort them. ⁴He who speaks in tongues builds himself up — but he who prophesies builds up the church. ⁵Now I wish you all to speak in languages but rather so that you should prophesy. For he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with languages — except that he should interpret so that the church may receive benefit. ⁶But now, my brothers, if I come to you speaking with foreign languages, what good shall I do you — unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or knowledge, or prophesying, or teaching? ⁷Even when things without life give a sound (whether pipe or harp,) if they do not give a difference in the sounds, how shall it be known what is being piped or harped? ⁸And, too, if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall get ready for war? ⁹So it is with you too — unless you give an understandable speech by means of the language, how shall it be known what you are saying? — for you will be speaking into the air. ¹⁰It may be that there are so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them without distinct sound. ¹¹Therefore if I do not know the meaning of the sound, I shall be a bär-bâr'-i-än to him who speaks. And he who speaks shall be a bär-bâr'-i-än to me. ¹²So you also, since you are desirous of spirits, seek that you may excel for the building up of the church. ¹³Therefore he who speaks in a tongue, let him pray that he can interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is without fruit.

¹⁵What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray also with the understanding. I will praise with the spirit, but I will also praise with the understanding. ¹⁶Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, he who fills the place of the unlearned — how shall he say the Amen at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you say? ¹⁷For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not being built up. ¹⁸I thank my God that I speak with more languages than all of you — ¹⁹But in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, so that I also may teach others, than ten thousand words in a foreign tongue.

²⁰*My* brothers, do not be children in your minds, but be babes in malice, and be full-grown in your minds. ²¹It has been written in the Law, "By other tongues and by other lips I will speak to this people, and even so, they will not hear Me, says the Lord" (See ISALAH 28:11). ²²So that the tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the ones who do not believe. But prophecy is not to the ones who do not believe, but to those who believe. ²³If then the whole church come together in one place, and all should speak with foreign tongues, and unlearned ones or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are mad? ²⁴But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or unlearned one should come in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all—²⁵and so the secrets of his heart may become known. And so, falling upon his face, he will worship God, saying that God is truly among you.

²⁶What then is it, my brothers? When you come together, each of you has a psalm, or has a teaching, or has a tongue, or has a revelation, or has an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up. ²⁷If anyone speak with a foreign tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and one after another, and let one interpret. ²⁸And if there is not an interpreter, let him be silent in the church, and let him speak to himself and to God. ²⁹And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge. ³⁰But if there should be a revelation to another sitting by, let the first be silent. ³¹For one by one you can all prophesy, so that all may learn, and all may be encouraged. ³²And the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. ³³For He is not the God of confusion, but of peace—as in all the churches of the saints.

³⁴Let your women be silent in the churches, for it is not allowed to them to speak—but they are to be in subjection, even as the Law also says. ³⁵But if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home—for it is a shame for women to speak in church.

³⁶For did the word of God come forth from you? Or did it come only to you? ³⁷If any one thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things I write to you, that they are commands of the Lord. ³⁸But if any be ignorant, let him be ignorant. ³⁹So, then, my brothers, love to prophesy, and do not forbid anyone to speak in tongues. ⁴⁰Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15

¹Moreover, my brothers, I make known to you the Gospel which I preached to you, which you also received—the Gospel in which you also stand, ²by which you also are being saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. ³For I delivered to you first of all what I also received — that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures; ⁴and that He was buried; and that He was raised the third day, according to the Scriptures; ⁵and that He appeared to Peter, then to the twelve. ⁶Then He appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some also are dead. ⁷After that He appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁸And last of all, as if to one born out of due time, He appeared also to me. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, who am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace which was towards me has not been in vain — but I labored more fruitfully than all of them (yet not I, but the grace of God with me). ¹¹Whether then it were I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

¹²Now if Christ is preached, that He has been raised from among the dead, how do some among you say that there is not a resurrection of the dead? ¹³But if there is not a resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. ¹⁴But if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is worthless, and your faith is also worthless. ¹⁵And, too, we are found to be false witnesses of God — for we witnessed about God, that He raised up the Christ, but He did not raise Him if then the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised. ¹⁷But if Christ has not been raised, your faith is foolish — you are still in your sins. ¹⁸And then those that have fallen asleep in Christ have been lost. ¹⁹If we have hope in Christ in this life only, we are more miserable than all men.

²⁰But now Christ has been raised from among the dead. He has become the first-fruit of those who are dead. ²¹For since death came through man, resurrection of the dead also came through man. ²²For as all die in Adam, so also all shall be made alive in Christ. ²³But each in his own order: Christ the first-fruit; then they who are of Christ in His coming; ²⁴then comes the end — whenever He delivers up the kingdom to Him who is God and Father — whenever He shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵For it behoves Him to reign until He shall have put all enemies under His feet. ²⁶*The* last enemy put down is death. ²⁷For He put all things in subjection under His feet. But when it is said that all things are put in subjection, it is plain that it excepts Him who put all things in subjection to Him. ²⁸And when all things shall have been put in subjection to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subject to Him who put all things under Him — so that God may be all in all.

²⁹Otherwise what shall they do who are being baptized for the dead — if the dead are not raised at all? And why are they also being baptized for the dead? ³⁰Why also are we in danger every hour? ³¹Day by day I die, by your own boasting, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³²If after the manner of men I have fought with wild beasts in Éphesus [Ēf'-ĕ-sūs], what is the gain to me if the dead are not raised? "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die" (See ISALAH 22:13). ³³Do not be led astray, evil companions ruin good manners. ³⁴Be sober in righteousness and do not sin. For some have not the knowledge of God—I speak this to your shame.

³⁵But someone will say, How are the dead raised? and with what body do they come? ³⁶Fool! What you sow is not made alive unless it die. ³⁷And what you sow, you do not sow the body which shall come to be, but the bare grain — it may be of wheat or of some other grain. ³⁸And God gives a body to it according as He was pleased, and to each of the seeds its own body. ³⁹Not all flesh is the same flesh — but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fish, and another of birds. ⁴⁰And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly is truly different, and that of the earthly is different — ⁴¹one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. ⁴²So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in decay, it is raised in a state that cannot decay. ⁴³It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. ⁴⁴It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. ⁴⁵So also it has been written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul" (See GENESIS 2:7); the last Adam became a life-giving Spirit. ⁴⁶But that which is spiritual is not first, but the natural, then the spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man is out of earth, made of dust — the second man is the Lord out of Heaven. ⁴⁸Just as he who is made of dust is, so also are the ones made out of dust. And just as the Heavenly One is, so also are the heavenly ones. ⁴⁹And even as we bore the image of the one made of dust, so we shall also bear the image of the Heavenly One. ⁵⁰But I say this, my brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does rottenness inherit purity.

⁵¹Behold! I tell you a heavenly secret: We shall not all fall asleep, but we shall all be changed — ⁵²in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For a trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised forever pure, and we shall be changed. ⁵³For this rottenness must put on purity, and this mortal must put on immortality. ⁵⁴But when this decaying one shall have put on purity, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the word that has been written, "Death was swallowed up in victory. ⁵⁵O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory?" (See ISALAH 25:8; HOSEA 13:14). ⁵⁶Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Law. ⁵⁷But thanks be unto God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! ⁵⁸So then, my beloved brothers, be firm, so that you cannot be moved, abounding in the work of the Lord always, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

¹Now about the collection which is for the saints, even as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, you also do the same. ²Upon the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store whatever he may be prospered in, so that when I come there should be no collections then. ³And when I arrive, whomever you shall approve by letters, I will send these to carry your gifts of charity to Jerusalem. ⁴And if it is suitable for me to go also, they shall go with me. ⁵But I will come to you when I have gone through Macedonia [Mäss-ē-dō'-nī-ă] — for I am passing through Macedonia. ⁶And it may be that I shall stay with you, or I may even winter with you, so that you may set me forward wherever I may go. ⁷For I do not want to see you now just in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permit. ⁸But I shall stay in Ēph'-ē-sūs until Pen'-tē-cost. ⁹For a door has been opened to me, wonderful and mighty, but there are many who oppose us.

¹⁰Now if Timothy should come, see that he may be with you without fear — for he works the work of the Lord, even as I do. ¹¹Let no one therefore despise him, but set him forward in peace so that he may come to me, for I look for him with the brothers. ¹²And concerning Apollos the brother, I much urged him that he should come to you with the brothers. But it was not his will that he should come now — but he will come when he has an opportunity. ¹³Watch! Stand fast in the faith! Quit yourselves like men! Be strong! ¹⁴Let all your things be done in love.

¹⁵But I beseech you, my brothers. You know the house of Stephanas [Stěf'-ăn-ăs], that it is the first-fruit of Achaia [Ā-kī'-ă], and that they have devoted themselves to minister to the saints. ¹⁶I ask that you be subject to such, and to everyone working and laboring with us. ¹⁷And I rejoice at the coming of Stěph'-ăn-ăs and Fôr-tün-ăt'-ūs and Ā-chai-cūs for they filled up what was lacking on your part. ¹⁸For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore recognize such.

¹⁹The churches of Asia greet you. Ā-quil'-ă and Prīs-cil'-lă greet you in the Lord, with the church in their house. ²⁰All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹The greeting of Paul, by my own hand. ²²If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. The Lord comes. ²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. ²⁴My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The SECOND Letter to the CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is in Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia [Ā-ky'-ā]. ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort. ⁴*He* comforts us in all our trouble, so that we may be able to comfort those in every tribulation — through that comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by our God. ⁵For even as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, so also our comfort abounds through Christ. ⁶But if we are troubled, it is for your comfort and salvation, the working of which is in enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation — ⁷and our hope for you is sure — knowing that even as you are partakers of the sufferings, so also of the comfort. ⁸For, my brother, we do not want you to be ignorant as to our trouble which happened to us in Asia — that we were heavily pressed down beyond our strength, so as for us to even lose hope of living. ⁹But we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, so that we might not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead. ¹⁰For He delivered us from so great a death, and still does deliver us, in whom we have hope that He also will still deliver us, ¹¹with you also laboring together by prayer for us, so that the gracious gift to us by many persons may be the cause of thanksgiving by many on our behalf.

¹²For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that we have conducted ourselves in the world in honesty and godly sincerity — not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God. And this is especially so toward you. ¹³For we do not write any other things to you but what you read, or even recognize. And I hope that you will recognize them even to the end — ¹⁴even as you also in part recognized us, that we are your rejoicing, even as you are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁵And being sure of this, I intended to come to you before now, so that you might have a second benefit, ¹⁶and to pass by you going through to Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ā. And then again I intended to come to you from Măc-ē-dō'-nī-a, and to be brought on my way toward Judea by you. ¹⁷This then being my purpose, did I indeed use lightness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose them according to the flesh, so that there should be yes, yes, and no, no, with me? ¹⁸But God is faithful, that our word to you was not yes and no. ¹⁹For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, (who was preached among you by us — Sil-vān'-ūs and Timothy and me) was not yes and no, but in Him it was, Yes! ²⁰For however many promises of God there are, in Him is the Yes, and in Him is the Amen — for glory unto God by us. ²¹Now He who establishes us with you in Christ, and He who anoints us is God—²²who also has sealed us, and has given the first-fruits of the Spirit in our hearts.

²³But I call upon God as witness upon my soul, that I have not yet come to Corinth in order to spare you. ²⁴Not that we rule over your faith, but we are fellow-workers of your joy. For you stand by faith.

¹But I decided this with myself, not to come to you again in sorrow. ²For if I make you sorry, who is it that will make me glad, but he who is made sorry by me? ³And I wrote this very thing lest when I come I might have sorrow from those concerning whom I ought to rejoice, ⁴trusting in you all, that my joy is the joy of all of you. For through many tears I wrote to you out of much trouble and agony of heart, not that you might be made sad, but that you might know the overflowing love which I have towards you. ⁵But if anyone has caused sorrow, he has not caused me sorrow, but in part all of you as well (I say this that I may not bear too heavily upon you). ⁶This punishment which was put upon him by the most of you is sufficient to such a one. ⁷So that now, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and encourage this one lest he should be swallowed up with overwhelming sorrow. ⁸Therefore I urge you to make him sure of your love. ⁹For to this end also I wrote, that I might know the proof of you — if you are obedient in everything. ¹⁰But to whom you forgive any thing, I also forgive. For also if I have forgiven any thing, I have forgiven it for your sake, in the person of Christ, ¹¹so that we should not be overreached by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his thoughts.

¹²But when I had come to Trō'-ās for the sake of the Gospel of Christ, and a door had been opened to me by the Lord, ¹³I did not have any rest in my spirit because I did not find Titus my brother. But taking leave of them, I went out to Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă. ¹⁴But thanks be unto God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and who reveals through us in every place the sweet smell of the knowledge of Him. ¹⁵For we are to God a sweet perfume of Christ — in those who are being saved, and in those who are perishing. ¹⁶To the ones we are a savor of death unto death; and to the others a savor of life unto life. And who is good enough for these things? ¹⁷For we are not as the many, making gain by corrupting the word of God, but as of truthfulness, but as of God. In the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

¹Do we begin again to recommend ourselves? Or do we, like some, need letters to recommend us to you? or letters from you to recommend us? ²You are our letter! For you have been written in our hearts, being known and read by all men, ³showing forth that you are Christ's letter, ministered by us — not being written with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God — not on tablets of stone, but on fleshly tablets of the heart. ⁴And we have such trust through Christ towards God. ⁵Not that we are able of ourselves to judge anything as of ourselves, but our ability to judge is of God — ⁶who has also made us able ministers of the new covenant — not of the letter, but of the Spirit — for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

⁷But if the ministry of death, in letters cut into stones, was brought into being with glory, (so that the children of Israel were not able to look steadily into the face of Moses, because of the shining glory of his face.) which glory was to be done away — ⁸how much rather shall the ministry of the Spirit be with glory! ⁹For if the ministry of con-dēm-nā'-tion was glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness exceed in glory. ¹⁰For even that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect — because of the glory which is far greater. ¹¹For if that which is being done away was brought in by means of glory, much more that which remains is with glory. ¹²Having such hope, then, we use great plainness of speech. ¹³And we are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily to the end of that which was to be taken away. ¹⁴But their minds were blinded. For until this very day the same veil remains upon the reading of the Old Testament. It is not removed because it is to be done away in Christ. ¹⁵But until this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies upon their heart. ¹⁶However when it shall turn unto the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit. And where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom! ¹⁸But we all, with unveiled face beholding the glory of the Lord, as in a mirror, are being changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Spirit of the Lord.

¹Therefore, since we have this ministry, even as we have received mercy, we do not faint. ²But we have forsaken the hidden things of shame, not walking in sly ways, nor falsely using the word of God. But by revealing the truth we are approving ourselves to every conscience of men in the sight of God. ³But if our Gospel is hidden, it is hidden in those who are perishing — ⁴in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the ones who do not believe — to the end that the brightness of the Gospel of the glory of Christ (who is the image of God) should not dawn upon them: ⁵For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord. And we ourselves are your servants for the sake of Jesus. ⁶Because the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness is He who has shone in our hearts to give the brightness of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. ⁷But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves.

⁸In every way we are pressed down, but not hemmed in. We are in doubt, but not without hope. ⁹*We are* persecuted, but not forsaken. We are thrown down, but not destroyed. ¹⁰*We are* always bearing about in our body the dying of the Lord Jesus, so that the life of the Lord Jesus may be shown forth in our body too. ¹¹For we who live are always being delivered to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be shown forth in our mortal flesh also. ¹²So death truly works in us, and life in you. ¹³But we have the same spirit of faith, according to what has been written, "I believed, therefore I spoke" (See PSALM 116:10). We also believe, therefore we also speak, ¹⁴knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus will raise us up through Jesus also. And He will present us with you. ¹⁵For all things are for your sake, in order that the abounding grace may excel through the thanksgiving of the greatest number, to the glory of God.

¹⁶For this reason we do not faint. But even if our outward man is decaying, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷For the lightness of our affliction, which is but for a moment, is working out for us a far more excellent eternal weight of glory. ¹⁸For we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen—for the things which are seen are not lasting, but the things which are not seen are everlasting.

¹For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle is taken down, we have a building from God—a house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens. ²For indeed in this we groan, for we long to be clothed with our house which is from Heaven. ³For also if we are clothed, we shall not be found naked. ⁴For indeed we who are in the tabernacle groan, being loaded down—since we do not wish to be unclothed, but to be clothed upon, so that that which is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵Now He who has made us fit for this same thing is God, who also has given to us the first-fruit of the Spirit. ⁶Therefore we are always fully assured, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. ⁷(For we walk by faith, not by sight.) ⁸We are fully assured, and are well-pleased rather to be away from home, out of the body, and to be at home with the Lord. ⁹Because of this, too, we are striving to be pleasing to Him—whether we are at home, or away from home.

¹⁰For we all must appear before the judgment seat of Christ—so that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he did, whether good or evil.

¹¹Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men. But to God we have been known, and I hope we have been known in your consciences also. ¹²For we do not again recommend ourselves to you, but we are giving you an occasion to glory on our behalf — so that you may have something to answer to those who glory in appearance and not in heart. ¹³For if we were beside ourselves, it was unto God. Or if we are of sound mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For the love of Christ presses us on every side. For we have judged this, that if one died for all, then all died. ¹⁵And He died for all, so that they who live should no longer live to themselves, but to Him who died for them and was raised again. ¹⁶So that from now on we know no one according to the flesh. But even if we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer know Him. ¹⁷So that if any one is in Christ, he is a new creation — the old things have passed away. Behold, all things have become new! ¹⁸And all things are of God, who reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ. And He gave to us the ministry of reconciliation — ¹⁹that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them. And He has put in us the word of reconciliation. ²⁰Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were calling through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, Be reconciled to God. ²¹For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

CHAPTER 6

¹But working together we also call upon you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ²(For He says, “In an accepted time, I have heard you; and in a day of salvation, I have helped you.” Behold! Now is the accepted time. Behold! Now is the day of salvation. — See ISAIAH 49:8). ³*We are* not giving one occasion of stumbling in anything, so that the ministry may not be blamed — ⁴but in everything we are setting ourselves forth as God’s servants, in much patience, in troubles, in emergencies, in difficulties, ⁵in stripes, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings, ⁶in pureness, in knowledge, in long suffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in true love, ⁷in the word of truth, in the power of God, through the weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ⁸through glory and dishonor, through evil report and good report — as deceivers, and yet true — ⁹as unknown, and yet well-known — as dying, and yet behold, we live! — as flogged, and yet not put to death — ¹⁰as sorrowful, but yet always rejoicing — as poor, but yet enriching many — as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

¹¹Our mouth is opened to you, O Corinthians, our heart has been made larger. ¹²You are not made narrow in us, but you are cramped in your own bowels. ¹³But for the same reward — I speak as to children — be also made larger.

¹⁴Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership does righteousness have with lawlessness? And what fellowship does light have with darkness? ¹⁵And what agreement does Christ have with Bē'-li-āl? Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever? ¹⁶And what agreement does the temple of God have with idols? For you are a temple of the living God, even as God said, "I will dwell in them, and walk among them. And I will be their God, and they shall be My people" (See LEVITICUS 26:12). ¹⁷Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch the unclean, and I will receive you. ¹⁸And I will be a Father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to Me, says the Lord Almighty.

¹Therefore, beloved, since we have these promises, we should make ourselves clean from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

²Make room for us. We have not done anyone wrong. We have not corrupted anyone. We have not taken advantage of anyone. ³I do not speak for condemnation — for I have said before that you are in our hearts, for us to live together and to die together. ⁴Great is my freedom of speech towards you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I am overflowing with joy at all our tribulation. ⁵For indeed, when we had come into Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, our flesh had no rest. But we were troubled on every side. We had fightings on the outside and fears on the inside. ⁶But the God who comforts those who are brought low, comforted us by the coming of Titus. ⁷And not only by his coming, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in regard to you. And he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your eagerness on my behalf, so that I rejoiced all the more. ⁸For if I have also made you sorry in the letter, I do not repent, though I could even have repented, for I see that that letter, if even for an hour, made you sorry. ⁹Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry unto repentance. For you were made sorry in God's way, so that you might not suffer loss by us. ¹⁰For godly sorrow works repentance unto salvation, not to be repented of. But the sorrow of the world works death. ¹¹For behold this same thing (your being made sorry in God's way): What carefulness it worked out in you! what clearing of yourselves! what anger! what fear! what desire! what eagerness! what punishment! In every way you have proved yourselves to be clear in the matter.

¹²So then even if I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of him who did wrong (nor for the sake of him who suffered wrong,) but so that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you. ¹³For this reason we have been comforted in your comfort. And much more fully have we rejoiced over the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴For if I have boasted anything to him about you, I was not put to shame. But as we spoke all things in truth to you, so also our boasting before Titus turned out to be truth. ¹⁵And his tender feelings towards you are far greater, remembering the obedience of you all—how you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶I am joyful, therefore, that in everything I am fully assured in you.

¹Moreover we make known to you, my brothers, the grace of God which has been given in the churches of Măc-ê-dô'-nî-ă—²that in a great testing time of trouble, the overflowing of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generous giving. ³For I bear witness that according to their power, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves. ⁴With much desire they begged us, desiring for us to receive the grace and the fellowship of the ministry which was for the saints. ⁵And not only as we hoped, but they gave themselves first to the Lord, and to us, by the will of God. ⁶So we called upon Titus, that even as he began before, so also he should complete this grace to you too. ⁷But even as you excel in everything—in faith, and speech, and knowledge, and all eagerness, and in your love to us—in this grace you should excel also. ⁸I do not speak according to a command, but through the eagerness of others, and the testing of the trueness of your love. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, being rich, for your sake He became poor, in order that you might be made rich by His being poor. ¹⁰And I give my judgment in this matter, for this is good for you, who began before not only to do, but also to be willing a year ago. ¹¹But now finish the doing of it so that according as there was a readiness to be willing, so, too, let there be a finishing, giving out of what you have. ¹²For if there is a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man may have—not according to what he does not have. ¹³For it is not that I intend for others to be eased, and for you to be burdened, ¹⁴but of equalness. In the present time your surplus may be for their need. And also their surplus may be for your need, so that there should be equalness. ¹⁵Even as it has been written, “He that gathered much had nothing left over, and he that gathered little did not lack anything” (See Exodus 16:18).

¹⁶But thanks be unto God, who gives the same care for you in the heart of Titus. ¹⁷For indeed he accepted the call, but being more eager, of his own accord he went out to you. ¹⁸And we sent with him the brother whose praise in the Gospel is throughout all the churches. ¹⁹And not only this, but also he had been chosen by the churches as our traveling companion with this gift which is administered by us to the glory of the Lord Himself, and as a witness of your readiness. ²⁰*We are* arranging this lest any one should blame us in this rich collection which is administered by us — ²¹providing all things honest, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. ²²And we sent our brother with them, whom we often proved to be earnest in many things — and now much more earnest by the great assurance which I have toward you. ²³*If anyone* asks about Titus, he is my partner and a fellow-helper for you. Or about our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. ²⁴So show to them, and that before the churches, the proof of your love and of our boasting on your behalf.

¹For concerning the ministry which is for the saints, it is not needful for me to write to you. ²For I know your readiness of mind, of which I boast to the Măc-ê-dō'-nî-ăns concerning you, that Achaia [Ā-ky'-a] was ready a year ago — and your eagerness has aroused very many. ³Yet I sent the brothers, lest our boasting (which is about you) should be in vain in this respect — so that, according as I said, you may be ready, ⁴lest perhaps the Măc-ê-dō'-nî-ăns should come with me and find you not ready. We (not to say you) would be put to shame in this confidence. ⁵Therefore I judged it needful to call upon the brothers, that they should go ahead to you and make up beforehand this your promised blessing. The same is to be ready so as to be a blessing, and not as of selfishness. ⁶But this I say, he that sows very little shall also reap very little. And he that sows with blessings shall also reap with blessings. ⁷*Let each man give* as he purposes in his heart — not out of sorrow, nor out of need, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸For God is able to make every grace abound to you, so that in every way you will always have enough of every kind and may abound to every good work. ⁹Even as it has been written, “He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor, his righteousness remains forever” (See PSALM 112:9). ¹⁰Now He that supplies seed to him that sows and bread for eating, may He supply you, and may He multiply your sowing. And may He increase the fruits of your righteousness — ¹¹*that you may abound* in every way, being made rich unto every kind of generous giving, which truly works out through us thanksgiving to God. ¹²Because the ministry of this service is not only fully supplying the needs of the saints, but it is also multiplying over and over through many thanksgivings to God. ¹³So through the proof of this service, they are glorifying God because of your freely expressed obedience to the Gospel of Christ, and your generous giving of the fellowship towards them and towards all. ¹⁴And in their prayer for you, there is a longing for you because of the exceeding grace of God upon you. ¹⁵Now thanks be unto God for His unspeakable free gift.

CHAPTER 10

¹Now I myself, Paul, call upon you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ — I, who indeed to look upon am lowly among you, but being absent I am bold toward you. ²I ask, however, that when I am present I may not be bold with the confidence with which I think to be daring against some, who judge of us as if we were walking according to the flesh. ³For though we are walking in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. (⁴For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds — ⁵overthrowing imaginations and every high thing lifting itself up against the knowledge of God — and bringing into captivity every thought into the obedience of Christ — ⁶and having a readiness to reward all who refuse to obey, as soon as you have fulfilled your obedience.)

⁷Do you look at things according to the outward appearance? If anyone is sure in himself that he is Christ's, this let him think again within himself, that even as he is Christ's, so also are we Christ's. ⁸Yes, even if I should boast somewhat more fully about our authority (which the Lord gave to us for building you up, and not for pulling you down) I shall not be put to shame — ⁹so that I may not seem as if I would ¹⁰righten you by means of letters: ¹⁰Because truly his letters (says he) are weighty and strong, but the presence of his body is weak, and his speech is to be despised. ¹¹Let such a one think this, that such as we are in word through letters when absent, such we will also be in action when we are present. ¹²For we dare not rank ourselves among or compare ourselves with some who recommend themselves — but measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, these are not bringing together the right things.

¹³Now we will not boast as to the things beyond measure, but according to the measure of the rule which the God of measure gave to us — a measure to reach even to you. ¹⁴For we do not outstretch ourselves, as though we did not reach to you. For we have come beforehand even to you in the Gospel of Christ. ¹⁵*We came* not boasting in other men's labors, as to the things beyond measure, but we had hope, through your growing faith, to be increased more and more — according to our rule, even to overflowing. ¹⁶*And this* so as to preach the Gospel to that region beyond you, not to boast in another man's rule as to things ready to hand. ¹⁷But he that boasts, let him boast in the Lord. ¹⁸For not he that recommends himself is the one approved, but the one whom the Lord recommends.

¹I wish that you would bear with me a little in my foolishness. No, rather, do indeed bear with me. ²For I am jealous over you with the

jealousy of God. For I have promised you to one Man, in order to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. ³But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent fooled Eve in his cunning, so your thoughts should be spoiled from the pureness which is due to Christ. ⁴For if indeed he that comes preaches another Jesus, one whom we have not preached — or you receive another spirit which you have not received — or another gospel which you never welcomed — you might well bear with it. ⁵For I suppose myself in no way to have been behind the highest apostles. ⁶But even if I am not polished in speech, yet not so in knowledge — but in every way I have made the truth clear to you in all things. ⁷Or did I commit a sin, humbling myself so that you might be lifted up, because I preached the Gospel of God to you without charge? ⁸I stripped other churches, receiving wages from them in order to minister to you. ⁹And when I was present with you and had need, I did not lazily burden any one, for my need was completely supplied by the brothers who came from Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă. And in everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and so will keep myself. ¹⁰The truth of Christ is in me, so that this my boasting shall not be stopped in the regions of Ā-chai'-ă. ¹¹Why? Is it because I do not love you? God knows! ¹²But what I am doing I still will do, so that I may cut off the opportunity of those desiring an opportunity — so that that in which they boast may be found even as we. ¹³For such men are false apostles, misleading workers, changing themselves over into apostles of Christ. ¹⁴And it is no wonder, for Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. ¹⁵*It is* not a great thing, therefore, if his servants also transform themselves as ministers of righteousness — whose end shall be according to their works.

¹⁶Again I say, No one should think me to be a fool. But if otherwise, then receive me even as a fool, so that I may boast a little. ¹⁷What I say, I do not say according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. ¹⁸Since many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. ¹⁹For you gladly bear with the foolish, being wise. ²⁰For you allow it if anyone brings you into bondage, if anyone devours you, if anyone takes from you. You allow it if anyone prides himself, if anyone smites you on the face. ²¹I speak according to disgrace, as though we were weak. But in whatever anyone may be daring (I speak in foolishness), I am daring also. ²²Are they Hebrews? So am I! Are they Israelites? So am I! Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I! ²³Are they ministers of Christ? (I am speaking as one beside myself.) I am more! — I excel them in labors much more richly, and in stripes beyond measure — I have been many more times in prison, and often in deaths. ²⁴Five times I received from the Jews forty stripes minus one. ²⁵I was beaten with rods three times, I was stoned, I was shipwrecked three times, and I have passed a night and a day in the deep. ²⁶*I have been* in travels often, in dangers of rivers, in dangers of robbers, in dangers from my own countrymen, in dangers from the heathen, in dangers in the city, in dangers in the desert, in dangers on the sea, in dangers among false brothers. ²⁷*I have been* in toil and hardship, often in sleeplessness, in hunger and thirst, often in fastings, in cold and nakedness.

²⁸Besides the things on the outside, the care of all the churches is crowding upon me daily. ²⁹Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn? ³⁰If it is right for me to boast in the things regarding my weakness, I will boast. ³¹The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, He who is blessed for ever, knows that I do not lie. ³²In Dă-măs'-cūs the governor under Ār'-ĕ-tās the king was guarding the city of the Damascenes [Dām'-ās-sēens] wishing to take me prisoner. ³³But I was let down through a window through the wall and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12

¹Indeed it is not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ—fourteen years ago (whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know; God knows)—such a one was caught away into the third Heaven. ³And I know such a man (whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows)—⁴that he was caught up into Paradise. And he heard unspeakable words, which it is not allowed to man to speak. ⁵About such a one I will boast, but about myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. ⁶For if I should desire to boast, I shall not be a fool. For I will tell the truth. But I will leave off, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be, or what he hears of me. ⁷And so that I might not be made proud by the magnificence of the heavenly visions, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, that he might beat against me, so that I might not be proud. ⁸For this thing I begged the Lord three times, that it might depart from me. ⁹And He said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. ¹⁰Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in dire needs, in persecutions, in tight circumstances for Christ—for when I am weak, then I am strong.

¹¹*In this* boasting I have become a fool. You made me do it. For I ought to have been praised by you, for I was in no way behind the highest apostles, though I am nothing. ¹²Truly the signs of an apostle were worked out among you in all patience, in miracles and wonders and works of power. ¹³For in what way is it that you were worse than the other churches, except that I myself did not lazily burden you? Forgive me this wrong. ¹⁴Behold! I am ready to come to you a third time, and I will not lazily burden you—for I do not seek your things, but I seek you. For the children ought not to lay up treasure for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵Now I most gladly will spend and be fully spent for your souls—even if loving you more and more, I am loved the less. ¹⁶But let it be so, I did not burden you. But being crafty I caught you with bait. ¹⁷Did I take advantage of you by any of those I have sent to you? ¹⁸I begged Titus and sent with him the brother. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk by the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

¹⁹Again, do you think that we are defending ourselves? We speak before God in Christ, but in all things, beloved, for your gain. ²⁰For I fear, lest by any means when I come I should not find you as I wish, and I be found by you to be such as you do not wish—lest perhaps there should be fightings, envyings, outbursts of anger, party arguments, slanders, whisperings, proud thoughts and uproars. ²¹*I fear* lest when I come again my God will humble me in regard to you, and lest I should weep over many of those who have sinned already and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lustfulness which they have practiced.

¹I am coming to you this third time. In the mouth of two or three witnesses every matter shall be settled. ²I have told you before, and I say beforehand (as being present the second time, and being absent now, I write to those who have sinned before, and to all the rest) that if I come again I will not spare. ³Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, (who is not weak towards you, but is powerful in you—⁴for indeed if He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives by God's power—for indeed we are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by God's power towards you,) ⁵examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith—prove your own selves. Or do you not recognize yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you, unless you are reprobates? ⁶Now I hope that you will know that we are not reprobates. ⁷But I pray to God that you may do nothing evil—not that we may appear to be approved, but that you may do what is right, even though we are reprobates. ⁸For we have no power against the truth, but for the truth. ⁹For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. But this also, we pray for your being made perfect. ¹⁰Because of this I write these things while absent, so that when I am present I may not treat you with sharpness—according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building you up, and not for pulling you down.

¹¹Finally, my brothers, be joyful, be made perfect, be comforted, be of one mind, be at peace. And the God of love and peace shall be with you. ¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss. ¹³All saints greet you. ¹⁴The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you. Amen.

The Letter to the GALATIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, an apostle, (not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised Him from among the dead,) ²and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia [Gā-lāy'-shā]. ³Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who gave Himself for our sins so that He might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

⁶I marvel that you so quickly are moving away from Him who called you into the grace of Christ to another gospel—⁷which is not another, but there are some who trouble you and desire to twist the Gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we, or an angel from Heaven, should preach any other gospel to you than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹As we have said before, now also I say again, If any man preach any other gospel than what you received, let him be accursed. ¹⁰For now do I persuade men or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I were yet pleasing men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

¹¹But I assure you, my brothers, the Gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. ¹²For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by a heavenly vision of Jesus Christ. ¹³For you have heard of my manner of life at one time in the Jewish religion—how that I was beyond measure persecuting the church of God and was laying it waste. ¹⁴And I was progressing in the Jewish religion beyond many others of my age in my own race, for I was jealous for the traditions of my fathers. ¹⁵But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by His grace, ¹⁶to reveal His Son in me (that I might preach the Gospel about Him among the nations), immediately I did not talk it over with flesh and blood. ¹⁷Nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and again I returned to Dām-ās'-cūs. ¹⁸Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to make friends with Peter, and I stayed with him fifteen days. ¹⁹But I did not see any other of the apostles except James the brother of the Lord. ²⁰Now what things I write to you, behold, before God, I do not lie. ²¹Then I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia [Sī-lish'-yā]. ²²But I was not known by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ. ²³Only they had heard that he who was persecuting them in times past was now preaching the Gospel, the faith which he once laid waste. ²⁴And they were glorifying God in me.

¹Then after fourteen years I again went up to Jerusalem with Bär'nā-bās, also taking with me Titus. ²But I went up according to revelation and laid before them the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles — but privately to those thought to be important, lest somehow I should be running, or had run, in vain. ³(But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was forced to be circumcised.) ⁴But this was on account of the false brothers who were brought in secretly, who stole in to spy out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus — that they might bring us into slavery. ⁵But we did not give in to them, not even for an hour, so that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you. ⁶But from those who were thought to be something (whatever they were makes no difference to me — God does not accept the person of man), for those who were thought to be important did not add anything to me. ⁷But on the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Gospel to the uncircumcised (even as Peter had been sent to the circumcision — ⁸for He who worked in Peter towards the apostleship of the circumcision also worked in me towards the Gentiles), ⁹and when they saw the grace which was given to me, James and Peter and John — those thought to be pillars — gave the right hands of fellowship to Barnabas and me that we should go to the Gentiles, and that they should go to the circumcision. ¹⁰Only they asked that we should remember the poor, which very thing I was also trying to do.

¹¹But when Peter came to Antioch [An'-tī-ok], I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed. ¹²For before some came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and was keeping himself apart — being afraid of those of the circumcision. ¹³And the rest of the Jews also acted the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their acting the hypocrite. ¹⁴But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly, according to the truth of the Gospel, I said to Peter in front of them all, If you, being a Jew, live like the Gentiles, and not like the Jews, why do you force the Gentiles to live like the Jews? ¹⁵We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, ¹⁶know that a man is not justified by works of the Law, but through faith in Jesus Christ. We too have believed on Jesus Christ that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by works of the Law — for by the works of the Law shall no flesh be justified. ¹⁷But if, while we seek to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were found to be sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? Let it not be said! ¹⁸For if I build again these things which I pulled down, I make myself a sinner. ¹⁹For I through the Law died to the Law, so that I may live unto God. ²⁰I have been crucified with Christ. Nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ lives in me. And the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. ²¹I do not set aside the grace of God — for if righteousness come by the Law, then Christ died in vain.

¹O foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth—you before whose eyes Jesus Christ crucified was openly set forth among you? ²This only I wish to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the Law? or by the hearing of faith? ³Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect by the flesh? ⁴Did you suffer so many things in vain? if indeed it was in vain. ⁵He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, is it by works of the Law, or by the hearing of faith? ⁶*It is* even as Abraham, who believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness. ⁷Know then that they that are of faith, these are the sons of Abraham. ⁸And the Scripture, seeing beforehand that God justifies the Gentiles by faith, preached before the Gospel to Abraham, saying, “All the nations shall be blessed in you” (See GENESIS 12:3). ⁹So that those who are of faith are being blessed with the believing Abraham. ¹⁰For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse. For it has been written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which have been written in the book of the Law to do them” (See DEUTERONOMY 27:26). ¹¹But that no one is being justified by Law in the sight of God is plainly seen, because, “The just shall live by faith” (See HABAKKUK 2:4). ¹²But the Law is not of faith, but, “The man who has done these shall live by them” (See LEVITICUS 18:5). ¹³Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us, for it has been written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree” (See DEUTERONOMY 21:23)—¹⁴that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

¹⁵*My* brothers—I speak after the manner of man—no one sets aside even a confirmed covenant of man, or adds to it. ¹⁶But to Abraham and to his seed were the promises spoken. He does not say, And to seeds, as of many, but as of one, And to your seed, which is Christ. ¹⁷I say this now, the covenant settled beforehand by God to Christ, the Law (which took place four hundred and thirty years after) cannot set aside, so as to do away with the promise. ¹⁸For if the inheritance is by Law, it is no longer by promise—but God gave it to Abraham by promise. ¹⁹Why then the Law? It was added for the sake of transgressions, until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made. For it had been ordained through angels in a mediator’s hand. ²⁰But a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

²¹*Is* the Law then against the promises of God? Let it not be said! For if a law had been given which was able to give life, indeed righteousness would have been by the Law. ²²But the Scripture shut up all things under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those that believe. ²³But before faith came, we were kept under the Law, being shut up to the faith which was about to be revealed. ²⁴So that the Law has been our schoolmaster up to the time of Christ, so that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵But faith coming on, we are no longer under a schoolmaster—²⁶for you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁷For as many as were baptized into Christ, you have put on Christ. ²⁸There cannot be Jew or Greek. There cannot be slave or freeman. There cannot be male and female. For you all are one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹But if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise.

¹But I say, for as long a time as the heir is an infant, he does not differ any from a slave, though he is lord of all. ²But he is under guardians and stewards until the time set before by the father. ³So we too, when we were infants, were held in slavery under the principles of the world. ⁴But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, coming from a woman, coming under the Law, ⁵so that He might redeem the ones under the Law—and so that we might receive sonship. ⁶But because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. ⁷So that you are no longer a slave, but a son. And if you are a son, you are also an heir of God through Christ. ⁸But then indeed not knowing God, you were a slave to those who by nature are not gods. ⁹But now that you have known God (or rather, that you have been known by God), how can you turn again to the weak and poor principles to which you again desire to be in slavery? ¹⁰You carefully keep days and months and times and years. ¹¹I am afraid of you, lest somehow I have labored in vain regarding you.

¹²*My* brothers, I beg of you, be as I am, for I also am as you are. You did not wrong me in anything. ¹³But you know that through weakness of the flesh I preached the Gospel to you at the first. ¹⁴And you did not despise my temptation in my flesh, nor did you spit upon me. But you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. ¹⁵What then was your happiness? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and have given them to me. ¹⁶Have I therefore become your enemy by telling you the truth? ¹⁷They are eagerly after you, but not honorably. But they desire to keep you from us so that you may run eagerly after them. ¹⁸But it is right to be zealous in a right thing at all times, and not only when I am present with you. ¹⁹*You are* my little children, for whom I labor in pain again until Christ shall have been formed in you—²⁰and I desire to be there with you now, and to change my voice, for I am doubtful of you.

²¹Tell me, you who desire to be under the Law, do you not hear the Law? ²²For it has been written that Abraham had two sons—one of the slave-woman, and one of the free woman. ²³But he that was of the slave-woman had been born after the flesh, and he that was of the free woman through the promise. ²⁴Which things are made a parable: for these are the two covenants — one from Mount Sinai, bringing forth to slavery, which is Hagar. ²⁵For Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and answers to the present Jerusalem. And she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶But the Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. ²⁷For it has been written, “Rejoice, O unfruitful one that does not bear. Break forth and cry, you who have no birth-pains. Because more are the children of the deserted one than the children of her who has the husband” (See ISAIAH 54:1). ²⁸But my brothers, we, like Isaac, are children of promise. ²⁹But as then he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit — so it is now. ³⁰But what does the Scripture say? “Throw out the slave-woman and her son, for the son of the slave-woman shall not in any way inherit with the son of the free woman” (See GENESIS 21:10). ³¹So then, my brothers, we are not children of the slave-woman, but of the free woman.

¹Stand fast therefore in the freedom with which Christ has made us free, and be not held again in the yoke of slavery. ²Behold! I, Paul, say to you, that if you are circumcised, Christ shall not profit you. ³And I again bear witness to every man who is being circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole Law. ⁴You are set aside from Christ, you who are being justified in the Law. You fell from grace. ⁵For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. ⁶For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor the lack of circumcision is worth anything — but faith working by love. ⁷You were running well. Who kept you back that you did not obey the truth? ⁸This false belief is not of Him who calls you. ⁹A little leaven leavens the whole lump. ¹⁰I am sure as to you, that you will have no other mind in the Lord. But he who is troubling you shall bear the judgment, whoever he may be.

¹¹But I, my brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling-block of the cross has been done away. ¹²I wish that they who are causing you to doubt would even cut themselves off. ¹³For you were called to freedom, my brothers. Only do not use the freedom for an opportunity to the flesh, but serve one another by love. ¹⁴For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” ¹⁵But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you are not destroyed by one another.

¹⁶But I say, Walk in the Spirit and you shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. ¹⁷For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. And these are contrary to one another: so that you cannot do the things that you want to do. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law. ¹⁹Now the works of the flesh are plainly seen.

They are adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lustfulness, ²⁰worshipping of idols, practicing of evil magic, hatreds, fightings, jealousies, outbursts of anger, party arguments, differences, false teachings, ²¹envyings, murders, drunkenness, wanton parties, and things like these. As to these I tell you beforehand, even as I also said before, that they who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. ²²But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faith, ²³meekness, self-control—against such things there is no law. ²⁴But they that are Christ's crucified the flesh with its passions and its lusts. ²⁵If we live by the Spirit, we should also walk by the Spirit. ²⁶We should not seek after vain glory, angering one another, envying one another.

¹*My* brothers, even if a man is overtaken in some fault, you, the spiritual ones, restore such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted. ²Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. ³For if anyone thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he is fooling himself. ⁴But let each prove his own work, and then he shall have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. ⁵For each shall carry his own load.

⁶Let him who is taught in the word share with him who teaches in all good things. ⁷Be not deceived: God is not mocked—for whatever a man sows, that he shall also reap. ⁸For he that sows to his own flesh, from the flesh he shall reap everlasting misery. But he that sows to the Spirit, from the Spirit he shall reap everlasting life. ⁹But we should not lose heart in doing good—for in due time we shall reap, if we do not faint. ¹⁰So then as we have opportunity we should do good towards all men, and especially towards those of the household of faith.

¹¹You see with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand. ¹²As many as desire to have a fair show in the flesh, these force you to be circumcised—but only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³For neither they themselves who are being circumcised keep the Law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they might boast in your flesh. ¹⁴But may it never be for me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision is worth anything, nor the lack of circumcision, but a new creation. ¹⁶And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them and on the Israel of God. ¹⁷For the rest, let no one cause me troubles, for I bear in my body the brands of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

The Letter to the EPHESIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God — to the saints who are at Ephesus [Ĕf-ĕ-sūs], and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: ²Grace to you and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ — ⁴according as He has chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, for us to be holy and blameless before Him in love. ⁵*For He* had marked us out beforehand for adoption through Jesus Christ to Himself — according to the good pleasure of His will, ⁶to the praise of the glory of His grace, in which He made us the receivers of grace in the Beloved. ⁷In whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace — ⁸which He caused to abound toward us in all wisdom and understanding. ⁹*For He* had made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself — ¹⁰for in the dispensation of the fullness of time He purposed to head up all things in Christ, the things in Heaven and the things on earth — in Him, ¹¹in whom we also have been chosen to an inheritance, being prĕ-dĕs'-tĭ-nā-tĕd according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His own will — ¹²for us to be to the praise of His glory, who have first trusted in Christ. ¹³In whom you also trusted when you had heard the word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation. In whom also, after you had believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, ¹⁴who is the first-fruit of our inheritance, unto the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.

¹⁵Because of this I also, (hearing of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and the love which you have toward all the saints,) ¹⁶do not stop giving thanks for you. For I make mention of you in my prayers, ¹⁷that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him — ¹⁸*that* the eyes of your understanding may be enlightened, so that you may know what is the hope of His calling, and what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹and what is the exceeding greatness of His power towards us, who believe according to the working of His mighty strength ²⁰which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from among the dead. And He set Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹above all rule and authority and power and lordship, and above every name that is named — not only in this age, but also in the coming one. ²²And He put all things under His feet and gave Him to be Head over all things to the church, ²³which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all things in all.

¹And He made you live, who were once dead in trespasses and sins — ²in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the sons of disobedience — ³among whom also we conducted ourselves in times past in the lusts of our flesh (doing the things willed by the flesh and the mind), and were by nature the children of wrath, just like the rest of them. ⁴But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us ⁵(even when we were dead in sins) He made us alive together with Christ (by grace you are saved), ⁶and raised us up together, and seated us together in the heavenlies in Christ Jesus — ⁷so that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

⁸For by grace are you saved, through faith — and this not of yourselves, for it is the gift of God — ⁹not of works, lest any man should boast. ¹⁰For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.

¹¹For this reason remember that when you were Gentiles in the flesh (who are called Uncircumcision by the ones called Circumcision, in the flesh made by hand), ¹²that at that time you were without Christ, being separated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise — having no hope, and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus, you who were at one time afar off are made near by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴For He is our peace, who has made us both one, and who has broken down the middle wall of the partition between us, ¹⁵(having in His flesh done away with the ill-will — the Law of commandments contained in ordinances,) so that He might in Himself make the two into one new man, making peace between them, ¹⁶and might reconcile both to God in one body through the cross, slaying the ill-will by it. ¹⁷And when He had come, He preached the Gospel of peace to you who were afar off, and to those who were near. ¹⁸For through Him we both have a way to come to the Father by one Spirit. ¹⁹So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens of the saints and of the household of God. ²⁰For you have been built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone — ²¹in whom all the building fitted together grows into a holy temple in the Lord. ²²In whom also you are being built together into a dwelling-place of God in the Spirit.

¹For this reason I, Paul, am the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles. ²If indeed you have heard of the ministry of the grace of God which has been given to me towards you — ³that by revelation He made known to me the mystery (according as I wrote before in few words, ⁴*by the* reading of which you are able to understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ), ⁵which mystery was not made known to the sons of men in other generations, as it now has been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the power of the Spirit. ⁶*That is, that the Gentiles were to be heirs together, and of the same body, and partakers together of His promise in Christ, through the Gospel.* ⁷Of which Gospel I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me, according to the sure working of His power.

⁸This grace was given to me, (who am less than the least of all the saints,) to preach the Gospel of the unsearchable riches of Christ among the Gentiles. ⁹And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity, in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ — ¹⁰so that now unto the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places might be known by the church the many-sided wisdom of God — ¹¹(according to the eternal purpose which He purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord) — ¹²in whom we have boldness and a way of approach, in confidence, through His faith.

¹³For this reason I desire that you do not faint at my trials for you, which is your glory. ¹⁴For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵(of whom the whole family in Heaven and earth is named,) ¹⁶*asking* that He may grant to you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power in the inner man, through His Spirit — ¹⁷that through faith Christ may dwell in your hearts — that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸may be fully able to grasp firmly with your mind (along with all the saints) what is the breadth and length and depth and height; ¹⁹and to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge — so that you may be filled to all the fullness of God.

²⁰Now unto Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, ²¹unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

¹I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, urge you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called — ²with all humility and meekness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love — ³being careful to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴*There is one body and one Spirit, even as also you were called in one hope of your calling.* ⁵*There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism* — ⁶one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. ⁷But unto every one of us grace was given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ⁸For this reason He says, "When He went up on high He led captivity captive and gave gifts to men" (See PSALM 68:18). ⁹Now if He went up, what is it but proof that He also first came down into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰He that came down is the same One also

who went up far above all the heavens, so that He might fill all things. ¹¹And indeed He gave some to be apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers — ¹²with a view to the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for building up the body of Christ. ¹³*And this* until we all come to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God — unto a full-grown man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. ¹⁴*And this* so that we may no longer be infants, being tossed to and fro and carried about by every wind of doctrine, in the underhandedness of men, in skillful trickery, with a view to the establishing of error. ¹⁵But speaking the truth in love, we may grow up into Him in all things, who is the Head, even Christ. ¹⁶From Him all the body, fitted and brought together by every assisting joint, according to the working of each part in its own measure, producing the growth of the body unto the building up of itself in love.

¹⁷This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk even as also the rest of the Gentiles are walking — in the vanity of their mind, ¹⁸being darkened in the understanding, being made strangers to the life of God because of the ignorance which is in them, because of the hardness of their heart. ¹⁹*For* when they had thrown off all feeling, they gave themselves up to lust, for the working of all uncleanness with greediness. ²⁰But you have not so learned Christ — ²¹if indeed you heard Him and were taught in Him, as the truth is in Jesus. ²²*For* you ought to have put off the old man (according to your way of living before), which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. ²³*And you ought* to be renewed in the spirit of your mind, ²⁴and to have put on the new man (who after God was created in righteousness and true holiness).

²⁵Because of this, putting off whatever is false, let each one speak truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. ²⁶Be angry, but do not sin, let not the sun set upon your wrath, ²⁷neither give place to the devil. ²⁸*The one* stealing, let him steal no more — but rather let him labor, working what is good with his hands, so that he may have something to give to him that has need. ²⁹Let no filthy word go forth out of your mouth, but if anything is said, let it be good for use in building up as regards the need, that it may give grace to those who hear. ³⁰And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed unto the day of redemption. ³¹Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and uproar, and evil-speaking be put away from you, along with all evil-hearted feelings. ³²And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, even as also God forgave you in Christ.

¹Therefore become imitators of God, as beloved children, ²and walk in love, even as also Christ loved us and gave up Himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odor of a sweet smell.

³But as to fornication and all uncleanness, or greediness, let it not be even named among you, as is becoming to saints. ⁴*Let there be* neither filthiness nor foolish talking nor joking—which are not becoming—but rather thanksgiving. ⁵For you know this, that no fornicator, or unclean person, or greedy person (who is an idol-worshipper) has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. ⁶Let no one deceive you with empty words, for the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience because of these things. ⁷Therefore do not be partners with them—⁸for you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord, walk as children of light. ⁹For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth.

¹⁰*Be always* proving what is pleasing to the Lord, ¹¹and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. ¹²For it is shameful even to speak the things which are being done by them in secret. ¹³But all of them, being exposed by the light, are clearly revealed—for that which clearly reveals everything is light. ¹⁴For this reason he says, “Wake up, you sleeper! and rise up from among the dead—and Christ shall shine upon you.” ¹⁵Take heed then how carefully you walk—not as unwise, but as wise men—¹⁶redeeming the time, because the days are evil. ¹⁷Because of this, do not be foolish, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. ¹⁸And do not be drunk with wine—in which is debauchery. But be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹speaking to each other in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord—²⁰giving thanks at all times for all things to Him who is God and Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—²¹submitting yourselves to one another in the fear of God.

²²Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is head of the wife, even as Christ is Head of the church, and He is Saviour of the body. ²⁴But even as the church is subject to Christ, so also let the wives be to their own husbands in everything. ²⁵Husbands, love your own wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave up Himself for it, ²⁶that He might set it apart, having cleansed it by the washing of water by the word—²⁷so that He might present it to Himself: a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it might be holy and blameless. ²⁸So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loves his own wife loves himself. ²⁹For no one ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourishes and warmly cares for it—even as the Lord does the church. ³⁰For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. ³¹For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and shall be joined to his wife, and the two of them shall be one flesh. ³²This is a great mystery, but I speak as to Christ and as to the church. ³³Nevertheless you also, every one of you, let each love his own wife as himself—and the wife see that she fear her husband.

¹Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ²Honor your father and mother, which is the first commandment with promise, ³so that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth. ⁴And fathers, do not anger your children, but bring them up in the training and fear of the Lord.

⁵Slaves, obey your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in purity of your heart, even as unto Christ. ⁶Do not serve with eye-service, as pleasers of men, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart. ⁷With good will do service to the Lord and not to men — ⁸knowing that whatever good each man may have done, he shall receive this from the Lord, whether he is a slave, or free. ⁹And masters, do the same things towards them, giving up threatening, knowing that also your own Master is in Heaven, and there is no respect of persons with Him.

¹⁰For the rest, my brothers, be powerful in the Lord, and in the might of His strength. ¹¹Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. ¹²For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against rulers, against authorities, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual powers of wickedness in heavenly places. ¹³Because of this take up the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and when you have done all, to stand. ¹⁴Stand, therefore, with the girdle of truth around your loins, putting on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵and shoeing your feet with the readiness of the Gospel of peace — ¹⁶above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to put out all the burning darts of the wicked one. ¹⁷Also receive the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. ¹⁸*Be* praying always with all prayer and humble seeking in the Spirit, and watching unto this very thing, with all steadfastness and humble seeking for all saints. ¹⁹And also pray for me, that skill in speaking may be given to me, in the opening of my mouth with boldness to make known the mystery of the Gospel — ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in a chain, that in it I may be bold as I ought to speak.

²¹But that you also may know my affairs and what I am doing, Tychicus [Tik'-i-kūs], the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make all things known to you — ²²whom I sent to you for this very thing, that you might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts. ²³Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴Grace be with all those that love our Lord Jesus Christ in purity. Amen.

The Letter to the PHILIPPIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi [Fill'-ip-pi], with the overseers and deacons. ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³I thank my God for all my remembrance of you. ⁴Always in my every prayer for you all, I make request with joy ⁵for your fellowship in the Gospel, from the first day until now. ⁶For I am persuaded of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will finish it until the day of Jesus Christ. ⁷Even as it is right for me to think this of you all, because you have me in your heart — both in my bonds, and in the defense and confirmation of the Gospel, you are all partakers of my grace. ⁸For God is my witness how I long for you all in the tender affections of Jesus Christ. ⁹And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all judgment — ¹⁰so that you may discern the things that differ, that you may be pure and without blame to the day of Christ — ¹¹being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

¹²But I want you to know, my brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out to the progress of the Gospel. ¹³So much so that within the palace, and to all the rest, my bonds have become known to be in Christ. ¹⁴And the most of the brothers in the Lord, being assured by my bonds, dare much more boldly to speak the word without fear. ¹⁵Some indeed are preaching Christ even from envy and strife, but some also from good will. ¹⁶The ones who are indeed preaching Christ out of a desire to stir up trouble do not do so sincerely, but thinking to add troubles to my bonds. ¹⁷But the ones who do so out of love know that I am set for the defense of the Gospel. ¹⁸What then? Nevertheless in every way, whether pretending, or in truth, Christ is preached. And I rejoice in this. Yes, I will rejoice more — ¹⁹for I know that this shall turn out to be salvation for me, through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ. ²⁰Even according to my hope and eager belief that I shall not be ashamed in anything — but in all boldness, as always, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. ²¹For to me to live is Christ! and to die is gain! ²²But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor, yet what I shall choose I do not know. ²³For I am pressed down by the two desires — having a desire to depart and to be with Christ (which is very much better) — ²⁴but to stay here in the flesh is more needful for your sake. ²⁵And being sure of this, I know that I shall stay and continue with you all, to your progress and joy in the faith — ²⁶so that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me, through my being again with you. ²⁷Only keep yourselves doing the things worthy of the Gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you, or whether I am absent, I might hear about you, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one soul, working together for the faith of the Gospel. ²⁸And do not be frightened in anything by those who are against you, which is indeed a proof of everlasting loss to them, but of salvation to you — and this from God, ²⁹because it was given to you as a favor for Christ's sake, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer on His behalf — ³⁰having the same struggle which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

¹If there is any consolation in Christ—if there is any comfort of love — if there is any fellowship of the Spirit — if any tender affections and mercies — ²*then* fill up my joy, so that you may be of the same mind, having the same love, being one in soul, counting the one thing important. ³Let nothing be done according to a desire to quarrel or to glory in self. But in lowliness of mind let each think of one another as better than himself. ⁴Do not let each one consider his own things, but each one the things of others too. ⁵For let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus: ⁶who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God — ⁷but emptied Himself and took upon Him the form of a servant and was made in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. ⁹For this reason God also highly exalted Him and gave to Him a name which is above every other name — ¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, (of those in Heaven, and on earth, and under the earth), ¹¹and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹²So, then, my beloved, even as you always obeyed — not in my presence only, but now much rather in my absence — work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³For it is God who works in you both to will and to do of His good pleasure. ¹⁴Do all things without complaints and questionings, ¹⁵so that you may be blameless and harmless, children of God, without spot in the midst of a generation which is crooked and perverted. Among these you shine as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding forth the word of life, unto my joy in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain, nor labor in vain. ¹⁷But if I also am offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice. And I rejoice together with you all. ¹⁸And you also take joy in the same and rejoice with me. ¹⁹But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I also may be of good courage, when I know the things about you. ²⁰For I have no one of the same mind who will genuinely care for your affairs. ²¹For all are seeking their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus. ²²But you know the proof of him, that, as a child to a father, he served with me for the Gospel. ²³Therefore I hope to send him at once whenever I have seen how things go with me. ²⁴But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. ²⁵Yet I thought it needful to send to you Epaphroditus [Ē-pāf-rō-dī'-tūs] — my brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, but your messenger and minister to my need. ²⁶For

he has been longing for you all and was full of heaviness, because you had heard that he was sick. ²⁷For indeed he was sick, even as if called unto death, but God had mercy on him — and not on him only, but also on me, so that I might not have sorrow on top of sorrow. ²⁸I sent him therefore the more carefully, that seeing him again you might rejoice, and that I might be the less sorrowful. ²⁹Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such a one in honor — ³⁰because he went near unto death for the sake of the work of Christ. He disregarded his life so that he might fill up your lack of service towards me.

¹Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To be writing the same things unto you is not truly tiresome to me, and it is safe for you. ²Look out for dogs. Look out for evil workers. Look out for the concision party. ³For we are the circumcision who serve God in spirit and rejoice in Christ Jesus and do not trust in the flesh. ⁴Though I too might have trust in the flesh, for if any other man thinks to trust in the flesh, I more. ⁵*I was* circumcised the eighth day. I am of the race of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin — a Hebrew of the Hebrews. According to the Law a Pharisee, ⁶according to zeal, persecuting the church. According to righteousness which is in the Law, I had become blameless. ⁷But all things which were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. ⁸But no rather, I also count all things to be but loss because of the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord — for whose sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but dung in order that I might gain Christ ⁹and be found in Him — not having my own righteousness (which is of the Law), but that which is through the faith of Christ — the righteousness of God which is by faith, ¹⁰that I might know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death: ¹¹if by any means I may attain to the resurrection of the dead. ¹²Not as though I already had received, or already have been perfected — but I am pressing on, if I may even lay hold of that for which I also was taken hold of by Christ Jesus. ¹³*My* brothers, I do not count myself to have taken possession, but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, ¹⁴I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Therefore, as many as are perfect should be of this mind. And if you think differently in anything, God will reveal this to you also. ¹⁶Nevertheless, as to that unto which we have already arrived, let us walk by the same rule, to be of the same mind. ¹⁷Be imitators together of me, my brothers, and keep an eye on the ones who are walking this way — for you have us for a pattern. ¹⁸For many are walking (of whom I often told you, and now even weeping I tell you) as the enemies of the cross of Christ — ¹⁹whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. ²⁰For our citizenship is in Heaven, from which we also are looking for the Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour — ²¹who will completely transform our body (in which we are now humbled), for it to be made like His glorious body — according to the almighty working of His power, even to put all things under Himself.

¹So, then, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my crown and joy, stand fast in this way in the Lord, dearly beloved. ²I call upon Eū-ōd-ī-ā, and I call upon Syn-týchē to be of the same mind in the Lord. ³And I ask you also, true yokefellow, help these who labored with me in the Gospel, and with Clement and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the Book of Life. ⁴Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I say, Rejoice! ⁵Let your sweet reasonableness be known to all men. The Lord is near. ⁶Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and by request, with thanksgiving, let your desires be made known to God. ⁷And the peace of God which passes all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. ⁸Finally, brothers, whatever things are true — whatever is honorable — whatever is right — whatever is pure — whatever is lovely — whatever is of good report — if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think upon these things. ⁹Do those things which you also learned, and received, and heard, and saw in me — and the God of peace shall be with you.

¹⁰But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me has come alive again. Although you also were caring about me, but you did not have opportunity. ¹¹Not that I speak according to need — for I have learned to be content in whatever state I am. ¹²I know both how to be humbled, and I know how to abound. In every thing, and in all things, I have been taught both how to be full and how to be hungry — both how to have more than enough and how to have less than enough. ¹³I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. ¹⁴Nevertheless, you have done well, having fellowship in my troubles. ¹⁵And you know, too, O Philippians, that in the beginning of the Gospel — when I came out from Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ā — no church shared with me in regard to the matter of giving and receiving, except you alone. ¹⁶Because even in Thëss-ă-lō-nī'-cā you sent both once and again for my need. ¹⁷Not that I seek after a gift, but I seek after fruit that abounds to your account. ¹⁸But I have all things, and more than enough. I am full, receiving from Ē-pāph-rō-dī'-tūs the things from you — an odor of a sweet smell, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God. ¹⁹But my God will fill up all your need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰Now unto God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen. ²¹Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers with me greet you. ²²All the saints greet you, and especially those of the household of Caesar. ²³The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The Letter to the COLOSSIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, ²to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ in Cō-löss'-ē. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you — ⁴hearing of your faith in Christ Jesus, and the love which you have towards all the saints, ⁵through the hope which is laid up for you in Heaven. Which you heard of before in the word of the truth of the Gospel, ⁶which has come to you, even as also into all the world, and has been bringing forth fruit, even as among you also, from the day in which you heard and knew the grace of God in truth. ⁷Even as you learned from Epaphras [Ĕp'-ă-frās] our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ for you, ⁸who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

⁹For this cause also, since the day we heard of it, we do not stop praying for you, and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. ¹⁰And we pray for you to walk worthily of the Lord unto all pleasing, bringing forth fruit in every good work, and growing into the knowledge of God — ¹¹that you may be strengthened with all power, according to the might of His glory, unto all patience and longsuffering with joy — ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit for a share of the inheritance of the saints in light — ¹³who has delivered us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the kingdom of His beloved Son. ¹⁴In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins — ¹⁵He who is the image of the God who cannot be seen, the first-born of all creation. ¹⁶Because all things were created by Him, the things in Heaven and the things on the earth — that which can be seen and that which cannot be seen, whether thrones, or lordships, or chief rulers, or authorities — all things have been created by Him and for Him. ¹⁷And He is before all things, and all things are held together in Him. ¹⁸And He is the Head of the body, the church — who is the beginning, the first-born from among the dead, that He might hold the first place in all things. ¹⁹Because the Father made all fullness pleased to dwell in Him, ²⁰and through Him, making peace by the blood of His cross, to reconcile all things to Himself — through Him, whether the things on the earth or the things in Heaven.

²¹And you, who were once alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled ²²in the body of His flesh, through death, to present you holy and without blame and without charge before Him — ²³if you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and are not moved away from the hope of the Gospel — which you heard, which was preached in all the creation which is under the sky, of which I, Paul, became a minister. ²⁴Now I am rejoicing in my sufferings for you. And I am filling up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for His body, which is the church. ²⁵Of which I became a minister, according to the stewardship of God, which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God — ²⁶the mystery which has been hidden from the ages, and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints. ²⁷To them God desired to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles — which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸We preach Him, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom so that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. ²⁹For which I also labor, working according to the working of Him who works in me in power.

¹For I want you to know how great a struggle I am having on your behalf — and for those in Lā-ōd-ī-cē'-ā, and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh. ²I say this so that their hearts may be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God and of the Father and of Christ — ³in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge hidden. ⁴And I say this so that no one may bewitch you by winning words. ⁵For though I am indeed absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order and the firmness of your faith in Christ. ⁶Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in Him — ⁷being rooted and built up in Him, and being established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

⁸Be careful that there shall be no one who makes a captive of you by means of philosophy and vain deceit, according to the teaching of men, according to the rules of the world, and not according to Christ. ⁹For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. ¹⁰And you are complete in Him, who is the Head of all rule and authority. ¹¹And you were circumcised in Him with circumcision not done by hand, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ — ¹²being buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised with Him through the faith of the almighty working of God, who raised Him from among the dead. ¹³And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, forgiving you all your sins — ¹⁴blotting out the handwriting in the decrees against us, which stood out against us, and He has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵Stripping the rulers and the authorities, He made a show of them publicly, triumphing over them in it. ¹⁶Therefore, do not let anyone judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a feast, or the new moon, or sabbaths — ¹⁷which are a shadow of things to come — but the body is of Christ. ¹⁸Let no man cheat you

of your reward, doing his own will in lowliness and worship of the angels, pushing into things which he has not seen, without a cause puffed up by his fleshly mind. ¹⁹And not holding fast the Head, from whom all the body, by the joints and bands which are given and knit together, increases with the increase of God.

²⁰If, then, you died with Christ from the principles of the world, why do you put yourself under its ordinances, as if you were living in the world? ²¹(You may not handle—you may not taste—you may not touch—²²which things are all to perish in the using.) These are according to the commandments and teachings of men—²³which indeed have an appearance of wisdom in will worship and lowliness and harsh treatment of the body—not in any honor for the satisfying of the flesh.

¹If, then, you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God. ²Set your mind on the things above, not on the things on the earth. ³For you died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ, our life, shall appear, then shall you also appear with Him in glory. ⁵Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fôr-nî-câ'-tion, uncleanness, passion, evil lust, and covetousness (which is idolatry). ⁶On account of which things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷Among whom you also walked at one time, when you were living in these things. ⁸But now, you must also put off these things: wrath, anger, evil-hearted feelings, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth. ⁹Do not lie to one another, for you have put off the old man with his deeds ¹⁰and have put on the new man that is being renewed in knowledge after the image of Him who created him—¹¹where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, barbarian, Scÿth-î-ãn, slave or freeman—but Christ is all things and in all.

¹²Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, tender feelings of mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, long-suffering—¹³bearing with one another and forgiving each other, if anyone should have a complaint against any. Even as Christ forgave you, you do the same also. ¹⁴And to all these things add on love, which is the bond of perfectness. ¹⁵And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which you also were called in one body, and be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom, teaching and urging one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord. ¹⁷And whatever you do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him.

¹⁸Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as is becoming in the Lord. ¹⁹Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter against them.

²⁰Children, obey your parents in all things—for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. ²¹Fathers, do not anger your children so that they may not be discouraged. ²²Slaves, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh — not with eye-service, as pleasers of men, but in pureness of heart, fearing God. ²³And whatever you do, work heartily, as to the Lord and not to men — ²⁴knowing that you shall receive the reward of the inheritance from the Lord, for you serve the Lord Christ. ²⁵But he that does wrong shall receive for what he did wrong — and there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 4

¹Masters, give that which is right and that which is equal to slaves, knowing that you also have a Master in Heaven.

²Continue in prayer, watching in it with thanksgiving, ³praying at the same time for us also — that God may open to us a door of the word, that we may speak the mystery of Christ (for which reason I also have been bound), ⁴so that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak. ⁵Walk in wisdom toward those who are on the outside, redeeming the time. ⁶Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how you ought to answer each one.

⁷Tychicus [Tīk'-ī-kūs], the beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord, will make known to you all the things about me. ⁸I sent him to you for this very thing, so that he might know the things about you and might comfort your hearts; ⁹along with Ō-nēs'-ī-mūs, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things here. ¹⁰Aristarchus [Ār-īs-tār'-kūs] my fellow-prisoner greets you — and Mark also, the cousin of Barnabas, about whom you received orders (if he comes to you, receive him), ¹¹and Jesus who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These are the only fellow-workers for the kingdom of God who were a comfort to me. ¹²Epaphras [Ēp'ă-frās] greets you, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, always laboring for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. ¹³For I bear witness to him that he has much feeling for you, and for those in Lā-ōd-ī-cē'-ā, and for those in Hī-er-ā'-pō-lis. ¹⁴Luke the beloved physician greets you, and Demas. ¹⁵Greet the brothers in Lā-ōd-ī-cē'-ā, and Nymphas [Nīm-fās], and the church in his house. ¹⁶And when this letter is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans [Lāy-ōd-ī-sēe'-āns] — and that you may also read the one from Lā-ōd-ī-cē'-ā. ¹⁷And say to Archippus [Ār-kip'-pūs], Take heed to the ministry which you received in the Lord, that you fulfill it. ¹⁸The signature of Paul, by my own hand. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

The FIRST Letter to the THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul and Sil-vān'-us and Timothy to the church of the Thëss-ä-lō'-ni-āns, in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

²We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers. ³We never stop remembering your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope — which is of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of our God and Father — ⁴knowing, beloved brothers, your election by our God. ⁵For our Gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance — you know what kind of men we were among you, for your sake. ⁶And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, after you had graciously chosen the word, in much affliction and with much joy of the Holy Spirit. ⁷*So much so* that you became examples to all those who believe in Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă and Ā-chai'-ă. ⁸For the word of the Lord sounded forth from you, not only in Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă and Ā-chai'-ă, but also in every place your faith (which is towards God) has gone abroad, so that there is no need for us to say anything. ⁹For they themselves witness what kind of entrance we had unto you — even how you turned from idols to God in order to serve the living and true God — ¹⁰and to wait for His Son from Heaven, (whom He raised from the dead — Jesus,) who delivers us from the wrath to come.

¹For, my brothers, you yourselves know our coming in unto you, that it was not without profit. ²But even after we had been treated shamefully and had suffered before (even as you know, at Philippi,) we were bold in our God to preach the Gospel of God to you in much agony. ³For our call to you was not misleading, nor of uncleanness, nor of trickery. ⁴But even as we have been approved by God to be trusted with the Gospel, so we speak — not so as to please men, but God, who tests our hearts. ⁵For at no time were we flattering in speech, even as you know, nor with an excuse for covetousness — God is our witness. ⁶Nor were we seeking glory from men (neither from you, nor from others,) though as the apostles of Christ we had power to be burdensome. ⁷But we were gentle in your midst, even as a nurse warmly loves her own children. ⁸Longing over you in this way, we were pleased to have given you not only the Gospel of God, but also our own souls — because you have become dear to us.

⁹For, my brothers, you remember our labor and hard work. For working day and night, so as not to weigh any one of you down, we preached the Gospel of God to you. ¹⁰You are witnesses, and God too, how holily and righteously and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you that believe. ¹¹Even as you know how (unto each one of you) we were as a father to his own children — appealing and encouraging and urging you ¹²to walk so as to be worthy of God, who calls you to His own kingdom and glory. ¹³For this cause also we give thanks to God without stopping, that when you had received the word of God, hearing it by us, you did not take it as the word of men. But you took it as the word of God, as it truly is — which also works in you who believe. ¹⁴For, my brothers, you became imitators of the churches of God in Judea, which are in Christ Jesus, because you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they from the Jews, ¹⁵who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us, and do not please God, and are contrary to all men. ¹⁶In order to fill up their sins over and over they are telling us not to preach to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. But the wrath of God has come upon them to the uttermost.

¹⁷But, my brothers, when we were taken away from you for an hour's time (in presence, not in heart), we were more eagerly trying to see your face with much longing. ¹⁸For this reason both once and again we desired to come to you (even I, Paul), but Satan kept us back. ¹⁹For what is our hope or joy or crown of rejoicing? Or shall you not be even in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? ²⁰For you are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

¹For this cause, when we could no longer bear it, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone. ²And I sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-worker in the Gospel of Christ, in order to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith — ³so that no one should be troubled by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are appointed for this. ⁴For even when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we were about to suffer affliction, even as it also came to pass, and you know. ⁵Because of this, when I no longer could bear it, I sent Timothy in order to know your faith — lest perhaps the tempter should tempt you and make our labor to be in vain.

⁶But now Timothy has come from you to us and has told us good news about your faith and love (and that you always have good remembrance of us, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you). ⁷Because of this we were comforted over you, through your faith, my brothers, even in all our affliction and need — ⁸because now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. ⁹For what thanks can we return to God concerning you, for all the joy with which we rejoice before our God on account of you? ¹⁰Night and day we were praying exceedingly that we might see your face and perfect the things lacking in your faith. ¹¹But may our God and Father Himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. ¹²And may the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward one another, and toward all men—even as we also do toward you—¹³to the end that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

¹For the rest then, my brothers, we beg you and we encourage you in the Lord Jesus that even as you received from us how you ought to walk and please God, that you should do far more. ²For you know what commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus. ³For this is the will of God—for you to be purified—for you to keep away from fornication. ⁴*And this* in order for each of you to know how to possess his own vessel in purity and honor ⁵(not in passions of lust, even as also the Gentiles do, who do not know God)—⁶not overreaching and cheating his brother in the matter—because the Lord is the One who is the avenger in regard to all these things—even as we also told you before and fully declared. ⁷For God did not call us to uncleanness, but to holiness. ⁸So then he that despises does not despise man but God, who also gave His Holy Spirit to us.

⁹Now about brotherly love, you have no need for me to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. ¹⁰For you also do this towards all the brothers who are in all Măc-ê-dō'-nī-ă. But, my brothers, we call upon you to grow more and more, ¹¹and try earnestly to be quiet and to mind your own business, and to work with your own hands—even as we commanded you. ¹²*And this* that you may walk decently towards those on the outside, and that you may have need of no one.

¹³But I do not want you to be ignorant, my brothers, about those who have died, so that you may not be sorrowful, even as also the rest who have no hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will also bring with Him all those who have died in Jesus. ¹⁵For we say this to you in the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and who are left unto the coming of the Lord may not in any way go before those who are dead. ¹⁶Because the Lord Himself shall come down from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ shall rise first—¹⁷then those who are left alive shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸Therefore comfort one another with these words.

¹But as to the times and the seasons, my brothers, you do not need me to write to you. ²For you yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. ³For when they say, Peace and safety! — then sudden death comes upon them, as labor pains come upon her that is with child, and they shall in no way escape. ⁴But you, my brothers, are not in darkness, that the Day should overtake you as a thief. ⁵You are all sons of light and sons of day — we are not sons of night or of darkness. ⁶So then we should not sleep as the rest do, but we should watch and we should be sober — ⁷for the sleepers sleep by night, and the drunken get drunk by night, ⁸but we who are of the day should be sober and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and the hope of salvation as a helmet. ⁹For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to the getting of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ — ¹⁰who died for us so that whether we watch or sleep, we may live together with Him. ¹¹Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, even as you also are doing.

¹²But, my brothers, we beg you to recognize those who labor among you, and who are taking the lead of you and warning you. ¹³And you should esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves also. ¹⁴But, my brothers, we call upon you to warn the unruly ones, comfort the faint-hearted, hold up the weak, and be patient towards all. ¹⁵See that no one gives evil for evil to anyone, but always follow that which is good, both towards one another and towards all. ¹⁶Rejoice evermore. ¹⁷Pray without stopping. ¹⁸In everything give thanks — for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus towards you. ¹⁹Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰Do not despise prophecies. ²¹Test all things — hold fast to the right. ²²Keep back from every form of evil. ²³And may the God of Peace Himself fully sanctify you. And I pray God that your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴*He* who calls you is faithful, who also will do it.

²⁵*My* brothers, pray for us. ²⁶Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. ²⁷I charge you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers. ²⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

The SECOND Letter to the THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul and Sil-vān'-ūs and Timothy to the church of the Thëss-ā-lō'-nī-āns in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³We are bound to always thank God regarding you, my brothers, even as it is right to do so. And this because your faith grows more and more, and the love of each and every one of you is overflowing toward one another. ⁴So much so as for us ourselves to boast in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and troubles, which you are bearing. ⁵*This is* open proof of the righteous judgment of God, for you to be counted worthy of the kingdom of God — for which you also suffer. ⁶*I say this* since it is a righteous thing with God to repay trouble to those who trouble you, ⁷and to give rest with us to you who are troubled, at the revealing of the Lord Jesus from Heaven with the angels of His power. ⁸In flaming fire He will be taking vengeance on those that do not know God and upon those who do not obey the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹*These* shall suffer the penalty, even everlasting death from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His strength — ¹⁰when He shall come to be glorified in His saints and to be admired in all those who believe in that Day — because our report to you was believed. ¹¹To this end also we always pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of this calling, and that He may complete in you all the good pleasure of His goodness, and the work of faith with power, ¹²so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

¹Now we beg you, my brothers, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together unto Him — ²that you may not be quickly shaken in mind, nor be troubled — neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as if by us, as if the day of Christ is at hand. ³Let no one deceive you in any way, because that Day shall not come unless the falling away has come first — and unless the man of sin has been revealed, the son of perdition [per-dī'-shūn], ⁴who sets himself against and lifts himself above all that is called god, or any object of worship — so as for him to sit down as God in the Temple of God, setting himself forth pretending he is God. ⁵Do you not remember that, while I was with you, I told you these things? ⁶And now you know what holds him back, to the end that he might be revealed in his own time. ⁷For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, until he who is now holding back is taken out of the way. ⁸And then the Lawless One shall be revealed, whom the Lord will destroy with the breath of His mouth, and will bring to nothing by the brightness of His coming. ⁹*This one's* coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

¹⁰and with all the false acting of unrighteousness in those that are lost — because they did not receive the love of the truth to the end that they might be saved. ¹¹And for this cause God will send a working of error to them, so that they should believe the lie, ¹²so that all those who did not believe the truth, but delighted in unrighteousness, may be judged. ¹³But we are bound to give thanks to God always regarding you, brothers, beloved by the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you unto salvation through sanc-ti-fi-cā'-tion of the Spirit, and the belief of the truth — ¹⁴unto which He called you by our Gospel, to the gaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵So then, my brothers, stand fast, and hold fast the teachings which you were taught, whether by word or by our letter. ¹⁶But may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father — who loved us and has given us everlasting encouragement and good hope by grace — ¹⁷encourage your hearts, and may He establish you in every good word and work.

¹For the rest, my brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run freely and may be glorified even as it also has with you, ²and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked men, for faith is not of all men. ³But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and keep you from evil. ⁴And we trust in the Lord as to you, that you both are doing and will do the things which we command you. ⁵And may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

⁶Now we command you, my brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ: Withdraw from every brother who is walking in an unruly way, and not according to the teaching which he received from us. ⁷For you yourselves know how it is right to act like us, because we did not behave in an unruly way among you. ⁸Nor did we eat bread from anyone without charge — but in labor and hardship, night and day, we were working, in order not to be a burden to any one of you. ⁹Not that we do not have authority, but so that we might give ourselves as a pattern to you in order for you to act like us. ¹⁰For even when we were with you we commanded you this, that if anyone does not want to work, neither let him eat. ¹¹For we hear that some are walking in an unruly way among you, not working at all, but being busybodies. ¹²Now by the Lord Jesus Christ we command and urge such persons that they should be working with quietness — that they may eat their own bread. ¹³But you, my brothers, do not lose heart in doing good. ¹⁴But if anyone does not obey our word by this letter, note that man and do not associate with him, so that he may be ashamed. ¹⁵But do not count him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother. ¹⁶And may the Lord of peace give you peace continually in every way. The Lord be with you all. ¹⁷The greeting of Paul, by my own hand, which is the sign in every letter — so I write. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The FIRST Letter to TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the command of God our Saviour, and of the Lord Jesus Christ our Hope, ²to Timothy, my true child in the faith. Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³Even as I asked you to remain in Ēph'-ĕ-sūs, when I was going into Măc-ĕ-dō'-nĭ-ă, so that you might charge some to teach no other doctrines, ⁴nor to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, (which bring doubts rather than God's administration, which is in faith). ⁵Now the end of the commandment is love out of a pure heart, and a good conscience, and unpretended faith. ⁶From which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking, ⁷desiring to be teachers of the Law — understanding neither what they say, nor about the things they strongly affirm. ⁸Now we know that the Law is good if a man use it lawfully. ⁹*But we* know this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly — for the ungodly and sinful — for the unholy and profane — for those who strike fathers and mothers — for murderers, ¹⁰pros'-tĭ-tutes, abusers of themselves with men, men-stealers, liars, perjurers, and anything else which is against sound doctrine, ¹¹according to the Gospel of the glory of the blessed God, with which I was entrusted.

¹²And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who strengthened me, because He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry — ¹³*me* who before was a blasphemer and a persecutor and proud, but I was shown mercy, because being ignorant I did it in unbelief. ¹⁴But the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love, which are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵*This is* a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. ¹⁶But for this reason I was shown mercy, that in me, the chief of sinners, Jesus Christ might show forth His entire longsuffering, as an example to those who were going to believe on Him unto life everlasting. ¹⁷Now unto the King eternal, invisible, immortal, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁸This charge I commit to you, my son Timothy, according to the prophesyings about you — in order that you might war a good warfare by them, ¹⁹holding faith and a good conscience, which some have put away and have made shipwreck as to faith — ²⁰of whom are Hy-mē-nē'-ūs and Āl-ĕx-ăn'-der, whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2

¹First of all, then, I advise you that petitions, prayers, holy requests and thanksgivings be made for all men — ²for kings and all that are in high places — that we may lead a peaceable and quiet life, in all godliness and honor. ³For this is good and pleasing in the sight of God our Saviour, ⁴who will have all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, ⁶who gave Himself a ransom for all, the witness to be given in due time — ⁷unto which I was ordained a herald and apostle (I speak the truth in Christ and do not lie), a teacher of the Gentiles, in faith and truth.

⁸I desire therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without anger and doubting. ⁹In like manner also, that the women dress themselves in decent clothes, with modesty and sensibleness — not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or expensive clothing. ¹⁰But as is becoming to women who profess godliness, let them beautify themselves by good works.

¹¹Let a woman learn in silence in all subjection. ¹²But I do not allow a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over man — but to be in silence. ¹³For Adam was formed first, then Eve. ¹⁴And Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being fully deceived, has come to be in transgression. ¹⁵But she shall be saved through the bearing of children, if they continue in faith and love and holiness, together with being sensible.

CHAPTER 3

¹This is a true saying: If anyone aspires to be a bishop, he desires a good work. ²A bishop, then, must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, discreet, modest, hospitable, skilled in teaching. ³*He must not be* given to wine, not quarrelsome, not greedy of ill profit, but considerate, not full of strife, not loving money. ⁴*He must* rule his own house well, having his children in obedience, with all honor. ⁵(Now if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) ⁶*He must not be* a new convert, lest being puffed up with pride, he may fall into the crime of the devil. ⁷And he ought to have a good report from those on the outside, so that he may not fall into shame and the snare of the devil. ⁸In the same way the deacons must be honorable, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of ill profit, ⁹holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. ¹⁰And let these also be tested first, then let them serve, being found blameless. ¹¹In the same way let their women be honorable, not given to slander, temperate, faithful in all things. ¹²Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. ¹³For the ones who have served well get for themselves a good portion and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴I write these things to you, hoping to come to you more quickly. ¹⁵But if I should delay long, I write to you so that you know how you ought to behave yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the support and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶And without doubt, great is the mystery of godliness—God was manifest in flesh, was justified in the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the Gentiles, was believed on in the world, and was received up in glory.

CHAPTER 4

¹The Spirit plainly says that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, turning to spirits that lead astray, and to the teachings of demons, ²and of men who speak lies in hypocrisy—their conscience being seared, ³forbidding men to marry, and commanding them not to eat meats which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. ⁴For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be refused, but to be received with thanksgiving. ⁵For it is made holy by the word of God and by prayer. ⁶By laying these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, being fed with the words of the faith, and of the good teaching which you have closely followed. ⁷But refuse the profane and the old wives' tales. And exercise yourself unto godliness. ⁸For exercise of the body is of a little profit, but godliness is of profit for everything—for it has a promise of life, both that which now is and that which is to come. ⁹*This is* a faithful saying and worthy of all belief. ¹⁰*For it is* for this that we both labor and suffer shame, because we have hope in the living God, who is the Preserver of all men, especially of believers.

¹¹Command and teach these things. ¹²Let no one despise your youth. But be an example of the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. ¹³Until I come, pay attention to reading, to comforting and to teaching. ¹⁴Do not neglect the gift in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the body of elders. ¹⁵Think upon these things. Be wholly in them so that your progress may be plain to all. ¹⁶Pay close attention to yourself and to the teaching. Continue in them. For in doing this you shall both save yourself and those that hear you.

CHAPTER 5

¹Do not sharply rebuke an elder. But call upon him as a father, and the younger men as brothers. ²*Call upon the elder women* as mothers, and the younger women as sisters—in all purity. ³Honor widows who are widows indeed. ⁴But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to be godly as to their own house, and to give a return to their parents—for this is good and pleasing in the sight of God. ⁵Now she who is a widow indeed, and left alone, trusts in God. And she continues in petitions and prayers night and day. ⁶But she who lives in the pleasing of herself is dead, though living.

⁷And command these things so that they may be without blame. ⁸But if anyone does not provide for his own, especially for his own household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. ⁹Let a widow be put on the list when she is not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, ¹⁰well reported of for good works—and only if she has brought up children, if she has treated strangers hospitably, if she has washed the feet of the saints, if she has given relief to those in trouble, and if she has followed after every good work. ¹¹But refuse younger widows—for when they have grown lustful against Christ, they desire to marry, ¹²being guilty, because they cast off their first faith. ¹³And with it all they also learn to be idle, going about to the houses. And not only are they idle, they are also tattlers and busybodies, saying things they ought not to say. ¹⁴Therefore I want the younger ones to marry, to bear children, to guide the house, but to give no occasion to the adversary because of evil-speaking. ¹⁵For some have already turned aside after Satan. ¹⁶If any believing man or believing woman may have widows, let him give relief to them, and do not let the church be burdened—so that it may give relief to those who are widows indeed.

¹⁷Let the elders who are good in leading be counted worthy of double honor, especially those laboring in word and in teaching. ¹⁸For the Scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox that is treading out corn,” and, “The laborer is worthy of his reward” (See DEUTERONOMY 25:4 and LUKE 10:7). ¹⁹Do not receive an accusation against an elder except on the testimony of two or three witnesses. ²⁰Convict those that sin before all so that the rest may have fear. ²¹I earnestly witness before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you should keep these things, without preferring one before another, doing nothing by being partial. ²²Do not lay hands suddenly on anyone, neither take part in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure. ²³Do not drink water any longer, but use a little wine on account of your stomach and your many illnesses. ²⁴The sins of some men are plain, going before unto judgment—and some also they follow after. ²⁵In the same way also the good works of some are plain, and those that are not so cannot be hidden.

CHAPTER 6

¹Let as many slaves as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name and the teaching of God may not be blasphemed. ²And the ones who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers. But rather let them serve them because they are faithful and beloved men, who are being helped by good workmanship. These things teach and urge upon them.

³If anyone teaches otherwise, and does not approve of sound words (even those of our Lord Jesus Christ), and does not approve of the doctrine which is according to godliness — ⁴he is puffed up, knowing nothing — he is sick about questions and arguments. Out of these come envy, quarrels, evil-speaking, filthy suspicions, ⁵empty arguments of men who are ruined in mind and totally without the truth — supposing godliness is for profit. Withdraw from such men! ⁶But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷For we did not bring anything into this world, and it is clear that we are not able to carry anything out of it. ⁸But when we have food and clothing, we shall be satisfied with these. ⁹But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and a snare. And they fall into many foolish and hurtful lusts which plunge men into death and everlasting ruin. ¹⁰For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. Some who have reached out after money have wandered from the faith and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

¹¹But you, O man of God, flee these things. And follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience and meekness. ¹²Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed a good confession before many witnesses. ¹³I charge you in the sight of God (who makes all things live), and in the sight of Christ Jesus (who witnessed a good confession before Pon'-ti-üs Pí'-lâte,) ¹⁴that you keep the commandment without spot and without blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵*For He* in His own times shall show who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords — ¹⁶who alone has the power not to die, dwelling in light which no man can go near — whom no one has seen, nor is able to see — to whom be honor and power everlasting. Amen.

¹⁷To the rich in this world, command them not to be high-minded nor to have hope in the fickleness of riches. But let them hope in the living God, who gives us richly all things for our enjoyment. ¹⁸*Urge them* to do good, to be rich in good works, to be ready to give, ready to share in fellowship, ¹⁹treasuring up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, so that they may lay hold on everlasting life.

²⁰O Timothy, keep that which is given to you. Keep away from unholy, empty babblings, and the contrary teachings of falsely-named science — ²¹which some have professed and have missed the mark as to the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

The SECOND Letter to TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, ²to Timothy, my beloved child. Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I am thankful to God (whom I serve with pure conscience from my forefathers) that without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day — ⁴greatly longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy, ⁵calling to mind your unfeigned faith, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and in your mother Eunice. And I am persuaded that it is in you also. ⁶For which cause I remind you to stir up the gift of God, which is in you by the laying on of my hands. ⁷For God has not given us a spirit of fearfulness, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. ⁸Therefore you should not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, His prisoner. But suffer hardship along with the Gospel according to the power of God — ⁹who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the world began. ¹⁰But it is now revealed by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who truly made death of no effect, and who brought life and deathlessness to light by the Gospel. ¹¹Unto which Gospel I was appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher of the Gentiles. ¹²For which cause I also suffer these things. Nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed to Him against that Day.

¹³Hold fast the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴That good trust given to you keep by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us. ¹⁵This you know, that all those who are in Asia have turned away from me — of whom is Phygellus [Fy-jěl'-lūs] and Hermogenes [Her-moj'-ē-nēez]. ¹⁶May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus [Ō-nēs-īf'-o-rūs], because he often refreshed me, and because he was not ashamed of my chain. ¹⁷But when he was in Rome, he earnestly looked for me and found me. ¹⁸May the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord in that Day. And how much he helped in Ēph'-ē-sūs you know best.

¹Therefore, my son, you must be strong in the grace which is in Christ Jesus. ²And the things which you heard from me, with many witnesses, entrust these things to faithful men, such men as shall be able to teach others too. ³Therefore you must suffer hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. ⁴No one who is serving as a soldier tangles himself up with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who made him a soldier. ⁵And even in the games, if anyone tries to win, he is not crowned unless he has tried to win according to the law. ⁶The farmer must work before partaking of the fruits.

⁷Consider what I say, for the Lord may give you understanding in all things. ⁸Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from among the dead, who is of the seed of David, according to my Gospel—⁹in which I suffer hardship as an evildoer, even unto chains. But the word of God is not chained. ¹⁰Because of this I endure all things for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with everlasting glory. ¹¹This is a faithful saying, for if we died together with Him, we also shall live with Him. ¹²If we endure, we shall also reign with Him. If we deny Him, He will also deny us. ¹³If we are unfaithful, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

¹⁴Put these things into their memory, witnessing strongly before the Lord that they should not argue about words to no profit, to the subversion of the ones who hear. ¹⁵Study to show yourself approved unto God, a workman that does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. ¹⁶But keep away from unholy and empty babblings— for they will go forward to more ungodliness, ¹⁷and their word will feed upon them like rotting flesh—of whom is Hÿ-mě-ně'-ūs and Philetus [Fy-lě'-tūs], ¹⁸who missed the mark as to the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and are overthrowing the faith of some. ¹⁹Nevertheless the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal, "The Lord knows those that are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from wrong-doing." ²⁰But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but wooden and earthen vessels too. And some are to honor, and others to dishonor. ²¹Therefore if one has purged himself from these, he shall be a vessel to honor, being set apart and made useful to the Master, being prepared for every good work. ²²But flee youthful lusts and pursue after righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those that call upon the Lord out of a pure heart. ²³But stay away from foolish and ignorant arguments, knowing that they bring about quarrels. ²⁴And it is not right for a servant of the Lord to quarrel, but he should be gentle towards all, quick to teach, patient—²⁵in meekness teaching those who set themselves against themselves, for perhaps God may give them repentance so as to have a full knowledge of the truth. ²⁶And then they may wake up out of the snare of the devil, who have been taken captive by him so as to do his will.

¹But you know this, that in the last days dangerous times will come. ²For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, braggarts, proud, blasphemers, not obeying parents, unthankful, unholy, ³without natural feeling, refusing to yield, false accusers, without self-control, savage, not lovers of good, ⁴traitors, reckless, puffed up. They will be lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵having a form of godliness, but denying the power of it — but turn away from these. ⁶For of these are the ones who creep into houses and lead away silly women loaded with sins, led on by different kinds of lusts — ⁷always learning and yet never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁸Now as Jān'-nēs and Jām'-brēs withstood Moses, so also these resist the truth. They are men completely rotten in mind, worthless as to the faith. ⁹But they shall not go any further, for their foolishness shall be very clear to all, just as theirs also was.

¹⁰But you have closely studied my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience, ¹¹persecutions and sufferings — which happened to me in Ān'-tī-och, in Ī-cō'-nī-ūm, in Lÿs'-trā. And you know what kind of persecutions I endured, and that the Lord delivered me out of them all. ¹²And indeed all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ¹³But evil men and pretenders shall go on to worse, leading men astray and being led astray. ¹⁴But you keep on in the things you have learned, and of which you have been made sure, knowing from whom you have learned them. ¹⁵And also that from a babe you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶All Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness — ¹⁷so that the man of God may be perfect, fully fitted unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4

¹I therefore call upon you in the sight of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, (who shall judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom,) ²to preach the word — be urgent in season and out of season — convict, correct and encourage with all patience and teaching. ³For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but they will heap up to themselves teachers who tickle the ear according to their own lusts. ⁴And they will turn away their ear from the truth and will be turned aside to fairy tales. ⁵But be clear-minded in all things, suffer hardships, do the work of an evangelist and fully carry out your ministry. ⁶For I already am being poured out as an offering, and the time of my release is here. ⁷I have fought a good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. ⁸Now the crown of righteousness is laid up for me, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me in that Day—and not only to me, but also to all who love His appearing.

⁹Try to come to me quickly. ¹⁰For Dē'-mās has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and he has gone back to Thēss-ā-lō-nī'-cā. Crescens [Crēs'-ēnz] has gone to Gā-lā'-tī-ā and Titus to Dāl-mā'-tī-ā. ¹¹Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for the ministry. ¹²But I sent Tychicus [Tīck'-ī-cūs] to Ēph'-ē-sūs. ¹³When you come, bring the cloak which I left in Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹⁴Alexander the coppersmith did many evil things against me. May the Lord give to him according to his works. ¹⁵You also be careful of him, for he has greatly resisted our words. ¹⁶In my first defense no one stood with me, but everyone left me. May it not be charged to them. ¹⁷But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the preaching might be fully known, and so that all the Gentiles should hear—and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁸And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will keep me for His heavenly kingdom—to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

¹⁹Greet Priscilla and Ā-quīl'-ā and the house of Ō-nēs-īph'-ō-rūs. ²⁰Ē-rās'-tūs stayed in Corinth, but I left Troph'-ī-mūs sick in Mī-lē'-tūs. ²¹Try to come before winter. Eū-bū'-lūs greets you, and Pū'-dēns, and Lī'-nūs, and Claudia, and all the brothers. ²²The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

The Letter to TITUS

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the full knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness—²in the hope of eternal life, which the God who cannot lie promised before the world began, ³(but it is revealed in its own time in the preaching of His word, with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of our Saviour God,)—⁴to Titus, my true child according to our common faith. Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, our Saviour.

⁵For this cause I left you in Crète, so that you might set in order the things that were lacking, and that you might ordain elders in every city, even as I had ordered you to do: ⁶if any man is blameless, husband of one wife, having faithful children, and is not accused of behaving loosely or being unruly. ⁷For a bishop ought to be blameless, as God's minister. He should not be selfwilled, nor full of passion, nor given to wine, nor quarrelsome, nor greedy of ill profit. ⁸But he should be hospitable, a lover of all that is good, of a sound mind, just, holy and temperate. ⁹*He should* be clinging to the faithful word according to the doctrine, so that he may be able both to encourage with sound teaching, and to convict the ones who speak against the truth. ¹⁰For there are many unruly and empty talkers, and those who lead the mind astray—especially those of the circumcision, ¹¹whose mouths must be stopped, who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not to teach for the sake of ill profit. ¹²One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, The people of Crete are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons. ¹³This statement is true—for which cause convict them sharply so that they may be sound in the faith, ¹⁴not listening to Jewish tales and the commandments of men, turning away from the truth. ¹⁵Unto the pure, all things are pure. But to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure—but both their mind and conscience are defiled. ¹⁶They claim to know God, but in works deny Him, being hateful and disobedient. And as to every good work, they are worthless.

¹But speak the things that become sound doctrine. ²*Tell* aged men to be sober, sensible, of a sound mind, sound in faith, in love and in patience. ³*Tell the* aged women likewise to behave as becomes holy ones—not false accusers, not slaves to much wine, teachers of what is right—⁴so that they may teach the young women to be lovers of their husbands, lovers of their children, ⁵right-minded, chaste, keepers at home, good, and obedient to their own husbands—so that the word of God may not be blasphemed. ⁶Likewise encourage the younger men to be right-minded — ⁷in all things holding yourself forth as a pattern of good works: in doctrine, in purity, being sensible, sincere, ⁸*and* of sound speech which cannot be condemned — so that he who is against you may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say about you. ⁹*Tell* bond-slaves to be obedient to their own masters, to be pleasing in everything, not talking against them, ¹⁰not stealing, but showing all good faith — so that they may speak well of your Saviour God in all things. ¹¹For the grace of God which brings salvation for all men has appeared, ¹²teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live wisely and righteously and godly in this present world — ¹³looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ, ¹⁴who gave Himself for us so that He might redeem us from all iniquity and purify unto Himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. ¹⁵These things speak, and encourage, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

¹Remind them to be subject to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to every good work, ²to speak evil of no one, to be peaceful and gentle — showing all meekness towards all men. ³For we also were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, serving various lusts and pleasures — living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another. ⁴But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared — ⁵not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, ⁶which He poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, ⁷so that being justified by His grace, we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. ⁸This saying is a faithful saying, and I desire you to strongly insist upon these things so that they who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men. ⁹But keep back from foolish questions and genealogies, and arguments and quarrels about the Law — for they are unprofitable and vain. ¹⁰After the first and second warning, avoid a man who is a heretic, ¹¹knowing that such a one is turned out of the way, and sins, being judged so by himself.

¹²When I shall send Ār'-tē-mās unto you, or Tychicus [Tick'-i-cūs], try to come unto me to Nicopolis [Ny-cōp'-ō-lis]. For I have decided to winter there. ¹³Try to send forth Zenas the lawyer and Apollos, so that nothing may be lacking to them. ¹⁴And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, so that they may not be without fruit.

¹⁵All those with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Letter to PHILEMON

CHAPTER 1

¹Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon [Fy-lêe'-mon] our dearly beloved friend and fellow-worker, ²and to Apphia [Āf'-i-ā] the beloved, and to Archippus [Ār-kip'-ūs] our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house. ³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers, ⁵hearing of your love and faith which you have towards the Lord Jesus and towards all the saints, ⁶so that the sharing of your faith may be working in you the personal knowledge of every good thing which is in you towards Christ Jesus. ⁷For we have great joy and encouragement because of your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed by you, my brother.

⁸For this reason I might have much boldness to command you to do what is right, ⁹*but* for the sake of love I rather beseech you, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰I beseech you for my child Ō-nēs'-i-mūs, whom I have begotten in my bonds. ¹¹At one time he was not profitable to you, but now he is profitable both to you and to me—¹²whom I have sent back to you. But do receive him, that is, my own heart. ¹³For I was wanting to keep him with me, so that he might minister to me for you, in the bonds of the Gospel. ¹⁴But I did not want to do anything apart from your mind, so that your good might not be as of force, but of willingness. ¹⁵For perhaps because of this he was separated from you for a time, so that you might possess him forever—¹⁶no longer as a bondslave, but above a bondslave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord?

¹⁷If, then, you count me as a partner, receive him as you would me. ¹⁸And if he has wronged you or owes you anything, put this to my account. ¹⁹I, Paul, wrote it with my own hand—I will repay it—that I may not say to you that you owe even yourself to me too. ²⁰Yes, my brother, may I have joy of you in the Lord? Refresh my heart in the Lord. ²¹Being persuaded of your obedience I wrote to you, knowing that you will do even more than what I say. ²²And at the same time prepare me a place to stay too, for I hope that through your prayers I shall be given to you.

²³Ēp'-ā-phrās, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, ²⁴Mark, Ār-is-tār'-chūs, Demas and Luke, my fellow-workers, greet you. ²⁵The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

The Letter to the HEBREWS

CHAPTER 1

¹At many places and in many ways God has spoken in times past to the fathers in the prophets. ²Now in these last days He has spoken to us in the Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things — by whom also He made the worlds. ³And He who is the shining splendor of His glory and the express image of His Person, (and who is upholding all things by the word of His power,) when He had purged our sins by Himself, He sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. ⁴For, having become so much better than the angels, He has inherited a far more excellent name than they have.

⁵For to which of the angels has He at any time said, “Thou art My Son. This day I have begotten Thee”? And again, “I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to me a Son”? (See PSALM 2:7; 2 SAMUEL 7:14). ⁶And again, when He brings the First-born into the world, He says, “And let all the angels of God worship Him.” ⁷And of the angels He says, “Who makes His angels spirits and His ministers a flame of fire” (See PSALM 104:4). ⁸But as to the Son, He says, “Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever. A staff of righteousness is the staff of Thy kingdom. ⁹Thou didst love righteousness and hate lawlessness. Because of this, God, Thy God, has anointed Thee with the oil of gladness above Thy fellows” (See PSALM 45:6). ¹⁰And, “Thou, O Lord, in the beginning laid the foundations of the earth. And the heavens are the works of Thy hands. ¹¹They shall perish, but Thou shalt continue. And they all shall grow old like a garment — ¹²and as a covering Thou shalt fold them up, and they shall be changed. But Thou art the same, and Thy years shall not fail” (See PSALM 102:25). ¹³But to which of the angels did He ever say, “Sit on My right hand until I place Thy enemies as a footstool at Thy feet”? (See PSALM 110:1). ¹⁴Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth for service for those who are going to be heirs of salvation?

¹Because of this we ought to give the more earnest attention to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should slip away. ²For if the word spoken by angels was made sure, and every disobedience and breaking of the law received a just repayment, ³how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? Which salvation was spoken of by the Lord in the beginning, and was made sure to us by those that heard Him — ⁴God bearing witness with them, both with signs and wonders, and with different kinds of mighty works, and with gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will.

⁵For He did not put the world which is to come under angels — of which we speak. ⁶But one fully testified in a certain place, saying,

“What is man that Thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that Thou dost visit him? ⁷For a little while Thou didst make him lower than the angels. Thou didst crown him with glory and honor and set him over the works of Thy hands. ⁸Thou hast put all things under his feet” (See PSALM 8:4). For in putting all things under him He did not leave anything that is not under him. But now we do not yet see all things under him — ⁹but we do see Jesus crowned with glory and honor, who, on account of the suffering of death, was for a little while made lower than the angels — so that by the grace of God He might taste death for every son. ¹⁰For it was becoming to Him, (for whom are all things, and by whom are all things,) in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. ¹¹For both He that makes holy and those who are being made holy are all of One — for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹²saying, “I will declare Thy name to My brothers. I will sing praise to Thee in the midst of the church” (See PSALM 22:22). ¹³And again, “I will put My trust in Him” (See 2 SAMUEL 22:3). And again, “Behold! I and the children which God has given Me” (See ISAIAH 8:17).

¹⁴Since therefore the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He also likewise took part of the same — so that through death He might defeat him who has the power of death, that is, the devil — ¹⁵and that He might deliver all those who, through fear of death, were subject to lifelong slavery. ¹⁶For without doubt He does not take hold of angels, but He takes hold of the seed of Abraham. ¹⁷So He needed in every manner to be made like His brothers — so that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things relating to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁸For in that He Himself has suffered, having been tempted, He is able to help those who are tempted.

¹Therefore, holy brothers, who share in the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest whom we confess, Christ Jesus, ²who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, even as Moses also was faithful in all his house. ³For He was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, just as He who has built the house has more honor than the house. ⁴For every house is built by someone, but He that built all things is God. ⁵And Moses truly was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a witness of those things which were going to be spoken later. ⁶But Christ was faithful as a Son over His own house (whose house we are, if we hold fast the boldness and rejoicing of the hope firm to the end).

⁷For this reason, as the Holy Spirit says, “Today, if you will hear His voice, ⁸harden not your hearts, as in the day they provoked Me, in the day of temptation in the wilderness, ⁹where your fathers tempted Me, proved Me, and saw My works forty years.” ¹⁰For this reason, “I was not pleased with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their hearts, and they have not known My ways. ¹¹So I swore in My wrath, They shall not enter into My rest" (See PSALM 95:7-11).

¹²Be careful, my brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in falling away from the living God. ¹³But encourage one another day by day, while it is still called Today—so that none of you may be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴For we have become companions of Christ, if we truly hold the beginning of our trust firm to the end—¹⁵So long as it is said, "Today, if you will hear His voice, harden not your hearts, as in the day they provoked Me." ¹⁶For some provoked God when they heard, but not all who came out from Egypt by Moses. ¹⁷But with whom was He displeased forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸And to whom did He swear that they should not enter into His rest, but to those that did not believe? ¹⁹ So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

¹Let us fear then lest, a promise being left to enter in His rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. ²For the Gospel has been preached to us, as well as to them. But the word of the message did not do them any good, not being mixed with faith in the ones who heard it. ³For we who have believed do enter into His rest, as He said, "As I have sworn in My wrath, they shall not enter into My rest" (See PSALM 95:11). Though truly the works were finished from the foundation of the world—⁴for He has said in a certain place, speaking of the seventh day in this manner, "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works" (See GENESIS 2:2). ⁵And in this place again, "They shall not enter into My rest." ⁶Since then it remains for some to enter into it—and those to whom it was first preached did not enter in because of unbelief—⁷He again marks out a certain day, saying in David, "Today" (after so long a time). Even as it is said, "Today, if you will hear His voice, harden not your hearts." ⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not have afterwards spoken about another day. ⁹So then, there is still a rest to the people of God. ¹⁰For he that entered into his rest, he also rested from his works, as God did from His.

¹¹Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of unbelief. ¹²For the word of God is living and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing apart of both soul and spirit, and of both the joints and marrow, and it is a judge of the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³And there is not any creature that is not clearly revealed before Him. But all things are naked and opened to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account. ¹⁴Therefore, having a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens—Jesus the Son of God—let us hold fast to what we confess. ¹⁵For we do not have a High Priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our weaknesses — but we have One who has been tempted in all things like us, but without sin. ¹⁶Therefore let us draw near to the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5

¹For every high priest taken from among men is appointed for men in things relating to God — so that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins — ²being able to have pity upon the ignorant and those that wander out of the way, since he himself also is hemmed in with weakness. ³And because of this he ought, even as for the people, so also for himself to offer for sins. ⁴And no man takes this honor to himself, but he is called by God, even as Aaron also was. ⁵So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become a High Priest — but He who said to Him, “Thou art My Son. This day I have begotten Thee.” ⁶As He says in another Psalms also, “Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Mēl-chīz’-ě-děk” (See PSALM 110:4). ⁷For He, in the days of His flesh, after offering up both requests and prayers to Him who was able to save Him from death (with strong crying and tears, and having been heard in that He feared God, ⁸even though He was a Son) He learned obedience from the things which He suffered. ⁹And being made perfect, He became the Author of eternal salvation to all those who obey Him, ¹⁰being called by God to be High Priest after the order of Mēl-chīz’-ě-děk.

¹¹About whom we have many things to say, and not easy to be explained since you have become dull of hearing. ¹²For indeed, because of the time, you ought to be teachers, yet you need one to teach you again what are the first principles of the words of God. And you have become ones who have need of milk, and not of solid food. ¹³For every one that uses milk is not skilled in the word of righteousness — for he is an infant. ¹⁴But solid food belongs to the ones who are of full age, even those who through habit have their senses exercised to judge both good and evil.

¹Therefore, leaving the principles of the teaching of Christ, let us go on to full growth. Let us not lay again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God — ²of the teaching of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of the raising of the dead, and of everlasting judgment. ³And this we will do if God allows it. ⁴For those who were once enlightened, and who have tasted of the heavenly gift, and who became partakers of the Holy Spirit, ⁵and who have tasted the good word of God and the works of power of the age to come, ⁶and who have fallen away, it is not possible to renew them again to repentance. For they are crucifying to themselves the Son of God and putting Him to an open shame. ⁷(For the earth, which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and produces plants fit for those for whom it is worked, shares God's blessing. ⁸But that ground which brings forth thorns and briars is rejected, and is near to being cursed — the end of which is to be burned.) ⁹But, beloved, even though we speak this way, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that go along with salvation. ¹⁰For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have shown toward His name, in that you have ministered to the saints and still do minister. ¹¹And we earnestly desire that each of you will show the same eagerness — even to being fully sure of the hope unto the end — ¹²so that you will not be dull, but imitators of those who inherit the promises through patience and faith.

¹³For when God was promising to Abraham, He swore by Himself, because He could swear by no greater one, ¹⁴saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you" (See GENESIS 22:16). ¹⁵And so, having had patience, he received the promise. ¹⁶For men indeed swear by the greater. And an oath to make things sure is the end of all argument to them. ¹⁷In which way, desiring to more fully declare to the heirs of promise that His purpose does not change, God came in with an oath — ¹⁸so that by two things that cannot change (in which it was not possible for God to lie) we might have strong comfort — we who have fled for refuge in order to lay hold upon the hope set before us. ¹⁹Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both certain and sure, and entering into that inside the veil, ²⁰where Jesus, as our Forerunner, has entered on our behalf, having become a High Priest forever, according to the order of Mēl-chīz'-ĕ-dĕk.

¹For this Mēl-chīz'-ĕ-dĕk, (who was king of Salem and priest of the most high God,) met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. ²Abraham also gave a tenth of all the spoils to him. First of all, his name being translated, he is king of righteousness. And then also king of Salem, which is, king of peace. ³*He was* without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life — but being made like unto the Son of God, he remains a priest forever. ⁴Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils. ⁵And indeed they that are of the sons of Levi, receiving the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the Law — that is, they take tithes from their brothers, even though they come out of the loins of Abraham. ⁶But he, whose line is not counted from them, received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. ⁷And without contradiction, the lesser is blessed of the greater. ⁸And here dying men receive tithes — but there he, of whom it is witnessed that he lives, receives tithes.

⁹And as I may so say, Levi also, who receives tithes, has paid tithes through Abraham. ¹⁰For he was yet in the loins of his father when Mēl-chīz'-ē-dēk met him. ¹¹Truly, then, if perfection were by the priesthood of Levi, (for under it the people received the Law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mēl-chīz'-ē-dēk — and not named after the order of Aaron? ¹²For the priesthood being changed, a change of law must come about also. ¹³For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe — of which no one has given attendance at the altar. ¹⁴For it is plain that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, of which tribe Moses said nothing as to priesthood. ¹⁵And it is still more plain, since a different priest arises, ¹⁶who is made according to the likeness of Mēl-chīz'-ē-dēk — not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. ¹⁷For He testifies, "Thou art a Priest forever, after the order of Mēl-chīz'-ē-dēk" (See PSALM 110:4).

¹⁸For truly there is a putting away of the foregoing commandment because of its weakness and lack of gain — ¹⁹for the Law did not make anything perfect — but there is a coming in of a better hope by which we draw near to God. ²⁰And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath — ²¹for they are made priests without the swearing of an oath, but He was made priest with the swearing of an oath by Him who said to Him, "The Lord swore and will not repent, Thou art a Priest forever after the order of Mēl-chīz'-ē-dēk" — ²²by so much Jesus was made a surety of a better covenant. ²³And they truly were many priests, because they were kept back from continuing by death. ²⁴But He, because He endures forever, He has a priesthood that cannot be changed. ²⁵Therefore He is able also to save to the uttermost those that come unto God by Him, since He ever lives to make intercession for them. ²⁶For such a High Priest was fitting for us, One who is holy, harmless, and undefiled, separated from sinners and made higher than the heavens, ²⁷One who does not, as those high priests, need to offer sacrifices daily, first for His own sins, and then for the people's sins — for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself. ²⁸For the Law makes men high priests who have infirmity — but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, made the Son perfect for ever.

¹Now the sum of the things which we have spoken is this: We have such a High Priest, who has sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in Heaven — ²a Minister of the holy places and of the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and not man.

³For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary for this One also to have something which

He may offer. ⁴For indeed if He were on earth, He would not be a priest. For there are the priests who offer gifts according to the Law, ⁵who serve the pattern and shadow of heavenly things — even as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to make the tabernacle — for He says, “See that you make all things according to the pattern which was shown to you in the mountain” (See Exodus 25:40). ⁶But now He has gotten a more excellent ministry, by so much He is also the Mediator of a better covenant, which was built upon better promises.

⁷For if that first covenant had been without fault, then no place would have been sought for the second. ⁸For finding fault He said to them, “Behold! the days come, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah — ⁹not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt” — because they did not keep on in My covenant, and I stopped taking care of them, says the Lord. ¹⁰“For this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, says the Lord, I will put My laws in their mind and write them in their hearts — and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ¹¹And they shall no more teach each one his neighbor, and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord — for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them. ¹²For I will be merciful to their wrongdoings, and I will not remember their sins and their lawless deeds any more” (See JEREMIAH 31:33, 34). ¹³By saying, “New,” He has made the first covenant old. Now that which decays and grows old is ready to vanish away.

¹Truly then the first tabernacle also had holy orders of worship and an earthly Holy Place. ²For there was a tabernacle prepared, the first one — in which were the lampstand and the table and the showbread — which is called the Holy Place. ³And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies — ⁴which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant which was covered with gold in every part, in which was the golden pot with the manna, and Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant — ⁵and above it the cher’-û-bîm of glory overshadowing the mercy-seat (of which we cannot now speak part by part).

⁶Now when these things had been prepared in this way, the priests went at all times into the first tabernacle, doing the duties of God. ⁷But into the second the high priest went alone once a year — not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the errors of the people. ⁸The Holy Spirit was showing by this that the way into the Holy of

Holies was not yet revealed, the first tabernacle still having a standing. ⁹Which was a parable for the present time, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices that, as regards the conscience, could not make him who served perfect. ¹⁰But it was only in meats and drinks, and different kinds of washings, and fleshly rules put upon them until the time of setting things right. ¹¹But when Christ had come as a High Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle which was not made with hands, (that is, not of this creation,) ¹²not by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered in once for all into the Holy of Holies, having obtained everlasting redemption.

¹³For if the blood of bulls and of goats and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purity of the flesh, ¹⁴how much more shall the blood of Christ (who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot unto God) purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? ¹⁵And for this reason He is the Mediator of the new covenant, so that, by means of death for the redemption of the sins under the first covenant, they who have been called might receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance. ¹⁶For where there is a testament, it is necessary for the death of the one who made it to, be brought in. ¹⁷For a testament is made sure after men are dead—otherwise it is of no force at all while the one who made it is living. ¹⁸From which we see that neither was the first covenant put into force without blood. ¹⁹For when Moses had spoken every commandment to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of calves and goats—along with water and scarlet wool and hyssop [hiss'-op]—and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, ²⁰saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded to you" (See Exodus 24:8). ²¹And he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry.

²²And almost all things are purified with blood according to the Law—and without shedding of blood is no remission. ²³*It was* therefore necessary that the patterns of the things in the heavens should be purified with these. But the heavenly things themselves were purified with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ has not entered into the Holy of Holies made with hands (the figures of the true), but into Heaven itself—now to appear in the presence of God for us. ²⁵Nor yet is it necessary that He should offer Himself often—as the high priest enters into the Holy Place every year with another's blood—²⁶for then He would have had to suffer often from the foundation of the world. But now, once, in the end of ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. ²⁷And in view of the fact that it is appointed unto men once to die, and after this the Judgment—²⁸so Christ, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time without sin to those that look for Him, unto salvation.

¹For the Law had a shadow of the good things to come, not the image itself of those things. So it can never make those who come near perfect with the same sacrifices which they offer over and over year after year. ²Otherwise, would they not have stopped being offered? Because the worshippers, when they had been once for all purged, would have had no more conscience of sins! ³But in those sacrifices there is a remembering of sins year by year. ⁴For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. ⁵For this reason, coming into the world, He says, "Sacrifice and offering Thou didst not desire, but Thou didst prepare a body for Me. ⁶In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin Thou didst not delight. ⁷Then I said, Lo, in the roll of the Book it is written of Me, I come to do Thy will, O God" (See PSALM 40:6-8). ⁸Above when He said, "Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin, Thou didst not desire, neither delighted in them" (which are offered according to the Law), ⁹then He said, "Lo, I come to do Thy will, O God." He takes away the first so that He may set up the second—¹⁰by which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

¹¹And every priest stands day by day ministering, and often offering the same sacrifices—which can never take away sins. ¹²But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God, ¹³from then on expecting until His enemies should be placed as a footstool for His feet. ¹⁴For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are sanctified. ¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after what He said before, ¹⁶"This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord, I will put My laws into their hearts, and I will also write them in their minds"—also, ¹⁷"their sins and lawlessnesses I will remember no more" (See JEREMIAH 31:33-34). ¹⁸Now where remission of these is, there is no longer an offering for sin.

¹⁹*My* brothers, since then we have boldness to enter into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus—²⁰by a new and living way which He has consecrated for us through the veil, that is to say, His flesh—²¹and since we have a High Priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience. And our bodies have been washed with pure water. ²³And let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering—for He who promised is faithful. ²⁴And we should consider one another, encouraging one another to love and good works—²⁵not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but encouraging one another—and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. ²⁶For if we sin willingly after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins, ²⁷but only a certain fearful looking forward to judgment, and burning jealousy which is about to eat up those who are against God. ²⁸He who set aside the Law of Moses died without mercy, under two or three witnesses. ²⁹How much worse punishment do you think he shall be thought worthy to receive who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and who has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine! I will repay! says the Lord." And again, "The Lord will judge His people" (See DEUTERONOMY 32:35, 36). ³¹It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

³²But call to memory the days before, in which (after you had been given light) you endured a great fight of afflictions. ³³Partly you were made a public show, both in ugly charges and in trials. And partly you had become companions of those passing through these things. ³⁴For you both sympathized with me in my bonds and took joyfully the plundering of your goods—knowing in yourselves that you have better and more enduring riches in Heaven. ³⁵Therefore, do not throw away your confidence, which has great reward. ³⁶For you have need of patience so that after you have done the will of God you may receive the promise. ³⁷For yet a little while, and He that shall come will come and will not delay. ³⁸"Now the just shall live by faith. But if any draw back, My soul shall have no pleasure in him." ³⁹But we are not of the ones who draw back unto perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

¹Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. ²For by this the elders were given a good report. ³By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God—that the things which are seen were not made of things which appear. ⁴By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain—by which he received witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts—and by it, though he has died, he still speaks. ⁵By faith Enoch was translated so that he should not see death. And he was not found, because God had translated him, for before he was translated he had this witness, that he pleased God. ⁶But without faith it is impossible to please God. For he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of the ones who carefully seek Him out.

⁷By faith Noah (being warned by God of things not yet seen and moved with fear) prepared an ark for the saving of his house. By this he judged the world guilty and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. ⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out into a place which he was going to get for an inheritance. And he went out without knowing where he was going. ⁹By faith he stayed in the land of the promise, as in a strange country, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God. ¹¹Through faith also Sarah herself got the strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was beyond a seasonable age — because she judged Him faithful who had promised. ¹²By reason of this also, there sprang up from one (and that too of one who had become dead) as many as the stars of the sky in multitude and as countless as the sand by the seashore.

¹³These all died in faith, not having received the promises. But they had seen them afar off and were persuaded of them, and embraced them. And they confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. ¹⁴For they who say such things make it clear that they are seeking their own country. ¹⁵And truly, if they had been thinking of that country from which they came, they might have had opportunity to have returned. ¹⁶But now they stretch forward to a better country, that is, a heavenly country. For this reason God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. And he that had received the promises was offering up his only-begotten, ¹⁸of whom it was said, “in Isaac shall your seed be called” (See GENESIS 21:12). ¹⁹For he was supposing that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead — from which he did get him back too, in a way of speaking. ²⁰By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau in regard to things to come. ²¹By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and he worshipped leaning upon the top of his staff. ²²By faith Joseph, when he died, talked about the departing of the children of Israel and gave commandment about his bones.

²³By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents — because they saw the little child was very beautiful — and they were not afraid of the king’s commandment. ²⁴By faith Moses, when he had become a man, refused to be called the son of Phâr’-ã-ôh’s daughter — ²⁵choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin. ²⁶For he had counted the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt — for he looked forward to the reward. ²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the anger of the king — for he kept on, as seeing Him who is invisible. ²⁸By faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood — lest he who was the slayer of the first-born should touch them. ²⁹By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land. But the Egyptians, trying to do the same, were swallowed up. ³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been circled for seven days. ³¹By faith Rã’-hãb the harlot did not perish with the ones who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace.

³²And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Bâr'-āk, and Samson, and Jēph-thāh, and David, and Samuel, and of the prophets — ³³who through faith put down kingdoms, worked righteousness, received the promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴put out the power of fire, escaped the edges of the sword. Out of weakness they were made strong — they became mighty in war — they turned the armies of strangers to flight. ³⁵Women received their dead by resurrection. And others were tortured, refusing to accept deliverance so that they might obtain a better resurrection. ³⁶And others underwent mockings and whippings — and even more, of chains and of being in prison — ³⁷they were stoned — they were cut apart with saws — they were tempted and were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being in want, afflicted, tormented ³⁸(of whom the world was not worthy). They wandered in deserts and in mountains and in dens and caves of the earth. ³⁹And all of these, when they had gotten a good report through faith, did not receive the promise. ⁴⁰God had provided some better thing for us, so that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

¹Therefore, since we are also circled about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily encircles us. And let us run with patience the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith — who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. ³For carefully consider Him who endured such great gainsaying of sinners against Himself, lest you become wearied and faint in your minds. ⁴You have not yet resisted unto blood, wrestling against sin. ⁵And you have forgotten the comforting call which He speaks to you as to sons, "My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when being corrected by Him. ⁶For whom the Lord loves, He corrects, and He whips every son whom He receives" (See PROVERBS 3:11). ⁷If you endure correction, God is dealing with you as sons — for who is the son whom the father does not correct? ⁸But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are bastards and not sons.

⁹Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we respected them. Shall we not much rather be put under the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰For they indeed corrected us for a few days according to that which seemed good to them — but He corrects us for our good, so that we might partake of His holiness. ¹¹Now no chastening for the present seems to be joyous, but grievous — but afterwards it yields up the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised by it.

¹²For this reason lift up the hands which hang down and the feeble knees. ¹³And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way — but rather that it may be healed. ¹⁴Eagerly pursue peace with all men, and holiness also, without which no man shall see the Lord. ¹⁵And look carefully lest any man fail of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness should spring up and trouble you (and by this many are made unclean) — ¹⁶lest there be any fôr-nĩ-cā'-tor, or ungodly person (as Esau, who for one meal sold his birthright. ¹⁷For you know that afterward, he was rejected when he desired to inherit the blessing, though he sought it carefully, with tears — for he did not find any place of repentance.)

¹⁸For you have not come to the mountain that could be touched and which had been kindled with fire, and to blackness, and to darkness and to storm, ¹⁹and to a sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words — upon which they that heard the voice earnestly begged that the word not be addressed to them. ²⁰For they could not bear that which was commanded, "And if a beast should touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart" (See EXODUS 19:12, 13). ²¹And so terrible was the sight that Moses said, I am greatly afraid and trembling. ²²But you have come up to Mount Zion, and to the City of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to a countless company of angels, ²³to the general gathering and church of the first-born, who are written in Heaven — and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect — ²⁴and to Jesus, the Mediator of the new covenant — and to the blood of sprinkling, speaking better things than that of Abel. ²⁵See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him that divinely warned them on earth, much more we shall not escape who turn away from Him who is from Heaven! ²⁶whose voice then shook the earth. But now He has promised, saying, "Yet once I will shake not only the earth, but the heaven too" (See HAGGAI 2:6). ²⁷And the "Yet once" clearly shows the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made — so that the things which cannot be shaken may remain. ²⁸Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have grace by which we may serve God in a pleasing way, with reverence and fear. ²⁹For also, "Our God is a consuming fire" (See DEUTERONOMY 4:24).

¹Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not forget to welcome strangers — for in this way some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³Remember the ones who are prisoners, as if bound with them — and the ones being ill-treated, as if you were also ill-treated in body. ⁴Marriage is honorable in every way, and the marriage bed is clean—but fornicators and adulterers God will judge. ⁵Let your manner of life be free from the love of money. Be satisfied with what you have now. For He has said, "I will never leave you nor ever forsake you." ⁶So that we may boldly say, "The Lord is my Helper, and I will not fear. What shall man do to me?" (See PSALM 118:6).

⁷Remember your leaders, who have spoken the word of God to you. Consider carefully what has come out of their conduct. Imitate their faith: ⁸Jesus Christ, the same yesterday and today and forever. ⁹Do not be carried about with different and strange doctrines—for it is good for the heart to be established with grace, not with meats, in which those who walked in them were not helped. ¹⁰We have an altar of which they who serve the tabernacle do not have a right to eat. ¹¹For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the Holy Place by the high priest, for sin, are burned outside the camp.

¹²For this reason also Jesus suffered outside the camp, so that He might purify the people with His own blood. ¹³Therefore, let us go forth to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach. ¹⁴For we do not have any lasting city, but we are seeking the one to come. ¹⁵By Him, then, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually—that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. ¹⁶But do not forget to do good and to share what you have, for God is well-pleased with such sacrifices. ¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them—for they watch for your souls, as they that are about to give account, so that they may do it with joy and not with sadness—for this would not be good for you. ¹⁸Pray for us—for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly. ¹⁹But I urge you the rather to do this, so that I may be more quickly given back to you.

²⁰Now the God of peace (who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant) ²¹make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ—to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

²²But I call upon you, my brothers, bear with the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter to you in few words. ²³Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom, if he should come shortly, I will see you. ²⁴Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you. ²⁵Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Letter of JAMES

CHAPTER 1

¹James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion, greeting.

²My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into different kinds of temptations, ³knowing that the proving of your faith works patience. ⁴But let patience have its perfect work, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. ⁵But if any of you lack wisdom, let him ask it from God — who freely gives to all and does not reproach — and it shall be given to him. ⁶But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing. For he who doubts is like a wave of the sea which is being driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷For do not let that man think that he shall receive anything from the Lord — ⁸*for he is a double-minded man*, who is not dependable in any of his ways. ⁹But let the brother who is low rejoice in being lifted up. ¹⁰And let the rich brother rejoice in being made humble, because he will pass away like the flower of the grass. ¹¹For the sun rose with burning heat and dried up the grass, and the flower of it fell, and the beauty of its appearance was gone. So also the rich man shall dry up in his ways. ¹²Blessed is the man who endures temptation — for when he is tried he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. ¹³Let no one say when he is tempted, It is because I am tempted of God. For God cannot be tempted by evils, and He Himself tempts no one. ¹⁴But each one is tempted when he is drawn away and seduced by his own lust. ¹⁵Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin. And when it is fully finished, sin brings forth death.

¹⁶Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers: ¹⁷Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change nor shadow of turning. ¹⁸After He had willed it, He brought us forth by the word of truth, in order for us to be a kind of first-fruits of His creatures.

¹⁹Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger. ²⁰For the anger of man does not work out the righteousness of God. ²¹For this reason, when you have laid aside all filthiness and all overflowing of wickedness, receive in meekness the implanted word — which is able to save your souls. ²²But be doers of the word and not hearers only, fooling yourselves. ²³Because if any man is a hearer of the word and not a doer, this one is like a man studying his natural face in a mirror. ²⁴For he studied himself and went away — and immediately he forgot what he was like. ²⁵But he that looked into the perfect law of liberty, and who continued in it — this one has not been a forgetful hearer, but has been a doer of the work. This one shall be blessed in his doing.

²⁶If anyone among you seems to be religious, but does not bridle his tongue, deceiving his heart, this one's religion is vain. ²⁷Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their afflictions, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2

¹My brothers, do not have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with regard to persons. ²For if a man with gold rings and fancy clothing comes into your gathering—and if a poor man in dirty clothes also comes in—³and if you have looked on him who wears the fancy clothing, and have said to him, You sit here in a good place—and if you have said to the poor man, You stand there, or, You sit here under my footstool—⁴did you not make a difference among yourselves? And did you not become judges with evil judgments? ⁵My beloved brothers, hear this! Did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those that love Him? ⁶But you despised the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you? And do they not drag you before the judgment seats? ⁷Do they not blaspheme the good name by which you were called? ⁸If you truly keep the royal law according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself!” you do well (See LEVITICUS 19:18). ⁹But if you have regard to persons, you work sin—being found guilty by the Law as law-breakers. ¹⁰For whoever shall keep the whole Law, but shall stumble in one point—he has become guilty of all. ¹¹For He who said, “You shall not commit adultery,” also said, “You shall not kill” (See Exodus 20:13). Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a breaker of the Law. ¹²Speak and do in such a way as if you are about to be judged by the law of liberty. ¹³For judgment will be without mercy to him who did not do mercy. And mercy rejoices over judgment.

¹⁴My brothers, What good is it if anyone says he has faith, but does not have works? Can faith save him? ¹⁵Now if a brother or a sister is naked, and is in need of daily food, ¹⁶and if any of you say to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled!—but does not give to them the things needed for the body—what good is it? ¹⁷Even so, faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself. ¹⁸But someone will say, You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith from my works. ¹⁹You believe that God is one? You do well. The demons also believe and tremble. ²⁰But will you know, O vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? ²¹Was not our father Abraham declared just by works when he had offered his son Isaac on the altar? ²²You see that faith was working with his works. And his faith was made complete by works. ²³And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness—and he was called, Friend of God" (See GENESIS 15:6; ISALAH 41:8). ²⁴You see then that a man is declared just by works, and not by faith only. ²⁵And in the same way, was not Rā'hāb the harlot declared just by works (when she had taken in the messengers, and had sent them out another way)? ²⁶For just as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so faith apart from works is dead also.

¹My brothers, be not many teachers—knowing that we shall receive greater judgment. ²For we all often stumble. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a full-grown man who is able to bridle the whole body too. ³Behold! We put bits into the mouths of horses for them to obey us, and we turn about their whole body. ⁴Behold also the ships, which are so great, and are driven by violent winds—yet they are turned about by a very small rudder, wherever the pleasure of the helmsman may desire. ⁵So also the tongue is a little member, and it boasts great things. Behold, a little fire, how large a forest it sets on fire! ⁶And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. So the tongue is set in our members, the defiler of the whole body—both setting on fire the course of nature, and being set on fire by hell. ⁷For every kind of animals and of birds, both of creeping things and things of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. ⁸But no one among men is able to tame the tongue—it is an evil that cannot be controlled, full of deadly poison. ⁹We bless our God and Father with it. And with it we curse men who are made according to the image of God. ¹⁰Out of the same mouth goes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. ¹¹Does the fountain out of the same opening pour forth both sweet and bitter? ¹²My brothers, is a fig-tree able to bring forth olives? or a vine figs? So no fountain is able to bring forth both salt and sweet water.

¹³Who is wise and understanding among you? Out of good behavior let him show his works, in meekness of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and fighting in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. ¹⁵This is not that wisdom which comes down from above, but it is earthly, beastly, devilish. ¹⁶For where jealousy and fighting are, there is confusion and every evil thing. ¹⁷But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, yielding, full of mercy and of good fruits—not partial and not pretended. ¹⁸And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those that make peace.

¹Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Do they not come from this—from your lusts which war in your members? ²You desire, and do not have. You kill and are jealous, and are not able to get what you want. You fight and war, but you do not have what you want because you do not ask. ³You ask and do not receive, because you ask in the wrong way—that you may waste it on your lusts. ⁴You adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship of the world is hateful to God? Therefore whoever desires to be a friend of the world shows himself to be an enemy of God. ⁵Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, The spirit which dwells in us yearns to envy? ⁶But He gives more grace. For this reason He says, “God sets Himself against those who are proud, but He gives grace to those who are humble.” ⁷Therefore put yourself under God. Resist the devil, and he will run from you. ⁸Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Clean your hands, sinners—and purify your hearts, you double-minded ones. ⁹Be sorrowful and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to shame. ¹⁰Humble yourselves before the Lord, and He shall exalt you.

¹¹Do not speak evil against one another, my brothers. He who speaks against his brother, and who judges his brother, speaks against the Law and judges the Law. But if you judge the Law, you are not a doer of the Law, but a judge. ¹²One is the Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you that judges another?

¹³Come now! you who say, Today and tomorrow we will go into such a city and will spend a year there—and we will buy and sell, and we will make a profit—¹⁴you who do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? For it is a mist which appears for a little while and then vanishes away. ¹⁵Instead you ought to say, If the Lord is willing and we should live, we also may do this or that. ¹⁶But now you rejoice in your boastings. All such rejoicing is evil. ¹⁷Therefore, to him who knows to do good, and does not do it, it is sin to him.

CHAPTER 5

¹Come now, you rich men, weep, howling over your miseries which are coming upon you. ²Your riches have rotted, and your clothes have become moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver has been eaten away, and their rust shall be for a witness against you and shall eat your flesh like fire. You have heaped up treasure in the last days. ⁴Behold! the wages of the workers who harvested your fields cry out (which you have kept back from them), and the cries of the ones who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts. ⁵You lived in pleasure on the earth and satisfied yourself. You have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. ⁶You have condemned and killed the just, and he does not resist you.

⁷Therefore, my brothers, be patient until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, having patience for it until it gets the early and late rain. ⁸You be patient also. Make your hearts strong, because the coming of the Lord has drawn near. ⁹Do not grumble against one another, my brothers, so that you may not be condemned. Behold! the Judge stands before the door. ¹⁰My brothers, as an example of suffering evils, and of patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold! the ones who hold out to the end we call happy. You have heard of the patience of Job. And you saw the end of the Lord—that the Lord is full of pity and tender mercy.

¹²But above all, my brothers, do not swear—neither by Heaven, nor the earth, nor any other oath. But let your yes be yes, and your no, no—so that you may not fall into hypocrisy. ¹³Does anyone among you suffer hardships? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing the praises of God. ¹⁴Is anyone sick among you? Let him call the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith shall save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up—and if he is one who has committed sins, it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁶Confess your faults to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The fervent working prayer of a righteous man has much power. ¹⁷Elijah was a man who had the same kind of feelings we have, and he prayed in prayer for it not to rain. And it did not rain on the earth three years and six months. ¹⁸And he prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

¹⁹*My* brothers, if anyone among you goes astray from the truth, and if anyone brings him back, ²⁰let him know that he who brings a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death and shall cover a multitude of sins.

The FIRST Letter of PETER

CHAPTER 1

¹Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect strangers of the Dispersion of Pön'-tüs, of Galatia, of Căp-pă-dō'-cī-ă, of Asia, and of Bithynia [Bī-thīn'-i-ă]—²electd according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in a setting apart by the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to His great mercy, brought us forth again to a living hope, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from among the dead, ⁴to an inheritance which cannot rot away, and which is unspotted and never fades away, reserved in Heaven for us, ⁵who are being kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time—⁶in which you greatly rejoice. But now, for a little while (since it is needful,) you are being put to grief in many trials—⁷so that the proving of your faith, being much more precious than of gold, (which, even though proved by fire, perishes,) may be found unto praise and honor and glory, in the revealing of Jesus Christ. ⁸*Though* you have not seen Him, you love Him. In whom, though you are not looking upon Him now, but believing, you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory—⁹receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰Of which salvation the prophets (who told beforehand of the grace of God towards you) looked for and carefully searched out—¹¹searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ within them was declaring. For He testified beforehand of the sufferings of Christ and the glories coming after these sufferings. ¹²To whom it was revealed that they were not ministering those things to themselves, but to us— which things now have been made known to you by those who preached the Gospel to you in the Holy Spirit sent from Heaven— into which things the angels desire to look.

¹³For this reason tighten up the waist of your mind. Be watchful. Hope to the end in the grace which is being brought to you in the revealing of Jesus Christ. ¹⁴*Be* as obedient children, not following the pattern of your old lusts in your ignorance, ¹⁵but even as He who has called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all your behavior—¹⁶because it has been written, “Be holy, because I am holy” (See LEVITICUS 11:44).

¹⁷And since you call upon Him as Father, who without any regard of persons judges according to everyone's work, pass the time of your stay here in fear. ¹⁸*For* you know that you were not redeemed by corruptible things, by silver or by gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers, ¹⁹but you were redeemed by the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. ²⁰For truly He had been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but was made known at the last times for the sake of you ²¹who through Him believe in God, who raised Him up from among the dead, and gave glory to Him—so that your faith and hope might be in God. ²²Since you have purified your souls in obedience to the truth through the Spirit unto brotherly love which is not pretended, love one another fervently out of a pure heart. ²³For you have been born again, not of seed which can rot away, but of seed that can never rot away, by the word of God living and remaining forever. ²⁴Because all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man is like the flower of grass. The grass withered, and the flower of it fell away. ²⁵But the word of the Lord goes on forever. And this is the word which was preached to you.

CHAPTER 2

¹Therefore, laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies and jealousies, and all evil words—²like newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the word, so that you may grow by it—³if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. ⁴Coming to Him, the Living Stone, (indeed refused by men, but elect, precious with God,) ⁵you also as living stones are being built up into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices pleasing to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶For this reason also it is contained in the Scripture, “Behold, I place in Zion an elect, precious Cornerstone—and he that believes on Him in no way shall be put to shame” (See ISAIAH 28:16). ⁷*He is* precious therefore to you who believe. But to the unbelieving, the Stone which the builders rejected, this became the Head of the corner, ⁸and a Stone-of-stumbling and a Rock-of-offense to the unbelieving ones—who stumble at the Word, not believing, to which they also were appointed. ⁹But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people who belong to God, so that you might show forth the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light—¹⁰you who once were not a people, but now are the people of God: you who had not received mercy, but now have received mercy (See HOSEA 2:23).

¹¹Beloved, I urge you as strangers and pilgrims to keep yourselves away from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul. ¹²Make your behavior wholesome among the Gentiles, so that (with regard to that in which they speak against you as evil doers) through witnessing your good works, they may glorify God in the day of His visitation.

¹³Therefore be obedient to every law of man for the Lord’s sake—whether to a king as supreme, ¹⁴or to governors as sent by Him to punish evil doers and to praise those who do well. ¹⁵Because so is the will of God, to put to silence the ignorance of foolish men by well doing. ¹⁶As free men, yet not having freedom as a cover of evil feeling, but as servants of God, ¹⁷honor all men—love the brotherhood—fear God—honor the ruler.

¹⁸Servants, be obedient to your masters with all fear—not only to the good and gentle ones, but also to the wicked ones. ¹⁹For this is pleasing to God, if for the sake of conscience towards God anyone patiently endures sorrows, suffering unjustly. ²⁰For what glory is it if you patiently endure when you are sinning and are being whipped for it? But if you patiently endure when you are doing good, and suffering for it, this is pleasing to God. ²¹For you were called to this, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example so that you should follow His steps—²²who did no sin, neither was guile found in His mouth, ²³who did not speak evil in return when evil was being spoken to Him. He did not threaten when He was suffering, but He gave Himself over to Him who judges righteously. ²⁴He Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, so that we, being dead to sins, might live unto righteousness—by whose stripes you were healed. ²⁵For you were as sheep going astray, but are now returned to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls (See ISAIAH 53:4-12).

¹Likewise, wives, be subject to your own husbands—so that, even if any do not believe the word, they may without a word be won by the behavior of the wives—²watching your pure behavior carried out in godly fear. ³When you make yourself beautiful, let it not be by the outward braiding of hair and putting on of gold, or by putting on clothes, ⁴but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in the beauty of a meek and quiet spirit which can never be corrupted—which is of great value in the sight of God. ⁵For in this way in the old days too, the holy women (the ones who were trusting in God) made themselves beautiful, being subject to their own husbands. ⁶Even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord—whose children you became, doing good and not fearing any terror. ⁷Likewise, you husbands live with the woman according to knowledge, giving her honor, as to a weaker vessel, as also being heirs together of the grace of life, so that your prayers may not be cut off.

⁸Finally, all of you be of one mind. Have pity, loving the brothers. Be tender-hearted and friendly. ⁹Never give evil for evil, nor evil-speaking for evil-speaking. But on the contrary, give blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you should inherit blessing. ¹⁰For he that wants to love life and to see good days, let him stop his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit. ¹¹Let him turn aside from evil, and let him do good. Let him seek peace, and let him run after it—¹²because the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers. But the face of the Lord is against the ones who are doing evil.

¹³And who is he that shall hurt you if you are imitators of that which is good? ¹⁴But if you also should suffer on account of righteousness, blessed are you. But you should not be afraid of their fear, neither should you be troubled. ¹⁵But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to everyone that asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear—¹⁶*always* having a good conscience, so that in the thing regarding which they speak against you as evildoers, they who lie against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed. ¹⁷For it is better, if the will of God desires it so, for you to suffer while doing good than while doing evil. ¹⁸Because even Christ once for all suffered for sins, the Just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to God—being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit. ¹⁹In which also, going to the spirits in prison, He preached ²⁰to those who did not believe in times gone by—when at one time the longsuffering of God was waiting—in the days of Noah—while the ark was being prepared. In which ark, a few, that is, eight souls were saved through water: ²¹which antitype now also saves us, even baptism—not a putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²²who is at the right hand of God. For He has gone into Heaven; angels and leaders and powers being subjected to Him.

¹Since, then, Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, you also arm yourselves with the same mind. For he that has suffered in the flesh has been set free from sin, ²to the end that he no longer will live the rest of the time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. ³For the time of life which is past is enough for us to have worked out the will of the heathen, when we walked in wantonness, lusts, wine-drinking, parties, drinkings, and unholy idol-worshipping. ⁴In which matter they think it strange that you do not run with them into the same overflow of shamelessness, speaking evil of you. ⁵They shall give account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶For to this end also the Gospel was preached to the dead, so that they might be truly judged according to men in the flesh, but might live according to God in the Spirit. ⁷But the end of all things has drawn near. Therefore be right-minded, and be watchful unto prayers. ⁸And above all things have earnest love among yourselves, for love will cover a multitude of sins. ⁹Be hospitable to one another, without grumbings. ¹⁰According as each has received a gift, so minister it to each other, as good stewards of the many-sided grace of God. ¹¹If anyone speaks, let him speak as the very words of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as of the strength which God supplies—so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

¹²Beloved, do not be surprised at the fire of persecution which is taking place among you for your trial, as if a strange thing is happening to you. ¹³But even as you share in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice that also in the revealing of His glory you may be beside yourself with joy. ¹⁴If you are spoken evil of for the name of Christ, blessed are you, because the Spirit of God and of glory rests upon you. On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified. ¹⁵For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or as a meddler. ¹⁶But if one suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God because of this. ¹⁷For the time has come for the judgment to begin at the house of God. But if it first begins at us, what shall be the end of those who do not believe the Gospel of God? ¹⁸And if the righteous scarcely is saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? ¹⁹Therefore also those who suffer according to the will of God, as to a faithful Creator, let them commit their souls to Him in well-doing.

¹I (who am a fellow-elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ— who also am a partaker of the glory about to be revealed) urge the elders who are among you ²to shepherd the flock of God which is among you. Watch carefully over them, not by force, but willingly— not for evil gain, but with a ready mind— ³not as lording it over the things you have been given, but being examples to the flock. ⁴And when the chief Shepherd has been revealed, you shall receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

⁵Likewise, you younger, be subject to the elders. And all of you be subject to one another. Be clothed with an humble mind— because God sets Himself against the proud, but gives grace to the humble. ⁶Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that He may lift you up in due time— ⁷throwing all your care upon Him, because He cares about you. ⁸Be careful, watch! because your enemy, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may swallow up. ⁹Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing that the same kind of sufferings are being sent upon your brothers who are in the world. ¹⁰But may the God of all grace Himself (who has called us unto His everlasting glory in Christ Jesus) make you perfect after you have suffered a little while. May He make you stand fast. May He strengthen you. May He settle you. ¹¹To Him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

¹²By Sil-vā'-nūs, a faithful brother to you, as I think, I have written briefly, urging and testifying this to be the true grace of God, in which you stand. ¹³The church that is in Babylon, elected with you, greets you, and Mark my son. ¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be with you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The SECOND Letter of PETER

CHAPTER 1

¹Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received the same precious faith with us through the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ. ²Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

³Even as His godly power has given to us all things which have to do with life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by His glory and power — ⁴through which He has given to us very great and precious promises, so that through these promises you may become partakers of the divine nature — having escaped the rottenness that is in the world through lust.

⁵And for this very reason also, after you have added in all earnestness, fill out your faith with goodness — and your goodness with knowledge — ⁶and your knowledge with self-control — and your self-control with patience — and your patience with godliness — ⁷and your godliness with brotherly love — and your brotherly love with love. ⁸For if these things are in you and are plentiful, they do not make you either idle or unfruitful as to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹For he who does not have these things is blind and cannot see very far, for he has forgotten that he was made pure from his old sins. ¹⁰For this reason, my brothers, give all the more carefulness to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things you shall never stumble at any time. ¹¹For so shall the entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ be richly furnished to you.

¹²For this reason I will not fail to cause you always to remember these things, even though you know them and have been firmly settled in the present truth. ¹³But I think that as long as I am in this earthly dwelling it is good to stir you up into remembering these things. ¹⁴*For I* know that the putting off of my earthly dwelling is going to be soon, even as our Lord Jesus Christ showed to me. ¹⁵But I will also do my best always to see that you have these things in your memory after I am gone. ¹⁶For we have not followed cleverly invented fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eye-witnesses of His majesty. ¹⁷For when He had received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice came to Him from the magnificent glory, “This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I am well-pleased” (See MATTHEW 17:18). ¹⁸And we heard this voice which came down from Heaven, when we were with Him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹And we have the word of the prophets confirmed — to which you do well to pay attention, as you would to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day should dawn, and the Morning-Star should rise in your hearts—²⁰knowing this first, that not any prophecy of the Scripture is of its own interpretation. ²¹For prophecy was never at any time brought by the will of man, but the holy men of God spoke, being borne along by the Holy Spirit.

¹But there were also false prophets among the people—just as there will also be false teachers among you, who secretly will bring in false teachings which destroy. And they will deny the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves quick destruction. ²And many shall follow their destroying ways—because of them the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. ³And through greediness they will make gain of you through well-turned words—for whom judgment from of old is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep. ⁴For God did not spare the angels who sinned, but when He had thrown them into the deepest hell, He gave them up into chains of darkness to be kept unto Judgment. ⁵And He did not spare the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness—bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly. ⁶And turning the cities of Sodom and Gō-môr'-rāh into ashes, He condemned them with an overthrow—setting an example to those who were going to live ungodly. ⁷And He delivered righteous Lot, who was distressed by the filthy behavior of the lawless—⁸for day by day that just man's righteous soul was tormented with their lawless works, as he lived among them, seeing and hearing.

⁹*The* Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unjust unto a day of judgment to be punished, ¹⁰and especially those who walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and who hate government. They are bold, self-willed. They do not fear to speak evil of rulers—¹¹when even angels, who are greater in strength and power, do not bring a shaming charge against them before the Lord. ¹²But like the natural animals who have no reason, who have been born to be caught and destroyed, speaking hurtfully in things they know nothing of, they shall utterly perish in their own rottenness, ¹³being about to receive the reward of lawlessness. For they count it pleasure to riot in the daytime, being spotty and disgraceful men, taking great joy in their falsehoods as they feast with you. ¹⁴*They* have eyes full of an adulteress and that never stop sinning—drawing to themselves souls that are not settled. They have a heart full of the desire to have more and more. They are cursed children. ¹⁵Leaving the right way, they went astray, following in the way of Bā'-lāam the son of Beor, who loved the reward of unrighteousness ¹⁶(but he was reproved of his own wickedness when the dumb beast of burden spoke in the voice of man, forbidding the madness of the prophet). ¹⁷These are springs without water, clouds being driven by storm—for whom the blackness of darkness is kept forever. ¹⁸For in speaking great swelling words of vanity, by the lusts of the flesh and by wicked looseness, they draw those who indeed had escaped from the ones who walk in error. ¹⁹*They* promise them freedom while they themselves are the slaves of corruption — for by whom anyone has been overcome, by the same he also is held in slavery. ²⁰For if through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ they have escaped the filthy vices of the world, but when they have become tangled up in these again, they are overcome — their last state is worse than the first. ²¹For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, knowing it, to have turned away from the holy commandment delivered to them. ²²But the teaching of the true proverb has happened to them: The dog has returned to his own vomit, and, The sow who was washed has returned to her rolling place in the mud.

¹This second letter, my beloved, I now write to you, in which I stir up your pure mind to remember ²to pay attention to the words spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of the Lord and Saviour by us, the apostles. ³First, you know this, that scoffers will come in the last days — walking according to their own lusts, ⁴and saying, Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue this way from the beginning of the creation. ⁵For by their own will this is hidden from them — that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth was made to stand out of the water, and in the water ⁶(through which waters the old world perished when it had been flooded with water). ⁷But the heavens and the earth which now exist are kept by the same word, being kept for fire unto the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. ⁸But do not let this one thing be hidden from you, my beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. ⁹The Lord is not slow as to the promise, as some think of slowness, but He is longsuffering towards us — not willing for any to be lost, but all to come to repentance. ¹⁰But the day of the Lord shall come as a thief in the night — in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt away with burning heat — and the earth and the works in it shall be burned up.

¹¹Since, then, all these things are to be melted away, what kind of persons ought you to be in holy behavior and godliness? ¹²*You should be* looking for and rushing the coming of the Day of God, on account of which the heavens, being on fire, will melt away — and the elements shall melt, burning with heat. ¹³But according to His promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells. ¹⁴For this reason, my beloved, since you are looking for these things, be careful to be found by Him in peace, without spot and without blame. ¹⁵And think of the longsuffering of our Lord as salvation—even as our beloved brother Paul wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him ¹⁶(as also in all his letters, speaking about these things in them—among which there are some things which are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled ones twist—as they also do the other Scriptures—to their own destruction).

¹⁷You therefore, my beloved, knowing this beforehand, be careful lest you may be led away with the error of the lawless ones and may fall from your own firm stand. ¹⁸But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

The FIRST Letter of JOHN

¹We report to you that which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we looked upon and handled with our hands, as regards the Word of life. ²And the Life was revealed. And we have seen, and bear witness, and report to you that everlasting Life which was with the Father, and which was revealed to us. ³We report to you what we have seen and what we have heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son, Jesus Christ. ⁴And we write these things to you so that your joy may be full.

⁵And this is the message which we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is light, and there is no darkness at all in Him. ⁶If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and we do not practice the truth. ⁷But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another — and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

¹My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone should sin, we have a Helper with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous One. ²And He is the propitiation for our sins — but not for ours only, but also for the whole world.

³And by this we know that we have known Him — if we keep His commandments. ⁴He that says, I have known Him, but is not keeping His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. ⁵But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God has been perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him. ⁶He that says he rests in Him ought also to walk in the same way as He walked. ⁷*My* brothers, I do not write a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning. ⁸Again I write to you a new commandment, which is true in Him and in you — because the darkness is passing away, and the true Light already shines. ⁹He that says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness even until now. ¹⁰He that loves his brother rests in the light and there is no cause of stumbling in him. ¹¹But he that hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and he does not know where he goes, because the darkness blinds his eyes.

¹²I write to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you for His name's sake. ¹³I write to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father.

¹⁴I wrote to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I wrote to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.

¹⁵Do not love the world or the things in the world! If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, ¹⁶because all that which is in the world—the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father, but is of the world. ¹⁷And the world is passing away, and the lust of it. But he that does the will of God remains for ever.

¹⁸Little children, it is the last hour. And just as you heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen—from which we know that it is the last hour. ¹⁹They went out from among us, but they were not of us—for if they were of us, they would have stayed with us. But this was so that they might become known, that they are not of us. ²⁰But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. ²¹I did not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it—and that no lie is ever of the truth. ²²Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is the antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. ²³Everyone that denies the Son does not have the Father either. ²⁴You then let that abide in you which you have heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also shall abide in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵And this is the promise He promised us—life everlasting. ²⁶I wrote these things to you concerning those who lead you astray. ²⁷And the anointing which you received from Him remains in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But even as the same anointing teaches you about all things, and is true, and is not a lie—and even as it taught you—you shall abide in Him. ²⁸And now, little children, abide in Him so that when He is revealed we may have boldness, and may not be put to shame from before Him at His coming.

²⁹If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of Him.

CHAPTER 3

¹See what love the Father has given to us, that we should be called the children of God! For this reason, the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. ²*My* beloved, now we are children of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be. But we know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him — for we shall see Him as He is. ³And everyone that has this hope in him purifies himself, even as He is pure.

⁴Everyone that practices sin also practices lawlessness — and sin is lawlessness. ⁵And you know that He was revealed so that He might take away our sins — and in Him there is no sin. ⁶Everyone who remains in Him does not sin. Everyone that sins has not seen Him, and has not known Him. ⁷Little children, do not let anyone lead you astray. He that practices righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. ⁸He that practices sin is of the devil, because the devil sins from the beginning. For this the Son of God was revealed, that He might undo the works of the devil. ⁹Anyone that has been born of God does not practice sin, because His seed remains in him, and he is not able to sin because he has been born of God. ¹⁰In this way the children of God are shown forth, and the children of the devil. Anyone that does not practice righteousness is not of God, and also he that does not love his brother. ¹¹Because this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another — ¹²not like Cain, who was of the wicked one, and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because his works were wicked, and the works of his brother were righteous.

¹³Do not wonder, my brothers, if the world hates you. ¹⁴We know that we have passed out of death into life because we love the brothers. He that does not love his brother continues in death. ¹⁵Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer — and you know that no murderer has everlasting life abiding in him.

¹⁶By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us — and we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers. ¹⁷But whoever has the means of life of the world, and sees that his brother has need, and shuts up his tender feelings from him, how does the love of God live in him? ¹⁸My little children, we should not love in word, nor with tongue, but in work and in truth. ¹⁹And by this we know that we are of the truth and shall convince our hearts before Him. ²⁰For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart and knows all things. ²¹Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence towards God. ²²And whatever we may ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments, and we practice the things which are pleasing in His sight. ²³And this is His commandment, that we should believe on the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and that we should love one another, even as He commanded us. ²⁴And he that keeps His commandments lives in Him, and He in him — and by this we know that He lives in us, by the Spirit which He gave to us.

¹Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they are of God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. ²By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God. ³And any spirit which does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is that spirit of the antichrist of which you have heard that it comes. And now it is already in the world. ⁴Little children, you are of God and have overcome them because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. ⁵They are of the world. This is why they speak of the world, and the world hears them. ⁶We are of God. He that knows God hears us. He that is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

⁷Beloved, we should love one another — because love is of God, and everyone that loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸He that does not love never knew God, because God is love. ⁹In this the love of God was revealed in us, that God has sent His Son, the Only-begotten, into the world so that we might live through Him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be a propitiation for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. ¹²No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God lives in us and His love is perfected in us. ¹³By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given to us from His Spirit. ¹⁴And we have seen and bear witness that the Father has sent the Son as Saviour of the world.

¹⁵Whoever may confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him and he in God. ¹⁶And we have known and have believed the love which God has in us. God is love, and he that continues in love continues in God, and God in him. ¹⁷In this has love been made perfect with us, that we may have confidence in the Day of Judgment — that even as He is, so are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love — but perfect love thrusts out fear, because fear has torment — and he that fears has not been made perfect in love. ¹⁹We love Him because He first loved us.

²⁰If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar. For he that does not love his brother whom he has seen, how is he able to love God whom he has not seen? ²¹And we have this commandment from Him, that he that loves God should also love his brother.

CHAPTER 5

¹Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God. And whoever loves Him who brought to birth also loves him that has been born in Him. ²By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments. ³For this is the love of God, that we should keep His commandments, and His commandments are not too burdensome. ⁴Because all that has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. ⁵Who is he that overcomes the world but he that believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶This is He that came by means of water and blood, Jesus the Christ. He came not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three who bear witness in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. ⁸And there are three who bear witness on the earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood — and the three are witnesses to the one thing. ⁹If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater. Because this is the witness of God which He has witnessed concerning His Son. ¹⁰He that believes on the Son of God has the witness in himself. He that does not believe God has made Him a liar — because he has not believed in the witness which God has testified concerning His Son. ¹¹And this is the witness, that God gave to us everlasting life — and this life is in His Son. ¹²He that has the Son has life. He that does not have the Son of God does not have life.

¹³I wrote these things to you who believe on the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have everlasting life — and so that you may believe on the name of the Son of God. ¹⁴And this is the confidence which we have towards Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us — ¹⁵and if we know that He hears us, whatever we may ask, we know that we have the prayers which we have asked from Him.

¹⁶If anyone should see his brother sinning a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and He shall give him life for those that do not sin unto death. There is a sin unto death — I do not say that he should ask in regard to that. ¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin — and there is a sin which is not unto death. ¹⁸We know that everyone who has been born of God does not sin — but he that was born of God keeps himself, and the wicked one does not touch him. ¹⁹We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the wicked one. ²⁰And we know that the Son of God has come, and He has given us an understanding that we might know Him that is true. And we are in Him that is true, even in His Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and everlasting life.

²¹Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

The SECOND Letter of JOHN

¹The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth—and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth, ²for the sake of the truth which lives in us and shall be with us for ever. ³Grace, mercy and peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

⁴I was so very happy that I have found some of your children walking in truth, just as we received commandment from the Father. ⁵And now I beg of you, lady, not as though I were writing a new commandment to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we should love one another. ⁶And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you might walk in it. ⁷Because many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess that Jesus Christ is coming in the flesh—this is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸Watch yourselves so that you may not lose what things we have worked out, but that we may receive a full reward. ⁹Whoever oversteps, and does not continue in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. He that continues in the teaching of Christ, this one has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, and do not say to him, Greeting! ¹¹For he who says to him, Greeting! takes part in his evil works.

¹²Since I have many things to write to you, I do not want to write with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak mouth to mouth so that our joy may be full.

¹³The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

The THIRD Letter of JOHN

¹The elder to Gā'-iūs the beloved, whom I love in truth.

²Beloved, in regard to all things I wish you to do well and to be in good health, even as your soul is doing well. ³For I was very happy when the brothers came and testified of your truth, even as you walk in truth. ⁴I have no joy greater than this, that I should hear of my children walking in truth. ⁵Beloved, faithfully you do whatever you do for the brothers and for the strangers, ⁶(who witnessed of your love before the church,) whom you will do well to set forward in a manner worthy of God. ⁷For they went out for the Name, taking nothing from the nations. ⁸We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow-helpers with the truth.

⁹I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes [Dī-ōt'-rē-fēēs], who loves to be chief among them, did not receive us. ¹⁰For this reason, if I come, I will bring the works which he does to his memory, speaking against us with evil words. And not satisfied with these, he himself does not receive the brothers, and forbids those who would do so, and throws them out of the church. ¹¹Beloved, do not follow that which is evil, but what is good. He that does good is of God, but he that does evil has not seen God.

¹²Dě-mē'-trī-ūs has a good report by all, and by the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our witness is true.

¹³I had many things to write, but I do not want to write to you with pen and ink. ¹⁴But I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak mouth to mouth. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

The Letter of JUDE

¹Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, to the ones who are set apart in God the Father and kept in Jesus Christ—the called ones. ²Mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

³Beloved, using all diligence to write to you regarding the common salvation, I had need to write to you urging you to earnestly contend for the faith once for all delivered to the saints. ⁴For certain men came secretly creeping in, they who were before of old marked out to this judgment, ungodly ones who are changing the grace of our God into evil doing and denying the only Master—our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

⁵But I would have you remember, though you once knew this, that when the Lord had saved a people out of the land of Egypt, in the second place He destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶And angels who did not keep their own original state, but left their own dwelling-place, He keeps in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great Day. ⁷Just as Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh (and the cities around them in the same manner with them) had given themselves unto fōr-nī-cā'-tion, and had gone after other flesh, they are set forth as an example, undergoing punishment of everlasting fire. ⁸Yet in the same way these dreamers also defile the flesh, despise government and speak evil of leaders. ⁹But Michael the archangel, when he was setting himself against the devil, arguing about the body of Moses, he did not dare to bring an evil charge against him. But he said, The Lord rebuke you! ¹⁰But these men—whatever things they do not know, they speak evil of. But what they know by nature, like the animals without reason, they corrupt themselves in these things. ¹¹Woe to them! because they have gone in the way of Cain, and have run greedily into the error of Balaam for reward, and have been lost in the gainsaying of Korah. ¹²These are hidden rocks in your love feasts, feasting together with you, without fear setting themselves out to pasture. They are clouds without water, being carried about by winds. They are autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots. ¹³*They are* wild waves of the sea foaming out their own shame—wandering stars to whom the blackness of darkness has been kept for ever.

¹⁴And Enoch, the seventh from Adam, also foretold of these, saying, “Behold, the Lord comes with myriads of His holy ones ¹⁵to execute judgment against all, and to convict all the ones who were ungodly among them regarding all their works of ungodliness which they did in an ungodly way—and regarding all the hard things which ungodly sinners spoke against Him.” ¹⁶These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts. And their mouth speaks great swelling words, admiring persons for the sake of gain. ¹⁷But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁸*Remember* that they told you that there will be mockers in the last time, walking after their own ungodly lusts. ¹⁹These are they who set themselves apart, animal-like men who do not have the Spirit. ²⁰But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto everlasting life. ²²And have pity on some, making a difference. ²³But save others with fear, snatching them out of the fire, hating even the clothing spotted by the flesh.

²⁴And unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you without blame before the presence of His glory, with unspeakable joy—²⁵unto the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, authority and power, both now and forever. Amen.

The REVELATION of John

CHAPTER 1

¹The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him to show to His servants those things which must take place shortly. And He showed it by sending His angel to His servant John, ²who bore record of the word of God and the witness of Jesus Christ, and whatever things he saw. ³Blessed is he that reads, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep the things written in it—for the time is near.

⁴John, to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come—and from the seven Spirits which are before His throne—⁵and from Jesus Christ, the faithful Witness, the First-born from among the dead and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His blood, ⁶and made us kings and priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the might forever and ever. Amen.

⁷Behold! He comes with the clouds. And every eye shall see Him, and those who pierced Him shall see Him—and all the tribes of the earth shall wail on account of Him. Even so, Amen.

⁸I am the A and the Z, the Beginning and the Ending, says the Lord, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

⁹I, John, even your brother and companion in the trials and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the island which is called Patmos, because of the word of God, and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰I came to be in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, ¹¹saying, I am the A and the Z, the First and the Last. And, What you see write in a book and send it to the churches in Asia—to Ĕph'-ĕ-sūs, and to Smyrna [Smer'-nā], and to Per'-gā-mos, and to Thy-ā-tī-rā, and to Sār'-dīs, and to Phīl-ā-dēl'-phī-ā, and to Lā-ōd-ī-cē'-ā. ¹²And I turned to see the voice which spoke with me, and turning I saw seven golden lampstands. ¹³And in the middle of the seven lampstands I saw One like the Son of man, clothed in a garment reaching to the feet, and tied at the breasts with a golden band. ¹⁴And His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow. And His eyes were like a flame of fire. ¹⁵And His feet were like fine brass, as if made to glow in a furnace. And His voice was like the voice of many waters. ¹⁶And He had seven stars in His right hand, and there was a sharp two-edged sword going forth out of His mouth. And His face was as the sun shines in its power. ¹⁷And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. And He laid His right hand on me, saying to me, Do not fear. I am the First and the Last ¹⁸and the Living One. And I became dead, and behold! I am alive forever and ever. Amen. And I have the keys of hell and of death. ¹⁹Write the things which you saw, and the things which are, and the things which are going to take place after these things: ²⁰The mystery of the seven stars which you saw on My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2

¹To the angel of the church of Ēph'-ē-sūs write this: He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, He that is walking in the middle of the seven golden lampstands, says these things. ²I know your works and your labor and your patience, and that you cannot bear evil men, and that you tried the ones pretending to be apostles, and are not, and that you found them to be liars. ³And I know that you did bear up, and that you have patience, and that for My name's sake you have labored and have not become weary. ⁴But I have this against you, that you left your first love. ⁵Remember then where you have fallen from, and repent, and do the first works. And if you do not, I will come to you quickly and will move your lampstand out of its place — unless you repent. ⁶But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nīc-ō-lā-ī'-tāns, which I also hate. ⁷He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes I will give him to eat of the tree of life, which is in the middle of the paradise of God.

⁸And to the angel of the church of Smyrna [Smer'-nā], write this: He who is the First and the Last, who became dead and lived again, says these things. ⁹I know your works and trouble and poverty — but you are rich. And I know the evil speaking of those who claim themselves to be Jews, and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰Do not at all fear the things which you are about to suffer. Behold! The devil is about to throw some of you into prison so that you may be tested — and you shall have ten days of trials. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. ¹¹He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He that overcomes shall never in any way be hurt by the second death.

¹²And to the angel of the church in Per'-gā-mos write this: He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things. ¹³I know your works and where you live, where the throne of Satan is. And I know that you hold My name fast, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Ān'-tī-pās was My faithful witness — who was killed among you, where Satan lives. ¹⁴But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who are holding fast to the teaching of Bā'-lāam, who taught Bā'-lāk to throw a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit fôr-nî-câ'-tion. ¹⁵So do you also have those who are holding fast to the teaching of the Nîc-ô-lâ-î'-tâns, which thing I hate. ¹⁶Repent! But if you do not, I will come to you quickly, and I will make war with them with the sword in My mouth. ¹⁷He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him that overcomes, I will give to him to eat of the hidden manna. And I will give to him a white stone, and on the stone a new name has been written — which no one knew except he who received it.

¹⁸And to the angel of the church in Thy-ă-tî'-ră write this: The Son of God, He who has His eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like fine brass, says these things. ¹⁹I know your works and love and service and faith, and your patience — and your works, even the last to be more than the first. ²⁰But I have a few things against you — that you allow that woman Jěz'-ê-běl (the one who calls herself a prophetess) to teach and to lead My servants astray to commit fôr-nî-câ'-tion and to eat things sacrificed to idols. ²¹And I gave her time so that she might repent of her fôr-nî-câ'-tion, and she did not repent. ²²Behold! I will throw her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great trouble, unless they should repent of their works. ²³And I will kill her children with death. And all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the inner parts and hearts. And I will give to each of you according to your works. ²⁴But to you I say, and to the rest who are in Thy-ă-tî'-ră, (as many as do not have this teaching, and who did not know the deep things of Satan, as they say) I will not put upon you any other load. ²⁵But what you have, hold fast until I shall come. ²⁶And he that overcomes, and he that keeps My works until the end, I will give to him authority over the nations. ²⁷And he shall shepherd them with a rod of iron, even as vessels of pottery are broken in pieces, even as I also have received from My Father — ²⁸and I will give to him the Morning Star. ²⁹He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹And to the angel of the church in Săr'-dis write this: He who has the Spirits of God and the seven stars says these things. I know your works, that you have the name that you live, and are dead. ²Be watchful and make strong the things that remain, which are about to die. For I have not found your works perfect before God. ³Remember then how you have received and heard, and keep them, and repent. If therefore you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you shall not know in what hour I shall come upon you. ⁴You have a few names also in Sardis which have not made their robes unclean. And they shall walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. ⁵He that overcomes, this one shall be clothed in white robes, and I will never in any way blot out his name from the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. ⁶He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

⁷And to the angel of the church in Phil-ă-děl'-phiă write this: The Holy, The True, He that has the key of David, He that opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens, says these things. ⁸I know your works. Behold! I have set an open door before you, and no one is able to shut it, because you have a little power, and did keep My word, and did not deny My name. ⁹Behold! I give you those of the synagogue of Satan, the ones claiming themselves to be Jews, and are not, but lie. Behold! I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and to know that I loved you. ¹⁰Because you kept the word of My patience, I also will keep you out of the hour of trial which is about to come upon the whole world to try those who live upon the earth. ¹¹Behold! I come quickly. Hold fast what you have so that no one may take your crown. ¹²He that overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God. And he shall never go out any more. And I will write the name of My God upon him, and the name of the city of My God—the new Jerusalem which comes down out of Heaven from My God—and I will write My new name upon him. ¹³He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹⁴And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans [Lăy-ödd-î-sêe'-ans] write this: The Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God, says these things. ¹⁵I know your works—that you are neither cold nor hot. I would rather you were cold or hot. ¹⁶So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spit you out of My mouth. ¹⁷Because you say, I am rich, and have need of nothing—and do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked—¹⁸I advise you to buy from Me gold made pure by fire, so that you may be rich, and white robes, so that you may be clothed, and the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed—and to anoint your eyes with eye salve so that you may see. ¹⁹As many as I love I rebuke and discipline. Therefore be fervent and repent. ²⁰Behold! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me. ²¹He that overcomes, I will give to him to sit with Me on My throne, even as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. ²²He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹After these things I looked, and behold! a door opened in Heaven. And the first voice I heard was like that of a trumpet speaking with me, saying, Come up here and I will show you what things must take place after these things. ²And instantly I came to be in the Spirit. And behold! a throne was set in Heaven, and One was sitting upon the throne. ³And He who was sitting there looked like a jasper stone and a sär'-dī-ūs. And a rainbow was around the throne, looking like an emerald. ⁴And twenty-four thrones were around the throne. And I saw twenty-four elders sitting on the thrones, clothed in white robes. And they had golden crowns on their heads. ⁵And out of the throne lightnings and thunders and voices went forth. And seven lamps of fire were burning in front of the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. ⁶And a sea of glass was in front of the throne, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind. ⁷And the first living creature was like a lion. And the second living creature was like a calf. And the third living creature had the face of a man. And the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. ⁸And each one of the four living creatures had six wings about him, and within they were full of eyes. And they never stop day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come. ⁹And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him who sits upon the throne, who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits upon the throne. And they worship Him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹O Lord, Thou art worthy to receive glory and honor and power, because Thou didst create all things, and for Thy will they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5

¹And I saw a book on the right hand of Him who sits upon the throne. It was written on the inside and on the back, and had been sealed with seven seals. ²And I saw a strong angel shouting with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book and to loose the seals of it? ³And no one in Heaven or upon the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look at it. ⁴And I was crying very much because no one was found who was worthy to open and to read the book, or to look at it. ⁵And one of the elders said to me, Do not cry. Behold! The Lion which is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so as to open the book and to loose the seven seals of it. ⁶And I saw, and behold! in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb was standing, just as if it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes (which are the seven Spirits of God which have been sent into all the earth). ⁷And He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him who sits upon the throne.

⁸And when He took the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. And each had harps and golden bowls full of incenses, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹And they sang a new song, saying, Worthy art Thou to take the book, and to open its seals; because Thou wast slain, and didst purchase us unto God by Thy blood—out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation. ¹⁰And Thou didst make us kings and priests to our God. And we shall rule over the earth. ¹¹And I saw, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, and of the living creatures, and of the elders—and the number of them was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, ¹²saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that has been slain to receive power and riches and wisdom, and strength and honor and glory and blessing. ¹³And I heard every creature which is in Heaven, and in the earth, and under the earth, the ones that are on the sea, and all the things in them, saying, To Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, blessing, and honor, and glory, and might forever and ever. ¹⁴And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshipped Him who lives forever and ever.

CHAPTER 6

¹And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals. And I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, Come and see. ²And I saw. And behold, a white horse! And He that was sitting upon it had a bow. And a crown was given to Him. And He went out overcoming, and in order that He might overcome.

³And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come and see. ⁴And another, a red horse, went forth. And to him that was sitting upon it power was given to him to take peace from the earth—and so that they should kill one another. And a great sword was given to him.

⁵And when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come and see. And I saw. And behold, a black horse! And he that was sitting on it had a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, A quart of wheat for a piece of money, and three quarts of barley for a piece of money. And you may not hurt the oil and the wine.

⁷And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come and see. ⁸And I saw. And behold, a pale horse! And he that was sitting upon it had Death as his name. And hell follows with him. And they were given the right to kill with a sword over the fourth part of the earth—even with famine and with death, and by the beasts of the earth.

⁹And when He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been killed because of the word of God, and because of the witness which they held. ¹⁰And they were crying with a loud voice, saying, O Master, the Holy and the True, how long dost Thou not judge and avenge our blood upon those who live upon the earth? ¹¹And to each were given white robes. And it was said to them that they should rest yet a little time, until both their fellowservants and their brothers (the ones about to be killed as they were) should have their number made complete.

¹²And I saw when He opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake! And the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair. And the moon became as blood. ¹³And the stars of the sky fell upon the earth, like a fig tree casts its figs out of season when shaken by a mighty wind. ¹⁴And the sky departed like a book being rolled up. And every mountain and island were moved out of their places. ¹⁵And the kings of the earth, and the great ones, and the rich, and the chief captains, and the powerful ones, and every slave, and every freeman hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶And they said to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits upon the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb—¹⁷because the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?

¹And after these things I saw four angels standing upon the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind might blow on the earth, or on the sea or upon any tree. ²And I saw another angel, who had come up from the rising of the sun, and who had the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to them to hurt the earth and the sea, saying, ³Do not hurt the earth or the sea or the trees until we seal the servants of our God on their foreheads. ⁴And I heard the number of the sealed ones—one hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel. ⁵Out of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand were sealed. ⁶Out of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Naphtali [Nāf'-tä-li], twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, twelve thousand were sealed. ⁷Out of the tribe of Sīm'-ě-ōn, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Is'-sā-chār, twelve thousand were sealed. ⁸Out of the tribe of Zēb-ū'-lun, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand were sealed. Out of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

⁹After these things I looked, and behold, a great crowd! And no one was able to count it. For they were out of every nation, and of all tribes and peoples and tongues. And they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and they had palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰And crying with a loud voice, they said, Salvation to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb. ¹¹And all the angels, and the elders, and the four living creatures, stood around the throne. And they fell upon their face before the throne. And they worshipped God, ¹²saying, Amen — Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and strength to our God forever and ever. Amen.

¹³And one of the elders answered, saying to me, These who are clothed with the white robes, who are they? And where do they come from? ¹⁴And I said to him, My lord, you know. And he said to me, These are the ones who come out of the great trib-ū-lā'-tion. And they have washed their robes and have made their robes white in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵This is why they are before the throne of God, and why they serve Him day and night in His Temple. And He who sits upon the throne shall spread His tent over them. ¹⁶They shall not hunger any more, neither shall they thirst any more — nor shall the sun ever fall upon them, nor any heat — ¹⁷because the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them. And He will lead them to living fountains of waters. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

¹And when He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in Heaven about half an hour. ²And I saw the seven angels who stand before God. And seven trumpets were given to them. ³And another angel came and stood at the altar. And he had a golden censer, and much incense was given to him so that he might give it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. ⁴And the smoke of the incense went up with the prayers of the saints out of the hand of the angel before God. ⁵And the angel took the censer and filled it from the fire of the altar and threw it onto the earth. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

⁶And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets got themselves ready, so that they could sound their trumpets. ⁷And the first angel sounded his trumpet. And there came hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was thrown upon the earth. And the third part of the trees was burned up, and all the green grass was burned up. ⁸And the second angel sounded his trumpet. And as it were a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and the third part of the sea also became blood. ⁹And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea died — those which have life. And the third part of the ships were destroyed. ¹⁰And the third angel sounded his trumpet. And a great star fell out of the sky, burning like a lamp. And it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountain of waters. ¹¹And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third of the waters became wormwood. And many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. ¹²And the fourth angel sounded his trumpet. And the third part of the sun was struck, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars — so that the third part of them might be made dark, and the day should not shine for a third of it, and the night also.

¹³And I saw and heard one angel flying in the midst of Heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe! Woe! Woe to those who live on the earth, from the rest of the voices of the trumpet of the three angels who are going to sound their trumpets!

CHAPTER 9

¹And the fifth angel sounded his trumpet. And I saw a star which had fallen to the earth out of the sky. And there was given to it the key of the bottomless pit. ²And it opened the bottomless pit. And smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace. And the sun and the air were made dark by the smoke of the pit. ³And out of the smoke came forth locusts onto the earth. And power was given to them, as the scorpions [skôr'-pî-õns] of the earth have power. ⁴And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grass of the earth or any green thing or any tree, but only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months. And their torment is like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. ⁶And in those days men shall seek death, and shall not find it. And they shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. ⁷And the shapes of the locusts were like horses ready for war. And on their heads were as it were crowns like gold. And their faces were like the faces of men. ⁸And they had hair like the hair of women. And their teeth were like the teeth of lions. ⁹And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron. And the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, of many horses running to war. ¹⁰And they have tails like scorpions, and stings. And their power to hurt men five months was in their tails. ¹¹And they have a king over them, the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Hebrew is Ā-bād'-don. And in the Greek language, he has Apollyon [Ā-pōl'-li-on] for his name.

¹²The first woe is past. Behold! There are still two woes to come after these things.

¹³And the sixth angel sounded his trumpet. And I heard one voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, ¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates [Yōū-frāy'-tēez]. ¹⁵And the four angels were released — who had been made ready for the hour and day and month and year — that they might kill the third part of men. ¹⁶And the number of the armies of the horsemen was two myriads of myriads, and I heard the number of them. ¹⁷And so I saw the horses in the vision, and the ones who were sitting on them. They had fire-colored breast-plates, even dusky red and brimstone-like. And the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions. And out of their mouths came forth fire and smoke and brimstone. ¹⁸The third part of men were killed by these three — by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone — which came forth out of their mouths. ¹⁹For their powers are in their mouths — for their tails are like snakes with heads, and with them they hurt. ²⁰And the rest of men — who were not killed by these plagues — did not even repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship the demons, and the golden, and the silver, and the brass, and the stone, and the wooden idols — which can neither see nor hear nor walk. ²¹And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their magic arts, nor of their fôr-nî-câ'-tions, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

¹And I saw another mighty angel coming down out of Heaven, clothed with a cloud. And he had a rainbow on his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. ²And he had a little book open in his hand. And he placed his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth — ³and he cried with a loud voice, just as a lion roars. And when he cried, the seven thunders spoke their sounds. ⁴And when the seven thunders spoke their sounds, I was about to write. And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, Seal up the things which the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them. ⁵And the angel, whom I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to Heaven. ⁶And he swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created the heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it — that there should no longer be any time. ⁷But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is going to sound the trumpet, the mystery of God should also be completed, even as He preached to His servants the prophets.

⁸And the voice which I heard out of Heaven was again speaking with me, and saying, Go, Take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who is standing upon the sea and upon the earth. ⁹And I went to the angel, saying to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me, Take and eat it up. And it shall make your belly bitter, but it shall be sweet as honey in your mouth. ¹⁰And I took the little book out of the hand of the angel and ate it up. And it was like sweet honey in my mouth, and when I had eaten it, my belly was made bitter. ¹¹And he said to me. You must again prophesy in regard to many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.

CHAPTER 11

¹And a reed like a staff was given to me, saying, Get up and measure the Temple of God, and the altar, and the ones who worship in it. ²And leave out the court which is inside the Temple, and do not measure it — because it was given to the Gentiles, and they shall trample the holy city underfoot for forty-two months. ³And I will give power to My two witnesses, and they shall prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, dressed in sackcloth. ⁴These are the two olive trees, and the two lampstands which stand before the God of the earth. ⁵And if anyone should desire to hurt them, fire comes out of their mouth and eats their enemies. And if anyone should desire to hurt them, he must be killed in the same way. ⁶These have authority to shut up the sky, so that no rain may fall in the days of their prophecy. And they have authority over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague—as often as they desire. ⁷And when they shall have finished their witnessing, the beast who comes up out of the bottomless pit will make war with them. And he will overcome them and will kill them. ⁸And their bodies will be on the street of the great city, which is called spiritually Sodom, and Egypt—where our Lord also was crucified. ⁹And some of the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations shall see their bodies three days and a half. And they will not allow their bodies to be put into graves. ¹⁰And they that live upon the earth will rejoice over them, and they will make merry and will send gifts to one another—because these two prophets tormented those who live upon the earth. ¹¹And after three days and a half, the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet. And great fear fell upon those seeing them. ¹²And they heard a great voice out of Heaven saying to them, Come up here! And they went up to Heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them. ¹³And in that hour there was a great earthquake. And the tenth part of the city fell. And there were killed in the earthquake seven thousand names of men. And the rest became afraid and gave glory to the God of Heaven.

¹⁴The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

¹⁵And the seventh angel sounded his trumpet. And there were great voices in Heaven, saying, The kingdoms of the world have become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ—and He shall reign forever and ever. ¹⁶And the twenty-four elders, who sit before God upon their thrones, fell upon their faces and worshipped God, ¹⁷saying, We give thanks to Thee, O Lord God Almighty—who is and who was and who is to come—that Thou hast taken Thy great power and hast ruled. ¹⁸And the nations were angry, and Thy wrath has come. And the time has come for the dead to be judged and to give the reward to Thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to the ones who fear Thy name, the small and the great. And the time has come to bring to ruin those who have made the earth rotten. ¹⁹And the Temple of God in Heaven was opened. And the ark of His covenant was seen in His Temple. And there were lightnings and voices and thunders and an earthquake and great hail.

CHAPTER 12

¹And a great wonder appeared in Heaven — a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet. And on her head was a crown of twelve stars. ²And she was with child, and she cried, being in labor and in pain to bring forth.

³And another wonder appeared in Heaven. And behold, a great red dragon which had seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads! ⁴And his tail drags the third part of the stars of the sky, and he threw them onto the earth. And the dragon stands in front of the woman who is about to bring forth, so that when she should bring forth her child, he might eat it. ⁵And she brought forth a male, a son who is going to shepherd all the nations with a rod of iron. And her child was caught away to God and His throne. ⁶And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place made ready by God, so that there they should take care of her a thousand two hundred and sixty days.

⁷And there was war in Heaven: Michael and his angels made war against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels made war. ⁸And they did not win, nor was their place found in Heaven any more. ⁹And the great dragon was thrown out — the old serpent who is called the devil, and Satan — who leads the whole world astray. He was thrown into the earth, and his angels were thrown out with him. ¹⁰And I heard a great voice saying in Heaven, Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ, has come to pass — because the accuser of our brothers is thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. ¹¹And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony. And they did not love their life, even unto death. ¹²Because of this, rejoice O heavens, and you who live in them. Woe to those who live upon the earth and in the sea, because the devil has come down to you, and he has great anger, knowing that he has only a short time.

¹³And when the dragon saw that he was thrown onto the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the man child. ¹⁴And two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she might fly into the wilderness into her place — where she is taken care of for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. ¹⁵And the serpent put out water from his mouth like a river to go after the woman, so that he might cause her to be carried away with the river. ¹⁶And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon put forth out of his mouth. ¹⁷And the dragon was angry with the woman and went to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God, and who have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

¹And I stood upon the sand of the sea. And rising out of the sea I saw a beast which had seven heads and ten horns. And on its horns were ten crowns, and upon its heads was the name of blasphemy. ²And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and its feet like those of a bear, and its mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave his power to it, and his throne, and great authority. ³And I saw one of its heads as if it were wounded to death. And its deadly wound was healed. And the whole earth wondered after the beast. ⁴And they worshipped the dragon who gave authority to the beast. And they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with it? ⁵And to it was given a mouth to speak great things, and blasphemy. And authority was given to it to act forty-two months. ⁶And it opened its mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme against His name, and His tabernacle, and those who dwell in Heaven. ⁷And to it was given power to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. And authority was given to it over every tribe and tongue and nation. ⁸And all who live upon the earth shall worship it, all those whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world. ⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear. ¹⁰If anyone brings into captivity, into captivity he goes. If anyone will kill by a sword, with a sword he must be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

¹¹And I saw another beast rising out of the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, and it spoke as a dragon. ¹²And it uses all the authority of the first beast before it. And it causes the earth and the ones who live in it to worship the first beast—whose deadly wound was healed. ¹³And it works great miracles, that even fire should be made to come down out of the sky to the earth in the sight of men. ¹⁴And it leads astray those who live on the earth, because of the miracles which were given to it to work in the sight of the beast, commanding those who live on the earth to make an image to the beast—which has the wound of the sword, and lived. ¹⁵And it was given to it to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should even speak. And it should cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶And it causes all—the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave—that it should give them a mark on their right hand, or on their foreheads. ¹⁷And that no one should be able to buy or to sell, unless he has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of its name. ¹⁸Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding count the number of the beast. For it is a man's number, and its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

¹And I saw, and behold! a Lamb standing upon Mount Zion. And with Him were a hundred and forty-four thousand who had the name of His Father written upon their foreheads. ²And I heard a sound out of Heaven like the sound of many waters, and like a sound of great thunder. And I heard a sound of harpers playing on their harps. ³And they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. And no one was able to learn the song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been redeemed from the earth. ⁴These are they who were not made unclean with women—for they are virgins. These are they who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men as first-fruits unto God and unto the Lamb. ⁵And in their mouth was found no falseness, for they are without blame before the throne of God.

⁶And I saw another angel flying in the midst of Heaven, who had the everlasting Gospel to preach to those who live on the earth, even to every nation and tribe and tongue and people, ⁷saying with a loud voice, Fear God and give glory to Him, because the hour of His judgment has come. And worship Him who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

⁸And another angel followed, saying, The great city, Babylon, is fallen, is fallen—because she has given to all nations to drink of the wine of the fury of her fôr-nî-câ-tion.

⁹And a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on his forehead or upon his hand—¹⁰he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God which is poured out full strength in the cup of His anger—and he shall be tormented in fire and brimstone in the sight of the holy angels, and in the sight of the Lamb. ¹¹And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever—and they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and its image, and if anyone receives the mark of its name. ¹²Here is the patience of the saints. Here are they who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. ¹³And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from this time on. Yes, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors—and their works follow with them.

¹⁴And I saw, and behold, a white cloud! And upon the cloud One like the Son of man was sitting. And He had a golden crown upon His head, and in His hand was a sharp sickle. ¹⁵And another angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voice to Him sitting upon the cloud, Send forth Thy sickle and reap—because the hour has come for Thee to reap—because the harvest of the earth is ripe. ¹⁶And He who was sitting upon the cloud put forth His sickle upon the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷And another angel came out of the Temple which is in Heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸And another angel came out of the altar, who had authority over fire. And he called with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, Send your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe. ¹⁹And the angel put forth his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and he threw the fruit into the great winepress of the wrath of God. ²⁰And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came forth out of the winepress even to the bits of the horses, to the distance of two hundred miles.

CHAPTER 15

¹And I saw another wonder in Heaven, great and wonderful — seven angels who had the seven last plagues. For the wrath of God was completed in them.

²And I saw as it were a sea of glass mixed with fire. And the ones who had overcome the beast, and its image, and its mark, and the number of its name, were standing upon the sea of glass. And they had God's harps. ³And they sang the song of Moses, a servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and wonderful are Thy works, Lord God Almighty. Righteous and true are Thy ways, Thou King of the saints. ⁴Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy name? For Thou only art holy. For all the nations shall come and worship before Thee. For Thy righteous deeds were revealed.

⁵And after these things I saw, and behold! the Temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in Heaven was opened. ⁶And the seven angels came forth out of the Temple. And they had the seven plagues. And they were clothed in pure and bright linen, and were tied at the breasts with golden bands. ⁷And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever. ⁸And the Temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from His power. And no one was able to enter into the Temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

CHAPTER 16

¹And I heard a loud voice out of the Temple, saying to the seven angels, Go and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth. ²And the first went, and he poured out his bowl onto the earth. And an evil and vicious sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and those worshipping his image. ³And the second angel poured out his bowl onto the sea. And it became as the blood of a dead man. And every living soul in the sea died. ⁴And the third angel poured out his bowl onto the rivers, and onto the fountains of waters. And they became blood. ⁵And I heard the angel of the waters saying, O Lord, Thou art righteous, who is and who was, and the Holy One, that Thou didst judge these things. ⁶For they poured out the bloods of saints and of prophets, and Thou didst give them blood to drink—for they deserve it. ⁷And I heard another out of the altar saying, Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Thy judgments.

⁸And the fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun. And it was given to him to scorch men with fire. ⁹And men were scorched with great heat, so that they blasphemed the name of God—who has authority over these plagues. And they did not repent to give Him glory. ¹⁰And the fifth angel poured out his bowl upon the throne of the beast. And its kingdom was made dark. And they were biting their tongues from the pain. ¹¹And they blasphemed the God of Heaven for their pains and for their sores. And they did not repent of their works. ¹²And the sixth angel poured out his bowl upon the great river Euphrates [Yōū-frāy'-tēez]. And its water was dried up, so that the ways of the kings from the rising of the sun might be made ready. ¹³And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, like frogs. ¹⁴For they are the spirits of demons, working miracles, to go forth to the kings of the earth and of the whole world to gather them together to the battle of that great day of God, the Almighty. ¹⁵Behold! I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he may not walk naked and they see his shame. ¹⁶And he gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Ār-mā-géd'-dōn.

¹⁷And the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. And a loud voice came out from the Temple of Heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done! ¹⁸And there were voices and thunders and lightnings. And there was a great earthquake, such as has not come to pass since men were on the earth—so mighty and so great an earthquake was it. ¹⁹And the great city came apart into three parts. And the cities of the nations fell. And the great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fury of His wrath. ²⁰And every island fled away. And no mountains were found. ²¹And a great hail, like the weight of a talent, came down out of the sky upon men. And men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hail—for its plague is very, very great.

¹And one of the seven angels (of those who had the seven bowls) came and spoke with me, saying to me, Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits upon the many waters—²with whom the kings of the earth committed fôr-nĩ-că'-tion. And those that live upon the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fôr-nĩ-că'-tion. ³And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet beast, full of names of blasphemy. And the beast had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴And the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was made golden with gold and precious stones and pearls. And she had a golden cup in her hand which was full of hateful things, and of the uncleanness of her fornication. ⁵And a name was written upon her forehead, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, the mother of the harlots, and of the hateful things of the earth. ⁶And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. And I wondered with great wonder when I saw her. ⁷And the angel said to me, Why did you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast which carries her — which has the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸*The* beast which you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the bottomless pit, and to go into perdition. And they who live upon the earth, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast which was, and is not, and yet is.

⁹Here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains, where the woman sits upon them. ¹⁰And there are seven kings — the five have fallen, and the one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must stay a little while. ¹¹And the beast which was, and is not, he also is an eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into perdition. ¹²And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, which have not yet received a kingdom — but will receive authority as kings one hour with the beast. ¹³These have one mind. And they shall give up their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴These will make war with the Lamb. And the Lamb will overcome them — because He is Lord of lords and King of kings. And those that are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful ones. ¹⁵And he says to me, The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are people and multitudes and nations and tongues. ¹⁶And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these shall hate the harlot. And they shall make her poor and naked, and they shall eat her flesh and shall burn her with fire. ¹⁷For God has put into their hearts to do His will, and to act in one mind — and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. ¹⁸And the woman whom you saw is the great city, which has rulership over the kings of the earth.

¹And after these things I saw an angel coming down out of Heaven. And he had great authority, and the earth was lighted up by his glory.

²And he cried mightily with a loud voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen. And it has become a home of demons, and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hated bird — ³because all the nations have drunk of the wine of the fury of her fôr-nî-câ'-tion. And the kings of the earth committed fôr-nî-câ'-tion with her. And the merchants of the earth were made rich through the power of her luxury.

⁴And I heard another voice out of Heaven, saying, Come forth out of her, My people, so that you do not have any part in her sins, and so that you may not receive of her plagues — ⁵for her sins followed as far as Heaven, and God remembered her wicked deeds. ⁶Give to her even as she also gave to you, and double to her double, according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her twice as much. ⁷As much as she glorified herself and lived in luxury, so much torment and sadness give to her. Because she says in her heart, I sit as a queen, and I am not a widow — and, I will in no way see sorrow — ⁸because of this her plagues shall come in one day, death and sorrow and hungering. And she shall be burned with fire. For the Lord God who judges her is strong. ⁹And the kings of the earth shall weep for her and shall wail for her — the ones who committed fôr-nî-câ'-tion with her and lived in luxury — when they see the smoke of her burning, ¹⁰standing afar off because of the fear of her torment — saying, Woe! Woe! The great city, Babylon, the strong city! for in one hour your judgment has come. ¹¹And the merchants of the earth weep and grieve for her, because no one buys their goods any more — ¹²goods of gold, and of silver, and of precious stone, and of pearl, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silk, and of scarlet, and all thyine wood, and every article of ivory, and every article of most precious wood, and of brass, and of iron, and of marble, ¹³and cinnamon, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil and finest flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and of horses, and of chariots, and of the bodies and souls of men. ¹⁴And the ripe fruit of the lust of your soul has gone away from you, and all the fat things and all the bright things have left you — and you shall never find them any more.

¹⁵The merchants of these things, who were made rich from her, shall stand afar off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and grieving, ¹⁶and saying, Woe! Woe! to the great city which was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and which was made golden with gold and precious stone and pearls. ¹⁷For in one hour so much wealth was made nothing. And every ship-pilot, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off ¹⁸and cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like the great city? ¹⁹And they threw dust upon their heads, and cried — weeping and wailing—saying, Woel Woel to the great city, in which all who had ships in the sea were made rich from her riches. For in one hour she was made nothing. ²⁰Rejoice over her, O Heaven, and you holy apostles, and you prophets. For God has judged your judgment upon her.

²¹And one mighty angel took up a stone, like a great millstone, and threw it into the sea, saying, In this way Babylon the great city shall be thrown down with great power, and it will never be found any longer. ²²And the sound of harpers and musicians and flute-players and trumpet-players shall never be heard in you any longer. And no skillful worker of any trade shall be found in you any longer. And the sound of the millstone shall never be heard in you any longer. ²³And the light of a lamp shall never shine in you any longer. And the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall never be heard in you any longer. For your merchants were the great ones of the earth—for by your magic arts all the nations were led astray. ²⁴And in her the blood of prophets and saints was found, and of all those who were killed upon the earth.

¹And after these things I heard a loud voice of a great multitude in Heaven, saying, Hallelujah [Häl-lě-loo'-yă], salvation and glory and honor and power to the Lord our God. ²For His judgments are true and righteous. For He judged the great harlot, who made the earth rotten with her fôr-nî-că'-tion. And He has avenged the blood of His servants at her hand. ³And a second time they said, Hallelujah. And her smoke goes up forever and ever. ⁴And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God who sits on the throne, saying, Amen—Hallelujah! ⁵And a voice out of the throne came forth, saying, Praise our God, all His servants, and you who fear Him, both the small and the great. ⁶And I heard as it were a voice of a great multitude, and as a sound of many waters, and as a sound of strong thunders, saying, Hallelujah! For the Lord God Almighty has ruled. ⁷Let us rejoice and shout for joy. And let us give glory to Him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready. ⁸And it was given to her that she should be clothed with fine linen, pure and bright—for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints. ⁹And he says to me, Write, Blessed are they who are called to the supper of the marriage of the Lamb. And he says to me, These are the true words of God. ¹⁰And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he says to me, See that you do not do it. For I am a fellow servant of you and of your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

¹¹And I saw Heaven opened. And behold, a white horse! And He who was sitting upon it is called Faithful and True. And He judges and makes war in righteousness. ¹²And His eyes were as a flame of fire, and upon His head were many crowns. And He had a name written which no one knows but Himself. ¹³And He was clothed in a robe dipped in blood. And His name is called, The Word of God. ¹⁴And the armies in Heaven were following Him upon white horses, clothed with fine linen, white and pure. ¹⁵And out of His mouth a sharp sword goes forth, in order that He might strike the nations with it. And He shall shepherd them with a rod of iron. And He treads the press of the wine of the fury and wrath of God Almighty. ¹⁶And He has upon His robe, and upon His thigh the name written, KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

¹⁷And I saw one angel standing in the sun. And he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds which fly in the midst of the sky, Come and gather yourselves to the supper of the great God, ¹⁸so that you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of chief captains, and the flesh of strong men, and the flesh of horses, and those who sit on them, and the flesh of all—free and slaves, and small and great.

¹⁹And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war with Him who sits on the horse, and with His army. ²⁰And the beast was taken, and the false prophet with him—the one who worked the miracles before him, by which he led astray those who received the mark of the beast, and those who worshipped his image. These two were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire, which burns with brimstone. ²¹And the rest were killed with the sword of Him who sits on the horse, the sword which goes forth out of His mouth. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

¹And I saw an angel coming down out of Heaven. And he had the key of the bottomless pit. and a great chain in his hand. ²And he laid hold of the dragon, the old serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and tied him up for a thousand years. ³And he threw him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal over him so that he should not lead the nations astray any longer—until the thousand years were fulfilled. And after these things he must be set free a little time.

⁴And I saw thrones. And they sat upon them. And judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who were beheaded because of their testimony to Jesus, and because of the word of God, and those who did not worship the beast, nor his image, and did not receive the mark upon their forehead, and upon their hand. And they lived and ruled with Christ the thousand years. ⁵But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years had been fulfilled. This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection — over these the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall rule with Him a thousand years. ⁷And when the thousand years have been fulfilled, Satan will be set free from his prison, ⁸and he will go out to lead astray the nations which are in the four corners of the earth — Gog and Magog — to gather them together to war, whose number is as the sand of the sea. ⁹And they went upon the breadth of the earth and circled around the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of Heaven and consumed them. ¹⁰And the devil who led them astray was thrown into the Lake of Fire and of Brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet were. And they shall be tormented day and night forever and ever.

¹¹And I saw a great white throne, and Him who sits upon it — from whose face the earth and the sky fled away, and no place was found for them. ¹²And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God. And books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged out of the things written in the books, according to their works. ¹³And the sea gave up the dead in it. And death and hell gave up the dead in them. And they were judged each according to their works. ¹⁴And death and hell were cast into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death. ¹⁵And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the Lake of Fire.

¹And I saw a new heaven and a new earth — for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away, and the sea is no more.

²And I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a bride made ready for her Husband. ³And I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying, Behold! The tabernacle of God is with men. And He shall dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them as their God. ⁴And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes. And there shall be no more death, or sorrow, or crying, nor shall there be pain any longer — because the former things are passed away. ⁵And He who sits upon the throne said, Behold! I make all things new. And He says to me, Write, because these words are true and faithful. ⁶And He said to me, It is done. I am the A and the Z, the Beginning and the End. To him that thirsts, I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely. ⁷He that overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be to him God, and he shall be to Me a son. ⁸But to fearful, and unbelieving, and hateful ones and murderers, and fôr-nî-câ'-tors, and users of magic arts, and worshippers of idols, and all liars, their part is in the Lake which burns with fire and brimstone — which is the second death.

⁹And one of the seven angels which had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came to me and spoke with me, saying, Come here. I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife. ¹⁰And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain. And he showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven from God. ¹¹And it has the glory of God, and her shining was like a most precious stone, even as a crystal-like jasper stone. ¹²And it also has a great and high wall, having twelve gates. And at the gates were twelve angels. And names were written on them, which are those of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel. ¹³On the east were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. ¹⁴And the wall of the city has twelve foundations; and on them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb were written. ¹⁵And he that was speaking with me had a golden reed, in order that he might measure the city, and its gates, and its wall. ¹⁶And the city is laid out as a square. And its length is as much as the width also. And he measured the city with the reed, and it was twelve thousand furlongs—the length and the width and the height of it are equal. ¹⁷And he measured its wall, a hundred and forty-four cubits, a measure of a man, that is, the angel's. ¹⁸And the wall was made of jasper. And the city was pure gold, like pure glass. ¹⁹And the foundations of the wall of the city were decorated with every precious stone. The first foundation was jasper. The second was sapphire [săf'-fîre]. The third was chalcedony [kăl'-sêe-dô'-nêe]. The fourth was emerald. ²⁰The fifth was sardonyx [săr'-dō-nîx]. The sixth was sār'-dî-ūs. The seventh was chrysolite [krîs'-ō-lite]. The eighth was beryl [ber'-il]. The ninth was topaz. The tenth was chrysoprasus [kri-sôp'-râ-sūs]. The eleventh was hy'-ă-cinth. The twelfth was amethyst [ăm'-ê-thîst]. ²¹And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each one of the gates in turn was one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like glass one can see through. ²²And I saw no temple in it—for the Lord God Almighty is its Temple, and the Lamb. ²³And the city has no need of the sun, nor of the moon, that they should shine in it—for the glory of God gave it light, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴And the nations of the ones who are saved shall walk in its light. And the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. ²⁵And its gates shall never be shut by day, for no night shall be there. ²⁶And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it. ²⁷And in no way may anything which is unclean, and which practices ä-bôm-ï-nâ'-tion and a lie, enter into it. But those who are written in the Book of Life of the Lamb may enter into it.

¹And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, going forth out of the throne of God and the Lamb. ²In the middle of its street, and of the river, on this side, and on that side, a tree of life was producing twelve fruits — yielding its fruit each month. And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. ³And there shall be no curse any more. And the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it. And His servants shall serve Him, ⁴and they shall see His face. And His name is on their foreheads. ⁵And no night shall be there. And they have no need of a lamp and of sunlight, because the Lord God gives them light. And they shall rule forever and ever.

⁶And he said to me, These words are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show His servants the things which must soon come to pass. ⁷Behold! I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book. ⁸And I, John, was he who was seeing and hearing these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who was showing me these things. ⁹And he says to me, See that you do not do it — for I am a fellow servant of you and of your brothers, the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God. ¹⁰And he says to me, Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near. ¹¹He that is unrighteous, let him be unrighteous still. And he that is filthy, let him be filthy still. And he that is righteous, let him be righteous still. And he that is holy, let him be holy still. ¹²And behold, I come quickly. And My reward is with Me — to give to each according as his work shall be. ¹³I am the A and the Z, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last. ¹⁴Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have a right to the tree of life, and that they should go into the city by the gates. ¹⁵But on the outside are the dogs, and the workers of magic arts, and the fôr-nî-cā'-tors, and the murderers, and the worshippers of idols, and everyone that loves and practices a lie.

¹⁶I, Jesus, sent My angel to testify these things to you for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the bright and Morning Star. ¹⁷And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And he that hears, let him say, Come. And he that thirsts, let him come — and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

¹⁸For I testify to everyone who is hearing the words of the prophecy of this book, If anyone should add to these things, God shall add to him the plagues which are written in this book. ¹⁹And if anyone should take from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the Book of Life, and out of the holy city, and of the things which are written in this book.

²⁰He who testifies these things says, Yes, I come quickly! Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

²¹The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Glossary of Terms
